Item where as in a ſtatute made the xvi. yeere of king Richard the ſeconde after the conqueſt, it was ordeined, that euery man of the realme might make and ſet to ſale and ſell clothes, as well karſeys as other, of ſuch length and breadth as him pleaſed, paying the aulnage, ſubſidie, and other deuoyrs, that is to ſaye of euery peece of cloth after the rate, notwithſtanding anie ſtatute, ordinance, proclamation, reſtreint or defence made to the contrarie. And that none ſell nor put to ſale anie clothes before they be meaſured by the kings aulneger, and enſealed with the ſeale thereunto ordeined, vpon peine conteined in the ſtatutes thereof made. And after in the ſtatute made, in the vii. yeere of king Henrie the iiii. graundfather of our ſoueraigne lord the king that nowe is, it was alſo ordeined, that the cloth of colour ſhould conteine in length xxviii. yards meaſured by the backe, and in breadth ſixe quarters and a halfe. And if the clothmakers ſhould make their clothes of leſſe length and bredth, they ſhould be forfeit to the king. And after by an other ſtatute made the xi. yeere of the ſaid king Henry the fourth it was ordeined, that proclamation ſhould be made openly through the realme, that no perſon making ſuch maner of clothes or dozens within ẏ realm, ſhould be ſo hardy to tacke and folde together ſuch maner of clothes before that the aulneger hath made his ſerche and ſurueying duely of the ſame clothes, that they holde their length and breadth ordeined by the ſaid laſt ſtatute, made the ſaide ſeuenth yeere, as in the ſame ſtatute is more fully conteined. Vpon which ſtatutes made in the time of the ſaide king Henrie the fourth diuers opinions haue beene holden in the kings eſcheker, as the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king hath conceiued by the complaint of the commons of his realme. Our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing to ceaſe ſuch opinions, of the aſſent and authoritie aboueſaid, hath declared, that this worde (cloth) in the ſaid ſtatutes before rehearſed, ſhall haue relation, and ſhall be vnderſtande of whole cloth called broad clothes and broad dozens, and not of other clothes and peeces of clothes called ſtreites now made or to be made. And moreouer hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that euery man may make, ſet to ſale, and ſell all manner of clothes called ſtreites concerning in length xiiii. yardes, and in the breadth one yarde vnwatered or otherwiſe xii. yardes watered, without impechement of anie officer of our ſoueraigne lord the king, paying to the king the aulnage, ſubſidie, cuſtomes, & other deuoyrs, that is to ſay, of euery cloth and of euery peace of cloth after the rate conteined in ẏ ſaid ſtatutes. And if the makers of the ſaide clothes called ſtreites, make anie clothes to ſell of leſſe length and bredth than next aboue is declared, that then it ſhall be lawfull to the aulneger to cut off the liſt at the one ende of all ſuch ſtraite clothes, not conteining the ſaid length, and the ſame to be ſolde for a remnant or a peece, and not for a cloth. And that no ſuch clothes be put to ſale, till the aulneger hath meaſured them, and made his ſearch, and put to them the kings ſeale thereto ordeined, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame. And if anie aulneger enſeale anie ſuch clothes called ſtraites, not conteining the length and bredth of the ſtraites aboue ſaid, and cut not off the liſt of all ſuch clothes that do not hold the ſaide length and bredth of the ſtraites, that then the ſaid aulneger ſhall pay to the king for euery peece of cloth ſo found defectiue vi.s.viii.d. except alwayes that all clothes called ſtraites made or to be made till the daie of the natiuitie of Saint Iohn the baptiſt next comming, ſhall haue licence to be ſolde and deliuered to the feaſt of Chriſtmas then next enſuing of whatſoeuer length and bredth they be.

Recogniſances.

Item where as diuers perſons within the realme of England in times paſt oftentimes haue beene taken and arreſted by diuers ſhirifes and other officers of our ſoueraigne lorde the king by writtes, as well going out of the chauncerie of our ſoueraigne lorde the king as of his noble progenitors, for to haue execution of diuers recogniſances made before the Maiors of the ſtaple of diuers ſommes, of which ſommes ſuch perſons, to whome the duitie belonged, had no conuenient remedie other then the ſaid executions, which perſons thereby taken and arreſted for execution of the ſame recogniſances, be oftentimes comen by diuers writtes de Corpus cum cauſa before the king in his chauncerie out of priſons, in the which they be ſo kept becauſe of ſuch executions, and there they do ſue, ſhewing forth diuers indentures and other things in defeſance of ſuch recogniſances, deſiring writtes of Scire facias to warne the partie or parties, at whoſe ſuite they be taken and arreſted, to aunſwere vpon the ſame. And thereupon, by ſuretie founde to the king in his chauncerie, haue beene deliuered out of priſon, notwithſtanding their ſaide arreſt for the executions of ſuch recogniſances, as aboue is ſaid, ne ſuretie founde to the recogniſees, to whome they be ſo bounde, to ſatiſfie them of their duetis, in caſe that the matters compriſed within the ſaid writs of Scire facias be not found nor adiudged for the recogniſours thereby bounde, whereby the ſaide recogniſées haue bene ſometime greatly delayed of their execution, and ſometime their execution vtterly loſt, and in time to come likely to be loſt, becauſe that no auantage nor auaile thereof might come be or growe to the ſaide recogniſees, to whome ſuch perſons be ſo bound, by the ſayde ſuretie ſo found to the king, becauſe that the ſame perſons ſo bounde by the kings pardon might be acquite and diſcharged for euer. Our ſoueraigne lorde the king, conſidering that the ſaid recogniſées, to whome perſons be bound, be oftentimes without remedie, if it ſo be the ſaide recogniſors would not purſue foorth their ſaid writs of Scire facias with effect, or otherwiſe, that the matters of their ſaid writs of Scire facias be found or adiudged againſt them, and thereupon they withdrawe them to places priuileged, or eloygne them out of the realm, or els they would not appeare, ſo that their bodies might be taken and put in execution, to the great hinderance and vndoing of ſuch recogniſées in time to come, and alſo becauſe that the king is inherited of the price of ſuch ſureties to himſelfe by the courſe of his chauncerie. The king will from hencefoorth, that ſuch ſureties be made ſeuerally as well to the king as to the partie.

Cap. 11.
Affray.
Parliament.
Councell Aſſault.

Item the king willing to prouide for the eaſe and tranquillitie of them that come to his parliaments and councels by his commaundement, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if anie aſſault or affray be made to anie lorde ſpirituall or temporall, knight of yͤ ſhire, citizen or burgeſſe comen to the parliament or to the councell of our ſoueraigne lord the king by his commaundement, and there being and attending to the parliament or councell of our ſoueraigne lord the king, that then proclamation ſhall be made in the moſt open place of the towne by the thrée ſeuerall dayes, where the affray was ſo made, that the party that made ſuch affray or aſſault, yéelde him before the king in his bench within a quarter of a yéere after the proclamation made, if it bee in the time of the terme, or otherwiſe at the next daie in the time of the terme following the ſaid quarter. And if he do not, that he be attainted of the ſaide déede, and pay to the partie gréeued his double dammages: to be taxed by the diſcretion of Juſtices of the ſame benche for the time being, or by enqueſt, if it be néedefull, and make fine and raunſome at the kings will. And if he come, and be found gyltie by enqueſt, by examination, or otherwiſe of ſuch affray or aſſault, then he ſhall paye to the partie thereby grieued his double dammages founde by the enqueſt, or to be taxed by the diſcretion of the ſaide Juſtices, and make fine and raunſome at the will of our ſoueraigne lord the king, as aboue is ſaide.

Cap. 12.
Warechandlers.

Item our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king hath conceiued by the complaint of his ſaide commons, that the ware chaundlers in diuers parties of Englande ſell candels, images and figures, and other workes of ware made for offrings, after the rate of a pounde of war for two ſhillings and more, where one pound of ware is no more woorth than vi. pence, or that they giue in euery pounde of ware ſo wrought xviii.d. and more, whereby diuers of the people be defrauded of their good entent and deuotion, ſuppoſing ſuch candels, images, and figures, and other workes to be of reaſonable valure according as they pay for the ſame, where they bee little or nought of valure. And forſomuch our ſoueraigne lorde the king willing for ſuch deſceites to prouide remedie conuenient, hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that no perſon ſell nor put to ſale any ſuch candels, images, figures, and other workes of war, at more higher price, but onely after the rate of the price of iiii.d. more in the weight of a pound ouer that the common price of a pounde of plaine ware is betwéene marchant and marchant at the time of ſuch ſale or putting to ſale, vpon paine to forfaite ſuch candels, images, figures and other workes of ware ſo put to ſale, and of the value of them that ſhall be ſolde againſt the forme of this ſtatute, and to make a fine to the king, if they be thereof duely attainted, or that it is found by examination or due ſerch by weightes or in other maner, that they haue ſolde or put to ſale anie ſuch candels, images, figures, or other workes of ware againſt the forme of this ſtatute. And that the Juſtices of peace in euery countie where they be Juſtices, ſhall haue power to enquire, heare, and determine all things done againſt this ſtatute. And that aſwell euery Juſtice of peace in the countie where he is Juſtice, as Maiors and bailiffes within cities and boroughes, ſtewardes of lordes within the franchiſes of their lordes, ſhal haue power and authoritie to examine and ſearch as well by weightes of ſuch candels, images, figures, and other workes of war as in other maner by their diſcretiou all them that anie thing ſhall hereafter do againſt this ſtatute. And to puniſh them that by ſuch examination or ſearch ſhall be found gyltie in the forme aboueſaid. Prouided that this ſtatute do not extend to hearces to be made for the nobles that do dye.

Juſtices of peace.

Cap. 13.
Wolles.
Wolfelles & tynne.
Bullyon.

Item our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king, for the wealth of him & his roialme, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the ſaide lordes, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of his ſaid commons, hath ordeined, that the good ordinance and ſtatute made the viii. yéere of his reigne, that is to ſay, that the wolles and wolfelles and tynne, repairing and comming to the ſtaple of Caleys, ſhall be ſold for readie money to be paide in hand. And that the bullion be brought in his mynt there, that is to ſay, of euery ſarpler of wolle ſolde for twelue marke and aboue vi. pound of bullyon. And of euery ſarpler of wolle ſold vnder twelue markes. v. pound of bullyon. And that lawfull and due partition bee made, according to the ordinance there at this time, to endure from the feaſt of the Annuntiation of our ladie next to come, till the ende of thrée yéeres then next enſuing. Sauing allwayes to our ſoueraigne lord the king power and authoritie to modifie the ſame ſtatute when him pleaſe, by the aduiſe of his councell, as ſhall ſéeme beſt to him for the profite of him and of his realme.

Cap. 14.

Item where as the cuſtomes and ſubſidies graunted to our ſoueraigne lorde the king be alloined and withdrawen, as well for lacke of good ſearch in the portes & creekes within the realme of Englande, as by other craftie imaginations of diuerſe perſons, carieng marchandiſes of the ſtaple of Caleis againſt the forme of the ſayde ſtatutes thereof prouided and ordeined. Our ſouereigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and auctoritie aboueſaide, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that none vpon paine of felonie bring, carie, nor ſhip, nor cauſe to be brought, caried, nor ſhipped, anie ſuch marchandiſes of the ſtaple in anie creekes within his realme of Englande, againſt the ordinaunce aboueſaide. And this ſtatute to endure till the end of three yeeres next enſuing and no longer.

Marchandiſes of the ſtaple.

Marchants. Cuſtomers and controllers.

Item for as much as our ſouereigne lorde the king by a protection to him deliuered in the ſame parliament, by the commons of the ſame, for the marchauntes of the realme, hath perceiued, that for as much that the cuſtomers and controllers in the kinges portes doe not write anie warrantes in diſcharge of the ſaide marchaunts of their marchandiſes by them ſhewed and duelie cuſtomed, ſome as well comming in the realme, as paſſing out of the ſame, the ſame cuſtomers and controlles doe embeſill the kings cuſtomes, and the marchauntes be greatlie hindered, by cauſe that the warrantes might plainlie ſhew & declare their due cuſtome, when they be often vndulie impeached in the kinges eſchequer. The ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king conſidering the ſaide diſceites, by the aduiſe, aſſent, and auctoritie aboueſaide hath ordeined, that the ſaide cuſtomers and controllers ſhall write and deliuer ſufficient warrantes, ſealed with the ſeale of their office to that ordeined, to the ſaide marchauntes, and to euerie of them, for all and euerie of their marchaundiſes euerie time by them to the cuſtomers and controllers duelie ſhewed. And that the ſaide marchaunts nor none of them, ſhall anie thing paie for the ſaide warrantes, but onelie their due cuſtome. And in caſe that anie cuſtomer or controller, in anie of the ſaide portes doe the contrarie, that then euerie marchaunt ſo greeued maie haue an action by vertue of this ordinaunce, to purſue againſt euerie cuſtomer or controller that doeth the contrarie in euerie court of record. And then euerie cuſtomer or controller ſo attainted, ſhall forfeit to the king for euerie default. x.l. And to the marchant thereby greeued that will ſue, a hundred ſhillings.

Cuſtomer. Blanke cokets.

Item for as much as our moſt redoubted ſouereigne lorde the king is greatlie diſceiued of his cuſtomes & ſubſidies, of that the cuſtomers of the ſaid portes within the realme do ſeale blanke ſcrowes in parchmint, called blanke cokets, with their ſeales deputed to their offices, and them ſo ſealed doe deliuer to the marchauntes, for to enter and write in them their goods and marchaundiſes going out of the realme to the parties beyonde the ſea, the king not anſwered nor paied of his cuſtomes and ſubſidies of ſuch goodes and marchandiſes. It is ordeined, by the aduiſe and auctoritie aboueſayde, that if anie cuſtomer ſeale anie ſuch blanke ſcrowe with the ſeale aſſigned to his office, or if anie marchaunt enter or write, or cauſe to be entered or written in ſuch blanke ſcrowe or charter ſo ſealed, his goods or marchandiſes, thereby to defraude our ſouereigne lorde the king of his cuſtomes and ſubſidies, then as well the ſame cuſtomer as the marchant ſhall be iudged to forfet all his goodes and cattalles, as they ſhoulde forfet in caſe of felonie. And that they and euerie of them ſhall haue the impriſonment of three yeeres. And this act ſhall endure by three yeeres next enſuing after the feaſt of ſaint Hillarie next comming.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, the xiiii. yeere of the reigne of King Henrie the ſixth.

OUr ſouereigne lorde king Henrie the ſixth, after the conqueſt, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the tenth daie of October, the xiiii. yeere of his reigne, by the aduiſe & aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, & at the ſpeciall requeſt of the commons of the realme, being in the ſame parliament hath done to be made diuers ſtatutes and ordinances, to the honour of God, and for the wealth of him and of his realme, in the forme following.

Iuſtices. Niſi prius.

FIrſt our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king hath ordeined by auctority of the ſaid parliament, that the iuſtices, before whom inquiſitions, enqueſtes, and iuries from henceforth ſhall be taken by the kings writ called Niſi prius, according to the forme of the ſtatute thereof made, haue power of all the caſes of felonie, and of treaſon, to giue their iudgementes, as well where a man is acquit of felonie or of treaſon, as where he is thereof attainted, at the daie & place where the ſaid inquiſitions, enqueſtes and iuries be ſo taken, and then from thenceforth to awarde execution to be made by force of the ſame iudgements.

Chap. 2.

Wolles. Wolfels.

Bullion.

Item for as much as the great number, quantitie, and ſubſtance of the wolles growing in the realme of Englande by theſe three yeeres paſſed by ſhippe and in great isopardie and doubte come to the towne of Caleis, there to be ſolde for redie monie, whereof it behoueth the ſayde marchauntes ſellers to receiue vpon euerie ſarpler a certeine of bullion, to bee brought to the kinges mint at Caleis, the which readie monie & bullion after that they bee forged and coined, and receiued by the ſaid marchaunts ſellers, ought dulie & equally to be diſtributed & departed to euerie one after his portion, to be ſent into this realme, for the encreaſe and vniuerſall weale of the ſame, by vertue of certeine ſtatutes made in the ſame parliament holden at Weſtminſter the eight yere of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, and renewed in the parliament holden the eleuenth yeere of his reigne, which ſtatutes be ſtraitelie obſerued and kept, as by ſuch perſons, which by vndue meanes do ſhip wolles in the creekes and other ſuſpicious places, and alſo in diuerſe portes of the realme, and them carie to other places then to Caleis and alſo by ſuch perſons, which in derogation of the vniuerſall weale of the realme, and in deſtruction of the good ordinance of partition, and in abatement of the price of wolles, doe purchaſe licences for their ſingular auaile to ſhippe wolles to Caleis, there to be ſolde before all other wolles there being, & be not bound to keepe the price, nor to receiue no bullion, nor to make partition nor diſtribution of their monie, in maner as all marchantes of England there repairing be ſtraitlie bound to doe by ſtatute aforeſaide, by reaſon whereof the ſaide marchantes by the meanes and licences aforeſaide be in point to be deſtroyed, the ſaide ſtaple to be diſſeuered and deſtroied, and conſequentlie the ſaide towne of Caleis, which by the ſaid ſtaple hath hitherto bene greatlie mainteined & inforced, is like to be vndone and loſt, and the ſaid realme in point to be greatlie hindered and hurt, as the ſame our ſouereigne lord the king hath conceiued by the greeuous complaint to him made in the ſame parliament by the commons of the ſame. Therefore the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king, willing for the ſame in this caſe to prouide a remedie, by the aduiſe of the ſaide lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſupplication of the ſaid commons, hath ordeined in the ſame parliament, that no ſuch licence which is ſo preiudiciall and contrary to the common and vniuerſall weale of his realme, and of his ſaide marchants, and in deſtruction of the ſaid towne, and the ſaid ordinance or partition, and of the price of yͤ wolles, ſhall in no wiſe be granted. And that euery man which ſhippeth or doe to be ſhipped any wolles or wolfelles, to carie them ouer the ſea in anie wiſe, ſhall repaire with the ſame to Caleis, and there diſcharge and ſell the ſaid wolles and wolfelles, after the tenour of the ſaide ſtatutes and after the good rule and ordinance of the ſaid ſtaple, in maintenance and ſuſtentation of the ſame, releefe and increaſe of the ſayde towne of Caleis, and for the publike weale of this his realme of Englande. Sauing alwaies to our ſouereigne lorde the king power and auctoritie to modifie the ſame ſtatute when it ſhall pleaſe him, by aduiſe of his councell, according as to him beſt ſhall ſeeme for the profite of him and of his realme of Englande. Sauing alſo to the marchauntes of Ieane, Venice, Tuſkaine, Lumbardie, Florence, and Cateloine, and alſo of the burgeſes of Barwike vpon Twede, the liberties to them graunted by a ſtatute heretofore, and to all other the kings liege people the benefite of licence to them graunted by the king by the aduiſe of his councell.

Chap. 3.

Seſſions.

Cumberland.

Karlile.

Item where as by a ſtatute made in the time of king Richarde the ſeconde it was ordeined, that the iuſtices aſſigned and to be aſſigned to take aſſiſes and deliuer iayles, ſhall holde their ſeſſions in their principall & cheefe townes of ſingular the counties, that is to ſaie, where as the ſhire courtes of the counties heretofore were and hereafter ſhall be holden. Our ſouereigne lorde the king, willing the ſame ſtatute to be obſerued and kept in the countie of Cumberlande, conſidering that the citie of Karlile is the principall and cheefe citie and towne of the ſaide countie, and in the which the ſhire courte of the ſame countie hath bene holden before this time, hath graunted and ordeined by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, that the ſeſſion of the iuſtices to take aſſiſes and to deliuer the iayles in the countie of Cumberland, be holden in time of peace and of treuce in the ſaide citie of Karlile, and in none other place within the ſame countie, as it hath bene vſed and accuſtomed of olde time.

Chap. 4.

Iuſtices of peace.

Middelſex

Seſſions.

Item for as much as it was ordeined by a ſtatute, that the iuſtices of peace of all the counties of Englande for the time being, ſhoulde ſit and holde their ſeſſions foure times by yeere, to enquire and execute all charges conteined in their commiſſion, which they be ſworne to doe after the forme of the ſayde ſtatute, vpon a great paine, as by the ſame ſtatute more fullie appeareth. Our ſouereigne lord the king, conſidering that all the hie courtes be ſet and holden in the countie of Middelſex continuallie during all the foure times of the terme, by which time of terme the commons inhabiting in and of the ſame countie, muſt attend from time to time to inquire of all the articles to the ſaide courtes belonging, as reaſon and lawe requireth, and that maintenant after euery of the ſaid termes ended, the ſaid iuſtices of the ſaide county ſhould ſit & hold their ſeſſions in the ſame countie, as they ought to do by force of the ſaid ſtatute, more to auoid yͤ ſaid paine then for any other neceſſary thing there to be enquired, at which ſeſſions they doe come before them great part of the inhabitants & commoners of the ſaid county of Middelſex, to enquire of all maner of things, as to them is giuen in charge. And ſo be they charged and vexed through all the yeere, as well out of the time of terme as in the time of the terme, ſo that they haue no reſt nor time to doe their huſbandrie and their labour to get their liuing in anie wiſe, to their finall deſtruction, if they be not ſuccoured in this behalfe. And the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king, willing therefore in this caſe to prouide for them a remedie, hath ordeined by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaide, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons of the realme, that the iuſtices of peace, which nowe be, and all other from hence forth for the time being in the ſaide countie of Middelſex, ſhall be clerely diſcharged of the ſaide paine by auctoritie of the ſame parliament from henceforth, the courte of the kinges bench being ſet in the countie of Middelſex. Prouided alwaies that the ſaide iuſtices of peace of the ſaide countie of Middelſex for the time being, kepe, obſerue, and execute the courte of the ſeſſions of the peace two times in the yeere at the leaſt, and more often if neede, for anie riot or forcible intree made within the ſame countie of Middelſex, and that vpon the paine and forfeture of ſuch ſummes as be for that ordeined by anie law made before this time, to the intent that the ſaid commons and inhabitantes of the ſaide countie of Middelſex be not conſtrained nor compelled to appeare before the iuſtices of peace of the ſame countie for the time being but at ſuch time which ſhall ſéeme by the diſcretions of the ſame Iuſtices of peace neceſſarie and néedefull.

Cap. 5. Serche. Wolles wolfels &c.

Item it was ſhewed to our ſoueraigne lord the king by the commons of the ſame parliament, that as well becauſe of vndue ſerch made within the portes and creekes within the realme vpon diuers perſons, which by ſubtile imaginations and meanes do ſhip wolles & wolfelles and diuers other marchandiſes, which ought to repaire to the ſtaple of Caleys, and them carrie and bring to diuers other parties beyonde the ſea, without paying cuſtome, againſt the tenor of the ſtatutes thereof made and ordeined, by the which meanes the cuſtomes and ſubſidies graunted to the king be greatly appaired and decayed. It was ordeined by the king and all the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſame parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xi. yéere of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, that none vpon paine of felonie ſhoulde carrie nor ſhip any ſuch marchandiſes of the ſtaple in anie créekes within the ſaide realme, againſt the ordinance aforeſaid, neuertheleſſe diuerſe perſons, hauing no feare of the ſaide ſtatute, cuſtomably ſhip as well in the portes as in the créekes aforeſaid by vndue meanes, notable ſubſtance of wolles, wolfelles, and of other marchaundiſes of the ſtaple, and them carrie into Flaunders, Holland, Sealand, Brabant, and Normandie, without paying anie cuſtome for the ſame. And moreouer, diuers perſons do ſhip cuſtomablie wolles and wolfelles in diuers parties of the realme of England, which be coketted and cuſtomed to go to Caleys, and come not there, but the ſame wolles & wolfelles carrie into the other parties aforeſaid, contrarie to the ſtatute thereof ordeined, by the which vntrue meanes the king is greatly endamnaged and defrauded of his cuſtomes and ſubſidies, and the ſaid ſtaple within ſhort time in point to be cléerely deſtroyed, the towne of Caleys impoueriſhed and deſtroyed, and the realme not encreaſed. Our ſoueraigne lorde the king, conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordeined by the ſtatute aforeſaid, that all the wolles and wolfelles, and all other marchandiſes, which by ſtatute ought to repaire to the ſaid ſtaple, found in anie créekes, ſhipped contrary to the ſaide ſtatute & ordinances, ſhall be forfeit to our ſoueraigne lord the king. And moreouer that euery perſon, which at anie time ſhip or do to be ſhipped any maner of wolles wolfelles, or anie other marchandiſes to go to the ſtaple aforeſaid, and come not there, ſhall forfeit as much goods as the wolles, wolfelles, and other marchaundiſes, by them ſo ſhipped and caried to other places than to Caleys, doe amount, by extent after the very value, except the marchandiſes, which be to be excepted to paſſe by the kings licence to other places. Reſerued alwayes to the king the whole moitie of ſuch forfeitures, which be coketted and cuſtomed to go to Caleys, and come not there, as afore is ſaid. And to them which finde and ſeaſe the marchandiſes, the other moitie, without anie diminution or impediment. And if anie perſon put anie wolles, wolfelles, or anie other marchandiſe of the ſtaple to anie ſuſpicious place, adioyning to the coaſtes of the water, in whatſoeuer place that it be, and no Indenture thereof made betwixt him and the Maior, bailife or conſtable of the towne, in the which ſuch wolles, wolfelles, and other marchandiſes of the ſtaple be ſo put, that then the ſame wolles, wolfelles, & marchandiſes be forfeit. And that the king haue the one moitie of all ſuch forfeitures, and the lorde of the towne where ſuch marchandiſes be ſo put, and he which them find, & ſeiſe, the other moitie, to be equally betwixt them departed. And that euerie man haue power by authoritie aforeſaid to make ſerch in euery place vpon ſuch goods of the ſtaple ſo carried or ſhipped, or put to be ſhipped, as afore is ſaide, without impediment or diſturbance of anie perſon.

Cap. 6. Fiſh.

Item our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king is enformed by the ſaide commons, how in the ſtatute made the vi. yéere of king Richard the ſeconde late king of England it was ordeined and accorded, that euerie forreine and alien, being of the amitie of our ſoueraigne lorde the king and of the realme, and comming within the citie of London and other cities, boroughes, and townes within the ſaide realme of Englande, as well within fraunchiſes as without, with fiſh and anie other vitailes, there abyding and returning, ſhoulde bee from henceforth vnder the ſaufegarde and ſpeciall protection of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, and that it ſhall be lawfull to them and to euery of them, that they may cut fiſh and vitailes aforeſaid by péeces, and to taile and retaile them in parte and in whole or in groſſe, as they ſhall thinke beſt to ſell and make their profite, without impechement or contradiction of anie, notwithſtanding anie ſtatutes, charters, ordinances, priuileges, or cuſtomes made or had to the contrarie. And vpon that by a ſtatute made the firſt yere of king Henrie the fourth it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaide ſtatute and ordinance, made the ſaide vi. yéere, ſhoulde be firmely holden and kept, and duely executed after the forme and effect of the ſame, notwithſtanding anie letters patents of late graunted to the fiſhmongers of the citie of London, as in the ſaide ſtatute, which ſtatute was made the ſaide firſt yéere, fully appéereth: by the ſupplication of the commons aforeſaide hath made ordeined and ſtabliſhed, by authoritie aforeſaide, that the ſaide ſtatutes ſhall be firmely holden and kept, anie other ſtatutes, or ordinances made to the contrarie notwithſtanding. Ioyned to the ſame, that if anie man diſturbe anie forreine or alien to ſell their fiſh in groſſe or at retaile, in parte or in whole, contrarie to the ſaid ordinances, and of that be duely attainted, at the ſuite of the king or of the partie, that then he ſhall forfeit x.li. And he that will ſue for our ſoueraigne lord the king, or for himſelfe, ſhall haue the one halfe, and the king the other halfe. And ſuch ſuite ſhall be taken for anie offence don in the citie of London againſt the ſaide ordinance, for him which will ſue for our ſoueraigne lorde the king, or for himſelfe, in what countie that pleaſeth him of the counties of Middleſex, Hertford, Eſſex, Kent, Surrey, or in the citie of London.

Cap. 7. Aliens. Ships.

Item our ſoueraigne lorde the king, conſidering by the greeuous complaint to him made by the ſaid commons, how that the aliens of the kings amitie do frayte and charge the ſhippes and other veſſels of the enemies of our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king of Spaine, which thing doth ſupporte and greatly enforce the money of the ſaid enemies, and alſo it is the ſtronger meane that enforceth them of the Rochel, and diuers other of the kings aduerſaries. And if it happen, that anie ſhippes or veſſels of the ſaid enimies, with anie marchandiſes ſo charged be taken by the kinges liege people vpon the ſea, the ſaide aliens of the amitie aforeſaide, by colour of falſe charters, doubles, letters, markes, counterfeited, and falſe witneſſes of their nation, claime and demaund the goods and marchandiſes of the ſaide enemies, ſo taken vpon the ſea, as their proper goods, & the ſame goods and marchandiſes be reſtored, to the great hinderance of them which they haue taken, and abaſhment of the courage of the ſaide liege people: And forſomuch our ſoueraigne lord the king willing therefore to prouide remedie, hath graunted and ordeined by authoritie aforeſaide, in ſo much that it is not contrarie to the league made betwixt him and ſome of his alies, that if it happen, that anie marchandiſes of the aliens of the amitie aforeſaid be taken by the ſaid lieges after the feaſt of ſaint Michael the archangel next comming, or anie ſhippes or veſſels of the ſaide enimies of our ſoueraigne lord the king, not being vnder the kings ſaufeconduit or protection, that then the ſaide lieges may them retaine and enioy without anie impechement or reſtitution thereof to be made, and this ordinance ſhall endure by iii. yeeres next enſuing, and longer if it pleaſe our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king.

Cap. 8. Truce. Saufeconductes.

Item where as it was declared and ordeined by a ſtatute made the ſecond yeere of king Henry the v. for aſmuch as before the ſaid ordinance diuers people, compriſed within the truce, aſwell made by the ſaide late king as by his father, graundfather to the king that nowe is, and other alſo hauing ſaufeconduits, aſwel of the ſaide late king Henry the v. father to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, as of his ſaid graundfather, ſome haue beene ſlaine, robbed and ſpoyled, by the kings liege people and ſubiectes, aſwell vpon the maine ſea, as within the portes and coaſtes of the ſea of the realme of England, Ireland, and of Wales, whereby the ſaid truce and ſaufeconduites haue beene broken and offended, to the great diſhonor and ſlaunder of the king, and againſt his dignitie, and the ſaid manſleers, robbers, ſpoylers, and offenders of the ſaid truce and the kings ſaufeconduites, as afore is declared, haue beene by diuers the kings lieges and ſubiectes within the coaſtes of diuers counties receiued, abetted, procured, counſelled, hyred, ſuſteined, and maintained: that ſuch ſleying, robberie, breaking of ſuch truce and the kings ſaufeconduites, and wilful receit, abettement, procurement, counſell, hyre, ſuſteinance, and mainteinance of ſuch perſons to be made in time to come, by anie of the kings lieges and ſubiectes within the realme of England, of Ireland, and of Wales, or vpon the maine ſea, ſhall be adiudged and determined for high treaſon, done againſt the crowne and the kings dignitie: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the paines conteined and ſpecified in the ſaid ſtatute be ſo rigorous and grieuous againſt his liege people and ſubiectes, and them ſo ſtraitly do bynde, that the kings aduerſaries and enimies be greatly encouraged and comforted to make warre againſt the ſaid liege people: and many of the ſaid liege people and ſubiectes, aſwell vpon the maine ſea and coaſtes of the ſea, as in the marches of the realme of England, often times haue beene ſome robbed, and ſome ſpoyled, and ſome ſlayne, whereby manie of the ſame lieges, inhabiting in the marches and coaſtes aforeſaide, be greatly hindered and impoueriſhed, and in point to be finally deſtroyed. And the mariners and marchants of the king to paſſe vpon the ſea with their ſhippes and veſſels with their marchandiſes, or otherwiſe to make warre for the ſafegarde of the ſea, be greatly diſcouraged and abaſhed, and the nauie of the realme in point to be deſtroyed, and the ſaide marchants cleerely diſcomfited, to do to be renewed anie ſhips or veſſels: hath ordeined, by the aduiſe, aſſent and authoritie aforeſaid, that none of the ſaid lieges and ſubiectes of the king, by force of the ſaid ſtatute, for nothing by him attempted, done or to be done, againſt the forme and tenor of the ſaid ſtatute, within vii. yeeres next enſuing after the ſaide tenth daie of October be in anie wiſe puniſhed, impeched, moleſted, or greeued, by force of the ſaid ſtatute, nor ſhall incurre no peine for the ſame, otherwiſe than he ought before the making of the ſaide ſtatute. But that he, his heires and executors of all things & peines conteined and ſpecified in the ſaide ſtatute, as by force of the ſame ſtatute, becauſe of anie offence don during the time aforeſaid againſt our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king his heires and ſucceſſors, be cleerely quit and diſcharged for euer.

Treaſon.

Cap. 1. Stewards and Marſhals of the kings houſe.

AT the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xxi. daie of Ianuary, the xv. yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the vi. after the conqueſt, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the commons of the realme. Firſt becauſe that the ſtewardes and marſhals of the kinges houſe and their deputies, before this time haue holden before them plees of Det, Detinue, and other pleas perſonall moued betwixt people, which were not of the ſame houſe, making mention in their recordes, that the plaintifes and defendants of the ſame plees were of the ſaid houſe, and do not allowe to the parties defendants in the ſame plees their challenges and exceptions by them alleged, that they themſelues or the plaintifes in the ſame ſuites be not of the ſame houſes, againſt the lawes & ſtatutes before this time had and made, whereby diuers of the kinges liege people in his court holden before the ſaide ſtewardes and marſhalles, oftentimes againſt the lawe be grieuouſly vexed and troubled, to their great dammage and hinderance: Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordeined by authoritie of the ſame parliament, that in euery ſuretie from henceforth by the ſaid defendants to be taken, they ſhall not be eſtopped by ſuch record, to ſay that they themſelues or the plaintifes in the ſame record ſpecified were not at the time of the ſaide plee or ſuite thereof commenced of the kings houſe, as by the ſame recorde is ſuppoſed, but the defendants ſhall haue their auerment, to ſay that they themſelues or the ſaid plaintifes were not of the ſame houſe at the time of ſuch plee or ſuite commenced. The ſaide record or other matter within the ſame conteined notwithſtanding.

Cap. 2. Corne.

Item for as much as by the lawe it was ordeined, that no man might carrie nor bring corne out of the realme of England without the kings licence, for cauſe whereof fermors and other men which vſe manurement of their land, may not ſell their corne but of a bare price, to the great dammage of all the realme: Our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king, willing in this caſe to prouide remedie, hath ordeined by authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawful to euery perſon to carry and bring corne out of England, and the ſame to ſell to what ſo euer perſon that he will, except al only to the kings enimies, as often and as long as a quarter of wheat or barley is ſo ſhipped: And that without ſuing anie licence for the ſame. Al other ſtatutes before this time thereof made to the contrary notwithſtanding. Prouided alwayes, that the king be contented of his cuſtomes and money. And this ordinance ſhall endure till the next parliament.

Cap. 3. Saufeconduct. Vidimus.

Item where as our ſoueraigne lorde the king of late hath graunted his letters of ſaufeconduit to certeine perſons, to come and go in and out of the realmes and ſeigniories of England, Fraunce, and Irelande, with certeine number of ſhippes charged with their marchaundiſes, And that faith and credence ſhould aſwell be giuen to the copie called (Vidimus) ſealed vnder the ſeales autentique and approued, as to the originall of the ſaid letters: one John the Guntier, one of the perſons aforeſaid, graunted and deliuered the Vidimus of the ſaide ſaufeconduit to ſuch and to as manie as him pleaſed, ſealed vnder the ſeale of him that calleth himſelfe king of Fraunce, vnder the colour of which Vidimus, a great nauie of the partie aduerſarie was aſſembled, and did take many ſhippes, and the kings liege people and vitaile to the townes and fortreſſes of the parties aduerſaries, to the great dammage of the king and of the liege people aforeſaid, as our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, at the grieuous complaint to him made by the ſaid commons in the ſaide parliament, hath perceiued: The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the great inconueniences, which might fall by ſuch and other, which do euil vſe his letters of ſaufeconduit, and that vnder colour of ſuch Vidimus, a whole nauie of aduerſaries may be coloured, and daily to vitayle ſtuffe, and to refreſh their partie, in great dammage of his realmes, and ſpecially of the realme of England: will and hath commaunded, by the authoritie aforeſaids, to the keepers of his great and priuie ſeale, that they ſhall not ſuffer ſuch clauſe Vidimus, to be put in anie ſaufeconduit from henceforth to be granted, vnleſſe it ſo be, that ſome great or notable cauſe or matter moue ẏ ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king to grant the ſame in ſuch wiſe. And will alſo, that in al ſaufeconduits to be granted from henceforth to anie perſon or perſons, the names of them of the ſhips and of the maiſters & the number of the mariners, with the portage of the ſhips, ſhall be expreſſed.

Cap. 4. Sub pena.

Item for aſmuch as diuers perſons haue before this time beene greatly greeued by writtes of sub pena, purchaſed for matters determinable by the common law of this land, to the great dammage of ſuch perſons ſo vexed, in ſubuerſion and impediment of the common law aforeſaid: Our ſoueraigne lord the king will, that the ſtatutes thereof made ſhall be kept after the forme & effect of the ſame. And that no writ of sub pena be granted from henceforth, till ſuretie be found to ſatiſfie the partie ſo greeued and vexed for his dammages and expences, if ſo be that the matter may not be made good, which is conteined in the bill.

Cap. 5. Enqueſtes Periurie. Iurors. Attaint.

Item our ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering that the triall of life and of death, landes, & tenements, goods and cattals of euery perſon of his liege people of this realme, touching matters in deede by the law of the ſame realme, remaine and ſtande and daily is verie likely to be had and made by the othes of enqueſts of xii. men duely ſummoned in his courtes, and alſo that the great periurie, which horribly continueth and daily encreaſeth in the common iurors of the ſaide realme and to the greateſt miſchiefe, which may fall to the ſaid realme, and that it is to be ſuppoſed, by reaſon that the more ſufficient that men be of lands and tenements, the more vnlikely they be to be drawen or moued to periurie by brocage power or corruption, and that in euerie action and writte of Attaint, at the leaſt there muſt be xiiii. defendants, vnles that death of anie cauſe the contrarie, of which xiiii. defendants euerie perſon by the law may haue a ſeuerall plee and anſwere, triable in whatſoeuer countie that him pleaſeth of the ſaid realme & euerie of the ſame xiiii. plees and anſwers triable out of the countie, in which the action and writ of Attaint is ſued, doth cauſe the delay of the taking of the grand iurie of attaint, till the time that euerie of the ſaid forreines ſeuerall anſwers be tried. And though that all theſe xiiii. ſeuerall anſwers and plees, euerie one after other, to cauſe more delayes, be pleaded, tried, and found againſt theſe xiiii. defendants, they them ſelfe haue no preiudice by the ſame, nor the pleintifes in the ſaid actions and writs of Attaint none other auantage, but the kings court then to proceede to the taking of the ſaid grand iurie, which by ſubtiltie, which daily encreaſeth, may cauſe the delay of the plaintifes in the ſaid actions and writtes of Attaint by x.yeeres or more by common eſtimation: hath ordeined by authoritie aforeſaid, for part of the remedie of the ſaid miſchiefe, that no ſhirife, bailife of franchiſe nor coroner in actions or writtes of Attaint of plee of lande, of the yeerely valor of xl.s. or more, nor action of Attaint of deedes concerning landes or tenementes of like value or more, nor perſonall, whereof the iudgement of the recouerie ſhall extend to the ſumme of xl.li. or more ſhall returne nor impanell in any inquiſition nor enqueſt, no perſons, but ſuch as be inhabiting within his bailiwike, which haue eſtate to their own vſe, or they to whoſe vſe other perſons haue eſtate of fee ſimple, fee taile, or freehold in lands and tenements, of the yeerely value of xx.li. or more in his bailiwike, out of auncien demeane, the v.ports, and the tenure of Gauelkind, nor ſhall not returne in the kinges court leſſe iſſues in the ſaid actions of attaint than xl.s. at the firſt writ of diſtreſſe, and an C.s. at the ſeconde writ of diſtreſſe, and the double of euery other writ of diſtreſſe againſt the perſons impanelled and returned to be ſworne in the ſame actions. And that no perſon of leſſe ſufficiencie of freehold, than of the yeerely value of xx.li. in the forme aforeſaide, ſhall be ſworne in the kings court vpon anie iſſue in the ſaid actions of Attaint, if he be for the ſame by the plaintifes in due forme challenged.

Shirife.
Coroner.

And that alſo as often as anie ſhirife, bailif of franchiſe or coroner do contrarie to this ordinance, he ſhall pay, and by this ſtatute be bounde to pay to the king x.li. and to the plaintifes in the ſaide actions and writtes of attaint for their delay other x.li. And if anie of the forreine anſweres and plees be tried and founde againſt anie of the ſaide defendants, that then the ſame iudgementes againſt the ſame defendants, and for the ſaid plaintifes, ſhall be giuen by the kings iuſtices & conſideration of his courtes, as by the lawe ſhould be giuen againſt the ſame defendants, in caſe that the graund iury in the ſaid actions and writtes of attaint vpon the points and articles of the ſame writtes paſſed againſt the ſame defendants, and with the ſaide plaintifes. And that by the ſame iudgements none other of the ſaide defendants but they, againſt whome the aforeſaide forreine anſwers and plees be found and tryed, ſhall be hurt or indammaged. And that this ſtatute touching the office of ſhirife, bailife of franchiſe and coroner, in returning of the ſaide perſons of the ſufficiencie of freehold of the yeerely value of xx. li. and that no perſon of leſſe ſufficiencie of freehold be ſworne in the ſaid actions and writs of Attaint, ſhall not extend to cities & boroughes, within the ſaid realme to the inhabitants in the ſame. Prouided alwayes that if anie of the ſaide counties there be not perſons inhabiting vnder the eſtate of a baron, of poſſeſſion of lands and tenements of the yerely value of xx.li. in the ſame countie, in the forme aforeſaid, to ſuffice the number to be empanelled and returned in the ſaid actions and writs of Attaint, that then the ſhirifes and bailifes of franchiſes and coroners of the ſame countie, ſhall impanel and returne in the ſame actions and writs perſons there inhabiting, of the moſt ſufficient of poſſeſſion of yeerely value of lands and tenements within the value of xx.li. in the ſame countie, in the forme aforeſaid And that to ſuch perſons the ſaide challenge extend not, that he is not of poſſeſſion of landes and tenements of the yeerely valor of xx.li. in the ſame countie. And that as often as anie of the ſame ſhirifes, bailifes, or coroners do contrarie to this preſent article, he ſhal pay to the king x.li. and to the pleintifes x.li. in the forme aforeſaid.

Cap.6.
Guyld.
Fraternitie.
Companie

Item where as the maiſters wardens and people of the guyldes, fraternities and other companies incorporate, dwelling in diuers partſes of the realme, oftentimes by colour of rule and gouernance and other termes in generall wordes to them graunted and confirmed by charters and letters patents of the kings progenitors, make them ſelues manie vnlawfull and vnreaſonable ordinances aſwell of manie ſuch things, whereof the coniſance, puniſhment and correction alonely perteineth to the king, lordes of franchiſes, and other perſons, & whereby our ſoueraigne lorde the king and other be diſherited of their profites and fraunchiſes, as of things, which oftentimes in confederacie is made for their ſinguler profite, and common dammage to the people: The ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the prayer of the commons aforeſaid, hath ordeined by authoritie of the ſame parliament, that the maiſters, wardens, and people of euery ſuch guylde, fraternitie, or companie incorporate, betwixt this and the feaſt of ſaint Michael next comming, ſhall bring and do all their letters patentes and charters to be regiſtred of recorde before the Iuſtices of peace in the counties, or before the chiefe gouernors of the ſaide cities, boroughes, and townes, where ſuch guylds, fraternities and companies be. And moreouer hath ordeined and defended, by the authoritie aforeſaide, that from henceforth no ſuch maiſters, wardens, nor people make nor vſe no ordinance which ſhall be to the diſheriſon or diminution of the kings fraunchiſes, or of other, nor againſt the common profite of the people nor none other ordinance of charge, if it be not firſt diſcuſſed and approued for good and reaſonable, admitted by the Iuſtices of peace, or the chiefe gouernors aforeſaide, and before them entred of recorde, and after by them reuoked and repealed, if it bee founde by them not lawfull or not reaſonable, and that vpon peine to loſe and forfait the force and the effect of all the articles compriſed in their ſaide writtes and charters, by which they might doe the ſame ordinances to be entred and moreouer to loſe and paye x. li. to the king for euerie ordinance that anie of them doeth make or vſe to the contrarie, as often as he ſhall be of that by due proceſſe and lawfull manner conuict of record before anie of the ſaid Iuſtices of peace, or chiefe gouernor of cities, townes, & boroughes. And this ordinance ſhall endure as long as it ſhall pleaſe our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king.

Cap.7.

Item our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, by aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and commons afoꝛeſaid, hath oꝛdeined and ſtabliſhed by authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that from henceforth all the abbots, pꝛioꝛs, and other religious perſons, and their ſucceſſours, and euerie of them, which haue lands and tenements oꝛ other poſſeſſions within anie of the wapentakes oꝛ Staincliffe wapentake oꝛ Friendleſſe wapentake in Crauen in the countie of Yoꝛke, may make their atturneys generall in all the courtes within the ſaid wapentakes and euerie of them, that is to ſay, euerie of the abbots, pꝛioꝛs, and religious perſons ſeuerallie vnder the common ſeale of his houſe, to winne and loſe in euerie maner of plea, foꝛ anie oꝛ againſt anie of them in the ſaid courtes, oꝛ anie of them moued oꝛ to be moued. And that the ſaid abbots ⁊ pꝛioꝛs and religious perſons and their ſaid atturneys and euery of them, may pleade in the ſaid courtes and in euerie of them, all maner of pleas, which be pleadable in lawe and in the lawe allowable, and that euery ſteward and bailiffe of oꝛ in anie of the ſaid courtes foꝛ the time being, ſhall aſwell receiue anie atturney in the maner afoꝛeſaid to be made, as the ſaid pleas by the ſaid abbots, pꝛioꝛs, oꝛ religious perſons, and by their ſayd atturneyes, and by euery of them to be pleaded, without amercing the ſaid abbotes, pꝛioꝛs, oꝛ religious perſons oꝛ anie of them in the maner afoꝛeſaid, oꝛ otherwiſe then ſeculer perſons in like caſe without fraude ſhould be amerced. And that euerie of the ſtewards and bailiefes afoꝛeſaid, at euerie time that he doth contrarie to this oꝛdinance, ſhall foꝛfait and pay to the king x.li. and that euerie perſon which will ſue foꝛ the king in this caſe, ſhall haue a writ of debt founded vpon this ſtatute, and ſhall haue the halfe foꝛ his labour, and the king the other halfe. And that in the ſame maner all other abbots, pꝛioꝛs, and other religious perſons and their ſucceſſoꝛs, and anie other ſeculer perſons within this realme, in euerie hundꝛed and wapentake within the ſame realme, may make their atturneys generall, to pleade foꝛ them and euerie of them in the foꝛme afoꝛeſaid, that is to ſay, the ſaid abbots, pꝛioꝛs, and religious perſons vnder the common ſeale, and the ſeculer perſons vnder their ſeales. And if the ſtewards, bailiefes, oꝛ anie miniſter of anie ſuch hundꝛed oꝛ wapentake do contrarie to the ſame, euerie of them ſhall foꝛfait to the king x.li. as afoꝛe is ſaid, and this ſtatute and ſtabliſhment ſhall endure as long as it ſhall pleaſe the king.

Letters patents ante dated

Firſt where as by ſuite made to the king by diuers perſons it hath bene deſired by their petitions, to haue offices, farmes, and other things of the gift and grant of the king by his gracious letters patents thereof to them be made, deſiring by the ſame petitions the ſame letters patentes of the king to beare date at a certaine daie limitted in the ſame, the which day often times is befoꝛe the kings grant to them there vpon made, haue boꝛne the ſame date, by reaſon whereof diuers of the kings liege people, hauing ſuch offices farmes and other things of the gift oꝛ grant of the king by his gracious letters patents thereof to them long time befoꝛe duelie made, by ſuch ſubtile imagination of ſuch antedates, deſired by ſuch petitions of ſuch offices, farmes, and other things, oftentimes haue bene put out amoued and expelled, againſt right good conſcience and reaſon: Our ſaid ſoueraigne loꝛd the king, willing to put out ſuch imaginations, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the loꝛds ſpiritual and tempoꝛall afoꝛe ſaid, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of yͤ ſaid commons, hath oꝛdeined by authoꝛitie of the ſame parliament, that of euerie warrant hereafter ſent by the ſame our ſoueraigne loꝛd the king oꝛ his heyꝛes to the chancellour of England foꝛ the time being, the day of the deliuerie of the ſame to the chancellour, ſhall be entred of recoꝛd in the chancerie. And that the chancellour do letters patents to be made vpon the ſame warrant, bearing date the daie of the ſaid deliuery in the chancerie, and not befoꝛe in no wiſe. And if anie letters patents be from henceforth made to the contrarie, they ſhall be voide and holden foꝛ none.

Wolles, wolfels, &c.
Cheeſe. Butter.

Item where as in the ſtatute made the xii. yeere of king Richard the ſecond, at the grieuous complaint of his commons, ſhewing how the ſtaple was limitted to reſt at Caleys, and that all maner of wolles, wolfels, lether, lead, tinne, cheeſe, butter and honie, going out of the realme of England, ought to haue recourſe to the ſaid place of Caleys, and to no place els where, certaine perſons by their diuers ſuggeſtions haue before this time purchaſed licences to carie out wolles and other marchandiſes aforeſaid to what parties beyond the ſea that pleaſeth them of the kings amitie, to the which their licences do extend, without comming to the ſaid place of Caleys, to the great aduantage of the perſons ſo hauing licences and great damage of them which haue no licence, wherefore the ſaid king by authoritie of his parliament, holden the yeere aforeſaid, ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid ſtatute ſhould be holden and obſerued, as to the great marchandiſes aforeſaid, that is to ſay, wolles, wolfels, tinne and lead, all only without licence thereof to be granted but by the king him ſelfe, becauſe of which ſtatute ſo made the chancellour for the time being oftentimes hath ſtranged him to grant licences for cheeſe & butter to be had to any other place, but alonly to yͤ ſaid place of Caleys, to the great damage of the people of this realme. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering how cheeſe & butter is a marchandiſe, which may not be wel kept nor tarie his marchant, and wilbe greatlie empaired by vermin & wormes, and is alſo tender and of ſo ſimple price, that it may not well beare the coſtes of the ſtaple, hath ordeined by authoritie aforeſaid, that the kings liege people may bring and carie out of his realme, where it ſhall pleaſe them, of the kings amitie, cheeſe and butter without anie licence to be purſued in any wiſe, paying for the cuſtomes and ſubſidies thereof due from time to time, anie ſtatute made to the contrarie notwithſtanding. Prouided that the king may reſtraine the ſame when it ſhall pleaſe him.

Cap. 4.
Marchants aliens.
Hoſtes.

Item where as great damages and loſſes daily come to the king and to his people, by the buying and ſelling that the marchants aliens and ſtrangers do make at their proper will and libertie, without anie notice gouernance and ſurueying of anie of the kings lawfull liege people, as by ſuch buying and ſelling, which they vſe together of all maner of marchandiſes euerie of them with other, and alſo by couins and compaſſings, that they do to empaire and abate the price and value of all maner marchandiſes of this noble realme, and do encreaſe and enhance the price of all their owne marchandiſes, whereby the ſame marchants aliens be greatlie enriched, and the kings ſubiects marchants denizens of the ſame realme grieuouſlie empoueriſhed, and great treaſure by the ſame aliens brought out of this realme, the cuſtomes and ſubſidies by them due to the king for the cauſes aforeſaid greatly miniſhed, and the nauie of the ſaid realme greatlie deſtroyed and hindered. And where as by diuers ſtatutes before this time made it was ordeined, that in euerie citie, towne, and port of the ſea of England, where the marchants aliens and ſtrangers be or ſhalbe repayring, ſufficient hoſtes ſhall be aſſigned to the ſame marchants by the maior, ſhirifes, or bailifes of the ſaid cities, townes, and portes of the ſea, and that the marchants aliens and ſtrangers ſhall not be dwelling in anie other place but with the ſaid hoſtes ſo aſſigned, which be not ſufficient and conuenient remedies enough againſt the damages and inconueniences aforeſaid. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, willing againſt the ſame damages and inconueniences to prouide a remedie in this behalfe, hath ordeined by authoritie aforeſaid, that from henceforth no marchant alien or ſtranger, ſhall ſell no maner marchandiſe to other marchant alien or ſtranger, vpon paine of forfaiture of the ſame marchandiſes. And that all marchants aliens and ſtrangers from henceforth comming or abyding to marchandiſe within anie citie, towne, borough, or port in England, ſhalbe vnder the ſurueying of certaine people called hoſtes or ſurueyours to them aſſigned by the maiors, ſhirifes, or bailifes of the ſame cities, townes, boroughs, or portes, by the maner enſuing. And that euery ſuch marchant alien comming to anie of the cities, townes, boroughs or partes, within three daies after his ſaid comming, ſhall offer him in perſon before the maior, ſhirife, or bailife, of the ſame citie, borough, towne, or port, to which hee commeth, to haue an hoſt to him aſſigned. And that the maiors, ſhirifes or bailiefes, of euerie of the ſaid townes, boroughs, and portes, within iiii. dayes next after that they haue notice of the comming or being of anie ſuch marchants, ſhall aſſigne to the ſame marchants aliens ſufficient hoſtes which be good and credible perſons, Engliſhmen borne, expert in the feate of marchandiſe, and not exerciſing ſuch marchandiſes, which the marchants aliens being vnder their ſurueying for the time do vſe. And that the ſame hoſtes ſhall ſuruey and be priuie to all the marchandiſes, which the ſaide marchants ſhall diſcharge at anie port or place of this realme, or ſhall bring or doe to be brought out of the ſame, and to all the ſellings, buyings, and contractes of marchandiſes, which they doe within the ſaide partes and places. And that euerie ſuch marchant, which bringeth or doeth to bee brought from henceforth anie marchandiſes, and them diſcharge within anie port or place of the ſaide realme, ſhall put them to ſale by the ſurueying of the ſaid hoſtes, & make full employment of all the ſame marchandiſes (except all manner of clothes of golde, of ſiluer, and of ſilke) within viii. monethes next after the comming of the ſame marchandiſes to anie porte ſaufe, or place diſcharged of the ſaid realme, deducting their reaſonable coſtes and expenſes, that is to ſaie, they ſhall ſell the ſame marchandiſes for other marchandiſes of the ſaid realme, or ſhall ſell them for money. And with the ſame money they ſhall buy within the time aforeſaid other marchandiſes growing & made within the ſame realme, vpon paine to forfeit all the ſaid money within the ſaide terme not employed. And that it ſhall be lawful to the ſaid marchants aliens and ſtrangers, after the ſaid viii. monethes to carrie out of the ſaide realme all the ſaide marchandiſes within the ſame terme (as is ſaide) and not ſolde, without anie cuſtomes or ſubſidies thereof to be paid. And if the ſaid marchants aliens after the ſaide viii. monethes ſell anie of the ſaide marchandiſes within this realme, that then they ſhall be forfeit. And euerie of the ſaide hoſtes ſhall do to be regiſtred and written in a booke from time to time all the ſaide marchaundiſes, which the ſaide marchants aliens ſhall haue and receiue, and all the buyings, ſales, contractes, and employments that they do by their knowledge and ſurueying, and the tranſcript thereof ſhall bring or doe to be brought before the treaſurer and barons of the kings eſchequer two times by the yeere, that is to ſay, at the beginning of the two termes of Eaſter & ſaint Michael. And the ſame hoſtes their executors, heires or landtenants by colour of ſuch tranſcript or anie other thing concerning the ſaide occupation of hoſt, ſhall not be bounde to accompt within the ſaide eſchequer, nor otherwiſe charged. And the ſaide hoſt ſhall take for his labour in that caſe of euerie ſuch marchant ſtranger two pence for euery xx. ſhillings in value of all manner marchandiſes ſo by the ſaide marchants aliens ſolde and bought. And euery ſuch hoſt in his firſt admiſſion to the ſaid occupation, ſhall ſweare before the Maiors, ſhirifes, & bailifes, by whome he ſhall be aſſigned to ſuch occupation, well and lawfully to vſe and exerciſe the ſame occupation. And if he be founde vnlawful or defectiue to the contrarie, then he ſhall be put out of the ſaide occupation by the ſaide Maiors, ſhirifes, and bailifes, as often as to them ſhall ſeeme needefull, and other by them put in his place, and moreouer to puniſh him after his deſeruing by diſcretion of the ſame Maiors, ſhirifes, and bailifes. And if anie marchant alyen or ſtranger do not offer him to take ſuch hoſt, or after that an hoſt be to him aſſigned, as afore is ſaid, refuſe to be vnder the ſurueying and gouernance of ſuch hoſt, in the manner aforeſaide, he ſhall be taken and arreſted by the ſaide Maiors, ſhirifes, or bailifes, and put in priſon, there to remaine without being let to baile or mainpriſe, till he hath founde ſufficient ſuretie, to be vnder the gouernance of ſuch hoſt, to make him priuie to all the ſales, buying and contractes of his marchandiſes, as aforeſaide, and the ſame marchant alien in that caſe ſhall make fine and raunſome at the kings pleaſure. And if anie ſuch marchant alien make anie buying, ſale or contract of marchaundiſe, without the ſaide ſurueying of his hoſt, or making the ſaide hoſt priuie to all the ſaide marchaundiſes, ſolde, bought, or contracted, as afore is ſaid, he ſhall forfait the value of the ſame goods bought or ſolde, or the ſumme or value of that whereof the contract is made. And if anie ſuch Maior, ſhirife, or bailife let anie ſuch marchant willingly to be without hoſt in the forme aforeſaide, and go at large without arreſting him, and putting him in priſon, and puniſhing in the forme aforeſaide, the ſame Maior, ſhirife, or bailife, ſhall forfeit twentie poundes to the king for euerie marchant alien ſo willingly ſuffred to go at large not arreſted, and for euerie ſuch marchant alien and ſtranger, to whome ſuch hoſt in the forme afordſaide is not aſſigned. And if anie man which is by ſuch Maior, ſhirife, or bailife aſſigned to be hoſt to anie ſuch marchant alien and ſtraunger, refuſe to be ſuch hoſt, hee ſhall paie euerie time to the king, that he ſo refuſeth to be hoſte tenne poundes. And euerie marchant alien and ſtraunger, which employ not the ſaid money within the ſaide viii. monethes (as is ſaide) or that he ſell his ſaide marchandiſes in Englande after the ſame viii. monethes, and thereof before anie of the kings Iudges be duely conuict by his examination or otherwiſe at the kings ſuite, or at the ſuite of his liege people, which will ſue for the king and for himſelfe in theſe two caſes aforeſaide, then the ſame marchaunt alien and ſtraunger ſhall incurre the paine of the forfeiture aforeſaide. And he that will ſue, ſhall haue the fourth parte of the ſaide forfeitures, and the king the three other partes. And that this act and ordinance ſhall beginne to holde place at the feaſt of Eaſter nexte comming, and ſhall endure till the ende of viii. yeeres next enſuing. And that betwixt this and the feaſt of Eaſter certeine commiſſions vnder the kings great ſeale, rehearſing all the ſame acte and ordinance, ſhall be made and ſeuerally directed to the Maiors, ſhirifes, or bailifes of euery citie, towne, borough, and porte of the ſaide realme, where ſuch marchauntes aliens and ſtraungers be or ſhall be abyding or repairing, ſtraitly charging the ſame Maiors, ſhirifes, and bailifes, which be or which for the time ſhall be, to publiſh and put all the ſaid act and ordinance in due execution. Prouided alwayes, that the marchants of high Almayn, and all other marchants vnder the kings obeiſance, be not compriſed within this act and ordinance. So that alwaies by this prouiſion and ordinance no preiudice be giuen or done to anie aliance or truce made by the king or anie of his noble progenitors before this time.

Cap.5.
Collectors of xv. & x.

Item whereas heretofore at the time of euery quinzime and diſme graunted to the king or to his progenitors, the collectors of the ſame diſmes, within ſuch cities and boroughes of his realme as haue citizens or burgeſſes of them comming to the parliament, haue oftentimes béene deputed and aſſigned of people dwelling within the ſame cities and boroughes, which & other people dwelling in the ſame, haue bene oftentimes now of late made collectors of yͤ ſame quinzimes & diſmes graunted to the king, as well in the counties, within which the ſame cities and boroughes be, as within the ſame cities and boroughes, to their great loſſe and dammage, & likely more to be hereafter if remedie be not prouided. The ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, againſt ſuch loſſe and dammage to prouide a remedie in this behalfe, hath ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaide, that no man, dwelling within anie citie or borough within the ſaid realme, of which citie or borough it hath bene vſed before this time and yet is, the names of certeine men by the perſons for the ſaid citie or borough comming to the parliament, to be deliuered in the kings chauncerie to be collectors of diſmes in the ſame citie or borough. And thereupon the king hath ſent his letters patentes to the ſame perſons ſo named and deliuered in his chauncerie, to be collectors of the diſme or parcel of the ſame within the ſaid citie or borough, and the which collectors haue occupied and be bounded to accompt of their receit in this behalfe immediatly in the kings eſcheker, ſhall in anie wiſe be deputed nor aſſigned to be collectour of anie quinzime or anie parcel of the ſame, graunted or to be graunted to the king or his heires within anie countie of this realme, except that he may expende in the countie out of the ſaid citie or borough, in lands or tenementes, to the value of an hundred ſhillings by yéere ouer all charges and repriſes.

Cap. 6.
Eſchetors
Enqueſtes.
Trauers.
Letters patents.

Item where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the morrow of ſaint Matthew the apoſtle, the viii. yere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, among other things it was ordeined, that no lands nor tenements ſeaſed into the kings hands vpon the enqueſtes taken before the eſchetours nor commiſſioners, ſhall not be graunted nor let in anie wiſe to ferme by the chauncellor or treaſurer of England, or anie other the kings officer, till the ſame enqueſtes and verdictes be fully returned in the chauncerie, or in the eſcheker, but all ſuch landes and tenementes ſhall wholly and continually remaine in the kings handes till the ſaide enqueſtes and verdictes be returned and by a moneth after the ſame returne, if it be not ſo that he or they, which féele them gréeued by the ſame enqueſtes, or put out of their lands or tenements, come in the chauncerie, and offer them to trauers the ſaide enqueſtes. And to take the ſame landes or tenementes to ferme, and if they ſo do, that then the ſame landes and tenements ſhall be committed to them, if they ſhew good euidences prouing their trauers to be true after the forme of yͤ ſaid ſtatute made the xxxvi. yéere of Edwarde the thirde, to holde till the iſſue taken vpon the ſame trauers be found and diſcuſſed for the king or for the partie, fynding ſufficient ſuretie to ſue the ſaide trauers with effect, and to yelde and paye to the king the yéerely value of the lands or tenementes, whereof the trauers ſhall be ſo taken, if it be diſcuſſed for the king. And if anie letters patents of anie landes or tenements be made to anie other perſon to the contrary, or let to ferme within the ſaide moneth of the returne, they ſhall be voide and holden for none, the which good ſtatute and ordinance diuers perſons imagining to ſubuert, and by their ſubtiltie to ſerue as nought, ſhall purſue to haue ſuch giftes and grauntes and fermes by the kings letters patentes, before anie inquiſition or title founde for the king of the ſame, pretending ſuch giftes and grauntes not compriſed nor remedied by the ſaide ſtatute, notwithſtanding that he is in like miſchiefe of the ſaid ſtatute. Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, conſidering the premiſſes, and willing to prouide a remedie in this behalfe, hath ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaide, that no letters patentes ſhall be made to anie perſon or perſons, of anie landes or tenementes, before inquiſition of the kings title in the ſame be founde in the chauncerie or in his eſcheker returned, if the kings title in the ſame be not founde of recorde, nor within the moneth after the ſame returne, if it be not to him or them which profer their trauerſes as afore is ſaid. And if anie letters patents be made to the contrarie, they ſhall be voide and holden for none.

Cap. 7.
Eſchetor.

Item it is ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaide, that in caſe that anie eſchetor take anie office before him, and returne not the ſame office in the chauncerie, or in the kings eſcheker in the moneth after the taking of the ſame, he ſhall incurre the paine of xl. li. which he hath forfeit by the ſtatute made the viii. yéere of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, and alſo he ſhall be holden to pay the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king aſmuch as he is endammaged becauſe of not returning of ſuch office. And that the chauncellor of England call to him the treaſurer of Englande in letting ſuch fermes, to make due execution of the ſaid ſtatute made the ſaid viii. yéere.

Cap. 8.
Shippes
Mariners

Item where as manie people of the commons aforeſaide, owners of ſhips and veſſels of this realme, and the maiſters and mariners of ſuch ſhips taking ſhips and veſſels of Spaine and of other parties aduerſaries & enimies to the king, by the ſuite of marchants aliens of the kings amitie made before the king & his councel, & ſometime before the chancellor of Englande, haue béene greatly vexed, and be daily, becauſe that the ſaide takers doe take their goods and marchandiſes charged in the ſame ſhippes and veſſels of Spaine and other parties enemies aforeſaid, and ſometime by falſe witneſſe markes and letters teſtimonials contriued, the ſaid aliens be reſtored to the ſaid goods and marchandiſes with their damages and expenſes, to the great and grieuous damage of the ſaid owners maſters and mariners takers aforeſaid, and diſcourage to the kings liege people to make ſuch ſhippes and veſſels, and in hinderance of the nauie of the realme aforeſaid. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the matter aforeſaid, and how the goods and marchandiſes of the kings liege people, in like caſe charged and taken be forfaite to the king, hath ordeined and granted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid marchants aliens at their pleaſure may charge ſuch ſhippes and veſſels of Spaine and of other parties aduerſaries and enemies of the king if the maſters owners or marchants of ſuch veſſels and ſhippes, hauing, letters patents of the king and of his ſafeconduite ſuretie or ſafegarde for ſuch ſhippes or veſſels and marchandiſes, making mencion of the name of the ſhippes or veſſels, and of the name of the ſame maſter of the ſhippes and veſſels, as the maner is, and if anie ſuch ſhippes or veſſels charged with anie marchandiſes of ſuch marchants aforeſaid, be taken vpon the ſea by the kings liege people, not hauing the kings letters patents as afore is ſaid, within the bord of ſuch ſhippes or veſſels, at the daie of the taking, nor that ſuch letters patents at the daie of the taking be in the kings chancerie inrolled of record, that then the takers poſſeſſing the goods and marchandiſes ſo taken, may enioye and holde the ſame anie ſtatute or ordinance made to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And that this ſtatute and ordinance ſhall begin to holde his force at the feaſt of Saint Michael next comming. And that proclamation be thereof made vpon the ſea coaſts incontinentlie after this ordinance, to the intent that the ſaid marchants aliens may haue knowledge of the ſame ordinance.

Chap. 9.

Outlawries.

Item where as in a ſtatute expired, made the tenth yéere of the reigne of our ſeuereigne lord the king that now is, it was contained, that foraſmuch as diuers of the kings liege people before this time haue bene outlawed, vexed and greatlie diſeaſed in diuers ſuites, aſwell before the king himſelfe in his bench, as in the common bench, in the recordes of which ſuites the entrees haue bene made, that the plaintiffes in the ſame ſuites, Obtulerunt ſe in propria perſona ſua, where the ſame plaintiffes in the ſame ſuites doo not appeare to ſuch ſuites, nor haue no knowledge of the ſame, to the great miſchiefe of the ſaide liege people, if remedie be not prouided. Our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, willing in this caſe to prouide a remedie, doth ordaine by autoritie of the ſame parliament, holden the ſame yéere, that no Philiſer, exigenter, nor none other officer from the ſame time ſhould make in no ſuch entree in anie ſuite, except that the ſame plaintiffes in the ſame ſuite, before that anie ſuch entree ſhall be made, doo appeare in his proper perſon before ſome of ẏ iuſtices of the place, where ẏ plée was or ſhall be hanging, & they ſhall be ſworne vpon a booke, that he was the ſame perſon, in whoſe name the ſaide ſuite was ſued, or that ſome other credible perſon of his counſell ſhall make ſuch othe for him. And that this ordinance ſhall endure till the next parliament after this: Our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, conſidering moreouer like domages, which happen aſwell to him as to his poore liege people and ſubiects for aſmuch as in the records of diuers and manie outlawries, the entree is that ẏ parties do appeare by their atturneis, where the atturneis, haue no warrant of recorde, by reaſon whereof the ſaid outlawries be reuerſible, and for the moſt parte reuerſed, hath ordained by autoritie of this parliament, that the ſaide ſtatute be affirmed, holden, and kept to endure for euer. And that none officer contained in the ſaide ſtatute, ſhall doo to the contrarie of the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of fortie ſhillings to the king euerie time that he of that ſhall be attainted, by due examination made by anie of the iuſtices of the ſame place, before whome anie entree or recorde is. And that euerie atturneie, which hath not his warrant entreed of recorde in all his ſuites where in proceſſe of Capias and exigent be awardable, the ſame terme, in the which the exigent is awarded, or before, and vpon that be attainted by like examination, for euerie time that he ſo offendeth he ſhall incurre the paine aforeſaid.

Commiſſion of ſewers.

Item where as at the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, at the xv. of Saint Michael, the firſt yéere of the raigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king for the great damages and loſſes, which happen by the great riſing of water of the ſea in diuers parties of this realme, by authoritie of the ſame parliament it was ordeined and granted, that by ten yéeres then next enſuing ſeuerall commiſſions of ſewers ſhalbe made to diuers perſons by the chancellour for the time being, to be named in all the parties of the ſaid realme, where neede ſhall be, after the forme that followeth in the ſame ſtatute. And now of late in diuers parties of the ſaid realme, by the great riſing of water of the ſea, manie townes and lands in great quantitie be drowned and deſtroyed, to the great hinderance of the ſaid realme, and manie great damages be likely to happen if remedie bée not haſtely prouided in this behalfe. The king, willing to prouide for the ſame, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed by authoritie of this parliament, that by ten yéeres next enſuing after this preſent parliament, ſeuerall commiſſions of ſewers ſhall be made to diuers perſons by the chancellour of England for the time being, to be named in all the parties of the ſaid realme, where neede ſhall be, after the forme and effect of a commiſſion conteined in the ſaid ſtatute the ſame firſt yéere, And moreouer he hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed by the ſame authoritie, that all ſuch commiſſioners haue power to make, ordeine, and execute ſtatutes and ordinances and other affaires after the effect and purport of the ſaid commiſſions.

Cap. 11. Juſtices of peace.

Item where as by ſtatutes made in the time of the kings noble progenitours it was ordeined, that in euerie countie of England iuſtices ſhould be aſſigned of the moſt worthie of the ſame counties, to keepe the peace, and to do other things, as in the ſame ſtatutes fullie is conteined, which ſtatutes notwithſtanding, now of late in many counties of England the greateſt number haue bene deputed and aſſigned, which before this were not wont to be, whereof ſome be of ſmall behauiour, by whom the people will not be gouerned nor ruled, and ſome for their neceſſitie do great extortion and oppreſſion vpon the people, whereof great inconueniences be likelie to riſe daily, if by the king it be not therefore prouided. The king, willing againſt daily ſuch inconueniences to prouide a remedie, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, by authoritie aforeſaid, that no iuſtice of peace within the realme of England in no countie, ſhall be aſſigned or deputed, if hee haue not lands or tenements to the value of xx.li. by yéere. And if anie be ordeined hereafter to be iuſtice of peace in anie countie, which hath not lands or tenements to the value aforeſaid, that he therof ſhal giue knowledge to the chancellour of England for the time being, which ſhall put an other ſufficient in his place. And if he make not yͤ ſaid knowledge (as before) within a moneth after that that he hath notice of ſuch commiſſion, or if he ſit or make anie warrant or precept by force of ſuch commiſſion, he ſhall incurre the peine of xx.l. and neuertheleſſe be put out of the commiſſion as before. And the king ſhall haue the one halfe of the ſaid peine, and he that will ſue for the king the other halfe. And he that will ſue for the king and for him ſelfe ſhall haue an action to demaund the ſame peine by writte of debt at the common lawe. Prouided alwayes that this ordinance do not extend nor be preiudicial to cities, townes, or boroughs, which be counties incorporate of them ſelfe, nor to cities, townes, or boroughs, which haue iuſtices of peace of people dwelling in the ſame by commiſſion or warrant of the king or of his progenitours. Prouided alſo that if there be not people ſufficient hauing lands and tenements to the value aforeſaid, learned in the lawe and of good gouernance within anie ſuch countie, that the chancellour of England for the time being ſhal haue power to put other diſcréete perſons learned in the lawe in ſuch commiſſions, though they haue not lands nor tenements to the value aforeſaid by his diſcretion.

Cap. 12. Appeale. Enditement. Conſpiracie.

Item where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the ſecond daie of May, the ix. yéere of the raigne of king Henrie father to the king that now is, amongſt other things it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, for aſmuch as manie people by malice, enmitie, and vengeance, cauſe oftentimes the kings liege people to be appealed or endited in diuers counties of treaſons or of felonies ſuppoſing by the ſaid appeales or enditements, that the ſayd treaſons and felonies were done in a certaine place in ſuch a countie, where the enditement is made, or ſuch place as is or ſhalbe declared by the ſaid appeales, where no ſuch place is in the ſame countie, that the proces of the ſame ſhalbe voyde and holden for none. And that the enditours, procuratours, and conſpiratours ſhalbe alſo puniſhed by impriſonment and fine and raunſome for the kings aduantage by diſcretion of the iuſtices. And that the ſaid appealees or endities maie haue writtes of conſpiracie againſt the enditours, procuratours, and conſpiratours, and ſhall recouer their damages. And this ordinance ſhall ſtand in his force till the next parliament to be holden after the comming againe of the ſaid late king in England from beyond the ſea: which ſtatute by the deceaſe of the ſaid late king, by opinion of ſome is expired, and by the opinion of ſome not expired: The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, conſidering that the ſaid ordinance was good and profitable for the weale of him and his liege people, hath declared and ordeined by authoritie of this preſent parliament, that the ſaid ordinance, made the ſaid ix. yéere, ⁊ ſo by the death of his ſaid father as ſome thinke expired, and not otherwiſe repealed, ſhalbe and abide an effectuall and auailable ſtatute and ordinance in lawe perpetuallie to endure.

Cap. 13. Exigent. Outlawrie. Countie of Lancaſter. Cheſter.

Item where as at a parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the ſecond day of May, the ix yéere of the raigne of king Henrie the v. father to the king that now is, among other things it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that none of the kings liege people, againſt whom anie exigent ſhall be awarded, or outlawed at the kings ſuite in time to come, or at the ſuite of the partie in the countie, of Lancaſter, ſhould forfaite anie of his goods or cattals, lands or tenements in other counties, except the goods and cattals lands or tenements, which the ſaid outlawges haue in the ſame countie of Lancaſter. Prouided alwayes that the ſtatute made the firſt yéere of king Henrie the fourth father to the ſame king Henrie the fifth, againſt the people of the countie of Cheſter, which do to diuers of the kings liege people in diuers counties of England, diuers manſlaughters, murders, robberies, bateries, treſpaſſes and other riots and offences, ſhall ſtand in his force, notwithſtanding this ordinance. And that the ſaid ordinance ſhall ſtand in his force till the parliament firſt to be holden after the returne of the ſaid late king Henrie the fifth into England from beyond the ſea, which ſtatute by the deceaſe of the ſaid late king Henrie the fifth by opinion of ſome is expired, and by opinion of ſome not expired: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, hath declared and ordeined by authoritie of this preſent parliament, that the ſaid ordinance, in the manner and forme made the ſaid ix. yéere by the death of the ſaid late king Henrie the fifth, as ſome thinke expired and not otherwiſe repealed, ſhall be and remaine effectuall and an auailable ſtatute and ordinance in lawe to endure till the next parliament, and ſo forth for euer, if ſo be that betwixt this and the ſame next parliament, no ſuch inconuenience happen in this behalfe, for the which it ſhall ſéeme to the king and the lords of the parliament at this time, that it ſhall not be expedient this ordinance to endure longer after the ſame next parliament.

Item for aſmuch as great periuries daylie abound within the realme of England more then were wont to be in times paſt, by occaſion of fauorable arraies and panelles made by ſhiriffes and vnderſhiriffes, which haue power to make or arraie ſuch arraies or panelles of moneie and great rewardes that they take for the ſame, whereby diuers of the kings liege people be diſherited and hindred, and other put to great loſſe of their goods and catals, and ſome to great perill of their liues, againſt right good faith and conſcience: The king conſidering the premiſſes, and willing to auoide ſuch periuries, hath ordained and graunted by auctoritie aforeſaid, that if anie ſhiriffe vnderſhiriffe or other, which haue power to make & arraie ſuch arraies and panels, take by him or by anie other to his vſe, anie hier gift or reward to make or arraie ſuch arraies or panels, that he which feeleth him greeued in this behalfe, ſhall haue his ſuite by writ or by bill againſt the ſhiriffe vnderſhiriffe or other, which maketh ſuch arraies or panels, before the iuſtices where the ſaid arraies and panels ſhall be returned, to recouer x. times aſmuch as they ſhall receiue for making ſuch arraies or panels. And the ſaide iuſtices ſhall haue power by auctoritie aforeſaid, to heare and determine ſuch ſuites, aſwell by examination of the defendaunts in theſe ſuites, as by triall of enqueſtes thereof of be taken, and to giue iudgement for the ſaid plaintiffes againſt the ſaid defendaunts and euerie of them which ſo ſhall be found giltie, and vpon that to awarde execution. And in euerie ſuch ſuite by writ, ſuch proceſſe ſhall be awarded as ſhould be awarded in a writ of treſpaſſe doone againſt the kings peace. Prouided that euerie ſuite which ſhall be taken againſt ſhiriffes vnderſhiriffes or other, which ſhall make or arraie ſuch arraies or panels, be taken in the ſame counties where they ſhal be ſhiriffes vnderſhiriffes or officers at the time of ſuch panels or arraies to be made or arraied. And that this ordinance ſhall begin to hold place at the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, and ſhall endure till the next parliament. And if at the next parliament it ſhall ſeeme to the king and to the lordes, which then ſhall be in the ſame parliament, that this ordinance is good for the weale of the king and of his realme, then this ordinance ſhall endure for euer, ſauing alwaies to euerie perſon his libertie and franchiſe.

Item for aſmuch as it is meritorious and almes to departe the trouth from the diſceite, as now of late in a parliament holden at Weſtminſter much diſceite was put out, that greatlie endomaged manie perſons, which was called a ſauſt otherwiſe called a powder or an hauncer, which greeued manie faithfull people, & as now it is to be conſidered, that great diſceites be now vſed, which doo endomage the poore clothmakers and the ſellers of clothes, which in meaſuring vnduelie without reaſonable meaſure, aſwell of brode cloth & ſtreite aſmuch by the hands of the marchants aliens as denizens, aſwell in faire, market, citie, and burh, and ſpeciallie in the citie of London, as in other places, where cloth makers & ſellers of cloth be moſt commonlie vſed, & in time to come ought to be repairing, for where they were wont to meaſure the cloth by the yard and the full inch, now they will meaſure by the yarde and the full hand, which groweth to the encreaſe of the byar two yardes of euerie cloth of xxiiii. yardes, which encreaſe turneth to the auaile of no man, of what degree ſoeuer he be, but alonelie to the byar. For when a lorde ſhall buie his liuerie, he ſhall find the ſame in þ meaſure or in the price. And ſo they be oppreſſed with great & vnreaſonable meaſuring of their clothes, for where anie marchant of this land but at London, will make a cloth in meaſuring xxiiii. yardes, they will make thereof xxii. or leſſe ſaing that it is the meaſure of London: by which oppreſſion manie men be greeuouſlie endomaged: Our ſaid ſoureigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, dooth ordaine by the auctoritie aforeſaide, in euerie place of this lande to be one certaine meaſure, where as there is a warden of the aulnage of cloth that he haue a line made of ſilke or of thred, of the right meaſure in maner of ſtraite tiſſue, ſealed at both endes, after the aduiſe of the barons of the eſcheker. And if anie marchant buier will refuſe this ordinance, than he ſhall forfeite a hundred ſhillings, two parties to the king, the third part to him which will ſue for the ſame. Souldiors wages abated by their captaines.

Item for aſmuch as the king is & hath bene well certified of manie great diſceites & falſities, which haue bene doone to him and to his realme by ſome of the captaines, which haue before this time endented with the king to ſerue him in the feate of war, ſome beyond the ſea, and in diuers parties, as they be ordained and bound by their endentures, and ſome in his marches on this ſide the ſea, and their wages haue bene rightfullie paied and contented of the king, according to their endentures, for them and for all their retinue after their degrées: of which wages manie of the ſaide captaines haue abuſed, and taken vpon them to abate vpon their ſouldiors of ſome more and of ſome leſſe, ſo that ſuch, vpon whome they haue abated, haue not bene of power to continue their ſeruice, nor performe the ſame, as of right and reaſon they ought to haue doone, and by fortune willing to haue doone, if they had bene fullie paied, which hath cauſed them to fall to robberie and pillage, aſwell before their going on this ſide the ſea as beyond the ſea, when they there came, among other thinges it hath bene a great cauſe of the long continuance of the warre, and great domage and loſſe, which hath fallen to the ſeigniories and countries of the king in his obeiſance beyond the ſea, and not alonelie that, but loſſe alſo of great good, which hath bene graunted and paied to the king in the forme aforeſaide for the defence of his lande. The king willing againſt ſuch domages and loſſes to prouide a remedie in this behalfe, hath ordained by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that no captaine, which from henceforth ſhall haue the conduct of ſuch retinues, and ſhall receiue the kings wages for the ſame, ſhall abate of his ſouldiors, nor of anie of them, anie parte of their wages, except that it be for their clothing, that is to ſay, if they ſhall be waged for a halfe yeere ten ſhillings a gowne of a gentleman, and ſixe ſhillings eight pence for a yoman, vpon paine of twentie poundes for euerie ſpeare and ten poundes for a bow, to the king, vpon whome he did abate vpon the tenour of the ſame.

Cap. 19. Souldiors

Item for aſmuch as diuers and manie ſouldiors before this time, which haue taken parcell or halfe their wages of their captaines, and ſo haue mouſtred and entred of recorde the kings ſouldiors before his commiſſioners, for ſuch termes, for the which their maiſters haue endented, haue ſometime maintenaunt after their mouſter and the receite of parte or of the whole of their wages, departed and gone where they would, and haue not paſſed the ſea with their ſaide captaines, and ſome paſſed the ſea, and long within their termes departed from their captaines and the kings ſeruice, without apparant licence to them graunted by their ſaid captaines, whereof hath growen ſo great domage to the king and to his realme, and manie inconueniences, which may not lawfullie be expreſſed as of long time the experience haue ſhewed: and the which ſouldiors dioꝛs ſo doing as much as in them was deſtroied the honour and reuerence of the king, and haue manie waies great cauſers of the damages, which haue fallen in his lands and ſeignioꝛies beyond the ſea, and the auenture alſo of the perſons of the loꝛds and captaines, which do them conduct. The ſame king conſidering the pꝛemiſſes, & willing againſt ſuch inconueniences and damages to pꝛouide a remedie, hath oꝛdeined by the auctoꝛitie afoꝛeſaide, that euerie man ſo mouſtring and receiuing yͤ kings wages, which departeth from his captaine within his terme in any maner afoꝛeſayde, except that notoꝛious ſickneſſe oꝛ impediment by the viſitation of God (which maie reaſonablie bee knowen) ſuffer him not to goe, and which hee ſhall certifie maintenaunt to his captaine, and ſhall repaie his monie, ſo that hee maie pꝛouide him foꝛ an other ſouldier in his place, he ſhall be puniſhed as a felon. And that the iuſtices of peace ſhall haue power to enquire thereof, and to heare and determine the ſame. And likewiſe hath oꝛdeined by the ſame auctoꝛitie, that no ſouldier, men of armes, noꝛ archer, ſo muſtered of recoꝛde, and going with his captaine beyonde the ſea, ſhall returne into England within the terme foꝛ which his captaine hath reteined him, noꝛ leue his captaine there in the kings ſeruice & in auenture of the war, except that he hath reaſonable cauſe ſhewed by his captaine, and by him to the chiefe in the countrey, hauing royall power, and thereupon ſhall haue licence of the ſaide captaine witneſſed vnder his ſeale, and the cauſe of his licence. And who that ſo doeth muſter of recoꝛde, and come without letters teſtimonialles of the captaine (as is ſayde) within his terme on this ſide the ſea, that the maioꝛs bailiffes and other the kings miniſters, of what poꝛt oꝛ place they ſhall arriue, ſhall haue auctoꝛitie to put them in arreſt, & them there to keepe till it be of them enquired. And if that it maie be found by enquirie befoꝛe iuſtices of the peace, and pꝛoued, that they haue ſo muſtred of recoꝛd, and departed from their captaines afoꝛeſaide, without licence as afoꝛe is ſaide, that then they ſhall be puniſhed as felons.

Here beginneth the Statute made at Weſtminſter the xx. yeere of king Henrie the ſixt.

OUr ſoueraigne loꝛde the king, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the daie of the conuerſion of ſaint Paul, the xxv. daie of Ianuarie, the xx. yeere of his reigne, to the honour of God, and foꝛ the weale of him and of his realme, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the loꝛdes ſpirituall and tempoꝛall, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the commons in the ſame parliament aſſembled, hath made, oꝛdeined, and ſtabliſhed diuerſe ſtatutes and oꝛdinaunces in the foꝛme following.

FIrſt where as poore marchauntes of the king of this realme dailie be robbed by the kinges enemies, vpon the ſea, and in diuerſe riuers and poꝛtes within the ſame realme, of their ſhips goods and marchaundiſes of great riches, and their bodies taken and impꝛiſonment with great dureſſe, and put to great fines and raunſomes, and the kinges poore liege people dwelling nigh the ſea coſtes out of their owne houſes with their cattalles and infauntes taken vpon the lande, and bꝛought with the ſaide enimies where it pleaſeth them, which miſcheeues come by the reaſon that the ſayde marchauntes be diſcouraged, with foꝛce and puiſſaunce of ſhips and of people defenſible to keepe the ſea and the coaſtes of the ſame, becauſe that the ſhips, goods, and marchaundiſes by them taken of the ſaid kings enimies, be ſomtime claimed by the kings enimies by colour of ſafeconduites, not duelie purchaſed, noꝛ of recoꝛd enrolled, ſo that the kinges ſubiects may haue notice of them, and ſometime be claimed by marchauntes ſtraungers of the kinges amitie, to be to them belonging, by colour of vntrewe witneſſes of their nation, and by letters of markes and charters partlie by them counterfaited, and by ſuch pꝛoues vpon ſuch claimes, be reſtoꝛed to the ſame goods and marchaundiſes, oftentimes taken in ſhips and veſſels belonging to the kings enimies, and the ſaide kings ſubiects put to great vexation and loſſe of their owne goods, whereby the ſaide kinges enimies be greatlie enriched, and their nauie ſtronglie encreaſed and the nauie and marchaundiſe of the ſaide realme of our ſouereigne loꝛde the king greatlie miniſhed, and ſuch damages and inconueniences dailie be likelie to encreaſe & come to the ſaide realme of our ſaid ſouereigne loꝛde the king, if haſtie remedie in this caſe be not pꝛouided: Our ſaide ſouereigne loꝛde the king conſidering the pꝛemiſſes, and that if people of the kinges amitie haue feare and diſcoꝛage to freight the ſhips and veſſels of the kings enimies and aduerſaries, their nauie in time to come ſhall be decreaſed & miniſhed, and the nauie of the kings ſubiects and friends encreaſed & enlarged, by the aduiſe and aſſent afoꝛeſaide, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid commons, to eſchewe the miſcheefes afoꝛeſaide, hath oꝛdenined by auctoꝛitie of the ſaid parliament, that all letters of ſafeconduites to be granted to the kings enemies and aduerſaries, oꝛ anie other people, ſhall be inrolled in the chancerie of our ſaid ſoueraigne loꝛd the king of recoꝛd, befoꝛe that anie ſuch letters ſhalbe in anie wiſe deliuered to them, to whom yͤ ſame letters ſhalbe granted. And that all ſuch letters of ſafeconduit hereafter to be granted, not enrolled of recoꝛd in the ſaid chancerie, befoꝛe the deliuerie to them, to be made, in yͤ maner as is ſaid, ſhalbe void & of no foꝛce noꝛ effect. And moꝛeouer, if hereafter anie goods oꝛ marchandiſes be taken by the ſaid ſubiects of our ſoueraigne loꝛd the king vpon the ſea, oꝛ the coaſtes of the ſame, charged in anie ſhip oꝛ other veſſell, which is belonging to the enimies oꝛ aduerſaries of our ſoueraigne loꝛd yͤ king foꝛ the time being, not hauing ſufficient letters of ſafeconduit enrolled in the foꝛme afoꝛeſaide, that they that ſo ſhall take the ſame goods and marchaundiſes, ſhall them enioy without anie reſtitution thereof to bee made in anie wiſe, to what ſo Prouided alwaies that if the ſubiects of our ſouereigne lorde the king, taking ſuch ſhips charged with marchaundiſes, not hauing nor ſhewing ſuch letters of ſaufeconduite within the ſame ſhips at the time of the ſaide taking, and bringing them by force to a certaine port or place within the ſaide realme, ſhall not bee endamaged in their perſon nor goods for ſuch taking, if they be readie to make full reſtitution of the ſame ſhips and marchaundiſes within reaſonable time after that that full knowledge is made to them of the letters of ſaufeconduite, ſufficing for the ſame ſhips and marchaundiſes, enrolled in the ſaide chauncerie of record before the taking of them. Prouided alſo that this ordinance ſhall begin to holde his force at the feaſt of ſaint Michael the archangell next comming.

Item our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king hath ordeined by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that none of his liege people, againſt whom anie ſuch exigent ſhall be awarded or outlagarie pronounced, at the ſuite of the king or at the ſuite of the partie in time to come in the countie of Lancaſter, ſhall forfeite anie of his goods or cattalles lands or tenements, which the ſaide outlawes, or they againſt whom ſuch exigent ſhall be awarded in the ſaide countie of Lancaſter haue in the ſame countie. And they by reaſon of ſuch outlagarie at the ſuite of an other perſon pronounced within the ſaide countie of Lancaſter, no man ſhall be forbarred nor diſabled of anie maner action, nor to claime anie maner of enheritance out of the ſame countie, nor diſabled to ſue anie maner of action out of the ſame countie, notwithſtanding ſuch outlagarie vpon him pronounced. Prouided alwaies, that the ſtatute made the firſt yeere of king Henrie the fourth, grandfather of the king that nowe is, againſt the people of the countie of Cheſter, which doe to manie of the kinges liege people in diuers counties of England manie manſlaughters, murders, robberies, bateries, treſpaſſes, and other riots and offences, ſhall ſtande in his force, this ordinance notwithſtanding. And that this ordinance ſhall endure till the ende of vii. yeeres next enſuing.

Iuſtices of peace.

Item for as much as at the greeuous complaint made to the king by the commons in the counties of Herford, Glouceſter, and of Shropſhire, which counties be adioyning to the marches of Wales, and in the counties of Somerſet, Cheſter, and Briſtowe, it was ſhewed to the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king, that where as an other time in time of the noble king Henrie grandfather to our ſouereigne lorde the king that nowe is, the ſeconde yeere of his reigne, for the great oppreſſions and extortions, which they of Wales and of the marches of Wales dailie made to people dwelling in the ſaid counties of Herford, Glouceſter, and Shropſhire, in taking bringing and bearing away of their horſes beaſtes and other goods and cattals out of the ſame counties into the ſaid marches, and ſuch goods horſes cattals there withholding, till gree be made at their will: It was ordeined & ſtabliſhed, that if anie beaſts, goods, or cattals, be taken within the ſame counties, and driuen or brought out of the ſaide counties into Wales, or into the marches of Wales, that then the ſhiriffes of the ſame counties, maiors or bailiffes of cities and boroughs, or bailiffes of fraunchiſes, where ſuch takings be made, ſhall ſend their letters vnder their ſeales to the gouernours, or to the ſtewardes of the ſegniories, where ſuch offendours be abiding, that they ſhall deliuer ſuch diſtreſſes ſo taken, within eight daies after the receipt of the ſaide letters. And if they doe not, that the parties ſo greeued ſhall take anie perſons goods or cattals comming out of the ſaide ſeigniories, where ſuch offendours be abiding, and them ſhall withholde, till that they be reſtored to their goods ſo taken, with their damage coſtes and expenſes, which ſtatute is not ſufficient remedie, for as much as the ſaide offendours bee dwelling ſometime in one ſeigniorie and ſometime in an other, and haue no place certeine to tarie, and alſo they take to the moſt number of people of the ſaide counties comming into Wales and into the marches of Wales, and out of the ſaide counties and them withholde, till gree bee to them made at their will, and alſo oftentimes the parties greeued durſt not make execution of the ſaide ſtatute for doubte of death and manie other miſcheefes and inconueniencies, which thereof ſhoulde enſue, ſo that the ſaide offendours be the more bolde to take, driue, bring, and carie awaie the people of the ſaide counties their horſes, beaſtes, goods, and cattals of the ſaide counties, into Wales, and into the marches of Wales, whither they fled before the ſaid ſtatute, to the perpetuall deſtruction and impoueriſhment of the ſaid commons, except that ſpeedy remedy therof be made. Our ſaid ſouereigne lord, willing againſt ſuch miſcheefes and inconueniences to prouide a remedie in this behalfe, hath ordeined by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that if anie people of the ſaide counties in Wales, or in the marches of Wales, doe driue, bring, carie awaie, or withholde, ſuch takinges and withholdings, their abbettementes and receiptes in Wales (they hauing knowledge of ſuch offences aforeſayde) ſhall be adiudged hie treaſon. And he that is thereof attainted, it ſhall bee done of him as of a traitour to our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king. And that the iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions in the ſaid counties ſhall haue power to enquire, heare, and determine of all ſuch offendours their abettours receiuours, and to make proceſſe againſt ſuch perſons endited by two Capias and one Exigent euerie Capias conteining the ſpace of two monethes at the leaſt, betwixt the date of euerie Capias and the date of the returne of the ſame. And mencion be made in the ſayde writs of Capias, that the ſhiriffes of the ſaide counties for the time being ſhall doe to be proclaimed in their counties, that all ſuch perſons endited ſhall appeare before the ſayde iuſtices in their ſeſſions, to anſwere of the matters conteined in the ſaid enditementes. Prouided alwaies that the lordes marchers, of whom ſuch offenders their abbettours and receiuours holde lands and tenements, ſhall haue the forfeite of them, the forfeitures of their goods and catals found within their ſeigniories, after that they ſhall be attainted of the offences aforeſaid. And that this ordinance ſhall endure till the end of ſixe yeeres.

Item where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xii. yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the fourth, it was ordained and ſtabliſhed, that no man of commen hoſtrie in anie citie or burgh of this realme, ſhall be cuſtomer, controller, nor ſercher, and that to eſchew the domages & preiudices, which thereof may growe by the fauour that ſuch common hoſtelers may & will make to marchants, and to other their hoſtes in their offices. And now of late diuers cuſtomers, controllers, and alſo ſercherrs, controllers and ſurueiors of ſerchers, haue diuers perſons to be their clerkes deputies and miniſters in their ſaide offices, of which clerkes, deputies and miniſters, ſome haue ſhippes of their owne, and ſome of them medle with the fraiting of ſhippes, and alſo buie and ſell diuers marchandiſes and thereof occupie to their owne vſe diuers wharfes and keies, being by the waters ſides where common diſcharge of diuers marchandiſes is had in diuers portes of this realme, by the which aſwell great diſceite and domages daylie doo grow to the king of his cuſtomes and ſubſidies, as great loſſe to marchants repairing to the portes, where the ſaid clerkes, deputies, and miniſters be: Alſo manie hold hoſtries & tauernes, and alſo keepe wharfes, and they and their ſeruaunts be factours and atturneis for marchauntes denizens and aliens, by which great domage and loſſe daylie dooth growe to the king in his cuſtomes and ſubſidies, by fauour that ſuch clerkes, deputies, and miniſters, holding ſuch hoſtries, tauernes, and wharfes, doo to marchaunts and to other their hoſtes with the ſaide officers, And greater domage is like thereof to growe in time to come if ſpeedie remedie be not prouided. Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, willing againſt ſuch domages and loſſes to prouide a remedie in this behalfe, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, by auctoritie aforeſaide, that no cuſtomer, controller of the cuſtome, clerkes, deputies, miniſters, nor their ſeruaunts, factours, nor ſerchers controllers, or ſurueiors of ſerches, nor their clerkes, deputies, miniſters or factors, ſhall haue anie ſhippes of their owne, or ſhall buie or ſell by way or by colour of marchandiſe, nor they ſhall not medle with the fraiting of ſhippes, or haue or occupie anie ſuch wharfes or keies, or ſhall holde anie hoſtries or tauernes, or ſhall be anie factous or atturneis for anie marchant denizen or alien, nor ſhall be hoſte of anie marchant alien, vpon the paine of fortie poundes to be forfeite as often as they doo the contrarie, that is to ſay, the one halfe to the king, and the other halfe to him that will ſue in this caſe againſt any ſuch perſon dooing the contrarie, this ordinance to begin at the feaſt of ſaint Michaell next comming.

Chap. 6.

Item where as at the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xv. yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, for the common profite of all the realme, and ſpecialie for the counties adioyning to the ſea, it was ordained and ſtabliſhed in the forme which foloweth. Item for aſmuch as by the king it is ordained, that no man may carie or bring corne out of the realme, without the kings licence, becauſe whereof fermours and other men, which vſe manuring of their land, may not ſell their corne but at a lowe price, to the great damages of all the realme. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, willing in this caſe to prouide a remedie, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed by auctoritie afore ſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie man to ſhip & carie all maner of corne and graine out of this realme, to anie place that him pleaſeth, except alonelie to the kings enemies, as often and as long as a quarter of whete dooth not exceede the price of vi. s. viii. d. and a quarter of Barleie three ſhillings, in the port where the whete or barleie is ſo ſhipped. And that without ſuing anie licence for the ſame, all maner of ordinance made to the contrarie notwithſtanding. Prouided alwaies that the king be contented of his cuſtomes. And this ordinance ſhall endure till the next parliament. Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, for aſmuch as this ſtatute is not now in his force, & that manie counties adioyning to yͤ ſea, may not ſell the ſubſtaunce of their corne, but by cariage and bringing by the ſea, hath ordained by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that the ſtatute and ordinance aforeſaide now expired (as afore is ſaid) ſhall beginne to hold his force at the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our ladie next enſuing, and ſhall endure from thence till the next parliament next to be holden after the ſame feaſt, ſo that a parlament muſt be holden within ten yeeres next enſuing after the firſt beginning of this preſent parliament. And if ſo be that there be no parliament holden within the ſame ten yeeres, that then it ſhall continue and endure till the end of the ſame ten yeeres.

Corne.
Licence.

Marchandiſes.

Item it is graunted and ordained by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that if anie hereafter bring anie marchandiſes comming from anie parties beyond the ſea, to anie port or place with in the land of Wales, and after them ſend into England, and there diſcharge them out of anie ſhippe or veſſell the cuſtomes and ſubſidies thereof to the king not paied, or if anie perſon in anie of the ſaid ports and places in Wales, ſhippe anie woolles, wolfelles, or other marchandiſe of the ſtaple, to be brought to the parties beyond the ſea, not cuſtomed, nor the ſubſidie to the king not paied, ſhall forfeite the ſame goods and marchandiſes. And that the king ſhall haue his ſuite in this behalfe in the countie next enioining in England to the porte, in the which ſuch marchandiſes ſhall be ſhipped or brought into Wales, and that this ordinance ſhall endure till the next parliament.

Cuſtome woolles, wolfelles. &c.

Chap. 8.

Purueiors

Conſtable.

Iuſtices of peace.

Commiſſion of purueiors.

Item it is ordained by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that the ſtatutes before this time made of purueiors and buiers, ſhall be holden and kept, and put in due execution. And in caſe that anie purueior, buier, or taker will take and make purueiance, or buie anie thing to the value of fortie ſhillings or aboue of anie perſon, & make not readie payment in hand, that then it ſhall be lawfull to euerie of the kings liege people to retaine their goods & catals, and to reſiſt ſuch purueiors and buiers, and in no maner wiſe ſuffer them to make anie ſuch purueiances, buiengs, or takings. And for the peace better to be kept, that euerie conſtable, tithing man, or chiefe pledge of euerie towne or hamlet, where ſuch takings or purueiances ſhall be made, ſhall be aiding or aſſiſting to the owner or ſeller of ſuch thinges to be taken againſt the forme of this ordinance, to make reſiſtance in the forme aforeſaid, in caſe that ſuch conſtables, tithingman or chiefe pledges be required that to doo, vpon paine to yeeld to the partie ſo greeued the value of the thinges ſo taken, with his double damages. And that none of the kings liege people be put to loſſe or domage by the king or anie officer for ſuch reſiſtance. And that none of the kings officers ſhall doo to be arreſted, vexed, or impleded in the court of the marſhalſeie or elſewhere, anie of the kings liege people for ſuch witholding or not ſuffering to be doone, vpon paine to loſe twentie poundes, the one moitie of that to the king, and the other moitie to him which will in ſuch caſe ſue. And that the iuſtices of peace in euerie countie ſhall haue power by auctoritie of this ordinance, to enqire here and determine, aſwell at the ſuite of the king as of him which will ſue, of anie thing doone againſt this ordinauce, and thereof to make due puniſhment and execution, and to awarde damages to the partie plaintiffe, when anie defendaunt is thereof duelie conuict. And that in euerie action to be taken, vpon this ordinance, euerie partie defendaunt ſhall be put to aunſwere to that without aide of the king. And in ſuch actions to be taken, proceſſe ſhall be made as in a writ of treſpas doone againſt the peace. And that in euerie commiſſion of purueiors, buiers, or takers to be made, this ordinance ſhall be contained and expreſſed. And moreouer that this ordinance among other ſtatutes of purueiors, buiers, or takers before this time made, ſhall be ſent to the ſhiriffes of euerie countie of England to proclaime and deliuer the ſaide ſtatutes and ordinaunces in the maner and forme contained in the ſtatute of purueiors and buiers, made the firſt yeere of the reigne of our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king that now is. And moreouer the king will and commaund, that the ſtatute made the ſixe and thirtie yeere of king Edward, late king of England after the conqueſt, touching purueiors of other perſons then of the king, ſhould be put in due execution.

Chap. 9

Free man.

Ladies of great eſtate.

Peeres of the realme

Item where as it is contained in the great charter among other thinges in the forme which foloweth. No free man ſhall be taken or impriſoned, or diſſeaſed of his freehold or his liberties or free cuſtomes, or ſhall be outlawed or baniſhed, or in anie wiſe deſtroied, nor go vpon him nor ſend vpon him, but by the lawfull iudgement of his peeres, or by the lawe of the lande. In which ſtatute is no mention made, how women, ladies of great eſtate, bicauſe of their huſbandes peeres of the land married or ſoole, that is to ſay, ducheſſes, counteſſes, or baroneſſes ſhall be put to anſwere, or before what Iudges that they ſhall be iudged vppon enditementes of treaſones or felonies by them committed or done, becauſe whereof it is an ambyguitie in the lawe of England, before whome and by whom ſuch ladies ſo endited ſhal be put to anſwere and be iudged. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king, willing to put out ſuch ambyguities and doubtes hath declared by auctoritie aforeſaide, that ſuch ladies ſo endited or herafter to be endited of anie treaſon or felonie, by them done or hereafter to be done, whither that they be married or ſoole, that thereof ſhalbe brought in anſwere and put to anſwere and iudged before ſuch iudges and peeres of the realme, as peeres of the realme ſhould be, if they were endited or impeched of ſuch treaſons or felonies done or hereafter to be done, and in like maner and forme, and in none other wiſe.

Cap. 10.

Worſteds.

Norwich.

Item where as well in the citie of Norwych as in the countie of Norfolke there be diuerſe perſones which make falſe clothes of all maner of worſtedes not being of the aſſiſes in length and bredth as they ought to be and were of olde time accuſtomed, and the ſlaies and thredes perteining to the ſame be not rightfullie made and wrought, in great deceipt aſwell of deniſens of the king as of the ſtraungers repairing into this realme of England, which buy & vſe ſuch merchaundiſe, truſting that it ſhall be within as it ſheweth without, where of trouth it is contrarie, and where as worſted was ſometime a good merchandiſe and greatlie deſired & loued in the parties beyond the ſea, now bicauſe that it is of falſe worke & of falſe ſtuffe, no man thereof taketh regard which is great domage to the kinges cuſtomes, to the greate domage and preiudice of the kinges faithfull liege people. Our ſaid ſoueraige lord the king, willing againſt ſuch domage and preiudice to prouide a remedie in this behalfe, hath ordained by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that men of the craft of worſted weauers within the ſaid citie, ſhall haue power euerie yeere at yͤ feaſt of Pentecoſt to choſe iiii. wardeins within the ſaid citie, of the ſame craft, and the ſame wardeins to haue power to choſe other ii. men of the ſame crafte in the ſaide countie of the ſaid citie, and all the ſame wardeines to come before the maior of the ſaide citie for the time being, the mundaie after the daie of Corpus Chriſti then enſuing, and there to be ſworne before the maior, to doe right and make due ſuch of all maner of worſteds, and of the ſtuffe belonging to the ſame, made or to be made within the ſaid citie or countie. And that euerie peece of worſted ſhall be purſuing through the cloth of right worke good and conuenable ſtuffe, and that they ſhall hold the length and breadth as the aſſiſe hath of olde time bene rightfullie accuſtomed, that is to ſaie, the beddes of the greateſt aſſiſe in length xiiii. yardes largelie, and in breadth foure yardes through the peece, and beddes of the meane aſſiſe xii. yardes in length, and three yardes in breadth through the peece, and beddes of the leaſt aſſiſe x. yardes in length largelie, and two yardes and a halfe in breadth, and clothes called monkes clothes, xii. yardes in length at the leaſt, and fiue quarters in breadth, and clothes called chanon clothes, fiue yardes in length, and vii. quarters in breadth, and clothes called clothes, vi. yardes in the length and two yards in the breath, and double worſted x. yards in length, and fiue quarters in breadth largelie, and halfe doubles, vi. yardes in length, and fiue quarters in breadth, and rolle worſted, xxx. yardes in length, and halfe a yarde in breadth largelie. And that no lambes wolle, nor wolle called pelt wolle, ſhall be put in anie of theſe worſtedes. And that the wardeines of the ſaide craft for the time being, ſhall haue power and auctoritie to ſeaſe all ſuch clothes and ſtuffe ſo found defectiſe. And that the maior of the ſaide citie for the time being, ſhall haue power by the ſaide auctoritie to enquire, heare, and determine as well at the kings ſuite as at the informations of the ſaide wardeines, of all them which doe contrarie to this ordinance within the ſaide citie. And in like forme the iuſtices of peace in the ſaide countie out of the ſaide citie, ſhall haue power to enquire, heare, and determine, of all them which do againſt the premiſſes in the ſaid countie out of the ſaide citie. And if anie man before the maior or iuſtice of the peace be thereof duelie conuict and attainted, that then the ſame worſtedes and ſtuffe ſo found defectiſe ſhall be forfeite, that is to ſaie, the one halfe of ſuch forfeiture to the king, and the other halfe to the wardeines for the time being of the ſaide craft, And that the maior for the time being of the ſaide craft, and citie the iuſtices of peace in the ſaide countie, ſhall haue power to make ſuch proces ſeuerallie againſt ſuch perſon or perſons, which ſhall be found defectiſe by enquirie before them to be taken, of anie thing done againſt the premiſſes, as the kings iuſtices of peace do vpon enditementes taken before them of treſpaſſe done with force and armes againſt the kinges peace. And that this ordinance ſhall begin to take effect at the feaſt of ſaint Michael next comming. And that it ſhall endure till the ende of three yeeres next enſuing after the ſame feaſt of ſaint Michael.

Chap. 12. Trewce. Saufeconduites.

Item where it was ordeined and declared by the ſtatute made the ſeconde yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the v. father to our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, for as much as before the ſaide ordinance diuers people comprized within the ſaide trewce, made as well by the ſaide late king as by king Henrie the fourth, grandfather to our ſoueraigne lorde that nowe is, and diuerſe other hauing ſaufeconduites as well of the ſaide late king Henrie the v. as of the ſaide late king Henrie the fourth, ſome haue bene ſlaine, ſome robbed and diſpoiled by the kings liege people and ſubiectes, as well vpon the maine ſea as within the ports and coſtes of the ſea of Englande, of Irelande and of Wales, whereby the ſaid trewce and ſaufeconduites haue bene broken and offended, to the great diſhonour and ſclander of the king, and againſt his dignitie, and the ſaid manquellers, robbers, ſpoylers, and offenders of the ſaide trewce and the kinges ſaufeconduites, as afore is declared, haue bene by diuers of the kings liege people and ſubiects within the coſts of diuers counties receiued, abbetted, and procured, concealed, hiered, ſuſteined, and mainteined, that ſuch manſlaughter, robberie, ſpoiling, breaking of trewce, and of the kinges ſafeconduites, and wilfull receipt, abbettement, procurement, concealement, hier, ſuſtenaunce, and maintenaunce of ſuch perſons to be made in time to come by anie of the kinges liege people and ſubiectes within the realme of Englande, of Irelande, and of Wales, or vpon the maine ſea, ſhall be iudged and determined for high treaſon, done againſt the crowne and the kinges dignitie. And for as much as the paines conteined and ſpecified in the ſtatute aforeſaide, be ſo rigorous againſt the kinges liege people and ſubiects, and them ſo ſtraitlie binde that the aduerſaries and enimies of the king be greatlie bolded and comforted to make warre againſt them, and manie of the kinges liege people and ſubiectes as well vpon the ſea and coſtes of the ſea, as in the marches of the realme of Englande, oftentimes haue bene, ſome robbed and ſpoyled, and ſome ſlayne, whereby manie of the kinges liege people inhabiting in the marches and coſtes aforeſaide, be greatlie hindered and impoueriſhed, and in point to be finallie deſtroied, and the marchantes and mariners of the king be greatlie thereby diſcoraged and abaſhed to paſſe vpon the ſea with their ſhippes and veſſels, with their marchandiſes, or otherwiſe to make warre for the ſaufegarde of the ſea, and the nauie of the realme of our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king in point to be deſtroied, and the marchauntes of the king clearelie diſcomforted to make or renewe anie ſhippes or veſſels. At the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the tenth daie of October the xiiii. yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is the penaltie, iudgement, and determination in the ſame ſtatute conteined was put in ſuſpence & reſpite by vii. yeeres then next enſuing, as by the ſtatute thereof made in the ſame parliament plainelie appeareth. The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king that nowe is, conſidering the premiſſes, and that the ſaide time of ſeuen yeeres is well nigh paſt, ordeineth by auctoritie aforeſaide that none of his liege people and ſubiectes, by force of the ſayde ſtatute, for nothing by him attempted or hereafter to bee done againſt the forme and tenour of the ſaide ſtatute, as to the ſaide paine of treaſon, ſhall be in anie wiſe puniſhed, moleſted, nor greeued, nor ſhall incurre no paine for the ſame otherwiſe then he ought before the making of the ſayde ſtatute, but that hee his heires and executors of all paines and forfeitures of treaſon, becauſe of the ſayde ſtatute, againſt the king his heires and ſucceſſours ſhall be clearely quit and diſcharged. And that this ordinaunce ſhall endure till the next parliament.

Chap.12 Particion. Wolles wolfelles, &c.

Staple. Caleis.

Bullion.

Item where as by the ordinance of partition made vpon wolles and wolfelles in the ſtaple of Caleis, and by the long and ſtreit continuance of the ſame, great hinderance and decreaſe haue come to the king of great notable ſummes of his great cuſtomes and ſubſidies, as well in his realme of England, as at his towne of Caleis, as appeareth ſufficientlie of recorde in his eſchequer, for the which the commons of this realme haue bene often times charged to their great damage, the kinges ſouldiers of Caleis and of the marches there the worſe paied of their wages, the ſaide towne and caſtle of Caleis not repaired, and that alſo the ſaide ſtreit rule hath cauſed manie marchantes ſtraungers to labour to their lordes of their partie to make as greeuous and ſtreit ſearch vpon bullion comming to the kinges mint to Caleis, ſo that men of diuerſe countries in conueiaunce of bullion haue bene greatlie hindered, as well in their perſons as in their goods, ſo that the ſaide mint is fallen in great decaie, and maie not be ſuſteined as it was in the time of the reigne of king Henrie the fift, father to our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king that nowe is, and manie yeeres, before that the ſaide particion was firſt ordeined and made. And that moreouer that marchants of this realme be by that greatly hindered, and the moſt part of them of very neceſſity be enforced to leaue their marchandiſes of wolles and wolfelles, becauſe that they may not attende the ſtreit rule of the ſaide partition. And whereby ſome doe ſteale out of this realme wolles and wolfelles without paiment of anie cuſtome, ſubſidie, to our ſouereigne lorde the king for the ſame which hath bene and is dailie a great decreaſe and hinderance to the nauie of this realme of Englande, and to the maſters of ſhips and mariners, becauſe that their liuing and yeerelie auaile is greatlie decreaſed and miniſhed by the litle ſhipping of wolles and wolfelles of the ſaide ſtaple, for the cauſes aforeſaide, and that the price and value of the wolles and wolfelles by the ſaide ſtreit rules and ordinances of partition is verie greatlie decreaſed and miniſhed. And where as vpon the ſame it was praied to the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king that nowe is, by his ſaide commons by their petition to him made, that it woulde pleaſe him of his noble grace to conſider the premiſſes, and for the vniuerſall weale, auaile, and encreaſe of riches of this realme, to graunt and ordeine by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that all wolles and wolfelles, which hereafter ſhall be ſhipped by marchantes denizens of this realme of Englande to the ſtaple of Caleis, ſhall be put to ſale by the owners of the ſame wolles and wolfelles, or by their atturneies there vnder due forme and rule of the ſaide ſtaple, to the price and value of the ſaide wolles and wolfelles, as it is by the ordinaunce of the ſaide ſtaple at this time put and vſed, or at ſuch price as by the rule of the ſaide ſtaple ſhall be ordeined and appointed, as often and when it ſhall pleaſe the ſame marchants or their atturneies. So that the thirde part of the price and value for all ſuch wolles and wolfelles, to be ſolde hereafter to the ſaide ſtaple, at the time of the ſale and before the deliuerie of them, ſhall be brought from the ſaide ſtaple and had in bullion of ſiluer to the kinges mint at Caleis, there to be coined by the ſurueing of the maior, conſtables, and companie of the ſaide ſtaple for the time being, to be deliuered after that it is ſo coined to the ſaide marchantes owners of the ſaide wolles and wolfelles ſo ſolde, and by them or their atturneies to bee brought and had in the ſaide realme of Englande by the ordinaunce and ſurueing of the ſaide maior and conſtables and companie of the ſaide ſtaple for the time being, without imbeſilling or ſubtraction of that in anie wiſe, and without particion of the monie which ſhall come of the ſaide bullion, or of anie paiment of theſe other parties of the value of the ſayde wolles and wolfelles to be had or made. And that this ordinaunce ſhall endure till the ende of vii. yeeres next enſuing: The ſame our ſouereigne lorde conſidering the premiſſes hath graunted and ordeined, by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that as to the particion aforeſaide, the maior and conſtables and companie of the ſaid ſtaple of Caleis ſhall reforme the ſame among them ſelfe according to the ſaide peticion, before the firſt daie of Auguſt next comming. And that it ſhall be ſo obſerued hereafter during the ſaide vii. yeeres. And if they that doe not then the ſame, our ſouereigne lorde the king hath granted and ordeined by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that as to the peticion and to the remnaunt in the ſame peticion conteined, it ſhall be done as it is deſired.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, the xxiii. yeere of King Henrie the ſixth.

AT the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xxv. daie of Februarie, the xxiii. yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the vi. the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons being in the ſaid parliament by auctoritie of the ſame parliament made to be ordeined and ſtabliſhed diuerſe ordinaunces and ſtatutes in the maner and forme following.

Purueiours.

FIrſt where as in the parliament holden the xxxvi. yeere of king Edward the thirde, for the greeuous complaintes made vpon purueiours of vittailes, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no man of the realme ſhoulde haue anie takinges but onelie the king and the queene his companion, and that vpon ſuch purueiance to be made for the houſes of the king & the queene, readie paiment ſhall be made in hand, that is to ſay, the price for which ſuch vitailes ſhall be ſould commonlie in markets neere about, and that the hainous name of purueiors ſhall be chaunged and named buiers, and if the buiers can not well agrée with the ſeller for that that ſhall néede, then the priſes that ſhall be made for the ſaid two houſes ſhall be made by the view witneſſing and preiſing of the lordes or their bailiffes and conſtables, and iiii. good men of euerie towne, and that by endenture to be made betwixt the buiers and that the ſaide lordes or bailiffes, conſtables, or foure men containing the quantitie of their price, & the price, & of what perſons. And that the priſes ſhall be made in a conuenient and eaſie maner without dureſſe, manace, rebuke, or other villanie. And that the priſes & buiengs ſhall be made in places where there is greateſt plentie, and that in conuenient time. And that there be no more taken then ſhall néede for the ſeaſon for the ſaid two houſes. And that the number of the ſaid buiers ſhall be miniſhed in aſmuch as a man may well. And that ſuch be buiers, which ſhall be ſufficient to aunſwere to the king & to his people. And that none of them ſhall haue a deputie. And that the commiſſions ſhall be ſealed with the great ſeale, and euerie halfe yéere reſtored in the chauncerie, and other to be made of new, and that in the ſaide commiſſions ſhall be compriſed all the maner and matter of their priſes and buiengs. And that no man ſhall be holden to obeie to the buiers of other lordes againſt their good will, nor to the buiers of the ſaide houſes, if they make not readie paiment in hand, as afore is ſaide. And that no man ſhall be put in contempt becauſe of diſobedience doone in this behalfe. And that the priſes of all maner of corne and malt for the ſaid two houſes ſhall be meaſured by the meaſure according to the ſtandard ſtricken and not heaped. And for the cariage of the ſaid corne and malte, and for all other maner of priſes and buiengs to be made for theſe two houſes, readie paiment ſhall be made in hand in the ſame maner as for the priſes and buiengs aforeſaid. And that no more cariage be taken then ſhall be néedefull in this behalfe. And if anie buier make anie priſes and buiengs, or be taker of cariage, in anie other maner then is compriſed in their commiſſions, they ſhall haue puniſhment of life and of member as is ordained of purueiors.

Chap. 2. Buier of vitaile.

Item that no buier of vitaile nor taker of cariage, ſhall take nor receiue of no man anie gift or other pleaſure, to ſhew anie fauour, nor ſhall charge nor greeue anie man becauſe of ſuch takings, buiengs, and cariages, for hatred, enemitie, ill will, or procurement. And if he doo, and of that be attainted at the ſuite of the partie, he ſhall yéeld to the partie his treble domages, and ſhall haue the impriſonment of two yéeres, and ſhall be raunſomed at the kings will, and after ſhall forſweare the courte, and if the partie will not ſue, he that will ſue for the king ſhall haue the third penie of that that ſhall be recouered for his labour. And neuertheleſſe the buier and taker ſhall haue the puniſhment as afore is ſaid in the ſame article. And that euerie buier vpon his account ſhall doo to be declared & ſeuerallie diſtinguiſhed all the takings, buiengs, & of euerie countie, towne, or perſon: Our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king that now is, conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordained & commaunded by auctoritie of his ſaide parliament, that the ſaid ſtatutes from henceforth ſhall be duelie kept & put in due execution. And moreouer hath ordained by the ſame auctoritie, that euerie purueior and buier before that they ſhall haue anie commiſſion, ſhall be ſworne in ẏ chauncerie, that he ſhall take nothing of the people contrarie to the ſaid ordinances, And moreouer for aſmuch as the poore people be not of power, nor dare make reſiſtance againſt the purueiors & buiers, nor ſue them by the law, though that they doo contrarie to the ſaid ſtatutes, it is ordained by the ſame auctoritie, that the preiſers, & alſo all the towne or townes adioining, if néede be, ſhall be bound to doo their deuoir and power to reſiſt the buiers and purueiors, doing contrarie to the ſaid ſtatutes, and aſmuch as in them is to execute the ſaid ſtatutes vpon the ſame purueiors, if they be required. And that he which is gréeued of his goods taken contrarie to the ſaid ſtatutes, & ordinances, may chooſe to haue an action of debt againſt the ſaide preiſors, towne or townes, and euerie of them, which doo not their deuoir in reſiſtance of the ſaide purueiors or buiers in the forme aforeſaid, when they ſhall be required, or elſe againſt the ſaide purueiors or buiers and euerie of them to recouer the treble value of his goods ſo taken, and moreouer his treble coſtes and his damages. And if anie purueior or other the kings officer, doo trouble or vexe anie of the kings liege people in the marſhalſie or elſewhere, by anie ſmall ſuggeſtion or cauſe feined, imagined, or coloured vpon them becauſe of execution of the ſaid ordinances, he ſhall incurre the paine of xx. pounds to be paied to the partie greeued ouer his domages & coſtes in this behalfe ſuſtained. And that he thereupon ſhall haue a writ of debt. And that euerie iſſue triable in this action ſhall be tried in the countie where taking of the ſaid goods was made. And that the defendaunts in all the ſaide caſes ſhall not be admitted to wage their lawe. And ſhall be put to aunſwere without fourching, And no eſſoine, aide, of the king, nor protection ſhall be to them allowed. And that the ſeriaunt of the caterie ſhall ſatiſfie all the domages, debts, and executions, which ſhould be recouered againſt euerie purueior and buier vnderneath him in all the caſes aforeſaid, in caſe that the purueior or buier be not ſufficient to ſatiſfie. And the partie complainant ſhall haue a Scire facias to haue execution againſt the ſaide ſeriauntes in that caſe. And that theſe ſtatutes and ordinaunces ſhall be ſent to the iuſtices of the peace in euerie countie, to proclaime them euerie yéere, and thereof to enforme the people.

Purueiors.

Chap. 3. Thrums. Woollen threed.

Item our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king hath ordained by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that no man hereafter ſhall packe nor ſhippe anie thrummes nor woollen threddes in anie wiſe,, to be had or to paſſe out of this realme of England beyond the ſea, during the terme of thrée yéeres next enſuing, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame thrums and wollen thred, or the verie value of the ſame to the king: The king to haue the one halfe thereof, and he which ſhall the ſame eſpie, finde, and proue the ſame to be forfeite, to haue the other halfe. And that he that packeth to ſhippe beyond the ſea anie ſuch thrummes or wollen thred hereafter, contrarie to this ordinance, ſhall haue one yéeres impriſonment, and moreouer ſhall make fine & raunſome for his offence in this behalfe, ſauing alwaies to the king his auantage by the ſtatute made in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the eight yéere of his noble reigne touching this matter.

Chap. 4. Worſteds. Item where as in the laſt parliament of the king holden at Weſtminſter, among other things it was enacted and graunted by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, that where there were diuers perſons aſwell within the citie of Norwich as in the countie of Norfolke, which made falſe worke of all maner of worſteds, not being of the aſſiſe in length and bredth as they ought to be, and were of olde time accuſtomed, and the ſlaies and thred to that pertaining were falſelie made and wrought, to the great diſceite aſwell of denizens as of ſtrangers repairing to this realme, which vſe to buie ſuch marchandiſes, truſting that they be within as it appeareth outwardlie, where of trueth it was contrarie: And where worſteds were ſometime good marchandiſes and greatlie deſired and loued in the parties beyond the ſea, becauſe it was of falſe worke and of falſe ſtuffe, no man doth ſet by the ſame, to the great damage of the kings cuſtome, & great damage & preiudice to his faithfull people, it was alſo ordained to the deſtruction of ſuch defautes, that the men of the ſaid craft within the ſaide citie ſhould haue power euerie yéere at the feaſt of Pentecoſte, to chooſe iiii. wardeines within the ſaid citie of the ſame craft. And the ſame wardeins to haue power to chooſe other two men in the ſaid countie out of the ſaid citie, and all the ſaide wardeins to come before the maior of the ſaid citie for the time being, the monday after ẏ day of corpus Chriſti then next enſuing, and there to be ſworne before the maior, to make true and due ſerch of all maner of worſteds, and of the ſtuffe pertaining to the ſame, made or to be made within ẏ ſaid citie or countie, and that euerie péece of worſted ſhal be purſuing through all the cloth of right worke good & couenable ſtuffe, and that they ſhall hold the lengh & bredth as the aſſiſe hath bene of olde time accuſtomed, that is to ſay, beds of the greateſt aſſiſe in length xiiii. yardes largelie, and in bredth iiii. yardes largelie through the péece, and beds of the meane aſſiſe xii. yardes in length, and in bredth through the péece iii. yardes, and beds of the leaſt aſſiſe x. yardes in length largelie, and two yardes and a halfe in bredth. And clothes called the monkes clothes xii. yardes in length at the leaſt and v. quarters in bredth. And clothes called chanon clothes of the one aſſiſe v. yardes in length and vii. quarters in bredth. And of the other aſſiſe vi. yardes in length and two yardes in bredth. And double worſted x. yardes in length, and v. quarters in bredth. And halfe double vi. yardes in length and fiue quarters in bredth, and role worſted xxx. yardes in length and halfe Peltwolle. a yarde in bredth largelie. And that no lammes wolle nor wolle called peltwolle ſhall be put in anie of the ſame worſteds. And that the wardeines of the ſaid craft for the time being ſhall haue power and auctoritie to ſeaſe all ſuch clothes and ſtuffe ſo found defectiſe, and that the maior of the ſaid citie for the time being haue power ſo enquire, heare, and determine aſwell at the kings ſuite as at the information of the ſaid wardeins, of all them that doo contrarie to the ſaide ordinance within the ſaid citie. In like forme the iuſtices of the peace in the ſaid countie out of the ſaid citie, ſhall haue power to enquire, heare, and determine of all them that doo contrarie to the premiſſes in the ſaid countie out of the ſaid citie. And if anie man before the ſaid maior or iuſtice of the peace ſhall be duelie conuict and attainted, that then the ſame worſteds and ſtuffe ſo found defectiſe ſhall be forfeite, that is to ſay, the one halfe of ſuch forfeiture to the king, and the other halfe to the wardeins of the ſaid craft for the time being. And that the maior for the time being of the ſaid citie, and the iuſtices of the peace in the ſaid countie, ſhall haue power to make ſuch proceſſe ſeuerallie againſt ſuch perſon or perſons, which ſhall be found defectiſe by inquirie before them to be taken of anie thing doone contrarie to the premiſſes, as the iuſtices of peace doo vpon enditements taken before them of treſpaſſe doone with force and armes againſt the kings peace. And that the ſaid ordinance ſhall beginne to take effect at the feaſt of ſaint Michaell next enſuing the ſaide parliament, to endure till the end of thrée yéeres: The king conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordained by auctoritie of his ſaide parliament, holden the xxv day of Februarie, for the weale of all his people of his ſaid realme, and in amendement of the ſaide worſteds, for and in deſtruction of all maner of diſceite to be doone and wrought in worſteds by them that haue them by the meanes of the ſame, that men of the ſaide craft within the ſaide citie ſhall haue power euerie yéere at the feaſt of Pentecoſte to chooſe foure wardeines within the ſaid citie of the ſame craft. And alſo in like maner that the artificers of the ſame craft, dwelling out of the ſaid citie, that is to ſay, in the countie of Norfolke, ſhall haue power euerie yéere at the feaſt of Pentecoſte to chooſe foure wardeins within the ſaide countie of the ſame craft. And that the wardeines in the ſaide countie and citie ſhall be ſworne before the maior of the ſaid citie, and the ſteward of the duchie of Lancaſter within the ſaid countie for the time being, if he be preſent within the ſaid citie, or elſe before the maior alone, the ſaid ſteward being abſent at ſuch time. And that all the ſaid wardeins, aſwell within the ſaid citie as without, or elſe the moſt part of them, vnder the ſame forme before rehearſed choſen & ſworne, ſhall haue full power to ſurueie the worke of the ſaide artificers. And that they ſhall make and worke well and lawfullie. And doo to be ordained ſuch rules and ordinances within the ſaid craft, as ſhall ſéeme to them neceſſarie for the amendement of the ſaide worſteds and the craft. And that ſuch rules and ordinances by them ſo made and ordained to be by the ſaid artificers obeied & obſerued, or elſe ſuch of the ſaid artificers that breake or doo contrarie to the ſaid rules and ordinances, to be puniſhed by the diſcretion of the ſaid maior and ſteward. And alſo that no man of the ſaid craft ſhall make anie worſted, except he put vpon the ſame his ſigne by the ordinance of the ſaide wardeines, or otherwiſe the ſaide worſteds ſhall be forfeite to the king, and that the ſaide wardeins, aſwell within the ſaide citie as within the counties of Norfolke, and Suffolke, ſhall haue full power to ſearch or doo to be ſearched all maner of worſteds, aſwell within the loomes as without the loomes. And that all maner of worſted and ſtuffe pertaining to the ſame found by them for anie cauſe recited defectiſe by the ſaide wardeines to be forfeite, that is to ſay, the one halfe to the maior and bailiffes of the citie, burghes, or townes, or to the chiefe lordes of the fee of and in ſuch places where ſuch worſteds and ſtuffe by the ſaide wardeines ſhall happen to be found defectiſe & forfaitable for anie cauſe aforeſaid, and the other halfe to the wardeines of the ſaide craft, and that all maner maiors, ſhiriffes, and bailiffes, and all other officers ſhall be attending, aiding, and ſupporting the ſaid wardeines in their ſearches, as often as they or anie of them ſhall be by the ſaide wardeines or anie of them required. And that this ordinance ſhall endure till the end of three yeeres next enſuing. Prouided alwaies, that if the wardeines of the ſaide craft, aſwell within the ſaide citie of Norwich as without, or otherwiſe the greater parte of them in maner and forme aforeſaide, happen to be choſen and ſworne to make anie ſuch rules and ordinances as afore is ſaide, that the ſame rules and ordinances ſhall be in no wiſe put in execution before that the king and his counſell be certified of them, and that the ſame rules and ordinances ſhall ſeeme to the king and his counſell expedient and neceſſarie for the weale of the king and of his realme.

Chap. 5.
Wales.

Item where as diuers perſons dwelling in Wales and in the marches of Wales, endited and outlawed of treaſons and felonies commen into the countie of Herford to cities and burghes, townes, faires, and markets, and to other places within the ſaide countie, ſometime by night, and there ſell, bie marchandiſe & tarie by ii. iii. iiii. dayes or more at their will, and after returne into their owne countries without greeuaunce, impechment, or execution of the lawe made vpon them by the ſhiriffe of the ſaide countie, his miniſters, or by anie other perſon, by reaſon that the ſhiriffe & his miniſters oftentimes haue no knowledge of their perſons, nor of their being within the ſaide countie, and other perſons, ſome for fauour and amitie, and ſome for doubt of hurt, by reaſon of which none dooing of due execution of the lawe, the ſaide perſons endited outlawed, and other offenders of Wales, and of the marches aforeſaid, doubt not to come, ſlea, burne, rob, and to doo other offences in the ſaid countie, to the perpetuall deſtruction and impoueriſhment of the commons of the ſaid countie: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, hath graunted by auctoritie aforeſaid, that if the ſhiriffe, vnderſhiriffe, or anie ſhiriffes miniſters, maior and bailiffes of townes and burghes, or anie other perſon conuerſaunt within the ſaide countie, know and ſee anie ſuch perſon endited or outlawed in anie place within the ſaid countie, that he ſhall arreſt, take, and bring him to the iayle within the ſaid countie, and there ſhall deliuer him to the iayler after the lawe of the realme. And if anie ſuch perſon endited or outlawed will diſobeie the arreſt to be made in the forme aforeſaid, that he againſt whom ſuch diſobeiſaunce is made, ſhall leuie hue and crie. And that euerie perſon that is conuerſant within the ſaide countie that heareth the hue and crie, ſhall come and aide him that leuied the ſaide hue and crie, to take the ſaid offender, and ſhall doo their power that to doo. And if they can not take him, they ſhall folowe and purſue him out of the ſaid countie with hue & crie. And that the ſhiriffe, vnderſhiriffe and their miniſters, maior, and bailiffes, conuerſaunt and hearing of ſuch hue and cries, ſhall make due execution of the ſaid ordinance according to their power, vpon the paine, that is to ſay, the ſaid ſhiriffe vnderſhiriffe and their miniſters, maior and bailiffes, to make fine & raunſome to the king, and the ſaid perſons conuerſaunt & herers, that is to ſay, a knight C. ſhillings, an eſquier xl. s. and all other inhabitants xx. s. And that the iuſtices of peace in the ſaid countie for the time being, ſhall haue power to enquire, heare, and determine vpon the defaultes and negligences of the ſaid ſhiriffe, vnderſhiriffe and miniſters, maior, and bailiffes conuerſant and herers of the ſaid hues and cries. And moreouer the king will, that the ſtatute of Weſtminſter primer, touching like matter, ſhall be put in due execution.

Chap. 6.

Item where as at the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xv. yeere of the reigne of ẏ king that now is, for the common profit of all the realme it was ordained in the forme as foloweth. Item where as by the lawe it was ordained, that no man may carie nor bring corne out of the realme of England, without the kings licence, by reaſon whereof fermers and other men, which vſe manuring of their land, may not ſell thir corne but at a lowe price, to the great domage of all the realme: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing in this caſe to prouide a remedie, hath ordained by auctoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie man to ſhip and carie all maner of corne and graine out of this realme, to anie place that pleaſeth him, except alonelie to the enemies of our ſoueraigne lord the king, as often and as long as a quarter of wheate doo not exceede the price of vi. s. viii. d. and a quarter of barleie iii. s. in the ſame porte where the wheate or barleie is ſo ſhipped, and that without ſuing anie licence for the ſame, all other ordinances before this time made to the contrarie notwithſtanding. Prouided alwaies that the king be contented of his cuſtomes & monie. And this ordinance ſhall endure till the next parliament. And for aſmuch as this ſtatute is not now in his force, and that manie counties adioining to the ſea may not ſell the ſubſtaunce of their corne, but by cariage to be caried by the ſea: Our ſaid ſouereigne lorde the king (conſidering the premiſſes) hath ordained by auctoritie of his ſaide parliament: holden the ſaid fiue and twentie day of Februarie, that the ſtatute and ordinance aforeſaid by auctoritie of the ſame parliament ſhall be perpetuall, and ſtand in his force for euer.

Chap. 7. Shiriffe. Hedpence.

Item where as the poore commons and the kings faithfull liege people of his countie of Northumberland, haue bene of long time oppreſſed and ſurcharged by the ſhiriffes of the ſaid countie for the time being, leuieng and dooing to be leuied of their goods and catals to the ſumme of fortie poundes, and more called hedpence two times in ſeuen yeeres, that is to ſay, euerie third yéere and euerie quarter of a yeere, to their owne auaile, without anie account profite or auauntage to the king, and without anie lawfull cauſe or ground: but of their great extortion, which cauſeth diuers men to labour and expend great goods to be ſhiriffe when the ſaid yeeres come, to the great oppreſſion of the ſaid commons: Our ſouereigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordained and graunted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid gathering of the ſaid hedpence, ſhall be cléerelie put out for euer, anie vſe or cuſtome to the contrarie notwithſtanding, vpon paine of a C. li. to be paied, the one halfe of the ſame to the king, and the other halfe to the partie which will ſue for the forfeiture againſt the ſhiriffe: This ordinance to begin at the feaſt of the natiuitie of ſaint John baptiſt, which ſhall be in the yeere of our lord. M. CCCC. lvi.

Chap. 8. Shiriffes. Shiriffes clerkes. London. Pardon.

Item where as king Edward the third, for diuers and notable cauſes, in his parliament holden at Weſtminſter the Wedneſday next after midlent, the xiiii. yeere of his reigne (becauſe that diuers ſhiriffes in diuers counties in England then being, had their offices ſome for terme of yeeres of the kings graunt, and ſome truſting of longer continuance in their offices by procurement &c. were greatlie encouraged, and did take vpon them to doo manie and diuers oppreſſions to the kings liege people, vnduelie and euil, and falſelie doo ſerue the king & his people) did ordaine and make, that no ſhiriffe ſhould tarie nor abide in his office ouer a yeere, and that then an other couenable and ſufficient man ſhould be ordained in his place by the chaunceller and treaſurer of England, and the chiefe baron of the eſcheker and other euerie yéere in the morow of All ſoules, as it appeareth in the ſaid ſtatute. And after the ſame ſtatute ſo made, by an other ſtatute made at Weſtminſter in the parliament of the ſaid king, holden the firſt day of May, the xlii. yeere of his reigne, he ordained & made, that no ſhiriffe nor vnderſhiriffe, nor ſhiriffes clerke, ſhould tarie and abide in his office ouer one yeere, as it is ordained by other ſtatutes before this time, as it appeareth more plainelie by the ſaid ſtatute of the xlii. yeere. And moreouer by an other ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, in the xv. of ſaint Michaell, the firſt yeere of the reigne of king Richard the ſecond, it was ordained & made, that no man, which hath bene ſhiriffe of anie countie by one whole yeere, ſhall be an other time choſen nor put in ẏ ſaid office within iii. yeeres next enſuing, except ẏ there be none other ſufficient within the ſaid countie, as it appeareth more plainelie by ẏ ſaid ſtatute of king Richard: And where as in diuers counties in England, after ẏ making of the ſaid ſtatutes, manie & diuers ſhiriffes haue bene made, & haue occupied within ſome of ẏ ſaid counties x. yeers, and ſome xii. yéeres & more: to the great damage of the king that now is, his progenitors & their people within the ſaid counties, contrarie to the ſaid ſtatutes & all other good rule, and verie likelie in time to come to be to their importable damage & open diſheriſon, and ſupportation of manſlaughter, periurie, and great oppreſſion to manie of the kings liege people, conſidering the great conſanguinitie, aliance & the familiers of the ſhiriffe, aſwell of them that haue bene before this time, as of them which now be in the ſaid counties: Our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordained by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that the ſtatutes before recited, and euerie of them, ſhall be duelie obſerued in euerie countie of England: The vnderſhiriffes and all other officers within the citie of London, which now be or ſhall be at all times excepted. And ſuch counties alonelie except, in which diuers of the kings liege people be inheritable to the office of ſhiriffe at this day, and alſo ſuch perſons, which haue eſtate of freehold in the office of ſhiriffe at this day, and except the letters patents made to them of the office of ſhiriffe and their vnderſhiriffe and clerkes. And if anie ſhiriffe, or vnderſhiriffe or ſhiriffes clerke, occupie the office of ſhiriffe, vnderſhiffe, or ſhiriffes clerke, contrarie to anie of the ſtatutes afore recited, or againſt the effecte or entent of anie of them (except before except) that then he, which dooth ſo occupie, ſhall forfeite the ſumme of CC. li. yéerelie as long as he occupieth contrarie to the effect of the ſaid ſtatutes. And that euerie pardon hereafter to be made for ſuch offence or occupation or forfeiture of ſummes before recited, ſhall be void and not auailable. And all patents made or to be made of anie of the ſaid offices for terme of yeeres, for terme of life, or fee ſimple, or in fee taile, to anie of ẏ kings liege people (except before except) ſhall be voide & of no value by the ſame auctoritie, anie clauſe or worde of Non obſtante, in anie wiſe, put or to be put in ſuch patents to be made notwithſtanding. And moreouer, whoſoeuer preſume vpon him or them to take or occupie the ſaide office of ſhiriffe by vertue of ſuch graunts or patents now to be made for terme of yéeres for terme of life, fee ſimple, or fée taile, to ſtand for euer and at all times diſabled to be or beare the office of ſhiriffe within anie countie in England by the ſame auctoritie. And that euerie liege man, which will ſue for the ſaid ſumme forfeite againſt him or them, which in ſuch maner doo forfeite, ſhall be receiued and admitted to ſue an action of debt in his owne name, our ſouereigne lorde the king to haue the one halfe of all that ſhall happen by the ſame action to be recouered by ſuch ſuite and he or they that ſo purſueth, to haue the other halfe.

Commiſſions of ſewers.

Item where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter at the xv. of ſaint Michael, the ſixth yeere of the reigne of the king that now is, for the great damages and loſſes that happeneth by the great riſing of water in diuerſe parties of this realme, and that manie greater loſſes were like to haue come, if remedy had not bene haſtely prouided, wherefore by auctority of the ſaid parliament it was ordeined and graunted, by x. yeeres then next enſuing, that ſeuerall commiſſions of ſewers ſhould be made to diuers perſons by the kings chaunceller of Englande for the time being, named in all parties of this realme where néede is, after the forme following in the ſame ſtatutes, by reaſon whereof the ſaide miſchéefes were greatly reformed and amended. And where as nowe of late in diuers parties of this realme, by great riſing of water, many townes & landes to a great quantitie be drowned and deſtroied, to the great hinderance of this realme, and great preiudices, damages, and miſchéefes, be very likely to fall, if remedy be not haſtely for the ſame prouided. The king conſidering the premiſſes, and how the x. yeres be paſſed, hath ordeined by auctority aforeſaid, that during the terme of xv. yeres next enſuing, the chanceller of England for the time being ſhal haue power to make commiſſions of ſewers out of the kinges chauncerie, vnder the kings great ſeale, in ſuch forme as it was granted to be made by the ſtatute made the ſaid ſixth yere.

Item the king conſidering the great periurie, extortion, and oppreſſion which be and haue bene in this realme by his ſhiriffes, vnderſhiriffes, and their clerkes, coroners, ſtewards of franchiſes, bailiffes, and keepers of priſons, and other officers in diuerſe counties of this realme, hath ordeined by auctoritie aforeſaide, in eſchewing of all ſuch extortion, periurie and oppreſſion, that no ſhiriffe ſhall let his countie, nor anie of his bailiwikes, hundreds, nor wapentakes, nor that the ſaide ſhiriffes, vnderſhiriffes, bailiffes of fraunchiſes, nor any other bailiffe, ſhal returne vpon any writ or precept to them directed to be returned, any enqueſtes in any panell therevpon to be made, any bailiffes, officers, or ſeruantes to any of the officers, or ſeruantes to any of the ſeruants aforeſaid in any panell by them ſo to be made, nor that none of the officers & miniſters, by occaſion or vnder colour of their office, ſhall take any other thing by them, nor by none other perſon to their vſe, profit or auaile of any perſon by them or any of them to be arreſted or attached, nor of none other for them, for the letting of any arreſt or attachment to be made by their body or of any perſon by them or any of them, by force or colour of their office arreſted or attached, for fine fee ſuit of priſon mainpriſe letting to baile or ſhewing any eaſe or fauour to any ſuch perſon ſo arreſted or to be arreſted, for their reward or profite except ſuch as followeth, that is to ſaie, for the ſhiriffe xx.d. the bailiffe, which maketh the arreſt or attachement, iiii.d. and the iayler, if the priſoner bee committed to his warde foure pence. And that the ſhiriffe, vnderſhiriffe, ſhiriffes clarke, ſtewarde, or bailiffe of fraunchiſe, ſeruaunt or bailiffe, nor coroner, ſhall take anie thing by colour of his office, by him nor by none other perſon to his vſe of anie perſon for the making of anie returne or panell, and for the copie of a panell foure pence. And that the ſaide ſhiriffes and all other officers and miniſters aforeſaide, ſhall let out of priſon all maner of perſons by them or anie of them to be arreſted, or being in their cuſtodie by force of anie writ, bill, or warrant, in anie action perſonall, or by cauſe of enditement of treſpaſſe, vpon reaſonable ſuerties of ſufficient perſons, hauing ſufficient within the counties where ſuch perſons bee ſo let to baile or mainpriſe, to keepe their daies in ſuch places as the ſaide writtes, billes, or warranties ſhall require. Such perſon or perſons, which be or ſhall be in their warde by condempnation, execution, Capias vtlagatum, or excommunicatum, ſuertie of the peace, and all ſuch perſons, which be or ſhall be committed to warde and by eſpeciall commaundement of anie iuſtice, and vacaboundes refuſing to ſerue after the forme of the ſtatute of laborers, onelie except. And that no ſhiriffe, nor none officers or miniſters aforeſayde, ſhall take or doe to bee taken, or make anie obligation for anie cauſe aforeſaide, or colour of their office, but all onelie to them ſelfe of anie perſon nor by anie perſon, which ſhall be in their ward by the courſe of the lawe, but vpon the name of their office, and vpon condition that the ſaide priſoners ſhall appeare at the daie conteined in the ſaid writs, bill, or warrant, and in ſuch places as the ſaid writs, billes, or warrantes, ſhall require. And if anie of the ſaide ſhirifes or other officers or miniſters aforeſaide, take anie obligation in other forme by colour of their offices, that it ſhall be voide. And that he ſhall take no more for the making of any ſuch obligation, warrant, or precept, by them to be made, but foure pence. And alſo that euerie of the ſaide ſhirifes ſhall make yeerely a deputie in the kinges courtes of his chauncerie and bench, and in the eſcheker of recorde, before that they ſhall returne anie writs, to receiue all maner of writs & warranties to be deliuered to them. And that all ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, clarkes, bailifes, iaylers, coroners, ſtewardes, bailifes of fraunchiſes, or any other officers or miniſters, which doe contrarie to this ordinance in anie point of the ſame, ſhall loſe to the partie in this behalfe indamaged or greeued his treble damages, and ſhall forfaite the ſumme of xl. li. at euerie time that they or anie of them do the contrarie thereof in anie point of the ſame whereof the king ſhall haue the one halfe to be imployed to the vſe of his houſe, and in none otherwiſe, and the partie that will ſue, the other halfe. And that the iuſtices of aſſiſes in their ſeſſions, Iuſtices of the one bench and of the other, and iuſtices of peace in their countrie, ſhal haue power to enquire, heare, & determine of office, without eſpeciall commiſſion, of and vpon all them that do contrarie to theſe ordinaunces in anie article or point of the ſame. And if the ſaid ſhirifes returne vpon any perſon, Cepi corpus, or Reddidit, ſo that they ſhalbe chargeable to haue the bodys of the ſaid perſons at the daies of ye returnes of the ſaid writs, Prouided alwaies, that the warden of the kinges iayle of the fleete and of the kinges pallace at Weſtminſter for the time being,ſhall not be endamaged nor preiudiced by this ordinance in his dutie of his office. And alſo that this ordinance ſhall begin at the feaſt of Eaſter, which ſhall be in the yeere of our lorde a M.CCCC.xlvi.

Chap.11 Shiriffes.

Item where as before this time diuerſe ſhiriffes in diuerſe counties of Englande haue by colour of writs to them directed, to leuie the wages of the knightes of the ſhires for the time being, of the parliament of the king that nowe is,and of his noble progenitors, haue leuied more monie then hath bene due to the ſaide knightes,and more then they haue deliuered, and keeping the ſame, and taking great part of the monie to their owne vſe and profite, to their officers and ſeruauntes, to the great damage of the common people of the ſaide counties. The king conſidering the premiſſes,hath ordeined by the autoritie aforeſaide, that the ſhiriffe of euerie countie for the time being, in the next countie court holden in their counties, after the deliueraunce of the ſaide writtes made to them, ſhall make open proclamation, that the coroners and euerie cheefe conſtable of the peace of the ſaide counties,& the bailiffes of euerie hundred or wapentake of the ſame countie,and all other which will be at the aſſeſſing of the wages of the knights of the ſhiers,ſhall be at the next countie there to bee holden to aſſeſſe the ſaide wages of the ſaide knightes. And that the ſhiriffe, vnderſhiriffe, coroners, or bailiffes for the time being, be there at the ſame time in their proper perſons,vpon painē of forfeiture to the king of euerie of them that maketh defaulte xl.ſhillings at which time the ſaid ſhiriffe or vnderſhiriffe in the preſence of them that ſhall come to the ſame, and of the ſutors of the ſaide counties then being there in the full countie,well and duely ſhall aſſeſſe euery hundred to that aſſeſſable by him ſelfe,to paie a certeine ſumme for the wages of the knights of the ſhire, ſo that the whole ſumme of all the hundreds do not exceede the ſumme, which ſhall be due to the ſaide knightes. And after that in the ſame countie ſhall aſſeſſe well and lawfullie euerie village within the ſaide hundreds,which ſhould be there aſſembled, to a certeine ſumme for the paiment of the ſaid wages, ſo that the whole ſumme of all yͤ townes within anie of the ſaid hundreds, do not exceede the ſumme aſſeſſed vpon the hundred of which they be. And that the ſaid ſhiriffes,vnderſhiriffes bailiffes,nor none other officer,for the cauſe aforeſaide,ſhall leuie more monie of anie village then that whereunto they were aſſeſſed. And that if anie doe or will aſſeſſe anie hundred or village otherwiſe then is aforeſaide that they ſhall forfeit for euerie default to the king xx.li. and to any man which will ſue in this caſe x.li. And that the ſaid ſhiriffes well and duely ſhall leuie the mony ſo aſſeſſed vpon the foreſaid villages,as haſtily as they wel may after the ſaid aſſeſſing,& the ſame ſhall deliuer to the ſaide knightes according to the writs thereof to bee made vpon the ſaide paines. And he that will ſue in this,ſhall be to that admitted,& ſhal haue for his action in this caſe a Scire facias againſt him that offendeth againſt this ordinance, & if the defendant duelie warned in the ſame make default or elſe appeare and be in the ſame conuict, that then the plaintiffes ſhall recouer againſt them,which be ſo conuict x.pounde,to their owne vſe,ouer the ſaide xx.li. with their treble damages for the coſtes of their ſuites. And that the iuſtices of the kinges benche and of the common place, iuſtices of aſſiſes,and gaile deliuerie,and iuſtices of peace in their countrey,ſhall haue power to enquire heare and determine of all the ſaide defaultes, as well by enquirie at the kinges ſuites as by action at the ſuite of the partie. And that all ſuch expenſes of knights ſhall not be lewed of anie other villages,ſeigniories,or places, but of ſuch wherof it hath bene leuied before this time. And that in euerie ſuch writ from henceforth to be made to leuie the wages of the ſaide knights,this act ſhall be comprehended in the ſame.

Chap.12 Foreine plees.

Item the king hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed by the autoritie aforeſaide that if anie perſon or perſons tenants or defendants in any action real or perſonal,after that they be pleaded to an iſſue in any ſuite or action,and the iſſue ioined and intred of recorde, and a Venire facias of the iurie returned,that if they or anie of them after at an other daie in court plede anie foreine plee,triable in anie other court then where the writ is brought or the ſuite taken, and the demandantes or plaintiffes in ſuch foreine plees plede to the iſſue, that ſuch iſſue in ſuch foreine plee ſhall be tried where the writ is brought in ſuch ſuite taken,and by the ſame iurie ſo returned. And that this act and ordinance ſhall begin at the feaſt of Eaſter,which ſhall be in the yeere of our lorde a M.CCCC.xlvi. and ſhall endure till the next parliament.

Chap.13 Seruantes of huſbandrie.

Item the king hath ordeined by the autoritie aforeſaid,that euerie ſeruant of huſbandrie,purpoſing to depart from his maſter at the end of his terme,at the middes of his terme or otherwiſe, make couenant before with an other man to ſerue him for the next yere,if he be in ſuch caſe as the lawe will compell him to ſerue,that the ſaid ſeruantes and he, which ſo ſhall make couenant with him at the middes of the ſaid terme or before, ſhall giue warning to the maſter of the ſaid ſeruant of the ſaide couenaunt ſo newlie made, ſo that the ſame maſter may prouide an other ſeruaunt againſt the ende of his terme. And if anie couenant with anie ſuch ſeruaunt be otherwiſe made, or that ſuch warning in maner and forme aforeſaide be not had,that the ſame couenant ſhalbe voide. And that the ſame ſeruant bee compelled to ſerue his firſt maſter for the next yeere, except that a lawfull cauſe being of a later time require the contrarie. And alſo that the ſalaries & wages of ſeruants laborers and artificers ſhall not exceede the aſſeſſing,that followeth,that is to ſaie,the wages of a bailiffe of huſbandrie by yeere xxiii.s.iiii.d. and clothing price of fiue ſhillings with meate and drinke, of a chiefe hine a carter or chiefe ſhepheard xx.s.and clothing price of iiii.s.with meate and

The ſame forme ſhall be obſerued of wages of ſeruants being with hoſtelers, vittailers, and artificers in citie borough and elſe where. And that ſuch as deſerue leſſe ſhall take leſſe. And alſo in places where leſſe is vſed to be giuen, leſſe ſhall bee giuen from henceforth, And that from the feaſt of Eaſter, till the feaſt of ſaint Michael, the wages of any free maſon or maſter carpenter ſhal not exceed iiii.d. by the daie, and without meate and drinke v.d. ob. a maſter tiler or ſclatter, a rough maſon and meane carpenter and other artificers concerning building, by the daie iii.d. with meate and drinke, and without meate and drinke iiii.d.ob. and euerie other laborer by the daie ii.d. with meate and drinke, and without meate and drinke iii.d. ob, And that from the feaſt of ſaint Michael till the feaſt of Eaſter, a free maſon and a maſter carpenter by the daie iii.d. with meate and drinke, and without meate and drink, iiii.d.ob. tiler, meane carpenter, rough maſon, and other artificers aforeſaide by the daie ii.d.ob. with meate and drinke, and without meate and drinke iiii.d. And euerie artificer and laborer by the daie i.d.ob. with meate and drinke and without meate and drinke iii.d. and he that leſſe deſerueth ſhall take leſſe. Prouided that the ſaide aſſeſſing ſhall not extende to laborers in the time of harueſt, in which time the wages of a mower ſhall not exceede iiii.d. by the daie with meate and drinke, and without meate and drinke vi.d. a reper or carter iii.d. by the daie with meate and drinke and without meate and drinke v.d. a woman laborer and other laborers in time of harueſt ii.d.ob. by the daie with meat and drinke, and without meate and drinke iiii. d. ob. and ſuch as be worthie leſſe ſhall take leſſe. And in places where leſſe is vſed to be taken, leſſe ſhalbe taken from henceforth. And that no artificer workman nor laborer ſhall take anie thing for the holie daie nor for the feriall daie, but after the rate of the time of the daie in which he laboured. And if anie perſon refuſe to ſerue or labour according to the premiſſes, that euerie iuſtices of peace in their counties ſhall haue power at euerie time to call them to examination of the ſame and ſuch as they ſhall finde defectiſe, to commit to the iayle, there to remaine till they haue founde ſufficient ſuertie to ſerue and labour in forme by the lawe required. And if anie ſeruant artificer, workeman, or laborer, doe contrarie to the premiſſes, or denie his ſeruice, occupation or labour by reaſon of not giuing of ſalarie or wages, contrary to theſe ſtatutes, that he ſhall loſe to the partie that will ſue in his behalfe xx.s. And that the ſaide iuſtices of peace ſhall haue power to heare and determine all maner of offences done contrarie to the forme of this ſtatute as well at the kings ſuite as at the parties, and that euerie of the kings liege people maie haue the ſuite againſt euerie perſon that ſhall offende in anie point againſt this ſtatute, and the proces ſhal be by attachment, Capias, and Exigend. Alſo that the iuſtices of peace ſhal aſſeſſe no fine vpon anie which ſhall bee conuict before them of a thing done contrarie to anie ſtatute of laborers or artificers, or for this cauſe put him in the good grace of our ſouereigne lorde the king vnder iii.s. iiii.d. And alſo that the iuſtices of peace through the realme two times euery yere ſhall doe openlie to be proclaimed in their ſeſſions all the ſtatutes of laborers, artificers, hoſtlers, vittailers, ſeruauntes, and vacaboundes before this time made and not reuoked with this ſtatute. Alſo that by colour of the tenour of leſſe landes then the huſbandrie of the ſame ſhall ſuffice to the continuall occupation of one man no man ſhall be excuſed to ſerue by the yeere, vpon the paine to be iuſtified as a vacabonde. Alſo that iuſtices of peace ſhall haue power to take all ſeruauntes retained with anie perſon by colour of huſbandrie, and not duelie occupied about the ſame which ſeruantes ought by the lawe to be ſeruant of huſbandrie to ſuch as ſhall require their ſeruice and to iuſtifie them in euerie point as the ſame iuſtices haue power to iuſtifie vacabondes. And that this ſtatute ſhall begin to be of force and executorie in the feaſt, of ſaint Michael which ſhall be in the yeere of our lord a M.CCCC.xlvi. and in no wiſe before.

Chap. 14

Purueiours.

Conſtable.

Item the king hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that if anie buier or other officer of the duke of Glouceſter, or of anie other lord or perſon of what eſtate, degree, or condition that he be preſume vpon him to take, or elſe take anie vittailes, corne, heie, cariages, or anie other thing what ſo euer, of anie of the kinges liege people in any wiſe againſt their will, without lawfull bargaine betwixt the ſaid buiers or officers and the ſaid liege people thereof to be made to the vſe of the ſaid duke or other lord for their houſes, but all only for the king & the queene and their houſes, that then if notice or requeſt be made to the maior, ſhiriffe, bailiffe, conſtable, officers, or other of the kings miniſters of cities and boroughes or other counties or places where ſuch taking ſhall happen to be, that then the ſaid maior, ſhiriffe, conſtable, officer, and miniſter to whom ſuch notice or requeſt ſhall be made, maintenant ſhall take and arreſt all ſuch buiers and officers ſo doing or offending, and them ſhall ſende to the kinges next priſon there to remaine and not to be let to baile nor mainepriſe till the time that they haue rebailed all the ſaid vittailes, cariages, and other thinges ſo taken or the verie value of the ſame. And if the ſaid maior, ſhirifes, bailifes, conſtables, and officers aforeſaide doe contrarie to this that then they ſhall forfeite twentie pounde, whereof the king ſhall haue the halfe and the partie of whom ſuch thinges bee taken, the other halfe, if he will ſue by an action of debt in the which the defendaunt ſhall not doe his lawe, and if hee will not ſue, who ſo euer will ſue for the king and him ſelfe, ſhall haue the ſuite to recouer to him ſelfe the one halfe thereof, and the king the other halfe. And if anie of the ſaide buiers, other then of the king and the queene, bee duelie conuict of ſuch vnlawfull taking (as afore is recited) at the ſuite of ſuch parties as ſhall bee againſt them in this behalfe, that then they ſhall yeelde to the partie, which ſo ſueth, the treble value of the vittailes or other thing ſo taken, and the double coſtes of their ſuites, and for the ſaide trepaſſe to make fine and raunſome to the king. And that in all ſuch actions or ſuites aforeſaide the kinges protection ſhall not be allowed nor auaileable for the defendant. And this ordinance ſhall begin to take effect at the feaſt of Eaſter, which ſhall be in the yeere of our lorde a M.CCCC.xlvi. Prouided alwaies that by this act the puniſhment ordeined againſt the kings purueiours in no wiſe ſhall be reſtreined.

Chap.15

Burgeſes.

Parliament.

Knights of ſhires.

Shiriffes.

Bailiffes.

Item where as by auctoritie of a parliament, holden at Weſtminſter the firſt yeere of the reigne of king Henrie, father to the king that nowe is, amongeſt other thinges it was ordeined, that the citizens and burgeſes of cities and burghes comming to the parliament ſhoulde be choſen men citizens and burgeſes reſiant, abiding, and free, in the ſame cities and boroughes, and none other, as in the ſame ſtatute more fullie is conteined, which citizens & burgeſes haue alwaies in cities and boroughes bene choſen by citizens and burgeſes and none other, and to the ſhiriffes of the counties returned, and vpon their returnes receiued & accepted by the parliament before this holden. And alſo where as by auctoritie of a parliament holden at Weſtminſter the viii. yeere of the reigne of the king that nowe is, it was ordeined, in what maner and forme the knightes of the ſhires comming to the parliamentes from henceforth to be holden ſhoulde be choſen, and howe the ſhiriffes of the ſame counties thereupon ſhoulde make their returnes, as in the ſame ſtatute more fullie appeareth by force of which ſtatute elections of knightes to come to the parliamentes ſometime haue bene duelie made and lawfullie returned, till nowe of late that diuerſe ſhiriffes of the counties of the realme of England, for their ſinguler auaile and lucre, haue not made due elections of the knights, nor in couenable time, nor good men and true returned, & ſometime none of the knights citizens and burgeſes lawfullie choſen to come to the parliamentes returned, but ſuch knights citizens and burgeſes haue bene returned, which were neuer duelie choſen, and other citiſens and burgeſes then thoſe, which by the maiors and bailiffes were to the ſaide ſhiriffes returned. And ſometime the ſhiriffes haue not returned the writs, the which they had to make elections of knightes to come to the parliamentes, but the ſaide writs haue imbeſiled, and moreouer made no precept to the maior and bailiffe, or to the bailiffes or bailiffe where no maior is of cities and boroughes, for the election of citizens and burgeſes to come to the parliamentes, by colour of theſe words conteined in the ſaid writs, Quod in pleno comitatu tuo eligi facias pro comitatu tuo duos milites, & pro qualibet ciuitate in comitatu tuo duos ciues, & pro quolibet burgo in comitatu tuo duos burgenſes. And alſo for as much as a ſufficient paine and couenable remedie for the partie in ſuch caſe greeued is not ordeined in the ſaide ſtatutes againſt the ſhiriffe maiors and bailiffes, which do contrarie to the forme of the ſaide ſtatutes. The king conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordeined by auctoritie aforeſaide, that the ſaide ſtatutes ſhall be duelie kept in all pointes, and moreouer that euerie ſhiriffe, after the deliuerie of anie ſuch writ to him made, ſhall make and deliuer without fraude a ſufficient precept vnder his ſeale, to euerie maior and bailiffe, or to bailiffes or bailiffe, where no maior is of the cities and boroughes within his countie, reciting the ſaide writ, commaunding them by the ſame precept, if it be a citie to choſe by citizens of the ſame citie, citizens, and in the ſame maner and forme, if it be a borough, by the burgeſes of the ſame to come to the parliament. And that the ſame maior and bailiffes, or bailiffes, or bailiffe, where no maior is, ſhall returne lawfullie the precept to the ſame ſhiriffes by indentures betwixt the ſame ſhiriffe and them to be made of the ſaide elections, and of the names of the ſaide citizens and burgeſes by them ſo choſen, and therevpon euerie ſhiriffe ſhall make a good and rightfull returne of euerie ſuch writ and of euerie returne by the maior and bailiffes, or bailiffes or bailiffe, where no maior is, to him made. And that euerie ſhiriffe, at euerie time that he doeth contrarie to this ſtatute, or anie other ſtatutes for the election of knightes citizens and burgeſes to come to the parliament before this time made, ſhall incurre the paine conteined in the ſaid ſtatute made the ſaide viii. yéere, and moreouer ſhall forfait and paie to euerie perſon hereafter choſen knight citizen or burgeſe in his countie to come to anie parliament, and not duelie returned, or to anie other perſon, which in default of ſuch knight citizen or burgeſe will ſue, an C. li. whereof euerie knight citizen and burgeſe ſo greeued ſeuerallie, or anie other perſon which in their default will ſue, ſhall haue his action of debt againſt the ſaide ſhiriffe or his executors or adminiſtrators, to demaunde & haue the ſaid C. li. with his coſtes in this caſe diſpended. And that in ſuch action taken by vertue of this ſtatute the defendaunt ſhall not wage his lawe of the demaunde aforeſayde in no wiſe, and that no defendaunt in ſuch action ſhall haue anie eſſoine. And in the ſame maner at euerie time that anie maior and bailiffes, or bailiffes or bailiffe, where no maior is, ſhall returne other then thoſe which be choſen by the citizens and burgeſes of the cities or boroughes, where ſuch elections be or ſhall be made, ſhall incurre and forfaite to the king xl. li. And moreouer ſhall forfeite and paie to euerie perſon here after choſen citizen or burgeſe to come to the parliament, and not by the ſame maior and bailiffes, or bailiffes or bailiffe, where no maior is, returned or to anie other perſon which in defaulte of ſuch citizen or burgeſe ſo choſen will ſue, fourtie pounde, whereof euerie of the citizens and burgeſes ſo greeued ſeuerallie, or anie other perſon which in their defaulte will ſue, ſhall haue his action of debt againſt euerie of the ſaide maior and bailiffes, or bailiffes or bailiffe, where no maior is, againſt their executours or adminiſtratours, to demaunde and haue of euerie of the ſayde maiors and bailiffes, or bailiffes or bailiffe, where no maior is xl. li. with his coſtes in this caſe expended. And that in ſuch action of Det taken by foꝛce of this ſtatute no defendant in anie wiſe wage his lawe of the ſaide demaundant, noꝛ haue eſſoine. And that euery ſhirife that maketh not due election of knights to come to the parliament in couenable time, that is to ſay, euery ſhirife in his full countie betwixt the houre of viii. and the houre of ix. befoꝛe noone, without colluſion in this behalfe, and that euery ſhirife that maketh not good and true returne of ſuch elections of knightes to come to the parliament in time to come, as to them perteineth in manner and foꝛme afoꝛeſaide, ſhall foꝛfeit to the king an C.li. and ſhal alſo incurre the peine of an C.li. to be paid to him that will ſue againſt him his executoꝛs oꝛ adminiſtratoꝛs foꝛ this cauſe by way of action of Det, with his coſtes in this behalfe expended, without waging of lawe of his demaunde, oꝛ hauing eſſoyne as afoꝛe is ſaide. Pꝛouided alwayes that euery knight citizen and burges to come to anie parliament hereafter to be holden in due foꝛme choſen and not returned as afoꝛe is ſaide, ſhall beginne his action of Det afoꝛeſaid, within iii. yéeres after the ſame parliament commenced, to pꝛocéede in the ſame ſuite effectually without fraude, and if he ſo do not, another that will ſue ſhall haue the ſaide action of Det (as it is ſaide) to haue and recouer the ſame ſumme with his coſtes in this behalfe diſpended, in manner and foꝛme afoꝛeſaide, ſo that no defendant in ſuch action ſhall wage his lawe, noꝛ be eſſoyned in anie wiſe, as afoꝛe is ſaide. And if anie knight citiſen oꝛ burges hereafter returned by the ſhirife to come to the parliament, in the manner afoꝛeſaid, after ſuch returne be by any perſon put out, and an other put in his place, that ſuch perſon ſo put in the place of him which is out, if he take vpon him to be knight, citiſen, oꝛ burges, at anie parliament in time to come, ſhall foꝛfeit to the king an C.li. and an C.li. to the knight, citiſen oꝛ burges ſo returned by the ſhirife, and afterward as afoꝛe is ſaid put out. And that this knight, citiſen oꝛ burges, which is ſo put out, ſhal haue an action of Det of the ſame C.li. againſt ſuch perſons put in his place, his executoꝛs oꝛ adminiſtratoꝛs. Pꝛouided alwayes that he ſhall beginne his ſuite within iii. monethes after the parliament commenced. And if he do not, then he that will ſue ſhall haue an action of Det of the ſame C.li. againſt him which is put in place of him that is ſo out, after ſuch returne, his executoꝛs oꝛ adminiſtratoꝛs. And that no defendant in ſuch action ſhall wage his lawe noꝛ be eſſoyned. And that ſuch pꝛoces ſhall be in the actions afoꝛeſaide, as in a wꝛit of Treſpas done againſt the peace at the common lawe, ſo that the knightes of the ſhires foꝛ the parliament hereafter to be choſen, ſhall be notable knightes of the ſame counties, foꝛ the which they ſhall be ſo choſen, oꝛ otherwiſe ſuch notable eſquyers, gentilmen being of the ſame counties as ſhall be able to be knightes. And no man to be ſuch knight, which ſtandeth in the degrée of a yoman.

Cap. 16. Gauge peine. Item the king hath oꝛdeined and pꝛouided by the authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that the peny, which is called the gauge peny, ſhall not be payed to the gaugeour, noꝛ to anie other in his name, till he oꝛ his deputie haue gauged the wines, And then he to take and receiue his penie foꝛ the ſame in grée without moꝛe encreaſe oꝛ auantage foꝛ that to claime. And alſo that he oꝛ his deputie be readie to do the office of gaugeoꝛ in all places, when he to that by the partie ſhall be required, and that to be obſerued thꝛough all the realme of England vpon the peine compꝛiſed in ẏ ſtatute made the xxvii. yéere of the noble king Edwarde the thirde of the gauging of red Wyne and white Wyne duely to be executed. Gaugeoꝛ.

Cap. 17. Eſchetoꝛ. Item it is oꝛdeined by authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaide, that euery eſchetour ſhall take his enqueſtes of office by vertue of the writs of Diem clausit extremum, and all other writtes, within the moneth after the deliuerance of ſuch writtes. And alſo that all ſuch inquiſitions ſhall be taken in good townes and open places. And that none of them ſhall take pꝛiuily noꝛ appertly by him noꝛ by other by anie meane perſon, foꝛ the execution of anie ſuch writtes in one countie, aboue the ſumme of vi.s. viii.d. oꝛ xiii.s.iiii.d. oꝛ aboue, where his labour and his coſtes ſhall that demaund, ſo that the ſumme which he ſo ſhall take, do not excéede in all the ſumme of xl. s. foꝛ the execution of anie ſuch writ in one countie. Trauers. And if anie eſchetour do contrarie to anie of the pꝛemiſſes, that then he ſhal foꝛfeit the ſumme of xl.li. Alſo if a man trauers anie office taken befoꝛe any eſchetour oꝛ commiſſioner, and thereof hath anie Scire facias againſt anie patente, that in this caſe no pꝛotection ſhall be allowed noꝛ allowable. And as to anie graunt oꝛ lees to be made to anie perſon, which ſhall trauers anie ſuch office, that the ſtatute in ſuch caſe befoꝛe this time made ſhall be duely obſerued. And that the king haue the halfe of the ſaide foꝛfeiture of xl. li. and the partie which in this behalfe will ſue foꝛ the king and himſelfe, ſhall haue the other halfe of the ſame.

Cap. 18. Item the king conſidering how diuers complaints haue beene made befoꝛe this time, by diuers of his lieges marchants repayꝛing to the parties of Gaſcoyne and Guyen, how that now of late they haue béene ſuffred to buy wines of the growing of the hye countrey in ſuch time as they were wont to be made: Wines. and alſo how there be diuers newe impoſitions demaunded and leuyed of his ſaid lieges marchants repairing to the ſaide parties, otherwiſe than hath béene vſed of olde time to be demaunded and leuied: to the great dammage of the ſame marchants, and great loſſe and hinderance of all his faithfull liege people, hath oꝛdeined by the authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaide, that all his ſaide marchants, repairing to the ſaide parties of Gaſcoyne and Guyen, may freely héereafter buy the wines there of the hye countrey in all ſuch times, and in all ſuch liberties, as they haue vſed to buy them xx. oꝛ xxx. yeres paſſed, Gaſcoyne. without anie other newe impoſition oꝛ charge to be put vpon them. And that if anie of the kings officers in the ſaid parties, oꝛ anie other perſon diſturbe, vexe oꝛ gréeue, oꝛ do to be diſturbed, vexed, oꝛ gréeued anie of the ſaid marchants oꝛ liege people of our ſoueraigne loꝛde the king, oꝛ do to be leuied of anie of them anie newe impoſitions, contrarie to this ordinance: he to forfeit as oftentimes as he offendeth, to the partie grœued xx. pound ouer his treble dammages to be payde to him, the one halfe of the ſame forfeiture of xx. poundes to be payde to the vſe of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, and the other parte to the partie ſo grœued, or to him which in his default and negligence will ſue for our ſoueraigne lord the king in this behalfe.

Here beginneth the Satutes made at ſaint Edmonds burie, the xxv. yeere of King Henrie the ſixth.

Walſhmen

OUr ſoueraigne lorde the king, at his parliament holden at ſaint Edmondes bury, in the feaſt of ſaint Scolaſt, that is to ſay, the x. day of Februarie, the xxv. yéere of his reigne, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of his realme in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame parliament, hath approued, ratified, and affirmed all manner of ſtatutes made in anie parliament againſt Walſhmen before this time not repealed. And moreouer hath ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaide, that all graunts of franchiſes, markets, faires, and other liberties to buy or to ſell, to bake or to brewe, and to ſell within the townes of Northwales, made to anie Walſhman before this time, ſhall be voide and of no value. And that all the villeines of our ſoueraigne lorde the king within Northwales ſhall be bounde and conſtreined to do ſuch labors and ſeruices, as they of right haue vſed to doe of olde time, notwithſtanding anie graunt made to them, or anie vſage vſed by them of a later time to the contrarie. And that ſuch officers ſhall haue power to compell them to doe ſuch labours and ſeruices, as they haue vſed to compell them before this time lawfully.

Here beginneth the Statute made at Weſtminſter, the xxvii. yeere King Henrie the vi.

AT the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xii. daie of Februarie, the xxvii. yeere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lorde king Henrie the vi. after the conqueſt, the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons being in the ſaide parliament, and by authoritie of the ſame parliament, hath made, ordeined, & ſtabliſhed diuers ordinances & ſtatutes in the manner & forme following.

Cap. 1.

Wollen clothes.

Clothmakers.

Firſt for aſmuch as a certeine ordinance hath bene proclaimed, publiſhed, and ſtraitly kept in the parties of Braband, Holland, and Seeland, that no manner of wollen clothes, made in this realme of England, ſhall not come in the ſaid parties, there to be ſold in anie wiſe, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame clothes, wherefore the king our ſoueraigne lord, becauſe that it is expreſſely againſt the truce and appointments made and taken betwixt his realmes, landes, and ſubiectes of the one partie, and the landes, which the duke of Burgoyne doth holde and occupie of the other partie, manie times before this time hath made his letters of requeſt to be written, and ſent his meſſage for due reformation to be had in this behalfe, whereof no due remedie is yet had, to the intollerable dammage of all the commons of this realme, becauſe that manie clothmakers, that is to ſay, men, weauers, fullers, and dyers, and women webſters, carders, ſpinners & other buyers and ſellers of the ſame, ſuch as do knowe none other occupacions, of verie neceſſitie be conſtreined for their liuing to do the ſame occupacions, and ſome of them liue ydely, which prouoketh them to ſinne and euill life: The king conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaide, that vnleſſe due continuall reformation be made in the ſaide parties of Brabande, Holland and Seeland, of the ſaide ordinance, betwixt this and the feaſt of ſaint Michaell next comming, ſo that all manner of wollen clothes made in this realme of Englande, may come and be accepted in the ſame parties of Hollande, Brabande, and Seeland, there to be vttered and ſolde, as ſpedily as anie other marchandiſes, that then for default of ſuch reformation in this behalfe no maner of marchaundiſes nor goods of the growing or workmanſhip of the lands and parties, which the ſaid duke holdeth and occupieth, ſhall come in the ſaide realme of Englande after the ſaide feaſt, vpon peine of forfeiture of the marchaundiſes ſo brought into this realme, that is to ſaye, the one halfe to our ſoueraigne lorde the king, and the other halfe thereof to him which firſt ſhall ſeaſe the ſaide marchaundiſes, in whoſe handes ſo euer they ſhall be founde. And that open proclamation ſhall be made vpon that betwixt this and the xv. daie of July next comming, within the citie of London and other places neceſſarie and conuenient to the ſame. And if anie ſuite be commenced hereafter becauſe of anie ſuch ſeiſin, in which anie iſſue concerning this act ſhall be taken, that the ſaide iſſue ſhall be tried in the countie where the ſaid ſeiſin is had, and in none other place, this ordinance to endure but till the next parliament.

Cap. 2.

Staple.

Caleys.

Item for as much as king Edwarde the third by great deliberation ordeined his whole ſtaple of wolles, wolfelles, and other marchaundiſes to be at Caleys, for the weale and profite of his realme, and ſaufegarde of the ſaide towne, and by the great liberties and franchiſes giuen to marchants thither repairing, after that manie yéeres came great reuenues to him and to his ſucceſſors, as it appeareth of recorde in the kings eſcheker, that is to ſaye, in euery yéere of his reigne lxviii. M.li. and more, and ſo continued manie yeres at the which time great riches came into this realme of England by the meane of marchants of the ſaide ſtaple then being manie in number & of great riches, good iuſtice and lawe had betwixt partie and partie, and by them wel executed, the ſaid towne of Caleys, and the marches was well repaired, and ſouldiers payde of their wages, although that maintenant by diuers and manie licences giuen by letters patentes, and by miſuſing of the ſaide licences in buying of wolles and wolfelles in other places than their licence contrineth, in ſhipping greater nomber and weight, and colouring the ſame by new contriued names as morling and ſhorling: And ſome perſons which according to their licence ought to haue carried their wolles ouer the mountaines, haue ſolde the ſame in Braband, & in other places, to ſuch men which were wont to be accuſtomed to buy their wolles at the ſtaple of Caleys, and alſo by great ſtealing out of wolles and wolfelles not cuſtomed in diuers parties of Englande, of Ireland, and of Wales oftentimes by the conſent and meane of vnlawfull officers, as ſearchers and ſurueyors, which take no fee, but priuie rewardes for doing wrong to the king, and by diuers reſtraints of marchaundiſes in Caleys, as well by warres as by ſouldiers for their wages, and manye other cauſes, in which the marchauntes of the ſaide ſtaple be not of abilitie nor power to enioye their liberties and franchiſes of olde time vſed and accuſtomed: Now it is ſo, that by the meanes aforeſaide, and by the breaking of ſuch ſtaples, the cuſtomes and ſubſidies of the marchaundiſes repairing to the ſaide ſtaple of Caleys paſſe not yéerely xii. M. pounde, which is not but little in compariſon to that that they haue béene heeretofore, the commons of this lande not enriched by their wolles and wolfelles and other marchandiſes, as they were wont to bee, the marchantes greatly miniſhed as well in number as in goods, & not of power nor in comfort to buy the wolles and wolfelles and other marchaundiſes as they haue done of olde time, the ſouldiers of Caleys & of the marches there not payed of their wages, the towne of Caleys by default of reparation, as wel within the towne walles, toures, and caſtels, as without the towne of dykes, cliffes, ſcluſes, bankes, and other reparations, which ſhould be made for defence of the towne and of the water without likely to be wholly deſtroyed (which God defende) except that remedie be haſtily prouided: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, by anthoritie aforeſaid, that the Maior, conſtables, and companie of marchants of the ſtaple of Caleys for the time being, and their ſucceſſors for euer, may haue and enioy all their franchiſes and liberties and euery of them, and whole repaire of all manner of marchandiſes to the ſaide ſtaple, by the ſaide king or by his noble progenitors to them or to their predeceſſors or any of them, by the authoritie of parliament graunted or confirmed, not repealed nor excepted. And that the ſaide Maior, conſtables, and their ſucceſſors may by them ſelfe or by their officers and miniſters, do execution of all manner of things and matters, the knowledge whereof to them perteineth, aſwel within the towne of Caleys as without the towne, in the precinct perteining to the ſame called the Skyppnage, anie commaundement, writing, or any other thing made or to be made to the contrarie not withſtanding. Prouided alwayes that by this act no man ſhall be excluded of his lawful ſuite by writ of Error of anie iudgement giuen before the ſaid Maior and conſtables, Nor the chauncelor of England & the kings councell ſhall not be excluded to redreſſe the defaults of the ſaid Maior and conſtables, after the forme of the ſtatute made the xxvii. yéere of the reigne of king Edward the thirde. And that no manner of licence for ſhipping of wolles and wolfelles, or of tynne granted to anie perſon or perſons, ſhall be effectuall nor auailable to him or to them, to carrie or bring anie ſuch wolles, wolfelles, or tynne, out of this realme of England, Ireland, or Wales, to anie other place than to the ſaid ſtaple of Caleys. And that all maner of licences by our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, or anie of his heires or ſucceſſors, to anie perſon or perſons to be graunted of or for wolles, wolfelles, or tynne, to be had, carried, or ſhipped out of this realme of England, Ireland, or Wales, or anie other place than to the ſaid ſtaple, ſhall be voide and of no effect. And that euery perſon or perſons, which ſhall except, obteine, and put in execution anie ſuch licence, or he or they to whoſe vſe anie ſuch licence is or ſhall be graunted and had, and by them, or by anie other by their agréement or conſent put in execution, ſhall be out of the kings protection, and moreouer that it ſhall be lawful to the ſaid Maior, conſtables, & companie of marchants of the ſaid ſtaple, & to their ſucceſſors for euer, to haue & purſue an action vpon this ſtatute againſt euerie perſon or perſons, which ſhall offend contrarie to this ordinance, & to haue ſuch proces in the ſame as is prouided in the Premunire facias, or ſuch proces as by the law is in an action of Treſpas doon againſt the kings peace at their election. And if anie perſon or perſons at their ſuite vpon the ſame be conuict or attainted, that the ſame Maior, conſtables, and companie of marchants ſhal haue iudgement to recouer all the moueable goods and catals, that anie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo conuict or attainted had, the daie of putting in execution of anie ſuch licence, or at the time of the ſaide iudgement giuen, or in anie time betwixt the putting in execution of anie ſuch licence, or at the time of the foreſaid iudgement giuen, or to the value thereof, at the election of the pleintiffes in the ſame action: whereof the two partes of the goods and cattals ſo recouered and had in execution, ouer the value thereof, ſhall be employed for reparations of gutters, ſcluſes, and bankes at Caleys aforeſaid, by the ſurueying of the maiſter of the ſaid workes there for the time being, and the thirde parte thereof ſhall remaine to the Maior, conſtables and companie aforeſaid. Prouided alwaies that the ſaid action be had and commenced within the countie where ſuch licence ſhall be put in execution. And if anie ſuch licence be put in execution in Ireland or Wales, that then the ſuite ſhall be commenced in the countie within England next adioyning to the place where ſuch licence ſhall be put in execution in Ireland or Wales. And moreouer that euerie perſon or perſons, which ſhal ſhip or bring or do to be ſhipped or carried anie wolles, wolfelles, or tinne out of this realm, Ireland, or Wales by colour of anie licence, or otherwiſe, and them put to ſale in anie other part or place out of yͤ ſaid realm of England, Ireland, or Wales, then to the ſaid ſtaple of Caleys, vnles the ſhip, in which the ſaide wolls, wolſelles, or tynne ſhould be periſhed, and may not be brought to the ſaide ſtaple, and thereof be attainted or conuict at the ſuite of the ſaide Mayor, conſtable, & companie of marchants of the ſaide ſtaple, by ſuch action and proces grounded vpon this act, as it is afore rehearſed, the ſame action to be taken in the countie where the ſaid wolles, wolſelles, or tynne be ſhipped or carried out, that he ſhall forfeit all his goods and cattals, to be employed and had in the forme aforeſaide. And if anie wolles, wolſelles, or tynne, from henceforth be carried or ſhipped to be had out of this realme of England, Ireland, or Wales, to anie other place out of Englande, Irelande, or Wales, than to the ſaid ſtaple by force of anie licence, that then it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon, being the kings liege man, to ſeaſe the ſaid wolles, wolſelles, and tynne, & them keepe to his owne vſe after ſuch ſeaſin. And that euery cuſtomer, controller, ſercher, and ſurueyor, which by his knowledge ſhall ſuffer or admit anie wolles, wolſelles, or tynne to be ſhipped within anie porte, creeke, hable, or anie other place where they be officers, or anie other port or place than to the ſaide ſtaple as afore is ſaide, by force of anie licence, or by colour thereof, by force of anie writ or other commandement, in affirming or approuing of any ſuch licence to them to be directed, or willingly ſuffer anie ſuch marchandiſes to paſſe out of this realme, not cuſtomed or not wayed at yͤ kings beame, ſuch of them which ought to be wayed, ſhall incurre the peine and forfeiture aforeſaid. And he or they ſhall be reputed and iudged in like caſe, as he which executeth anie ſuch licence to anie other place than to the ſaide ſtaple, after that that he thereof ſhall be conuict at the ſuite of him which in this caſe will ſue. And that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon being the kings ſubiect and liege man, that in that caſe will purſue, to haue ſuch action againſt the ſaide cuſtomers, controllers, ſerchers, and ſurueiors, as is prouided againſt ſuch perſons which ſhall put in execution anie ſuch licence, as afore is ſaide. And that all manner of thing done contrarie to the ordinance of this ſtatute, as well within this realme as without not triable by matter of record, ſhall be put in iſſue, and be triable by enqueſt in the ſame countie and viſne, where the ſaide action ſhall be taken. Prouided alwaies that all manner of licences for wolles & tynne to paſſe by the ſtreites of Marrok, ſhipped in galeys or carrakes for paying cuſtomes and ſubſidies as aliens doe or ſhall doe, ſhall be onely except. Prouided alſo that this act ſhall not extende, nor ſhall be preiudiciall to the licence graunted by our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king by his letters patents, bearing date the xxiiii. daie of Iuly, the xxvi. yeere of his reigne, to our ladie the Queene his companion, to ſhip and carrie by her, her deputies, aſſignes, or creditors, wolles, wolſelles, and tynne after the forme and effect of the ſaid letters patents, ſo that the ſaide wolles, wolſelles, and tynne, & euery of them ſhall be and be ſhipped in galey or galeyes, carrake or carrakes, & carried by the ſtraites of Marroke. Prouided alſo that this act ſhall not extende nor be preiudiciall to the licence graunted by our ſoueraigne lorde the king by his letters patentes, bearing date the firſt day of Iuly the xxiiii. yeere of his reigne to the duke of Suffolke, by the name of William marques and earle of Suffolke, to ſhip and carrie by him his deputies or atturneys two thouſand ſackes of woll of the growing of the countie of Norfolke, after the forme and effect of the ſame letters patents. And that open proclamation of this ordinance ſhall be made in euery towne, where the counticourts be holden, euery porte, hable, and market towne next adioyning to the ſaid portes, by the ſhirife of euery countie or his deputie, once euery moneth by the ſpace of halfe a yeere next after this ordinance made, after this act ſent againſt them by writ of record, vpon peine of xx.li. to be forfeit to yͤ king, if the ſaid proclamation be not duely executed. Prouided alwayes that this graunt or ordinance ſhall not extend to the prior & conent of ſaint Iohn of Bridlington & his ſucceſſour, which haue licence by the kings letters patents made to them the ix. day of Nouember, the xxvi. yeere of his reigne, to ſhip, carrie, or bring their wolles to the number of xii. ſarplers, conteining xxx. ſackes or within, to other places or ports beyond the ſea than to the ſaid ſtaple of Caleys. Prouided alſo that this graunt or ordinance ſhall not extend to graunts ſeuerally made to Thomas Walſingham, Thomas Browne, and to Iohn Penycoke eſquiers by the letters patents of our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king before this time, to ſhip, carrie, or bring certeine wolles to other places or portes beyond the ſea then to the ſaid ſtaple of Caleys, but that they ſhall be cleerelie except of this ſaid ordinance. And that this ordinance ſhall begin at the feaſt of the Natiuitie of ſaint Iohn the baptiſt next comming, and ſhall endure till the ende of v. yeeres next following.

Cap. 3. Marchants.

Item where it is ordeined by a ſtatute made in the fourth yere of king Henrie the fourth, noble progenitor of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, that all marchants aliens, ſtrangers, and denizens, that bring anie marchandiſes into this realme of Englande, and them ſell within the ſaid realme of England, ſhould put all the money for the ſaid marchandiſes receiued or to be receiued, to be emploied for other marchandiſes of England, to carrie out of this realme, without bearing awaie with them anie gold or ſiluer in coine, plate or maſſe out of the ſaid realme, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame: which notwithſtanding diuers marchants aliens, ſtrangers & denizens, dailie in diuers portes, hables, creekes, and other places within the ſaide realme, bring in wheate, corne, and other marchaundiſes and vitaile, for the which they receiue golde and ſiluer, and the ſame carrie with them out of the ſaide realme, without anie imploiment of the ſaide gold and ſiluer vpon anie marchaundiſes of this realme, in great dammage and impoueriſhment of this realme, and miniſhing of the kings coine, in default of due ſearch had of cuſtomers, controllers, and ſerchers, hauing power and authoritie to do their offices to be executed: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king, conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaide, that if anie marchantes aliens ⁊ ſtraungers bring,beare,or carrie any wheate,corne or anie other marchandiſes or vitaile in anie hable,port,or cryke,or other places of this ſaid realme,that the maior, bailiffes,porterceſes,cuſtomers,controllers,and ſerchers,and other offices there of the ſaid port, hauen,or cryke,or other places,and euery of them,ſhall haue full auctoritie and power to arreſt and ſeaſe all ſhips,barges and other veſſels charged and fraited with wheate,corne,or anie other marchandiſes or vitaile, to be brought into this realme of any countrie out of this realme to ſell and to take ſufficient ſuerty of all the ſaid marchants alyens and ſtrangers for the ſaid wheate,corne or other marchandiſes and vitaile ſo brought by the ſaid marchants aliens and ſtrangers comming and repairing to the ſaid ports,hables,and crykes,and other places of this ſaid realme. And that the money which ſhall be taken or receiued for the ſaid wheate , corne and other marchandiſes or vitaile ſhalbe employed vpon the marchandiſes and commodities of this realme without fraud ſubtiltie or male engine. And if anie golde or ſiluer in coine,plate,or maſſe,by marchants aliens ſtrangers or deniſens be caried out of this realme,taken or receiued for wheate,corne or any other marchandiſes or vitaile,to be brought into this realme of anie other countrey out of this realme, contrarie to this ordinance afore recited,that it ſhalbe lawfull to euery perſon to purſue an action of Det againſt al ſuch cuſtomers,controllers,⁊ ſerchers,and euery of them,in whoſe knowledge ⁊ default againſt their office any ſuch gold or ſiluer in coyne, plate, or maſſe, is had ⁊ caried out of this realme,to be purſued in ſuch counties where ſuch wheate, corne,or any other marchandiſe or vitaile is brought and put to ſale,and in the ſaide action ſhall make his demaunde of a ſumme amounting to the value of the ſaid wheat,corne,marchandiſe,or vitaile. And that the parties or partie,which is ſo ſued,and firſt appeareth ſhall be put to anſwere in the ſaid action,and ſhal not wage his lawe in the ſaid action,nor eſſoyne nor protection ſhall be in the ſame action for him or for any of them allowed. Prouided alwaies that this ordinance ſhall begin and ſhall be in his force in the xv. of Eſter next enſuing,and ſhall endure till the next parliament, And that proclamation thereof be made before yͤ ſaid xv. in all parties of this realme where any wheate,corne, or other marchandiſes or vitaile be or ſhall be brought into this realme,from any countrey out of this realme.

Cap. 4. Wales.

Item where as at the greeuous compleint of the commons of the counties of Herford,Glouceſter,and Shropſhyre,which be adioyning to the marches of Wales,and of the commons of the counties of Somerſet,Briſtowe , ⁊ Cheſter,at yͤ parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xx. yere of the raigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king that now is,it was ordeined by auctoritie of the ſaid parliament,that if any people of the ſaid counties their goods and cattals were wrongfully taken in any of the ſaid counties by any men of Wales,and out of the ſaid counties into Wales or into the marches of Wales conueied,caried,or brought , or retained , that ſuch taking or takings,receites abetments or withholding of ſuch offences aforeſaid,ſhall be iudged hie treaſon,⁊ whoſoeuer thereof ſhall be attainted ſhall be taken and iudged as traitors,to our ſoueraigne lord the king. And that the Iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions in the ſaid counties ſhall haue power to enquire,and there to determine of all ſuch offenders,their abbettors and receiuers , and to make proces againſt the perſons ſo endited by ii. capias and an exigent,euery capias conteining yͤ ſpace of two moneths betwixt the date thereof and the returne of the ſame. And that mention ſhall be made in the ſaid writs of Capias,that the ſheriffes of the counties for the time being ſhall make proclamation in their counties,that they ſo endited ſhall appeare before yͤ ſaid iuſtices in their ſeſſions,to anſwere to yͤ matters conteined in yͤ ſaid enditements. Prouided alwayes that the lords marchers,of whom ſuch offendors, their abbettors and receiuers ſhall hold their lands and tenements,ſhall haue the forfaiture thereof,and alſo the forfaiture of their goods ⁊ cattals found within their ſeigniories,after that that they ſhall be attainted of ſuch offences,which ordinance ſhould endure but for vi. yeeres then next enſuing. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king at the requeſt of the commons of the ſaid counties,by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, will that the ſaid ordinance made in yͤ ſaid parliament holden at Weſtminſter the ſayde twentie yeere of his ſayde raigne, for ſuch wrongfull taking,ſhall endure for vi. yeeres,and ſhall take effect and be in his force till the next parliament,and then to expire.

Cap. 5. Faires and marketes.

Item conſidering the abominable iniuries and offences done to almightie God , and to his ſaints alwaies ayders and ſinguler aſſiſters in our neceſſitie,by the occaſions of faires and markets vpon their high and principall feaſtes,as in the feaſt of the Aſcenſion of our lord,in the daye of Corpus Chriſti,in the day of Whitſunday,in Trinitie ſunday,with other ſundayes,and alſo in the high feaſt of the Aſſumption of our bleſſed ladie,the day of all Saints, and on good friday accuſtomablie and miſerablie holden and vſed in the realme of England : In the which principall and feſtiuall dayes for great earthly couetiſe the people is more willingly vexed and in bodily labour troubled,then in other ferial daies,as in faſtening making their boothes and ſtalles, bearing ⁊ carying, lifting and ſetting their marchandiſe outward and homeward,as though they had nothing in memorie the horrible defiling of their ſoules in buying and ſelling with manie deceitfull lyes and falſe periurie,with drunkennes and ſtrifes, and ſo ſpecially withdrawing themſelfe and their ſeruants from diuine ſeruice. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king,by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall,and the commons of his realme of England , being in the ſaid parliamant,and by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, hath ordeined that all maner of faires and markets in the ſaid principall feaſtes and ſundayes and good friday,ſhall cleerely ceaſe from all ſhewing of anie goods or marchandiſes (neceſſarie vitaile onlie except) vpon paine of forfaiture of all the goodes aforeſaide ſo ſhewed,to the lorde of the franchiſe or libertie where ſuch goodes,contrarie to this ordinance,be or ſhall be ſhewed,the iiii.ſondayes in harueſt except. Neuertheleſſe of his ſpeciall grace,by authoritie aforeſaid granteth to them power,which of old time had no day to hold their faire and market,but alonly vpon the feſtiuall dayes aforeſaide, to holde by the ſame authoritie and ſtrength of his old grant,within iii.dayes next before the ſaid feaſts,or next after, proclamation firſt made to the ſimple common people , vppon which day the foreſaide faires ſhall be holden alwayes to be certified without anie fine or fée to be taken to the kings vſe. And they which of old time haue by ſpeciall commiſſion ſufficient daies before the feaſts aforeſaid, or after full number of his daies,ſhall in like maner as is aforeſaid,hold his faires and markets, The ſaid feſtiuall daies and ſundaies and good fridaie except. Prouided alwaies that this preſent ordinance ſhall begin to take effect at the feaſt of ſaint Michael next comming and not before,and ſhall endure till the next parliament,and ſo forth except in the ſaid parliament a reaſonable cauſe be alledged,ſhewed,and proued, for the which it ſhall ſéeme not expedient that the foreſaide ordinaauce ſo ſhall endure.

Cap. 6. Prieſts.

Item for as much as in diuerſe parties of the realme of England manie prieſtes,aſwell ſeculer as religious,were gréeuouſly and wrongfully vexed and troubled by diuerſe enditements of felonie,to their great domage,againſt faith and conſcience,for the ſinguler lucre of other perſons and not for the kings profite, Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king,conſidering the premiſſes, and for that that the clergie being in the laſt conuocation granted to our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king a ſubſidie,to be taken and leuied of all ſeculer prieſts ſtipendarie and chauntery prieſts within the realme of England,that is to ſay of euerie prieſt vi.s.and viii.d. by the aduiſe and aſſent and authoritie aforeſaid,hath pardoned and acquited all and euerie prieſt,aſwell religious as ſeculer, of all felonies of rape done before the firſt day of Iune,the xxvii.yéere of the raigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king. And alſo hath pardoned and releaſed by the ſame authoritie to all and euerie prieſt ſeculer, ſtipendarie and annual,al the ſame that to the ſaid our ſoueraigne lord the king pertaineth or belongeth by way of forfaiture of euerie of them before the ſaid firſt daie of the moneth of Iune,becauſe of taking exceſſiue wages contrarie to the ſtatutes thereof made,and that euery of them maie haue ſufficient writtes thereupon for their diſcharge without ſuing anie charter.

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made at Weſtminſter the xxviii. yeere of king Henrie the ſixt.

TO the honour of God and of holie church and for the common weale and profite of all the realme of England, Our ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the vi.after the conqueſt, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall,and temporall,and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the commons in the parliament aſſembled of our ſoueraigue lord the king that now is holden at Weſtminſter the vi.day of Nouember, the xxviii.yéere of his raigne,by authoritie of the ſame parliament,hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed certaine ordinances and ſtatutes in maner as followeth.

Cap. 1. Wollen clothes.

FIrſt where as at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xxvii. yéere of his raigne, becauſe of a certaine ordinance,had,proclaimed,publiſhed and ſtraitlie kept in the parties of Braband, Holland,& Sealand,that no maner of wollen clothes made in this realme ſhould not come in the ſaid parties,there to be ſold in anie wiſe,vpon paine of forfaiture of the ſame clothes, wherefore our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king,becauſe that it was expreſſelie againſt the truce and appointment made and taken betwixt his realmes,lands and ſubiects of the one partie, & the lands which the duke of Burgoyne holdeth and occupieth of the other partie, manie times before this time made his letters of requeſt to be written, & ſent his meſſage for due reformation to be had in this behalfe,whereof no due remedie is yet had,to the intollerable damage of all the commons of this realme,becauſe that manie clothmakers,that is to ſay,men weauers,fullers, and diers, and women webſters,carders,and ſpinners,and other buiers and ſellers of the ſame, ſuch which knowe none other occupation of verie neceſſitie be conſtrained for their liuing to do theſe occupations, and ſome of them liue idlelie,which prouoketh them to ſinne and euil life,and vpon this conſideration in the ſaid parliament the ſaid xxvii.yéere it was ordeined, that vnleſſe due continuall reformation were made in the ſaid parties of Braband,Holland,and Sealand,of the ſaid ordinance, betwixt this time and the feaſt of S.Michael then next enſuing, ſo that all maner of wollen clothes made in this realme maie come and be accepted in the ſame parties of Braband,Holland, & Sealand, there to be vttered and ſold as ſpéedelie as anie other marchandiſes, That then for defaute of ſuch reformation in this behalfe,no maner of marchandiſes nor goods of yͤ growing nor workemanſhip of the lands and parties,which the ſaid duke holdeth and occupieth,ſhould not come in the ſaid realme after the ſaid feaſt,vpon paine of forfaiture of the ſame marchandiſe,that is to ſay,the one halfe thereof to the king and the other halfe to him which firſt ſhal ſeaſe the ſaid marchandiſes, in whoſe hands ſo euer that they ſhalbe found,and that thereupon open proclamation ſhalbe made betwixt this time and the xv.daie of Iuly then next enſuing,within the citie of London,and other places neceſſarie and conuenient to the ſame. And if anie ſuite be commenced after this time becauſe of anie ſuch ſeiſure, in which anie iſſue concerning this ordinance ſhall be taken, that the ſaid iſſue ſhall be tried in the counties where the ſaid ſeiſure ſhall be had,and in none other place, which ordinance ſhould haue endured till the next parliament.And for aſmuch as by the ſummons and commencement of this pꝛeſent parliament,the ſaid oꝛdinance ſhalbe fully expired and determined,no due refoꝛmation on the behalfe of the ſaid duke of Burgoyne of the premiſſes yet had: Our ſaid ſoueraigne loꝛd the king,conſidering the pꝛemiſſes,by the aduiſe,aſſent and auctoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid,hath oꝛdeined and ſtabliſhed that open pꝛoclamation ſhal be made in the citie of London and other places neceſſarie and conuenient foꝛ the ſame,betwixt this and the feaſt of ſaint Peter called ad vincula next comming,that vnles due continual refoꝛmation be made and had in yͤ ſaid parties,of Braband,Holland,⁊ Seeland,betwixt that ⁊ the feaſt of ſaint Michaell then next enſuing,ſo that al maner of wollen clothes made in this realme of England,may come ⁊ be accepted in the ſame parties of Braband,Holland and Seeland,there to be vttered ⁊ ſold, as ſpeedilie as anie other marchandiſes,that then foꝛ default of ſuch refoꝛmation in this behalfe, no manner of marchandiſes noꝛ goods of the growing noꝛ woꝛkemanſhip of the lands and parties,which the ſaid duke holdeth and occupieth,ſhall come into this realme after the ſaid feaſt of ſaint Michaell,vpon paine of foꝛfaiture of the marchandiſes,that is to ſaie,the one halfe thereof to the king, and the other halfe to him which firſt ſhall ſeaſe the ſaid marchandiſes,in whoſe handes ſo euer they ſhall be found.And if anie ſuite be commenced hereafter becauſe of anie ſuch ſeaſure , in which anie iſſue concerning this oꝛdinance ſhall be taken, that the ſaid iſſue ſhall bee tried in the countie where the ſaid ſeaſure is had,and in none other place.And that this oꝛdinance ſhall endure foꝛ vii.yeeres, if due refoꝛmation be not made within this time.

Marchandiſes.

Chap. 2.
Hoſtelers.
Vitailers.

Item whereas diuerſe hoſtelers bꝛewers and other vitailers,keeping hoſteries and other houſes of retailing of vitailes in diuerſe places in this realme,haue purchaſed the kings letters patents,ſome to them foꝛ terme of life,and ſome to them ⁊ to other iointlie foꝛ terme of their liues, to take hoꝛſes and cartes foꝛ the cariage of the king and the queene,moꝛe foꝛ their ſubtill and ſinguler lucre and pꝛofite then foꝛ anie faithfull ſeruice of the king oꝛ of the queene,by colour of which letters patents they dailie take hoꝛſes and carts where that no neede is,and bꝛinging them to their hoſteries and other places of their affinitie,and their keepe them ſecretly, ſometime till they haue diſpended xx.d. oꝛ xl.d. of their ſtuffe, and ſometime moꝛe and then make the owners of the ſaide hoꝛſes ⁊ carts to pay foꝛ the ſame,befoꝛe that they can get deliuerance of their hoꝛſes and cartes, and ſome till they haue made a fine with them foꝛ ſuch hoꝛſes and carts at their will. And of ſome of the kings people they take fines to ſhew fauour,and not to take their hoꝛſes noꝛ carts,ſo that diuerſe perſons of the kings people in this noble realme be greatlie endomaged by the ſaid takers aſwel foꝛ the non paiment of the hier of the ſaid hoꝛſes and carts,as foꝛ the great charge they haue foꝛ their meate and fines made foꝛ their deliuerance after they be ſo taken. Our ſaid ſoueraigne loꝛd the king,by the aduiſe and aſſent afoꝛeſaid,hath oꝛdeined and ſtabliſhed, that all ſuch letters patents granted to anie perſon oꝛ perſons,holding anie hoſtries bꝛewhouſes oꝛ houſe of retailing of vitaile ſhall be void and of no value noꝛ effect,and if anie ſuch grant be made to anie ſuch perſon oꝛ perſons from hence foꝛth that all ſuch patents ſo granted ſhall be void and of no effect. And that no perſon noꝛ perſons ſhall take hoꝛſe noꝛ cart in anie place within this realme, but by the deliuerance of the maioꝛ,ſheriffe,bailifes,oꝛ conſtable,where ſuch taking ſhall be had.And if anie ſuch perſon oꝛ perſons take any hoꝛſe oꝛ cart of any perſon oꝛ perſons,without gree made to the owner foꝛ the ſame,and by the deliuerance of the maioꝛ,ſhiriffe,bailife oꝛ conſtable,where ſuch takings ſhall be had,that then he oꝛ they , from whom ſuch hoꝛſe oꝛ cart is taken,and he oꝛ they of whom ſuch fines oꝛ paiments be taken,as is afoꝛe rehearſed,ſhall haue an action of Treſpaſſe at the common lawe foꝛ ſuch takings. And that he oꝛ they that fele him ſelfe greeued in ſuch action ſhall recouer treble domages againſt him oꝛ them , which ſo take any hoꝛſe oꝛ cart fines oꝛ paiments contrarie to this oꝛdinance. Sauing alwaies to the king his pꝛerogatiue and his pꝛeeminence of and in the pꝛemiſſes.

Waterbailiefes.
Serchers.

Item where as diuerſe waterbailifes, ſerchers, controllers of ſerche, and other their deputies and ſeruants within the portes of this realme, & ſpecially within the portes of Fowey, Plymmouth, Dertmouth, and Pole, by colour of their offices dayly do wrongfully take by conſtreint of diſtreſſes and arreſtes vpon the ſhips, barges, balengars, and other veſſels, goods, and merchandiſes of the kings liege merchantes of this ſaid realme, and among al other vpon the kings liege merchantes of Gaſcoyne, Guyen, Ireland, Gerneſey, and Ierneſey, in their comming and going in the ſaid portes, great charges and impoſitions, that is to ſay, for euerie peece of creſcloth iiii.d. for euery hundred of canuas vi.d. for the weight of euery tonne of yron. xii.d. and ſome time more, and likewiſe of all other goodes and merchaundiſes of the ſaid liege people and other merchauntes of the kings amitie, and by ſuch wronfull diſtreſſes, arreſtes, charges, and impoſitions they doe diſturbe the ſaid marchauntes freely to come into this ſaid realme, and to paſſe againſt all law and conſcience, among al cuſtomes and ſubſidies due to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, to the great preiudice of our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king in loſſe of his cuſtomes and ſubſidies, and to the great domage of the ſaid marchantes and their ſucceſſours, vnleſſe due remedie thereof be had in the ſame: By aduiſe, aſſent, and auctoritie aforeſaide it is ordined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid marchants, their ſucceſſors and euerie of them, of all ſuch iniuries, diſtreſſes, arreſtes, charges, and impoſitions afore recited, to be made to them or any of them, aſwel by ſuch waterbailiffes, ſercheors, and controllors of the ſerch, as by collectors of the ſaid cuſtomes, and ſubſidies controllors of the ſame, ſurueyors of the cuſtomes, ſubſidies, and of ſerche packers, or any other officers their deputies or ſeruantes by their commandement or any of them hereafter may haue thereupon a generall writ of Treſpaſſe againſt ſuch offenders and euerie of them, after the forme of the lawe, and to recouer againſt them and euerie of them thereof ſo conuicted xl.li. And that the ſaid marthantes, their ſucceſſors and euerie of them ſo greeued (as before is ſaid) may purſue the ſaid writ of treſpaſſe againſt the ſaid offenders and euery of them of ſuch iniuries, diſtreſſes, arreſts, charges and impoſitions ſo to be made, as afore is ſaid, within two moneths next after ſuch iniuries, diſtreſſes, arreſts, charges, and impoſitions to be made by them or anie of them, as afore is ſaid. And in caſe that the ſaid marchants, their ſucceſſours or anie of them doe not purſue the ſaid writ of Treſpaſſe of ſuch iniuries, diſtreſſes, arreſts, charges, and impoſitions aforeſaid, againſt the ſaid offenders, nor none of them within the ſaid two moneths, that then it ſhall be lawful to euery other perſon of the kings liege people to purſue the ſaid writ of Treſpaſſe of ſuch iniuries, diſtreſſes, arreſts, charges & impoſitions to be made as is aforeſaid, againſt all ſuch offenders & euerie of them after yͤ forme of the lawe, and to recouer againſt them & euerie of them thereof ſo conuict fortie pound the king to haue the one halfe, and he or they which wil purſue, the other halfe.

OUr ſoueraigne lord the king Henrie the vi. after the conqueſt, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the feaſt of S. Leonard, the xxix. yeere of his raigne, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons in the ſame parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed diuers ordinances and ſtatutes in the forme which followeth.

Cap. 1.
Iacke Cade.

FIrſt where as the falſe traitour Iohn Cade, naming himſelfe Iohn Mortimer, late named captaine of Kent, the viii. daie of Iuly, the xxviii. yeere of the raigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king at Southwarke in the countie of Surrey, and the ix. day of Iuly, the aforeſaid yeere of the raigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king at Dertford and Rocheſter in the countie of Kent, alſo at the towne of Rocheſter aforeſaid, & elſewhere, the x. and xi. daie of Iulie then next enſuing within the realme of England, falſely and traitorouſly imagined the kings death deſtruction and ſubuertion of this realme, in gathering and leuying great number of the kings people, and them exciting to make inſurrection againſt the king falſely and traitorouſly in the places aforeſaid, at the time before recited, againſt yͤ kings royaltie, crowne, and his dignitie, & there and then made and leuied warre ſalſlie and traitorouſlie againſt the king and his highneſſe: And though he be dead and miſchieued, yet by the law of the land not puniſhed: Our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king conſidering the premiſſes, to put ſuch traitors in feare in time comming, and for ſauing of himſelfe and of his realme, by aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and at the requeſt of his commons, hath ordained by the autoritie of the ſaid parliament, that he ſhall be of theſe treaſons attainted, and that by the ſame autoritie he ſhall forfeite to the king all his goods, lands, and tenements, rentes, and poſſeſſions, which he had the ſaid eight day of Iuly, or after, and his bloud corrupt and diſabled for euer, and to be called a falſe traitor within the ſaid realme for euer.

Chap. 2. Trewce Safeconducts. Shiriffe.

Item it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the ſtatute made the ſecond yeere of the ſaid late victorious and noble king Henrie, father to our ſouereigne lorde the king that now is, of the breakers of trewce and ſafeconduites vpon the maine ſea and other places, ſhall be in his force and confirmed. Ioyning to the ſame, that the chaunceller of England for the time being, calling to him one of the chiefe iuſtices of the one bench or of the other, ſhall haue like power as the conſeruators and other commiſſioners in the ſame ſtatute ſpecified haue: ſauing where it is contained in the ſame ſtatute, that if he or they, vpon whom complaintes ſhall be made, doo not appeare at a certaine time, as is there contained, that then a Capias and exigend ſhall be awarded againſt him or them, vpon whom ſuch complaint is made, aſwell to the ſhiriffe of the countie, of the which they be ſuppoſed to be, as to the ſhiriffe of the ſaid countie, where the ſaid complaint ſhall be made: it is ordained in this preſent parliament, that he ſhall award a writ of Capias to yͤ ſhiriffe of euerie of the ſaide counties, commaunding him vpon paine of a hundred poundes to make open proclamation in yͤ fiue counties continuallie, that the partie or parties, vpon whom he hath complained ſhall appeare at a certaine day contained in the ſame writ, before the ſaid chaunceller, if the complaint of the premiſſes be made before him after the forme contained in the ſaid ſtatute. And if they appeare not at the ſame day, that then they ſhall be attainted and conuict to the partie ſo complaining of the offences in the ſaid complaint ſpecified. And that the ſaid partie complainant ſhall be preferred to haue execution before anie ſeaſin had for the king in this behalfe, notwithſtanding that they ſo making default be attainted of treaſon. And it is ordained, that no perſon, which appeareth vpon anie ſuch complaint or writ to be awarded, ſhall incurre the paine againſt our ſouereigne lord the king of treaſon contained in the ſaide ſtatute. Prouided alſo if anie perſon, againſt whom ſuch writ or proclamation ſhall be awarded, be out of this realme by feate of marchandiſe, or in the kings ſeruice by his commaundement, at the time of the firſt proclamation made vpon ſuch writs, that then the ſame perſon ſhall not be endomaged by this acte, ſo that he appeare perſonallie before the king in his chauncerie within a moneth next after his comming into this realme, to aunſwere to ſuch complaints. Prouided alſo that no owner vitailer nor ſetter forth of anie ſhip or veſſell, which ſhall not be partie to anie ſuch offence, nor procurour, counſellour, nor abbettour to the dooing thereof, nor knowing nor willinglie receiuing nor taking anie parte of the goods ſo robbed or ſpoiled vpon the ſea, ſhall be endomaged by this acte. And that this ordinance ſhall begin and ſhall be in his force the firſt day of this preſent parliament and not before, and ſhall endure by fiue yeeres next enſuing. And that no charter of pardon hereafter to be graunted ſhall be allowable to anie perſon or perſons for anie offences doone contrarie to the ſaid ſtatute.

Chap. 3. Yorke. Letters patentes.

Item where as great inconueniences and domages haue come now of late in the citie of Yorke, and more in time to come be like to happen, if prouiſion thereof be not had: for that that diuers and certaine perſons, citiſens of the ſaide citie, haue purchaſed and gotten of our ſouereigne lord the king ſeuerall letters patents, thereby to be exempted of the offices and occupations of maioraltie, ſhiriffe, chamberlaine, collector of diſmes and quinſiſmes, and citiſen of the ſaide citie to come to the parliaments of our ſouereigne lorde the king and his heires within the ſaide citie: Our ſaid ſouereigne lorde the king, conſidering the premiſſes by aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that all ſuch letters patents graunted or to be graunted to anie perſon or perſons, now citiſens of the ſaid citie, or which in time comming ſhall be made, ſhall be void, and of none effect. And moreouer that if anie citiſen of the ſaid citie now being, or which in time comming ſhall be, doo purchaſe, admit, take, or get anie ſuch letters patentes, thereby to be exempt of anie of the offices or occupations aforeſaide, within the ſame citie, ſhall forfeite fortie ponndes, the one halfe to our ſouereigne lorde the king, and the other halfe to the maior and citiſens of the ſaid citie and their ſucceſſors. And that the maior for the time being and his ſucceſſors may and might haue and maintaine an action of debt, to demaund the ſaid fortie poundes againſt euerie of the ſaide perſon or perſons, purchaſing, admitting, taking or getting ſuch letters patents of exemption. the one halfe of the ſaid fortie poundes ſo recouered, to be to the vſe of our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king and his heires, and the other halfe of the ſaide fortie poundes to be to the vſe of the maior of the ſaid citie for the time being, and of the citiſens of the ſame citie and their ſucceſſours. And that in ſuch actions of debt hereafter to be purſued, the parties defendaunts in no wiſe ſhall be admitted to their lawe.

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made at Reding the xxxi. yeere of king Henrie the ſixt.

AT the parliament holden at Reding, the ſixt day of March, the one and thirtie yeere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lorde king Henrie the ſixt after the conqueſt, the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons being in the ſaid parliament, and by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, hath made ordained and ſtabliſhed diuers ordinances and ſtatutes in the maner and forme folowing.

Chap. 1.

John. Cade.

Firſt where as the moſt abhominable tyran, horrible, odious, and errant falſe traitor John Cade, calling and naming him ſelfe ſometime Mortimer, ſometime captaine of Kent, which name, fame, actes, and feates be to be remoued out of the ſpeech and mind of euerie faithfull chriſtian man perpetuallie: falſelie, and traitorouſlie purpoſing and imagining the perpetuall deſtruction of the kings ſaid perſon, and finall ſubuerſion of this realme, taking vpon him roiall power, and gathering to him the kings people in great number by falſe ſubtill imagined language, and ſeditiouſlie made a ſtirring, rebellion, and inſurrection vnder colour of iuſtice for reformation of the lawes of the ſaid king, robbing, ſleaing, and ſpoiling great parte of his faithfull people: Our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, with manie other which were more odious to remember, by aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes aforeſaide, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons, and by auctoritie aforeſaide, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaide John Cade ſhall be reputed, had, named: and declared a falſe traitor to our ſouereigne lorde the king, and that all his tyrannie, actes, feates, and falſe opinions ſhall be voided, abated, adnulled, deſtroied, and put out of remembraunce for euer. And that all enditements, and all things depending thereof, had & made vnder the power of tyrannie, ſhall be likewiſe void, adnulled, abated, repealed, and holden for none. And that the bloud of none of them be thereof defiled nor corrupted, but by the auctoritie of the ſaide parliament clearelie declared for euer. And that all enditements in time comming, in like caſe vnder power of tyrannie, rebellion, and ſtirring had, ſhall be of no recorde nor effecte, but voide in lawe. And all the petitions deliuered to the ſaid king in his laſt parliament holden at Weſtminſter the ſixt day of Nouember, the nine and twentie yeere of his reigne, againſt his minde by him not agreed, ſhall be taken and put in obliuion out of remembraunce vndoone, voided, adnulled, and deſtroied for euer, as a thing purpoſed againſt God and conſcience, and againſt his royall eſtate and preeminence, and alſo diſhonorable and vnreaſonable.

Chap. 2.

Diſobedience.

Priuie ſeale.

Shiriffe.

Item for aſmuch as the king our ſouereigne lord before this time, vpon certaine ſuggeſtions and complaintes made aſwell to him as to the lordes of his counſell, vpon diuers perſons of this his realme, for great ryotes extortions, oppreſſions, and greeuous offences by them doone againſt his peace and lawes, to diuers of his liege people, hath giuen in commaundement, aſwell by his writtes vnder his great ſeale, as by his letters of priuie ſeale, to appeare before him in his chauncerie, or before him and his counſell at certaine dayes in the ſame writtes or letters contained, to aunſwere to the premiſſes: which commaundements be & manie times haue bene diſobeied, in contempt of the king our ſaid ſouereigne lord, and to the great hinderaunce, domage, and delay of his ſaid complainants in this behalfe: Our ſaid ſouereigne lorde the king, conſidering the premiſſes, by the auctoritie aforeſaide, hath ordained, enacted, and ſtabliſhed, that if anie ſuch writte or letters of priuie ſeale hereafter directed to anie perſon to appeare before him or his counſell (as afore is ſaide) there to aunſwere to anie of the premiſſes, and then the ſame perſon refuſe to receiue ſuch writte or letters, or them deſpiſe, or abſent or withdraweth him ſelfe for this cauſe, and come not, and keepe the day of apparaunce giuen to him by the ſaid writte or letters of priuie ſeale, and that duelie certified and knowen to his councell, that then the chaunceller of England, for the time being, ſhall haue power by the ſaide auctoritie, to cauſe a writte or writs of proclamation to be directed to the ſhiriffe of the countie, where the perſon ſo refuſing to receiue ſuch writtes or letters, or them deſpiſing, or abſenting or withdrawing him for this cauſe, is dwelling or conuerſant, or into the countie next adioyning, and to the ſhiriffes of London for the time being, giuing to the ſaid ſhiriffes ſeuerallie in commaundement by him ſelfe, that they vpon paine of forfeiture of CC. li. ſhall make open proclamation in the ſhiretowne of the ſame countie, and in the ſaide citie, by iii. ſeuerall dayes immediatlie after that the ſaid writ or writtes ſhall be to them deliuered, that ſuch perſon, to whom ſuch writ or letters of priuie ſeale ſhall be directed as afore is rehearſed, ſhall appeare before the kings counſell, or before the chaunceller of England for the time being, within a moneth next after the ſaide laſt day of proclamation: And ſhall returne the ſaide writ or writtes of proclamation before the king in his chauncerie within ſeuen dayes after the ſaid third day of proclamation, vpon the ſaid paine of CC. li. And if he make default, and doo not appeare within the ſaid moneth, the ſaid writ or writtes duelie proclaimed in the ſaid ſhiretowne and citie, and the kings counſell truelie certified of the ſaide proclamation in ſuch forme executed: that then if ſuch perſon be of the ſtate of a lorde, as a duke, marques, earle, vicount, or baron, he ſhall looſe and forfeite all offices, fees, annuities, and other poſſeſſions that he or anie man to his vſe hath of the gift or graunt of the king, or of anie of his progenitors made to him or anie of his anceſters. And that then the ſaide chaunceller for the time being, ſhall doo to be made an other writte or writtes of proclamation, to be directed to the ſaide ſhiriffes of the ſaid counties and citie for the time being, to make open proclamation and returne of the ſame writ or writtes, vpon the ſame paine as afore is ſpecified and ordained vpon the ſaide firſt writ of proclamation. And if he make defaulte, and doo not appeare at the day to him limited by the ſaide laſt writ or writtes of proclamation, that then he ſhall loſe and forfeite his eſtate and name of lord, and his place in the parliament. Prouided that the ſaid forfeiture of offices, fees, annuities, and other poſſeſſions, and alſo of the ſaide eſtate and name of lordes and place, ſhall extend but alonelie for terme of life of him or of them, which by the auctoritie of this acte ſhall forfeite the ſaid offices, fees, annuities, poſſeſſions, ſtate, name, & place, or anie of them, in the forme aforeſaid. And if anie lorde of the ſaide eſtates of a duke, marques, earle, vicount, or baron, hauing nothing of the kings graunt nor of his progenitors, doo diſobeie (as afore) after the ſaide proclamation, in maner and forme aforeſaide, made, returned, and certified: then he ſhall forfeite for terme of his life to the king his name and eſtate of lorde and place in the parliament, and alſo all the lands and tenements which he hath or anie other to his vſe hath. And that euerie other perſon vnder the ſtate of a lorde, hauing liuelode, or to whoſe vſe anie other perſon or perſons haue anie liuelode, if he appeare not within the moneth after the proclamation made by vertue of the firſt writ or writtes, he ſhall make a fine after the diſcretion of the two chiefe iuſtices of his bench, & of his common bench for the time being. And that euerie other perſon, hauing no liuelode, nor none other perſon to his vſe, ſo making defaulte, ſhall be put out of the kings protection. Prouided allwaies that if anie of the kings liege people, named in the ſaide writtes or letters, be not within this his realme at the time of anie of the ſaide writtes deliuered and returned, nor abſent him within the ſaide realme, and alſo if the perſon or perſons againſt whom ſuch writtes of proclamation hereafter ſhall be awarded, be ſo greeuouſlie vexed or troubled by infirmitie or ſickenes, or otherwiſe ſuch perſons be impriſoned without fraude or male engine, or that they be ſo feeble for age, that they may not labour in their proper perſons, ſo that ſuch dwelling out of the realme, feebleneſſe, or ſickenes, impriſonment, and debilitie of age be ſufficientlie and duelie proued by iuſt and indifferent examination before the lordes of the kings counſell, they ſhall not be endomaged by this acte. Prouided alſo that no matter determinable by the law of this realme, ſhall be by the ſaide acte determined in other forme then after the courſe of the ſame lawe in the kings courtes hauing determination of the ſame lawe. This acte to begin and take effecte the firſt day of May, the two and thirtie yeere of the reigne of the ſaid king, of all diſobeiſaunces to be made after the ſame firſt day, and of no diſobeiſaunce before this day made, and to endure for terme of ſeuen yeeres: And that this preſent acte ſhall be proclaimed by the ſhiriffe of euerie countie of his land in euerie market towne within the ſame countie, before the feaſt of the Natiuitie of ſaint Iohn baptiſt in the ſaide two and thirtie yeere.

Chap. 3.

Attachment.

Warden courtes.

Item for aſmuch as the wardens of the marches adioining to Scotland, called the eaſtmarch and the weſtmarch, haue vſed by their miniſters to make attachments, and to attache men by their bodies in the counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, and Weſtmerland, and in the towne of Newcaſtle vpon Tine, and in none other places, to aunſwere to enditements taken in the courtes called Wardeine courtes of the ſaid marches, for of temptes ſuppoſed to be doone againſt the vertue of the trewce within the ſaid counties and towne: And now of late the miniſters and officers of the ſaide courtes, ſometime for their ſinguler lucre, and ſometime for malice that they haue borne to certaine perſons, haue attached and taken vpon them dailie to attache diuerſe perſons well gouerned by their bodies, aſwell in the countie of Yorke as in other places out of anie of ye ſaid counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, or Weſtmerland, or the towne of Newcaſtle: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, by ye auctoritie aforeſaid hath ordained & ſtabliſhed, that if anie miniſter of anie of the ſaid courtes attach anie perſon by his bodie or by his goods, out of anie of the ſaid counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, and Weſtmerland, or the towne of Newcaſtle, to aunſwere in anie of the ſaid courtes, or by colour or cauſe of anie maner or preſentment taken or to be taken in anie of the ſaid courts, that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon, which ſhall happen ſo to be attached, to make reſiſtaunce, and not to obeie anie ſuch attachment. And if anie perſon be endomaged or greeued by anie ſuch attachment, he ſhall haue in this behalfe an action of treſpaſſe or falſe impriſonment againſt them which ſhall make or doo to be made hereafter anie ſuch attachment, and in the ſame to recouer treble damages, if in anie of the actions the matter pleaded paſſe or be iudged for the plaintife in the ſame. And the defendaunt to haue two yeeres impriſonment, and moreouer to pay to the king a hundred ſhillings. And that the iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions of the peace, ſhiriffes in their turnes, and alſo ſtewardes of leetes in their leetes, by them to be holden, ſhall haue power to enquire of all ſuch attachments made or to be made out of the ſaid counties of Weſtmerland, Cumberland, or Northumberland, or the towne of Newcaſtell, And therein and vpon the ſame to doo and proceede as they may doo & proceede vpon preſentments taken before them in their ſeſſions of peace, turnes, or leetes, of treſpaſſe or of fraies made againſt the kings peace.

Attachment.

Item our ſoueraigne lorde the king by auctoritie aforeſaid hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that if anie of his ſubiects attempt or offend vpon the ſea or in anie porte within the ſaide realme vnder the kings obeiſaunce, againſt anie perſon or perſons ſtraungers being vpon the ſea or in anie porte aforeſaid by way of amitie, liege, or trewce, or by force of the kings ſafeconduct or ſafegard in anie wiſe, and ſpeciallie in attaching of anie ſuch ſtraunge perſon, robbing or ſpoiling of him his ſhippe or anie other maner of goods, or againſt anie other perſon of his liege people, the chaunceller of England for the time being (as for the deliuerance of anie ſuch perſon ſo attached to be had, and as to make reſtitution to euerie ſuch perſon ſo robbed or ſpoiled of ſhippe or goods or of the value thereof) ſhall haue auctoritie, calling to him anie of the iuſtices of the one bench or of the other, vpon a bill or bils of complaint to him made in this behalfe, to make ſuch proceſſe out of the ſaid chauncerie, aſwell againſt all ſuch offenders, to bring them into the kings chauncerie, there to aunſwere to the parties ſo gréeued in this behalfe, as againſt anie other perſon or perſons, to whoſe hands anie ſuch perſon ſo attached ſhippe or goods ſhall come, as for the deliueraunce and reſtitution by them to be made of the ſame perſon ſhippe and goods as ſhal ſéeme to the ſame chaunceller moſt expedient and neceſſarie: And vpon this proceſſe ſo made out of the ſaide chauncerie, the ſaide chaunceller further to procéede in this matter, if the caſe do ſo require, by aduiſe of anie ſuch iuſtice to make the perſon and perſons ſtrangers ſo gréeued, to haue full deliueraunce and reſtitution of anie ſuch perſon ſo attached, and of all ſuch ſhippes and goods, and alſo of all their coſtes, expenſes, and loſſes made and ſuffered by them in this behalfe, and thereupon to make all maner of execution out of the ſaide chauncerie, in ſuch forme as ſhall ſéeme to the ſaide chaunceller moſt expedient and neceſſarie for ſuch deliueraunce and reſtitution to be had, calling to him anie ſuch iuſtice as before is ſaid, this acte to begin and take effecte the firſt day of May, the two and thirtie yéere of the ſaid king.

Chap. 5. Sercher. Gaugeour. Aulnage. Letters patents. Treaſurer of England.

Item where as it was ordained by the ſtatute made in the time of king Richard the ſecond, that no ſearcher, gaugeour of wine, aulnegour, findar, weiar, collectour of cuſtomes and ſubſidies, or comptroller ſhall haue eſtate in his office for terme of life or for terme of yéeres, but that the ſaid officers ſhall remaine vnder the gouernance of the treaſurer of England for the time being. Alſo where it was ordained by the ſtatute made in the time of king Henrie the fourth, that the aulnage of clothes within this realme may be committed to ferme or in approuement, after the aduiſe of the treaſurer of England for the time being, as in the ſaid ſtatutes more fullie is declared, yet that notwithſtanding diuers perſons haue obtained the kings letters patents of the ſaid offices and aulnage, ſome for terme of life, and ſome for terme of yéeres, to the great preiudice of the king and of his people, and againſt the ſaid ſtatutes: Our ſaid ſouereigne lorde the king, conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordained by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that all letters patents made of anie of the ſaid offices or aulnage, to anie perſon againſt the effecte of the ſaid ſtatutes, ſhall be voide and of no force. And that no letters patents of anie of the ſaid offices or aulnage, ſhall be made hereafter but by warrant of bill ſealed by the treaſurer of England for the time being, ſent by him into the chauncerie, as it hath bene accuſtomed before this time. And that all letters made or to be made hereafter of the ſaide offices or aulnage, by other warrant than by bill of the treaſurer, ſhall be voide and of no effecte: Prouided alwaies that this acte ſhall not extend nor be preiudiciall nor hurtfull to our ſouereigne ladie the quéene, the prince, the duke of Buckingham, to the inheritours of Henrie late duke of Warwike, nor to the maior and communaltie of London, to the maior, bailiffes, and communaltie of the citie of Wincheſter, as to anie graunt or grauntes dimiſe or dimiſes of the aulnage, or anie graunt or grauntes of anie ſumme or ſummes of moneie of the ferme of the aulnage to them graunted made or confermed, nor to no controller hauing anie offices out of the kings portes, nor to Iohn Penicocke eſquiar, to Gilis Seintlo eſquiar, nor to anie of the kings or quéenes houſhold ſeruauntes, of anie graunt or grauntes of anie office or offices to them made before this time, with the fées and wages of old time due and accuſtomed.

Chap. 6. Outlagarie. Countie of Lancaſter.

Item where as at the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xx. yéere of the king that now is, it was ordained by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, that no perſon of the kings liege people, againſt whom anie exigend ſhall be awarded or outlagarie pronounced at the kings ſuite, or at the ſuite of the partie in time to come in the countie of Lancaſter, ſhall forfeite anie of his goods or catals, landes or tenements in anie other countie, but alonelie the goods or catals, lands and tenements, which the perſons ſo outlawed, or they againſt whom ſuch exigend ſhall be awarded in the ſaide countie of Lancaſter, haue in the ſame countie. And by reaſon of anie ſuch outlagarie at the kings ſuite, or at the ſuite of anie other perſon pronounced within the ſaide countie of Lancaſter, he ſhall not be forbarred nor diſabled of anie maner of action, nor to claime anie maner of inheritance out of the ſame countie, nor diſabled to purſue anie maner of action out of the ſame countie, notwithſtanding ſuch outlagarie againſt him pronounced, as in the ſaide ſtatute more fullie appeareth: which ſtatute is now expired, becauſe it was ordained to endure but for ſeuen yéeres then next enſuing, which ſtatute was profitable and neceſſarie to the kings liege people: Our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, conſidering the premiſſes, by aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons, and by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaide late ſtatute ſhall be in his force and vertue, taking effecte and force at the laſt day of March, the thirtie yéere of his reigne and from that day to endure for euer.

Chap. 7. Reſumption.

Item where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the firſt day of Nouember, the xxviii yéere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lorde the king, in the acte of Reſumption, among other things it was ordained and ſtabliſhed, by the auctoritie of the ſame parliament, that it pleaſed him to take, reſume, ſeaſe, and reteine in his handes and poſſeſſion all honours, caſtels, ſeigniories, townes, villages, manors, landes, tenementes, rentes, reuerſions, waſtes, fees, feeſermes and ſeruices, with all their appurtenaunces in England, Wales, and in the marches of the ſame, Irelande, Guynes, Caleis, and the marches of the ſame, which the ſaide king had graunted by his letters patentes, or in anie other maner ſithence the firſt daie of his reigne: And that all maner of grants of rents charges or annuities made by him of the eſtate of inheritance for terme of life or for terme of yeres to any perſon or perſons, to be taken of any of the premiſſes, or of his cuſtomes or ſubſidies or aulnage, or of the hamper, or to or in his receite, or otherwiſe or in any other place or any of them, or of the profites comming of them or any of them, within his realme of England, Ireland, or Wales, Guines, Caleis, & in the marches of the ſame, ſhall be voide and of none effect, as in the ſaid act of reſumption more fully is declared. And for as much as doubt and ambiguitie is had, what fees, rewards, wages, profits, and other things, belonging and of olde time perteining to theſe offices in the times of his noble progenitors, ſhall be reſumed, reteined, in the kings handes or voide by vertue of the ſaid act or not: For a certeine and full declaration thereof: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, at the requeſt of his ſaid commons, by the auctoritie aforeſaide, hath ordeined, that the ſaide act and ordinance of reſumption ſhall not be preiudiciall to any of his officers, of anie fees, wages, rewardes, or profites due or perteining to ſuch officers as were the firſt daie of his reigne or before, becauſe of ſuch offices or occupations. And that the ſaid fees, wages, rewards, & profits, ſhall not be compriſed within the ſaid act of reſumption at the time of the making of the ſame act, nor after, nor within anie other act or ordinance made in his ſaide parliament: but that all ſuch wages, fees, rewardes and profites ſhall be and remaine to all and euerie ſuch offices and occupation, as they were the firſt daie of his reigne or before, any act of reſumption, ſtatute, ordinance or prouiſion, or anie other act made to the contrarie, or any doubt or ambiguitie in the ſame conteined notwithſtanding.

Chap. 8. Poundage

Item where as in the ſaide parliament commenced at Reding the vi. daie of March, the xxxi. yere of the ſaid king, and adiourned to Weſtminſter till the xiiii. day of February, a ſubſidy called poundage, was granted to the ſaid king, that is to ſay, of all maner of marchandiſe of euery marchaunt denizen and alien, as well of marchantes of Hanſe and Almaine, as of anie other marchant alien, caried out of this realme, or brought into the ſame by way of marchandiſe, of the value of euerie xx.s.xii.d. to haue to him at the third day of Aprill next comming for terme of his life naturall, with a certeine exception in the ſame grant ſpecified, by force of which act the kings ſubiects marchaunts denizens of this his realme, ſhalbe chargeable to pay to ye king xii.d. of the value of xx.s. of all their wollen clothes paſſing out of the ſame, after the ſaide iii. daie of Aprill, which ſhalbe to them very great importable charge, & impoueriſhment of a great part of the poore people of this realme, and peraduenture cauſe of reſtraint and impediment of vtterance of all maner of wollen clothes made within the ſame: which ſhall cauſe by proces of time fewe clothes to be made in the ſaide realme: and thereupon great idleneſſe amongſt his poore liege people, and a meane of deſtruction of his nauie, and ſhall cauſe the wolles to be of leſſe value, to the great deſtruction of the growers of the ſame. And moreouer in the ſaide parliament, the ſaide vi. day of March, a certeine ſubſidy of wolles & wolfelles was granted to the king, that is to ſay, of euery marchant denizen for the ſubſidie of euerie ſacke of woll. xliii.s.iiii.d. & of euery CC.xl. wolfelles xliii.s.iiii.d. to haue to him for terme of his life naturall, at the thirde day of Aprill, as in the act of the graunt thereof made in the ſame parliament more fully appeareth: Wherefore the poore ſubiects marchants of the ſtaple of Caleis ſhall be compelled after the ſaid third day of Aprill, to pay to the king of euerie ſacke of woll and of euerie CC.xl. wolfelles x.s. more by way of ſubſidie then they haue bene accuſtomed to paie in anie daies of the reigne of the ſaide king: which charge being to them importable, is likelie to be the cauſe that they ſhall not be of power to buie or ſhip anie great quantitie of wolles of this realme, to be had to the ſaide ſtaple, whereof ſhall enſue verie exceſſiue diminution and decreaſe of the price and valure of wolles and wolfelles of this realme, and of the great annuell reuenues of the cuſtomes and ſubſidies, which ſhoulde growe to the king of the ſhipping of ſuch wolles and wolfelles, and to the abating of the paiment of the wages of the ſouldiers entending vpon the ſaufegarde of the towne & marches of Caleis, and alſo the poore growers of wolles of this realme greatly impoueriſhed. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king wil by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that euerie marchant denizen his liege man borne within this his realme, which ſhall ſhip or carie anie wolles or wolfelles to the ſtaple of Caleis, or by the ſtreites of Maroke by the kinges licence for ſuch wolles and wolfelles ſo ſhipped & carried to the ſaide ſtaple, or by the ſaid ſtraites, ſhall be quite and diſcharged of the ſaide x.s. parcell of the ſaid ſubſidie of xl.iii.s.iiii.d. graunted to the king in this ſaide parliament of euery ſacke of woll, and of euery CC.xl. wolfelles at the ſaid third daie of Aprill ſpecified in the ſaid graunt, by the ſpace of v. yeeres then next enſuing. And alſo that euerie marchant denizen ſhall be quite and not chargeable by vertue of the ſaide grant of ſubſidie of xii.d. of the value of euerie xx.s. of all maner of wollen clothes by them or anie of them to be had out of this realme, to any parties beyond the ſea, at the ſaid third daie, by the ſpace of iii. yeeres then next enſuing.

Item where as in all parties of this realme diuers people of power, moued of inſatiable coueitiſe, againſt all right, gentlenes, trueth & good conſcience, haue labored & found newe inuencions, and them doe buſilie execute, to the danger, trouble, and euill treating of all ladies, gentelwomen men, and other women ſole, hauing any ſubſtance of landes, tenementes, or other moueable goodes within this ſaide realme of Englande, perceiuing their great innocencie and ſimplicitie, willing to take them by force, or otherwiſe come to them, ſeeming to be their great friendes, promiſing them their faithfull loue, and ſo by great diſſimulation or otherwiſe, get them in their poſſeſſion, conueing them into ſuch places, where the ſaide offendours be of moſt power, and when anie women by ſuch meanes, or by anie other meane be in their gouernaunce, the ſayde euill diſpoſed perſon or perſons will not ſuffer them to goe at large, and be at their libertie, till that they will binde them to the ſayd offendours or other perſon or perſons to their vſe, in great ſummes, by obligation or obligations, as well ſimple as conditionall, or by obligation or obligations of ſtatute marchaunt, made before the maior or bailiſe hauing power to take ſuch recogniſaunces. Alſo they will many times compel them to be maried by them, contrary to their owne deſires, or otherwiſe they will leuie the ſaide ſumme or ſummes or their lands & goods, and put their perſon or perſons in daunger, to their great damage, which haue bene and is likelie to bee an vniuerſall preiudice to the lawe of holie church, and the lawe of this realme, vnleſſe due remedie thereupon be prouided. Our ſayde ſoueraigne lorde the king, conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, by autoritie of this preſent parliament, that in all ſuch caſes aforeſayde, the partie bound maie haue a writ out of the chauncerie, conteining al the matter of their vnreaſonable entrety, directed to the ſhirife of the countie, where anie ſuch offences were ſo done, or after ſhould be done, commaunding him that hee by force of this writ make proclamation in the full countie, & in the next countie courte after the receipt of the ſaid writ, that the perſon or perſons conteined in the ſayde writ, ſhall appeare at a certeine daie and place prefixed in the ſayde writ, before the chaunceller of Englande for the time being or otherwiſe before the iuſtices of aſſiſes in the counties where the ſayde offences were done, or otherwiſe before anie other notable perſon to be aſſigned by the chaunceller of Englande for the time being. At the which daie and place if the ſaide parties appeare, that then the ſayde chaunceller of Englande for the time being, iuſtice or other perſon ſo to be aſſigned by the chaunceller, for the time being, by vertue of this ordinaunce, ſhall duelie examine the ſaide parties vpon the premiſſes. By which examinnation if they maie finde the ſaide obligation or obligations, or any of them ſo to be made as is aforeſaide: that then the ſaide obligation or obligations, and all proceſſe and execution ſued or to be purſued thereupon, ſhall be voide and of no force nor effect. And if it be founde by examination before them, that the ſayde obligation or obligations were made or ſhall be founde to be made for a true ductie, and by no ſuch meanes as afore is ſaide, that then the ſaide obligation or obligations, and all the proceſſe and execution ſued or to bee purſued thereupon, ſhall ſtande good and effectuall. And if it bee ſo that the perſon or perſons in ſuch writtes named or to be named, againſt whom anie ſuch letters or writs hereafter ſhall bee ſued, make defaulte at the daie and place limitted in the ſame writ or writs, that then all ſuch obligations, as bee before ſpecified and declared, and in the ſaide writ or writs expreſſed, declared, and ſpecified, and all maner of proceſſe and execution ſued or to bee ſued thereupon, ſhall bee voyde and of no force nor effect. And that the ſaide ſhiriffe or ſhiriffes, to whom ſuch writ or writtes vpon this ordinaunce hereafter conceiued ſhall be directed, ſhall execute the ſaide writs according to the tenoure of the ſame, vpon paine of three hundred pound, whereof the king to haue the one halfe, & the other halfe to the partie which ſhall ſue the ſayde writ of proclamation. And that the ſaid partie ſo greeued maie haue an action of debt in euerie ſuch caſe againſt the ſaide ſhiriffe for the halfe of the ſaide three hundred pounde ſo forfaite, with proceſſe of vtlagarie. And that the partie or parties defendantes in anie ſuch action from henceforth, againſt anie ſhiriffe or ſhiriffes to be purſued, ſhall alledge no protection, nor ſhall wage his lawe, nor ſhall bee receiued to make or pleade anie foreine plee, to be tried in any other place then there where the ſaid writ grounded vpon this ordinaunce is ſued.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the xxxiii. yeere of king Henrie the ſixt.

Henrie by the grace of God king of England and Fraunce, and lorde of Ireland the vi. after the conqueſt, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the ix. daie of Iulie, the xxxiii. yeere of his reigne, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of his realme of Englande being in the ſame parliament, and by autoritie of the ſame parliament, made and ordeined certeine ordinances and ſtatutes for the common weale of the ſame realme in the forme following.

Chap. 1.

Spoyle.

First our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, conſidering howe that nowe late diuerſe houſholde ſeruants as well of lords as of other perſons of good degree, ſoone after the death of their ſaide lords and maſters, violentlie and riotouſlie haue taken and ſpoiled them of their goods, which were of their ſaide lordes and maſters at the time of their death, and the ſame diſtributed betwixt them, to the impediment of the execution of the will of their ſaide lordes and maſters, and to the great diſpleaſure of God, alſo contrarie to the faith and trueth, which they ought to haue towardes their ſayde lordes and maſters, and to a perilous example in time to come, vnleſſe due remedie in this partie be prouided, wherefore the ſame our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe, aſſent, and autoritie aforeſayde, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that after full information made to the chaunceller of England for the time being, by the executors of anie ſuch lordes or perſon, or two of them, of ſuch riot, taking and ſpoiling made or hereafter to be made by the houſhold ſeruauntes of their or his ſaide teſtatour after his death, the ſame chaunceller, of the aduiſe of the cheefe iuſtices of the kinges benche and of the common benche, and cheefe baron of the eſchequer for the time being, or two of them, ſhall haue power to make ſo manie and ſuch writs to be directed to ſuch ſhiriffes by their diſcretion, as to them in this behalfe ſhall ſeeme neceſſarie, to make open proclamation in ſuch cities, boroughes, or townes or places, two market daies within twelue daies next after the deliuerie of the ſame writs, as to the ſame chaunceller of the aduiſe aforeſaide ſhall ſeeme reaſonable, that the ſaid offendours ſhall appeare before the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king and his heires in his bench, at ſuch a daie as by the ſaide writ to him ſhall be limit. So that the ſaid laſt proclamation be made by xv. daies before the ſame daie of appearaunce. And if anie ſuch writ be returned at the daie conteined in the ſaide writ, and the writ bee executed, that proclamation is thereupon made according to the ſayde ordinaunce, and then if the ſayde perſon or perſons, which ſhoulde appeare by the reaſon of the ſayde proclamation, make defaulte at the daie ſpecified in the ſaide writ, and doe not appeare, then he or they ſo making defaulte ſhall be attainted of fellonie. And if anie ſuch perſon or perſons doe appeare at the ſayde daie, then the iuſtices of the ſaid kings bench ſhall haue power and auctoritie by the ſaide ordinaunce, to commit ſuch perſon or perſons ſo appearing to priſon, there to abide after their diſcretion, till the ſaide offendours doe anſwere to the ſayde executours in ſuch actions, which the ſaide executors will declare againſt them or any of them by bill or by writ, for the riot taking and ſpoiling aforeſaide, and that the ſame actions bee determined. So that the ſame actions be purſued with effect & not ſlaklie, to the intent to keepe the ſame perſon or perſons in priſon. And if ſuch perſon or perſons be enlarged out of priſon by the ſaid iuſtices, that then the ſame perſon or perſons ſhall finde ſufficient perſons to bee bounden with them to the ſaide executours by way of recogniſaunce in the ſaide bench, by diſcretion of the iuſtices, to keepe ſuch daies as he or they ſhall haue by the ſame court. And if the keepers of the priſon, whereunto the ſaide perſon or perſons be committed, doe let them goe at large out of the priſon, of his owne auctoritie without the conſideration and order of the ſaide iuſtices, then the ſaide keeper ſhall forfeite and loſe xl. li. to the ſaide executours. And that no protection be allowed in any action to be taken vpon the ſaide ordinaunce.

Chaunceller of England.

Felonie.

Item becauſe that the humble and faithfull liege people of the king our ſoueraigne lorde his ſubiectes inhabiting within the countie palatine of Lancaſter to do the king ſeruice be, and at all times were readie, & haue done to him & to his progenitors, as well in the realme of England as in the realme of Scotlande, Fraunce, and other parties, and gouerned by the kinges lawes, and not dampnified by the ſame, otherwiſe then other of our ſoueraigne lorde the kinges liege people inhabiting in the realme of Englande out of the ſayde countie, till nowe of late by a certeine acte at the laſt parliament holden at Reding, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that none of the kings liege people, againſt whom anie exigende were awarded or outlagarie pronounced at the ſuite of the king or of the partie in the ſaide countie, ſhoulde forfeite anie goods or cattals lands or tenementes in anie countie, but all onelie the goods and cattalles lands and tenementes, which the perſons ſo outlawed, or they againſt whom anie ſuch exigend in the ſaide countie is awarded, haue in the ſame countie of Lancaſter. And by reaſon of anie ſuch outlagarie, at the ſuite of our ſoueraigne lorde the king: or at the ſuite of the partie pronounced within the ſame countie, ſhould not be barred nor diſabled of anie maner of action, nor to claime in anie maner inheritaunce out of the ſame countie, notwithſtanding anie outlagarie againſt them pronounced, as in the ſame act doeth more plainlie appeare. And by reaſon of the ſame act of parliament if anie foreine ſhoulde come into the ſaide countie palatine, and ſhould ſlea anie of the liege people of our ſoueraigne lord the king, or ſhould commit any treaſon, murder, rape, robbery, or other felonie or treſpas, or make any contract, or do any other offence within ye ſaid countie of Lancaſter, that then he ſhould haue none other puniſhment nor forfeiture in this partie, but onely of ſuch goods, which ſuch foreines doing and committing ſuch horrible offences within the ſaide countie palatine haue, which for the more part haue nothing within the ſame countie. For which cauſe the ſayde foreines knowing no perill, puniſhment, nor loſſe of goods in the lawe, to refraine or reſtraine them of ſuch treaſons, murders, and fellonies be the more encouraged dailie to commit the ſame within the ſaide countie, and giueth them the more audacitie, dailie to offende againſt the lawes of the king our ſoueraigne lord, his crowne and dignitie, and alſo in reſtraint of the kings lawes, to the great damage and finall deſtruction of the ſayde liege people and ſubiectes in the ſayde countie palatine, wherefore our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king conſidering the premiſſes by the aduiſe, aſſent, & auctoritie aforeſayde, hath willed, graunted, ordeined, and ſtabliſhed, that the ſayde act before rehearſed and made at the ſayde laſt parliament holden at Reding, ſhall be adnulled, voide, and ſtande in no force. And further for the conſeruation, tranquillitie, quietneſſe, and peace of all his liege people, as well within the ſaide countie palatine, as of other his liege people out of the ſaide countie within the realme of England, the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by auctoritie aforeſaid, hath granted, ordeined, and ſtabliſhed, that euerie enditement hereafter to be taken before anie of the kings iuſtices in the ſaid countie palatine of Lancaſter, or before any ſhirife in his turne in ye ſaid county, wherby any perſon or perſons be ſuppoſed by the ſame enditement to be or to haue bene inhabiting or conuerſant out of the ſaide countie of Lancaſter, and within any other countie within the the realme of Englande, ſhall be taken and had by verdict of xii. men, whereof euerie of them or ſome other perſon or perſons to their vſe within the ſame countie of Lancaſter ſhall haue to the yeerely valoure of hundred ſhillinges. And no proceſſe ſhall be made out of anie ſuch enditement, before it be duelie inquired and examined before the kings iuſtices within the ſaid countie of Lancaſter for the time being, whether the ſaid enditours and euerie of them, at the time of ſuch enditement ſo taken, had landes and tenementes within the ſaide countie of Lancaſter to the yeerelie valure of an hundred ſhillings aboue all charges. And if it be found by examination of the ſaid iuſtices for the time being, within the ſaid countie, that the ſaide enditours and euerie of them at the time of ſuch enditement ſo taken, had not landes and tenements to the ſaid yerely valoure of hundred ſhillinges that then the ſame enditement as to ſuch perſons ſo endited, ſuppoſed by the ſaide enditementes to be inhabiting and conuerſaunt out of the ſaide countie of Lancaſter, ſhall bee voide and of none effect. And alſo the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king, of the aduiſe and auctoritie of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons aforeſaide, hath graunted, ordeined, and ſtabliſhed, that euerie enditement from henceforth to be taken within any countie of the ſaid realme, and out of the ſaide countie of Lancaſter, before anie iuſtice, or the ſhiriffe in his turne, whereby anie perſon or perſons ſuppoſed by the ſame enditement to be or to haue bene conuerſant or inhabiting within the ſaide countie of Lancaſter, and without ſuch countie where ſuch enditementes ſhall happen to be taken, ſhall be taken by verdict of twelue men, whereof euery of them or ſome other perſon or perſons to their owne vſe, ſhall haue landes & tenements to the valure of hundred ſhillings. And that no proceſſe be made out of any ſuch enditements, before it be duly examined and inquired before the kings iuſtices, hauing power to award any proceſſe vpon ſuch inditements, whether the ſaid enditours and euery of them, at the time of ſuch enditments taken, or any other perſon or perſons to their vſe, had any lands or tenementes to the yeerely valure of hundred ſhillings within the ſame countie aboue all charges, where ſuch enditementes happen to bee taken. And if it be found before the king, or any of his iuſtices, that the ſaide enditours, or anie of them, had not at the time of ſuch enditement taken, nor that none other to their vſe had landes and tenementes to the valure of hundred ſhillinges by yeere that then the ſaide enditement, as to anie ſuch perſon or perſons ſuppoſed by the ſame enditement to be or to haue bene inhabiting or conuerſant within the ſaid countie of Lancaſter, ſhall be voide and of none effect.

Chap. 3. Eſchequer

Item where as diuers officers in the kinges eſchequer doe take wages and fees of the king for them ſelfe and their clarkes, for execution of their offices in the ſaide eſchequer, that notwithſtanding, the ſaid officers and their clarkes do take of ſhiriffes, eſchetours, and all other accomptantes in the ſaid eſchequer, great and exceſſiue gifts, fees, and rewardes, for execution of their offices, againſt all reaſon and conſcience. And will not execute their offices for deliuering of the ſaide accomptants, till they haue ſuch exceſſiue fees, gifts and rewards, which cauſeth ſhiriffes, eſchetours, and other accomptauntes to take by extortion exceſſiue fees, giftes and rewardes of the kinges liege people in the counties where their offices bee, to the great damage and deſtruction of all the Extortion. ſaide accomptauntes, and all the people aforeſaide. Alſo where as it doeth perteine to diuers officers in the ſaide eſchequer, by reaſon of the fees and wages, which they take of the king to enter plees, as well betwixt the king and the partie, as betwixt partie and partie, and pardons writs of allowance, iudgements, and other entrees, without fees, giftes, or rewardes, and the ſame officers and euerie of them notwithſtanding their ſaide fees and wages, will not enter any plee, though it conteine but halfe a rolle, except they for the ſaide entree haue xxvi. ſhillings viii. pence xx. ſhillings or xiii. ſhillinges foure pence at the leaſt, and for the entree or allowance of euerie pardon and writ, which they or anie of them doe enter, of what ſo euer ſhortneſſe that it be x.s. And moreouer the cheefe clarke of euerie of the ſaide officers taketh for his labour, as well of euerie of the ſaide parties accomptauntes, as amounteth to the thirde part of that that his maſter did take, which giftes and rewardes of ſome accomptaunts amounteth to the ſumme of twentie markes, of ſome ten pounde, and ten markes at the leaſt, to the great damage oppreſſion, and vndoing of the ſaide people. And alſo where as diuerſe ſpeciall commiſſions be directed to diuerſe iuſtices of peace, and alſo to other in euerie countie of Englande, for the deliueraunce of fellons and other cauſes, by vertue of which commiſſions the iuſtices ſo aſſigned ſome time doe ſit and deliuer fellons, and ſometime ſuch commiſſion is not deliuered. And that notwithſtanding, ſome of the ſaide officers, by vertue of their offices will make diſtreſſe againſt ſuch commiſſioners, returnable at a certain day, to returne their commiſſion with all iſſues forfeit, to be returned, at which day though ſome of the the ſaide commiſſioners doe appeare, and for their excuſe do make an oth (as the lawe will) that they haue ſitten and deliuered the priſoners according to the forme of the commiſſion, or otherwiſe, that no ſuch commiſſion came to their handes, in which caſe they bee in the lawe diſcharged, yet this notwithſtanding the ſaide officers will write newe diſtreſſes againſt the ſaid commiſſioners, to diſtreine them. And ſo infinitely, till the ſaid commiſſioners haue made a fine at their will. Our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king. conſidering the premiſſes, of the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaide commons, and by auctoritie of this parliament, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that euerie officer in the ſaide eſchequer, which taketh any fees or wages of the king for execution of his office, ſhall deliuer all the accomptantes Accomptant. in the ſaid eſchequer, in that that to his office apperteineth, in a conuenient time. And that they nor none of them, nor none of their clarkes, take anie giftes, fees, rewardes, promiſſe or ſuertie for any thing, which they ſhall do in their ſaid office for anie accountants, except the ſaide fees and wages which he taketh of the king for execution of his office. Sauing alwayes that euerie of the ſaid officers, to whom it perteineth by reaſon of his office to enter plees, pardons, writtes of allowance, and iudgements, may take for the entring of the plee, pardon, writ, record, or iudgement, that conteineth halfe a roll, according to the length and bredth of olde times vſed in the ſaide eſcheker, two ſhillings, and no more. And for the ſame plee, pardon, writ, recorde, or iudgement, that conteineth a whole roll, foure ſhillings and no more. And for the ſame plee, pardon, writ, record, or iudgement, which conteineth leſſe than halfe a roll xx. pence. And for the ſame plee, pardon, writ, recorde, or iudgement, which conteineth more, after the rate and quantitie. And that none of the ſaide officers nor their clerks, take anie fees nor wages nor other profit of anie collectors of diſmes or quinſiſmes, graunted or hereafter to be granted to our ſoueraigne lord the king. And that ſuch officers in the ſaide eſcheker, which haue power to write by reaſon of their offices diſtreſſes againſt the kings Iuſtices of peace, or anie other commiſſioners, to bring their eſtreates, they nor none of their clerkes, after that that the ſaid Iuſtices or commiſſioners ſhall make a due excuſe (as before is rehearſed) or bring into the court their eſtreates, ſhall make no new diſtreſſe nor other proceſſe againſt the ſaid iuſtices or commiſſioners, which ſo haue excuſed them, or brought in their eſtretes. And if anie of the ſaid officers, or anie of their clerkes, doe contrarie to anie of the articles afore rehearſed, that then they and euery of them ſhall loſe xx. li. as often as they ſhall be found thereof defectiſe. And our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king ſhall haue the one halfe of the ſaide xx. li. ſo forfeit, & ſuch perſon or perſons that will purſue, the other halfe. And the ſame ſuite ſhall be taken, holden & determined by action of Det before the barons of the ſaide eſcheker, or els before the Iuſtices of the common bench, againſt anie officers or clerkes of the ſaid eſcheker, that doth or taketh contrarie to the ſaid ordinance, anie priuilege or cuſtome of the ſaid eſcheker notwithſtanding. And that the ſame proces be had in this action before the ſayd Iuſtices, as is had in an action of dept vpon an obligation at the common lawe, except that none officer, which hath any office in inheritaunce in fee, be excluded in the ſayd eſcheker to take the fees, which of olde times were lawfully due and pertaining to his office & no more. Sauing alwaies that the ſayd officers of our ſoueraigne lord ẏ king, and their clearkes may take a reaſonable rewarde for their ſearches & copies made by them in the ſayd eſcheker of any recorde, at the ſuite of any of the kings liege people, notwithſtanding the ſaid ordinaunce. Neuertheleſſe the king would, that by aduice of his councell ſuch direction be taken in this behalfe betwixt this time and the feaſt of S. Michaell next enſuing, as ſhall ſeeme reaſonable. And otherwiſe the ſaid ordinaunce ſhall ſtand in his ſtrength for terme of v. yeeres.

Cap.4.

Item our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king, of ẏ aduiſe of the ſaide lordes ſpiritual & temporall, & at the requeſt of the ſaide commons, & alſo by authoritie of this parliament, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no perſon that in the countie of Kent ſhall commonly brewe any ale or beere to ſell, ſhall make nor do to be made anie malte in his houſe, or in anie other place to his owne vſe at his coſtes and expenſes, aboue an C. quarters in the yeere, vpon paine to forfeit x. li. euery yere, in which he ſo maketh or doth to be made aboue the ſaid hundred quarters, the one halfe to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other halfe to him or them which in this behalfe will purſue. And that the ſaide ordinance take effect the firſt daie of Iune next comming, and ſhall endure for fiue yeeres then next enſuing.

Item where as it is ſhewed to our ſoueraigne lorde the king in his ſaide parliament, by the greeuous complaint of the ſilkewomen and ſpinners of the myſterie and occupation of ſilkeworking, within the citie of London, how that diuers Lombardes and other ſtrangers, imagining to deſtroy the ſaid myſterie, and all ſuch vertuous occupations of women in the ſaide realme, to enrich themſelfe, and to encreaſe them and ſuch occupations in other ſtrange lands, haue brought and daily go about to bring into the ſaid realme ſuch ſilke ſo made, wrought, twyned, rybans & cheines falſly and diſceitfully wrought, all manner gyrdels and other things concerning the ſaid myſtery and occupation, in no manner wiſe bringing anie good ſilke vnwrought, as they were wont to bring heretofore, to the finall deſtruction of the ſaide myſteries and occupations, vnleſſe it be the more haſtily remedied by the kings maieſtie. For reformation whereof the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the authoritie aforeſaid, will and hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if anie Lombard, or anie other perſon ſtranger or deniſen, bring or cauſe to be brought by way of marchandiſe anie wrought ſilke, twyned rybans and cheines, gyrdels of ſilke, or anie other thing touching or concerning the myſterie of ſilkewomen (gyrdels which come from Ieane only except) into anie port or place of the ſaid realme from beyond the ſea, that the ſame wrought ſilke, twyned rybans, cheines, gyrdels, and other things ſo brought and wrought concerning the ſame myſteries, ſhall be forfeit. Alſo that euery Lombard, and other ſtranger and deniſen, which doth contrary to this ordinance, as often as he ſo doth, ſhall forfeit twentie pound, the one halfe thereof to be leuyed & had to the vſe and expenſes of the kings houſe, and the other halfe to that perſon that will ſue for the ſame. And that it ſhall be lawfull to euery of the kings liege people, to haue and maintaine an action or actions of Det at euery time, as well for the ſame forfeiture of twentie poundes, as for the thing ſo forfeit, and the ſame proces to lye therein as in an action of Det at the common law: In which ſuite no protection nor eſſoine ſhall be allowed. And that the Maior of the ſaide citie for the time being, ſhall haue authoritie to aſſigne ii. iii. or iiii. men of the ſame citie ſufficient & credible perſons, by their diſcretion to ſweare vpon a booke to make due ſerch within ẏ ſame citie & ẏ libertie of the ſame, as often as ſhall ſeeme expedient, of all things had or done contrarie to the premiſſes, and thereof to make due relation to the maior and aldermen of the ſaid citie for the time being for a more full information to the king and him that wil purſue. And that the ſaid ordinance beginne to take his ſtrength and effect at the feaſt of Eaſter next enſuing, and ſhall endure for fiue yeres then next following.

Chap. 6. Item whereas in the ſaide Parliament it was lamentablie ſhewed by the abbot and couent of the monaſterie of our Ladie of Fonteins in yͤ countie of Yorke, of that that where as they and their predeceſſors of no litle time againſt conſcience haue béene gréeuouſlie diſturbed and vexed without cauſe by feyned actions, and dailie be in diuers courts, wapentakes and other courtbarons, to the number of xx. and aboue, within the ſaid countie of Yorke, & the countie of Cumberland, and in the counie of the citie of Yorke, within which counties the ſubſtance of the poſſeſſions of the ſaide monaſterie lieth, aſwell by the procuracie and excitation of the Bailifes, Stewards, and officers of the ſaid courts, and alſo the fermors of the ſaide courts, wapentakes, and courtbarons, for their ſingular lucre and profite, as by other malicious and euill diſpoſed perſons, complaining againſt the ſame abbot, and couent, feining and affirming in diuers of their courts, wapentakes, and courtbarons, at ſome one court CCC. ſeuerall plaints or more: And though the common lawe of England require, that euerie perſon ſued for anie cauſe, in which ſuite he ought to be admitted to wage his lawe, that ſuch perſon ſo ſued ſhould wage his lawe by his ſufficient attorney, hauing authoritie thereunto: And this notwithſtanding the predeceſſors of the ſaid now abbot and other abbots & priors in the ſaid counties, might in no wiſe be receiued by ſuch bailifes, ſtewards, and officers, to wage their lawe by their attorneis in ſuch courts and wapentakes till for the ſame greefe & complaint had in this partie by authoritie of the parliament it was ordeined that all abbots, and priors, and other religiouſes of England, and their ſucceſſors, in ſuch caſes by their generall attorneis or attorney in euery hundred or wapentake within the Realme of Englande, euerie of them vnder their common ſeale, ſeuerally ſhould pleade in ſuch courtes ſuch plées as in the lawe were pleadable and allowable. And that euerie bailife and ſtewarde for the time being within the ſaid courtes, ſhould receiue ſuch atturneys without amercing anie ſuch abbots, priors, and religiouſes or anie of them, vpon peine of forfeiture of x.li. Yet this notwithſtanding when the ſaid abbot by his atturney ſhould wage his lawe in the ſaid pleintes in ſuch ſeuerall courtes, then the ſaid bailifes, ſtewardes, and officers, oftentimes for their ſingular lucre, and by couin had betwixt them and the ſaide malicious people affirming the ſaide plaintes, haue prefixed to the ſaide abbot a day to do his lawe in euery of the ſaide ſeuerall courtes and wapentakes togither at one daie and at ſeuerall places, euerie place being ſo farre from other, that the ſaide abbot in no wiſe might appeare and come to doe his lawe in his proper perſon, as the lawe requireth: And ſo he by ſuch cauſe in diuerſe courtes and wapentakes was often in the ſaide plaintes condemned, and in diuers of the ſame amercied, ſome yéere in an hundred markes, and ſome yeere more, and at the leaſt in xl.li. where nor by lawe nor by conſcience anie cauſe of action was had: which labours, coſtes, and vexations of likelyhood ſhould continue and encreaſe to the importable dammage of the ſaide houſe, and of the abbot and couent aforeſaide, vnleſſe ſome gracious remedie in this behalfe be prouided in this ſaid parliament for the ſaide monaſterie: Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, conſidering the premiſſes, of the aduiſe, aſſent & authoritie aforeſaide, hath graunted, ordeined, and ſtabliſhed, that the ſame abbot and his ſucceſſours, againſt whome anie quarell or pleint is or hereafter ſhall be taken or attempted in anie of the ſaid courts or wapentakes, may wage their law by their atturney or atturneys of yͤ matters conteined or to be conteined in euery ſuch pleint, where yͤ law permitteth them ſo to do. And that they (their law ſo waged) may do their law by a monk of yͤ ſame place, with other perſons wͭ him to the number of ſixe perſons, or otherwiſe by ſome other perſon aſſigned or deputed by the abbot of the ſaid houſe for the time being, vnder the common ſeale of the ſaid monaſterie of Fonteins, with ſixe perſons with him, to do the ſaid lawe for the abbot of the ſaid houſe. And that the bailiffes, ſtewardes, and officers of the ſaid wapentakes and courtes for the time being, ſhall admitte, permit, and receiue the ſaide lawes to be done in the forme aforeſaid. And that all the ſaide lawes ſo waged and done be as effectuall and of ſuch ſtrength in the lawe, as if the ſame abbot or his ſucceſſors had done the ſame in their proper perſons after the courſe of the common lawe. And moreouer by authoritie aforeſaid hath ordeined, that if anie bailife, ſteward, or officer of the ſaide courtes or wapentakes, will not admit ſuch lawe to be done in the forme aforeſaids, or els in anie wiſe doe diſobey or doe not obſerue the intent of the premiſſes of his behalfe before rehearſed to bee done, or omit or of his behalfe do contrary to anie of the premiſſes, then the ſame bailife, ſtewarde, or officer ſo offending, for euery time that he ſhall happen to do contrarie in anie of the premiſſes before rehearſed of his behalfe to be done, ſhall forfeit xx.li. And euery perſon in this caſe willing to purſue, may haue a writ of Det, and declare vpon the ſaide ordinance, and he ſhall haue for his labor the one halfe of the ſame xx.li. and the king the other halfe.

Cap. 7. Atturney. Item where as of time not long paſt within the citie of Norwich and the counties of Norfolke and Suffolke, there were no more but ſixe or eight atturneys at the moſt comming to the kings courtes, in which time great tranquillitie reigned in the ſaide citie and counties, little trouble or vexation was had by vntrue and forreine ſuites. And nowe ſo it is, that in the ſaide citie and counties there be lxxx. atturneys or more, the more parte of them hauing none other thing to liue vpon, but onely his gaine by the occupation of atturneyſhip: And alſo the more parte of them not being of ſufficient knowledge to be an atturney: which comen to euery faire, market, and other places, where is anie aſſemblie of people, exhorting, procuring, mouing, and exciting the people to take vntrue & forreine ſuites for ſmall treſpaſſes and little offences & ſmall ſummes of Det, whoſe actions be triable and determinable in the courtbarons, whereby proceede many ſuites more of euil will and malice than of trueth of the thing, to the manifolde vexations and no little dammage of the inhabitants of the ſaide citie and counties, and all to the perpetuall diminution of all the courtbarons in the ſaide counties, vnleſſe it be prouided of conuenient remedie in this behalfe: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, of the aduiſe, aſſent, and authoritie aforeſaide, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that at all times from henceforth there ſhall be but vi. common atturneys in the ſaide countie of Norffolke, and vi. common atturneys in the ſaide countie of Suffolke, and two common atturneys in the ſaide citie of Norwich, to be atturneys in courts of record. And that all the ſaide xiiii. atturneys be elect and admitted by the two chiefe Juſtices of our ſoueraigne lorde the king for the time being, of the moſt ſufficient and beſt inſtructed by their diſcretions. And that the election and admiſſion of all atturneys, which ſhall be elect and admitted by the ſaide Juſtices for the time being, aboue the ſaide number in the ſaide counties, ſhall be voide and of none authoritie nor recorde. And if anie perſon or perſons vſurpe or preſume to be atturney in courtes of record in the ſaide counties or citie, otherwiſe than before is ſpecified, and that founde by inquiſition taken before the Juſtices of peace in the ſaid citie or counties (which ſhall haue power by vertue of this ordinance to inquire thereof in their ſeſſions) or in anie other manner lawfully proued, that then he or they that ſo preſume, if they be thereof lawfully conuict, ſhall forfeit twentie pounde as often as he or they be ſo conuict, the one halfe thereof to be taken to the kings vſe, and the other halfe to his vſe, which for the ſame will ſue. And he that thereof will ſue, ſhall haue an action of Det againſt anie ſuch perſon which ſo preſumeth to be atturney. And ſuch proces and recouery in the ſame as lyeth in an action of Det at the common lawe vppon an obligation. Prouided alwayes that the ſaide ordinance begin and firſt take effect at the feaſt of Eaſter next comming and not before, if the ſame ordinance ſeeme reaſonable to the Juſtices.

Here beginneth the Statute made at Weſtminſter the xxxix. yeere of King Henrie the ſixth.

TO the honor of almightie God, and the reuerence of holy church for to nouriſh peace, vnitie, and concorde in all parties within this realme of Englande, and for the reliefe and ſuſtentation of our ſoueraigne lorde the king and of this his realme, The ſame our ſoueraigne lorde king Henrie the vi. after the conqueſt of Englande, at his high court of parliament holden at Weſtminſter vppon the vii. daie of the moneth of October, the xxxix. yeere of his noble and gratious reigne, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the commons of his ſaide realme, aſſembled in the ſame parliament, and by the authoritie of the ſame parliament, hath ordeined theſe things vnderwritten.

Cap. 1. Parliament.

FIrſt where as it hath beene ſhewed to the king our ſoueraigne lorde by his liege and faithfull commons in this preſent parliament, that diuers ſeditious and euill diſpoſed perſons, hauing no regarde to the dread of God, nor to the dammage of the proſperous eſtate of our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king nor his realme, ſiniſterly and importunely did labour to the ſaide king to ſommon a parliament to be holden at his citie of Couentrie, the xx. day of the moneth of Nouember, the xxxviii. yeere of his noble reigne, onely to deſtroy certeine of the great nobles faithfull and lawfull lordes and eſtates of the kings bloud, and other of the faithfull liege people of the ſaid realme of England, for the great rumour, hatred, and malice, which the ſaide ſeditious perſons of long time haue had againſt them, And of their greedie and inſatiable couetiſe to haue the lands hereditamentes, poſſeſſions, offices, and goods of the ſaide lordes and faithfull liege people: by which ſiniſter labour certeine actes, ſtatutes, and ordinances, againſt all good faith and conſcience, in the ſaide parliament were made finally to deſtroy the ſaide lawfull lordes, eſtates, and liege people and their iſſues, as well innocentes as other and their heires for euer: which parliament was vnduely ſommoned, and a great parte of the knightes for diuers counties of this realme, and manie burgeſes and citiſens for diuers boroughes and cities in the ſame appearing, were named, returned, and excepted, ſome of them without due and free election, ſome of them without anie election, againſt the courſe of the kinges lawes and the liberties of the commons of this realme, by the meanes and labours of the ſaide ſeditious perſons, whereby manie great ieopardies, enormities, and inconueniences, well nigh to the ruyne, decaye, and vniuerſall ſubuertion of the ſaide realme, haue enſued: Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, conſidering the premiſſes, and that the ſaide lordes, eſtates, and other his liege people, againſt whome the ſaide actes, ſtatutes and ordinances were made haue alwayes had great and faithfull loue to the preferment and ſuretie of the kinges perſon, according to their duetie, And that fewe of the actes made in the ſaide parliament, holden at Couentrie, were made for the weale of the king nor of his ſaide realme, but the greater parte of the actes, ſtatutes, and ordinances there made, were laboured by the conſpiracie, procurement, and excitation of the ſaide euill diſpoſed perſons, for the introduction and accompliſhment of their rancour and inordinate couetiſe, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons, in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by the ſame authoritie, hath ordeined & ſtabliſhed, that the ſaide parliament holden at the ſaide citie of Couentrie be voide, and holden for no parliament. And that all actes, ſtatutes and ordinances, by the authoritie of the ſame made, be reuerſed, adnulled, vndone, repealed, reuoked, voide, and of no force nor effect.

Cap. 2. Women of age to enherit.

Item of the aduiſe, aſſent, and authoritie aforeſaid it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that women being of the age of xiiii. yeeres, at the time of the death of their aunceſters, without queſtion or difficultie ſhall haue liuerie of their lands and tenements deſcended to them. For ſo the lawe of this land will that they ſhould haue.

Thus endeth the Statutes made in the time of king Henrie the ſixth.

Here beginneth the Statute made at VVeſtminſter in the firſt yeere of the raigne of king Edward the fourth after the conqueſt.

EDward by the grace of God king of England and of Fraunce, & lorde of Ireland, the fourth after the conqueſt: To the honor of God and of holy church, to nouriſh peace, vnitie and concorde within his realme of Englande (which he much deſireth) wholly, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall of the ſame realme, & at the ſpeciall requeſt of the commons of his ſaid realme, aſſembled at his firſt parliament holden at Weſtminſter, vpon the iiii. day of Nouember, in the firſt yeere of his reigne, by authoritie of the ſame parliament: hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed certeine ſtatutes, declarations and ordinances in maner and forme following.

Cap. 1.

FIrſt in eſchewing of ambiguities, doubtes and diuerſities of opinions, which may riſe, enſue, & be taken of and vpon iudiciall actes and exemplifications of the ſame, made or had in the time or times of Henry the fourth, Henry the fifth his ſonne, and Henry the ſixth his ſonne, or anie of them late kings of England ſucceſſiuely in deede, and not of right: Our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of his ſaide commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath declared, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, in the ſaide parliament, that all fines and finall concordes leuied or made of anie lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, rents, inheritances, or other things. And all iudiciall actes, recoueries, and proceſſes determined or commenced, not reuoked, reuerſed, nor adnulled, made or had in anie court or courtes of recorde, or anie other court or courtes in anie of the times of the pretenſed reignes of anie of the ſaid late kings in deede and not of right, other than by authoritie of anie parliament holden in anie of their times, and exemplifications of the ſaid fines, actes iudiciall, and recoueries, out of anie of the ſaid parliamentes, and euery of them, ſhall be of like force, vertue, and effect, as if the ſaid fines, final concordes, actes, recoueries, proceſſes, and other the premiſſes, had or made out of anie of the ſaid parliaments & exemplifications of the ſame, were commenced, ſued, had, or determined, in the time of anie king lawfully reigning in this realme, obteining the crowne of the ſame by iuſt title. Letters patents. And alſo that all letters patents, made by any of the ſaid pretenſed kings to anie perſon or perſons, of creation, ennobling and erection of any of them to anie eſtate, dignitie, or preeminence, ſhall be to the ſaide perſon or perſons, and to ſuch of their heires, which be conteined in the ſame letters patents, of like force value & effect, as touching ſuch creation, ennobling, or erection, as if the ſame letters patents were made or granted to anie of them by anie king lawfully reigning in this realme of England, and obteining the crowne of the ſame by iuſt title: And that they being ſo created, ennobled, & erected, ſhall haue like grants of the king of their annuities for the maintenance of their eſtate, as hath beene of old time accuſtomed, except ſuch perſons & euery of them, whom our ſoueraigne lord the king reputeth & holdeth for his rebels or enemies. And moreouer the importune charges and coſtes, which the cities, boroughes, townes, the ſynkeports of England, & alſo the towne of Caleys with the marches of the ſame, hath ſuſteined & ſuffred, & the great pouertie amongeſt the people of the ſame, conſidered, for the eaſe & reliefe of the ſame, the king hath ordeined, eſtabliſhed, granted, and enacted, by the aſſent and authoritie of the ſaid lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons, that all maner of liberties, priuileges, franchiſes, powers, iuriſdictions, profits, immunities, corporations municions, enlargements, annexions, vnions, and ſeuerings to counties and making of counties by them ſelfe, and all maner of grants, leſſes, licences, pardons, diſcharges, exemptions, releſſes, faires and markets, not reuoked, repealed, nor adnulled by authoritie of parliament or otherwiſe by proceſſe of the law, granted in the times of Henry the iiii. Henry the v. or Henry the vi. late kings of England in deede and not of right, to anie Maior, bailife or bailifes, ſhirife or ſhirifes, Maior and ſhirife, ſhirife and bailifes, Maior and bailifs, commonnaltie, citizens, Maior and commonaltie, Maior commonaltie and citizens, Maior and citizens, Maior and aldermen and their ſucceſſors, Maior and citizens their heires and ſucceſſors, Maior and commonalty their heires and ſucceſſors, citizens and their heires, citiſens their heires and ſucceſſors, bailifes and citiſens their heires and ſucceſſors, Maior and aldermen, Maior aldermen and burgeſes, Maior and burgeſes, offices in the time of the kings progenitors, with the fees and wages thereto due and accuſtomed, made by the king by his letters patents after the fourth daie of March laſt paſt. His letters patents made of all the offices of ſergeants at armes, and of the offices of iuſtices of the one bench & of the other, barons of his eſcheker, warden of the rolles of his chancerie of England, warden of

the rolles of his chancerie of his land of Ireland, clerke of his counſell, Secondarie in the office of his priuie ſeale, clerke or warden of his hamper of his ſaid chancerie of England, kéeper of his parkes of Helleſburie and Lantgles in the countie of Cornwall, clerke of the market of his houſe, the cyrographer and warden of the kings writs and records of his common bench, meſſengers of his eſcheker, glaſier, plummer, browderer, ioyner, fletcher within the tower of London, chéefe carpenter within the pallis of Weſtminſter, receiuer of all offices accomptable, bailiffe of Hauering, bailiffe of Surreie, and of his auditors in the counties of Cheſter and Flint, and of Southwales, purueior ⁊ controller of the ſearch of his port of London, warden of his armour in the tower of London, maker of his points, conſtable of his caſtle or lordſhip of Hadleigh, clerke of his great wardrobe, purueior of all maner ſtuffe for his works within his pallis of Weſtminſter and the tower of London, and the captaine of his caſtle of Hammes, excepted. The ſame letters patents ſo excepted to indure and to be of ſtrength vertue and effect at the pleaſure and will of the king. And alſo that all confirmations, ratifications, appropriations, leaſes, grants, and all franchiſes, liberties, priuileges, cuſtomes, or anie other commodities, profits, or aduantages ⁊ euerie of them, diſtinctions, ſeuerances from counties and making of counties by themſelues, grants, releaſes, diminutions and pardons of fée farmes and euerie of them, made and granted by our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king by his letters patents, after the fourth daie of March laſt paſt, in reliefe and comfort of anie citie, towne, or borough of this realme, to anie maior, bailiffes, or bailiffe, ſhirife or ſhirifs, maior and communaltie, maior and citizens, maior and aldermen, maior and ſhirife, maior bailifs and communaltie, citizens, bailifs and citizens, their heires ⁊ ſucceſſors ⁊ to ẏ heires ⁊ ſucceſſors of euerie of them, by whatſoeuer name or names they or any of them be called or named in the ſaid grants or other premiſſes or anie of them, ſhalbe of like force ⁊ effect as they or anie of them were at the times of the grants ⁊ letters patents thereof made. And alſo if anie of ẏ ſaid late pretenſed kings or anie of their anceſtors, hath béene enfeoffed by any perſon or perſons of or in anie lands, tenements, rents, poſſeſſions, aduouſons, or other hereditaments, onelie vpon truſt and confidence to reenfeoffe the ſaid perſon or perſons or their heires or aſſignes at ſuch time as they ſhould be thereto required, that all ſuch grants feofments or other eſtates made by anie of the ſaid late pretenſed kings, or anie of their anceſtors, of anie ſuch lands, tenements, rents, poſſeſſions, aduouſons, or other hereditaments, to anie ſuch perſon or perſons, their heires or aſſignes, or to the heires or aſſignes of anie of them ſhall be of like force and effect in the lawe, and auaileable to the ſaid perſon or perſons, and to the heires and aſſignes of them and euerie of them, as they were at the times of the ſaid grants and feofments or other eſtates made to them or any of them. Anie act or ordinance in this preſent parliament made or to be made not withſtanding. So that none of the ſaid pretenſed kings, nor none of their anceſtors, after the laſt daie of the reigne of king Edward the third, progenitor of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, were at anie time ſeized of the lands, tenements, rents, poſſeſſions, aduouſons, or other hereditaments, nor of anie parcell thereof, but onelie by vertue of ſuch feofements made to them or anie of them vpon confidence in maner and forme aforeſaid, and in none other maner. And that the ſame lands, tenements, rents, poſſeſſions, aduouſons, or other hereditaments, and euerie of them be holden of the ſame chéefe lords immediat or of their heires, and by the ſame ſeruices as they were holden at the time of the ſame feofements made to anie of the ſaid late pretenſed kings, or to anie of their anceſtors. Anie poſſeſſion of the late pretenſed kings, or of anie of their anceſtors, after the laſt daie of the reigne of king Edward the third, not withſtanding. Prouided alwaies that no perſon attainted in this preſent parliament take anie aid or aduantage thereby. Alſo that all letters patents granted and directed by our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king after the firſt daie of his reigne, to his chancellor or treaſurer of this realme, iuſtices of the plées to be holden before the king, iuſtices of the common bench, or barons of the eſcheker, or to anie of them for the exerciſe of anie ſuch thing as pertaineth to the office or offices, auctoritie and power of them or anie of them, by reaſon of anie of the ſaid letters patents and grants, ſhall be of like ſtrength vertue and effect, as they or anie of them were the firſt daie of Nouember laſt paſt. Any ſtatute act or ordinance made in this preſent parliament notwithſtanding. So that the barons of the eſcheker ſhal occupie or exerciſe their offices at the kings pleaſure as the iuſtices doe. And alſo that euerie commiſſion made, granted and directed by anie of the ſaid late pretenſed kings in anie of their times, to anie perſon or perſons to be aſſigned for the peace in euerie or any countie of this realme to be eſtabliſhed and kept, and to heare and determine all maner of felonies and treſpaſſes and other offenſes ſpecified in the ſaid commiſſions and euerie of them, done or committed in anie of the ſaid counties, or to deliuer anie iaile or iailes within this realme, or in other place or places vnder the obeiſance of the crowne, of the priſoners being in anie of the ſaid iailes, in the time of anie of the ſaid late pretenſed kings, or to heare ⁊ determine all maner treaſons, felonies, treſpaſſes, or other offenſes done in anie of the ſaid counties, or in any place or places vnder ẏ obeiſance of the crowne of the ſaid realme, ſpecified in euery of the ſame commiſſions, or for ſewers being aſſigned to ſuruey ⁊ to cauſe to be repaired ⁊ amended wals of marſhes, diches, gutters, calceis, ⁊ bridges, ⁊ other defaults in any marſh or marſhes in any part of this realme, ſpecified in ẏ ſame commiſſions ⁊ euerie of them, ⁊ all other commiſſions made by any of the ſaid late pretenſed kings to any perſon' or perſons before the iiii. day of March laſt paſt, ⁊ all proceſſes, determinations, executions, incidents, adminicles, ⁊ other circum-ſtances pertaining to the ſame commiſſions and euerie of them, not void repelled nor adnulled, ſhall be of like force vertue and ſtrength, as if the ſame commiſſions & euerie of them were made and granted by any king lawfully raigning in this realme, and obteining the crowne of the ſame by iuſt title. So that one eſpeciall acte be made for ſuch perſons that were before this time endamaged for the king. And alſo that all maner of actes and ordinances made by auctoritie of anie parliament or parliaments holden in the time of anie of the ſaid late pretenſed kings, for the conſeruation and keeping of the towne of Shrewſburie, and of the good peaceable and quiet rule and gouernance within the ſaid towne, betwixt the inhabitants of the ſame and euery of them: ſhal be of like force and effect as if the ſame actes or ordinances and euerie of them, were made in the time of anie king or kings lawfully raigning in this realme, and obteining ẏ crowne of the ſame by iuſt title. And whereas the ſaid late pretenſed king Henry the vi. in deede and not of right king of this realme, by his charter indented vnder the ſeale of the duchie of Lancaſter ſealed, bearing date the xx. day of march, the xxiiii. yeere of his vſurped raigne, did giue and grant, and by the ſame charter confirmed to William abbot of Byland, the manor of Kilborne, with the appurtenances, in the countie of Yorke, with all the knights fees, viewes of frankepledge, franchiſes, liberties, commodities, profits, and appurtenances to the ſame manor, to haue and hold the ſaid manor, with the other premiſſes to the ſaid abbot and his ſucceſſors for euer, yeelding therefore to the ſaid pretenſed king Henrie the vi. and his heires dukes of Lancaſter xxi.li. yeerelie, where the ſaid pretenſed king, nor none of his anceſters dukes of Lancaſter before the ſame time were neuer anſwered of the ſaid yeerely iſſues and profits of the ſame manor, but of xvi.li. by yeere onlie, the ſaid xxi.li. to be paid at the feaſts of Pentecoſt and ſaint Martin in winter by euen portions, for all ſeculer ſeruices, with clauſe of diſtreſſe for default of paiment of the ſaid rent by halfe a yeere in all the manors lands and tenements of the ſaid abbot and couent within the ſame countie, as in the ſame charter thereof made more plainly appeareth. That all the ſame charter gift and grant ſhal be till this time and from hence forward to the ſaid abbot and couent and to their ſucceſſors of like force and effecte, as they were the firſt daie of March laſt paſt. Anie act or ordinance made in this preſent parliament, notwithſtanding. And alſo that all grants and licences made by letters patents of anie of the ſaid late pretenſed kings, to anie abbot and couent, prior and couent, or to anie other perſon or perſons, to haue and make by free election within themſelfe at anie voidance, abbot or prior, and to be conuentuall perpetuall and electiſe, where before they were datiſe and remouable ſhall be of like ſtrength vertue and effect, as if the ſame grantes and licences or anie of them were made by anie king lawfullie raigning in this realme, and obteining the crowne of the ſame by iuſt title. Alſo that all recordes of recogniſances and deedes enrolled had and made in anie courte or courtes of record or before anie iuſtice of record in the time of the reignes of anie of the ſaid late pretenſed kings: ſhall be of like force vertue and effect, as if the ſame records were had or made in the time of any king lawfully reigning in this realme, and obteining the crowne of the ſame by iuſt title. And alſo that all licences and grants made by anie of the ſaide late pretenſed kings to any perſon or perſons, to make, haue, encloſe and enioy anie parkes, waren or free chaſe or to embattell, to carnell, to maſtol, or to make any towre caſtell or fortreſſe, within this realme, ſhall be of like force vertue and effect, as if the ſaid grantes and licences were made by any king lawfully raigning in this realme, and obtaining the crowne of the ſame by iuſt title. Prouided alwaies that this acte do not extend nor be preiudiciall to the right noble high and mightie princeſſe Cecilie duches of Yorke, mother vnto our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, of anie grant or grants made to her by the king by his letters patents before the firſt daie of this parliament, by whatſoeuer name or names ſhe be called in the ſame letters patents, but that the ſame letters patentes, and euerie grant therein contained: be of like force and effecte as they were before the firſt daie of this parliament This acte or anie other made or to be made in this preſent parliament notwithſtanding. Prouided alwaies that this acte nor none article of the ſame doe not extend to any lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, hereditaments, or other things, which the king ought in any wiſe to haue by force of anie acte of attaindre of anie perſon or perſons made in this preſent parliament. Prouided alſo that no perſon or perſons attainted in this preſent parliament, or being out with the kings enimies take anie benefite or aduantage by this acte, nor none other acte made or to be made in the ſaid parliament.

Chap. 2.

Enditements and preſentmentes. Shirifes turnes.

Alſo whereas manie of the kings faithfull liege people, aſwell ſpirituall as temporall, by the inordinate and vnmeaſurable enditements and preſentmentes, aſwell of felonie, treſpaſſes, and offences, as of other things, which of long time hath bene had and vſed within the counties of this realme, & taken before ſherifes for the times being in their countie ſeuerally, vnderſhirifes their clerkes, bailifes, and their miniſters, at their turnes or lawdaies holden before them ſeuerallie in the counties, which enditementes and preſentments be often times affirmed by iurors hauing no conſcience, nor no freehold, and litle goods. And oftentimes by the ſaid ſherifes menyall ſeruants and bailifes and their vnderſhirifes, by which enditementes and preſentments the ſaid lawfull liege people be attached and arreſted by their bodies, and put in priſon by the ſaid ſherifes, vnderſherifes, their clerkes, bailifes, and miniſters, to the great dureſſe of their goods, and they ſo being in priſon by the ſaid ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes their clerkes, baylifes and their miniſters, are conſtrained to make greeuous fines and ranſomes, and leuie of them great fines and amerciaments for the ſaid enditements and preſentmentes, in great preiudice and vtter vndoing of the ſaide liege people. After which fines, raunſoms, and amerciaments ſo atchiued & leuied by the ſaid ſhirifes, vnderſhiriffes, clerkes, bailiffes, and their miniſters, the people aforeſaide be enlarged out of priſon, and the ſaide enditements and preſentments be embeſiled and withdrawen. Our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, conſidering the premiſſes, by thaduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that all maner enditements and preſentments that ſhall be taken hereafter before anie of his ſaide ſhiriffes of his counties for the time being, their vnderſhiriffes, clerkes, bailiffes, or other miniſters at their turnes or lawdaies before mentioned, they nor none of them ſhall haue power to attache arreſt, or put in priſon, or to leuie anie fines or amerciaments of anie perſon or perſons ſo endited or preſented, by reaſon or colour of anie ſuch enditement or preſentment taken or to be taken before them or anie of them, of anie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo endited or preſented anie fine or raunſome, but that the ſaid ſhiriffes and their vnderſhiriffes, clerkes, or bailiffes and their miniſters, ſhall bring, preſent, and deliuer all ſuch enditements and preſentments taken before them or anie of them in their turnes or lawdaies aforeſaide, to the iuſtices of peace at their next ſeſſions of the peace that ſhall be holden in the countie or counties where ſuch enditements and preſentments ſhall be taken before the ſaid iuſtices of ſuch countie or counties for the time being. And if anie of the ſaide ſhiriffes, vnderſhiriffes, clerkes, bailiffes, and their miniſters doo not bring, deliuer, and preſent all ſuch enditements or preſentments ſo taken before them and euerie of them in their turnes or lawedayes, as before is recited, at ſuch ſeſſions of the peace before the ſaide iuſtices of peace, that then all ſuch ſhiriffes, vnderſhiriffes, clerkes, bailiffes, and their miniſters and euerie of them, that ſo ſhall faile in bringing, deliuering, and preſenting of ſuch enditements and preſentments, ſhall forfeite to the king fortie poundes at euerie time that they or anie of them dooth the contrarie. And that the ſaide iuſtices of peace ſhall haue power and auctoritie to awarde proceſſe vpon all ſuch enditements and preſentments, as the lawe dooth require and in like forme as if the ſaide enditements and preſentments were taken before the ſaide iuſtices of peace in the ſaide countie or counties. And alſo to arraine and deliuer all ſuch perſons or perſon ſo endited and preſented before the ſaide ſhiriffes, vnderſhiriffes, their clerkes, bailiffes, and their miniſters or anie of them in their ſaide turnes or lawedayes. And all ſuch perſons or perſon, which be endited or preſented of treſpaſſe, to make ſuch a fine as ſhall ſeeme lawfull by their diſcretions. And the eſtretes of the ſaide fines and amerciaments to be enrolled, and by indenture to be deliuered to the ſaide ſhiriffes, vnderſhiriffes, their clerkes, bailiffes, or miniſters or anie of them, to the vſe and profite of him that was ſhiriffe in the ſaide counties or countie at the time of ſuch enditements or preſentments taken. And if anie of the ſaide ſhiriffes, their vnderſhiriffes, clerkes, bailiffes, or their miniſters doo arreſt, attach, or put in priſon, or cauſe anie fine or raunſome to be taken, or leuie anie amerciament of anie perſon or perſons ſo endited or preſented, by reaſon or colour of anie ſuch enditement or preſentment taken before them at their tournes or lawedayes aboue rehearſed, before that they haue proceſſe from the ſaide iuſtices of peace, or eſtretes deliuered out of the ſaids enditements or preſentments ſo brought, deliuered, and preſented to them, that then the ſaide ſhiriffes, which ſo dooth, ſhall forfeite a hundred poundes, the one halfe thereof to be emploied to the expenſes of the kings houſe, and the other halfe to the parties or partie, which be or is endamaged, and ſhall haue an action of debt at the common law, and like proceſſe, as is in an action of debt at the common lawe & that the defendaunt or defendaunts in ſuch ſuites or actions of debt, ſhall not be eſſoined nor wage their lawe. And if he or they or anie of them againſt whom this action ſhall be taken, doo offer or caſt anie protection or other impediment, in retardation of the ſaid ſuites or actions, that ſhall not be allowed. Prouided alwaies that this preſent ordinance doo not extend, nor in anie wiſe be preiudiciall to the ſhiriffes of the citie of London now being, or which at anie time hereafter ſhall be, concerning anie inditements or preſentments to be taken within the ſaide citie of London. Prouided alſo that this act extend not nor be preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons, which hath graunts of anie fines or amerciaments by anie letters patents of our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, or of anie of his progenitors or predeceſſors, bearing date before the tenth day of December next after the beginning of this parliament. And that this acte and ordinance doo not extend nor be preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons, hauing anie liberties or franchiſes by anie of the ſaide letters patents, or in anie other maner by preſcription. And that this ordinance be in his force and beginne to take effecte at the fortie day next after the firſt day of May next after the beginning of this preſent parliament, vpon the which firſt day the ſaid parliament was diſſolued.

Hereafter foloweth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter in the third yeere of king Edward the fourth.

AT the parliament ſommoned at Weſtminſter, the nine and twentie day of Aprill the third yeere of the reigne of king Edward the fourth after the conqueſt, diuers ſtatutes and ordinances, to the honor of God and of holie church, and for the wealth of the king and his people, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, were made in the maner and forme as followeth.

Chap. 1.

Wolles & wolfelles.

Firſt becauſe that the cheefe & principall commoditie of this realme of England conſiſteth in the wolles growing within the ſaide realme, and to thentent that ſufficient plentie of the ſaide wolles may continually abide and remaine within the realme, which may competentlie and reaſonablie ſerue for the occupation of clothmakers of England and of all the members and braunches of the ſame, whereby the cities boroughes and townes within the ſame realme fallen in great and pitious deſolation ruine and decaie by the occaſion of idlenes, may be (if God will) multiplied in inhabitation, and by labour reſtored to thier auncient ioie and proſperitie, by which the vices and inconueniences maie to the pleaſure of God be auoided: Our ſoueraigne lorde the kinge, in conſideration of the premiſes, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lordes ſprituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons aforeſaid, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that from the feaſte of ſaint John Baptiſte next enſuing no perſon alien nor ſtraunger borne, by him or anie other for him, priuie or apperte, ſhall buie or ſhippe anie maner woolles or woolfelles, morling or ſhoreling, within anie parte of this realme of England or Wales, or them or anie of them carie out of the ſame realme or Wales.

Straunger borne.

Nor that anie perſon ſtraunger alien or deniſen, or anie other the kings ſubiecte, from the ſaide feaſte, ſhall carie anie woolles, woolfelles, morling or ſhoreling of the growing of the countries or counties on this ſide the water of Teeſe, ouer the ſame water towardes the north, vpon paine of forfeiture of ſuch wools, woolfelles, morling or ſhoreling.

Shipping of wolles.

The one halfe thereof to be had to the profite and vſe of our ſaide redoubted ſouereigne lorde the king, and the other halfe thereof to the vſe and profite of him or them that ſhall finde and lawfullie proue ſuch being ſhipping or cariage contrarie to the ſaid ordinance. The wools wolfelles morling and ſhorling of the growing of the counties called Aldertonſhire and Richmonſhire onelie except. And alſo he hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that no parcell of the ſaide woolles, wolfelles, morling or ſhoreling, be ſhipped or caried to anie other place out of the ſaide realme or Wales, but onelie to the towne of Caleis.

Calleis.

The woolles, wolfelles, morling and ſhoreling of the growing of the counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, & Weſtmerland, and of the growing of the biſhoprike of Durham, betwixt the waters of Tine and Teeſe, and of the ſaide counties of Alderton and Richmond except.

Water of Teeſe.

And if anie perſon or perſons doo the contrarie thereof, or ſhippe anie woolles, wolfelles, morling or ſhoreling, of the growing of anie countrie or countie of the ſaide realme of England, except before excepted, on this ſide the ſaide water of Teeſe, or anie porte or creeke of the ſame water, or in the ſame water: that then he which ſhall ſo ſhippe or carie, or doo to be ſhipped or caried, ſhall forfaite and loſe all ſuch wolles wolfelles morling and ſhorling, or the valoure thereof. The one halfe of the ſame forfaiture to be applied to the vſe of our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the kinge, and the other halfe to him that ſhall proue ſuch forfaiture and ſeaſe the ſame wolles wolfelles morling and ſhorling. And alſo the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaide, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed that no perſon, after the ſaide feaſt, ſhall ſhippe anie wolles wolfelles morling or ſhorling of the growing within anie of the ſaide counties of Northumberland Cumberland & Weſtmerland, or within the ſaide biſhopricke of Durham, betwixt the ſaid water of Tine and Teeſe, or within the ſaide counties called Aldertonſhire Richmonſhire, but onely at the towne of Newcaſtle:

Newcaſtle.

vpon paine of forfaiture of yͤ ſame wolles wolfelles morling & ſhorling, the one halfe thereof to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord yͤ king, and the other halfe to anie of the kings leige people, inhabiting in the towne of Newcaſtle, which ſhall ſeaſe the ſaide forfaiture to be applied to the vſe and profite of the ſame towne. And alſo by the aſſent and auchoritie afore ſaide it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that no perſon from the ſaide feaſt, priuilie nor appertlie ſhall conueie or carrie, or doo to be conueied or carried anie wolles or wolfelles out of this realme of England or Wales, to anie other place than to Caleis, excepte the wolle and wolfelles before excepted, vpon paine of impriſonment by ii. yeeres, & to forfaite the valoure of the ſame wolles & wolfelles, the one halfe thereof to be paide to the vſe of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other halfe to anie of his liege people, which ſhall eſpie ſuch forfeiture & ſue for the ſame. And that he haue thereof an action of debt aſwell for our ſouereigne lorde the king as for him ſelfe of the ſaid valour of the forfeiture aforeſaid, to be had and purſued in the countie where ſuch forfeiture ſhall happen: In which action the defendaunt ſhall not be receiued to wage his lawe, nor no eſſoine nor protection for the ſame defendaunt to be allowed. And moreouer the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, by the aſſent and auctoritie aforeſaid, that no marchant of the ſaide ſtaple of Caleis, by himſelſe nor by none other perſon for himſelfe, ſhall ſell or vtter from the feaſt of ſaint Michaell tharchangell next enſuing, anie woolles, wolfelles, morling, or ſhorling, or anie other marchandiſes of the ſtaple to the ſaide ſtaple, but that he before or vpon the deliuerie of the ſame, receiue and take readie paiment and contentation for the ſame woolles, wolfelles and other marchandiſes of yͤ ſaid ſtaple in hand, whereof the halfe parte ſhall be in lawfull moneie of England, plate or bullion of ſiluer or goulde, and all the ſame moneie duelie bring into this realme of England:

Staple of Caleis.

Plate and Bullion.

And the plate and bullion ſo receiued doo duelie to be coined at the mint of Caleis. And all the moneie thereof made and coined, duelie bring into England within three monethes next after the aforeſaid ſale, vpon paine to forfeite for euerie ſacke of wooll v. markes, and for euerie CC.xl. wolfels otherwiſe ſould fiue markes. And for the contrarie ſale of euerie halfe ſacke of

of woolle, or anie other quantitie of woolle, and euerie Cxx. woolfels, and euerie other number thereof, after the rate and quantitie of the ſaid fiue markes. And that no marchaunt of the ſaide ſtaple, from the ſaide feaſt of ſaint Michaell, ſhall ſell, vtter, nor alien his proprietie of the ſaide marchandiſes of the ſaide ſtaple, nor no parcell of the ſame, to anie place out of this realme, other then to the ſaid ſtaple of Caleis. Prouided alwaies that if the ſaid moneie ordained by this ordinaunce to be brought into this realme, be drowned in the ſea, or taken away by enemies in the ſea, or if the bringing thereof be let by contrarie winde or tempeſt: that then if the ſame moneie, whoſe bringing ſhall be let by ſuch wind or tempeſt, be brought into this realme of England as ſoone as conuenient paſſage for the ſame may be had, then the marchaunt owner of the ſame ſhall in no wiſe be endamaged by the occaſion of not bringing the ſame moneie as afore is ſaide. And moreouer becauſe that daylie great diſceite is done in the winding wrapping and making fleeſes of woolle within this realme, by the owners of the ſame woolle, by putting in the ſame fleeſes lockes of wooll, and peeces of worſe woolle than the fleeſe is, and alſo putting in the ſame fleeſes tarre, ſtones, ſand, graſſe, or dirte, to the great domage of the buier of the ſame woolle within this realme of England, and to the great reprooſe and domage to the marchants of this realme of England, which carieth the ſame woolles out of the ſaide realme: our ſouereigne lord the king hath ordained and ſtabliſhed by auctoritie aforeſaid, that euerie perſon within this realme of England, that will ſell anie woolles in anie parte within the ſame realme of England by way of ſale, from the ſaid feaſt of ſaint Iohn ordained and prouided: that the ſame woolle be well and lawfullie wound, without doing anie diſceite in the ſame, vpon paine to forfeite to the king for euerie ſuch fleeſe, in which anie ſuch defaute ſhall be found, ſixe pence. And that the iuſtices of peace of our ſouereigne lorde the king in euerie countie citie and towne of this realme of England, haue auctoritie and power to enquire of the ſaid diſceites in their ſeſſions of peace, and to here and determine the ſaide defautes aſwell by due examination as otherwiſe. Moreouer he hath ordained and ſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaide, that no perſon, inhabiting within this realme of England, other than marchauntes ſtrangers, from the ſaide feaſt of ſainte Iohn, ſhall freite nor charge within this realme of England or Wales, anie ſhippe or other veſſell of any alyen or ſtraunger, with any marchandiſes to be carried out of the ſaide realme of England or Wales, nor ſhall bring into the ſame, if he maie haue ſufficient freite in the ſhippes or veſſels or deniſens of this realme, vpon paine to forfaite the ſame marchaundiſes. The one halfe to the vſe of our ſaide ſouereigne lorde and king, and the other halfe to him or them, which ſhall ſeaſe the ſame marchaundiſes. And that this preſent ſtatute and ordinaunce, concerning wolles and wolfelles morling and ſhorling, and alſo the receipte of bullion and the bringing in of moneie, and alſo ſhipping in the ſhippes of deniſens, ſhall be in their force vertue and ſtrength by iii. yeares next following the ſaide feaſts of ſaint Iohn and ſaint Michael nexte comming in all things according to the intent aboue declared and ſpecified.

Chap. 2. Corne.

Where as the labourers and occupiers of huſbandrie within this realme of England be dailie greeuouſlie endamaged by bringing of corne out of other lands and parties into this realme of England, when corne of the growing of this realme is at a lowe price: Our redoubted ſouereigne lorde the king conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduiſe aſſent and auctoritie aforeſaide, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that no perſon from the feaſt of ſaint Iohn the baptiſt next comming ſhall bring nor conueie into anie place or porte of this realme, by way of marchandiſe, nor otherwiſe, anie wheate rie, or barlie, which is not of the growing of this land, or of anie Ile pertaining to the ſame, or of the growing of the countrie of Ireland or Wales, at anie time that the quarter of wheate doth not exceede the price of ſixe ſhillings eight pence. The quarter of rie doth not exceede the price of foure ſhillings. And the quarter of barlie three ſhillings of lawfull moneie of England within the place or porte where ſuch wheat, rie, or barlie ſhall happen to be brought, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaide wheate, rie, and barlie. The one halfe to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king, and the other halfe to him, which ſhall happen to ſeaſe ſuch wheate, rie, or barlie. Prouided alwaies that this acte extend not to anie wheate, rie, or barlie, taken by anie of the kings liege people vpon the ſea without fraude or couin.

Chap. 3. Silke women.

Wrought ſilke.

Item it was ſhewed in this preſent parliament to our ſouereigne lorde the king, and to the lordes of the parliament, by the ſilke women and ſpinſters of ſilke within the citie of London, that diuers lombardes and other aliens ſtraungers, imagining to deſtroy their craftes and all ſuch vertuous occupations for women within this land, to the intent to enrich them ſelfe, and to put ſuch occupations into other landes daylie bringing into this realme of England wrought ſilke, wrought ribands, and laces falſelie and diſceitefullie wrought, corſes of ſilke, and all maner of other thinges touching the ſame miſteries and occupations readie wrought, and will not bring in anie vnwrought ſilke as they were woont to doo, to the finall deſtruction of the ſaide occupations and miſteries: Our ſaide moſt redoubted ſouereigne lorde the king, conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduiſe, aſſent, and auctoritie of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons aforeſaide, hath ordained, enacted, and ſtabliſhed, that if anie lombard, or anie other perſon ſtraunger or deniſen, bring or doo to be brought by way of marchandiſe anie wrought ſilke, throwne ribans, laces, corſes of ſilke, or anie other thing touching or concerning the miſterie of ſilke workers in anie parte or place of this realme of England from beyond the ſea: that then ẏ ſame wrought ſilke, throwne ribans, laces, corſes, and other thinges ſo brought and wrought, touching the ſame miſterie, ſhall forfeite: And that euerie ſeller of anie of yͤ things aboue named, brought as afore is ſaid, ſhall forfeite for euerie defaulte x. li. the one halfe thereof to be leuied and had to the vſe of the expenſes of the kings houſe, and he that will ſue for the ſame ſhall haue the other halfe of the ſame forfeiture. And that it be lawfull to euerie perſon or perſons of the kings liege people to haue and maintaine an action or actions of debt at euerie time, aſwell for the ſame forfeiture of the ſaid x. li. as for the thing ſo forfeite: And proceſſe of outlagarie in the ſame and all other proceſſes as in an action of debt at the common lawe, and that in the ſame no protection nor eſſoine to be allowed. And that the maior of the ſaid citie then for the time being, haue ſufficient power and auctoritie to aſſigne ii. iii. or iiii. ſufficient and credible men of the ſame citie by his diſcretion, to be ſworne vpon a booke to make due ſearch within the ſame citie and the libertie thereof, as often as to them ſhall ſeeme expedient of all thing had or doone contrarie to the premiſſes. And they to make due relation to the maior and aldermen of the ſaide citie for the time being, for more plaine information in this behalfe to our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, and to thoſe perſons which will ſue for the ſame. And that this ſaide ordinance abide and be in his force and take effecte at the feaſt of ſaint Peter called Ad vincula next comming. And this ordinance ſhall endure till the end of fiue yeeres next enſuing.

Item where as in the ſaide parliament by the artificers of manuell occupations men and women, inhabiting and reſiant in the cittie of London, and other cities, townes, boroughes, and villages within the ſame realme of England and Wales, it hath bene pittiouſlie ſhewed and complained, how that all they in generall, and euerie of them be greatlie impoueriſhed and greuouſlie damaged and preiudiced of their worldlie increaſe and daylie liuing, by the greate multitude of diuers chaffers and wares pertaining to their miſteries and occupations being fullie wrought and readie made to ſale as well by the handes of ſtraungers being the kings enemies as other in this realme and Wales, carried and brought from beyonde the ſea, aſwell by marchauntes ſtraungers, as deniſens and other perſons, whereof the greateſt parte in ſubſtance is deceitefull and nothing worth in regarde of anie mans occupation or profite, by which occaſion the ſaid artificers can not liue by their miſteries & occupations as they haue doone in times paſt, but diuers of them aſwell houſholders as conducts, and other ſeruauntes & apprentices in great number, be at this day vnoccupied, & doo hardlie liue in great miſerie, pouertie, and ruine, whereby manie inconueniences haue come before this time, and hereafter more be likelie to come (which God defend) if due remedie be not in this behalfe prouided: Our redoubted ſouereigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, and willing in this caſe to prouide remedie, by the aduiſe aſſent and auctoritie aforeſaid, hath ordained, enacted, and ſtabliſhed, that no marchaunt borne ſubiect of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, deniſen nor ſtraunger, nor other perſon, after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell next comming, ſhal bring ſend nor conueie, nor doo to be brought ſent nor conueied into this realme of England, and ſeignorie of Wales, anie of theſe chaffers or wares vnder written, that is to ſay, anie woollen cappes, woollen clothes, laces, corſes, ribans, frenges of ſilke and of thred, laces of thred, ſilke twined, ſilke in anie wiſe embrowdered, laces of goulde of ſilke or gould, ſaddels, ſtyropes, or anie harneis pertaining to ſaddels, ſpurres, boſſes, or bridels, aundyrons, gredyrons, anie maner of lockes, hammers, pinſons, ſiretonges, drippingpans, dice, teneſballes, pointes, purſes, gloues, girdels, harneis for girdels, of yron latin ſteele tinne or of alkemine, anie thing wrought of anie tawed letter, anie tawed furres, buſcans, ſhooes, galoches, or corkes, kniues, daggers, woodkniues, botkins, ſheeres for tailers, ciſours, raſers, cheſſemen, plaieng cardes, combes, patins, packeneedels, anie painted ware, forcers, caſkets, ringes of coper or of latin gilt, chaffindiſhes, hanging candelſtickes, chaffingballes, ſacringbelles, rings for courteins, ladles, ſcommers, counterfeite baſins, ewers, hats, bruſhes, cardes for woolle, or anie white wire, or anie of thoſe wares or chaffers to be vttered and ſould within the ſame realme of England, or in the countrie of Wales by way of marchandiſe, vpon paine to forfeite yͤ ſame marchandiſes at euerie time & as often as they may be found in yͤ hands of anie perſon or perſons to be ſould: The one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to by paied to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king, and the other halfe to him which will firſt ſeiſe the ſame for the king: The ſame halfe ſo ſeaſed for our ſouereigne lord the king to be deliuered by the ſaid ſeiſour thereof to the eſchetor of the countrie or place where the ſame ſeiſin ſhall be, by indenture betwixt them to be made, duelie to aunſwere thereof in his account. Prouided alwaies that if anie of the ſaid wares or chaffers made out of this land, be taken vpon the ſea without fraude or colluſion, or commeth into this realme of England, or in the countrie of Wales, by way of wrecke, yͭ thoſe be in no wiſe taken within this ordinance or ſtatute, but that they may be ſould within this realme of England or Wales, this ordinance or ſtatute notwithſtanding. Prouided alſo that all wares & chaffers made & wrought in the land of Ireland or Wales, may be brought & ſould in this realme of England as they were woont before the making of this ſtatute, this ordinance or ſtatute notwithſtanding. Alſo our ſouereigne lord the king hath ordained & eſtabliſhed, by the aſſent & auctoritie aforeſaid, that the maiſters or wardens for the time being of euerie craft & miſterie in euerie citie, burgh, towne, & village, where anie ſuch craft or miſterie is vſed or occupied ſhall haue ſufficient poiner and auctoritie in euerie ſuch citie towne burgh and village, where they for the time being, ſhall be wardens or maiſters of anie ſuch craft or miſterie, And the maior of ſuch citie burgh towne or village for the time being, if anie maior be, or the bailiffes or bailiffe of anie ſuch citie borough towne or village for the time being, if any bailiffes or bailiffe there be and no maior, or ſergeant, or any other officer to them aſſigned by the ſayd maior bailiffes or bailiffe, in euerie ſuch citie borough towne and village, where anie ſuch craft or miſterie is vſed or occupied, were no ſuch maſters nor wardens of anie ſuch craft or miſterie bee, that the maſters or wardens of the craftes and miſteries of the citie towne borough or village next adioining to the ſame, and the conſtable of ſuch citie borough towne or village, ſhall haue power and auctoritie to ſerch in their owne craftes and miſteries, and in all other craftes and miſteries, vttering by waie of ſale anie ſuch chaffers, as well within cities boroughes townes and villages of the ſame realme of Englande and of the countrie of Wales, as within the liberties and fraunchiſes of the ſame cities boroughes townes and villages at all times reaſonable by their diſcretion, at faires and markets, ſhops open, and warehouſes all maner wares chaffers and marchandiſes perteining to euerie of their proper crafts and miſteries, which ſhall be made by any alien artificer man or woman, or any other perſon or perſons within the ſame realme of England or Wales, or which at anie time ſhall be occupied by anie of the ſaide craftes or miſteries, in whoſe handes ſo euer they may be founde. Prouided alſo that the ſaid maſters wardens & other named in the ſaide ordinance to be ſerchers, ſhall not enter in anie place exempt by priuiledge fraunchiſe or cuſtome to make in the ſame any ſerch as is aforeſaide, but by the ſurueing of ſome officer of euerie ſuch place ſo exempt, where anie ſuch ſerch ſhall happen to bee made. And if the ſaide ſerchers by the ſame ſerch doe finde that ſuch chaffers wares or marchandiſes, or anie part thereof, bee not pure lawfull and able chaffers wares or marchandiſes and rightfullie wrought and made, as they ought to bee, and that duelie prooued: that then it ſhall bee lawfull to ſuch ſerchers to take and ſeiſe all ſuch chaffers wares and marchandiſes, which ſhall ſo be founde not good pure lawfull or able, nor rightfullie wrought, as a thing forfeite: The one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to be payde to the vſe of our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king, & the other halfe thereof to ſuch maſters or wardeins, which ſo ſhall make ſerch & finde the ſame. And that this preſent ordinance or ſtatute concerning the ſaid artificers ſtand & be in his force as long as ſhall pleaſe our ſoueraigne lorde the king. Prouided alwaies that this ordinance & act, nor none other ordinance or act made or to be made in this preſent parliament, ſhall not extend nor in any wiſe be preiudiciall or hurtfull to Robert Stillington clarke, deane of the free chapell of our ſoueraigne lord the king of ſaint Martin the graund of London, nor to his ſucceſſours of the ſayde chapell hereafter for the time being in anie maner, nor to the ſayde Robert deane and chapiter of the ſame chapell, as in and for all maner priuiledges liberties fraunchiſes rightes and cuſtomes in anie maner perteining to them before this parliament. Nor to anie perſon or perſons dwelling or inhabiting, or which ſhall hereafter inhabit and dwell within the ſeintuarie and precinct of the ſame chapell, and eſpeciallie within the lane, commonlie called ſaint Martins lane.

Apparell.

Item praien the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled to our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, to reduce to his gratious remembraunce, that in the times of his noble progenitours diuerſe ordinaunces and ſtatutes were made in this realme of Englande for the apparell and araie of the commons of the ſame realme, as well of men as of women, ſo that none of them ought to vſe or weare anie inordinate and exceſſiue apparell, but onelie according to their degrees: Which ſtatutes & ordinaunces notwithſtanding, for default of puniſhment & putting them in due execution, the commons of the ſaide realme, as well men as women, haue worne and daily doeth weare exceſſiue and inordinate arraie and apparell, to the great diſpleaſure of God, and impoueriſhing of this realme of England, and to the enriching of other ſtrange realmes & countreies, to the finall deſtruction of the huſbandrie of this ſad realme: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the ſaide lordes, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſayde commons aſſembled in the ſayde parliament, and by auctoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that no knight, vnder the eſtate of a lorde, other then lordes children, nor no wife of ſuch knight, from the feaſt of the purification of our ladie, which ſhall be in the yeere of our lorde God M. CCCC.lxv. ſhall weare anie maner cloth of golde, or anie corſes wrought with golde, or anie furre of ſables. And if anie ſuch knight doe the contrarie, or ſuffer his wife or childe (the ſame childe being vnder his rule and gouernaunce) to doe the contrarie, that then he ſhall forfeite for euerie ſuch default xx.li. to the king. And alſo that no bacheler knight, nor his wife, from the ſaid feaſt ſhall weare anie cloth of veluet vpon veluet, but ſuch knightes which bee of the order of the garter and their wiues, vpon paine to forfeite to the kings vſe for euerie ſuch defaulte xx. markes. Alſo that no perſon vnder the ſtate of a lorde, from the ſaide feaſt weare anie maner cloth of ſilke, being of the colour of purple, vpon paine to forfeit to the king for euerie defaulte x.li. Alſo that no eſquier nor gentelman, nor none other vnder the degree of a knight, nor none of their wiues, except the ſonnes of lordes and their wiues, and the daughters of lordes, eſquiers for the kinges bodie and their wiues, ſhall weare from the ſaide feaſt anie veluet, ſatin braunched, nor anie counterfaite cloth of ſilke reſembling to the ſame: or anie corſes wrought like to veluet or ſatin braunched, or anie furre of Ermine, vpon paine to forfeite for euerie defaulte tenne markes to the kinges vſe. And that no eſquier nor gentelman, nor none other vnder the degrees aboue rehearſed, ſhall weare from the ſayde feaſt anie damaſke or ſatin, except the mentall eſquiers, ſerieauntes officers of the kinges houſe, yemen of the crowne, yemen of the kinges chamber, and eſquiers, and gentelmen hauing poſſeſſions to the yeerelie valure of xl.li. and their wiues, and widowes hauing like poſſeſſions, and the daughters vnmaried of perſons hauing poſſeſſions to the value of a hundred pounde by yeere, vpon paine to forfeite to the king for euerie defaulte a hundred ſhillings. Prouided alwaies that the ſtewarde chamberlaine treaſurer and comptroler of the kinges houſe, and knightes for his bodie and their wiues, maie weare furres of ſables and ermines. And that the maiors of the citie of London, which be or hath bene, or hereafter for the time ſhall bee, and their wiues maie weare ſuch arraie as before is limitted to bacheler knightes and to their wiues. And that ſuch which bee or hath bene, or for the time ſhall bee aldermen or recorders of the ſame citie, and all maiors and ſhirifes of cities townes or boroughes of this realme of Englande, ſuch as be counties corporat: and all maiors and bailifes of all other cities: and of euerie of the fiue ports, and the barons of the ſame ports, ſuch as haue bene choſen and aſſigned, or hereafter ſhall be choſen and aſſigned to do their ſeruice at the coronation of the king our ſouereigne lorde: or of my ladie the queene: And maiors and bailifes of boroughes corporate being ſhire townes, and the maiors and bailifes of Colceſter and Linne, and the recorders of the ſaide cities boroughes & townes being counties corporate, & of all other cities nowe being recorders, or which hath bene or in time to come ſhall be, and the aldermen of the ſame and their wiues in like maner, may vſe and weare ſuch arraie as before is limit to eſquiers and gentelmen before ſpecified, hauing poſſeſſions to the yeerelie valure of fourtie pounds. And alſo our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed in this preſent parliament, that no man but ſuch as hath poſſeſſions to the yeerely valure of fourtie pounde or aboue ſhall weare from the ſaide feaſt anie furre of martrons letuſe pure graie or pure myniuer, nor no wife, ſonne, daughter, or ſeruant of any man (the ſame ſonne or daughter being in his rule and gouernance) nor no widowe but ſuch as hath poſſeſſions of the ſaide yeerelie valure of fourtie poonde, ſhall vſe nor weare anie of the ſaid furres, or anie girdell garniſhed with gold or ſiluer in anie part of the ſame gilt, or anie corſe of ſilke made out of this realme of Englande, or anie kouerchiefes, whereof the priſe of a plite ſhall exceede the ſumme of three ſhillings foure pence, vpon paine to forfeite to the king for euerie defaulte thereof fiue markes. Prouided alwaies that the ſayde meiniall eſquiers ſerieantes officers of the kinges houſe, yomen of the crowne, yomen of the kinges chamber, and eſquiers and gentlemen, hauing poſſeſſions of the ſaide yeerelie valure of fourtie pound, and the aforeſaide maiors, recorders, aldermen, ſhirifes, and bailifes of euerie of the ſaide cities, townes, and boroughes, and the ſayde barons of the fiue ports of the realme of Englande, and alſo their wiues maie weare the ſaide furres of martrons, foins, letuſe, pure graie, or pure meniuer, and alſo that their ſaide wiues may vſe and weare guilte girdels and kouerchifes of the price of v.s. the plite. Moreouer he hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no man but ſuch as hath poſſeſſions of the yeerelie valure of xls. ſhall weare in arraie for his bodie from the ſaide feaſt anie fuſtian, buſtian nor fuſtian of naples, ſkerlet, cloth in graine, nor no furre but blacke or white lambe. All maiors, aldermen, ſhirifes, barons of the fiue portes bailifes of cities and boroughes, & other before prouided and their wiues, and the menial ſeruants of yomens degree of lordes and knightes eſquiers and other gentelmen hauing poſſeſſions of the ſaide yeerelie valure of fourtie pounde except, vpon paine of fourtie ſhillinges to be forfeite to the king for euerie ſuch defaulte. Alſo hee hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no yeman, nor none other perſon vnder the ſame degree, from ẏ ſaid feaſt of ſaint Peter called ad vincula which ſhall be in the yeere of our lord M.CCCC.lxv. ſhall vſe nor weare in arraie for his bodie anie bolſters nor ſtuffing of woll coton nor cadas, nor other ſtuffing in his doblet, but onelie lining according to the ſame, vpon paine to forfaite to the kinges vſe for euerie ſuch defaulte vi.s. viii.d. Alſo our ſayde ſouereigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaide, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no knight vnder the eſtate of a lorde, eſquier gentelman nor none other perſon, ſhall vſe nor weare from the feaſt of all ſaintes, which ſhall be in the yeere of our lorde M. CCCC. lxv. anie gowne, iacket, or coate, vnleſſe it be of ſuch length that the ſame maie couer his priuie members and buttockes vpon paine to forfeite to the king for euerie defaulte xx.s. Alſo by the aſſent aforeſayde it is ordeined, that no tayler, after the ſaide feaſt, ſhall make to anie perſon anie gowne iaket or coate of leſſe length, or doblet ſtuffed contrarie to the premiſſes, vpon the ſame paine for euerie default. And alſo hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed in the ſayde preſent parliament that no knight vnder the ſtate of a lorde, eſquier gentelman nor other perſon ſhall vſe nor weare, after the ſayde feaſt of ſaint Peter, anie ſhowes or bootes hauing pikes paſſing the length of two inches, vpon paine to forfeite to the king for euerie defaulte three ſhillings fourepence. And if anie ſhomaker make any pikes of ſhowes or bootes after the ſaide feaſt of ſaint Peter, to any of the ſaide perſons, contrary to this ordinance, he ſhall likewiſe forfeite to the king for euerie defaulte iiii.s.iiii.d. Alſo hee hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaide, that no ſeruant of huſbandrie, nor no common laborer nor ſeruant, nor anie artificer dwelling out of a citie or borough, after the ſaide feaſt of all ſaintes, ſhall vſe nor weare in their clothing anie cloth, whereof the broade yarde ſhall paſſe the price of two ſhillinges nor that anie of the ſaide labourers or ſeruauntes ſuffer any of their wiues to weare after the ſame feaſt, anie clothing of higher price then before is limitte to their huſbandes, nor that they ſuffer anie of their ſaide wiues, after the ſame feaſt, to weare anie kouerchieffes, whereof the price of the plite ſhall paſſe twelue pence, nor that none of the ſame ſeruauntes nor labourers, after the ſame feaſt, ſhall weare anie cloſe hoſen, whereof the paire ſhall paſſe in price fourteene pence, nor that the ſame ſeruauntes nor labourers, nor none of their wiues, from the ſaide feaſt, ſhall weare anie girdell garniſhed with ſiluer, vpon paine to forfeite for euerie defaulte to the king iii.s.iiii.d. And becauſe that kouerchiefes dailie brought into this realme do induce great charge and coſt in the ſame, and in effect in waſte, our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, by the auctoritie aforeſaide, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no perſon, after the feaſt of ſaint Michael tharchaungell, which ſhall be in the yeere of our lorde M.D.lxv. ſhall ſell in anie part within this realme anie laune nieſies vmple or anie other maner kouerchieffes, whereof the plite ſhall exceede tenne ſhillings vpon paine to forfet to the king for euerie plite ſolde at an higher price thirteene ſhillings fourepence. Alſo he hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the iuſtices of peace of euerie countie, maiors of cities and boroughes within this realme, ſhall haue auctoritie and power to enquire heare and determine all and euerie of the ſaide defaultes and forfeitures, as well by enquirie as by due examination of euerie of the ſaide offenders contrarie to this ordinaunce. And the matters and cauſes concerning the ſaide offences and forfeitures to determine by like proceſſe and in like maner and forme before atteindre in this behalfe as is commonlie vſed by them of a treſpaſſe done with force and armes againſt the kinges peace, and after the atteindre like execution. And if anie matter, touching anie of the ſaide offenſes, be remoued of anie of the ſaide iuſtices of peace or maiors before the king, that then the iuſtices aſſigned for plees before the king to be holden, ſhall haue power to awarde ſuch proceſſe and execution in this behalfe as before in limit. Alſo he hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all the ſaide forfeitures and euerie of them, ſhall be leuied, applied and emploied to the vſe and expenſes of the kinges houſe. Prouided alwaies that this ſtatute of arraie be in no wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie perſon, of and for wearing of anie ornament, veſture or apparell in doing of diuine ſeruice and attending to the ſame. Nor that this ordinance extende to the iuſtices of anie benche of our ſouereigne lorde the king, maſter or warden of the Rolles, maſters of the kinges Chauncerie, barons of the kinges eſchequer, nor Chaunceller of the ſame, which nowe be, or hereafter ſhall bee, nor to anie of them. Prouided alſo that the ſcholers of the vniuerſities of this realme and ſcholers of anie vniuerſitie out of this realme maie weare ſuch arraie as they maie weare by the rule of the ſaide vniuerſities, notwithſtanding this ordinaunce. Prouided alſo that henchemen, haroldes, purciuantes, ſwordbearers to maiors, meſſengers, and minſtrels, nor none of them, nor plaiers in their enterludes ſhall not be compriſed within this ſtatute. Nor no perſons as for wearing of anie purſes, broches or crownes for cappes of children ſhall be compriſed within the ſame. Prouided alſo that this ordinance do in no wiſe extende to anie maner of arraie neceſſarilie to be worne in warre, or in the feates of the ſame.

Here followeth the Statute made at Weſtminſter in the iiii. yeere of the reigne of king Edward the fourth.

OUr ſouereigne lorde king Edwarde the iiii, after the conqueſt, at his parliament ſommoned at Weſtminſter the xxix. daie of Aprill, in the thirde yeere of his reigne, and by diuers prorogations & adiournamentes continued till the xxi. day of Ianuarie, in the fourth yeere of his ſaide reigne, on the ſame xxi. daie of Ianuarie, to the reuerence of God, and for the wealth of him and his people, by the aduiſe of his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpecial requeſt of his commons being in the ſaide parliament, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed certeine ſtatutes and ordinances in maner and forme following.

Chap. 1.

Clothes marking.

FIrſt where as manie yeeres paſt and nowe at this date, the workmanſhip of clothes and thinges requiſite to the ſame, is & hath bene of ſuch fraud diſceite & faulſitie, that ỹ ſaid clothes in other landes and countries, is had in ſmall reputation, to the great ſhame of this lande. And by reaſon thereof a great quantitie of clothes of other ſtraunge lands be brought in to this realme, and here ſolde at an high and exceſſiue price, euidentlie ſhewing the offence defaulte and falſitie of the making of wollen clothes of this lande. Our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, for the remedie of the premiſſes, and to the preferment of ſuch labours and occupations, which hath bene vſed by the making of the ſaide clothes, by the aduiſe aſſent and requeſt and auctoritie aforeſaide, hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that euerie whole wollen cloth called, brodcloth, which ſhall be made and ſet to ſale after the feaſt of ſaint Peter called ad vincula, which ſhall be in the yeere of our lorde M.CCCC.lxv. after the full watering and racking, ſtraining or tenturing of the ſame ready to ſale, ſhal hold and conteine in length xxiiii. yardes, and to euery yarde an inch, conteining the breadth of a mans inch, to be meaſured by the creaſt of the ſame cloth. And in breadth two yardes or ſeuen quarters at the leaſt within the liſtes. And if the cloth bee longer in meaſure then xxiiii. yardes and the inches, then the buier thereof ſhall paie to the ſeller for as much as doeth exceede ſuch meaſure of xxiiii. yardes, after the rate of the meaſure aboue ordeined. Alſo it is ordeined and eſtabliſhed by auctoritie of the ſaide lordes, that all maner clothes called ſtreites, to be made and put to ſale after the ſame feaſt, after the full watering and racking, ſtreining or tenturing thereof readie to ſale, ſhall holde and conteine in length, twelue yardes and the inches, after the meaſure aforeſaide, and in breadth one yarde within the liſtes. And it is ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the auctoritie aforeſayde, that euerie cloth called kerſeie, to be made and put to ſale after the ſaide feaſt, after the full watering, and racking, ſtraining or tenturing of the ſame readie to ſale, ſhall holde and conteine in length eighteene yardes and the inches, as is aforeſaide, and in breadth one yarde and a naile, or at the leaſt one yarde within the liſtes. And alſo it is ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that euerie halfe cloth of euerie of the ſayde whole clothes, ſtreytes, and kerſeies, ſhall keepe his meaſure in length and breadth after the rate forme and nature of his whole cloth aforeſaide. And that no perſon, which ſhall make or cauſe to be made anie maner wollen cloth to ſell after the ſayde feaſt ſhall meddle or put in or vpon the ſame cloth, nor the woll, whereof the ſayde cloth ſhall be made, anie lambes woll, flockes or corke in anie maner, vpon paine to forfaite twentie ſhillings for euerie cloth or halfe cloth, wherein or whervpon anie ſuch lambes woll, flockes or corke ſhall be put or meddled. The one halfe thereof to bee to the king, & the other halfe to him that ſhall ſeiſe the ſame cloth, & duelie proue the ſame to be made contrarie to this ordinance, except that he ſhall choſe to make of lambes woll by it ſelfe without mingling with anie other woll. Except alſo that corke maie be vſed in dieng vpon woded woll, and alſo in dieng of all ſuch cloth, that is onely made of woded woll, ſo that the ſame woll and cloth bee perfectlie boyled and madered. Except alſo that corke may bee put vppon cloth, which is perfectlie boyled and madered. Alſo it is ordeined and enacted, that euerie of the ſayde clothes and dim.clothes ſhall perfectlie and rightfullie purſue and followe one order of workmanſhippe, from one ende to the other, without difference in the weauing fulling knotting or burling. And in caſe anie ſuch difference or rawe or ſkawe cokell or ſagge happen to be in anie part of the ſayde clothes ſtreites or kerſeies, that then a ſeale of lead therefore ordeined, and by the treaſurer of Englande for the time being prouided, ſhall be ſet and hanged in the loweſt parte of the edge of the ſame cloth ſtreite or kerſeie, for perfite knowledge to be had to the buier thereof. And that euerie of the ſayde clothes ſtreit and kerſeie, of the length and breadth aforeſayde, and alſo of the ſayde perfection, ſhall bee from the feaſt of ſaint Peter ad vincula, ſealed at the ende of the ſame with a double print in leade, deuiſed and ordeined by the ſayde treaſurer, in recorde and witneſſe of the aforeſayde true length breadth and making. And if anie of the aforeſayde clothes ſtreites and kerſeies, doe not conteine the aforeſayde length and breadth, or be not of the perfite workemanſhip aforeſayde, and the two partes of the ſame clothes ſtreites or kerſeies be of the true and perfite workmanſhip aforeſaide, keeping their ſayde length and breadth, that then euerie ſuch cloth ſtreit and kerſeie ſhall be ſealed with the ſayde ſeales in the forme aforeſayd. And that euerie halfe cloth & conteining greater length then the halfe cloth, and leſſe length then the whole cloth, of the ſortes of the clothes aforeſayde, being of the ſaide perfite workmanſhip and breadth, ſhall be ſealed with a ſeale printed in lead, hauing a marke differing from both the ſeales aforeſayde, in record and witnes of the true length breadth and making of the halfe cloth. And if anie wollen cloth of anie ſortes of the clothes before recited, perfitlie made, and hauing breadth after their ſort before limit, conteining three yardes and dim. or more, leſſe then the halfe cloth, bee put to ſale after the ſayde feaſt, the ſame cloth ſhall bee ſealed with a ſeale printed in lead, hauing a marke differing from anie of the ſayde ſeales, for a knowledge to be had of the defaulte of the halfe cloth, the ſayde ſeales to be deuiſed and ordeined by the ſaide treaſurer, and to be put at the ende of euerie of the halfe clothes, and clothes leſſe then halfe clothes. Alſo by the aduiſe aſſent and auctoritie aforeſayde, it is ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that the treaſurer of Englande for the time being, ſhall haue power and auctoritie to make ſuch and as manie keepers of the ſaide ſeales as he ſhall thinke neceſſarie. So that no ſtranger borne be made anie of the ſaide keepers. And that euerie of the ſaide keepers ſo to be made, ſhall accompt yeerely of the reuenewes of their ſaide offices in the ſayde eſchequer before the treaſurer of England, and the barons there for the time being, duelie ſhewing in the ſame accomptes, the number of all the clothes, halfe clothes, ſtreites and kerſeies ſealed by them, with the names of the owners of the ſame. Euerie of the ſame keepers to be rewarded yeerlie at his ſaide accompt for his labour and diligence had in this behalfe at the receipt of the ſaide eſchequer, by the diſcretion of the ſaide treaſurer and barons, without paiment of anie thing in the ſaide eſchequer, in or for the making of his ſaide accompt. And in caſe anie of the ſaide keepers do ſeale anie of the aforeſaide clothes with anie other ſeale, or anie of the ſame clothes otherwiſe made then after the maner and ordinance aboue eſpecified, and that by ſufficient proue and examination ſhewed and approued before the ſaid treaſurer and barons, by the ſaide depoſition teſtimonie and recorde of ſuch ſufficient perſons, of good and due reputation, which haue had prompt experience in weauing fulſing and making of clothes, or if the ſame keeper doe refuſe to ſeale anie of the ſaide clothes made according to the ſaide maner and ordinaunce, or if anie ſuch keeper or aulnegour do take after the ſayd feaſt for the king of anie perſon for the ſealing or meaſuring of anie maner cloth anie other ſumme of monie then is conteined in the ſtatutes and ordinaunces made before this time and not repealed, or if anie ſuch keeper or aulnegour, after the ſaide feaſt, doe refuſe to ſhewe his commiſſion of his office to anie perſon deſiring the ſame vpon the ſealing or meaſuring of anie ſuch clothes before rehearſed, and that examined and duelie proued, that then he, as often as hee ſhall offende in anie of the premiſſes, ſhall forfeite the ſumme of twentie ſhillinges. The one halfe thereof to the king, and the other halfe to the partie proouing the ſaide offences therein by ſuite to bee made before the ſaide treaſurer and barons, by bill of debt in the ſaide eſchequer, in which bill like iudgement and execution ſhall be had, as is accuſtomablie had and vſed againſt other accomptauntes in the ſame eſchequer. And that theſe ſtatutes and ordinances, and other ſtatutes and ordinances made before this time and not repealed, concerning anie of the premiſſes: ſhall be conteined and eſpecified in euerie commiſſion to bee made to euerie ſuch keeper or aulnegour after the ſayde feaſt. Alſo where as before this time in the occupations of cloth making, the labourers thereof haue bene driuen to take a great part of their wages in pinnes girdels & other vnprofitable marchandiſes, diſes , vnder ſuch price that it did not extende to . And alſo haue deliuered to them wolles to be wrought by verie exceſſiue weight, whereby both men and women haue béene diſcouraged of ſuch labour. Therefore it is ordeined and eſtabliſhed, by the authoritie aforeſaide , that euery man and woman being clothmakers, from the feaſt of ſeint Peter, ſhall pay to the carders, ſpinſters and all ſuch other labourers of anie member thereof, lawfull money for all their lawful wages and payment of the ſame . And alſo to deliuer wolles to bee wrought according to the faithfull deliuery and due weight, vpon paine of forfeiture to the ſame labourer the treble of his ſaide wages ſo not payde as often as the ſaide clothmaker doeth refuſe to pay the ſame in the ſaid maner and forme to anie ſuch labourer , put by him to the occupation in anie of the ſaide members of clothmaking . And alſo to forfeit to the ſame labourer for euery deliuerie of exceſſiue and vnlawfull weight to him deliuered to be wrought vi . d. for euery default . Alſo it is ordeined and eſtabliſhed by thauthoritie aforeſaide, that euery carder, ſpinſter, weiuer, fuller, ſhereman, and dyer ſhall duely do his labour in his occupation, vpon peine to yéelde to the partie gréeued in this behalfe his double dammages . And that euery fuller, from the ſaide feaſt of ſeint Peter , in his craft and occupation of fulling, rowing or taſeling of cloth, ſhall exerciſe taſels and no cardes, diſceitfully empairing the ſame cloth, vpon paine to yelde to the partie grieued his double dammages. And that euery Iuſtice of peace for the time being, of euerie countie of this realme throughout the ſame countie, out of cities, boroughes and townes where anie Maior, maiſter, warden, bailife or bailifes is or be, and euerie Maior, where there is no maiſter, and euerie maiſter, where there is no Maior, and euerie bailife or bailifes, where there is no Maior nor maiſter , and euery portreue, where no Maior, maiſter, bailife nor bailifes is or be, of euerie citie, borough and towne within euerie ſuch countie aforeſaid, and euerie conſtable of hundred, where anie conſtable of hundred is, out of euerie citie, borough and towne, where anie Maior, maiſter, bailife or bailifes , or portreues is to be, And that euerie ſteward keping or holding wapentake or lete of anie perſon , out of citie, borough or towne where no Maior, maiſter, bailife or bailifes , or portreues is or be, ſhall haue power and authoritie by this ordinance, to heare ⁊ determine the complaints of euery ſuch clothmaker and labourer, as well for non paiment of the ſaid labourers wages, as of the ſaid forfeiture and dammages, by due examination of the parties in this behalfe, thereupon for nonpayment of the ſaid dueties and forfeiture, and for the ſaide dammages, to commit the ſaid offenders in this behalfe to the next gayle within the ſame countie , there to remaine till the ſaide dueties forfeitures and dammages be duely paide to the ſaide labourer or clothmaker. And alſo that euery of the ſaid Iuſtices of peace, Maior, maiſter, warden, bailife or bailifes, portreue, and ſtewarde of wapentake and léete, vpon the information or complaint of anie other perſon, which is not greued in this behalfe, ſhall haue power by the ſaid authoritie within his iuriſdiction, to cauſe the partie to come before him, againſt whome ſuch information or complaint ſhall be made, for offending this ordinance, and to examine them in and vpon the matter conteined in the ſame information or complaint. And if the partie by examination or other due proofe be founde guyltie or defectiue, that then the ſame partie, as often and for euery time that he is ſo found guiltie or defectiue, ſhall forfeit to yͤ king or to ſuch perſon or perſons, which is or be intituled to haue fines or amercements for offences done within their iuriſdiction, thrée ſhillings and foure pence . And that euery of the ſaide Iuſtices of peace, and other officers aforeſaid, within his iuriſdiction, vpon euerie of the ſaid informations or complaintes ſhall haue full power to make like proces againſt the partie , vpon whom anie ſuch information or complaint, as before is rehearſed, ſhall be made, to cauſe him perſonally to appeare before him, thereupon to be examined , as Iuſtices of peace haue vpon information or complaint made to them for ſuretie of peace , without anie fée or rewarde to be taken or had by anie of the ſaid Iuſtices or anie other officer in this partie , for the execution of their offices in this behalfe. Alſo it is ordeined and eſtabliſhed, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all maner of wollen clothes made in anie other region, brought into this realme of England, and ſet to ſale within anie péece of this realme of England after the ſaide feaſt of ſeint Peter ſhall be forfeite to our ſoueraigne lorde the king, except clothes made in Wales and Irelande, and clothes taken by anie of the kings liege people vpon the ſea without fraude or colluſion . And by the authoritie aforeſaid it is ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that anie other act or ordinance made in this preſent parliament concerning clothmaking, or anie of the premiſſes , contrarie or not according to this act, ſhall be voide and of none effect.

Chap. 2.

Staple of Caleys.

Item where as the kings noble progenitors, by great deliberation and aduiſe, by diuers actes of parliament in times paſt, did ordeine and ſtabliſh a Staple to be at Caleys, to the intent that al the wolles and wolfelles , and other marchandiſes of this realme, called marchandiſes of the ſtaple, which ſhould be ſhipped to paſſe out of this realme, ſhould be carried to the ſaide ſtaple , and to none other place. And in the time that it was ſo vſed, Caleys was in great ſuretie, and this land, as to the commodities of the ſame, in great proſperitie. till nowe late that by ſtrange and ſiniſter meanes, manie and diuers licences of wolles and wolfelles hath béen graunted and executed, as wel in the kings name as other wiſe. And hath paſſed into the parties beyond the ſea, to other places than to the ſaide ſtaple, and ſold to the ſame perſons, which were accuſtomed to come to the ſaid ſtaple to buy wolles ⁊ wolfelles. And alſo diuers perſons haue much vſed to ſhip wolles ⁊ wolfells out of this realme, ſome priuily by night, and ſome openly by force , without paying therefore to the king anie cuſtome or ſubſidie , and carrie the ſame to other places than to the ſaide ſtaple, Marchandiſe of the ſtaple.

and ſold them to ſuch perſons as were accuſtomed to buy wolles and wolfelles at the ſaide ſtaple, by which vndue meanes, great dammage and inconueniencie hath growen to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king and this his realme and to the ſafegarde of the ſaid towne and marches of the ſame. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduiſe, aſſent, requeſt and authoritie aforeſaid, doth graunt, ordeine and eſtabliſh, that wolles and wolfells, morling and ſhorling, that ſhall be ſhipped to paſſe out of this realme, after the feaſt of Eaſter, which ſhall be in the yeere of our lord M. CCCC. lxv. ſhall be ſhipped at the townes of ſuch portes wherein the king hath his beame, his weightes and collectors of cuſtome to ſerue and deliuer the marchants, that is to ſaie, at the towne of Pole, Southampton, Chyceſter, Sandwich, London, Ipſwich, Boſton, Hull, Lynne, and in none other place creeke or port, the wolles and wolfelles to be ſhipped in galeys and carrakes, and in none other veſſel, to paſſe out of this realme by the ſtreytes of Marroke forpriſed and except.

Shipping of wolles.

And that by the ſame authoritie euery perſon, that ſo ſhall ſhip or cauſe to be ſhipped out of this realme anie wolles wolfelles, morling or ſhorling, after the ſaid feaſt, vpon the ſhipping of them, and before that they paſſe out of any of the ſaid townes, where they ſhall be ſhipped, ſhall finde ſufficient ſuretie to the king and to the collectors of his cuſtome there for the time being, that the ſame wolles wolfelles, ſhorling and morling ſhall paſſe to Caleys, and to none other place, without fraude or colluſion. And alſo by the ſame authoritie it is ordeined, that euery perſon, which ſo ſhall ſhippe wolles wolfelles, ſhorling and morling to Caleys, ſhall bring within twelue monethes next following ſuch ſhipping into the kinges eſcheker, there to be entred of recorde, a Certificat of him, which is or for the time ſhall be called the kings cuſtomer at the porte there, teſtifying the comming of all ſuch ſhips with wolles, wolfells, morling and ſhorling to Caleys.

Cuſtomer.

Alſo it is ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaide, that if the ſame Cuſtomer at the porte do not deliuer to the marchant, bringing ſuch wolles wolfelles, morling and ſhorling to Caleys, a due Certificat, after the forme of this act, within viii. daies after due requeſt of him thereof made, he ſhall forfeit to the owner of the ſaide wolles wolfells, ſhorling and morling, at any time that he ſhall refuſe to make and deliuer ſuch Certificat C.li. And if he which ſo ſhall ſhippe wolles, wolfelles, ſhorling or morling, to be had to Caleys, do not bring into the kinges eſcheker the Certificat, as aboue is recited, and there offer the ſame in open court before the treaſurer and barons of the ſame eſcheker, for the time being, to be entred of recorde within the ſaide twelue monethes, or if anie perſon do contrarie to the ſaide ordinance, he ſhall forfeit all ſuch wolles, wolfelles, morling and ſhorling ſo ſhipped contrarie to the ſaide ordinance, whereof he bringeth not a Certificat, as before is recyted, or the value thereof. The one halfe to be employed to the expenſes of the kings houſe, and the other halfe to ſuch perſon as ſhall ſue for the ſame in this behalfe, being Maior of the kings ſtaple at Caleys at the ſame time of ſuch ſuite commenced. And that he in this caſe may ſue an action of Det of ſuch wolles, wolfelles, ſhorling or morling ſo forfeit, or of the value thereof at his election againſt ſuch perſon or perſons, which ſhall do contrarie to this ordinance. The ſaide action to be taken, and euerie iſſue therein ioyned; to be tried in the countie where ſuch wolles, wolfelles, ſhorling and morling ſhall be ſhipped: except that if any iſſue be taken in the ſaid action vpon the offer of the Certificat, that then it ſhal be tried in the countie where the ſaide court of eſcheker for the time ſhall be. And that the ſame proceſſe be and lye in ſuch action as is and lyeth in an action of Det at the common lawe, and that no protection nor eſſoyne lye or be allowed or adiudged for the defendant in ſuch action. And though the pleintife in ſuch action be diſcharged of his ſaid office of Maior, hanging the ſame action, he ſhall maintaine and purſue the ſaid ſuite, notwithſtanding the ſame diſcharge.

Wolles wolfels.

Prouided alwayes that if anie wolles, wolfelles, morling or ſhorling, to be ſhipped in the forme aforeſaide, be taken with enimies vpon the ſea, or elſe there periſhed or loſt by miſfortune, and ſuch taking periſhing or loſſe be found and proued before the treaſurer and the barons of the king for the time being, by examination of the perſons or perſon, which ſo ſhould ſhip ſuch wolles, wolfelles, ſhorling or morling, or their executors, or two credible perſons ſworne, or other reaſonable witneſſes and proues, teſtifying the ſame wolles, wolfelles, ſhorling or morling ſo taken loſt or periſhed: that no perſon for anie ſuch wolfelles, ſhorling or morling, ſo taken, loſt or periſhed, ſhall be greeued or otherwiſe preiudiced by this act.

Newcaſtel

Prouided alſo that the wolles, wolfelles, ſhorling or morling, onely of the growing betwixt the waters of Teeſe and Twede, Northumberlande, Cumberlande. Weſtmerlande, the biſhoprike of Durham, Richmondſhire, and Northalderton ſhire, may be ſhipped in the port of Newcaſtel vppon Tyne, to paſſe at their libertie, this act notwithſtanding.

Cap. 3.

Shipping of wolles at Newcaſtel.

Item becauſe it is preceiued and certeinly knowen, that diuers perſons for themſelfe their factors and ſeruants do buy and gather wolles and wolfelles, as wel ſhorling as morling, of the growing of the counties of Yorke, Lincolne, and Notingham, and carrieth the ſame to the porte and towne of Newcaſtel, and there the ſame wolles and wolfelles, as wolles and wolfelles of the growing of the countrey beyond the waters of Teeſe and Twede, and of anie of the ſaide counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, Weſtmerland, Richmondſhire, Northalderton ſhire, and the biſhopricke of Durham, and by colour thereof doth ſhip and cauſe to be ſhipped and carried into places beyond the ſea, other than to the ſtaple of Caleys, whereby our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king is greatly deceiued of his cuſtome and ſubſidie, againſt the ſtatutes in ſuch caſes prouided, to the great dammage of the king and of this his realme, and of his ſubiectes of the ſame: Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the ſaid lordes and commons, and by the ſaide authoritie, will and ordeineth, that no perſon ſhall ſhip or cauſe to be ſhipped, at the ſaide porte and towne anie wolles or wolfelles, morling or ſhorling, of the growing of anie countie or countrey, other than of the growing of the countrey beyond the ſaid waters, or of any of the ſaid counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, Weſtmerland, Richmondſhire, Northalderton ſhire, or of the ſaide biſhoprike of Durham. And if anie perſon ſhip or cauſe to be ſhipped, at the ſaide towne or port, anie wolles, wolfelles, ſhorling or morling, of the growing of anie countie or countrey, other than the ſaide countreys, betwixt the ſame waters, or of the ſaide counties of Northumberland, Comberland, Weſtmerland, Richmondſhire, Northalderton ſhire, or of the ſaid biſhopricke of Durham, to be carried into anie place beyond the ſea, other than to the ſaid ſtaple of Caleys, ſhall forfeit the double value of the ſame wolles and wolfelles ſo ſhipped, & not growen betwixt the ſaid waters, nor in none of the ſaide counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, Weſtmerland, Rychemondſhire, Northalderton ſhire, or in the ſaid biſhopricke of Durham: Whereof our ſoueraigne lord the king ſhall haue the one halfe, and he that will ſue in this partie the other halfe: and that aſwell the king, as he that will ſue for the ſame in this behalfe, ſhal haue his recouerie by an action of Det. The ſaid action to be taken, and euery iſſue therein ioyned, to be tryed in the ſaide countie of Yorke, and not in the ſaide towne, nor in none of the ſaide counties of Northumberland, Comberland, Weſtmerland, Richmondſhire, Northaldertonſhire, or in the ſaid biſhopricke. And like proces to be had in the ſame action, as is commonly vſed in an action of Det. And that the defendant in this caſe haue no auantage by anie eſſoine or protection, nor be admitted to wage his lawe.

Staple of Caleys.

Chap. 4. Wolles bought vnſhorne.

Item whereas by ſubtile bargaines made in buying of wolles, before that the ſhéepe that beareth the ſame, be ſhorne, the clothmakers of this realme can well nigh finde none to be ſolde, to the great griefe of them, which hath béene accuſtomed to haue their liuing by the meane of making of cloth: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the ſaid lordes, and at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, and by the authoritie aforeſaid, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no perſon by himſelfe or anie other, ſhall buy or bargaine, from the xviii. daie of March, which ſhall be in the yéere of our lorde M.cccc.lxiiii. anie wolles then not ſhorne, or take promiſe of bargaine of anie wolles, then not ſhorne, of the growing of Berkeſhire, Oxfordſhire, Glouceſterſhire, Shropſhire, Herfordſhire, Worceſterſhire, Wiltſhire, Somerſetſhire, Dorſetſhire, Hamſhire, Eſſex, Cambridgeſhire, Norfolke, Suffolk, Kent, Surrey, and Suſſex, or of anie of the ſame, till the feaſt of S. Bartholomew then next enſuing, or buy anie wolles, or take anie promiſe of bargaine of wolles, which ſhall growe in anie of the ſame counties, the yéere then next enſuing the ſaid feaſt, before the ſame feaſt then next following, or in like maner buy anie wolles, or take promiſe of bargaine of anie wolles, which ſhall grow in anie of the ſaide counties the yéere then next enſuing the ſame feaſt, till the ſame feaſt then next following, which feaſt ſhall be in yͤ yéere of our lord M.cccc.lxvii. but only ſuch perſons, which of the ſaid wolles ſhall make or do to be made yarne or cloth within this realme, vpon peine of forfeiture of the double value of all the wolles bought or to be bought, bargained or taken by promiſe of bargaine againſt this ordinance: The one half to be had to the kings vſe, and the other halfe to the vſe of him that will ſue in this behalf. And that euerie perſon that will ſue in this behalfe, ſhall haue an action of Det of the ſame forfeiture, and like proces in the ſame action as is had in an action of Det. And that no eſſoine nor protection, wager of lawe be allowed for the defendant in this action.

Cap. 5. Duke of Burgoine. Wollen clothes & yarne.

Item for as much as a certeine declaration and ordinance, in forme of a ſtatute, euermore to endure and neuer to be repealed, and proclamations of the ſame were late made by the duke of Burgoyne in the parties of Brabant, Holland, Zeland, and other ſeigniories, that from that time foorth all manner wollen clothes and wollen yarne made and wrought in the realme of England ſhould be baniſhed out of the lands of the ſaide duke, that is to ſaie, Burgoyne, Lotryke, Brabant, and Luneburgh, Flaunders, Artoys, Henawed, Holland, Zeland, Namuer, the markſhip of the holy empier, Fryſeland, Malynes, the landes beyond the riuer of the Maſe: And generally out of all his other lands and ſeignories, ſo that after the ſaide proclamation no ſuch cloth or yarne ſhoulde be bought, ſolde or diſtributed there. And if after the ſame time anie ſuch cloth or yarne ſhould be there founde, that the ſame ſhould be brent, as a thing baniſhed, with certeine other ſtreite puniſhments eſpecified in the ſame proclamations and ordinances: Whereby, by all likelyhod, the makers of wollen clothes within this realme of England, as weyuers, fullers, dyers, ſpinners, carders, and wynders of yarne, and other perſons exerciſing the ſaide clothmaking, and alſo the buyers and ſellers of the ſame, ſhould be deſtitute of occupations, and become ſo ydell, that it ſhould prouoke them to ſinne and euill life, which God defend. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king, the premiſſes conſidered, hath by the aduiſe, aſſent requeſt and authoritie aforeſaide ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no denizen of this realme, nor no marchant of the liege of Englande, ſhall bring or conuey, nor priuely or apertly do to be brought, carried or conueyed into this realm of England, Wales, or Ireland, anie manner marchandiſes or goods of the growing workemanſhip or making of the lands and parties of Burgoyne, Lotryke, Brabant, Leneburgh, Flanders, Artoys, Henawd, Holland, Zeland, Namuer, the markſhip of the holy empier, Fryſeland, Malynes, the lands beyond the ryuer of the Maſe, or of anie lands or ſeignories, which the ſaide duke doth holde or occupie, or anie of them: Nor that anie ſuch denizen or marchant ſtranger ſell or vtter in anie part of this realm Wales or Ireland, from yͤ ſaid feaſt, any ſuch marchandiſes or goods other than ſuch which haue béene bought before the ſaid feaſt in anie of the ſaide parties, except all manner vitailes. And alſo except goods and marchandiſes taken by any of the kings liege people vpon the ſea without fraude, couine or male engyne, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaide goods and marchandiſes ſo brought or ſo ſolde, and bought after the ſaide feaſt, that is to ſaye, the one halfe thereof to the king, and the other halfe to him that firſt ſhall ſeaſe the ſame goods and marchaundiſes, in whoſe handes ſo euer they may be founde, till the time that due continuall reformation be had and made by the ſaide duke of the ſaide declaration and ordinance of baniſhing, in ſuch wiſe that all manner wollen cloth & wollen yarne made, or to be made within the realme of Englande, Wales and Ireland, may come to be brought and accepted in the aforeſaide parties of Burgoyne, Lotryke, Brabant, Luneburgh, Artoys, Henawed, Hollande, Zeland, Namur, the markeſhip of the holy empiere, Fryſeland, Malynes, the lands beyond the water of the Maſe, and all other landes and ſeignories of the ſaide duke and in euery of them, there to be vttered, ſold and expended, vſed worne and diſtributed, at the election of the owner of the ſame or his factour in this behalfe, there without impechement of the ſaide duke or anie other his officer in anie of the ſaide landes and parties, to be carried and conueyed to anie other partie, at the election of the ſaid owner or his factour, as fréely as they were brought carried or conueyed before the ſaid proclamation of the ſaide declaration and ordinance made by the ſaid duke.

Marchants ſtrangers.

And alſo he hath ordeined by the ſaid authoritie, that all manner marchants ſtrangers, hauing any ſuch manner marchandiſes or goods of the ſaide growing, workmanſhip or making, being ſhipped in any veſſel in anie part of this realme of England, Wales, or Ireland, and not put to land, or if any ſuch marchandiſes or goods be put to land in anie part of the ſaid realme of England after the ſaide feaſt, that all ſuch marchandiſes and goods be vtterly voided out of this realme of Englande, Wales and Ireland within xl. daies next after proclamation made vpon this ordinance within the citie of London, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſaid goods and marchandiſes: the one halfe thereof to the king, and the other halfe to him that ſhall firſt ſeaſe any ſuch goods or marchandiſes. And that open proclamation of this ordinance be made before the xviii. daie of March, which ſhall be in the ſaid yeere of our lorde M.cccc.lxiiii. within the citie of London, and other neceſſarie places and conuenient. And if it happen anie ſuite or action to be taken and ſued by the occaſion of anie ſuch ſeiſin, wherein anie iſſue concerning this ordinance ſhall be taken: that the ſaide iſſue be triable & tried in the countie & of yͤ venue, where yͤ ſaid ſeiſin ſhal be had, & in none other place. And becauſe it is greatly doubted, that during the ſaid reſtreint of the ſaid goods and marchandiſes made and growen in the aforeſaide lands of the ſaid Duke of Burgoyne, being in this realme, or to be brought into the ſame, and within the ſame to be put to ſale, by the ſellers of them ſhould be exalted & put at an exceſſiue price, which ſhould turne to the great dammage of the people of this realme:

Maior.

It is therefore ordeined by the ſaid authoritie, that during the ſaid reſtreint euery Maior, bailife and other chiefe gouernor of euery citie, borough & towne, and the gouernors of euery faire & market out of citie, borough & towne within this realme, vpon complaint to be made to anie of them by anie of the kings liege people of ſuch enhaunſing & putting of exceſſiue price, ſhall haue power & authoritie within their iuriſdiction, by due ſerch examination and profe had in this behalfe, to make ſuch direction & reformation, as by the aduiſe of ii. diſcrete men of euery ſuch citie, borough or towne, thereto to be appointed by euery Maior, bailife, or other chiefe gouernour aforeſaide, after their conſcience and diſcretions, in ſatiſfaction & reaſonable amends of the partie ſo complaining, ſhall ſeeme reaſonable. And this ordinance to endure at the kings pleaſure.

Guilhalda Teutonicorum.

Prouided alwayes that this act, nor none other act ſtatute nor ordinance, made or to be made in this preſent parliament, ſhall doe no dammage, preiudice nor derogation to the marchants of Almayn, hauing the houſe commonly called Guilhalda Teutonicorum in the citie of London, which marchantes nowe be within this realme of England, or in anie parties vnder the kings obeyſance, or which hereafter ſhal be or repaire into the ſame, of or in anie franchiſes, fréedomes, liberties, immunities or anie other thing graunted by the kings progenitors by their letters patentes to marchants of Almayn, hauing the ſaide houſe commonly called Guilhalda Teutonicorum in the ſaide citie of London, nor of anie grauntes or confirmations in anie wiſe made by our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king by his ſeuerall letters patentes to marchants of Almayne, hauing the ſaide houſe commonly called Guilhalda Teutonicorum in the ſaide citie of London, by whatſoeuer names they be called or named. And that all the ſaide letters patentes be in all ſuch force effect and ſtrength, and auailable to the marchants hauing the ſaide houſe called Guilhalda Teutonicorum in the ſaide citie of London, as they were before the making of this act. This act or any other act ſtatute or ordinance made or to be made in this preſent parliament, notwithſtanding.

Cap. 6.

Cuſtomers and controllers.

Marchants Strangers

Item our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king remembring that where by the ſtatute made in the parliament holden in the v. yeere of Henry the iiii. late in deede & not of right king of Englande, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed by authoritie of the ſame parliament amongeſt other things, that all the cuſtomers and controllers in all portes of this realme, ſhould take ſufficient ſuretie for all manner marchandiſes brought by marchants aliens and ſtrangers, comming and repairing to the ſaid ports, to the intent that the money taken for the ſaide marchandiſes ſhould be employed vpon the commodities of this realme, ſauing their reaſonable coſts, as in the ſame ſtatute is conteined more at the full. And that becauſe the ſaid marchants ſtrangers haue not knowledge of the ſufficient perſons within this realm, which ſhall be bound for them, ſo that they cannot often times find to the intent aforeſaid ſuch ſuretie: And alſo becauſe that the ſaide cuſtomers and controllers haue no maner power nor auctoritie after the imploiment performed and made, to rebaile ẏ ſaid ſureties to the marchants: Wherefore the ſaid marchants would rather depart, & hereafter not to repaire into this realme with anie marchandiſes, than to find anie ſuch ſureties, in diminution of the kings cuſtomes and ſubſidies in his ſaid ports, vnleſſe due remedie be therefore prouided: The king, by the aſſent of the ſaid lords and commons, and by the auctoritie aforeſaid, hath ordained & ſtabliſhed, that at all times from henſeforth the cuſtomers and controllers for the time being, ſhal take ſuretie by their diſcretion of the ſaid marchants alone, or of them and other for the ſaide imploiment to be had. And that the ſaid cuſtomers and controllers in euerie port of this realme, at all times hereafter, after ẏ imploiment had by the ſaid marchants, may deliuer to the ſaid marchants all ſuch ſureties, which they did take of them or of anie of them for ẏ ſaid imploiment. And that of and for the ſame they and euerie of them be diſcharged againſt the king. This ſtatute to indure till the next parliament. Suretie.

Chap. 7.

Item our ſoueraigne lord the king, by ẏ aduiſe of his lords ſpirituall & temporall, and at the praier of the ſaid commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no perſon cordwainer or cobler within the citie of London, or within thrée miles of anie part of the ſame citie, be he within franchiſe or without, do to be made after the feaſt of Eaſter, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord 1465. anie ſhoes galoches or huſeaus with anie pike or poleyn, that ſhall paſſe the length of two inches, which ſhalbe iudged by the wardens or gouernours of the ſame miſterie within ẏ ſaid citie, and thrée miles of euerie part of the ſame, or vpon anie ſonday in ẏ yeare, or in ẏ feaſts of the Natiuitie or aſcenſion of our Lord, or in ẏ feaſt of Corp. Chriſti, ſhall ſel or command or do to be ſold any ſhoes huſeaus or galoches, or vpon the ſonday, or any of the ſaid feaſts, ſhall ſet or put vpon ẏ féet or legs of any perſon, any ſhoes, huſeaus, or galoches, vpon paine of forfeiture and loſſe of xx. s. ſterling, as often and when any perſon ſhall do the contrarie of this ordinance or anie part of the ſame. Whereof vi. s. viii. d. ſhall be had to the kings vſe, and vi. s. viii. d. to the vſe of the gouernours of the miſterie of cordwainers, and the other vi. s. viii. d. reſidue of the ſaid xx. s. to the vſe of him that ſhall find diſcouer and proue the breaking of this ordinance. And that euerie perſon that will ſue for the ſaid forfeiture, ſhall haue an action of debt by writ or plaint at his election, and ſuch proceſſe and execution in the ſame as is had in an action of debt. And that the defendant in the ſame action be not admitted to wage his lawe. Prouided alwaies that this act, nor none other act ordinance or ſtatute made or to be made in this preſent parliament, ſhall extend to the damage or preiudice, nor in anie wiſe be preiudiciall or hurtfull to the deane for the time being of the kings frée chapell of ſaint Martins le grand of London, or to the ſaid deane and chapiter for the time being of the ſame chapell, nor to any perſon or perſons for ẏ time abiding or dwelling within the ſame chapell, or within any place or places in ſaint Martins lane in London, or within anie other place or places within the precinct ſée or franchiſe of the ſaid deane or the ſaid deane and chapiter, nor to any of the rights priuileges liberties franchiſes immunities or other thing by the king or by any of his progenitors predeceſſors or poſſeſſors of the realme eſtate and crowne of England, to the ſaid deane and chapiter of the ſaid chapell and their ſucceſſors iointly or ſeuerally in any maner granted, or in any maner heretofore perteining. And alſo prouided that the deane of the ſaid chapell, and the deane and chapiter of the ſame chapell, ſhall haue hold and inioy fullie fréelie quietlie & effectuallie all their ſaid rights priuileges franchiſes liberties immunities and euerie other thing to them granted in maner and forme aforeſaid, by whatſoeuer name or names they be named or called ioyntly or ſeuerally in any letters or writings thervpon made, any act ordinance or ſtatute made or to be made, or anie other matter or thing contrarie notwithſtanding.

Chap. 8. Horners. London.

Our ſoueraigne lord the king perceiuing by gréeuous complaint made in this parliament, by men of occupation of horners being infranchiſed in the citie of London, howe that the people of ſtrange lands hath come into this land, and into diuers parties thereof, and hath bought by the hands of their hoſtes and guides the great and chiefe ſtuffe of engliſh hornes vnwrought, of tanners and bochers, and carrie the ſame ouer the ſea, and there imploie the ſame in diuers works, to the great damage of this land, and to the finall preiudice of a great number of men being of the ſame occupation: hath by the aduiſe and aſſent of the ſaid lords, and at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, and by the auctoritie aforeſaid, ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted, that from the feaſt of Eaſter, which ſhalbe in the yéere of our Lord God 1465. no maner ſtranger nor alien, by himſelfe or by any other, ſhall buie anie engliſh hornes vnwrought of any tanners bochers, or of anie other perſons gathered or growing within the ſaid citie, and xxiiii. miles on euerie ſide of the ſaid citie next adioyning. And that no engliſhman nor other perſon ſell any engliſh hornes vnwrought to anie ſtranger or cauſe them to be ſent ouer the ſea, ſo that the ſaid horners will buie the ſaid hornes at like price as they be at the time of the making of this act, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch hornes ſo bought ſold or ſent. And that the wardens of the ſaid miſterie for the time being by the ſaid auctoritie, ſhall haue full power to ſearch all maner ware perteining to their miſterie wrought or to be wrought in all places within the ſaid citie of London, and xxiiii. miles on euerie ſide next adioining to the ſame citie, and within the faires of Stirbridge and Elie in whoſe hands they may be found. And if they by their ſearch finde anie ſuch ware or ſtuffe in anie place within he ſaide citie of London and xxiiii. miles next adioyning to the ſame citie, or within the

the faires of Stirbridge and Elie, in whoſe hands ſoeuer they be ſo ſell, that is defectiue & inſufficient, It ſhall be lawfull to them to take the ſame ware and ſtuffe, and bring it before the maior of the ſaid citie of London, the maior or bailiffes of the foreſaid faires for the time being: And the ſame there being proued defectiue, to be forfeit: The one halfe thereof to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other halfe to the ſaid wardens, to be ordered at their pleaſure. Prouided alwaies that after that men of the ſaid occupation within this land haue taken out and choſen ſuch and as many hornes as ſhalbe néedfull to their occupation: that then it ſhalbe lawfull to them all and euerie of them, and other perſons of this realme of England, to ſell and deliuer all the hornes refuſed, which be not able to be occupied in their miſterie, to anie ſtranger or other perſon, to ſend or carie beyond the ſea or elſwhere, as ſhall pleaſe them.

Cap. 9. Paten makers.

Item the companie of the miſterie of patenmakers of the citie of London piteouſlie complaining, ſheweth in yͤ parliament of the greeuous hurt loſſe and damage, which other perſons in times paſt of the ſame occupation now dead, and they long time haue borne and ſuſtained, & hereafter be likelie to beare and ſuſtaine, by reaſon of a ſtatute made in the time of Henrie the fift late king of England in déede and not of right, by autoritie of this parliament holden in the fourth yeare of his reigne, by which ſtatute it was ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that patenmakers within the realme of England from that time forth, ſhould make no patens nor clogs of timber called Aſpe, vpon paine to paie to the king C.s. for euerie default. And that euerie perſon, which would ſue for the king ſhould haue the one halfe of the peine ſo forfeit: ſo that yͤ fletchers throughout yͤ realme might ſell their ſhafts at more eaſie and reaſonable price than they were wont to ſel, as in the ſaid ſtatute more fullie is contained. And though alſo that the ſaid Aſpe timber be yͤ beſt & lighteſt timber, thereof to make patens and clogs, moſt eaſie for the wearing of all eſtates gentiles and other people, of anie timber that groweth, and before the making of the ſaid ſtatute the ſaid patenmakers were as frée, and at as great libertie to buie all maner of Aſpe timber, & thereof to make patens and clogs, as they were at the ſame time, and at all times hath bene, and yet be, all maner people of the crafts and occupations of turners, carpenters, woodmongers, and colemakers, which doth occupie expend and waſt yearelie in their occupations a great quantitie of all maner timber of Aſpe, aſwell ſuch Aſpe timber as would ſerue to make ſhafts thereof, as that yͭ would not ſerue for the ſame, And no reſtraint is made for them or anie of them to the contrarie, And verie much Aſpe timber there is, which will in no wiſe ſerue yͤ fletchers to make therof ſhafts, which is as ſufficient able and conuenient to be made in patens and clogs, as is yͤ remnant of the ſaid timber to be made in ſhafts: And the ſaid patenmakers durſt not occupie any part of the ſaid timber, nor one nor other, for feare of forfaiture, of the ſaid paine contained in yͤ ſaid ſtatute, which is great damage to the ſaid patenmakers, & none aduantage to the ſaid fletchers, and the common people throughout the realme thereby greatlie diſeaſed: Wherefore our ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, hath ordained that from henſeforth at all times it ſhalbe lawfull to the patenmakers of this realme, to make patens of ſuch timber of Aſpe, that is not apt ſufficient nor conuenient to be made in ſhafts, and that for the common wealth. And that as often as anie patenmaker, after the feaſt of Eaſter, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God, 1465. ſhall make anie patents or clogs of ſuch part of Aſpe timber, that ſhalbe able and ſufficient to be made in ſhafts, ſhall forfait for euerie time fortie ſhillings, the one halfe thereof to the king, and the other halfe to him that will ſue in this behalfe.

Cap. 10. Douer. Paſſage. Callis.

Item where as by the noble king Edward the third progenitor of our ſoueraigne lord yͤ king that nowe is, after the conqueſt of the towne of Callis, in his parliament holden in the ninth yeare of his reigne, in reliefe and comfort of the towne of Douer, one of the townes of the fiue ports in the countie of Kent, did ordeine, that no merchant, pilgrime, nor none other perſon or perſons horſe or beaſt, ſhould take anie paſſage towards the towne of Callis, from anie port or place within the countie of Kent, but onelie from the port of the ſaid towne of Douer. And alſo that no merchant pilgrime nor none other perſon or perſons, horſe, or beaſt, ſhould come from Callis into anie port of Kent, but onelie to the port of the ſaid towne of Douer, except ſoldiors and merchants comming and going with their ſhips freited with marchandiſes, vnleſſe it were by the kings commandement, or otherwiſe that they were driuen or compelled to take ſome other place or port by tempeſt. Alſo it was ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the autoritie of an other parliament, holden in the xiii. yeare of the noble king Richard the ii. after the conqueſt, that all paſſage ſhould be kept at the ſaid towne of Douer in the maner and forme before rehearſed, and in none other place within the ſaid countie of Kent, as there hath bene vſed & accuſtomed by reaſon of the premiſſes, till now late, that notwithſtanding diuers pilgrimes and marchants and other perſons, which be no ſoldiors, with horſes and other beaſts of late time haue vſed commonlie to take their paſſage towards the ſaid towne of Callis, at diuers ports and places in the ſame countie of Kent. And to come from Callis into Kent at diuers ports and places in the ſame, other than in the ſaid port of Douer, contrarie to the grants and ordinances aforeſaid, to the great damage, impoueriſhment and deſolation of the ſame towne, and likelie by continuance to be the cauſe of ieoperdie and loſſe of the ſame towne, caſtle and the countreie adioining. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, the premiſſes conſidered, and howe the ſaid towne is ſet in the vttermoſt part of this realme next to his enemies & hath no meane of comfort nor reliefe, but onelie by meane of the ſaid paſſage, hath ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted by the aduiſe aſſent and auctoritie aforeſaid, that no pilgrime marchant nor none other perſon or perſons, horſe or beaſt, except ſouldiors and marchants with their marchandiſes in the manner and forme before recited, ſhall from henſforth take their paſſage at none other place or port within the countie of Kent, but onelie at the ſaid port or towne of Douer, if they maie there haue ſufficient paſſage and ſhipping. And alſo that no pilgrime marchant nor none other perſon or perſons horſe or beaſt, ſhall come from Callis to anie port or other place within the ſaid countie of Kent, but onely to the port of the ſaid towne of Douer, except ſouldiors and marchants with their marchandiſes, vnleſſe they haue and ſhewe the kings commandement in writing ſo to do, or els be compelled and driuen to ſome other place or port by ſodaine tempeſt. And that euerie perſon, of what eſtate degrée or condition he be, which voluntarily doth againſt this act or ordinance, ſhall forfeit for euerie time that he ſo doth, fiue markes. Our ſouereigne lord the king to haue the one halfe, to be imploied vpon the reparation of the caſtle of Douer, by the ſurueying of the conſtable or his lieutenant there, the other halfe to that perſon or perſons of the ſaid towne or caſtle, being a fréeman of the ſaide towne of Douer, that will commence or ſue an action thereof againſt the offender. And that euerie perſon or perſons of the ſaid towne or caſtle, fréeman of the ſaid towne of Douer, may in his owne name haue againſt euerie perſon that willingly offendeth this ſtatute, a generall action of debt of the ſaid ſumme of fiue markes, and declare eſpeciallie vpon the ſame act or ordinance. And that proceſſe of outlagarie, and all other proceſſes and determination ſhalbe had in the ſaid action as is had and vſed in other generall actions of debt. And alſo the maiſter of euerie ſhip and veſſell, which willingly contrarie to this act doth conuey to anie place or places any pilgrime, marchant, or other perſon or perſons, horſe or beaſt, ſhall likewiſe forfait at euerie time that he ſo doth fiue markes, in the maner and forme aforeſaid to be ſued, had, recouered, leuied, and emploied.

Here beginneth a ſtatute made at Weſtminſter in the ſeuenth yeare of king Edward the fourth.

AT the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the third day of June, the ſeuenth yeare of the reigne of king Edward the fourth after the conqueſt, Our ſaid ſouereigne lord, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of his commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed certaine ſtatutes and ordinances in maner and forme following.

Cap. 1. Worſteds.

FIrſt where as there be as well within the citie of Norwich as elſwhere within the countie of Norfolke diuers perſons, which do make vntrue wares of all maner worſteds, not being of the aſſiſe in length nor in bredth, nor of good ſtuffe, and right making as they ought to be, & of old time were accuſtomed. And the ſleys and yarne pertaining to the ſame, not rightfullie made and wrought, in great deceipt, aſwell of denizens as of ſtrangers, inhabiting or repairing to this realme, which haue vſed & do vſe to buy ſuch marchandiſes, truſting that they were within, as they ſéemed outward, where of troth it is contrarie. And where as the worſteds in times paſt were lawfullie wrought, and a pleaſant marchandiſe, and greatlie deſired & beloued in the parties beyond the ſea: Now becauſe they be of no right making nor right ſtuffe, they be reported and called ſubtle and vnlawfull marchandiſe, and of little reputation, to the great damage of our ſouereigne lord the king, and great preiudice of his faithfull people. Our ſouereigne lord the king, by yͤ aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of his commons, being in the ſaid parliament, and by yͤ auctoritie of the ſaid parliament, for the wealth of his people, and the perpetuall amendment of the ſaid worſteds, & eſchewing & auoiding all maner deceipts to be done & wrought in worſteds by them that worke the ſame, and the meanes thereof, hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that men of the ſaid craft within the ſaid citie ſhall haue power euerie yeare, the mondaie next after the feaſt of Penthecoſt, to choſe foure wardens within the ſaid citie of the ſame craft. And alſo that artificers of the ſame craft likewiſe out of the citie, that is to ſaie within the countie of Norfolke ſhall haue power euerie yeare at the ſame daie to choſe foure wardens within and of yͤ ſaid countie of yͤ ſame craft. And the aforeſaid wardens in the ſaid countie and citie to come before the maior of the ſaid citie for the time being, vpon the monday next after the feaſt of Corpus Chriſti then next following, and then to be ſworne before the maior of the ſaid citie, & the ſteward of the duchie of Lancaſter within the ſaid countie for the time being, if it happen him within the ſaid city then to be preſent, or elſe before the ſaid maior onelie, the ſaid ſteward then being abſent. And that all the ſaid wardens, aſwell within yͤ ſaid citie as without, or elſe the greateſt part of them, vnder this forme before recited, choſen and ſworne, ſhall haue full power for the yeare then next following to ſurueie the workmanſhips of the ſaid artificers, and that they make and worke rightfully & well & of good ſtuffe, & to ordeine ſuch rules & ordinances within the ſaid craft, as often as it ſhall ſéeme néedfull or neceſſarie, for the amendment of the ſaid worſteds and craft. And that ſuch rules & ordinances ſo made and ordeined to them, to be obeied and kept by the ſaid artificers. Or elſe iiii. of the ſaid wardens, calling to them vi. of the moſt diſcréet of their ſaid artificers within the ſaid citie, and vi. of the ſame artificers within the ſaid countie, by yͤ diſcretion of the ſaid maior and ſteward, or of one of them, ſhall puniſh ſuch of the ſaid artificers, which breaketh or doth contrarie to anie of their ſaid rules & ordinances. And that euerie peace of worſted be purſuing through the péece of lawfull making good and conuenient ſtuffe. And that they ſhall holde the length and bredth as the aſſiſe was wont to be of old time rightfullie accuſtomed, that is to ſaie, beds of the greateſt aſſiſe xiiii. yards largelie in length, & foure yards largelie in bredth. And beds of the meane aſſiſe xii. yards in length and iii. yards in bredth. And beds of the leaſt aſſiſe ten yards in length at the leaſt, and fiue quarters in bredth. And clothes called chanon clothes of the one aſſiſe, vi. yardes in length and ii. yards in bredth. And of the other aſſiſe, v. yards in length and vii. quarters in bredth. And double motleies, vii. yards in length, and v. quarters in bredth. And ſengle motleies, vi. yards in length, & v. quarters in bredth. And double worſted x. yards in length and v. quarters in bredth. And the halfe double worſted vi. yards in length & v. quarters in bredth. And the roll of worſted xxx. yards in length and halfe yard in bredth. And that no lambs woll be put in anie of the ſaid worſteds. And that the wardens of the ſaid craft & euerie of them for yͤ time being, ſhall haue power and auctoritie to ſeiſe all ſuch clothes and ſtuffe ſo being defectiue. And that the ſaid maior and ſteward and euerie of them, by xii. of the diſcreet artificers of the ſaid citie and countie, ſhall haue power at all times to inquire heare & determin of all ſuch as do againſt yͤ ſaid ordinance within the ſaid citie or countie. And moreouer in eſchewing of all ſuch deceipts and falſitie, which might happen to be wrought and done in the ſaid craft by the eight wardens aforeſaid, or betwixt themſelues onelie, or in concealing of the falſe workmanſhip of other of the ſaid artificers in the ſaid citie and countie, That the maior of the ſaid citie, for the time being, and the ſaid ſteward or one of them, at ſuch time as he ſhall thinke conuenient, ſhall call before him the ſaid twelue artificers, or the greateſt part of them, and charge them to be ſworne to make rightfull ſearch aſwell in the ſtuffe as in all the working of the worſted by the ſaid eight wardens hereafter to be wrought and made. And that the ſaid wardens ſo found defectiue, or in execution of their office in ſearch of all other of the ſame artificers within the ſaid citie and countie, or in their owne ſtuffe or workmanſhip, ſhall be corrected by the ſame maior or ſteward in ſuch forme as other offenders of the ſame craft ought of right to be corrected. And that the ſaid wardens and euerie of them in euerie part of the ſaid citie of Norwich, and elſwhere in the counties of Norfolke Suffolke and Cambridge at all times conuenient, ſhall haue power to ſearch all maner of worſteds, and the ſtuffe of them, as well within the loomes as out of the loomes, wrought within the ſaid citie of Norwich or countie of Norfolke. And if anie man before the ſaid maior and ſteward or anie of them, be thereof found defectiue, by their diſcretion he ſhall be corrected. And the worſted and ſtuffe found in maner and forme aforeſaid defectiue, ſhall be forfeit. The one halfe of ſuch forfeiture found in the ſaid citie of Norwich to be to the maior of the ſame citie, and found in anie other place, to the maior or bailiffes of the cities boroughs and townes, or to the chiefe lords of the fée of & in ſuch place as ſhall happen anie ſuch worſteds and ſtuffe by the ſaid wardens or by anie of them by anie cauſe aforeſaid to be found defectiue or forfeitable. And the other halfe to the wardens of the ſaid craft for the time being. And that no man of the ſaid craft make anie worſted, vnleſſe he put his proper marke fixed or wouen vpon the ſame by the ordinance of the ſaid wardens, or els the ſame worſted to be forfeit to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king. Moreouer for the full reformation of the deceipts and faſitie aboue rehearſed, by the auctoritie aforeſaid, it is ordeined and enacted, that the ſaid eight wardens the ſaid mondaie next after Corpus Chriſti yéerelie, incontinently after their charge aboue recited, before the ſaid maior and ſteward or one of them, ſhall aſſigne incontinently a certaine place or two within the ſaid citie, and certaine daies by the wéeke. And an other certaine place or two or more if they thinke it neceſſarie in the ſaid countie of Norfolke, and certaine daies by the wéeke, for the yeere then next following, to the intent that euerie peece of worſted, which in the ſame yéere ſhall be ſet to ſale, ſhall be brought before the wardens of the ſaid craft for the time being, to one of the ſaid places ſo by them aſſigned, to the intent that aſwell the artificers of worſteds, as the ſaid wardens may certainly knowe the place where the ſaid worſteds may duely and rightfully be ſearched. And if the ſaid wardens find the ſaid worſteds by their ſearch well and lawfullie made, that then ſuch a marke or token ſhall be ſet by the ſaid wardens or by one of them, without fine or fée vpon the ſame, ſo that all buyers may well know, which péece is ſufficientlie and rightfullie ſearched and wrought. And that the ſaid ſearch ſhall aſwell extend to the ſtuffe of the ſame, as to the ſufficient making. And ſuch as they ſhall find defectiue, that the maior of the ſaid citie and ſteward of the ſaid duchie, or one of them for the time being, by the aſſent of the ſaid wardens and twelue artificers, ſhall haue power by this act to ſet therein ſuch correction as to them ſhall ſéeme reaſonable. And for euerie péece of worſted ſold, not marked after the forme aforeſaid, that the firſt ſeller thereof ſhall forfeit the price of the péece ſo by him ſold, to our ſoueraigne lord the king. And that all ordinances acts and grants made or to be made in preiudice or contrarie to the premiſſes concerning worſteds, be void and of none effect. And that all maiors ſhiriffs and bailiffs, and all other officers ſhall be attending aiding and ſupporting to the ſaid wardens, in their ſearch, as often as they or anie of them ſhall be by the ſaid wardens or anie of them reaſonablie required.

Chap. 2. Clothes made in Lifton Tauestoke and Rowburgh.

Item it was ſhewed to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king in the ſaid parliament, by the inhabitants and reſidents of the hundreds of Lifton, Taueſtoke and Rowburgh, within the countie of Deuonſhire, that where as in the laſt parliament begun at Weſtminſter the xxix. day of April, the third yeere of his reigne. And by diuers prorogations & adiournaments continued till the xxi. day of Ianuary, in the iiii. yéere of his reigne, amongſt other things it was ordeined by auctoritie of yͤ ſame parliament, that no perſon, which ſhould make anie wollen cloth to ſell from the feaſt of ſaint Peter called Ad vincula then next folowing, ſhould not put in oꝛ vpon the ſame cloth anie flockes in anie wiſe, vpon paine of foꝛfeiture of the ſame cloth, wherein anie flockes ſhould be put oꝛ mixt, as by the ſaid oꝛdinance moꝛe plainelie appeareth. By which oꝛdinance the ſaid inhabitauntes being within the ſaide hundꝛeds, were likelie to be vndone, becauſe that they haue continuallie vſed from the time, whereof is no minde, to mixe and put flockes in the cloth made there of the woolle growing within the ſame hundꝛeds, without which flockes they might not noꝛ could make anie cloth there to ſell by reaſon of the groſeneſſe and ſtoberneſſe of the ſame ſaide woolle. Foꝛ the ſame woolle is not put in clothing noꝛ cloth in anie parte of this realme, ſo that our ſoueraigne loꝛde the king by the ſaide oꝛdinance ſhall loſe his cuſtomes aulnage and all other pꝛofites pertaining and belonging to him of the ſaid cloth made in the ſaide hundꝛeds. And the inhabitants afoꝛeſaid foꝛ euer ſhall be vtterlie impoueriſhed and like to be deſtroied, vnleſſe a refoꝛmation be had in the pꝛemiſſes. Our ſoueraigne loꝛde the king (the pꝛemiſſes conſidered) by the aduiſe and aſſent of the loꝛdes ſpirituall and tempoꝛall, and the commons in this pꝛeſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoꝛitie of the ſame hath oꝛdained, that all the ſaide inhabitants and reſidents in anie places within the ſame thꝛee hundꝛeds, may make and cauſe to be made all maner woollen cloth of the ſaide woolle, and to the ſame lawfullie put and do to be put ſuch quantitie of flockes as ſhallbe néedefull and pꝛofitable to the maker and owner of the ſame cloth. And that all the clothes after ſuch foꝛme to be made with flockes within the ſaide thꝛee hundꝛedes and euerie of them, maie be bought and ſoulde at all times without anie impeching oꝛ domage of anie perſon, and without foꝛfaiting of anie of the ſaide clothes, notwithſtanding the ſaide oꝛdinaunce aboue rehearſed.

Chap. 3. Woollen Yarne.

Item it was ſhewed in the ſaide parliament by the commons, that where as in diuers parts within this realme marchauntes aſwell ſtraungers as deniſens haue daylie vſed to buie woollen yarne by the poundes and other weightes in diuers markets and faires, whereof cloth ſhould be made, And haue vſed to buie rawe clothes not fulled, And the ſame yarne and rawe clothes ſo not fulled, did carrie beyonde the ſea. Foꝛ all which yarne and clothes vnfulled our ſoueraigne loꝛde the king did take no manner cuſtome, aulnage, noꝛ none other pꝛofite noꝛ auaile, where if the ſaide yarne were wouen, and the ſaide clothes fulled within this realme, the king ſhould haue the cuſtome and auantage foꝛ the ſame. And weauers and fullers of the ſaide realme ſhould be well occupied. Foꝛ defaulte therof the kinges liege people be greatlie hurte and impoueriſhed, and ſtraungers thereby the better occupied and enriched, wherefoꝛe our ſaid ſoueraigne loꝛde the king, by the aſſent of the loꝛdes ſpirituall and tempoꝛall, and at the requeſt of his commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoꝛitie of the ſame, hath oꝛdained and eſtabliſhed, that no perſon deniſen oꝛ ſtraunger, from the feaſt of the aſſumption, which ſhall be in the yéere of our loꝛd God M.CCCC.lxviii. ſhall carie oꝛ cauſe to be caried into anie parties beyond the ſea anie woollen yarne, oꝛ cloth not fulled, but that the woollen yarne, which ſhall be made after the ſame feaſt in this realme, ſhall be wouen in the ſame realme. And alſo all cloth therein made, after the ſaide feaſte, ſhall be fulled and fullie wꝛought within the ſaide realme, befoꝛe that it be had and caried out of this realme, vpon paine of foꝛfeiture of the verie value of all ſuch yarne vnwouen and cloth not fulled had oꝛ caried out of this realme. The one halfe of the ſame foꝛfeiture to be leuied to the kings vſe, and the other halfe thereof to him oꝛ them that eſpieth oꝛ maketh pꝛoofe of anie ſuch vnwouen yarne oꝛ cloth not fulled after the ſaide feaſte to be caried to anie place beyond the ſea.

Clothes not fulled caried beyond ſea.

Chap. 4. Grauntes.

Item by the aduiſe aſſent and auctoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, it is oꝛdained, that euerie graunt, relées, confirmation, and reſtitution made and graunted by the king in fée ſimple oꝛ fée taile, to anie perſon oꝛ perſons after the fourth day of March, the firſt yeere of his reigne, of anie maner oꝛ maners, lands oꝛ tenements with their appurtenantes, whereunto the ſaid perſon oꝛ perſons, befoꝛe the time of euerie ſuch graunt, relées, confirmation, oꝛ reſtitution to him oꝛ them ſo made, had in oꝛ to the ſame right oꝛ title, ſhall be of ſuch foꝛce and effecte as they were befoꝛe the beginning of the ſaide parliament. Anie acte made oꝛ to be made in the ſame parliament, notwithſtanding.

Chap. 5. Attainder.

Item by the aduiſe aſſent and auctoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid it is oꝛdained, that all landes, tenements, hereditaments, and other poſſeſſions, which the firſt day of March, next befoꝛe the fourth day of March the firſt yéere of the kings reigne, were holden by fealtie and rent, oꝛ other ſeruices, of anie perſon oꝛ perſons not attainted, which landes, tenementes, hereditaments oꝛ other poſſeſſions, the fourth day of March in the firſt yéere of the kings reigne, oꝛ anie time after came into the kings hands oꝛ poſſeſſion by reaſon of anie atteinder of treaſon, and after paſſed from the king by anie of his letters patentes, to anie perſon oꝛ perſons, oꝛ hereafter ſhall paſſe from the king by anie of his letters patentes to anie perſon oꝛ perſons, that the ſame perſon and perſons, and euerie of them, and euerie their heire and heires, aſſigne and aſſignes, ſucceſſour and ſucceſſours, ſhall haue perceiue and take ſuch rent and rentes, as to anie of them were due and ought to be due of the ſame landes, tenementes, hereditaments oꝛ other poſſeſſions, oꝛ anie of them, being in the handes of anie other perſon oꝛ perſons than the king, as if the ſaide atteinders had not bene had. And that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon oꝛ perſons not atteinted, and to euerie of them, and to euerie of their heire oꝛ heires, aſſigne and aſſignes, ſucceſſour and ſucceſſours, in the ſame landes, tenementes, hereditamentes, oꝛ other poſſeſſions, being in the handes of anie other perſon or perſons than of the king, for the ſaid rent or rentes to diſtreine, after ſuch maner and forme as they and euerie of them might haue done, if the ſame atteinders had not ben had. This acte to be in his force the firſt daie of this ſaid parliament.

Here foloweth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter in the eight yeere of the reigne of king Edward the fourth.

OUr ſouereigne lorde the king, Edwarde the fourth after the conqueſt, at his parliament begunne at weſtminſter the third day of June, the ſeuenth yeere of his reigne. And by diuers prorogations and adiournments continued till the xii. day of May, the viii. yeere of his reigne, The ſame xii. day by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the eſpeciall requeſt of his commons in the ſame parliament aſſembled hath ordained and eſtabliſhed diuerſe ſtatutes and ordinaunces in forme following,

Chap.1.

Wollen clothes called brode ſet clothes.

Firſt becauſe it was ſhewed in the ſaid parliament, by the commons there being, concerning the clothmakers and inhabitantes within the countie of Norfolke, Suffolke, and Eſſex, that whereas long time paſt there hath beene a good common vſage within the ſame counties, by the clothmakers there, that diuers wollen clothes called brode ſet clothes, and other called ſtreite ſet clothes, that is to ſay, the ſaide ſet brode clothes euerie cloth to containe after their ſufficient workemanſhip thereto required readie to ſale xxviii. yardes and xxviii. inches in length by the creſt, and in bredth vii. quarters within the liſtes directlie from one ende of the cloth to the other ende of the ſame. And euerie cloth of the ſaide ſet brode clothes ſo made readie to ſale to weie xxxviii. li. at the leaſt or more. And the ſaid clothes called ſtreite ſet clothes to containe after their ſufficient and rightfull workemanſhip thereto required readie to ſale, in length xiiii. yardes & xiiii. inches meaſured by the liſt. And in bredth iii. quarters & di. quarter of a yarde within the liſtes directlie from one ende to the other. And euerie cloth of the ſaide ſtreite ſet clothes ſo made readie to ſale, to weie ix. li. and di. at the leaſt or more, whereby the ſaid clothmakers and inhabitantes in the ſaid counties did greatlie proſper, and had great profite and good vtterance of the ſaid clothes and the king greatlie increaſed in his cuſtomes, till now late that diuers and manie of the inhabitantes and clothmakers within the ſaide counties, by ſubtill imagination crafte and colluſion did and now doth make clothes there, naming ſome of them brode ſet clothes, and ſome of them ſtreit ſet clothes. The which ſo named brode ſet clothes, the cloth paſſeth not the length of xxvi. yardes, & ſome leſſe, and in bredth no more but ſixe quarters & ſome leſſe, and in weight not aboue xxviii. poundes & ſome leſſe. And the ſaid clothes called ſtreite ſet clothes, the cloth paſſeth not the length of xii. yardes, and ſome leſſe, and in bredth but halfe a yarde and halfe a quarter of a yarde & ſome leſſe, and in weight not ouer ſeuen poundes and ſome leſſe. By reaſon of which diſceites, aſwell in the vndue workemanſhipe as in defaute of length bredth and weight, the ſaid clothmakers and inhabitantes within the ſaide thrée counties, haue not had nor may haue vtterance into ſtraunge parties nor to haue profite of the ſaide clothes made after the forme aforeſaide, becauſe of the not due making aforeſaide, to the great damage and vtter vndoing of the faithfull clothmakers inhabiting within the ſaide counties, and great damage to the king of his cuſtomes and deuoires in this behalfe. Our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king (the premiſes conſidered) by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of his commons being in the ſaide parliament and by the autoritie of the ſame, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that all the ſaid clothes called brode ſet clothes, and ſtreite ſet clothes, and euerie of them, which ſhall be made within anie of the ſaid counties after the firſt day of Auguſt, which ſhall be in the yeere of our lorde God one thouſand foure hundred thrée ſcore and eight, ſhall be rightfullie made in the forme enſuing. That is to ſay, euerie of the ſaid clothes called brode ſet clothes, after they be ſufficientlie, perfitelie, and rightfullie made, cleane ſcoured, fullie ſearched, and readie to ſale, ſhall containe in length xxviii. yardes, and xxviii inches meaſured by the creſt, and in bredth vii. quarters within the liſtes directlie from one end of the ſaide cloth vnto the other. And euerie of the ſaide brode ſet clothes after all the ſaid ſufficient and perfite workemanſhipe, cleane ſcouring, and full ſearching, and made readie to ſale ſhall weie xxxviii. poundes at the leaſt. And alſo that euerie of the ſaide ſtreite ſet clothes, which ſhall be made in anie of the ſaide counties after the ſaide firſt day of Auguſt, after all maner ſufficient perfite and right workemanſhip, cleane ſcouring, and full ſearch, and readie to ſale, ſhall containe in length xiiii. yardes and xiiii. inches meaſured by the liſt, and in bredth thrée quarters and halfe quarter of a yard within the liſtes directlie from one ende to the other. And euerie of the ſaid ſtreite ſet clothes after all the ſaid ſufficient and perfite workemanſhip, cleane ſcouring, and full ſearching, & made readie to ſale, ſhall weie ix poundes and a halfe at the leaſt. And that all ẏ ſaid clothes, called brode ſet clothes & ſtreite ſet clothes, which ſhall be made within anie of the ſaid counties after the ſaid firſt day of Auguſt, of right and perfite workemanſhipe, according to this ordinance, ſhall be ſealed by the kings aulnegour or ſealer, with the ſeales of the ſubſidie and aulnage within euerie of the ſaid counties therefore ordained printed in ware. And that no perſon or perſons, after the ſaid firſt day of Auguſt, ſhall offer nor put to ſale anie of the ſaide clothes, called brode ſet clothes or ſtreite ſet clothes, not kéeping full length, bredth, and weight, or not cleane ſcoured or fullie ſearched according to this ordinaunce, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, the one halfe thereof to the vſe of our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, and the other halfe thereof to the partie that ſhall eſpie & ſeiſe ẏ ſame. And that no perſon or perſons after the the ſaide firſt day of Auguſt, ſhall tache packe or carie anie of the ſaid clothes, called brode ſet clothes or ſtreite ſet clothes, out of any of the ſaid counties, vnleſſe the ſame be ſealed by the kings aulnegour or ſealer, after the maner aboue ordained by this ordinance, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, the one halfe to the king, and the other halfe to the partie which ſhall eſpie and ſeiſe the ſame. And if anie aulnegour, or anie of his deputies within anie of the ſaide counties, ſhall ſeale anie of the ſaide ſet clothes, not containing the ſame length bredth, and weight aforeſaid, that then he ſhall forfeite for euerie brode cloth ſo ſealed ſixe ſhillings eight pence. And for euerie of the ſaid ſtreite ſet clothes ſo ſealed xx. d. The one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to be paied to the vſe of our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king, and the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, by writte or bill in anie of the kings courts at his election that will ſue in this behalfe. And in the ſame action to recouer ouer and beſide the ſaid forfeiture, ſuch coſtes and damages as be commonlie vſed in an action of debt ſued at the common lawe.

Chap. 3.
Liueries.
Badges.

Item our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king remembring that where in times paſt diuers ſtatutes haue bene made for the puniſhment of ſuch perſons, which giue or receiue liueries, with diuers paines and forfeitures comprized therein: And that yet diuers perſons in great number, hauing no dread of the ſaid paines and forfeitures, do daylie offend againſt the forme of the ſame: By the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the praier of the commons of this realme, being in the ſaid parliament, and by autoritie of the ſame, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that all ſtatutes and ordinances made before this time againſt anie perſons for giuing or receiuing of liueries and badges, ſhall be fullie obſerued and kept. And moreouer that no perſon, of what eſtate degree or condition that he be, by himſelfe or anie other for him, from the feaſt of the natiuitie of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt, which ſhall be in the yeere of our lorde God M. cccc. lxviii. ſhall giue anie ſuch liuerie or badge, or retaine anie perſon other than his meniall ſeruaunt officer or learned man in the one law or the other, by anie writing, othe, or promiſe, and if anie do the contrarie, that then he ſhall renne in paine and forfeiture for euerie ſuch liuerie or badge giuen C. s. and the retainer or taker of ſuch othe, writing or promiſe, or reteiner by endenture, for euerie ſuch reteining or taking of anie ſuch othe or promiſe or reteining by indenture, ſhall incurre the paine and forfeiture of one hundred ſhillings for euerie moneth that anie ſuch perſon is ſo retained with him by othe writing indenture or promiſe. And alſo that euerie perſon ſo retained by writing indenture othe or promiſe, for euerie ſuch moneth that he is ſo retained, ſhall forfeite and loſe one hundred ſhillings. And moreouer the king by the aduiſe aſſent and autoritie aforeſaid hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that aſwell before the king in his bench, as before the iuſtices of the common place, iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions, iuſtices of oire and terminer and gaile deliuerie, The kings iuſtices in his counties palantine of Lancaſter and Cheſter for the time being, in euerie of thoſe the kings courtes aforeſaid, before them or anie of them, And in the regalie and courte of the archbiſhop of Yorke in Herhamſhire before the iuſtices there: And in the courte of the biſhop of Durham in the countie palatine of Durham, before his iuſtices there, euerie perſon that will ſue or complaine againſt any perſon or perſons offending or doing againſt the forme of this ordinance, or anie other of the premiſſes, ſhall be admitted by the diſcretion of the iudges in euerie of the ſaid courtes to giue information for the king therein of anie of the premiſſes within the iuriſdiction of euerie of the ſaid courtes done or committed. And euerie ſuch informer, if he will, ſhall be admitted to ſue for the king and him ſelfe actions or action vpon the ſame by information to be giuen or made in anie of the ſaide courtes, againſt as manie ſuch offenders in one bill or information to be named as liketh him, which ſo informeth. And this information ſo giuen ſhall ſtand and be in ſtead of a bill or originall writte. And that thereupon all ſuch proceſſe ſhall be had and made, as is had and made vpon an originall writ of treſpaſſe done againſt the kings peace. And if anie of the offenders be preſent in anie of the ſaid courtes, he by the commaundement of euerie of the iudges in the ſame courtes ſhall be brought in and put to aunſwere to ſuch bill or bils by ſuch information, by an othe firſt to be made vpon a booke by the informer before anie of the ſaid iudges, that his complaint is rightfull without anie other or further proceſſe therein. And that the ſame iudges and euerie of them in euerie of the ſaide courtes, ſhall haue power in their ſeuerall iuriſdiction, to examine all perſons defendantes and euerie of them, vpon euerie ſuch information, and to iudge him or them conuicte or atteinted aſwell by ſuch examination as by triall, as the caſe requireth, after the diſcretion of the iudges, And alſo ſhall be charged by the iudgement in the ſame to the perſon complainaunt or informer in this behalfe, of all the coſtes had in the ſame by the diſcretion of the iudges and iudge in the ſame. And alſo the ſame partie complainant to haue the one halfe of the ſaid forfeitures, and the king the other halfe. And all ſuch execution to be had for the informer in this behalfe, as is had or ought to be had in recoueries of debt or treſpaſſe at his pleaſure. And that no protection nor eſſoine be allowed vpon anie ſuch information. And that no ſhiriffe or coroner returne vpon anie defendaunt being a perſon ſufficient, in anie ſuite grounded vpon anie of yͤ premiſſes returned ſufficient, anie leſſe iſſues then twentie ſhillings at the firſt day of the diſtreſſe: and at the ſecond day xxx. s. and at the third day xl. s. and ſo at euerie day after, more by ten ſhillings in iſſues. And if anie ſhiriffe or coroner do the contrarie, that then he ſhall forfeite for euerie ſuch returne againſt the forme aforeſaide twentie ſhillings. And alſo by the aduiſe aſſent and autoritie aforeſaid it is ordained, that in euerie citie, burghe, towne, and porte of this realme corporate, wherein the maior, ſhiriffes, bailiſe or bailiffes: or other chiefe officer of ſuch citie, burghe towne or porte, haue power to heare and determine perſonall plees: the ſame maior, ſhiriffes, ſhiriffe, bailiffe or bailiffes, or chiefe officer, in the courts holden before them or anie of them, within anie ſuch citie, burghe, towne, or porte, ſhall haue all like and ſuch autoritie to receiue ſuch information as to heare and determine aſwell by examination as by triall by their diſcretion, all thinges done concerning the premiſes, by or to the inhabitantes within the iuriſdiction of the ſame courts. And to make and put this ordinaunce in execution in like manner and forme as is aboue ordeined. And that our ſoueraigne lorde the king ſhall haue the one halfe of the forfaiture, and the informer therein, and the maior, ſhiriffes, ſhiriffe, bailiffe or bailiffes, or chiefe officer of ſuch citie, burgh, towne or porte, to haue the other hafe equallie to be deuided betwixt them: Whereof the parte perteining to the maior, ſhiriffes, ſhiriffe, bailiffe or bailiffes or chiefe officer, ſhalbe applied to the vſe of ſuch citie, burgh, towne, or porte. And that all reteininges, and euerie reteining by indenture or other writinge othe or promiſe of anie perſon made before the ſaide feaſt, other than to be meniall ſeruauntes, or officer, or of his councell, or for lawfull ſeruice done or to be done, ſhall be from the ſaide feaſt vtterlie voide and of no force nor effecte. Alſo it is ordained and eſtabliſhed, by the aduiſe aſſent and autoritie aforeſaid, that our ſoueraigne lorde the king ſhall haue the one halfe of all the ſaide paines & forfeitures in maner and forme before ordained: Except in cities, burghes, townes, and diuers other places, where anie perſon or perſons haue by reaſon of their priuileges, liberties, franchiſes, or grauntes, like forfeitures and paines: And that euerie ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall haue the halfe of the ſaide forfeitures and paines made by this acte, according to their priuileges, liberties, franchiſes, and grauntes, as the king ſhould haue, if the ſaid priuileges liberties franchiſes and grauntes had not bene had graunted nor made. Prouided alwaies that this acte extend not, nor be preiudiciall to anie gift graunt or confirmation made or to be had of anie fee, annuitie, penſion, rent, landes, or tenementes, by the king or anie other perſon or perſons, to anie perſon or perſons for their councell giuen or to be giuen, and their lawfull ſeruice done or to be done, and for none other vnlawfull cauſe: nor none other vnlawfull entent: although that the perſon or perſons to whom ſuch gift graunt or confirmaion is or ſhall be made, be not learned in the one lawe or in the other. Alſo it is ordained by the aduiſe aſſent and autoritie aforeſaid, that euerie ſuch gift, graunt, or confirmation ſhall be of like force and effect, and as good, effectuall and auailable, as they and euerie of them were, if this acte had not bene made. And by the ſaid autoritie it is ordained, that no exigend ſhall be awarded by anie of the iuſtices for the time being within the ſaide counties palantine of Lancaſter and Cheſter, or either of them, or in the ſaid biſhoprike of Durham, againſt anie perſon or perſons, vpon anie information, ſuite, or proceſſe to be made by force of this ordinance and ſtatute. And if anie exigend be awarded, or an outlagarie thereupon pronounced in anie information ſuite or proceſſe to be made by vertue of this ordinance as before is ſaide, that then ſuch outlagarie ſhall be vtterlie voide and of no force nor effect, without anie ſuite by writte of errour or otherwiſe. Prouided alſo that this ordinance do not extend to anie liuerie giuen or to be giuen at the kings or queenes coronation, or at the ſtallation of an archbiſhop or biſhop, or erection, creation, or mariage of anie lord or ladie of eſtate, or at the creation of knightes of the bath, or at the commencement of anie clerke in anie vniuerſitie, or at the creation of ſeriantes of the lawe, or to giue by anie gild fraternitie or miſterie corporata, or by the maior and ſhiriffes of the citie of London, or anie other maior ſhiriffe or other chiefe officer of anie citie, burghe, towne, or porte of this realme of England, for the time being during that time, and for executing their office or occupation, nor to anie badges or liueries to be giuen in defence of the king, and of this his realme of England, nor to the conſtable and marſhall, nor to anie of them for giuing anie badge liuerie or token for anie feates of armes to be done within this realme, nor to anie wardeines of the marches toward Scotland for anie liuerie badge or token for them to be giuen from Trent northward, at ſuch time onelie as ſhall be neceſſarie to leuie people for defence of the ſaide marches or anie of them.

Item where as in the fourteene yeere of the reigne of king Edwarde the thirde, progenitor of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, it was ordeined, that no ſhiriffe ſhoulde abide in his office ouer a yeere. And in the xlii. yeere of the reigne of the ſame king Edwarde the thirde, it was ordeined, that no ſhiriffe, nor vnderſhiriffe, nor ſhiriffes clarke, ſhoulde abide in his office ouer a yeere, which ordinaunces amongſt other in the twentie three yeere of the reigne of the late pretenſed king in deede and not of right Henrie the ſixt, in the full parliament were reherſed, and by autoritie of the ſame it was ordeined, that if anie ſhirife, vnderſhirife, or ſhirifes clarke other then in the ſame ordinances was excepted, ſhoulde occupie the office of ſhirife, vnderſhirife, or ſhirifes clarke, contrarie to anie of the ſaide ordinaunces, that then he that ſo ſhoulde occupie ſhoulde forfaite the ſumme of CC. poundes. And that euerie pardon from thence forth to be made of ſuch forfaiture of the ſaide ſumme ſhoulde be voyd and not auailable. And that euerie liege man, that woulde ſue for the ſame ſumme forfaite againſt him or them, which ſo ſhoulde forfaite, ſhoulde be receiued and admitted to ſue an action of debte in his owne name: The king to haue the one halfe of that that ſhoulde be recouered by the ſayde action, and he or they that ſo woulde ſue, to haue the other halfe thereof, as in the ſayd ordinance, made the ſaid twentie three yeere doth more fullie appeare. Contrarie to which ordinaunces diuers ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, & ſhirifes clarkes, of diuers counties of this realme, in the firſt ſecond and third yeres of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, then being in this realme great trouble, & peace then not fullie ſtabliſhed, did occupie ouer a yeere, ſome of them by a greater ſpace ouer a yeere, and ſome by a leſſe, cauſed in diuerſe parties of this realme by the ſayde trouble, and in ſome parties becauſe that none other ſhirife was ordeined by long ſpace after the yeere paſt: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe & aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of his commons in the ſayd parliament aſſembled, and by autoritie of the ſame hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that on maner perſon being ſhirife, vnderſhirife, or ſhirifes clarke, of anie countie of this realme the firſt ſeconde or thirde yeere of his reigne, or anie time or ſpace within the ſame, for the occupation of the office of ſhirife, vnderſhirife, or ſhirifes clarke, in the three yeeres or anie part or ſpace within the ſame or of the ſame, or anie of the ſame, aboue a yeere, although their occupation were againſt the ordinaunces before recited, nor none of them be dampnified, nor in anie wiſe hurte by anie action paine or forfaiture in the ſame ordinances or in anie of them compriſed, at the ſuite of our ſayde ſoueraigne lorde the king, nor at the ſuite of anie of his liege people, but that the ſame ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, and ſhirifes clarkes, and euerie of them, of and for euerie paine, action and forfaiture purſued or to be purſued, leuied or forfaited of them or anie of them by our ſayde ſoueraigne lorde the king, or anie of his liege people, for their occupieng of the ſaide three yeeres, or anie ſpace or time within the ſame, be quite and diſcharged for euer by this act. The ſaide ordinaunces or anie of them made before this time notwithſtanding. Yet neuertheleſſe the ſame ordinaunces and euerie of them ſhall remaine in their ſtrength and force againſt all ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, and ſhirifes clarkes, for their occupation of all other yeeres then the ſaid three yeeres as aforeſaid, as the ſame ordinaunces were before this act made.

Here beginneth the Statute made at Weſtminſter in the xii. yeere of the reigne of king Edward the fourth.

AT the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the firſt daie of October, in the xii. yeere of the reigne of king Edward the fourth, after the conqueſt, Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king to the honour of God, and for the wealth of him and of his realme by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of his commons in the ſame parliament aſſembled, and by autoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed certaine ſtatutes and ordinances in forme following.

FIrſt where as by a ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, in the twentie three yeere of the reigne of king Henrie late in deede and not of right king of Englande, called king Henrie the ſixt, it was ordeined, that no ſhirife ſhoulde occupie his office of ſhirife aboue a yere, vpon paine of two hundred poundes: Except certaine perſons in the ſaide ſtatute excepted, as in the ſame is more plainelie ſpecified, diuerſe and manie of the kings liege people haue bene greeuouſlie endamaged and greatly delaied of their ſuites and proceſſes euerie yeere in the terme called Michaelmas terme, as for their actions writs and preceptes to be returned within the ſame terme, after the firſt daie of the moneth of Nouember, becauſe that the kinges letters patents, whereby any ſhirife is made, doe moſt commonlie beare date the firſt daie of Nouember, And though it ſo be, that the newe ſhirifes be yeerelie choſen the morowe after the feaſt of all ſoules, of which newe ſhirifes ſo choſen and appointed, diuerſe of them haue refuſed, and diuerſe of them haue not had their patentes, nor taken their oth, till long time after the ende of the ſaide Michaelmas terme, by reaſon whereof diuers of the kinges liege people and ſubiects be greatlie endamaged and delaied of their ſuites proceſſes and preceptes, which ſhoulde be returnable in the kings courtes at the daies of the returne within the ſame terme after the firſt daie of Nouember, that is to ſaie, at the daies of returne called Craſtino Martini, Octabis Martini, and Quindena Martini, becauſe that the olde ſhirifes durſt not, nor would not take vpon them to returne anie writ or precept after the yere, that his patent did beare date for dread of the paine conteined in the aforeſaide ſtatute, to the great loſſe as well to the king of that that ſhoulde growe to him by reaſon of the ſaide proceſſes, as to his liege people, by delaies which they thereby haue: It is ordeined by auctoritie of the aforeſaide parliament that if anie ſhirife of anie countie doe execute or returne anie writ precept or warant in anie of the ſaide courtes of the king, within the ſaide terme called Michaelmas terme, after the firſt daie of Nouember. And before anie writ of diſcharge deliuered to him of his occupieng of ſhirifewike, he ſhall not be damnified by force of the ſaide ſtatute, nor charged of the paine aforeſaid, although that he hath occupied the office of ſhirife, before anie of the ſaide daies of returne called Craſtino Martini, Octabis Martini, or Quindena Martini.

Bowſtaues.

Item becauſe that our ſoueraigne lorde the king by a petition deliuered to him in the ſayde parliament by the commons of the ſame hath perceiued, that great ſcarſitie of bowſtaues is nowe in this realme, and the bowſtaues that be in the realme, be ſolde at an exceſſiue price, whereby the feate of archerie is greatlie diſcontinued and almoſt loſt: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduiſe aſſent and auctoritie aforeſayde, hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that euerie marchaunt ſtraunger, and euerie or anie of their factors, attourneies, or ſeruauntes, which at anie time after the feaſt of ſaint Michael the archaungel next comming, ſhall bring ſende or conueie into this lande anie marchaundiſe in carracke, galeie, or ſhippe of the citie or countrie of Venice, or of anie other citie, towne, or countrie, from whence anie ſuch bowſtaues haue bene before this time brought ſent or conueied into this land, at euerie time of their bringing ſending or conueieng of anie ſuch marchaundiſes into this realme: ſhall bring ſende or conueie into this realme, with the ſaide marchaundiſes, in the ſame carracke galeie or ſhippe, wherein anie ſuch marchaundiſes ſhall be hereafter brought ſent or conueied, for euerie tonne weight of ſuch marchaundiſe, which hereafter ſhall bee conteined in euerie carracke galeie or ſhippe foure bowſtaues, vpon paine of forfaiture to the king for euerie defaulte of bringing of euerie ſuch bowſtaffe ſixe ſhillinges eight pence. And alſo the ſaide bowſtaues ſo to be brought ſent or conueied by the ſayde marchauntes, their factours, attourneies, or ſeruauntes into this realme, ſhall bee ſearched and ſurueied by the maiors, ſhirifes, bailifes, or cheefe gouernoures of ſuch cities or townes within this realme, where anie ſuch carracke, galeie, or ſhippe ſhall hereafter come to ſafe porte. And the ſaide maiors, ſhirifes, bailifes, or cheefe gouernours to aſſigne two men moſt experte, to ſearch the ſaide ſtaues. And the ſaide two men to be ſworne by the ſayde maiors, ſhirifes, bailifes, or cheefe gouernours, to the intent that they ſhall truelie & indifferentlie marke the ſtaues that be not good & ſufficient, after the maner as ſuch ſtaues in times paſt were wont to be marked, to the intent that all the kinges liege people maie haue knowledge of them without fraude.

Marke ẏ the ſaid act of parliament of the grant of ẏ ſubſidie in the iii. yere of king Ed. the fourth was neuer yet put in anie booke.

Pondage.

Item where as in the parliament holden in the third yere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king, the commons of the ſame realme of Englande graunted to him for the defence of the ſame realme, and in eſpeciallie for the ſauſegarde and cuſtodie of the ſea, a ſubſidie called Tonage, to perceiue and receiue in maner and forme following, that is to ſaie three ſhillinges of euerie tonne of wine comming into this realme. And of euerie tonne of ſweete wine comming into this realme of England by anie marchaunt alien, as well by the marchantes of Hanſe & Almaine, as of anie other marchaunt ſtraunger three ſhillinges ouer and aboue the ſaide three s. before granted, to haue and perceiue the ſaide ſubſidie yeerelie from the feaſt of March in the yere of our lorde God. M.CCCC.lxiiii. for terme of his naturall life. And moreouer the ſaide commons, by the aſſent aforeſaid graunted to the king for the ſauſegarde & keping of the ſea, an other ſubſidy called pondage, that is to ſaie, of all maner marchandiſes of euerie marchant denizen & alieen, as well of marchauntes of Hanſe and Almaine, as of anie other marchaunt alien, caried out of this ſaide realme, or brought into the ſame by way of marchandiſe, of the value of euerie xx.s. xii.d. except tinne, whereof the marchaunt ſtraungers ſhall paie for ſubſidie of the value of euery xx.s. ii.s. And the marchants denizens xii.d. And all maner marchandiſes of euery marchant denizen to be valued according as they did coſt at the firſt buing by their othes, or othes of their ſeruants buiers of the ſaide marchandiſes in their abſence, or by their letters, which the ſame marchantes haue of ſuch buing of their factours, and in none other maner. All maner wollen clothes, made and wrought within this realme of England by any marchaunt denizen, not being an alien borne, to be caried out of the ſame realme within the time of this graunt, All maner wolles wolfelles and lether going out of the ſame, And all and euerie maner of corne flower, And all maner of freſh fiſh beſtaile and wine comming into this realme, And all maner vittaile going out of this realme for the vittailing of the towne of Caleis, and the marches of the ſame vnder the kinges obeiſance, out of this graunt alwaies excepted, to haue and perceiue yeerelie the ſaide ſubſidie of poundage from the ſaide firſt daie of March during his naturall life, as in the graunt thereof made more largelie is contened: The king perceiuing the great diſceipt done to him, in withdrawing and concealing of the ſaide duties, And amongſt other things manie and diuerſe marchantes ſtraungers and denizens doe vſe to bring into this realme cloth of golde, cloth of ſiluer, bawdkin, beluet, damaſke, ſatin, ſarcenet, tartaron, chamlets, and other clothes of ſilke and golde, and of ſilke being of great value by waie of marchandiſes from the parties beyonde the ſea: And by ſubtile and fraudulent meanes conueie the ſame marchandiſes to the land, not paieng the verie cuſtomes and ſubſidies thereof due after the forme of the ſaide act, nor the ſame marchauntes ſtraungers doe not emploie the value of their ſaide marchandiſes vpon the commodities of this realme, to the great damage of the king & of this his realme: and although the ſaid ſubſidie was granted to him eſpeciallie for the keeping of the ſea: yet by reaſon of the ſaide diſceipts withdrawing & concealing of the ſaide duties from the king, which ſhould and ought to come of the aforeſaid ſubſidie, the profite thereof comming to ye king is ſo diminiſhed & impaired that it attaineth not, nor hereafter is like to attaine to any like ſum, as it hath done in times paſt, nor ſufficeth not, nor in time to come is like to ſuffice & ſuſteine the kinges neceſſary & requiſite charges for the keeping of the ſea, for the ſuertie of the king & of this realme, and for the ſure paſſage of marchandiſes into this realme and out of this realme, vnles that a conuenient and ſure remedy be prouided to expell and remoue the ſaid diſceites. Therefore our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aſſent of the ſaid lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the ſaid commons in this parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted, that from the feaſt of the natiuitie of ſaint John Baptiſt next comming, no marchant denizen or ſtranger ſhal ſet or ſuffer anie cloth of gold, of ſiluer, bawdkin, beluet, damaſke, ſatin, tartaron, or chamlet, nor none other cloth of ſilke, nor anie corſe of ſilke and of golde, nor of ſilke of the making of anie of the parties beyonde the ſea to ſell, before that the collectors of the ſubſidie of tonage and poundage and the comptroller of the ſame in the porte where ſuch marchaundiſe is ſet vpon lande, hath ſurueied and meaſured the ſame. And hath ſealed euerie peece thereof in the one ende thereof, with the ſeale or marke eſpeciallie to be ordeined for the ſame, whereof the ſame collectors haue the one parte, And the controler haue the other part ſeuerallie in their cuſtodie. And if anie ſuch cloth of golde, of ſiluer, bawdkin, beluet, damaſke, ſatin, ſarcenet, tartaron, chamlet, and cloth of ſilke and of golde, bee anie time hereafter ſet to ſale not ſealed, nor hauing ſuch ſeale thereupon, That then hee which ſetteth ſuch marchaundiſe to ſale, ſhall forfeite the ſame marchaundiſe or the value thereof, whereof two partes ſhall be to the king, And the thirde part to the finder. Alſo it is ordeined by the ſame auctoritie, that the collectors of the ſame ſubſidie & the ſaide controller, ſhall at all times requiſite, bee readie to ſeale ſuch marchandiſe, And to ſeale the ſame at all times when they be required without delaie, or taking anie thing for the ſame in anie wiſe, vpon paine of forfaiture to the owner thereof xx. ſhillings for euerie of the ſaid collectors and controllers at anie time that they refuſe to ſeale ſuch marchandiſe after ſuch requeſt made, or take anie thing for the ſealing of anie ſuch marchandiſe. Alſo it is ordeined by ye auctoritie aforeſaide, that all maner of ſuch clothes of gold, of ſiluer, bawdkin, beluet, damaſke, ſatin, ſarcenet, tartaron, chamlet, and euerie other cloth of ſilke, corſe of gold and ſilke nowe being within this realme, and after the feaſt of ſaint Michael the archangell next comming, offered to ſell, ſhall be ſealed with the ſaide ſeales before the ſaide feaſt, vpon the paine before ſpecified. Alſo where as it is expreſſed in the ſaide grant of the ſaide ſubſidie, that if anie concealement be found in the marchantes in the paiment of the ſaide duties, that they for ſuch concealement ſhall paie only double ſubſidie without other paine or forfeiture therein, as in the ſame act is more fullie conteined. The king conſidering that notwithſtanding the ſame ordinance, marchants do not regard to defraud him of his duetie of ye ſaid ſubſidie, in as much as they do nothing forfeite in that behalfe, but onelie paie the double ſubſidie, by the aduiſe aſſent and auctoritie aforeſaide hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that the ſame ſtatute in this behalfe bee voyde, and of no ſtrength. And if anie marchandiſes, which be to be brought to the parties beyonde the ſea, or to be caried out of this realme, whereof anie ſubſidie is or ſhall be due or perteining to the king, be hereafter ſhipped to be caried beyonde the ſea, the collectors of the ſaide ſubſidie not paied or without agreement with the collectors of the ſaide ſubſidie for the ſame, that then the ſaide marchandiſes or the value thereof, ſhall be forfeite to the king. Alſo where as diuers marchants ſtrangers and other oftentimes in the citie of London, and in other places haue packed diuers woollen clothes, ſome in graine, ſome vngrained, and other clothes not grained, and the ſame ſo packed cauſeth to be caried by land from London and other places to other portes, as to Sandwich, Southampton and other portes, where as the cuſtomers for the time being without due packing or ſight of ſuch clothes, vpon the information of the marchant, doeth cuſtome ſuch clothes, as for courſe clothes, whereby the king is greatlie deceiued of his duties thereof, as well in the fineſſe of ſuch clothes, as in the not knowing of the number of the clothes ſo packed. Therefore the king by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſayde, and by the ſame auctoritie doeth ordeine eſtabliſh and enact, that in euerie port within this realme of England, wherein anie woollen clothes ſhall be packed after the firſt daie of Maye next comming, in the preſence of the collectors of the aforeſaide cuſtomes and ſubſidies of the ſame port for the time being, that all ſuch cuſtomes and ſubſidies, due and perteining to the king for the ſaide clothes, ſhall bee paied and contented to the ſame collectors, where the ſaide clothes bee ſo packed, or elſe ſufficient ſuertie ſhall bee therefore to them founde, before that the ſame clothes be caried from the ſaid port to any other port or place, vpon paine of forfaiture of all ẏ ſame clothes, or the value therof, to be had of the owner of the ſame. And if any wollen clothes to be caried ouer the ſea, be packed in any other maner, or vnder anie other forme, that then the collectors of the port where they be ſo packed or brought to be packed, ſhall ſeaſe and there vnpacke all the ſayde packes and fardels, and ſuruete all the clothes therein, ſo that our ſouereigne lorde the king may be truely anſwered of his duetie in this behalfe, without anie fraude or diſceite. And if any cuſtomer or comptroller of anie porte or place be negligent or ſlacke in vnpacking of the ſayde clothes, or ſuruering of them in the forme aforeſaide, that then and as often euerie ſuch cuſtomer and comptroller for euerie ſuch defaulte ſhall forfaite to our ſouereigne lorde the king twentie ſhillings for euery ſuch cloth. Moreouer it is ordeined by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaide, that euerie of the ſaide collectors receiuing any cuſtome or ſubſidie for anie of the ſaid clothes or ſuertie for the ſame, ſhalbe thereof charged & chargeable to our ſouereigne lord the king vpon his or their accompte. And that the ſame collector or collectors ſhall from time to time make a coket or cokets of all ſuch clothes, directed to the collectors of the porte where the ſame clothes ſhall bee ſhipped, witneſſing their number, and that hee or they haue receiued the cuſtomes and ſubſidies of the ſame clothes, or ſuertie for the ſame. By which coket or kokettes the ſayde collectors or the receiuours of them, ſhall be thereof diſcharged againſt our ſouereigne lorde the king, and all other of all the ſame cuſtomes and ſubſidies. Prouided alwaies that this act or ordinaunce bee not preiudiciall nor in anie wiſe hurtfull to anie perſon or perſons in or for anie letters patentes made by the king our ſouereigne lorde of anie graunt, of licence to ſhippe and carie out of this realme of Englande anie wollen clothes or other marchandiſes eſpecified in anie of the ſaide letters patentes, to reteine the cuſtomes and ſubſidies in their owne handes, or in the handes of anie of them. And that the ſame letters patentes be to the ſame perſon or perſons and euerie of them good and effectuall after the tenour of the ſame letters patents and euerie of them, this act or ordinaunce notwithſtanding, by what ſo euer name or names anie of the ſaide perſon or perſons bee named or called in anie of the ſayde letters patentes.

Chap. 4. Prince Liuerie.

Item our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king conſidering, that the prince the firſt begotten ſonne to kinges of Englande, hath bene at their liberties to giue their liueries and ſignes at their pleaſure, and that diuers ſtatutes againſt giuers and takers of liueries and ſignes, as well in the time of his noble reigne as in the time of his progenitours and predeceſſours hath bene made: and that by force of anie of the ſaide ſtatutes his deare beloued firſt begotten ſonne Edwarde prince of Wales, duke of Cornewall, and earle of Cheſter, is as well as anie other perſon reſtrained of giuing ſuch liueries and ſignes. Our ſouereigne lorde the king, willing that his ſaide firſt begotten ſonne the prince be at his libertie, in receiuing anie perſon and giuing his ſignes and liueries, in as large forme as anie prince firſt begotten ſonne of anie of his noble progenitours or predeceſſours in times paſt hath bene, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, by auctoritie of the ſaide parliament, that the ſaide prince ſhall be at his libertie, to retaine and giue his honourable liuerie and ſigne at his pleaſure. And that the perſons ſo retained, or to whom ſuch liueries or ſignes bee or ſhall be giuen, maie be retained and receiue and weare the ſame liuerie and ſigne, without trouble, impediment or impeachment, paine, contempt or forfaiture of anie penaltie conteined in anie of the ſaid ſtatutes: the ſaide ſtatutes or anie thing in them compriſed notwithſtanding. Nor that the ſayde ſtatutes in anie maner ſhall extende to anie retaining to be made by the ſaid prince in giuing taking or retaining of anie liuerie or ſigne of the ſame prince.

Chap. 5. Wolles wolfels. &c.

Item our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king remembring that where before this time in diuerſe ſtatutes amongſt other thinges it is ordeined and enacted, that all maner wolles and wolfelles, and felles called morling and ſhorling, growing within anie part of this realme and Wales, wolles and wolfelles morling and ſhorling growing in anie parte within the counties of Weſtmerlande, Coumberland, Northumberland, in the biſhopricke of Durham, betwixt the waters of Tine and Teeſe, And of the counties of Richmondſhire and Northaldertonſhire except, wolles to be ſhipped towardes the Weſt in galeis and carrakes, to bee ſhipped and carried out of the realme, ſhall be conueied to the ſtaple of Caleis, and to none other place vpon paine of forfaiture of the ſaide wolles wolfelles and felles called ſhorling and morling, as in the ſame ſtatutes doeth more fullie appeare. Neuertheleſſe the ſaide ordinaunces and ſtatutes notwithſtanding a great multitude of wolles and wolfelles called morling and ſhorling, growing in Yorkeſwolde, in the counties of Lincolne Notingham and Derbie, and other counties of this realme of Englande, vnder the colour of the exception before recited, in the ſame Northparties be caried out of the realme into Flaunders, Holland, Zelande, Brabant, and other parties beyonde the ſea, whereby enſueth not onelie great decaie of the cuſtomes and ſubſidies of our ſouereigne lorde the king, but alſo the deſtruction of the price of wolles wolfelles and felles called morling and ſhorling, growing within this realme, to the vniuerſall damage and impoueriſhing of the ſame, whereupon by the aduiſe aſſent and auctoritie aforeſaide, it is enacted ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all the wolles wolfelles and felles called morling and ſhorling, growing within this realme, other then be before excepted, to bee ſhipped and conueied out of this realme, ſhall be conueied to the ſtaple of Caleis and to none other place. And that all other wolles wolfelles & felles called morling and ſhorling, growing and being within the ſaide counties of Weſtmerland, Comberland, Northumberlande, the biſhopricke, Rychmond and Alderton, to be carried out of this realme of Englande, ſhall bee ſhipped at Newcaſtel vpon Tyne onely, And from thence to be conueyed to Caleys, or to newe Middleborough in Flaunders, there to be ſtapled and vttered, and at none other place. And if any man attempt and do the contrarie, and thereupon be duelie conuict, that then he ſhall ſtand and be of like condition as a man attainted of felonie, after the courſe of the common law, and ſhall incurre like paine and forfeiture as he ſo attainted for the ſame ſhould do. Alſo it is ordeined by the ſame aſſent and authoritie, that all wolles and wolfelles, and felles called morling and ſhorling, growing or being in anie countrey of this realme or Wales, or in the marches of the ſame, other than before excepted, to be carried out of this realme, ſhall be conueyed to the ſaide ſtaple of Caleys, and to none other place, vpon the ſame peine & forfeiture. The prerogatiue of our ſoueraigne lord the king to graunt anie licence to the contrarie except. This act to begin and to take effect at the feaſt of ſeint Michael, which ſhall be in the yéere of our lord God M.cccc.lxxiiii. And to endure by the ſpace of fiue yeeres onely.

Cap.6.

Item where as in the parliament of Henrie the ſixt, late in déede & not of right king of England, holden at Weſtminſter the ſixth yéere of his reigne, the great dammage and loſſes conſidered, which hath chanced by the great riſing of waters in diuers parties of this realme, and more greater dammage had likely come, if remedie in this behalfe had not béene the more ſpedily prouided, it was ordeined & enacted by authoritie of the ſame parliament, that for x. yeeres then next following ſeuerall commiſſions of Sewers ſhould be made to diuers perſons by the chauncellor of England for the time being, to be named in all parties of the ſame realme, where neede ſhould be after the forme & tenor of a commiſſion eſpecified in the ſame act. And after in the parliament of the ſame Henrie late king holden at Weſtminſter in the viii. yéere of his reigne, becauſe that the commiſſioners named in the ſaid commiſſions, had not ful power nor authoritie to do perform and execute things compriſed in the ſaid commiſſions, it was ordeined, enacted and eſtabliſhed by authoritie of the ſame parliament, that all ſuch commiſſioners ſhoulde haue full power to make, ordeine and execute ſtatutes and ordinances and other things to be done after the effect and purport of the ſaide commiſſions. And after the ſaide x. yéeres paſſed, in the parliament of the ſaide late king Henrie, holden at Weſtminſter in the xviii. yéere of his reigne, it was ordeined enacted and ſtabliſhed, by authoritie of the ſame parliament, that for x. yeeres then next following ſeueral commiſſions of Sewers ſhould be made to diuers perſons by the Chauncellor of Englande for the time being, to be named in all parties of the ſaid realme of Englande, where neede ſhould be, after the forme and effect of the ſaid commiſſion, conteined in the ſaid act made the ſaide ſixt yere. And that ſuch commiſſioners ſhould haue power to make, ordeine and execute ſtatutes and ordinances, and other things to be done after the effect and purport of the ſaid commiſſions. And after the ſaid x. yeeres paſt in the parliament of the ſaide late king, as afore is ſaide, holden at Weſtminſter the xxiii. yéere of his reigne, it was ordeined, enacted and ſtabliſhed by authoritie of the ſame parliament, that for xv. yeeres then next following the chauncellor of England for the time being, ſhould haue power to make out of the Chauncerie, commiſſions of Sewers vnder the great ſeale, in ſuch forme as was graunted to be made by the ſaid act made in the ſaide ſixte yéere as in the ſaide actes more fully is conteined, by which commiſſions in the forme aforeſaide, manie great miſchiefes done and had in diuers parties of the ſaide realme of Englande by ryſing of the ſaide waters, were neceſſarily redreſſed, reformed and amended. Now ſo it is, that now late in diuers parties of this realme of England, aſwell in the counties of Kent and Suſſex, as in other places within the ſame realme of England, and alſo within the bounds of the marches of Caleys Guynes and Hammes, by riſing of water, dyuers landes and tenements in great quantitie be drowned and deſtroyed. And many great likely miſchiefes be verie likely within ſhort time to fal, aſwell in the decreaſe of the ſuſtenance & liuelode of holie church, as of other the kings liege people of his ſaid realme of England, and of the ſaid marches, and vtter vndoing of them, if remedy in this behalfe be not the more ſpéedily prouided. Our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the ſaide lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, and by authoritie of the ſaid parliament, hath ordeined enacted & eſtabliſhed, that for xv. yeeres next enſuing ſeuerall commiſſions of Sewers ſhall be made to dyuers perſons by the Chauncellor of Englande for the time being, to be named in all parties of this realme of England and of the aforeſaid marches, where néede is or ſhall be, after the forme and effect of the ſaid commiſſion conteined in the ſaid act made the ſaid ſixte yéere. And moreouer he hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed by the ſame authoritie, that all ſuch commiſſioners ſhall haue full power to make, ordeine and execute ſtatutes and ordinances & other things to be don after the effect and purport of the ſame commiſſions.

Kedels.

Item whereas by a laudable ſtatute of Magna carta amongeſt other things it is conteined, that all kedels by Thamyſe and Medewey, and throughout the realme of England, ſhould be broken downe, ſauing by the ſea bankes, which ſtatute was for the great wealth of all this lande in auoyding the ſtreitenes of all riuers, ſo that ſhippes and boates might haue in them their large & frée paſſage, And alſo [illegible] ſafegarde of all the frye of fiſh ſpawned within the ſame, vpon which Magna carta the great ſentence & apoſtolike curſe by a great number of biſhops was pronounced againſt yͤ breakers of the ſame, And yͤ ſame ſentence is iiii. times in yͤ yere openly declared according to yͤ law of the holie church. And in affirmation of the ſaid ſtatute of the great charter diuers ſtatutes haue béene afterward made and ordeined, amongeſt which in a parliament holden in the firſt yéere of the vſurped reigne of king Henrie the fourth, it was recited, that in the xxv. yeere of king Edward the third, progenitor of our ſoueraigne lord the king that nowe is, becauſe that the common paſſages of ſhips and boates in the great riuers of England were oftentimes diſturbed, by leuying of weares, milles, milſtankes, ſtakes, and kedels, which were leuyed and ſet vp in the time of king Edward, ſonne of king Henrie, and after in ſuch riuers (whereby the ſhips & boates were diſturbed, that they might not paſſe as they were wont) ſhould be auoided and broken down neuer to be ſet vp againe. And that writtes ſhould be thereupon ſent to the ſhirife of ſuch places where neede ſhould be, to ſuruey and inquire and the ſame to execute, and that Juſtices ſhoulde be thereto aſſigned at all times when néede requireth. And after grieuous complaint both of great men and of the commons thereupon made in the parliament of the ſaide king Edward the third, in the xxv. yéere of his reigne, complaining by their petition, that the ſaide ſtatute was not duely executed nor obſerued according to the forme and the effect thereof, It was accorded and eſtabliſhed, that the ſame ſtatute in that point ſhoulde be holden and kept after the tenor of the ſame, adioyned thereto, that if anie ſuch noyſance be done, that the ſame be broken downe by due proces contained in the ſaide ſtatute, And he that againe doth leuye ſuch noyſance, and be thereof duely attainted, he ſhall renne in the paine of an hundred markes againſt our ſoueraigne lord the king to be leuyed by the eſtretes of the eſcheker. The ſame law ſhall be holden of a noyſance made by the enhauncing of the ſaid weres, milles, milſtankes, ſtakes, and kedels, as by newe leuying of the ſame, as in the ſaide ſtatutes more plainly appeareth. And then at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, ſhewing by their petition, that the common paſſages of ſhippes and boates in the great riuers of England, and alſo medowes and paſtures, and erable landes adioyning to the ſaid riuers, were greatly diſturbed, drowned, waſted, and deſtroyed by the outragious enhauncing and ſtraiting of weres, milles, milſtankes, ſtakes, and kedels, made in olde time and leuyed before the time of the ſaid king Edward, ſonne to the ſaide king Henrie, whereby great loſſe and dammage enſued to the people of the realme, and dayly ſhould enſue, if remedie were not prouided, therefore it was ordeined and enacted by the aſſent of the ſaid parliament, holden the firſt yéere of the ſaid pretenſed king Henrie the fourth, that the ſaid ſtatutes in al their articles ſhould be obſerued, firmely kept and duely executed. Adioyned thereto that commiſſions ſhall be made in due forme to ſufficient perſons to be Juſtices in euery countie of England, where neede ſhall be, to ſuruey and keepe the waters & great riuers there, & to correct & amend the faults, & to make due execution by the ſaide ſtatutes according to the effect of the ſame, aſwel by their ſurueying aduiſe & diſcretion, as by enqueſtes to be taken thereof within franchiſe & without, when néede ſhall be, & to heare & determine all thoſe things aforeſaid, & moreouer to ſuruey the weres, milles, milſtankes, ſtakes and kedels, made in old time & leuyed before the ſaid time of king Edward, ſonne to king Henrie, and ſuch as they finde too much enhaunced or ſtreited, to correct, breake downe and amende in the maner and forme aforeſaide. Sauing alwaies a reaſonable ſubſtance of the ſame weres, milles, milſtankes, ſtakes, and kedels, ſo made in olde time and leuyed. And if anie ſuch anoyſance of weres milles, milſtankes, ſtakes, and kedels, in letting of the paſſages and ſtreiting made in old time and leuied, be & iudged or conſidered by the ſaid Juſtices to be broken downe or amended, he that hath the freehold of the ſame ſhall do execution thereof of his owne coſtes, within halfe a yeere after knowledge giuen to him, vpon paine of forfeiture of an hundred markes to be paide to our ſoueraigne lord the king by eſtretes in yͤ eſcheker, & he that doth leuye them againe, enhaunce or ſtreite them againſt the ſaide iudgement, and thereof be conuict, ſhall renne in the paine of an hundred markes to be paid to our ſoueraigne lord the king by eſtretes in the eſcheker aforeſaide, as in the ſame ſtatutes more fully appeareth. Againſt which great charter, & all the ſtatutes aforeſaide, in diuers partes of this realme of England, both in the deſtroying of the fiſhe as afore is ſaide, and in diſturbance of the paſſages of ſhips, barges, boates, and other veſſels by diuers and manie people, diuers fiſhgarthes, milles, mildammes, milſtankes, lockes, ebbing weres, ſtakes, kedels, heckes, fludgates, and diuers other diſturbances be daily enhanced, leuyed & enlarged, to the great dammage of our ſoueraigne lord the king and of his faithful liege people. Our ſoueraigne lord the king graciouſly conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporal, and at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid ſtatute of yͤ great charter, and all other ſtatutes concerning the premiſſes, ſhall be duely obſerued and kept, Adioyned thereto, that if after the feaſt of ſaint Michael, which ſhall be in the yere of our lord god M.cccc.lxxv. by award rule or iudgement of anie of the ſaid commiſſioners aſſigned, according to the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid firſt yeere of Henrie the fourth, it be founde, that anie ſuch weres, fiſhgarthes, milles, mildammes, milſtankes, lockes, ebbing weres, ſtakes, kedels, heckes, or fludgates be made, leuyed, enhaunced, ſtreited or enlarged againſt the ſame ſtatute, the offenders in this behalfe contrarie to the aforeſaid award rule and iudgement, being duely warned by the ſhirife or vnderſhirife by Scire facias directed to the ſhirife or ſhirifes of ſuch countie or counties, where ſuch weres, fiſhgarthes, milles, mildammes, milſtankes, and other noyſances diſturbances or impediments be. And within thrée monethes next after the ſaid garniſement made they do not duely and wholie amend, breakedowne and auoide the ſaid making, leuying, enhauncing, ſtreiting or enlarging, being defectiue as afore is ſaide, in the ſaide ſtatute made in the ſaide firſt yéere, that then he or they being defectiue in this behalfe, ſhall forfeit to our ſoueraigne lorde the king an hundred markes, to be payed by eſtretes in the eſcheker, in manner and forme as in the ſame ſtatute more fully is conteined. Moreouer if the ſaid offender or his heire or heires, aſſigne or aſſignes, or anie of them do differre or continue the ſame default, contrarie to the award, rule and iudgement of yͤ commiſſioners aforeſaid, that he or they ſo doing differring or continuing yͤ ſaid default, being not correct nor amended, ſhall forfeit C. markes, the one halfe thereof to our ſoueraigne lorde the king, and the other halfe to anie of his liege people, which in this behalfe will ſue for the ſame by action of Det to be conceiued by original writ, without fine to be made or taken for the ſaue in the chauncerie. In which action, like proces, rule, iudgement and execution ſhall be allowed, had and made, as is vſed in other actions of Det purſued at the common law by writ, and that the defendant in anie ſuch action be not admitted to do or wage his law, nor that no protection or eſſoine in the kings ſeruice be allowed for the defendant in the ſame writ. Moreouer it is ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the ſame authoritie, that if anie perſon or perſons, other than ſuch, againſt whom ſuch award, rule or iudgement were made and had, being heire or aſſigne to them or anie of them, do preſume to occupie or continue anie weres, fiſhgarthes, milles, mildamnes, milſtankes, lockes, ebbing weres, ſtakes, kedels, hekkes, fludgates, or other diſturbances or impediments as before is ſaid, he or they ſo preſuming to occupie or continue, ſhall forfeit at euery default for euery moneth as is aforeſaid C. markes, the one halfe to our ſoueraigne lorde the king, and the other halfe to him of the kinges liege people, that wil in this behalfe ſue by action of det, thereupon to be conceiued without paying anie fine for the ſame, as is aforeſaide, in which action like proceſſe, rule, iudgement and execution ſhall be vſed and made, as is in all other actions of det purſued at the common law by writ. And that the defendant in any ſuch action ſhall not be admitted, nor in any wiſe receiued to wage or do his law. Nor no maner protection nor eſſoine in the kings ſeruice be for ſuch defendant in anie wiſe allowed.

Vitailers.

Item where as the gouernors that is to ſaie, Maiors, bailiffes and other like gouernors of euery citie, borough and towne of ſubſtance within this realme of Englande for the moſt partie haue courtes of léetes and viewes of frankepledge, holden yeerely within the ſame cities, boroughes & townes, and ſurueying of all vitailers there, and correction and puniſhment of the offenders and breakers of the aſſiſe of the ſame, to be preſented and amerced, if anie default be found in the ſaid courtes, or by their ſurueying, which by reaſon ought not to be contraried, nor the vitailers there by the law ought not to be ſurcharged or oppreſſed, as now of late diuers perſons daily entending their ſingular auayle and profit to oppreſſe the ſaid vitailers, and to enter and breake the libertie of diuers places in this realme, hauing franchiſes and ſurueying of al vitailers and correction of the ſame: haue purchaſed letters patents of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, to be ſurueyors and correctors of all ſuch vitailers within diuers cities, boroughes & other places of this realme of England, as of ale, béere, wine, and other ſuch vitailes, by which pretence and vnlawfull office they do commit diuers and manie extortions and oppreſſions amongeſt the kings liege people, taking of them vnlawfully diuers great fines and raunſomes, to the great dammage of the kings liege people, and alſo great derogation of the liberties and franchiſes of diuers of the ſaid cities boroughes and townes. Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king (the premiſſes conſidering) by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame parliament hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that all the letters patentes graunted by him to anie perſon or perſons of anie office of ſearching or ſurueying of wine, ale, béere, or anie other vitaile, ſhall be vtterly voide and of none effect. And that no perſon, other than ſuch gouernors before rehearſed, or other entitled by point of charter, from the feaſt of Eſter next comming, by colour of ſuch letters patents ſo obteined, or afterward to be obteined, as before is ſaid, ſhall vſe or exerciſe any ſuch office, vpon peine of forfeiture for euery default xl. li. The one halfe thereof to our ſoueraigne lorde the king, to be employed onely to the vſe of his houſe, the other halfe to him that in this behalfe will ſue for the ſame by action of Det, wherein like proces, rule and demeanour ſhall be had, as is commonly vſed in other actions of Det at the common lawe: And that the defendant in anie ſuch action ſhall not be receiued nor admitted to his lawe. Nor that anie protection or eſſoine of the kinges ſeruice be to him in anie wiſe allowed.

Cap. 9.
Eſchetors.

Item whereas by an ordinance made at Weſtminſter in the xlii. yéere of the reigne of king Edward the third, progenitor of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, amongeſt other things it was ordeined, that none ſhould be made eſchetour, vnleſſe he had xx. poundes of land at the leaſt or more in fée, and that they ſhould do their offices in their proper perſons, and if anie other be, he ſhall be out: which ordinance according to the true meaning thereof, is not obſerued, to the great dammage of diuers people of this realme of England, becauſe that manie perſons inſufficient and of light conſcience be yeerely made eſchetors in diuers partes of this realme, which oftentimes doe ſet their office of eſchetourſhip to ferme to other great men, extortioners and oppreſſers of the people, the ſame eſchetours taking of the ſaide perſons ſuch ſumme of money as betwixt them may be agréede, and ſuertie to be diſcharged vppon their account, and to be ſaued harmeleſſe againſt our ſoueraigne lorde the king and all other perſons: which perſons ſo vnlawfully taking the ſaide office of eſchetourſhip by an vndue manner to ferme, bynde them ſelfe to bée extortioners to the people and offenders, where of olde time by the gouernaunce of the realme of Englande, eſchetours and their deputies ſhoulde bee and ought to bee of good, ſufficient, and well diſpoſed perſons and rightfull, aſwell to our ſoueraigne lorde the king, as to his people: where at this daie fewe ſuch perſons be made eſchetors or their deputies. It is therefore ordeined by authoritie of this preſent parliament, that no eſchetour to be made after the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our lord, which ſhall be in the yéere of our lord God M.cccc.lxxiii. ſhall take vpon him the office of eſchetour, nor occupie the ſame office by himſelfe nor by none other perſon, vnleſſe the ſaid eſchetour, or other perſon or perſons to his vſe, haue at the time that he ſhall be choſen eſchetour, lands, tenements, or rents in fée ſimple, fee taile, or for terme of life of the yéerely value of xx. li. lying and being within the ſame countie or counties, whereof he ſhall be made eſchetour. Nor that anie ſuch eſchetour to be choſen after the ſaid feaſt, ſhall in anie wiſe ſell nor ſet to ferme the ſaide office of eſchetourſhip, nor make anie deputie or deputies, but ſuch for whom he will anſwere at his perill: the name or names of the ſaid deputie or deputies to be certified by the ſame eſchetour, by his letters patents to the treaſurer and barons of the kings eſcheker for the time being, within xx. daies after ſuch deputation. And that no ſuch deputie or deputies take vpon him or them to occupie in yͤ office of eſchetourſhip, except ſuch eſchetour haue lands, tenements or rents to the aforeſaid yéerely value, in manner and forme as is aforeſaide. And if anie perſon or perſons after the ſaide feaſt do contrarie to the premiſſes, or anie of them, he ſhall forfeit for euery default. xl. li. the one halfe thereof to our ſoueraigne lord the king, to be employed to the vſe of his honorable houſe: the other halfe to euerie of the kings liege people, which will therfore ſue by action of Det, therein like proceſſe, rule, iudgement, coſtes and dammages, ſhall be had and awarded, as is vſed in other actions of Det vſually purſued by writ at the common lawe. And that no waging of lawe, protection, nor eſſoine be in anie wiſe allowed in the ſame. And that the Iuſtices of peace in euery place hauing Iuſtices of peace within them, ſhall haue power to heare and determine euery ſuch forfeiture vpon preſentment thereof had before them in their ſeſſions, in which preſentment like proces ſhall be had, as is vſed vpon enditements of treſpas done with force & armes againſt the kings peace. Prouided alwaies that this act do not extend to anie perſon or perſons made or to be made eſchetour of anie citie, borough or towne of this realme of England, hauing authoritie to make or to be eſchetours within them ſelfe by the letters patentes of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, or of anie of his noble progenitors or predeceſſors.

Iuſtices of the peace.

Here after followeth the Statute made at Weſtminſter in the xiiii. yeere of King Edwarde the fourth.

Cap.1.

OUr ſoueraigne lorde king Edward the fourth, at his parliament ſommoned and begon at Weſtminſter the vi. daie of October, in the twelfth yéere of his reigne, and continued by prorogation til the xxiii. daie of Februarie, in the xiiii. yéere of his reigne, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and by the commons in the ſaid parliament the ſaide xxiii. daie aſſembled, by authoritie of the ſame parliament, will and graunteth, and by the aduiſe of the ſame hath ordeined and enacted, that all ſuch perſons, and euery of them, which by the grace of God ſhall paſſe ouer the ſea with our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king in this voyage royall and noble ſeruice, and ſhall abide in his noble ſeruice, by their atturneys or deputies or anie of them, or by the atturney or deputie of anie of them, ſhall enter and take, and may enter and take poſſeſſion and profite of and in all honours, caſtels, manors, landes, tenementes, rents, aduowſons, hereditamentes, and poſſeſſions, which be to them deſcended, or to anie of them hereafter ſhall deſcende, remaine, reuert, or by anie meane ſhall come after the death of anie of their aunceſters, or anie perſon or perſons in anie other forme by the courſe of the lawe of the land, during the ſaide voyage, if anie parcel be holden of our ſoueraigne lorde the king by their ſaide entre, poſſeſſions, taking of the iſſues and profites of the ſame, without fée or fine to be payed to our ſoueraigne lorde the king for the ſame. And if anie office be thereof founde hereafter, then they and euerie of them to haue eſpeciall liueries and liuerie vnder the great ſeale of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, without fée or fine to be paide for the ſame to our ſoueraigne lorde the king, to enter and take poſſeſſion in and of the honors, caſtels, and all other the premiſſes, euerie perſon according to his right and title: And the ſame to haue and enioy with the iſſues and profites of the ſame of their title growen to them and euerie of them, without anie other liuerie petition or purſuite of the lawe to be made in this behalfe to our ſoueraigne lorde the king. And that during the ſame time of the voiage, and they abyding in the kings noble ſeruice, as afore is ſaide, no maner proces to be made in anie of the counties of our ſoueraigne lorde the king againſt anie of the ſaid perſons, for anie homage, fealtie or other corporall ſeruice, which may not be done but in their proper perſons, for anie honors, caſtels, ſeigniories, manors, landes, tenements and other hereditaments and poſſeſſions, which they or anie perſon or perſons to their vſe hath or hereafter ſhall haue during the ſaid voyage, and being in the kings noble ſeruice as afore is ſaide. But that all ſuch proces ſhall ceaſe during the ſaid voyage and ſeruice. And they and euery of them ſo paſſing in the ſaid voyage royall, as afore is ſaid, and the feffees to the vſe of euerie of them may haue licence vnder the kings great ſeale, without fée or fine to be paide for alienations feffements and grantes of the honors, caſtels, manors, lands, tenements, rents, ſeruices, annuities and other hereditaments and poſſeſſions with their appurtenances, to ſuch perſons whome them ſhall pleaſe: And the ſame perſons to receiue the ſame honors, caſtels and other the premiſſes, of what maner eſtate them ſhal pleaſe to yͤ intent that they may thereof make their will for paiment of their charges and other things. And if it happen anie of the ſaid perſons, which ſo ſhall paſſe and abide in the ſaid viage and ſeruice of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king as afore is ſaid, to die during the ſaid time and in the ſaid ſeruice, his heire being within age, that then all maner perſons, hauing anie maner eſtate by way of feofment or otherwiſe to the vſe of the ſame perſon or perſons ſo dying, in any honors caſtles and other the premiſſes with their appurtenances, to the vſe and performance of yͤ will of the ſaid perſon, which doth ſo deceaſe, ſhall haue the ſame without any interruption of our ſouereigne lord the king, or any of his officers or miniſters, by reaſon of any office thereof to be found, although the ſaid feofements eſtate or alienation were made or had by colluſion or otherwiſe entituling our ſouereigne lord the king: Except ſuch manors lands & tenements, which any perſon or perſons, paſſing or going with the king in this viage roial as afore is ſaid, or by the grant or gift of our redoubted ſouereigne lord the king in any maner. And that they and euery of them hauing and obteining the ſame manors lands and tenements, may by the auctoritie aforeſaid make eſtate of the ſame ſaid manors landes or tenements in any maner parcell of the ſame manors lands and tenements to other perſons in fee or otherwiſe to their own vſe, in performing of their wills, as before is ſaid. And the ſame eſtate or eſtates ſo to be made, to be good & effectuall, as long as the ſaid grants and gifts thereof made or to be made by our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king to them or any of them, ſhall ſtand and be in their force and effect and not determined, nor reuertible to our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king or his noble heires. And moreouer our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king hath ordeined ſtabliſhed and enacted, by the aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons being in the ſame parliament, that if it happen anie of the aforeſaid perſons, ſo paſſing & abiding with our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king in his ſaid ſeruice and viage roiall as afore is ſaid, to die, his heire being within age now or hereafter holding or obteining any lands or tenements of our ſouereigne lord the king by knights ſeruice: his ſaid feoffes and alſo his executors, ſhall haue and inioy the ward and mariage, with the ward of yͤ ſame manors lands and tenements ſo holden, during the nonage of of ſame heire, to the vſe of the ſame perſon ſo dying: and with the ſame to performe all his will. And moreouer the ſame our ſouereigne lord the king ſhall grant by his letters patents the ward and mariage of the ſame heire, and of all his manors lands & tenements, which the king ought to haue by reaſon of yͤ ſame, to the ſame feoffes or executors of the ſame perſon or perſons ſo dying, or to ſuch of them, which for the ſame will ſue, to the vſe of the ſame perſon or perſons ſo dying, as afore is ſaid, without fee or fine to the king for the ſame to be paid. Saued alwaies to euerie perſon or perſons, and to their heires and ſucceſſors, other than our ſouereigne lord the king and his heires and executors, all their right, title, prerogatiue and intereſt, which they haue or may haue in any of the premiſſes, as if this aforeſaid act had neuer bene made, except corporall ſeruice, as afore is ſaid, which corporall ſeruice maie not be done but in their proper perſons as afore is ſaid. And if any doubt or queſtion riſe or happen in anie maner in yͤ interpretations or conſtructions of yͤ points or articles aforeſaid, or any of them, then yͤ ſame our ſouereigne lord the king will & granteth by the ſame auctoritie aforeſaid, that the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and other of his counſell, being here in his abſence, ſhall haue full power and auctoritie to diſcuſſe and ſet in this caſe a due remedie and redreſſe by their good diſcretion and aduiſe, according to yͤ faithfull intent of the ſame articles and points concerning the ſayd perſons ſo dying in yͤ ſaid ſeruice and viage roiall of our ſouereigne lord the king beyond the ſea. Prouided alwaies that this ſaid act or ordinance, or anie thing comprehended or conteined in the ſame, ſhall not be in anie maner preiudiciall nor hurtfull to any of the kings liege people: but ſhal anely be executorie againſt our ſouereigne lord the king and his noble heires.

Chap. 2.

Item our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king remembring that it was ordeined enacted and ſtabliſhed, by auctoritie of the parliament holden at Weſtminſter yͤ ſecond day of May, in the ix. yeare of the reigne of the noble king Henrie the v. late in deed & not of right king of this noble realme of England, as hereafter followeth. Item whereas the taking of aſſiſes generally hath long ſeaſed throughout this realme of England, becauſe of a ſtatute and ordinance made by our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, at his ſecond paſſage towards the parties of Normandie, and by his counſell: Our ſaid ſouereigne lord conſidering the great diſeaſes and damages, which diuers of his liege people hath had and ſuſtained by the ſame ſeaſſing, hath ſtraightlie commanded & commandeth, that his iuſtices ſhall hold yͤ aſſiſes through the realme of England in the maner vſed and accuſtomed. And for to eſchew the diſheriſons of yͤ ſame perſons, which now be paſſed and ſhall paſſe in this viage roiall of the king (which God ſpeed) and alſo of the perſons which be abiding in yͤ ſeruice of our ſouereigne lord the king in the parties of Normandie & of France, it is ordeined and prouided, that in euerie protection, with the clauſe of volumus to be made for euerie of the ſame perſons, there ſhall be in the clauſe of the exception of yͤ ſame conteined omiſſion of theſe words, aſsiſe noue diſſeiſine. And that all protections be allowable for them, and euerie of them in all the counties of our ſouereigne lord the king in any place where ſuch protection is caſt forth for anie ſuch perſon, in all yͤ plees of aſſiſes, aſwel of no. diſſ. as of freſh force, without any difficultie. Prouided alwaies that the iudgments to be giuen from henſeforth in ſuch aſſiſes arraigned or to be arraigned, ſhal not be preiudicial to any of yͤ ſaid perſons ſo abiding in yͤ kings noble ſeruice beyond yͤ ſea, as afore is ſaid, which hath any thing in reuerſion or in remainder in ſuch lands or tenemẽts, whereof ſuch aſſiſes be or ſhalbe arraigned, if they yͤ haue in reuerſion or remainder in ſuch lands and tenements be not named in yͤ ſame aſſiſes, but that they be againſt them void. ſhall indure till the parliament, which ſhalbe next holden after the next comming againe of our ſouereigne lord the king into this realme of England. And if this ordinance, touching the ſaid perſons abiding in the kings ſeruice beyond the ſea, and alſo touching the ſaid perſons, which haue paſſed and ſhall paſſe in the ſaid viage, be not ſufficient for the eaſe and ſuretie of them, it is accorded and aſſented, that the lords of the kings counſell for the time being, ſhall haue full power by auctoritie of this parliament, to ſet ordaine and prouide ſufficient remedie for the eaſe and ſuretie of all the ſaid perſons and euerie of them, as to the ſaide lords ſhall ſeeme auaileable and expedient in ỹ caſe, after their good aduiſe and diſcretion. Our ſouereigne lord the king will and hath ordeined enacted and eſtabliſhed, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that ỹ ſame order & the ſame law, compriſed in the ſaid ſtatute and ordinance, ſhalbe now obſerued and kept, & ſhalbe as auaileable for all maner of perſons, which now ſhall paſſe ouer the ſea with our ſouereigne lord the king in this viage roiall, and there ſhall abide in his ſaid noble ſeruice, as they were for ſuch perſons, which did paſſe ouer the ſea with the ſaid late king, and there did abide in his noble ſeruice. And that al ſuch perſons, which now ſhall paſſe ouer the ſea with our ſaid ſouereign lord the king, ſhall haue and inioy in euerie point all maner auantages, as the ſaid perſons ſo paſſing ouer the ſea with the ſaid late king had ſhould haue and might haue had by reaſon of the ſaid ſtatute. Prouided alwaies that the ſaid perſons, ſo paſſing ouer the ſea with our ſouereigne lord the king, ſhall haue no benefit nor auantage of this preſent act, of any entre made by them or any of them in any manors lands tenements and other hereditaments after the firſt day of this preſent parliament ſummoned & begun at Weſtminſter. This act and ordinance to indure till the next parliament, which ſhalbe firſt holden after the next comming of our ſouereigne lord the king into England.

Prouided alſo that the ſaid perſons ſo paſſing ouer the ſea with our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, haue nor inioy no benefit nor auantage of or by this preſent act, of any entre made or had after the firſt day of this preſent parliament, or to be made or had at any time hereafter by the ſaid perſons their atturnies or deputies or any of them, in any manors lands tenements and other hereditaments, or any other manors and poſſeſſions. And this act and ordinance to indure till the parliament, which ſhall be firſt holden after the next comming againe of our ſouereigne lord the king into his noble realme of England.

Shipping of wolles.

Newcaſtle Felonie.

Our ſouereigne lord the king, the xxv. day of Februarie, in the xiiii. yeere of his reigne, remembring that in this preſent parliament he had ordeined and eſtabliſhed, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons aſſembled in the ſaid parliament, a certeine act in maner and forme as followeth. Our ſouereign lord ỹ king remembring that whereas before this time in diuers ſtatutes amongſt other things it is ordeined and enacted, that all maner wolles & fels called morling or ſhorling, growing within any part of this realme of England or Wales except wolles and wolfels called morling and ſhorling, growing in the counties of Weſtmerland Cumberland and Northumberland, and of the growing of the biſhoprike of Durham betwixt the waters of Tine and Teaſe, and of the counties of Richmondſhire and Northaldertonſhire, except wolles to be ſhipped towards the weſt in gallies or caracks, to be ſhipped and caried out of this realme of England, ſhall be conueied to the ſtaple of Callis, & to none other place, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaid wolles, wolfels, and fels called morling and ſhorling, as in the ſame ſtatutes more plainly doth appeare. Neuertheleſſe the ſaid ſtatutes & ordinances notwithſtanding, a great multitude of the ſaid wolles wolfelles, and felles called ſhorling and morling growing in Yorkeſwold in the countie of Lincolne Notingam and Darbie, and in other counties of this realme of England, vnder the colour of exception before rehearſed in the ſame north parties, be caried out of this realme of England into Flanders, Holland, Zeland, Braband, & other diuers parties beyond the ſea, whereby not onelie great decaie was of ỹ kinges cuſtomes & ſubſidies, but alſo deſtroying and diminiſhing of the price of the ſaid wolles, wolfelles, and felles called ſhorling and morling, growing within this realme, to the vniuerſall damage and great impoueriſhment of the ſame: Our ſouereigne lord the king, by the aduiſe aſſent and auctoritie aforeſaid, hath ordeined enacted and ſtabliſhed, that all wolles wolfelles, and felles called ſhorling and morling, growing within this realme (other than before except) to be ſhipped and conuied out of the realme, ſhalbe conueied to the ſtaple of Callis, and to none other place. And that all wolles wolfels & felles called ſhorling and morling, growing and being within the ſaid counties of Weſtmer. Cumber. and North. the biſhoprike, Richmond, and Alderton, to be caried out of this realme, ſhall be ſhipped at Newcaſtle vpon Tine onelie, and from thenſe to be conueied to Callis, or to Newmidleborough in Flanders, there to be ſtapled and vttered, and at none other place. And if anie man attempt and do contrarie, and thereupon be duelie conuict: that then he ſhall be of like condition as a man attainted of any felonie, after the courſe of the common law, and ſhall run in like paine and forfeiture as he that is ſo attainted ſhould do. Alſo by the ſame aduiſe and auctoritie it is ordeined, that all wolles wolfels and felles called ſhorling & morling, growing or being in any countrie within this realme or in Wales or in the marches therof (other than before except) to be caried out of this realme, ſhall be conueied to the ſaid ſtaple of Callis and to none other place, vpon the ſame paine & forfeiture. The kings prerogatiue to grant any licence to the contrarie except. This act to begin to take effect at the feaſt of ſaint Michaell, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God 1474. and to indure by the ſpace of fiue yeares onelie, which act our ſouereigne lord the king will, ordeineth, and eſtabliſheth, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of this land in this preſent parliament aſſembled, to be in his full ſtrength & effect in euerie point thereof. Sauing onelie where as it is by the ſame ſtatute ordeined, that all wolls wolfels and fels called ſhorling & morling, growing and being within the ſaid counties of Weſtmerland, Cumberland, Northumberland, the biſhoprike, Riſhmondſhire, and Northaldertonſhire, to be caried out of this realme, ſhalbe ſhipped at Newcaſtle vpon Tine onelie, and there to be conueied to Callis or to Newmidleborough in Flanders, there to be ſtapled and vttered, & at none other place. The ſaid act for ſo much ſhalbe void. And that in the ſtead of theſe words it ſhalbe as hereafter followeth. It is ordeined by the ſame auctoritie, ẏ all wolls, wolfels, and fels called ſhorling & morling, growing & being within the ſaide counties of Weſtmerland, Cumberland, Northumb. ẏ biſhoprik, Richmondſhire, & Northaldertonſhire to be caried out of this realme, ſhalbe ſhipped at Newcaſtle vpon Tine onelie. And from thenſe to be caried to Callis, or to the towne of Birwike in Brabant, or to any other certeine place at the kinges pleaſure to be named, there to be ſtapled and vttered, and at none other place. Alſo it is ordeined by the aſſent and auctoritie aforeſaid, that in caſe where our ſouereigne lord the king ordeineth, that the ſaid wolles, wolfels called ſhorling and morling, of ẏ growing of the counties and biſhoprike aforeſaid, to be ſtapled in any other place beyond the ſea than at Callis or Birwike aforeſaid, that then the place ſo to be named by the king, ſhall be certified and publiſhed by open proclamation in the ſaid counties of Yorke, Northumberland, Cumberland, Weſtmerland, the biſhoprike of Durham, and the towne of Newcaſtle. And that euerie of the ſubiectes of our ſouereigne lord the king, after ſuch proclamations made, and after thrée moneths after the ſame proclamation paſſed, ſhall be bound to haue and carrie the ſaid wolles and wolfels to the ſaid places, to be named by our ſouereigne lord the king, and expreſſed in the ſaid proclamation, vpon the paine before limit. Birwike.

Cap. 4. Item whereas diuers and great offences and attempts haue nowe of late bene committed and perpetrate againſt the amities and lieges made betwixt our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king and ſtrange princes, and againſt the ſafeconduits and licences of our ſouereigne lord the king, and againſt the lawes and ſtatutes heretofore made for the puniſhment of ſuch offenders in that behalfe, to the great diſclander of our ſouereigne lord the king, and the vniuerſall damage of all this realme of England: The king therefore by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame parliament hath ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted, that all ſtatutes and ordinances made before the fourth day of March, in the firſt yeare of his reign by auctoritie of any parliament not repealed, againſt the offenders and breakers of amities truce lieges and ſafeconduits aforeſaid, be and ſhall be in their full force and effect. And that euerie of the ſame ſtatutes and ordinances be put in due execution in all things before the iudge or iudges, perſon or perſons, ordeined by the ſame ſtatute and ordinances or any of them according to the tenures and effects of euerie of them. Anie grant or confirmation by act of parliament or otherwiſe, vſe or cuſtome made had or vſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding. Prouided alwaies that this act extend not to any act or ordinance made for the puniſhment of any ſuch offenders in the ſecond yeare of king Henrie the ſixth, late in déede and not of right king of England. Safeconduits. Truce.

Here followeth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter in the xvii. yeare of the reigne of king Edward the fourth.

OUr ſouereigne lord the king Edward the fourth after the conqueſt, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xvi. daie of Ianuarie, in the xvii. yeare of his reigne, to the honor of God and the wealth of him and his realme, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the inſtance and requeſt of his commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by autoritie of the ſame parliament hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed diuers ordinances and ſtatutes in forme following.

Chap. 1. Firſt where as in a ſtatute made the ix. yeare of king Edward the third, noble progenitor to our ſouereigne lord the king that now is, it was ordeined, that no falſe monie counterfeit to the ſterling, ſhould be brought into this realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame monie. Sauing that all maner people of euerie realme might bring to the exchange, as bullion, all manner good monie of ſiluer, of whatſoeuer valure it were and there to receiue couenable exchange. And where as in the ſecond yeare of the pretenſed reigne of king Henrie the fourth, for ẏ great deceipt which then was in the monie of gold and ſiluer of Flanders and Scotland, which commonlie did runne and paiments made in diuers parties of this realme of England, to the great damage of our ſouereigne lord the king and his people, amongſt other it was ordeined, that all the monie of gold and ſiluer of the coine of Flanders, and of all other lands and countries beyond the ſea, and of Scotland, ſhould be voided out of the realme of England, or put to the coine or bullion within the ſame realme before the feaſt of Chriſtmas then next following, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, which ordinances were made becauſe that the ſame monie expended and ſuffered to runne in paiment within this realme, were deceiptfull. And now ſo it is, that late & at theſe daies counterfeit & falſe monie of ſuch countries allaied, as grotes and pence in Ireland, in part like to the grotes, halfe grotes, & pence of this realme, in ſuch a great multitude be daily brought into this Monie. Bullion.

realme out of Ireland and other places and put in paiments in this realme, which if it ſhould long indure, it ſhould not onelie deſtroie the good monie of this realme, but alſo ſhould cauſe the good monie of ſiluer of this realme made within the ſame, to be tranſlated and turned into the ſaid falſe & counterfait monie made in Ireland & other places. And alſo ſhould cauſe a great part of the plate of ſiluer to be caried out of ÿ realme, and to be coined with the ſaid falſe and counterfeit monie. Wherefore by the aſſent, requeſt and auctoritie aforeſaid, it is ordeined, that after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming none of the ſame monie of Ireland ſhall run in paiment within this realm Wales or the marches of ÿ ſame, and that no perſon after ÿ ſaid feaſt put any of the ſame monies nor ÿ ſame receiue in anie paiment within this realme, Wales, Callis, or the marches of the ſame, or any part of the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame monie ſo put or receiued for or in paiment. The ſame monie ſo forfeit to be ſeaſed by anie of the kings liege people, & in thrée parts to be diuided, wherof one part ſo forfait ſhalbe applied to the vſe of ÿ kings highnes, an other part therof to him or them which ſhall find and proue the ſame forfeiture before any iuſtices of peace of any countie within this realme, where any ſuch forfeiture ſhall happen, or before ÿ maior, bailifs ſhirifs or other chiefe gouernors of citie, borough or towne corporat, or within any of the v. ports within this realme of England, or at Callis before ÿ treaſurer and controller there, if like forfeiture fall or happen, and all ÿ reſidue of the ſame forfeiture ſhalbe to the maior, bailife, or other chiefe gouernor of ÿ citie borough or towne corporat, or any of the v. ports where ſuch forfeiture ſhalbe found, to be applied to the vſe of the ſame citie, borough, towne or port to ſuch of them which haue any forfeitures by any lawfull grant or auctoritie of the ſaid parliament of our ſoueraigne lord the king. And if they haue no maner ſuch forfeiture, than the ſame third part reſidue ſhalbe applied to them which haue ſuch forfeitures within the ſame city, borough or towne corporat, or any of ÿ ſaid v. ports by like auctoritie or otherwiſe. And the whole forfeiture to be found & proued at Callis or at the marches of the ſame, ſhalbe onelie to our ſouereigne lord the king. And if ſuch forfeiture happen to be found and proued in anie other towne or village not corporat, ÿ ſame reſidue of the ſaid forfeiture ſhalbe to the chiefe lord of the fée of the ſame towne, to be applied to the vſe of the ſame lord. And if variance do fall betwixt any finder: affirming againſt anie other perſon ſuch forfeiture to be, ſo that the ſame monie forfeit maie not be ſeaſed without action by the ſaid finder to be ſued, that then the ſame finder, if he will purſue & proue the ſaid forfeiture, he ſhall be therto receiued and haue an action of debt in this behalfe, as at the common law at his election, or otherwiſe before ÿ iuſtices of peace of ÿ countie, out of ÿ citie or towne corporat where ſuch forfeiture ſhall happen. And if it happen in citie borough or towne corporat, than before ÿ maior ſhirife or bailifes or other chiefe gouernor there, by bill or billes in this behalfe, in which action of debt to be purſued at the common law, like proceſſe, iudgement and execution ſhalbe, as is vſed in other actions of debt there to be purſued. And before the iuſtices of peace, or before anie of the ſaid maior ſhirife or bailifs or other chiefe gouernors aforeſaid, the proceſſe before appearance ſhalbe by attachment by the bodie infinit. And after iudgement by Fieri facias, Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, or Elegit, at the election of the purſuer in this behalfe. The purſuer which ſo doth recouer, to reteine his part aforeſaid of the ſaid forfeiture perteining to him in his own hands to his own vſe. And the part perteining to the king, to be deliuered to the ſhirife or ſhirifes, bailife or bailifes in the kings eſcheker, to be accomptable of ſuch countie or place corporat where ſuch recouerie ſhall be had by writing indented in this behalfe to be made, to be imploied to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king as is aforeſaid. And the reſidue of the ſaide forfeitures recouered, to be deliuered to anie of the ſaid maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs or other chiefe gouernors corporat as afore is ſaide, to be applied in the maner and forme before eſpecified. And if anie ſuche forfeitures be found and proued in anie towne or village not corporat, the ſame to be deliuered to the ſaid lorde of the fée, to be applied to his vſe. And where as by the ſtatute made in the ſecond yeare of the pretenſed reigne of the late king Henrie the ſixt, it was ordeined amongſt other that no golde nor ſiluer ſhould be caried out of this realm, vpon paine of forfeiture of ÿ ualure of the ſame, & that he which eſpieth the ſame, and thereof giueth knowledge to the counſell or treaſurer of England, ſhould haue the fourth part of ſuch forfeiture (ranſome and fine of the engliſh priſoners taken beyond the ſea, and the monie which ſouldiors ſhal cary with them for their reaſonable coſts with other things in the ſame ſtatute comprized excepted) contrarie to which ſtatute and ordinance, and diuers other ordinances touching the ſame before this made: the monie of gold and ſiluer of this land, as marchandiſes, is caried and ſent out of this realme, aſwell by the denizens as aliens, to the great impoueriſhing of this realme, & final deſtruction of the treaſure of the ſame realme, if haſtie remedie be not prouided. It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon from the feaſt of Eaſter, ſhall carie nor do to be caried out of this realme or Wales, anie maner mony of coine of this realme, nor of the coine of other realmes, lands, or ſeignories. nor no plate, veſſell maſſe bullion nor iewels of gold wrought or vnwrought or of ſiluer without ÿ kings licence, except ſuch perſons as be diſpenſed within ÿ aforeſaid ſtatute made the ſaid ſecond yéere of king Henrie ÿ vi. and in other diuers ſtatutes, vpon paine of felonie, and to be adiudged and reputed as felonie. The ſame felonie to be heard and determined in like maner and forme and before ſuch perſon or perſons, as other felonies be commonly heard & determined within this realm. And where as in the ſtatute made in ÿ ix. yeare of king Edward the third amongſt other things it was ordeined, that ÿ ſterling halfpenie or farthing ſhould not be molten for veſſell, nor none other thing thing by Gouldſmith or other vpon peine of forfeiture of the moneie molten. And that the gouldſmith or other that ſo doth molte, ſhall be commaunded to priſon, there to remaine till he hath yeelden to the king the one halfe of that that he hath ſo molten, notwithſtanding anie charter or franchiſe graunted to the contrarie, which ſtatute was confermed by king Richard the ſecond, in his parliament holden the xvii. yeere of his reigne. And then amongeſt other it was ordained that no grote nor halfe grote ſhould be molten by no perſon for veſſell, nor other thing thereof to be made, ſo that by the ſame cauſe and by the ſaid carieng of moneie of this realme, and by the greate quantitie of gould beten for imagerie and ſuch like, and by the waſting of gould in gilding in diuers maners by gouldſmithes controlers & other officers, the moneie of this realme is greatlie diminiſhed, to the vniuerſall domage of the ſame realme. Therefore it is ordained by the ſaid auctoritie, that no gouldſmith nor other perſon, from the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter, ſhal molte or beate within this realme, Wales, Caleis or ẏ marches of ſame, any moneie of gould or ſiluer not broken, ſufficient to run in paiment, nor by anie occaſion of ſenſuallitie to miniſh bow or breake the moneie of this realme, able to runne in paiment, for to make anie veſſell or other thing thereof, or to gild anie thing with the ſame, nor that anie gouldſmith or other perſon within this relme, Wales, Calies or the marches of the ſame, from the ſaide feaſt of Eaſter, ſhall gilde anie manner veſſell baſon, pottes, cuppes, nuttes, or ſaltſellers of ſiluer, ornamentes of churches, ſtuffe for knightes made or to be made, and apparrell neceſſarie to be gilte for euerie ſuch perſon diſpenſed by the ſtatute of arraie, made in the third yeare of the raigne of our ſouereigne lorde the king that now is, & in the ordinance of apparell made in this preſent parliament except, vpon peine to forfeite the value of the moneie ſo molten beaten or voluntarilie bowed and broken or the valure of the veſſell, baſons, pottes, cuppes, nuttes, or ſaltſellers of ſiluer or other thing gilte, or the thing in which anie ſuch gilding ſhalbe, excepte before excepted. The third parte of euerie ſuch forfeiture to be applied to the vſe of the kings honorable houſe, The other parte thereof to the vſe of him or them which ſhall finde and proue the ſame forfeiture, in the manner as afore is ſaid in the article of monie of Ireland. The reſidue of the ſaide forfeiture to be to the maior, ſhiriffes, bailiffes, or other chiefe gouernours of the citie, borough or towne corporate, or anie of the fiue portes where ſuch forfeiture ſhall be founde and proued, to be applied to the vſe of the ſame citie, borough, towne or porte. And that the whole forfeiture to be founde and proued at Caleis or the marches of the ſame, to be onelie to our ſouereigne lorde the kinge. And if anie ſuch forfeiture happen to be found and proued in anie towne or village not corporate, the ſame reſidue ſhall be to the chiefe lord of the fee of the ſame towne or village to be applied to the vſe of the ſame lord. The finder of the ſame forfeiture, if he will purſue & proue the ſame, or in his default anie other perſon which will purſue or proue ſuch forfeiture, ſhall be thereto receiued, and haue in this behalfe an action of debt or at the common lawe at his election, or before the iuſtices of peace of the ſame countie out of citie or towne corporate, where ſuch forfeiture ſhal happen. And if it happen in citie borough or towne corporate, then before the maior, ſhiriffe or ſhiriffes, bailife or bailiffes, or other chiefe gouernour there, by bill or bils in this partie, in which action of debt, and in the ſaid bill and bils to be purſued, like diſpoſition, demeane, behauiour, reteining, iudgement and execution in this partie ſhall be had, according as in the aforeſaide article concerning moneie of Ireland is contained, anie charter, graunt, corporation or acte made to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And where as in the parliament holden the ſecond yeere of the vſurped reigne of Henrie the ſirt late in deede and not of right king of England, amongſt other it was ordained, that no gouldſmith nor worker of ſiluer within the citie of London, ſhould ſell anie thing wrought of ſiluer, vnleſſe it be as fine as the ſterling, except that that needeth ſowder in the making, which ſhall be allowed according as the ſowder ſhall be neceſſarie to be wrought in the ſame. And that no gouldſmith nor ieweller nor other man that worketh harneis of ſiluer, ſhall put anie of the ſame to ſale in the ſame citie, before it be touched with the touch of the Leopardes head, that which may reaſonablie beare the ſame touch. And alſo with the marke or ſigne of the worker of the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of the double. And that the marke or ſigne of euerie gouldſmith be committed to the wardens of the ſame miſterie. And if it may be found, that the keeper of the touch aforeſaid, doo touch anie ſuch harneis with the Leopardes head, which is not as fine in allaie as the ſterling, that then the keeper of the touch for euerie thing ſo proued not ſo good in allaie as the ſterling, ſhall forfeite the double value to our ſouereigne lorde the king & to the partie, which ſtatute is dailie broken by the gouldſmithes & other workers of ſiluer inhabiting aſwell in the citie of London as elſewhere within this realme & Wales, and our ſouereigne lord the king in effect nothing aunſwered of anie forfeiture compriſed in the ſame ſtatute, albeit that the kings liege people dailie buieng things wrought by the ſaid gouldſmithes or workers as fine gould or fine ſiluer, ſuppoſing it to be the ſame, where in deede it is not ſo, be greuouſlie diſceiued, becauſe that the ſaid touch of the Leopardes head is oftentimes ſet to ſuch thinges by the ſaid keeper of the ſaid touch of London & other places, as though the thing were fine & not defectife. And oftentimes the ſigne of the worker of the ſame is not ſet thereto according to the ſtatute aforeſaide, nor the ſame ſtatute is no perfite remedie to perſons greeued in this behalfe. It is ordained by auctoritie of this preſent parliament, for the better execution of the ſaid ſtatute, and for to eſchew the diſceite dailie doone by the ſaid gouldſmithes and workers of gould and ſiluer in the ſaid citie of London and elſewhere within this realme & Wales, that no gouldſmith nor other worker of gould & ſiluer or other, within the ſame mettals from the ſaide feaſt of Eaſter, ſhall worke, ſell or ſette to ſale anie maner baſe gould vnder the fineſſe of xviii. carettes otherwiſe called crates, nor no ſiluer vnleſſe it be as fine as the ſterling, except ſuch thing as requireth ſowder in the making of the ſame, which ſhall be alowed according to the ſowder neceſſarie to the making of the ſame, vpon peine of forfeiture of the double value of anie ſuch gould or ſiluer wrought or ſould to the contrarie. Nor that no gouldſmith, ieweller, nor other worker of harnes of ſiluer, ſhall ſet no harnes of ſiluer plate nor iewell of ſiluer to ſell, from the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter, within the ſaid citie of London, or within ii. miles of London, before it be touched with a touch of the Leopards head crowned, ſuch as maie beare the ſame touch, and alſo with a marke or ſigne of the worker of the ſame ſo wrought within the citie of London or ii. miles of the ſame, vpon peine of forfeiture of the double value of anie ſuch ſiluer wrought and ſould to the contrarie. And that the marke or ſigne of euerie gouldſmith be committed to the wardens of the ſame miſterie. And if it maie be found, that the ſaid keeper of the touch of the Leopards head crowned aforeſaid, doo marke or touch anie ſuch with the ſaid keeper of the ſaid touch for euerie thing proued not of as good allaie as the ſterling then the ſaid keeper of the ſaid touch for euerie thing proued not of as good allaie as the ſterling ſhall forfeite the double value: The ſame forfeitures to be deuided in two partes, The one halfe to be applied to the vſe of the kings houſe, And the other halfe thereof to the partie greeued or hurt in this behalfe, or in his defaulte, anie other perſon which will purſue and proue ſuch forfeiture, ſhall be thereto receiued, and haue in this behalfe an action of debt, or at the common lawe at his election, or before the iuſtices of peace of the countie out of the citie or towne corporate, where ſuch forfeiture ſhall happen, to purſue aſwell for the king as for himſelfe. And if it happen in citie burgh or towne corporate, then before the maior, ſhiriffe or ſhiriffes, bailiffe or bailiffes, or other chiefe gouernour there by bill or billes in this partie. In which, action of debt, and in the bill and billes to be purſued, like diſpoſition, demeane, behauiour, iudgement and execution in this partie ſhall be had, according as in the ſaide article concerning the moneie of Irelande is compriſed, anie charter, graunt, corporation or acte, made to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And becauſe there be diuers gouldſmithes and other workers of goulde and ſiluer aliens and ſtraungers inhabiting in the citie of London, and other places nigh there about, working their workes in ſecrete places and priuiledged, and eloine the ſame, and will not be ſearched by the wardens of the ſaide gouldſmithes of London for the time being, nor will not be obedient and gouerned by them: Therefore it is ordeined that from the ſaide feaſt of Eaſter euerie ſuch alien and ſtraunger gouldſmith and worker of gould and ſiluer inhabiting or to be inhabited in the ſaid citie of London and other places within ii. miles of the ſame citie, ſhalbe obedient and ruled by the ſaide wardens of the ſaid gouldſmithes in all thinges lawfull and reſonable, and ſuffer the ſtuffe of gould and ſiluer by them wrought to be ſearched and marked after the rule of the ſaid citie: vpon paine to be puniſhed in maner and forme as gouldſmithes and workers of gould and ſiluer of England, inhabiting within the ſaide citie, by the rules of the ſaide craft of gouldſmithes ought to be ruled. So alwaies that the ſaide aliens and ſtraungers be not euill entreated, nor otherwiſe charged by anie maner impoſition, other then the ſaide Engliſh gouldſmithes be, ſhall be and ought to be. And for the better ſurueieng of the ſaide aliens and ſtraungers in time to come to be had, it is ordained by the autoritie aforeſaid, that the ſame aliens & ſtrangers gouldſmithes and workers of gould and ſiluer, inhabiting within the ſaid citie and euerie of them, from the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell next comming, ſhall inhabit them where the open rules of the ſaide citie and where better & more open ſhewing is of their craft. And it is ordained by the ſaide autoritie, that if the aforeſaid warden and keeper of the ſaid touch, or worker of harneis or other thing of gould or ſiluer made of the ſaide fineſſe, doo touch or marke the ſame harneis or other thing as fine and able, that then for non ſufficiencie of the ſaid keeper and worker the perſons of the ſaid craft of gouldſmithes of the ſaid citie of London, by whatſoeuer name or names they be corporate, ſhall be chargeable and charged of the ſaide forfeitures by like action or actions of debt as is aforeſaide in like maner and forme as immediatelie before is ſpecified. And whereas in the fift yeere of the pretenſed reigne of king Henrie the fourth, for the better keeping of gould and ſiluer within this realme, and for the vtterance of the commodities of the ſame realme, it was ordained amongſt other, that marchants ſtraungers and aliens ſhould ſell their marchandiſes brought within a quarter of a yeere after their comming into the ſame, and that the moneie receiued in this realme ſhould be emploied vpon the commodities of this land vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame moneie. Contrarie to which ordinaunce, the ſame marchaunts and manie other perſons doo conueie and carie dailie the ſame moneie by them receiued out of the realme, to the great diminiſhing of the ſame moneie, and doo not employ the ſame in ſubſtance vpon the commodities of this realme, where by the kings cuſtome and ſubſidie be greatlie decaied. It is therefore ordained by the autoritie aforeſaid, that euerie marchaunt alien, and euerie vitailer and other ſtraunger not being deniſen, which ſhall reſorte into anie place or porte of this realme or Wales after the ſaide feaſt of Eaſter, ſhall duelie employ all the moneie to be receiued by him within anie parte of the ſame realme or Wales, vpon the marchaundiſes or other commodities of this realme, or without anie fraude he ſhall put the ſame in due paiment to the kings liege people within this realme. The ſame employment in paiment duelie to be proued by the marchaunt alien vitailer or other ſtranger before his departing out of the ſame porte, by writing to ſuch marchaunt or marchauntes, to whome the Marchãt ſtrangers.

ſaide marchaunt alien vitailer or other ſtraunger hath emploied or paied his moneie by him receiued for his marchandiſes brought into this lande, witneſſing that he hath ſo done by ſuch perſons as ſhall ſeeme reaſonable to the cuſtomer or controler of the ſame porte and maior bailiffe or other chiefe gouernour of anie ſuch citie burough or towne, where ſuch porte ſhall be vpon paine of forfeiture of all his goodes being within this realme, and to haue one yeeres impriſonment. Sauing alwaies to euerie ſuch marchaunt vitailer and ſtraunger his reſonable coſtes by the ouerſight of the ſaide chiefe gouernour of the porte or place where ſuch marchaunte vitailer or ſtraunger ſhall arriue. The ſame forfeiture to be demeaned, iudged, executed and departed in like manner and forme by like actions proceſſe and execucion, as is limitted of other forfeitures in this acte before declared. And becauſe that manie forfeitures touching the aforeſaide ſtatutes made before this time hath fallen before the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter, and by likeliehoode will more fall by perſons not doubting to offend and breake the lawe, which perſons ought by reaſon to be puniſhed in diſcouraging of other hereafter to offend. It is ordained by the auctoritie aforeſaide that the Iuſtices of peace ſhall haue power to heare and determine all manner defaultes and forfeitures touching euerie of the premiſſes had or done before the feaſt of Eaſter nexte enſuing, to be had and done againſt the forme of anie ſtatute before this time thereof made. The ſame forfaitures and euerie of them to be iudged demeaned and departed in like manner and forme by like action proceſſe and execution as before is limitted and declared of and for the ſaid forfeitures before rehearſed in this preſent acte and ordinaunce. Prouided alwaies, that this acte extend not to anie Ambaſſadour or other ſtraunger commen or to come into this realme or to paſſe out of the ſame by the kings licence, as for anie moneie of goulde ⁊ ſiluer, plate or veſſell or iewell, or anie ornament of ſiluer or goulde concerning his perſon, brought by him onto this realme or to anie Ambaſſadour of the king, Herauld, Purceuant, or meſſenger, which ſhall paſſe out of this realme beyond the ſea by the kings licence, or to anie marchaunt going ouer the ſea to buie anie wine to be brought into this realme, as for to carie with him onelie a litle cuppe called a taſter for wine. Prouided alſo, that this acte extend not to anie of the inhabitauntes deniſens or ſtraungers to come or go too and fro the towne of Caleis or the marches of the ſame, nor to the dwellers and trauellers of the ſame, for anie moneie by them or anie of them to be conueied or caried to anie places or countrie out of the ſaide towne and marches, other than the moneie of this realme or moneie of other countries to be caried out of this realme. And to the intent that due notice maie be hereof had to the kinges liege people in this partie, letters of proclamation vnder the kings ſeale vpon this ordinance ſhall be made to euerie countie of this realme and other places neceſſarie in all good haſt. This ordinance to endure from the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter, till the end of vii. yeeres then next folowing. Prouided alſo that this acte, as for the parte of anie forfeiture contained in the ſame, which may pertaine to the king, ſhall not extend to giue him anie ſuch parte of ſuch forfeiture to be had or made within yͤ principalitie of Wales, the duchie of Cornwall, nor the earldome ⁊ counties palantines of Cheſter and Flint, nor anie of them. Alſo it is ordained by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that the noble and excellent prince Edward the kings firſt begotten ſonne, prince of Wales, duke of Cornewall, and earle of Cheſter, ſhall haue perceiue and enioy, and to his heires princes of Wales, dukes of Cornewall ⁊ earle of Cheſter being the firſt begotten ſonnes of the king of England, all ⁊ euerie ſuch parte of forfeitures, which ſhall be made or forfeite within the ſaid principalitie, duchie, earledome, counties palantines or anie parcell of anie of them, in as ample and large forme as the king ought or may haue ſuch parte of forfeiture in anie other place by reaſon of anie other acte made in this parliament, anie acte made or to be made in this preſent parliament to the contrarie notwithſtanding. Prouided alſo that this acte for the diuiſion ⁊ partition of anie forfeiture therein contained, ſhall not extend to or for anie forfeiture to be had or made within the liberties or franchiſes of William biſhop of Durham. And it is ordained by the ſaid auctoritie, that William biſhop of Durham ⁊ his ſucceſſours biſhops of Durham ſhall haue all ſuch partitions and forfeitures, which ſhall happen within the ſaide liberties ⁊ franchiſes, in as ample ⁊ large forme as the king ſhould or ought to haue in anie other place by force of this acte. Prouided alwaies that this acte nor none other acte or ſtatute made or to be made in this preſent parliament, ſhal extend to be preiudiciall or hurtfull to the abbote of the monaſterie of Weſtminſter for the time being, or to the abbot and couent of the ſame monaſterie for the time being nor to anie perſon for the time dwelling reſiaunt or being within the ſame monaſterie, or within anie place pertaining to the ſame monaſterie, or within anie place within the precinct fee or franchiſe of the ſaide abbot, or of the ſaid couent, or to anie of the rightes, priuileges, liberties, fraunchiſes, immunities or other thing graunted by the king or anie of his progenitours or poſſeſſours of the royall eſtate and crowne of England, to the abbot and couent of the ſaide monaſterie and their ſucceſſours iointelie or ſeuerallie in anie maner heretofore pertaining. Prouided alſo that the abbote of the ſaide monaſterie and couent of the ſaide monaſterie and their ſucceſſours, ſhall haue, hould, and inioy freelie and effectuallie all the ſaide rightes, liberties, priuileges, fraunchiſes, immunities, and all other thinges in the forme aforeſaide to them graunted, by whatſoeuer name or names they be named or called iointlie or ſeuerallie in anie letters or writing thereupon made, anie acte or ordinance made or to be made in other maner or thing contrarie notwithſtanding. Prouided alwaies that this acte nor none other acte ordinaunce or ſtatute made or to be made in this parliament, ſhall be in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to the

Chap. 2.
Faires.

Courte of Pipowders.

Item whereas diuers faires be holden and kepte in this realme, ſome by preſcription alowed before iuſtices in eire, and ſome by the graunte of our ſouereigne lorde the king that now is, and ſome by the graunt of his progenitours and predeceſſours: And to euerie of the ſame faires is of right perteining a court of Pipowders to miniſter in the ſame due iuſtice in this behalfe, in which court it hath bene all times accuſtomed, that euerie perſon comming to the ſaid faires ſhould haue lawfull remedie of all contractes, treſpaſſes, couenauntes, debtes and other feates, or otherwiſe made and committed within anie of the ſame faires during the time of the ſame faire, and within the iuriſdiction of the ſame, and to be tried by marchauntes being of the ſame faire, which courtes at this daie be miſuſed by ſtewardes, vnderſtewardes, bailiffes, commiſſioners and other miniſters holding and gouerning the ſaide courtes of the ſaide faiers for their ſinguler profite, holding pleas by plaintes aſwell of contractes, debts, treſpaſſes and other feates done and committed out of the time of the ſaid faires, or the iuriſdiction of the ſame, whereof of trouth they haue no iuriſdiction, ſurmiſing the ſame debtes, treſpaſſes couenauntes or other feates to be done within the time of the faires, or within the iuriſdiction of the ſame faires, where of trouth they were not ſo. And ſometime by the imagination of euill diſpoſed people diuers ſuites be feined, and trouble them to whome they beare euill will to this entent, that they for lucre ſhall haue fauorable enqueſtes of the commoners of the ſaide faires, where they take their actions. And whereby diuers perſons comming to the ſame faires be greeuouſlie vexed and troubled by feined actions, and alſo by actions of debts, treſpaſſes, feates, and contractes made and committed out of the time of the ſaid faire or the iuriſdiction of the ſame, contrarie to equitie and good conſcience, wherby the lordes of þ ſame faires doth loſe great profite by the not comming of diuers marchants to their faires, which by this occaſion doo them abſteine, and alſo the commons be vnſerued of ſuch ſtuffe and marchandiſe, which otherwiſe ſhould come to the ſame faires: Our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by the autoritie of the ſame hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that from the firſt day of May next enſuing, no ſteward, vnderſteward, bailiffe nor commiſſarie, nor other miniſter of anie ſuch courtes of Pipowders, ſhall hold plee vpon anie action at the ſuite of anie perſon or perſons, vnleſſe the pleintife or pleintifes or his or their attourneie in the preſence of the defendaunt or defendauntes, doo ſweare vpon the holie Euangeliſt vpon the declaration, that the contracte or other feate conteined in the ſaide declaration was made or committed within the faire, and within the time of the ſame faire where he taketh his action, and within the iuriſdiction and boundes of the ſame faire. And notwithſtanding that the plaintife or plaintifes doo affirme the ſame, yet neuertheleſſe the ſaide defendant or defendants ſhall not be concluded by the ſame, but ſhall anſwere and plead to the action, or in abatement of the pleintes, & to profer an iſſue that the ſame contract treſpas or other feate contained in ſuch declaration, whereupon the pleintiffe or pleintiffes do declare, was not committed nor done within the time of the faire and iuriſdiction of the ſame, but out of the time of the faire, or at other places out of the iuriſdiction of the ſame faire, according to the trouth in this behalfe. And if it be ſo tried, or that the pleintife or pleintifes or their attourneis doo refuſe to make the othes in the forme aforeſaid, that then the defendant or defendants ſhalbe quite diſmiſſed & diſcharged in this partie out of the ſame courte, the partie pleintife to take his aduantage at the common lawe or other place conuenient as ſhall to him ſeeme good notwithſtanding this ordinance. And that euerie ſteward vnderſteward bailife and commiſſarie or other miniſter, holding ruling or gouerning anie of the ſaid courtes that doth the contrarie of this ordinance, ſhall forfeite for euerie default in this behalfe C. s. The one halfe thereof to our ſouereigne lorde the king, and the other halfe to him that will in this behalfe purſue his action vpon this ſtatute by action of debt in his owne name. And that writs of proclamation be in all good haſte directed to euerie ſhiriffe of euerie countie of England to make this ordinance to be proclaimed in euerie faire within his countie aſwell within franchiſe as without. This acte to endure from the ſaide firſt day of May till the firſt day of the next parliament. Prouided alwaies that this acte nor nothing compriſed in the ſame acte be hurtfull or preiudiciall to William now biſhop of Durham, nor to his ſucceſſours within the libertie and franchiſe of the biſhoprike of Durham.

Chap. 3.
Vnlawfull games.

Item whereas by the lawes of this lande no perſon ſhould vſe anie vnlawfull games, as dice, coites, tenis and ſuch like games, but that euerie perſon ſtrong and able of bodie ſhoulde vſe his bowe, becauſe that the defence of this land was much by archers, contrarie to which lawes the games aforeſaide and manie newe imagined games, called cloſh, kailes, halfebowle, handin and handout, and quekborde be dailie vſed in diuers parties of this land, as well by perſons of good reputation as of ſmall behauiour: And ſuch euill diſpoſed perſons that doubte not to offend God in not obſeruing their holie daies, nor in breaking the lawes of the lande to their owne impoueriſhment, and by their vngratious procurement and encowraging, doe bring other to ſuch games, till they be vtterlie vndone and impoueriſhed of their goods, to the pernicious example of diuerſe of the kinges liege people if ſuch vnprofitable games ſhoulde bee ſuffered long to continue, becauſe that by the meane therof diuers and many murders roberies, and other heinous felonies be often times committed & done in diuers parts of this realme, to the great inquieting and trouble of many good and well diſpoſed perſons, and the importune loſſe of their goods, which plaies in their ſaide offences be dailie ſupported and fauoured by the gouernours and occupiers of diuers houſes, tenementes, gardeins, and other places, where they vſe and occupie their ſaide vngratious and incommendable games: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king in conſideration of the premiſſes, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame hath ordeined, that after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, no perſon gouernor nor occupier of any houſe, tenement, gardein or other place within this realme, ſhall willinglie ſuffer any perſon to occupie or play any of the ſaid games called cloſh, kailes, halfebowle, handin and handout, or quekbord or any of them, within any of their ſaide houſes, tenements, gardeins or any other place, vpon paine to haue the impriſonment of iii. yeres, and to forfait & loſe for euerie offence xx.li. The one halfe thereof to our ſoueraigne lorde the king, to be applied to the vſe of his houſe, in all ſuch places where ſuch forfeiture ſhall happen to fall, other then where anie perſon ought to haue the forfeiture of the goods of felons and fugitiues, by anie lawfull grant auctoritie of parliament or otherwiſe. And it is ordeined by the ſaid auctoritie, that all ſuch perſons their heires and ſucceſſours, which ought to haue anie ſuch forfeitures in ſuch places, ſhall haue all ſuch halfe as ſhall bee hereafter forfaite by anie of the premiſſes: and the other halfe thereof to him or them that in this behalfe will purſue by action of debt at the common lawe: In which action, like proceſſe, triall, iudgement, coſts, damages, and execution, ſhall be had as is vſed in other actions there purſued. And that no perſon from the ſaide feaſt of Eaſter ſhall vſe anie of the ſaide games called cloſh, halfebowle, kales, handin and handout, or quekborde, vpon paine of two yeeres impriſonment, and to forfaite for euery default x.li. The one halfe therof to our ſoueraigne lord the king, to be applied to the vſe of his houſe, in all ſuch places where ſuch forfaiture ſhall happen to fall, other then where anie perſon ought to haue the forfaiture of the goods of felons and fugitiues by anie lawfull graunt, auctoritie of parliament or otherwiſe. And it is ordeined by the ſaide auctoritie, that all ſuch perſons, their heires and ſucceſſours, which ought to haue anie ſuch forfaitures in ſuch places, ſhall haue all ſuch halfe that ſhall be hereafter forfaite by anie of the premiſſes: And the other halfe thereof to him or them that in this behalfe will ſue by action of debt in like maner and forme to be had, tried, ruled, and ordered as is aforeſaide.

Chap. 4. Tile.

Item where as in diuers parties of this realme great damage hath bene and dailie is, and by likelihod in time to come will greeuouſlie growe for defaulte of trewe, ſeaſonable and ſufficient making, whiting, and anealing of tile called plein tile otherwiſe called Thaktile, Roſetile, or creaſtile, cornertile, and gutter tile, to be made within this realme: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king (the premiſſes conſidered) for the vniuerſall wealth of his realme, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that all and euerie perſon or perſons, which hereafter ſhall vſe the occupation of making of anie ſuch tile as afore is ſaide, ſhall make it good, reaſonable, able, and ſufficient, and well whited and anealed. And that the grounde, whereof anie ſuch tile ſhall bee made, ſhall be digged and caſt vp before the firſt daie of Nouember next before that they ſhall be made, and that the ſame earth be ſtirred and turned before the firſt day of Februarie then next following, & that the ſame ground before it be put to making of tile, be truely wrought and tried from ſtones. And alſo that the veines called Malme or Marle and chalke lieng commonlie in the grounde neere to the land conuenient to make tile after the digging of the ſaid grounde, whereof anie ſuch tile ſhall be made, ſhall be well, lawfully, and truely ſeuered and caſt fro the land, whereof any ſuch tile ſhall be made. And that euery ſuch pleinetile ſo to be made, ſhall conteine in length x. inches and an halfe, and in breadth vi. inches and a quarter of an inch, and in thickneſſe, halfe an inch and halfe a quarter at the leaſt. And that euerie ſuch roſetile or creaſtile ſo to bee made, ſhall conteine in length xiii. inches, and the thikneſſe of halfe an inch and halfe a quarter at the leaſt, with conuenient deepeneſſe according. And that euerie gutter tile and couertile to bee made, ſhall conteine in length x. inches and an halfe, with conuenient thickneſſe breadth & deepenes according. And if any perſon or perſons ſet to ſale to any perſon or perſons any ſuch tile aboue ſpecified, made or to be made againſt the ſaide ordinance: then the ſeller thereof ſhall forfait to the buier of the ſame, the double value of the ſame tile, and beſides that, ſhall make fine and raunſome to the king at his will. And that euerie perſon that feeleth him ſelfe greeued, and will ſue in this behalfe, ſhall haue an action of debt againſt the offenders, wherein ſhall be made & had like proces recouery & execution as is or may be at this day in any other actions of debt purſued at the common

Iuſtices of the peace.

lawe. And that the plaintife in euerie ſuch action (if it be found with him) may recouer againſt the defendaunt in the ſame action his reaſonable coſtes and expenſes of his ſuite. And that the defendant in any ſuch action ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, or to haue any eſſoine or protection allowed, nor no aduantage by fourching of eſſoine or diſtreſſe. And alſo that the iuſtices of peace for the time being within anie countie of this realme, and euerie of them ſhall haue full power to enquire heare & determine by their diſcretions, as well by examination or otherwiſe, the defaults, offences and treſpaſſes, which ſhall happen to be done againſt this ordinance, as well at the kinges ſuite as at the parties, which ſhall feele him ſelfe greeued in that behalfe. And if it be found or maie appeare to the iuſtices of peace or anie of them by examination or otherwiſe by their diſcretion, that anie perſon or perſons hath offended contrarie to this ordinaunce, that then the ſame iuſtices, before whom it ſhall be found or appeare, ſhall aſſeſſe vpon the offender in this behalfe no leſſe fine, then for euerie thouſande of plaine tile ſet to ſale contrarie to this ordinance, fiue ſhillinges. And euerie hundred roſe tile vi.s.viii.d. And for euery hundred corner tile or gutter tile two ſhillings, ſolde contrarie to this ordinance. And that leſſe fine be made after the rate of the ſame by the diſcretion of the ſaide iuſtices or anie of them. And that the ſame iuſtices ſhall haue full power to call before them or anie of them, at anie time and place requiſite, ſuch and ſo manie perſons as by their diſcretion haue or ſhall haue beſt experience or knowledge in the occupation of making of tile, to ſearch and examine the digging, caſting, turning, departing, making, whiting, and aneling aforeſaide. And that the ſame perſon or perſons, which ſo ſhall bee aſſigned ſearchers, ſhall haue full power to make ſuch ſearch. And that no perſon put no ſuch tile to ſale before that it bee ſearched by the ſaide ſearchers, vpon paine of forfaiture of the ſame tile. And if the ſame ſearchers or anie of them doe finde, that anie perſon or perſons exerciſing the occupation of tile making, doe them offende contrarie to this ordinaunce, that then the ſame ſearchers ſhall preſent ſuch defaults before the iuſtices of peace at their next ſeſſions. And that euery ſuch preſentment be as ſtrong and effectuall in the lawe as the preſentment of twelue men. And that ſuch ſearchers ſo to be ordeined, aſſigned, and deputed, ſhall haue of euery ſuch tile maker for his labour of the ſaid ſearch for euery thouſand plaine tile ſearched a penie. Of euery C. roſe tile an halfe penie. And euery hundred couer tile and gutter tile a farthing. And that the ſame ſearchers ſhall doe and execute their effectuall deuoier and diligence in this behalfe according to this ordinaunce, vpon paine of forfeiture to our ſoueraigne lorde the king for euerie default in this behalfe tenne ſhillinges. And that the iuſtices of peace ſhall haue power to examine, enquire, and determine the defaultes of ſuch ſearchers in the premiſſes in like forme as aboue is ordeined for the defaultes of tile makers. This ordinaunce to begin to take effect at the feaſt of ſaint Michael next comming, and not before.

Wollen clothes.

Seale. Treaſurer of England.

London. Briſtowe.

Item where as by an act made in the parliament of our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king, holden at Weſtminſter in the fourth yere of his reigne, it was ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted amongſt other thinges, that all wollen clothes, halfeclothes, ſtreites, and karſeies of a certeine length and breadth eſpecified in the ſame act, and being of the perfitnes of making alſo compriſed in the ſame act, ſhoulde be from the feaſt of ſaint Peter called ad vincula, which was in the yeere of our lorde God M. CCCC. lxv. ſealed with a double print in lead to be deuiſed & ordeined by the treaſurer of England for the time being, witneſſing the true length & breadth and faithfull making. Alſo by the ſame act it was ordeined amongſt other thinges, that the treaſurer of Englande for the time being, ſhoulde haue power & auctoritie to make ſuch and as manie keepers of the ſame ſeales, as he ſhall thinke neceſſarie. So that no ſtraunger borne ſhoulde be made anie of the ſame keepers. And that euerie of the ſaide keepers ſo to bee made, ſhall yeerelie accompt of the reuenewes of their ſaide offices in the eſchequer of our ſoueraigne lorde the king before the treaſurer of England and the barons there for the time being, ſhewing in the ſame accomptes the number of all the clothes, halfeclothes, ſtreites, and karſeies ſealed by them, with the names of the owners thereof. Euerie of the ſaide keepers to bee rewarded yeerelie at his ſaide accompt for his labour and deligence had in this behalfe, at the receite of the ſaide eſchequer by the diſcretion of the ſaide treaſurer & barons, without paiment of anie thing in the ſaid eſchequer for the making of his ſaid accompt, as in the ſaid act thereof made is more largely conteined. The king certeinely perceiuing, that after the making of the ſame act, he hath had yeerely more greeuous loſſe by the approuement of the ſubſidie and aulnage and clothes then hee had at any time before the ſaide act of approuement made. For the ſame and for diuerſe other great cauſes mouing him, by the aſſent of the ſaide lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame parliament hath ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that from the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, all the wollen clothes, halfeclothes, ſtreites, and kerſeies being of good and perfite making, of length and breadth after the forme of the ſaid act made in the ſaid 4. yeere, ſhall be ſealed with waxe at both endes, taking no more for the ſame both ſeales, then before was taken for the ſealing of an whole cloth, halfe cloth, ſtreite or kerſete. Except onelie, that in the citie of London, and in the towne of Briſtowe, all the clothes that ought to be ſealed, ſhall be ſealed with lead as hath bene there accuſtomed. Moreouer it is ordeined, enacted and eſtabliſhed by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that the ſaid treaſurer of Englande for the time being, ſhill haue power and auctoritie to let to ferme the ſubſidie and aulnage of clothes, which ought to bee ſealed, vnto perſons willing to haue the ſame to ferme by ſufficient maineprize in the forme as was vſed and done before the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid 4.yeere. The fermours to haue the one halfe of the forfaiture of all the clothes and peeces of clothes to bee ſet to ſale not ſealed with the ſaide ſeales to their owne vſe, paieng therefore and for the ſaide ſubſidie and aulnage to our ſouereigne lorde the king at his eſchequer ſuch yeerelie ſummes of monie, as ſhall bee agreede betwixt the treaſurer of Englande and them, and to bee accomptauntes to the king of the other halfe of the ſaide forfaiture at the ſaide eſchequer. The ſaide ſtatutes made in the ſaide fourth yeere notwithſtanding.

Aulnage.

Chap. 6. Shirifes.

Item where as by a ſtatute in the laſt parliament holden at Weſtminſter it was ordeined, that the olde ſhirife of euerie countie might execute and returne euerie writ, precept or warrant in anie of the kinges courts within the terme called Michaell terme, after the firſt daie of Nouember, and before anie writ of diſcharge to him deliuered of his occupieng of ſhirife without greefe, damage, or paine, by the ſame ſtatute remembred, as in the ſame doth more largelie appeare. And becauſe that the wordes of the auctoritie giuen by the ſaide act to the ſaide olde ſhirife, bee verie eſpeciall and not generall enough for the common wealth purpoſed or entended by the ſame act: It is therefore ordeined by auctoritie of this parliament, that euerie olde ſhirife of euerie countie remembred in the ſaide laſt parliament, from the firſt daie of Nouember next to come, ſhall haue full auctoritie and power as well lawfullie to execute and returne euerie writ precept or warraunt in euerie of the ſayde courtes of the king deliuered to him, as to doe and execute euerie other thing, which to the office of ſhirife lawfullie perteineth, at all times during the ſaide termes of ſaint Michaell and of ſaint Hillarie: vnleſſe hee bee before the ſame time lawfullie diſcharged of his occupation of ſhirife, without ſuſteining anie damage, forfaiture, or paine, by cauſe thereof, anie act ordinaunce or prouiſion before made to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Returne of writs.

Chap.7. Parliament.

Item where as in the moſt dolorous abſence of our ſouereigne lorde the king out of this his realme, being in the parties of Holland, and before his victorious regreſſe into the ſame realme, in a pretenſed parliament vnlawfullie and by vſurped power ſummoned by the rebell and enimie to our ſouereigne lorde the king, Henrie the ſixt, late in deede and not of right king of Englande, holden in the palace of Weſtminſter the xxvi. daie of Nouember, the ninth yere of our ſouereigne lorde the king that nowe is, vnder the coloured title of the ſaid Henrie the xlix. yeere of the inchoation of his pretenſed reigne, and the firſt yeere of the readoption of his vſurped power and eſtate, diuerſe and manie matters were treated, communed, wrought, to the deſtruction and diſheriſon of our ſouereigne lorde the king, and of his blood roiall, by the labour and exhortation of perſons not fearing God nor willing to be vnder the rule of anie earthly prince, but inclined of ſenſuall appetite to haue the whole gouernaunce and rule of this realme vnder their power and domination, which communications, treates, and workinges doeth remaine in writing, and ſome exemplified, whereby manie inconueniences may enſue to our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king and his blood roiall which God defende, and all noble men at this time attending about the king, and all his other liege people and ſubiects, vnleſſe due remedie be prouided in this behalfe. Our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, for the ſuertie of his noble perſon, his noble iſſue, and the inheritable ſucceſſion of the ſame, and for the ſuertie of all the lordes noble men and other his ſeruants and ſubiectes, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaide pretenſed parliament, within all the continuances and circumſtances depending vpon the ſame, be voide and of none effect. And that all acts, ſtatutes, ordinances, treates, communications, conuencions and workings in the ſaide pretenſed parliament treated, communed, accorded, wrought, had, or by the auctoritie of the ſame parliament enacted & ordeined, and all exemplifications made vpon the ſame or anie part of them, and euerie of them, ſhall be reuerſed, cancelled, voide, vndone, reuoked, repealed, and of no force nor effect.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter in the xxii. yeere of the reigne of king Edward the fourth.

OUr ſouereigne lorde the king Edward the fourth, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xx. daie of Ianuarie, in the xxii. yere of his reigne, to the honour of God, and for the wealth of his people of this his realme, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of his commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed certaine ſtatutes and ordinances in maner and forme following.

Chap.1. Apparell.

FIrſt becauſe that our ſouereigne lorde the king hath conceiued by a petition made to him by his commons, that diuerſe ſtatutes and ordinaunces touching the reſtraint of exceſſiue apparell of the people of his realme, were ordeined and made, and that for the non due execution of the ſame ſtatutes, his ſaide realme was fallen into great miſerie and pouertie, and like to fall in more greater, vnleſſe the better remedie be prouided, whervpon our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe, aſſent and auctoritie aforeſaide hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no maner perſon, of what eſtate, degree or condition that he bee, ſhall weare anie clothes of golde or ſilke of purple colour, but onelie the king, the queene, the kinges mother, the kinges children, his brother and ſiſters, vpon paine of forfaiture for euerie default xx.li. And that none vnder the eſtate of a duke ſhall weare anie cloth of golde of tiſſue, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie defaulte xx.

markes. And that none vnder the eſtate of a lorde, ſhall weare plaine cloth of golde, vpon paine to forfaite for euerie default x.markes. And that none vnder the degree of a knight, ſhall weare anie veluet in their doblets nor gownes. Nor none vnder the ſame degree weare anie damaſke or ſatin in their gownes, but onelie eſquiers for the kings bodie, vpon paine to forfaite for euerie default xl.s. And that no yemen of the crowne, nor none other ſhall vnder the degree of an eſquier or gentelman, weare in their doblets damaſke or ſatin, nor gownes of chamlet, vpon paine to forfaite for euerie defaulte fourtie ſhillinges. And that none vnder the eſtate of a lorde, weare anie maner of wollen cloth made out of this realme of Englande, Irelande, Wales and Caleis, nor weare anie furres of ſables, vpon paine to forfaite for euerie defaulte tenne pounde. And alſo it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed by the ſaide auctoritie, that no ſeruaunt of huſbandrie nor common laborer nor ſeruant to anie artificer out of citie or borough, ſhall weare in their clothing anie cloth, whereof the broad yarde ſhall paſſe the price of two ſhillings. Nor that anie of the ſaide ſeruantes or laborers, ſhall ſuffer their wiues to weare anie clothing of higher price then is before limit to their huſbandes. Nor they ſhall not ſuffer their ſaide wiues to weare anie reile called a kerchiefe, whoſe price exceedeth twentie pence. Nor none of the ſaide ſeruants or laborers, ſhall weare anie hoſen, whereof the paire ſhall paſſe eighteene pence, vpon paine to forfaite for euerie defaulte three ſhillinges foure pence. Moreouer it is ordeined, that the iuſtices of peace in euerie countie, maiors, ſhirifes, bailifes, maſters and other cheefe officers of cities, boroughes, townes of the fiue portes, and other corporat townes within this realme, ſhall haue power and auctoritie to enquire heare and determine all the ſaide defaultes and forfeitures and euerie of them, to be made and had within their ſeuerall iuriſdictions, as well by enquiry as by due examination, and the maters and cauſes concerning the ſaide offences and forfeitures to determine by like proces and iudgement, and in like maner and forme before atteinder in this behalfe, as is before the iuſtices of peace commonlie vſed of treſpaſſe done with force and armes againſt the kinges peace, and after the atteinder like execution. And if anie matter touching anie of the ſaide offences be remoued of anie of the ſaide iuſtices of peace, maior, or anie other officers before named, to be had before the king in his benche, that then the iuſtices to the plees before them to be holden aſſigned, ſhall haue power to awarde like proceſſe and like execution in this behalfe as before is limit. And it is ordeined by the ſaide auctoritie, that all the ſaide paines and forfeitures, except ſuch paines and forfaitures in and for the premiſſes, which ſhall happen to be and growe within the countie palatine of Cheſter, Exanſhire, and the biſhopricke of Durham, ſhall be to the king, to be emploied to the expences of his honorable houſe. And that ſuch paines and forfeitures in and for the premiſſes within the ſaide countie palatine of Cheſter, ſhall be to my lorde the prince. And ſuch paines and forfeitures in and for the premiſſes within Exanſhire, ſhall bee to the archbiſhop of Yorke and to his ſucceſſours. And ſuch paines and forfaitures in and for the premiſſes within the ſaide biſhoprike of Durham, ſhall bee to the biſhop of Durham and his ſucceſſors. Prouided alwaies that this act extende nor be preiudiciall to or for anie woman, excepted the wiues and ſeruauntes of laborers. Alſo it is ordeined by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that all ordinaunces and ſtatutes before this time made of arraie and apparell, ſhall be by auctoritie of this preſent parliament voide and of none effect nor force. And that this act begin and take effect after the feaſt of the Epiphanie next comming, and not before. And it is ordeined and enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that no maner perſon, vnder the eſtate of a lorde, ſhall weare from the ſaide feaſt anie gowne or mantell, vnleſſe it be of ſuch length, that he being vpright, it ſhall couer his priuie members and buttokes, vpon paine to forfaite to our ſouereigne lorde the king at euerie defaulte twentie ſhillinges. And like examination, proces & iudgement ſhall be therein had, as in the premiſſes is ordeined. Prouided alwaies that this preſent act for apparell ſhall not be preiudiciall to the libertie in wearing of cloth and furre, purple and cloth of gold onelie excepted, of ſir Thomas Mountgomerie, ſir Thomis Burgh, ſir Thomas Waughan, ſir Iohn Don, ſir William Parre, ſir Thomas Deſeit legier, ſir Thomas Bourghcher, ſir Thomas Grey, nor of maſter Oliuer the kinges ſecretarie nor anie of them. And prouided alſo that the ſame act for apparell bee not preiudiciall to maſter Iohn Gunthorpe deane of the kings chapell. Nor to ſir Iohn Elrington treaſurer of the kinges houſe, nor to anie of them, as before.

Chap. 2.
Salmon well and faithfully packed.

Item where as diuerſe diſceites haue bene vſed and done as well in the meaſures of veſſels called buttes, barels, and halfe barels, ordeined for ſalmon, And barels, halfebarels, and firkins ordeined for hearring, eles, and other barelled fiſh, as in the packing in the ſame veſſels of euerie of the ſayde fiſhes before named, to the great dammage of the king, the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and other of the kings faithfull ſubiectes. For reformation whereof, our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe aſſent and auctoritie aforeſaide hath ordeined and enacted, that no marchaunt ſtraunger nor denizen, after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell next comming, ſhall ſell nor ſet to ſale anie ſalmon by butte, barell or halfebarell or anie other veſſell, before that it bee ſeene, except the ſame butte doe holde and conteine foure ſcore and foure gallons, the barell xlii. galons, the halfe barell xxi. galons well and faithfullie packed, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie butte barell and halfebarell ſo failing their ſaide meaſure ſixe ſhillinges eight pence. Alſo that no ſuch marchaunt, being vnder the kinges obeiſaunce, after the ſaide feaſt of ſaint Michaell ſhall ſell or put to ſale anie maner ſalmon by butte or other veſſell, except it be well & faithfullie packed, that is to ſaie, the great ſalmon by him ſelfe, without mingling with them anie grilles or broken bellied Salmon. And that all ſmall fiſh called grilles, ſhall be packed by themſelfe onely, without anie mingling, vpon peine of forfeiture and loſſe of vi.s.viii.d. for euery butte, barell and half barell mingled, packed and ſet to ſale contrarie to this act. Alſo that no marchant nor other perſon ſet any herring to ſale by barell, halfebarell, or firkin, except the ſame barell conteine xxxii. galons, the halfe barell and firkin after the ſame rate. And that the ſame herring be well, faithfully and iuſtly cowched and packed. And that it be of one times taking and ſalting. And that the ſame herring be as good and as well packed in the middeſt and in euery part of the ſame barell or other veſſel, as it ſhall be in the endes of the ſame barelles and other veſſels, vpon peine to forfeit iii. ſhillings iiii.d. for euerie barell, halfebarell and firkin ſo failing their ſaid meaſure, and alſo vpon paine of forfeiture and loſſe of iii.ſhillings iiii.d. for euery barell, halfe barell, and firkin of herring ſorted laide or packed contrarie to this act. Alſo that no ſuch marchant nor palingman ſell or ſet to ſale anie eles by barell, halfe barell or firkin, except the ſame barell conteine xlii.galons, the halfe barell and firkin after the ſame rate. Nor that any ſuch marchant nor palingman doe mingle anie gallebeaten ſtorued or pulled eles with the good eles, but that the good eles be well and iuſtly packed and ſolde by them ſelfe. Nor that they mingle with the good eles or put to ſale anie red eles vpon paine of forfeiture and loſſe of x.s. for euery barell, halfebarell and firkin ſo failing their meaſure. And alſo vpon peine of forfeiture and loſſe of x. ſhillings for euerie barel, halfe barel and firkin ſo mixt, packed and ſet to ſale as afore is ſaide contrarie to this acte. Alſo that no ſuch marchant after the ſaide feaſt ſell or ſet to ſale anie barelled fiſh, except the ſame fiſh be wel and faithfully packed, that is to ſaie, the countable fiſh commonly called talefiſh by it ſelfe, and the ſmall fiſh called grylles by them ſelfe, without anie mixing of the ſaide fiſhes with the great fiſh. And without mixing or packing of thokes or fiſh with broken bellies with the ſaide talefiſh or ſmall fiſh. And that the ſaide talefiſh nor ſmall fiſh be not layed double in the packing. And that euerie tale fiſh conteine in length from the bone of the finne to the third ioint of the taile xxvi. ynches at the leaſt, and that the napes of all ſuch barelled fiſh ſhall be no longer than the litle bone that ſitteth vpon the great finne. And that the bone of euery ſuch ſalt fiſh ſhall be taken away to the nauel of the ſame fiſh. And that euery ſuch fiſh be ſplatted or opened downe to an handful of the taile vpon paine of forfeiting and loſing of iii.ſhillings iiii.d. for euery barel of fiſh, which hereafter ſhall be founde packed, ſorted, mixte, naped, layde double, or not boned, nor ſplatted open, according to this act. Alſo in eſchewing the common dammage and diſceites aforeſaide, Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king hath ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaide, that all Maiors, bailifes and gouernors of cities, boroughes, townes, markets and all other places of this his realme for the time being, where they be Maiors, bailifes or gouernors, ſhall haue power and authoritie to name and chooſe diſcréete and expert perſon or perſons daily to ſerch and gauge all ſuch veſſels as aboue be rehearſed, that they be faithfully packed, and kéepe their faithful meaſure and aſſiſe according to the ordinances aforeſaide. The one halfe of all the ſaid fines, forfeitures and paines and euerie of them, to be to our ſoueraigne lorde the king: And the other halfe to him or them of his ſubiectes that ſhall ſeiſe or purſue for the ſame by action of Det by writ at the common law by bill or plaint after the cuſtome of the citie or towne where anie ſuch fines forfeitures and paines ſhall hereafter happen to be or fall. And that the defendant in anie ſuch action be not admitted to wage nor do his lawe. Nor that anie protection or eſſoine in the kings ſeruice for anie ſuch defendants be allowed. Prouided alwayes that this act be not preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons hauing the forfeiture of the goods of felons, fugitiues and damned perſons. Moreouer it is ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, ſhall haue and enioy like forfeitures of and in euery of the premiſſes within their franchiſes, as the king now hath in other places without.

Cap. 3. Silke workes.

Item where as by a piteous complaint made in the ſame parliament by men and women of the myſterie and workemanſhip of ſilke of the citie of London, and other cities, boroughes and townes of this realme, it was ſhewed, how that in the time of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, a reſtraint was made that certeine things of ſilke worke readie wrought ſhoulde not be brought into this realme, after which reſtreint expyred, ſo great multitude of ſilkes readie wrought as corſes, rybans, laces, call ſilke, and Colepn ſilke twyned hath béene brought into this ſaide realme by marchants ſtrangers and other, that all the workers of the ſaide myſterie of ſilkeworking, as wel men as women in the ſaide realme hath béene gréeuouſly impoueriſhed for defaut of occupation. Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king in conſideration of the premiſſes, hath by the aduiſe, aſſent and authoritie aforeſaid, ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that no marchant ſtranger nor other perſon, after the feaſt of Eſter next comming, ſhal bring into this realm of Englande to be ſolde any corſes, gyrdels, rybans, laces, call ſilke or Colepn ſilke twyned or wrought, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame, or of the valure thereof, in whoſe handes they ſhal be founde. The one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to be to our ſoueraigne lorde the king, and the other halfe to him or them of the kings ſubiectes which ſhall ſeaſe the ſame, or purſue for the ſame by action of Det by writ at the common lawe, or by bill or pleint after the cuſtome of the citie or towne where ſuch forfeiture ſhall hereafter happen to fall or be. And that the defendant in anie ſuch action be not admitted to wage nor do his lawe, nor no protection nor eſſoine in the kinges ſeruice to be allowed for anie ſuch defendant. This act to endure for iiii. yéeres next following the ſaide feaſt of Eſter.

Cap.4. Bowyers. Bowes.

Item where as in the time of the noble progenitors of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, and alſo in the time of the victorious reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, his ſubiectes within euery part of this realme haue vertuouſly occupied and vſed ſhooting with their bowes, whereby and vnder the protection of almightie God, victorious actes haue been done in defence of this realme: Nowe ſo it is, that the bowiers in euery parte of this realme do ſel their bowes at ſuch a great and exceſſiue price, that the kings ſubiects diſpoſed to ſhoote, be not of power to buy to them bowes, whereby ſhooting is greatly diminiſhed and left, and vnlawfull games be vſed, contrarie to ſtatutes and ordinances thereupon made: Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduiſe, aſſent and authoritie aforeſaid, hath ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that from the feaſt of Eſter next comming, no bowyer nor other perſon vſing to ſell or put to ſale, or which hereafter ſhall vſe to ſell or put to ſale anie long bowe or bowes of ewe, ſhal ſell anie of the ſame bowes to anie of the kings liege people aboue the price of iii. ſhillings. iiii.d. a bowe. And long bowes of ewe vnder the value of the ſame price as the ſeller and buyer thereof may reaſonably agree and accorde, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie long bowe of ewe otherwiſe ſold aboue the ſaid price of iii.s.iiii.d.xx.s. The one halfe thereof to our ſoueraigne lord the king, & the other halfe to anie of his liege people that will therefore purſue and proue the ſaide forfeiture by action or actions of Det, wherein like proces iudgement and execution ſhall be had as is commonly vſed in actions of Det ſued at the common law. And that no defendant in anie ſuch action or actions ſhall be admitted to wage his lawe.

Cap.5. Hattes & cappes.

Item it was ſhewed in the ſaid parliament, how that hattes, bonettes, and cappes aſwell ſingle as double, were wont to be faithfully made, wrought, fulled and thicked by mens ſtrength, that is to ſay, with handes and feete, and thereby the makers of the ſame haue honeſtly before this time gayned their liuing, and kept manie apprentices ſeruants and good houſes, till now late that by ſubtile imagination, to the deſtruction of the labors and ſuſtenance of manie men, ſuch hattes, bonettes and caps haue beene fulled and thicked in fulling milles, and in the ſaide milles the ſame hattes and cappes be broken and diſceitfully wrought, and in no wiſe by the meane of anie mill may be faithfully made, to the great dammage of our ſoueraigne lord the king and of all his ſubiectes, and the finall vndoing of ſuch which be the makers of ſuch hattes bonettes and caps, vnleſſe the grace of our ſoueraigne lord the king ſhould be to them ſhewed in this behalfe, and thereupon to prouide remedie: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſupplication of his ſaid commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled and by the authoritie of the ſame hath ordeined & prouided, that no maner perſon after the feaſt of Eſter next comming, ſhall full or thicke, or do to be fulled or thicked anie hattes, bonets or cappes, double or ſingle, in anie fulling mill, or by the meane of anie fulling mill, vpon paine to forfeit and to loſe xl.s. as often as he ſhall do contrarie to this act. And alſo that no perſon hatmaker, capper, or other whatſoeuer he be, after the ſaid feaſt of Eſter, ſhall ſet or cauſe to be ſet anie hattes bonets or cappes double or ſingle to be fulled or thicked, to anie ſuch mill or by the meane of any ſuch mil, or ſet to ſale anie ſuch hattes bonets or cappes double or ſingle, which after the ſaid feaſt ſhall be ſo made, fulled or thicked, vpon peine to forfeit and loſe the hattes bonets and cappes ſo ſet as afore is ſaid to anie ſuch mill to be fulled or thicked, or otherwiſe ſet to be ſold contrary to this act, and alſo to forfeit and loſe xl.s. as often as anie ſuch perſon ſhal ſet to fulling or thicking or to ſale any ſuch hattes bonettes and cappes contrarie to this act: The one halfe of the ſaid fines forfeitures and penalties and of euery of them, to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other halfe to him or them of the kings ſubiectes, wich ſhall ſeaſe the ſame or purſue for the ſame by action of Det, by writ at the common lawe, or by bill or plaint after the cuſtome of the citie or towne where anie ſuch fines forfeitures or penalties ſhall happen to fall or to be. And that the defendant in anie ſuch action be not admitted to do or wage his lawe, nor no protection nor eſſoyne in the kings ſeruice ſhall be for anie ſuch defendant allowed. This act to endure from the ſaid feaſt of Eſter till the ende of two yeeres then next following, and no longer.

Fulling of hattes & cappes.

Cap.6. Swannes.

Item where as well our ſoueraigne lord the king as other lordes, knightes, eſquiers and other noble men of this noble realme of England, haue been heretofore greatly repleniſhed of markes and games of ſwannes in diuers parties of this realme of England, til nowe of late that diuers keepers of ſwannes hath bought and made to them markes and games in the fennes and marſhes & other places: and vnder colour of the ſame and of ſurueying and ſearch for the ſwannes & cygnets for their lords and maiſters, haue ſtolen cygnets, and put vpon them their owne marke, by which vnlawfull meanes the ſubſtance of the ſwannes be in the handes and poſſeſſion of yomen and huſbandmen, and other perſons of litle reputation. Wherefore it is ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted by our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, of the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſaide parliament, that no perſon, of what eſtate, degree or condition he be, other than the ſonne of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, from the feaſt of ſaint Michael next comming, ſhall haue or poſſede anie ſuch marke or game of his owne, or anie other to his vſe, ſhall haue or poſſede anie ſuch marke or game, except he haue lands and tenements of the eſtate of free hold to yͤ yerely value of v.markes aboue al yerely charges. And moreouer that euery perſon or perſons now hauing anie ſuch mark or game, ſhal ſel or giue the ſame betwixt this & the feaſt of ſ.Michael next comming, to the vſe of them to whom they ſhalbe ſo ſold or giuen. And if it hapen any perſon or perſons, not hauing landes or tenements to the ſaide yeerely value, to haue or poſſede anie ſuch marke or game after the ſaide feaſt: that then it ſhall be lawfull to anie of the kings ſubiectes, hauing lands or tenements to the ſaid value, to ſeaſe the ſaid ſwannes as forfeit. Whereof the king ſhall haue the one halfe, and he that ſhall ſo ſeaſe, the other halfe.

Forreſt.
Chace.

Item our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king conſidering, that diuers ſubiectes hauing woods growing in their owne grounde within the forreſt of Rokingham, and other forreſtes and chaces within his realme of Englande, or purliewes of the ſame, which haue cut their ſaid wood, becauſe the ſame ſubiectes might not before time cut nor encloſe their ſaid grounde, for to ſaue the yong ſpring of their woods ſo cut, anie longer time than for iii. yeeres. The ſame yong ſpring hath beene in times paſt and daily is deſtroyed with beaſtes and cattell of the ſame forreſt, chaces and purliewes, to the great dammage aſwell of his ſaid ſubiectes, as of his deere, vert, and veniſon in their couert, and otherwiſe to the verie likely deſtruction of the ſame forreſtes, chaſes, and purliewes: By the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, doth ordeine, eſtabliſh, and enact, that if any of his ſubiects, hauing woods of his owne growing in his owne ground within anie forreſt, chace, or purliewe of the ſame, within this realme of Englande, from the firſt day of this parliament, ſhall cut or cauſe to be cut the ſame wood or parte thereof by licence of the king or of his heires in his forreſtes, chaces or purliewes, or without licence in the forreſt, chace, or purliewe of any other perſon, or make anie ſale of the ſame wood: it ſhall be lawfull to the ſame ſubiects owners of the ſame ground, whereupon the wood ſo cut did growe, and to other ſuch perſons, to whom ſuch wood ſhall happen to be ſolde, immediatly after the wood ſo cut, to cut and encloſe the ſame grounde with ſufficient hedges, able to keepe out all manner beaſtes and cattell out of the ſame grounde, for the preſeruing of their yong ſpring: And the ſame hedges ſo made, the ſaid ſubiectes may keepe them continually by the ſpace of vii. yeeres next after the ſame encloſing, & repaire and ſuſteine the ſame as often as ſhall neede within the ſame vii. yeres, without ſuing of anie other licence of him or of his heires, or other perſons, or anie of their officers of the ſame forreſtes chaces & purliewes.

Chap.8.
Berwike.
Marchãt,
Marchãdiſe of Scotland.

Item our ſoueraigne lord the king, for the ſuretie of the towne of Berwike and the marches of the ſame, and to haue the ſame towne to be inhabited with great number of his faithfull liege people, wich would there abound & encreaſe by the repaire of marchants and marchandiſe and exerciſe of the ſame, hath by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame parliament ordeined, enacted and eſtabliſhed, that from the feaſt of the natiuitie of ſaint John Baptiſt next comming, all marchants, which ſhall carrie or bring anie marchandiſe out of Scotland or the yles of the ſame, into this realme of England or in Ireland or Wales, firſt ſhall bring the ſame marchaundiſe to the ſaide towne of Berwike: And that none of the kings liege people, nor none other perſon vnder the kings obeyſance, ſhall buy anie marchaundiſe brought out of Scotlande, and carrie the ſame or cauſe to be carried into this realme of England, or anie other place vnder the kings obeyſance, but that the ſame marchandiſe be bought, ſolde, and cuſtomed at his ſaid towne of Berwike, except to the citie of Karleile, and the portes or creekes pertaining to the weſt marches. And that no maner marchant denizen nor ſtranger vnder the kings obeyſance, ſhall carrie or conuey to ſell anie manner marchandiſe being within Englande, Ireland or Wales into Scotlande, or the yles of the ſame, which be not vnder the kings obeyſance. And that none vnder the kings liegeance and obeyſance, ſell anie maner marchandiſe of England, Ireland, or Wales, to anie of the inhabitants of Scotland or yles of the ſame, in anie place within England, Ireland or Wales, ſauing only to the ſaide towne of Berwike & Karleyle aforeſaid.

Carlile.

And that no marchandiſe ſhall be ſhipped in anie creeke or other place betwixt Tynmouth & the ſaid towne of Berwike, but onely in the port or hauen of the ſaid towne of Berwike. And that no maner perſon or perſons, ſauing the burgeſſes and freemen of the ſaid towne of Barwike, ſhall cauſe anie ſalmon to be ſolde, which ſhall be taken in the water of Twede.

Salmon.

And if anie perſon or perſons offend or do with anie maner marchandiſe aforeſaid contrary to anie of the ſaid ordinances, the ſame perſon or perſons ſhall forfeit all the ſaide marchandiſe. And that it ſhall be lawfull to any of the kings liege ſubiectes to ſeaſe all ſuch marchandiſe ſo forfeit, or els to purſue in his owne name an action of Det againſt the ſame perſon or perſons, which ſo ſhall forfeit, conteining the ſumme of the value of the ſaid goods. And in the ſame action to haue like proceſſe iudgement and execution, as is vſed in other actions of Det by the courſe of the kings lawes. And that in none of the ſame ſutes and actions anie protection or eſſoine of the kinges ſeruice be allowed, nor anie defendant admitted to do his law. And our ſoueraigne lord the king to haue aſwell the one halfe of all ſuch marchandiſe forfeit and ſeiſed, as the one halfe of all ſuch ſummes of money which ſhall be recouered by action in the forme aforeſaide, to purſue for the value of anie ſuch goods ſo forfeit. And the perſon or perſons, which ſhal ſeiſe and purſue in the forme aforeſaide, to haue the other halfe of the ſame. And by the ſaide authoritie it is ordeined and enacted, that the marchauntes and freemen of the ſaide towne may of the grace of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, haue to ferme all waters royall and fiſhing places within the ſaid towne of Berwike and ſeignourie of the ſame, paying for the ſame as much as anie other perſon will doe. And that the ſame marchauntes and free men and euerie of them may from henceforth haue, occupie and enioy to them their heires and ſucceſſors for euer, al liberties, franchiſes & cuſtomes, which at anie time before pertained to the ſaide towne. And that they may ſhippe all maner goods and marchaundiſes there, and carrie them to what place or places, port or portes, that they will, and there diſcharge, and the ſame recharge with corne or anie other vitaile or marchandiſes, and bring the ſame to the ſaide towne of Berwike for vitailing thereof. Prouided alwaies that this act, nor none other act made or to be made in the ſaide parliament, do not extende nor be preiudiciall to William biſhop of Durham, nor to his ſucceſſors, in or for anie manner thing perteining or in anie wiſe belonging to him.

Biſhop of Durham.

Thus endeth the Statutes made in the time of the noble king Edward the fourth.

Statutes made at VVeſtminſter in the firſt yeere of the reigne of King Richard the thirde.

Richard by the grace of God king of Englande and France, and lord of Irelande, the third after the conqueſt. To the honor of God, and of holy church, and for the common wealth of his realme of Englande, At his firſt parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xxiii. daie of Ianuarie, in the firſt yéere of his reigne, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons of the ſaide realme of Englande ſummoned to the ſaide parliament, by authoritie of the ſame parliament, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed for the quietnes of his people, certeine ſtatutes and ordinances in forme following.

Cap. 1.
Feoffements.

FIrſt becauſe that by ſecrete and vnknowen feoffements, great vnſuretie, trouble, coſtes and gréeuous vexations doth daily growe betwixt the kings ſubiectes, in ſo much that no man that buyeth lands, tenements, rentes, ſeruices, or other hereditamentes, nor women which haue ioyntures or dowers in anie landes, tenements, or other hereditamentes, nor the laſt wil of men to be performed, nor leaſes for terme of life or of yéeres, nor annuities graunted to anie perſon or perſons for their ſeruices for terme of their liues or otherwiſe, be in perfit ſuretie, nor without great trouble and doubt of the ſame, by reaſon of ſuch priuie and vnknowen feoffements: For the remedie whereof it is ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that euerie eſtate, feoffement, gift, releas, graunt, leſſes and confirmations of landes, tenementes, rents, ſeruices, or other hereditaments, made or had, or hereafter to be made or had by any perſon or perſons being of full age, of whole memorie, at large & not in dures, to anie perſon or perſons, and all recoueries and executions had or made, ſhall be good and effectuall to him to whome it is ſo made, had or giuen, and to all other to his vſe, againſt the ſeller, feoffor, donor, or grauntor of the ſame, and againſt the ſellers, feoffors, donors, or grauntors and his and their heires, clayming the ſame onely as heire or heires to the ſame ſellers, feoffors, donors, or grauntors & euery of them, and againſt all other hauing or claiming anie title or intereſt in the ſame, onely to the vſe of the ſame ſeller, feoffor, donor, or grauntor, or ſellers, feoffors, donors, or grauntors, or his or their ſaide heires at the time of the bargaine, ſale, couenant, gift or graunt made, ſauing to euerie perſon or perſons ſuch right, title, action, or intereſt, by reaſon of any gift in taile therof made, as they ought to haue if this act had not béene made.

Chap. 2.
Beneuolence.

Our ſoueraigne lord the king remembring how the commons of this his realme by new and vnlawfull inuentions and inordinate coueciſe againſt the lawe of this realme, haue béene put to great ſeruitude and importune charges and exactions, and in eſpeciall by a new impoſition called a beneuolence, whereby diuers times the ſubiectes and commons of this land againſt their willes and liberties haue payde great ſummes of money almoſt to their finall vndoing (for diuers & ſundry honorable men of this realme by reaſon of the ſame were compelled of neceſſitie to break vp their houſholds, and to liue in great penurie and miſerie, their dettes vnpayde, and their children not preferred, and ſuch memorials which they had ordeined for the health of their ſoules were deſtroyed, to the great diſpleaſure of God & the deſtruction of this realme) Wherefore our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe & aſſent of the ſaid lords ſpirituall & temporall, & the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, & by authoritie of the ſame, wil and ordeine, that the ſubiects & commonaltie of this his realme from henceforth ſhall in no wiſe be charged by anie ſuch charges or impoſition, called a beneuolence, nor by ſuch like charge. And that ſuch exactions, called a beneuolence before this time taken, ſhalbe taken for no example, to make ſuch or anie like charge of any of his ſaid ſubiects of this realme hereafter, but ſhalbe damned & adnulled for euer.

Cap. 3.
Suſpectes of felonie.
Iuſtices of peace.

Item where as diuers perſons from daie to daie be arreſted and impriſoned for ſuſpection of felonie, ſometime of malice and ſometime of a light ſuſpection, and ſo kept in priſon without baile or mainpriſe, to their great vexation and trouble: It is ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parliament, that euery Iuſtice of peace in euery countie citie or towne, ſhall haue authoritie and power by his or their diſcretion, to let ſuch priſoners and perſons ſo arreſted to baile or mainpriſe, in like forme as if the ſame priſoners and perſons were thereof endited of recorde before the ſame Iuſtices in their ſeſſions. And that Iuſtices of peace ſhall haue authoritie to enquire in their ſeſſions of all maner eſcapes of euery perſon arreſted & impriſoned for felonie.

Seiſure.

felonie. And no ſhiriffe vnderſhiriffe nor eſchetor, bailiffe of franchiſe, nor anie other perſon, take or ſeiſe the goods of anie perſon arreſted or impriſoned, before that the ſame perſon or perſons ſo arreſted and impriſoned, be conuict or attainted of ſuch fellonie according to the law of England, or els the ſame goods otherwiſe lawfully forfeit, vpon paine to forfeit the double value of the goods ſo taken to him or them that is or be thereby endamaged, by action of debt in this behalfe to be purſued by like proceſſe iudgement and execution as is accuſtomablie vſed in other actions of debt purſued at the common law. And alſo that no eſſoine nor protection be allowed in anie ſuch action. Nor that the defendant in anie ſuch action be in any wiſe admitted to wage or do his law.

Cap.4.
Periurie.
Shirifs turnes.

Item whereas diuers great inconueniences and periuries do dailie happen in diuers counties of this realme of England by falſe verdits giuen in inquiſitions and inquiries before the ſhirifes in their turnes, by perſons being of no ſubſtance nor reputation, not fearing God nor the ſhame of the world, by reaſon whereof diuers of the kinges liege people and ſubiects in ſundrie parties of the realme, by exciting and procuring of their euil willers, be wrongfullie indited, and ſome other, which of right ought to be indited by ſuch exciting and procuring, be ſpared, contrarie to right and good conſcience. In eſchewing whereof it is ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted by our ſaid ſouereigne lord king Richard, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that no bailife nor none other officer from henſeforth, ſhall returne in anie panell anie ſuch perſon in anie ſuch ſhire within this realme, to be taken or put in, or vpon, anie ſuch inquirie in anie of the ſaid turnes, but ſuch as be of good name and fame, and hauing lands or tenements of freehold within the ſame counties, to the yearelie value of xx.s. at the leaſt, or els lands and tenements holden by cuſtome of the maner commonlie called copiehold within the ſaid counties, to the yearelie value of xxvi.s. viii.d. aboue all charge at the leaſt. And if anie bailiffe or other officer within the ſaid counties, do herafter returne or enpanell any perſon contrarie to this ſtatute, he ſhall loſe for euerie perſon ſo enpanelled and returned, not being of the ſufficiencie aforeſaid, at euerie time that he offendeth, fortie ſhillings. And the ſaid ſhiriffe other fortie ſhillings, the one halfe thereof to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to the partie that will ſue in this behalfe. And euerie man that will ſue for the ſame, ſhall haue their ſeuerall actions of debt for the ſame at the common law, aſwell againſt the ſhirife as the ſaid bailife, and that ſuch and like proceſſe be had and vſed in euerie of the ſame actions, as is had and vſed in other actions at the common law. And that no protection nor eſſoine be allowed in the ſame. And that euerie ſuch inditement before anie ſuch ſhiriffe in his turne otherwiſe taken, be void and of none effect. This act to take effect at the firſt date of the ſaid parliament and not before.

Panell.
Enditement.

Chap.5.
Feoffements.

Item our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king calling to his bleſſed remembrance the great damage trouble and charges, which might inſue to his liege people, by reaſon of diuers feoffements and eſtates made to him and to other perſons iointlie, before that he was king, of landes and tenements and other hereditamentes, to the vſe and behoofe of other perſons and not to his owne vſe. And for to eſchew ſuch damage, trouble and charge, which after might inſue to thoſe perſons, to whoſe vſe ſuch feoffements and eſtates were made. Of his bleſſed diſpoſition and meere motion, by auctoritie of his ſaid parliament, will, ordeineth, and eſtabliſheth, that ſuch poſſeſſion, right, title and intereſt, as is or doth perteine to him of or in anie landes, tenementes or other hereditaments, by reaſon of anie ſuch feoffement or eſtate made to him and to anie other perſons iointlie to the vſe and behoofe of anie other perſon or perſons, and not to his owne vſe, ſhall by the ſaid auctoritie of parliament, veſt and be in the other perſon or perſons ſo infeoffed with him, or hauing ioint eſtate to the ſame vſe and effect wherfore they were or had eſtate, in like maner as if he had neuer bene infeoffed nor had eſtate with the ſame other perſon or perſons. Moreouer by the aduiſe of the ſaid lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, it is ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that ſuch poſſeſſion, right, title and intereſt of and in anie lands, tenementes and other hereditaments, whereof our ſouereigne lord the king is onelie ſeaſed by reaſon of anie feoffement or eſtate made before that he was king of England, to the vſe of anie other perſon or perſons, ſhall veſt and be in ſuch perſon or perſons or their heires to whoſe vſe he is ſo ſeiſed. Sauing to euerie other perſon or perſons their right title and intereſt in the ſame.

Chap.6.
Courts of pipowders.

Item our ſouereigne lord the king, by a petition made to him by the commons of this realme of England in his ſaid parliament aſſembled, hath conceiued and vnderſtand, that where as in a ſtatute made in the xvii. yeare of the reigne of the noble king Edward the fourth amongſt other things it was ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted, that from the firſt date of May then next following no ſteward, vnderſteward bailife nor commiſſarie nor other officer or miniſter of anie courts of pipowders perteining to faires, ſhould holde anie plee vpon any action at the ſute of anie perſon or perſons, vnleſſe the plaintife or plaintifes, or his or their atturnies, in the preſence of the defendant or defendants, (if they or their atturnies, the ſame deſire) do ſweare vpon the holie Euangeliſts vpon the declaration, that the contract treſpaſſe or other deed compriſed in the ſame declaration, was made or committed within the time of the ſaid faire, where he taketh his action, and within the bounds and iuriſdiction of the ſame faire. And though the ſaid plaintife or plaintifes do affirme the ſame, neuertheleſſe the ſaid defendant or defendants ſhal in no wiſe be concluded, but that they may aunſwere and plead to the action, or in abatement of the plaintes and to profer and iſſue, that the ſame contract treſpaſſe or other act compriſed within the ſaid declaration, whereupon the ſaid plaintifes do declare, was not made nor committed within the time of the ſaid faire and iuriſdiction of the ſame, but out of the time of the faire, or in other places out of the iuriſdiction of the ſame faire, according to the truth in this behalfe. And if it be ſo tried, or that the plaintife or plaintifes or their atturnies do refuſe to be ſworne vpon the holie Euangeliſts in the forme aforeſaid. That then the defendant or defendants ſhalbe quite diſmiſſed and diſcharged in that behalfe out of the ſaid court. The partie plaintife neuertheleſſe to take his aduantage at the common law, or in any other place conuenient, as him liketh. This ordinance, act and auctoritie of the ſaid parliament notwithſtanding. And that euerie ſteward vnderſteward, balife, commiſſarie, or anie other miniſter, holding and gouerning anie of the ſaid courts, that doth contrary to this ordinance, ſhall forfeit for euerie default in this behalfe a hundreth ſhillings. The one halfe thereof to our ſouereigne lord the king, And the other halfe to him or them that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt vpon this ordinance in his proper name. And that writs of proclamation be made in all conuenient haſt directed to euery ſhiriffe of euery countie of England, to cauſe this ordinance to be proclaimed in euery port within his countie aſwell within the franchiſes as without. Prouided alwaies that this act, nor nothing therein compriſed, be hurtfull to William now biſhop of Durham nor his ſucceſſors, within the libertie and franchiſe of the biſhoprike of Durham, which ordinance was made to indure till the next parliament, which time is nowe expired. And verily the ſaid ordinance is verie neceſſarie and requiſit to indure for euer, and verie profitable to all the commons of this realme of England. It is therefore ordeined eſtabliſhed & enacted by auctoritie of this preſent parliament, that this ſaid act and ordinance ſhall be and ſtand in his vertue force and effect. And to be executorie from the feaſt of the Annunciation of our ladie next comming perpetuallie to indure.

Biſhop of Durham.

Chap. 7

Fines.

Item where as it was ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted in a parliament holden in the time of the reigne of the noble king Edward the firſt, by the ſtatute de finibus, that notes and fines leuied in the kings court before his iuſtices, ſhould be openlie and ſolemnly read, and that the plees in the meane time ſhould ceaſe, and that to be done two daies in the weeke after the diſcretion of the iuſtices, as in the ſame ſtatute more plainlie appeareth. Our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king conſidering that fines ought to be of the greateſt force and effect to auoid ſtrife and debate, and to be a finall end and concluſion, will, ordeineth and eſtabliſheth by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that after the ingroſing of euerie fine to be leuied after ẏ feaſt of Eaſter next comming in the kings court before his iuſtices of ẏ common place, of any lands, tenements or other hereditaments. The ſame fine ſhalbe openlie and ſolemnlie read and proclaimed in the ſame court the ſame terme, and in iii. termes of the yeare next inſuing after the ſame ingroſing in the ſame court at foure ſeuerall daies in euerie terme. And in the ſame time that it is ſo read & proclaimed, all plées ſhall ceaſe, and moreouer a tranſcript of the ſame fine ſhalbe ſent by the ſaid iuſtices of the common place, to the iuſtices of aſſiſes of the countie where the ſaid lands & tenementes be. They to cauſe the ſaid fine to be red and proclaimed openlie and ſolemnlie in euerie their ſeſſions of aſſiſes to be holden the ſame yeare, if aſſiſes do then hold, & all the plées in the meane time to ceaſe. Alſo it is ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the ſaid auctoritie of parliament, that a like tranſcript of the ſame fine ſhalbe ſent to the iuſtices of peace of the county where the ſaid lands and tenements be, they to cauſe open and ſolemne proclamation of the ſaid fine to be made at iiii. generall ſeſſions of the peace to be holden in the ſame yeare. The ſaid iuſtices of aſſiſes, and alſo iuſtices of peace to certifie the ſame proclamation to the kings iuſtices of the common place at the ſecond day of returne of the terme then next following, after which proclamation had made and certified, the ſaid fine to be a finall end, and to conclude aſwell priuies as ſtrangers to the ſame, except women couert, other than be parties to the ſaid fine, and euerie perſon or perſons then being within age, in priſon, or out of this realme of England, or not of whole memorie at the time of ſuch fine leuied. Alſo ſauing to euerie perſon or perſons ſuch right, title, claime and intereſt, which they haue to or in the ſaid lands tenementes and other hereditaments at the time of ſuch fine ingroſſed, ſo that they do purſue their ſaid right, title, claime or intereſt by way of action or lawfull entrée within v. yeares next after ẏ ſaid proclamation made had or certified. And alſo ſauing to all other perſons all ſuch action, right, title, claime, and intereſt in and to all the ſaid lands, tenements and other hereditamentes, which ſhall growe remaine deſcend or come to them after the ſaid fine ingroſed, by force of any gift in taile, or by any other cauſe or matter had or made before the ſaid fine leuied, ſo that thoſe perſons take their ſaid actions, or purſue their ſaid right and title according to ẏ law within fiue next yeares after ſuch actions, title, claime, or intereſt, growne, deſcended, remained, or come to them. And alſo that the ſaid perſons & theyr heires may haue theyr ſaid action againſt the taker of the profits of the ſaid lands, tenements, and other hereditaments at the time of ſuch action to be taken. And if the ſame perſons at the time of ſuch action right and title growne, deſcended, remained or come to them, be couert baron, or within age, or in priſon, or out of this land, or out of whole memorie: It is ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted by auctoritie aforeſaid, that theyr actions right and title be reſerued and ſaued to them and theyr heires till the time they come and be at theyr full age, out of priſon, within this land, vnmaried, and of whole memorie, ſo that they or theyr heires take their ſaid actions or lawfull entrée according to theyr right and title within fiue yeares next after they come and be at their full age,out of priſon,within this land vnmaried,and of whole memorie, and purſue the ſame actions, or take their lawfull entrée with effect according to the law of England. Alſo by autoritie of the ſaid parliament it is ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted, that all ſuch perſons, which be couert not parties to the fine, and euerie perſon being within age,in priſon,or out of this realme, or out of whole memorie at the time of the ſaid fines leuied and ingroſed,by this act of parliament before excepted, hauing anie right or title or cauſe of action to anie of the ſaid lands tenements and other hereditaments that they or their heires take their ſaid actions or lawfull entrée according to their right & title within fiue yeares next after that the ſaid perſons come or be of full age, out of priſon, vnmaried, within this land, and alſo being of whole memorie.And alſo ſue the ſame actions and take their lawfull entrée, and ſo purſue with effect according to the law of the realme of England. And moreouer if they do not, and take their ſaid actions,and alſo their ſaid lawfull entrée in the maner as is aforeſaid,that then they ſhall be concluded by the ſaid fines for euer,in like forme as they be that be parties and priuies to the ſaid fines leuied and ingroſed.Alſo by the ſaid auctority it is ordeined and eſtabliſhed,that euerie fine, which ſhalbe from henſeforth leuied in anie of the kings courts,of any manors,lands, tenements or other poſſeſſions, after the maner vſage and forme that fines hath bene leuied before the making of this act before rehearſed,ſhall be of like ſtrength, effect and auctoritie, as fines ſo leuied be or were before the making of this act, this act or anie other act in this parliament made or to be made notwithſtanding. And that euerie perſon ſhall be at his libertie to leuie anie fine hereafter as he will himſelfe at his pleaſure after the making conteined and ordeined in and by this act, or after the maner and forme before vſed.

Chap. 8,

Item in the ſaid parliament were ſhewed diuers inconueniences and deceipts had made and vſed in the ſaid realme of England in making of clothes, for the auoiding whereof our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king,by the aduiſe and aſſent of the ſaid lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled and by auctoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined eſtabliſhed,and enacted,that no perſon whatſoeuer he be clothmaker nor other,ſhall ſel nor put to ſale after the feaſt of Michaell the archangell next inſuing, anie maner wollen clothes called broad cloth,vnleſſe the ſame cloth be before fullie watered.And that euerie whole cloth,and alſo broad cloth,which ſhall be made in this realme of England after the ſaid feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell next comming, after that it be fully watered readie to ſale, ſhall hold and conteine in length xxiiii.yards,and to euery yard an inch,conteining the bredth of a mans inch,to be meaſured by the creſt of the ſame cloth, and alſo it ſhall hold and conteine in bredth two yards within ẏ liſts by the whole length of the ſame. Alſo that euerie halfe cloth of the ſaid whole clothes to be made after the ſaid feaſt after his full watering redie to ſale ſhall hold and conteine xii. yards in length at the leaſt with the inches aforeſaid,to be meaſured by the creſt,and ii. yards in bredth within the liſts.So that alwaies the ſame halfe cloth do not excéed the length of xvi.yards, vpon paine of cutting the whole cloth in iii.péeces,and of cutting the halfe cloth in ii.péeces.And alſo to loſe for euery whole cloth vi.s. viii.d. and for euerie halfe cloth iii.s. iiii. d. made, ſold,or put to ſale after the ſaid feaſt not fullie watered, or made after the ſaid feaſt not kéeping their meaſure aboue ordeined. And if the whole cloth be longer in meaſure than the ſaid xxiiii. yards and the inches aforeſaid,and the halfe cloth of the ſame be longer than xii.yards with the ſaid inches, that then the buier of the ſame whole cloth, ſhall paie for as much as it doth excéed in the meaſure of xxiiii. yardes, and the buier of the ſame halfe cloth to paie for aſmuch as it doth excéede xii.yardes. So that alwaies the ſaid halfe cloth do not paſſe the length of xvi.yards as aboue is ſaid. Alſo that all manner clothes called ſtreits to be made after the ſaid feaſt, after their full watering redie to ſale , ſhall holde and conteine xii. yards in length, and the inches after the meaſure aforeſaid , and in bredth one yard within the liſts, and throughout the length of the ſame, vpon paine of cutting of the ſaid ſtreit in two péeces, and alſo to loſe for the ſame ſtreit xx.d. Alſo that euerie cloth called karſeie to be made or put to ſale after the ſaid feaſt , after the full watering redie to ſale, ſhall holde and conteine in length xviii.yards and the inches as is aforeſaid, and in bredth one yard and a naile at the leaſt within the liſts,vpon paine of cutting of the ſaid karſeie in two péeces,and to loſe for the ſame karſeie thrée ſhillings foure pence.All the ſaid paines forfeitures and loſſes to run vpon the ſellers of the ſaid clothes,which ſhalbe made contrarie to this act. And that euerie of the ſaid whole clothes, halfe clothes,ſtreits,and karſeies be perfitly and duely made throughout from one end to ẏ other. Alſo before the ſaid feaſt ſeales ſhalbe prouided and ordeined by the treaſurer of England to be printed in lead, hauing the kings armes of England in the one ſide, and in the other ſide ẏ armes ſigne or token of euerie citie borough or towne within this realme of England, where the cloth is made,hauing ſuch armes ſigne or token for a marke or an euident token and knowledge of the cloth made within euerie ſuch citie borough and towne of this realme, and beſides that ſeales for euerie countie of this realme for the ſealing of all maner cloth made within euerie countie, out of citie borough or towne of the ſame countie,ſhall haue on the one ſide the kings armes, and on the other ſide the name of the countie printed in the ſame. And that the treaſurer of England for the time being or his debutie, after the ſaid feaſt ſhall make no perſon or perſons to be aulnegeor, ſealer or kéeper of the ſeale in anie part of this realme, but ſuch as be expert in making of cloth of the ſufficiencie of an hundreth pound at the leaſt at the time of the ſaid deputation. And that no aulnegeor ſealer or kéeper of any ſeale to be prouided as is aforeſaid after the ſaid feaſt , ſhall ſcale anie of the ſaid whole clothes, halfe clothes, ſtreits, or karſeies, but ſuch as ſhalbe onely made after the ſame feaſt within the countie, citie, borough, or towne where they ſhalbe deputed aulnegeor, ſealer, or keeper, vpon pain to forfeit to our ſouereigne lord ẏ king for euery ſuch whole cloth contrary ſealed v. marks, for euerie halfe cloth xxxiii. s. iiii. d. for euery ſtreit xx. s. and for euerie karſeie ten ſhillings. Alſo that no perſon whatſoeuer he be, after the ſaid feaſt, ſhall ſet nor draw, nor cauſe to be ſet or drawne in length or bredth within this realme of England, anie maner of wollen clothes, after that it be fullie watered, by tentering or otherwiſe, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame cloth. Alſo that no man of what condition ſo euer he be, within the realme after ẏ ſaid feaſt, ſhall ſet caſt or put vpon any maner of cloth anie flocks or anie other deceiptfull thing like, vpon paine of xl. s. for euerie cloth, whereupon any ſuch perſon ſhall caſt any flocks or ſuch other thing. Alſo that no cloth maker nor other perſon whatſoeuer he be within the ſaid realme after the ſaid feaſt, ſhall ſet or caſt vpon any white cloth or karſeie anie chalke vpon like pain.

Sherman.

Alſo that no ſherman nor other perſon after the ſaid feaſt, ſhall weare nor cancell anie clothes within this realme, except ſuch cloth be before fullie watered, vpon paine to forfeit xl. s for euerie cloth as often as he ſhall ſo do. And that no perſon ſtranger nor other, ſhall ſend nor conuey anie wollen cloth ouer the ſea after the ſaid feaſt, vnleſſe the ſame cloth be before fully watered. And after that the ſame cloth be ſo fullie watered, that then it ſhall in no wiſe be ſet nor drawne in length nor bredth vpon paine of xl. s. for euerie cloth conueied or ſent ouer the ſea contrarie to this act. Alſo that no maner perſon within this realme, after the ſaid feaſt, retaile any wollen cloth or clothes lining nor other, except it be full watered before, & after that it be fullie watered it ſhall in no wiſe be ſet nor drawn in length or bredth vpon paine to forfeit the ſame cloth or the value therof. The ſame pain to run vpon the ſeller of all ſuch clothes.

Teintor.

Alſo our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, in eſchewing of great falſity and deceipt, which hath grown and daily doth grow by meane of teintors, by the aſſent and auctoritie aforeſaid hath ordeined and enacted, that no perſon whatſoeuer he be, ſhall keep haue or occupie anie teintor, or any other thing in his owne houſe or place of his inhabiting, whereby wollen clothes may be in any wiſe drawne out in length or bredth, vpon paine to forfeit xx. pound as often as he ſhall do contrarie to this act, but that all teintors which hereafter ſhalbe vſed or occupied for due ſtretching of cloth, onelie after that it commeth from the mill, and before it be rowen, and for none other cauſe, aſwell within the citie of London as other cities, boroughs and townes of this realme, ſhalbe ſet in open places.

Maior.

And that euery maior of London for the time being, and all other maiors and bailifes, and other gouernors of cities, boroughs, townes, and villages of this ſaid realme, ſhall diligently ſurueie and ouerſee that all clothes, which ſhalbe put vpon teintor, ſhal not be drawne out in length and bredth otherwiſe than is before rehearſed.

Woll.

Stranger.

Alſo that after the ſaid feaſt no ſtranger ſhall buy anie woll, which ſhalbe ſent or ſhall paſſe through the ſtreights of Marroke by gallies carrakes or ſhips or other veſſels, ſorted, clacked, or barked nor no woll thereof any locks or refuſe ſhalbe made, but that the ſame woll be as it is clipped and purely wound without deceipt and marchandiſable after the growing of the country, without any ſorting, berding, clacking or locks or refuſe thereof to be made, as afore is ſaid, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame woll and the double value therof.

Orchell.

Moreouer our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king hath ordeined and enacted by auctoritie aforeſaid, that no dier nor none other perſon, ſhall die or cauſe to be died within this realme after the ſaid feaſt, anie wollen cloth with orchell or corke, called iarcorke, vpon paine to forfeit and loſe xl. s. for euerie cloth that he or anie other for him or to his vſe, ſhall die or cauſe to be died. Nor that no maner perſon after ẏ ſaid feaſt ſhall ſell or put to ſale within this ſaid realme anie ſuch cloth which after the ſaid feaſt ſhalbe died with orchell or corke called iarecorke vpon paine of forfeiture of ſuch cloth ſo died or put to ſale contrarie to this act, This paines and loſſe alwaies to run vpon the ſeller, except that corke made within this realme of England may be vſed in dying vpon wollwardis, and alſo in dying of all ſuch cloth which is made onelie of wollwardis, ſo that the ſame woll and cloth be perfitly boiled and maddered.

Corke.

Alſo that corke made in this realme may be put vpon cloth that is perfitly boiled & maddered. Alſo that no dier after the ſaid feaſt ſhall die any cloth within this ſaid realme, except the ſame dier do die the ſaid cloth and the liſt of the ſame with one colour, without tacking or ſowing of any bulruſhes or ſuch like thing vpon the liſts of the ſame, vpon paine to forfeit xl. s. for euerie cloth that he ſhall ſo die contrarie to this act. And that no maner perſon what ſoeuer he be, ſhall put to ſale within this ſaid realme after the ſaid feaſt anie maner of cloth, which after the ſame feaſt ſhalbe deceiptfully died, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame cloth or the value thereof. The ſame forfeitures & paines alwaies to run vpon the ſeller. Alſo if any of the kings ſubiects, or any other hereafter happen to ſeaſe any wollen cloth otherwiſe made or died than afore is ſaid, than the ſame ſubiect or other ſhall bring all the ſame cloth or clothes ſo by him ſeiſed, before the maior, bailifes, or other gouernour of the cities, boroughs, towns or villages where any ſuch ſeiſing ſhall happen to be made of the ſame cloth or clothes there to iudge by the diſcretion of the ſaid maior, bailife or other gouernor, calling to him or them ſuch perſons as by his or their diſcretions ſhall ſeeme conuenient, whether the ſame cloth be otherwiſe made, wrought or died, than is according with the acts before recited. And if it be iudged by the ſaid maior bailife or other gouernor, or other perſons called to them or any of them, as afore is ſaid that the ſame cloth is made or died and put to ſale contrarie to the aforeſaid actes, that then the ſame clothes ſo ſeiſed, and by them iudged as is aforeſaid, ſhall be cut in three peeces in the preſence of the ſaid maior, bailiffe or other gouernour. The one partie thereof to be deliuered in the eſchequer by him or them that ſo ſhall ſeiſe the ſame cloth or clothes to the kings vſe. And the ſecond parte thereof to be deliuered to the ſeiſour of the ſame cloth or clothes, and the third parte thereof to be deliuered to the ſaid maior, bailife or gouernour, to the vſe of the communaltie where they or anie of them be maior, bailife, or gouernour. The one halfe of all the other fines, forfeitures and penalties aforeſaid, and of euerie of them, to be to our ſouereigne lorde the king, and the other halfe to him or them of the kings ſubiectes that ſhall ſeiſe the ſame, or ſue for the ſame by action of debt, by writ at the common lawe, or by bill or pleint after the cuſtome of the citie towne or porte, where ſuch fines, forfeitures and penalties ſhall happen to fall or be. And that the defendaunt in anie ſuch action be not admitted to wage or doo his lawe. Nor that anie protection or eſſoine in the kings ſeruice be allowed for anie ſuch defendaunt. Prouided alwaies that this acte nor anie thing therein contained, ſhall not extend nor be preiudiciall to the making of anie woollen cloth called raie, nor to anie cloth made in Wincheſter or Saleſburie, vſed to be put and ioined with raie. The cloth thereof commonlie vſed to be ſould at xl. s. or within, nor to the making of anie cloth called veruiſe, otherwiſe called plonkettes turkins or celeſtrines with laiced liſtes. Nor to anie clothes called packing whites, nor to the making of anie clothes called beſſes cogware or worſteds, nor to the making of anie clothes called florences with cremill liſtes, nor to the making of anie woollen clothes called baſtardes, nor of anie clothes called kendals, nor to clothes called ſailing ware with cremill liſtes, laiſid liſtes or ſmall liſtes, nor to anie cloth called friſeware, nor to anie of them, nor to the maker or ſeller of them. So that the ſame clothes and euerie of them for the kings honour and profite of his realme be truelie duelie and perfitelie made according to the nature and making of euerie of the ſaid clothes.

By the ſtatute made in the firſt yeere of K. Hen vii. ca. xi all theſe forfeitures be giuen onelie to the K. And by a ſtatute made in the xii. yeere of his reigne they be repealed cap. xiii.

Chap. 9.
Italian marchãts.

Item becauſe our ſaid ſouereigne lorde the king vpon petition made to him in his ſaid parliament, by the commons of England, hath conceiued and vnderſtand, that whereas marchauntes ſtraungers of the nation of Italie, as Venetians, Florentines, Apulaines, Cicilians, Lucaners, Cateloines, and other of the ſame nation in great number, doo inhabit and keepe houſes aſwell in the citie of London as in other cities and burghes within this his realme, and doo take warehouſes & cellars, and therein put their wares & marchandiſes, which they bring into this ſaid realme, & in the ſaid cellars & warehouſes diſceitefullie doo packe medle and keepe the ſame till ſuch time the priſes thereof be greatlie enhanced for their great lucre, & the ſame marchandiſes and wares they then ſell to all maner people, aſwell within the portes where they bring the ſaid wares & marchandiſes, as to other diuers & manie places within this realme aſwell by retaile as otherwiſe. And alſo doo buie in the ſaid portes & other places at their owne libertie, the commodities of this realme & ſell the ſame againe at their pleaſure within the ſame, as commonlie and freelie, as anie of the kings liege people dooth, and doo not employ a great parte of the moneie comming thereof, vpon the commodities of this realme, but make it ouer the ſea by exchange to diuers other countries, to ẏ kings great damages in loſſe of his cuſtomes, & to the great impoueriſhing of his ſaid ſubiects, of whom they ſhould buie the commodities of this realme. And the ſame marchants of Italie, and other marchantes ſtrangers be hoſtes, and take to them people of other nations, and be with them daylie, and doo buie ſell and make priuie and ſecret contractes & bargains with the ſame people, to their great encreaſe and profite, and to the importune damage of the kings ſaid ſubiectes, and contrarie to diuers ſtatutes in this caſe prouided and ordained. Alſo the ſaid marchauntes of Italie doo buie in diuers places within this realme a great quantitie of woolle and woollen cloth and other marchaundiſes of the kings ſubiectes, and parte thereof they ſell againe to the ſame ſubiectes and other within this realme, to their greater auantage, and much of the ſaide woolles they doo deliuer to clothmakers, thereof to make cloth at their pleaſure. Moreouer a great number of artificers and other ſtraungers not borne vnder the kings obeiſaunce, doo daylie reſorte and repaire to the citie of London, and to other cities, burghes and townes of the ſaide realme, and much more than they were wont to doo in times paſt, and inhabite them ſelfe in the ſaide realme with their wiues children and houſholde, and would not take vpon them anie laborious occupation, as going to plough or carte and other like buſines, but vſe the making of cloth and other handicraftes and eaſie occupations, and bring and conueie from the parties beyond the ſea, great ſubſtaunce of wares and marchandiſes to faires and marketes, and all other places of this realme at their pleaſure, and there ſell the ſame aſwell by retaile as otherwiſe, as freelie as anie of the kings ſubiectes vſe to doo, to the great damage and impoueriſhment of the kings ſaide ſubiectes, and will in no wiſe ſuffer nor take anie of the kings ſaid ſubiectes to worke with them, but they take onelie into their ſeruice people borne in their owne countrie, whereby the kings ſaid ſubiects for lacke of occupation fall into idlenes, and be theeues, beggers, vacabondes, and people of vitious liuing, to the great perturbaunce both of the king and of all his realme, and when the marchauntes, artificers, ſtraungers before rehearſed, haue gained within this realme by buieng and ſelling or by ſuch eaſie occupations and handicraftes, great ſubſtaunce of goods, with the ſame ſubſtaunce they go out of this ſaide realme, to ſuch parties beyond the ſea, as them liketh beſt, and there ſpendeth the ſame goods oftentimes amongſt the kings aduerſaries and enimies, to the great damage of our ſouereigne lorde the king and his ſubiectes, and impoueriſhment of this realme, and the commons of the ſame. And ſo by the occaſion of the premiſſes, the ſubſtaunce of the inhabitantes in the ſaide cities burghes, and townes now late hath fallen and dailie dooth fall into great pouertie and decaie, to their likelie vndooing, vnleſſe the kings gratious aide be to them in this behalfe ſhewed. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, of his abundant grace willing againſt the premiſſes to prouide remedie in this behalfe, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lordes ſpirituall & temporall, and at the praier of the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, hath ordained, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that all marchants of the nation of Italie before recited, not made deniſens, which haue now within this realme wares or marchandiſes brought from beyond the ſea, and before the feaſt of Eaſter next comming ſhall haue, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be ſould or bartred in groſſe and not by retaile to the kings ſubiectes before the firſt day of May, which ſhall be in the yeere of our lord God M. CCCC. lxxxv. and ſhall employ the moneie comming of that ſale before the firſt day of May within the ſame porte or portes, where they do arriue, vpon the commodities and marchandiſes of this realme: Their reaſonable coſtes and expenſes alwaies except and deducted, vpon paine of forfeiture of the value aſwell of all the ſaid wares and marchandiſes kept & not ſould before the ſaid firſt day of May, or otherwiſe ſould than is aboue rehearſed, as of aſmuch moneie as ſhalbe ſo made ouer by exchange contrarie to this acte. And alſo that all the marchantes of Italie, which after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming ſhall bring anie marchandiſes or wares into this realme to be ſould, ſhall ſell or barter the ſame wares and marchandiſes in groſſe and not by retaile to the kings ſubiectes, vpon paine of forfeiture of the value of the ſame wares and marchandiſes which they (as afore is ſaid) ſhall bring after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter. And the ſaid marchauntes, which ſhall bring in ſuch wares or marchandiſes after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter to ſell or barter, ſhall ſell or elſe barter yͤ ſame within eight monethes next after their firſt arriuall in this realme, in the forme aforeſaide, and ſhall emploie the moneie comming of or by the ſaid ſale or bartering and euerie of them, and with the ſame buie the commodities or marchaundiſes of this realme within the ſaid eight monethes in the ſaid porte or portes where they do firſt arriue: Their reaſonable coſtes and expences alwaies excepted and deducted, and in no wiſe to make ouer ſuch moneie by exchaunge. And that the ſaide marchauntes do in no wiſe ſell nor barter within the ſaide realme, their ſaide wares and marchaundiſes, which remaineth vnſould after the ende of the ſaide eight monethes, but carie and conueie the ſame out of this realme within two monethes next enſuing after the ſaide eight monethes, if winde and time will that ſuffer, and otherwiſe as ſone as winde and time will ſuffer them after the ſaide two monethes, vpon paine of forfeiture aſwell of aſmuch moneie as ſo ſhall be made ouer by exchaunge, as of the ſaide wares & marchaundiſes ſo ſould or bartred after the ende of the ſaide eight monethes not caried nor conueied out of this ſaide realme in the forme aforeſaide, or the value thereof: The penalties forfeiture and loſſes all the premiſſes alwaies to runne and be vpon the ſaid marchantes of the nation of Italie, doing contrarie to this acte. Prouided alwaies that it ſhall be lawfull to the ſaide marchauntes of the nation of Italie, all ſuch wares and marchandiſes and euerie parcell thereof, which after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming ſhall be brought at libertie to anie other porte or portes of this realme of England to be ſould to conueie the ſame wares and marchandiſes at their liberties to anie porte or portes or other place within this realme, and there to ſell the ſame as afore is ſaide, ſo that they ſell or barter the ſame marchaundiſes or wares in the realme within eight monethes next after their firſt arriuall in anie of the ſaide portes of this realme. And alſo that no marchaunt ſtranger, of what countrie ſo euer he be, ſhall be hoſte or take to ſoiourne with him in the ſaide realme anie marchaunt ſtranger, not being of his nation or countrie, vpon paine of xl. li. Alſo that none of the ſaide marchants of Italie, not made deniſen, ſhall ſell or barter anie wollen clothes, wolles or other marchandiſes in this ſaid realme, which the ſame marchantes of Italie ſhall buie within this ſaid realme. Nor that the ſame marchauntes nor none other for them, ſhall deliuer anie wolle to anie perſon thereof to make cloth in this realme, but ſhall haue & conueie the ſame wollen cloth, wolles, and other marchandiſes ouer the ſea by the ſtraites of Marroke, vpon paine to forfeite the value of all the wollen cloth, wolles, and other marchandiſes, which by them ſhall be ſo ſould or deliuered, in whoſe handes they ſhall be found: The forfeiture of the ſame to runne and be vpon the marchaunt ſtanger. Moreouer that no perſon, not borne vnder the kings obeiſaunce as afore is ſaid, ſhal not exerciſe nor occupie anie handiecrafte or the occupation of anie handiecrafteman in this realme of England, but that all ſuch perſons, which after the ſaide feaſt of Eaſter, commeth into this realme, euerie of them ſhall departe into their owne countrie againe, or elſe be ſeruauntes to ſuch of the kings ſubiectes onelie, as be expert and cunning in ſuch feites artes and craftes, which the ſaid ſtraungers can occupie, vpon paine of forfeiture of all their goods, which ſhall come and dwell in this realme contrarie to this acte, in whoſe handes ſo euer they ſhall be found. Alſo that no perſon, not borne vnder the kings obeiſaunce, nor made deniſen, being artificer or handiecraftman, after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter, nor none other for him or to his vſe, ſhall make anie cloth, or put anie wolle to worke to make cloth in this realme, vpon paine to forfeite the ſame cloth or clothes made contrarie to this acte. Alſo that all perſons not borne vnder the kings obeiſaunce, being artificers or handiecrafteſmen at the day of the making of this acte dwelling in this ſaid realme, nor none other ſuch artificers or handiecraftman, which hereafter ſhall inhabite or dwell in the ſame, which after the feaſt of the Annunciation of our ladie next comming, ſhall vſe, exerciſe or occupie the feite of marchaundiſe of anie maner wares within this realme, ſhall ſell or barter the ſame wares or marchandiſes in groſſe and not by retaile, in the porte towne or place where the ſame artificers be or ſhall be dwelling, and in none other place vpon paine of forfeiture of the value of all the wares and marchandiſes ſould contrarie to this acte. Alſo that no perſon not borne vnder the kings obeiſance inhabiting dwelling, or holding anie great houſe or chamber in this realme and occupieng anie handie craft, or being artificer or handiecraftesman after the ſaid feaſt of the Annunciation of our ladie next comming, ſhall take anie apprentiſe ſeruant or other perſon to worke with him, or to his vſe, vnleſſe it be his ſonne or his daughter, other then at the ſaid feaſt ſhall be apprentices or ſeruauntes with him, except that the ſame apprentice or ſeruauntes ſo to be taken be the kings ſubiects borne, vpon paine to forfeite & to looſe for euerie apprentiſe or ſeruaunt taken contrarie xx. li. The one halfe of all the ſaide fines forfeitures and penalties, and of euerie of them, to be to the king, and the other halfe to be to him or them that will ſeiſe the ſame, or purſue for the ſame by action of debt, by bill at the common lawe, by bill or pleint after the cuſtome of the citie or towne, where ſuch fines, forfeitures, or penalties hereafter ſhall fall and be. And that the defendaunt in anie ſuch action ſhall not be admitted to wage or doo his lawe, nor no protection nor eſſoine of the kings ſeruice ſhalbe allowed for anie ſuch defendaunt in the ſame. Prouided alwaies that this acte, or anie parcell thereof, nor none other acte made or to be made in the ſaid parliament, ſhall not extend or be in preiudice, diſturbaunce, damage or impediment to anie artificer or marchaunt ſtranger, of what nation or countrie he be or ſhall be of or for bringing into this realme, or ſelling by retaile or otherwiſe, anie bookes written or printed, or for the inhabiting within this ſaid realme for the ſame entent, or anie ſcriuener, alluminour, reader, or printer of ſuch bookes, which he hath or ſhall haue to ſell by way of marchandiſe, or for their dwelling within this ſaid realme for the exerciſe of the ſaid occupations. This acte or anie parte thereof notwithſtanding.

Cap. 10. Silke workes. Marchant ſtranger.

Item where in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xx. day of Ianuarie, the xxii. yéere of the reigne of king Edward the fourth, it was ordained and eſtabliſhed by auctoritie of that parliament, that no marchaunt ſtraunger, after the feaſt of Eaſter then next comming, ſhould bring into this realme of England to be ſould anie corſes, girdles, ribands, laces, call ſilke or collen ſilke, thred or wrought, vpon paine to forfeite the ſame, in whoſe hands ſo euer it be found: The one moitie of the ſaid forfeiture to be to the king, and the other moitie to him or them of his ſubiectes that ſhall ſeiſe the ſame, or will purſue for the ſame by action of debt, by writte at the common lawe, by bill or pleint, after the cuſtome of the citie or towne, where it ſhall happen hereafter anie ſuch forfeiture to fall or be: And that the defendaunt in anie ſuch action be not admitted to wage or doo his lawe: Nor that anie protection or eſſoine of the kings ſeruice for anie ſuch defendaunt be allowed, The ſaid acte to endure for iiii. yéeres then next enſuing the ſaide feaſt of Eaſter: Our ſaid ſouereigne lorde the king that now is, at the praier of the ſaid commons, hath ordained by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, that the ſaide acte and ordinance be and remaine good and effectuall till the the end of the ſaid iiii. yéeres, and from the end of the ſaid iiii. yéeres, vntill the ende and terme of x. yéeres then next enſuing.

Cap. 11. Bowſtaues.

Item it was ſhewed in the ſaid parliament by yͤ bowers inhabiting within the cities townes and burghes of this realme, occupieng artillerie pertaining to the ſame for the defence of this realme, that whereas in times paſt good and able ſtuffe of bowſtaues hath bene brought into this realme, aſwell by Engliſh marchauntes as ſtrangers, whereby the inhabitauntes bowers might competentlie liue vpon ſuch ſtuffe, which they bought at xl. s. the hundred, or xlvi. s. viii. d. at the moſt, now it is ſo, that by the ſeditious confederacie of Lombardes, vſing to diuers portes of this realme, the bowſtaues be now at ſuch an outrageous price, that is to ſay, at eight poundes the hundred, where they were woont to be ſould at xl. s. And alſo they will not ſuffer anie garbeling to be made of them, but ſell good and euill at ſuch an exceſſiue price togither vngarbled, that by likelode in ſhorte time this realme is like to faile aſwell in ſtuffe of artillerie as of workemen thereof, vnleſſe due remedie be in this behalfe ſhortelie founde and had: Wherefore our ſaide ſouereigne lord the king, by the aſſent of the ſaid lordes ſpirituall and temporall, at the praier of the ſaide commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame hath ordained, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that no marchaunt of Venice nor other, which vſeth to repaire into this realme with marchandiſes of thoſe parties, ſhal bring nor conueie into this realme anie marchandiſes, vnleſſe the ſame marchantes bring with euerie butte of malueſie, and with euerie butte of Tire, ten bowſtaues good and able ſtuffe, vpon paine of forfeiture of thirtéene ſhillings foure pence for euerie butte of the ſaide wines ſo brought and conueied, and not of the ſaide number of bowſtaues with the ſame butte. The one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to be to our ſouereigne lorde the king, and the otherhalfe to the partie which will therefore ſue. And that no ſuch bowſtaues be ſould vngarbeled. and but onelie to ſuch perſon or perſons which is or ſhall be borne vnder the kings obeiſaunce. This acte to begin and to take effecte at the feaſt of ſaint Michaell next comming.

brought into this parties from beyond the ſea to be ſould within this realme of England, aſmuch wares as may be wrought and made by the artificers aboue rehearſed, that by reaſon thereof the people of ſtrange countries, where the ſaid wares be made, be greatlie occupied and encreaſed, and the ſaid artificers in this realme greatlie empoueriſhed, and without the kings grace ſhewed to them in this behalfe are like to be vndone for lacke of occupation. Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the praier of his commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame hath ordained and prouided, that no marchaunt ſtranger, after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, ſhall bring into this realme of England to be ſould anie maner girdels, nor no harneis wrought for girdels, pointes, lether laces, purſes, powches, pinnes, gloues, kniues, hangers, tailours ſhéeres, ſiſours, aundyrons, cobbardes, tonges, fireforkes, gredyrons, ſtockelockes, keies, henges and garnets, ſpurres, painted glaſſes, painted papers, painted forcers, painted images, painted clothes, beaten gould, or beaten ſiluer wrought in papers for painters, ſadels, ſadeltrées, horſeharneis, bootes, bittes, ſtiroppes, buckles, chaines, laton nales with yron chaunkes, turnetes, hanging candelſtickes, holie water ſtoppes, chafindiſhes, hanging lauers, curten ringes, cardes for woll, Roane cardes, claſpes for garmentes, ſhéeres, buckels for ſhoes, broches, belles, hawkes bels except, tinnen and leaden ſpoones, wyre of laton and yron, yron candelſtickes, grates, hornes for lanternes, or anie of the ſaid wares made and wrought pertaining to the craftes aboue ſpecified, or to anie of them, vpon paine to forfeite all the ſaid wares ſo brought into this realme contrarie to this acte, or the value of the ſame, in whoſe handes they or anie of them ſhall be found: The one halfe of ſuch fines and forfeitures to be to the king, and the other halfe to him or them that ſhall ſeaſe or purſue for the ſame by action of debt, by writte, or bill at the common lawe, or by bill or plaint after the cuſtome of the citie or towne where anie ſuch fines, forfeitures & penalties ſhall hereafter happen to be or fall. And that the defendaunt in ſuch action be not admitted to wage his lawe: Nor that anie protection or eſſoine in the kings ſeruice ſhall be allowed in the ſame for anie ſuch defendaunt.

Item vpon greuous complaint made to our ſoueraigne lord yͤ king in the ſaid parliament by yͤ commons of the ſame, of the defaults of buttes of malueſie & other veſſels of wines & oyle: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe & aſſent of the ſaid lordes ſpirituall, and temporall, & at the ſupplication of the ſaid commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, & by auctoritie of the ſame hath ordained, eſtabliſhed & enacted, that no maner marchaunt nor other perſon from yͤ feaſt of S. Michaell thearchangell next comming, ſhall bring nor cauſe to be brought into this realme anie butte of malueſie to be ſould, vnleſſe it do containe in meaſure at the leaſt C. xxvi. galons, nor no maner of veſſels with anie maner wines, of whoſe ſoeuer they be, or of what countrie they be, nor no maner of veſſels of oyle, vnleſſe the ſame veſſels of wine or oyle do containe and hould the meaſure and aſſiſe folowing, that is to ſay, euerie tunne to containe twelue ſcore gallons and xii. And euerie pipe to containe ſixe ſcore and ſixe gallons. Euerie tertian to containe foure ſcore and foure gallons. And euerie hoggeſhed to containe thrée ſcore and thrée galons. And euerie barell to containe xxxi. galons and an halfe. And euerie roundlet to containe xviii. galons and an halfe, according to the olde aſſiſe and meaſure of the ſame veſſels vſed in this realme. And that all the veſſels of wine and oyle brought into this realme after the ſaide feaſt to be ſould, ſhall not be put to ſell after the ſame feaſt, till they be well and truelie gauged by the kinges gaugeour, or his ſufficient deputie, vpon paine to forfeite to the king all the ſaide wines and oyle ſould contrarie to this preſent ordinaunce, or elſe the value of the ſame. And in caſe that anie maner perſon, of what countrie he be from henceforth do ſell to anie of the kings liege people for anie certaine price aſſigned anie butte, tunne, pipe, tercian, hoggeſhed, barell or roundlet of anie maner wine or oyle, lacking anie thing of the ſaide aſſiſe or meaſure, that the ſeller ſhall allow or rebate at the ſame price to the buier of ſuch wine or oyle aſmuch moneie as ſuch lacking after the rate ſhall amount to vpon paine to forfeite to our ſoueraigne lord the king the value of all the wine and oyle ſo ſould contrarie to this preſent ordinance. Anie priuie couenant or contracte made or to be made betwixt the buier and the ſeller contrarie to this ordinance in anie maner, notwithſtanding.

Diſmes.

Item where as the cleargie of the prouinces of Canterburie and Yorke, hath before this time diuers times graunted to the kings progenitors in their conuocations, diſmes to be leuied of their goods and poſſeſſions, and after that they do appeare before the barons of the kings eſchequer, and the names of the collectours for the ſame graunt be certified in the ſaide eſchequer, when the ſaide collectours doth appeare before the barons of the eſchequer, and enter into their account for the ſaide diſme, that then the ſaide collectours be often charged, vexed, and troubled with billes put by other perſons againſt them for other cauſes and matters then touching the ſaide accounte, and by occaſion thereof oftentimes they fall to great pouertie, and cauſeth the ſaide account to be two or thrée yéeres hanging, and the diſmes not contented, to the kinges great damage and the ſaide collectours alſo. It is therefore ordained and eſtabliſhed by auctoritie of this preſent parliament, that from henceforth if anie diſme or anie parte of a diſme be graunted by the prouince of euerie of the ſaide clergies to the king our ſoueraigne lorde, or to his heires, that after the ſaide certificate in the eſchequer for the diſme or parte of the diſme, and of the names of the collectours for the gathering of the ſame diſme: that if the ſaide collectours come by proceſſe before yͤ ſaid barons of the eſchequer, and enter in their account, that they ſhall not be bound to anſwere to the

the ſaide bill or billes there put againſt them, by reaſon of the ſaide entre in their accompte for anie maner cauſe, but onelie for the matter touching the ſaide accompte. Prouided alwaies, that if the ſaide accomptaunt be ſued in anie other courte by writ bill or plaint, that then he ſhall take no priuiledge of the ſayde eſchequer by reaſon of the ſayde accompte for anie ſuite, as before is rehearſed.

Chap. 15

Item for certeine great cauſes and conſiderations touching the ſuertie of the kinges noble perſon as of this his realme, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, It is ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted, that all letters patentes, ſtates, confirmations and actes of parliament of anie caſtelles ſeignories, maners, landes, tenementes, fermes, feefermes, fraunchiſes, liberties or other hereditamentes made at anie time to Elizabeth late wiſe of ſir John Graie knight, & nowe late calling her ſelfe queene of England, by what ſoeuer name or names ſhe be called in the ſame, ſhall be from the firſt of Maie laſt paſt vtterly voide, anulled, and of no ſtrength nor effect in the lawe. And that no perſon or perſons be charged to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, nor to the ſaid Elizabeth, of or for anie iſſues, profites, or reuenues of anie of the ſaide ſeignories, caſtelles, maners, landes, tenements, fermes, or other hereditaments, nor for anie treſpaſſe or other intromitting in the ſame, nor for anie by ſuertie by perſon or perſons to her or to her vſe made by them before the ſaide firſt daie of Maie laſt paſſed, but ſhall be thereof againſt the ſaide king and the ſaid Elizabeth clearely diſcharged and acquite for euer.

Lady Elizabeth Graie.

Thus endeth the Statutes made in the firſt yeere of king Richard the third.

Statutes made at VVeſtminſter in the firſt yeere of the reigne of King Henrie the ſeuenth.

The king our ſoueraigne lord Henrie the ſeuenth after the conqueſt, by the grace of God, king of Englande and of Fraunce, and lorde of Irelande, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the ſeuenth daie of Nouember, in the firſt yéere of his reigne, to the honour of God and holie church, and for the common profite of the realme, by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſaide parliament, hath doe to be made certaine ſtatutes and ordinaunces in maner and forme following.

Chap. 1. Fourmedone. Feoffements.

First that where diuerſe of the kinges ſubiectes hauing cauſe of action by Fourmedone in the deſcendre, or elſe in the remaindre, by force of anie taile, and for landes and tenementes, bee defrauded and delaied of their ſayde actions: and oft times without remedie, becauſe of feoffementes made of the ſame landes and tenementes to perſons vnknowne, to the intent that the demaundauntes ſhoulde not knowe againſt whom they ſhall take their actions: It is ordeined, ſtabliſhed, and enacted, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled and by auctoritie of the ſame, that the demaundaunt in euerie ſuch caſe haue his action againſt the pernour or pernours of the profites of the landes or tenementes demaunded, whereof anie perſon or perſons bene enfeoffed to his or their vſe. And the ſame pernour or pernours named as tenaunt or tenauntes in the ſaide action, haue the ſame vouchers, and their lieng there vpon ayde praier and all other aduauntages, as the ſame pernour or pernours ſhoulde haue had if they were tenauntes in deede, or as their feoffes ſhoulde haue had, if the ſame action had bene conceiued againſt them. And if it fortune anie perſon to deceaſe, ſo hauing feoffes to the vſe of him, or of his heires, the ſaide heire being within age, againſt whom ſuch action is brought as pernour: then the ſame heire haue his age in the ſayde action conueied againſt him, and all other aduauntages, as if his aunceſter had died ſeaſed of the ſayde landes and tenementes ſo in demaunde. And alſo it is ordeined by the ſame auctoritie, that all recoueries, as ſhall bee in anie ſuch actions againe ſuch pernour or pernours, and their heires, and their ſaide feoffes and their heires, and the cofeoffes of the ſaide pernours and their heires, ſhall be as good to the recouerers and their heires, as though the ſaide pernour or pernours were tenantes in déede, or feoffes to their vſe, or their heires, as is aboue ſaide, of the freehold of the ſaid lands and tenements, at anie time of the ſaide action vſed.

Chap. 2. Straungers made denizens.

Item where as in time paſt diuerſe grauntes haue be made by king Edwarde, as well by his letters patentes as by actes of parliament, to diuerſe marchauntes ſtraungers, borne out of this realme, to be denizens, whereby they haue and reioyce ſuch fréedomes and liberties, as doeth denizens borne within this realme, as well in abatement of their cuſtome, which they ſhould beare, if they were no denizens, as in buieng and ſelling of their marchandiſe, to their great auaile and lucre. And oft times ſuffer other ſtrangers not denizens deceitfully to ſhip, and carie great and notable ſubſtaunce of marchandiſe, in their names, by the which the ſaide goods be free of cuſtome in like wiſe, as they were goods of a denizen, where of right they ought to paie cuſtome as the goods of ſtraungers, by the which they be greatlie aduaunced in riches and honour. And after they be ſo enriched for the moſt part they conueie their ſelfe with their ſaide goods into their owne countries, Cuſtome.

wherein they be naturallie borne, to the great impouriſhing of this realme, and to the great hurt and defraude of the kinges highneſſe in paiment of his cuſtomes. Wherefore it is enacted ſtabliſhed and ordeined by the aduiſe of the ſaide lordes ſpirituall and temporall and commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that anie perſon made or hereafter to be made denizens, ſhall paie for his marchandiſe like cuſtome and ſubſidie, as he ought or ſhoulde paie afore that he were made denizen, anie letters patentes or other ordinances by parliament or other wiſe, contrarie to this made notwithſtanding.

Chap. 3.
Protectiõ.
Caleis.
Staple.

Item the king our ſouereigne lorde, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the praier of the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame hath enacted, ordeined, and ſtabliſhed, that no protection be hereafter allowable, ne allowed in the court before the maior conſtables & fellowſhip of marchantes of the ſtaple at Caleis, ne in the court before the lieutenant conſtable and felloſhip of marchantes of the ſame ſtaple, ne in the court before the maior and his brethren of the ſame towne of Caleis, nor in anie other court or courtes within the ſame towne, or marches there, in any action ſued, or hereafter to be ſued by any of the ſaide marchants, their factors, ſeruants, or attourneies, againſt any of the ſaid marchants, their factors, ſeruants or attourneies.

Chap. 4.
Incontinencie of prieſtes.
Ordinaries.

Item for the more ſure and like reformation of preeſtes, clarkes, and religious men, culpable or by the demerites openlie noiſed of incontinent liuing in their bodies, contrarie to their order; It is enacted ordeined and ſtabliſhed by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that it be lawfull to all archbiſhops, and biſhops, and other ordinaries hauing epiſcopall iuriſdiction, to puniſh and chaſtice, preeſtes, clarkes, and religious men, being within the boundes of their iuriſdiction, as ſhall be committed afore them by examination, and other lawfull proofe, requiſite by the law of the church of aduoutrie, fornication, inceſt, or anie other fleſhlie incontinencie by committing them to ward and priſon, there to abide, for ſuch time as ſhall be thought to their diſcretions conuenient for the quality and quantitie of their treſpaſſe. And that none of the ſaid archbiſhops, biſhops, or other ordinaries aforeſayde, be thereof chargeable, of to or vpon anie action of falſe or wrongfull impriſonment, but that they be vtterlie thereof diſcharged in anie of the caſes aforeſaide, by vertue of this act.

Chap. 5.
Tanners.
Cordiner.
Leather.
Corier.
Iuſtices of peace.

Item that where tanners in diuerſe parties of this realme, vſing within them ſelfe the miſterie of currieng and blacking of leather inſufficientlie, and alſo leather inſufficientlie tanned, and the ſame leather ſo inſufficientlie wrought as well in tanning as in currieng and blacking, they put to ſale in diuerſe faires and marketes, and other places, to the great diſceite and hurt of the kinges liege people. And alſo where it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, at the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the ſeconde yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the ſixt, amongſt other that no cordiner, nor none other to his vſe, ſhould occupy the myſtery of a tanner, while he occupied the miſtery of a cordener vnder paine of forfaiture of euerie hide ſo tanned by him, or by any other to his vſe vi.s.viii.d. And that euerie tanner ſhoulde alſo forfaite for euery hide by him tanned inſufficientlie vi.s.viii.d. as in the ſame ſtatute more plainelie appeareth. The king our ſouereigne lorde, of his noble grace, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the prayers of the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, in eſchewing of all ſuch diſceites, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaide ordinaunce, made in the ſeconde yéere of king Henrie the ſixt, be and ſtande in his full force and ſtrength, and be put in due execution in all pointes. And ouer that the ſaide aduiſe and auctoritie hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed that no tanner, whiles he occupieth the myſterie of a tanner, nor none other to his vſe, from the feaſt of the Aſcention of our lorde next comming, vſe the myſterie of corieour, nor blacke no lether to be put to ſale, vnder the paine of forfaiture for euery hide, by the ſaide tanner ſo coried vi.s.viii.d. And that no corier of lether take vpon him to corie any hide of lether, but ſuch as is afore ſufficientlie tanned, vpon paine to loſe for euerie hide ſo coried iii.s.iiii.d. the one part of the ſame forfaiture and paines to him that findeth it and proueth it before anie iuſtice of the peace, or before bailiffe, ſhiriffe or ſhiriffes, or other cheefe gouernour of anie citie, borough, or towne of the v.ports: And the other halfe of the ſame forfaitures and paines, out of the cities, boroughes, or the townes of the ſaide v.ports, to the king our ſayde ſouereigne lord. Sauing to euerie lorde ſpirituall or temporall, and all other the kinges liege men, their franchiſes for any thing concerning the ſame: And within cities, boroughes, and townes of the ſaide fiue portes, to the vſe of the communaltie of the ſaide cities, boroughes, and townes. And that no tanner from the ſaide feaſt of the Aſcenſion, nor none other to his vſe, put anie lether to ſale in anie faire or market, or in anie other place, but red as it commeth from the tanne, vpon paine of forfaiture of the ſame lether. And that forfaiture in ſuch places as is aforeſaid found, to bee deuided in maner and forme as is aforeſaid. And alſo that no corier occupie the miſterie of a tanner, whiles he occupieth the miſterie of a corier, vpon paine of forfaiture for euerie hide by him ſo tanned, or by anie other to his vſe vi. ſhillinges viii.d. The one halfe to the king our ſouereigne lorde, and the other halfe to him that will ſue therefore in his owne name by action of debt at ẏ common lawe, or by anie plaint in any citie, borough, or towne of the v.ports aforeſaide. And that no tanner from the ſaid feaſt tanne anie ſhepes ſkinnes, vpon paine of forfaiture of xx.d. for euerie ſhepes ſkinne ſo by him tanned. And that the iuſtices of peace in euerie ſhire, and maiors and other gouernors within the ſaide cities, boroughes and townes haue power to enquire heare and determine all the ſaide defaultes, and to put this ordinance in euerie article in due execution.

Chap. 6.

Item by the king our ſayde ſouereigne lorde, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this his preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame: It is ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted that all and ſinguler perſons comming nowe late with the kinges highneſſe fro beyonde the ſea into this realme, taking his partie and quarell, in recouering and obteining of his iuſt title and right to this his realme of England, and alſo all other ſuch maner perſon or perſons being in ſainctuarie, or in hidell for his quarell and title aboue ſayde, And all other perſons being in the fielde in battell ſeruing his grace, taking his partie and quarell againſt his enemies there, bee vtterlie diſcharged quite and vnpuniſhable for euer by waie of action or otherwiſe by courſe of his lawes of this his realme or otherwiſe, of or for anie maner murder ſleaing of men or of taking or diſpoyling of goodes, or anie other treſpaſſes, done by them or anie of them, or to anie perſon or perſons of this his realme being with his enimie Richarde late duke of Glouceſter, vſurper of this his realme, againſt his moſt roiall perſon, his baner diſplayed in the ſame fielde, and in the daie of the ſame fielde. And that for anie goodes taken or treſpaſſe done beſide the daie of the fielde, by anie of the perſons being with the king or in ſanctuarie or hidell, as is aforeſayde, from the feaſt of the aſſumption of our ladie laſt paſt, vnto the feaſt of Michaelmas then next enſuing, to anie of the ſeruauntes, councellers, officers, or miniſters of the ſaide late duke, none action be mainteined, ne maintenable againſt them or anie of them, without the kinges ſpeciall licence in that behalfe obtained. Prouided alwaie that this preſent act extende not, nor in anie wiſe bee auailable to anie perſon or perſons aboue ſpecified, in or for any murder or rape of anie other then was done the daie of the ſaid fielde, or any diſme committed or done by them or by any of them in any wiſe. Prouided alſo, that this act extende not, nor bee preiudiciall to any perſon or perſons, which had the ſafegarde of the king our ſouereigne lorde, generall and ſpeciall, for anie roberies, treſpaſſes, or any other iniuries done or committed to them or anie of them, after the ſafegarde made vnder his priuie ſeale and ſignet, or other warrant ſufficient. Prouided alwaie that this act, ne none other in this preſent parliament made or to be made, be not hurtfull ne preiudiciall vnto Elizabeth Windeſore widow, late wife of Thomas Windeſore eſquier, Edward Cheſeman, ⁊ ſir John Coket prieſtes, executors of the teſtament of the ſaid Thomas Windeſore, or for anie robberie, treſpas or other offences done vnto the ſaid Thomas in his life: but that the ſaid Elizabeth, Edward, and John Coket may haue and purſue action or actions againſt all maner perſon or perſons iointlie and ſeuerallie for the ſaid roberies, treſpaſſes, and offences, and eche of them, by what ſo euer name of names the ſaide Thomas Windeſore, the ſaid Elizabeth, Edward Cheſeman, and John Coket was or be named: this act or any other act in this preſent parliament made or to be made notwithſtanding.

Fielde.

Chap. 7. Hunters diſguiſed.

Item for as much as afore this time diuerſe ordinaunces and ſtatutes haue bee made in diuerſe parliamentes, holden in the ſame realme, for the puniſhion of inordinate and vnlawfull huntinges in foreſtes, parkes, and in warrens within the ſaide realme, which ſtatutes and ordinaunces notwithſtanding, diuerſe perſons in great number, ſome with painted faces, ſome with viſours, and otherwiſe diſguiſed, to the intent they ſhoulde not bee knowne, riottouſlie and in a maner of warre araied, haue oftentimes in late daies hunted, as well by night as by daie, in diuerſe foreſts, parkes, and warens, in diuers places of this realme, and in eſpeciall in the countie of Kent, Surrie and Suſſex, by colour whereof haue enſued in times paſt great and heinous rebellions, inſurrections, riots, robberies, murders and other inconueniences, to the preuarication and enſample of riots and euill diſpoſed perſons of this realme in ſo offending, which offences coulde not be puniſhed afore this time, according to the ſaide ſtatutes ordinaunces and lawes of his ſaid realme, becauſe that the ſayde miſdoers, by reaſon of their painted faces, viſours, and other diſguiſings, could not be knowne: The king our ſouereigne lord, of his noble and aboundant grace, in conſidering of the premiſſes, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, at the ſupplication of the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, ⁊ by auctoritie of the ſame ordeineth, that at euery ſuch time as information ſhall be made of any ſuch vnlawfull huntings by night, or with painted faces, hereafter to be done to anie of the kinges councell, or to anie of the iuſtices of the kinges peace, of the countie where anie ſuch huntinges ſhall bee had, of anie perſon to bee ſuſpect thereof: that then it ſhall bee lawfull to anie of the ſame councell, or iuſtices of peace, to whom anie ſuch information ſhall be made, to make a warrant to the ſhirife of ſuch countie, or to any conſtable, bailife, or other officer within the ſame countie, to take and areſt the ſame perſon or perſons, of whom any ſuch information ſhall be made. And to haue him or them afore the maker of the ſaide warrant, or anie other of the kings ſaide councell, or iuſtices of his peace of the ſame countie. And that the ſaide counceller or iuſtice of peace, afore whom ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall be brought, by his diſcretion haue power to examine him or them, ſo brought afore the ſayde counceller or iuſtice, of the ſayde hunting, ⁊ of the ſaide doers in that behalfe. And if the ſame perſon wilfully conceale the ſaid huntings, or any perſon with him defectiue therein, that then the ſame concealement bee againſt euerie ſuch perſon ſo concealing, felonie, and the ſame felonie to be enquired of ⁊ determined, as other felonies within this realme haue vſed to be. And if he then confes the trueth, and all that he ſhall be examined of and knoweth in that behalfe, that then the ſaide offences of huntinges by him done bee againſt the king our ſouereigne lord but treſpaſſe finable, by reaſon of the ſame confeſſion at the next generall ſeſſions of peace, to be holden in the ſame countie by the kinges iuſtice of the ſame ſeſſions there to be ceaſſed. And if anie reſcuſſe or diſobeiſance be made to anie perſon, hauing auctoritie to do execution or iuſtice by anie ſuch warrant, by anie perſon, the which ſo ſhoulde bee arreſted, ſo that the execution of the ſame warrant thereby be not had, that then the ſame reſcuſſe and diſobeiſaunce be fellonie, enquirable, and determinable as is aforeſaide. And ouer this it is enacted and ſtabliſhed by the ſaide auctoritie, that if anie perſon or perſons hereafter to be conuict of anie ſuch huntinges, with painted faces, viſours, or other wiſe diſguiſed, to the intent they ſhoulde not be knowne, or of vnlawfull hunting in time of night, that then the ſame perſon or perſons ſo conuict, haue like punition, as he or they ſhoulde haue, if he or they were conuict of felonie.

Felonie.

Chap. 8.
Nauie.
Ships. Mariners

Item in the ſaide parliament it was called to remembraunce of the great miniſhing and decaie, that hath bene nowe of late time of the nauie within this realme of England, and idelnes of the mariners within the ſame, by ẏ which this noble realme within ſhort proceſſe of time, without reformation be had therein, ſhall not be of abilitie and power to defend it ſelfe. Wherefore at the praier of the ſaid commons the king our ſouereigne lord, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, in this ſaid preſent parliament aſſembled, & by auctoritie of the ſame: hath enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhd, that no maner of perſon, of what degree or condition that he be of, buy or ſell within this ſaide realme, Irelande, Wales, Caleis, or the marches thereof, or Berwike, from the feaſt of Michaelmas next nowe comming any maner wines of the growing of the duchie of Guien or of Gaſcoine, but ſuch wines as ſhalbe aduentured & brought in an Engliſh, Iriſh, Walſh mans ſhip or ſhips, & that ẏ mariners of the ſame be Engliſh, Iriſh, or Walſhmen for ẏ more partie, or men of Caleis, or of marches of the ſame, & that vpon paine of forfaiture of the ſame wines ſo brought or ſolde contrarie to this act, the one halfe of that forfaiture to be to the king our ſouereigne lorde, and that other halfe to the finder of that forfaiture. This act and ordinance to endure betwixt this and the beginning of the next parliament. Sauing alway to the king his prerogatiue.

Chap. 9.
Marchant. Silke workes.

Item that where in the parliament late holden at Weſtminſter, the xx. daie of Ianuarie, the xii. yeere of king Edward the fourth, It was enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed by auctoritie of the ſaide late parliament, vpon manie and great conſiderations and lamentable complaintes conteined in the ſame act, that no marchant ſtraunger nor other, after the feaſt of Eaſter then next comming, ſhoulde bring into this realme of Englande to be ſolde, anie corſes, girdels, ribandes, laces, calles, ſilke, or Coleine ſilke, throwne or wrought, vpon paine of forfaiture thereof, or of the value thereof, in whoſe hands they ſhall be found, the one halfe of the ſaide forfaiture, to be vnto the king our ſouereigne lorde, and that other halfe to bee vnto him or them of his ſubiectes, the which ſhall ſeaſe the ſame, or ſue for the ſame by action of debt, by writ at the common lawe, by bill, or plaint, after the cuſtome of the citie or towne where it ſhall happen hereafter anie ſuch forfaiture to fall or be. And that the defendaunte in anie ſuch action bee not admitted to wage or doe his lawe, nor that anie protection nor eſſoine in the ſeruice of the king our ſouereigne lorde for anie ſuch defendant bee allowed, the ſaide act to endure for foure yeeres then next enſuing the ſaide feaſt: The which act afterwarde in the parliament holden by Richarde the third late in deede and not in right, king of Englande, was graunted and ordeined for to bee and ſtand good, auailable and effectuall vnto the ende of the ſaide foure yeeres, and from the ende of theſe ſame foure yeeres, vnto the ende and terme of tenne yeeres then next enſuing: The which ſaide foure yeeres conteined in the ſayd firſt act, ſhall finiſh and expire at the feaſt of Eaſter, the which ſhall bee in the yeere of our lorde M. CCCC. lxxxvii. The king our ſaide ſouereigne lorde that nowe is, by auctoritie of this his aforeſaide parliament hath ordeined, that the ſaide act and ordinaunce, as for the whole braunche of the ſaide act and ordinaunce, as farre as toucheth or concerneth theſe premiſſes, be and ſtande auailable and effectuall vnto the ende of the ſaide foure yeeres. And from the ende of the ſame foure yeeres, vnto the ende and terme of xx. yeres then next enſuing. Notwithſtanding any act, ordinance, graunt, or pouiſion in this preſent parliament made or to be made, vnto anie marchant ſtraunger or other.

Chap. 10
Italians.

Item the king our ſaide ſouereigne lorde vnderſtanding by a ſupplication put vnto his highnes in this his ſaide parliament, by the marchantes of Italie, reſident in this his ſaide realme of England, that where by an act of parliament, made in the parliament of Richard late pretending him to be king of England the thirde, holden at Weſtminſter the firſt yeere of his reigne, it was ordeined and prouided, that all marchants of the nation of Italie afore rehearſed, not made denizens, which then ſhould haue within this realme, wares and marchaundiſes brought from beyonde the ſea, & before the feaſt of Eaſter then next enſuing ſhoulde haue, ſhould do ſell or bartre them in groſe, and not by retaile, to the kinges ſubiectes afore the firſt daie of Maie, that then ſhould be in the yeere of our lord God M.CCCC.lxxxv. And the monie comming of the ſale, before the ſaid firſt daie, within the ſame port or ports where they ariued, enploy vpon the commodities and marchandiſes of this realme, their reaſonable coſts & expences alway except & deducted, vpon paine of forfaiture of the value, aſwell of all the ſaid wares & marchandiſes kept and not ſold afore the ſaide firſt daie, or otherwiſe ſold then is aboue ſaid, and of ſo much monie as ſhould be made ouer by exchange contrarie to the ſaide act. And that all the ſaide marchants of Italie, the which after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter brought anie marchandiſe or wares into this realme to be ſolde, ſhoulde ſell or bartre the ſame wares and marchandiſes in groſſe and not by retaile, vnto the kings ſubiectes, vpon

peine of forfeiture of the value of the ſame wares and marchandiſes otherwiſe ſolde. And that the ſaid marchants, their ſaid wares and marchandiſes, which they ſhould bring after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter, ſhould do, bartre or ſell the ſame within viii. monethes next after their firſt arriuall into this realme in forme aforeſaide: And the money comming of or by the ſaide ſale or bartrings of them, and euery of them, employ and therewith buy the commodities or marchaundiſes of this realme of England within the ſaide viii. monethes, in the ſame port or portes where they ſhoulde firſt arriue, their reaſonable coſtes and expences alway except & deducted: And that they ſhoulde in no wiſe make anie ſuch money ouer by exchange. And the ſaid marchants, their ſaid wares & marchandiſes remaining vnſolde, after the end of the ſaid viii. monethes, in no wiſe ſhould ſel, nor bartre within the ſaid realme, but that they ſhould carrie and conuey them out of the ſame realm, within ii. monethes then next following after the ſaid viii. monethes, if wynde and weather will ſerue it: and els as ſoone as the wynde & weather wil ſerue them, after the ſaid ii. monethes, vpon peine of forfeiture as well of as much money as ſhoulde be made out of this ſaide realme by exchange, as of the ſaid wares & marchandiſes ſo ſolde or bartred after the ende of the ſaide viii. monethes not carried ne conueyed out of this ſaid realme, in forme aforeſaid, or the value thereof: the forfeitures penaltie and loſſe of all the premiſſes to renne and be vpon the ſaid marchants of Italy doing contrarie to this act. And alſo that no ſtranger, of what countrey ſo euer he were, ſhould hoſte or take to ſoiorne with him within this realme of England, anie marchant ſtranger, not being of yͤ ſame nation that he ſhould be of, vpon peine to forfeit & loſe at euery time that he ſo doth xl.li. And that no marchant ſtranger ſhould be at hoſte ne ſoiorne with any other marchant ſtranger not being of his nation or countrey within the ſaide realme, vpon peine of xl.li. And that no ſtranger ſhall buy any woll, the which ſhould be ſent or paſſe through the ſtraites of Marrocke, by galyes, carackes, or ſhips, or other veſſels, ſorted, clacked, or barbed: Nor anie woll, whereof lockes or refuſe ſhould be made, but that the ſame woll ſhould be as it were ſhorne & cleane wound without any ſorting barking or clacking, or lockes or refuſe thereof to be made, as it is aforeſaid, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame woll, and the double value thereof. As by the ſame act more plainly may appeare. Alſo that the ſaid marchants of Italy ſhould haue & conuey their woll, wollencloth, & all their other marchandiſes ouer yͤ ſtreites of Marroke, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame, as by the ſame act plainly appeareth. The king our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined, eſtabliſhed and do to be enacted, that the aboueſaid forfeitures, penalties ſeiſure and actions compriſed in the ſaid acts and euerich of them, be reuoked, void, adnulled and of no ſtrength, againſt all maner perſons, except and reſerued only to the king, to be at libertie, to haue and enioy all maner ſeiſures, forfeites and penalties in the ſaid actes ſpecified. And that it be lawful to the king to grant to his beſeechers his letters of ſaufeconduite and letters patents, ſurely to be enioyned, according to the tenors thereof, the aboueſaid act and actes notwithſtanding, in as ample wiſe as though they had neuer be had nor made.

The ſecond parliament holden in the thirde yeere of King Henry the vii.

THe king our ſoueraigne lord Henry the vii. by the grace of God king of Englande and of Fraunce, and lord of Ireland, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the ix. daye of Nouember, in the third yeere of his noble raigne, to the worſhip of God and holy church, and for the common wealth of this his realme, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame parliament hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed certeine ſtatutes and ordinaunces in manner and forme as hereafter enſueth.

Chap. 1.
Maintenance.
Liueries.
Retainder.
Embraceries.

FIrſt the king our ſaid ſoueraigne lord remembreth, how by vnlawful maintenances, geuing of liueries ſignes and tokens, and retainders by indentures, promiſes, othes, writings, or otherwiſe embraſeries of his ſubiectes, vntrue demeanings of ſhirifes in making of panelles, and other vntrue returnes by taking of money, by iuries, by great ryots, and vnlawful aſſemblies, the policie and good rule of this realme is almoſt ſubdued, and for the none puniſhing of theſe inconueniences, and by occaſion of the premiſſes, litle or nothing may be founde by enquirie, whereby the lawes of the lande in execution may take litle effect, to the encreaſe of murders, robberies, periuries, and vnſureties of all men liuing, and loſſes of their landes and goods, to the great diſpleaſure of almightie God. Therefore it is ordeined, for reformation of the premiſſes, by authoritie of the ſaid parliament, that the chauncellor & treaſurer of Englande for the time being, and keeper of the kings priuie ſeale, or ii. of them, calling to them a biſhop and a temporall lorde of the kings moſt honorable counſaile, and the ii. chiefe Iuſtices of the kings bench and common place, for the time being, or other two Iuſtices in their abſence, vpon bill or information put to the ſaide chauncellor for the king, or anie other, againſt anie perſon, for anie miſbehauing afore rehearſed, haue authority to cal before them by writ or by priuy ſeale the ſaid miſdoers, & they & other by their diſcretion, by whom the trueth may be knowen, to examine, & ſuch as they fynde therein defectiue, to puniſh them after their demerites, after the forme & effect of ſtatutes thereof made, in like maner & forme as they ſhould & ought to be puniſhed, if they were thereof conuict, after the due order of the law. And ouer yͭ it is ordeined, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the iuſtices of yͤ peace of euery ſhire of this realme, for yͤ time being, may do take by their diſcretion an enqueſt, wherof euery man ſhall haue landes and tenements to the yéerely value of xl. ſhillings at the leaſt, to enquire of the concelements of other enqueſtes taken afore them, and afore other, of ſuch manners and offences as are to be enquired, and preſented afore Juſtices of peace, whereof complaint ſhall be made by bill or by billes, as well within franchiſe as without. And if anie ſuch concelement be found of anie enqueſt, as is afore rehearſed, had or made within the yéere, after the ſame concelement, euery perſon of the ſame enqueſt to be amerced for the ſame concelements, by diſcretion of the ſame Juſtices of the peace, the ſaid amerciamentes to be ſeaſed in plaine ſeſſions.

Murder.

Item the king remembreth, how murders and ſlaying of his ſubiectes daily encreaſe in this land, the occaſions whereof be diuerſe, one that no men in townes, where ſuch murders hap to fall and be done, will not attache the murderer, where the law of the land is, that if anie man be ſlaine in the daie, & the felon not taken, the townſhip, where the death or murder is done, ſhall be amerced, and if anie man be wounded in perill of death, the partie that ſo wounded, ſhould be arreſted & put in ſuretie till perfit knowledge be had, whether he ſo hurt ſhould liue or dye.

Coroner.

And the coroner vpon the view of the bodie dead, ſhould enquire of him or them that had done that death or murder, of their abbettors and conſentours, and who were preſent when the death or murder was done, whether man or woman: and the names of them that were preſent, and ſo founde, to enroll and certifie, which lawe by negligence is diſuſed, and thereby great boldnes is giuen to ſleers and murderers. And ouer this it is vſed, that within the yéere and day after anie death or murder had and done, the felon ſhould not be determined at the kings ſuite, for ſauing of the parties ſuite, wherein the partie is oftentimes ſlowe, and alſo agréede with, and by the ende of the yéere, all is forgotten, which is an other occaſion of murder.

Appeale.

And alſo he that will ſue anie appeale, muſt ſue in proper perſon, which ſuite is long, and coſtly, that it maketh the partie appellant werie to ſue. For reformation of the premiſſes, the king our ſoueraigne lorde, by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporal, and the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, will that euery coroner exerciſe and do his office according to the law, as is afore rehearſed. And that if anie man be ſlaine or murdered, and therefore the ſlayers, muderers, abbettours, mainteiners & comforters of the ſame, be endyted, that the ſame ſlayers and murderers, & all other acceſſaries of the ſame, be arrained and determined of the ſame felonie and murder at anie time at the kings ſuite, within the yéere, after the ſame felonie and murder done, and not tary the yéere and daie, for anie appeale to be taken for the ſame felonie or murder. And if it happen anie perſon named as principall or acceſſarie, to be acquited of anie ſuch murder, at the kings ſuite, within the yéere and day, that then the ſame Juſtices, afore whom he is acquited, ſhall not ſuffer him to go at large, but either to remit him againe to the priſon, or els to let him to baile, after their diſcrection, till that yéere and day be paſſed. And if it fortune the ſame felons or murderers, & acceſſaries ſo arrained or any of them to be acquite, or the principall of the ſaid felonie, or anie of them to be attainted, the wife or next heire to him ſo ſlaine as ſhall require, may take & haue their appeale of the ſame death and murder within the yéere and day after the ſame felonie and murder done, againſt the ſaide perſons ſo arrained and acquite, and all other their acceſſaries, or againſt the acceſſaries of the ſaid principall, or anie of them ſo attainted, or againſt the ſaid principalles ſo attainted, if they béene on liue, and the benefice of his cleargie thereof before not had. And that the appellant haue ſuch and like auauntage, as if the ſaid acquitall or attainder had not béene, the ſaide acquitall or attainder notwithſtanding: and ouer that the wife or heire of the ſaide perſon ſo ſlaine or murdred, as caſe ſhall require, may commence their appeale in proper perſon, at anie time within the yéere after the ſaid felonie done, before the ſhirife and coroners of the countie, where the ſaide felonie and murder was done, or before the king in his bench, or Juſtices of gayol deliuerie: and the appellant in anie appeales of murder or death of man, where battaile by the courſe of the common lawe lyeth not, may make their attorneys, & appere by the ſame, in the ſaide appeales after they be commenſed, to the end of the ſuite and execution of the ſame. And if anie perſon bee ſlaine or murdered in the day, & the murderer ſcape vntaken, that the towneſhip, where the ſaide deede is ſo done, be amerced for the ſaide eſcape. And that the coroner haue authoritie to enquire thereof vpon the viewe of the bodie dead. And alſo Juſtices of peace haue power to enquire of ſuch eſcapes, and that to certifie afore the king in his bench. And that after the felonie found the coroners deliuer their inquiſitions afore the Juſtices of the next gayol deliuerie in the ſhire where the inquiſition is taken, the ſame Juſtices to procéede againſt ſuch murderers, if they béene in the gayol, & els the ſame Juſtices to put the ſaid inquiſitions afore the king in his bench. And for as much as coroners had not, nor ought anie thing to haue by the lawe for their office doing, which oft times hath be the occaſion that coroners haue béene remiſſe in doing their office: It is ordeined, that a coroner haue for his fée, vpon euerie inquiſition taken vpon the viewe of the bodie ſlaine xiii. s. iiii. d. of the goods and cattals of him that is the ſlayer, and murderer if he haue anie goods, and if he haue no goods, then the coroner to haue for his ſaide fée of ſuch amercementes as ſhall fortune anie towneſhip to be amerced for eſcape of ſuch murder as is aforeſaid. And if anie coroner be remiſſe, and make not his inquiſitions vpon the viewe of the bodie dead, & certifie not according as is afore ordeined, that the coroner for euery default forfeit to the king C. ſhillings. And alſo it is ordeined by the ſame authoritie, that euery Juſtice of peace within this realme, that ſhall take any recogniſance for the keeping of the peace, that the ſame Juſtices do certifie, ſende, or bring the ſame recogniſance at the next ſeſſions of peace, where he is or haue béene Juſtice, that the partie ſo bound, may be called: and if the partie make default, the ſame default then there to be recorded, and the ſame recogniſance, with the record of the default, be ſent and certified into the chauncerie, or afore the king in his bench, or into the kings eſcheker.

Chap. 2. Women taken againſt their willes.

Item where women, as well maidens as widowes and wiues, hauing ſubſtances, ſome in goods mouable, and ſome in lands and tenements, & ſome being heires apparant vnto their aunceſtors, for the lucor of ſuch ſubſtances béene oftentimes taken by miſdoers, contrary to their wil, and after maried to ſuch miſdoers, or to other by their aſſent, or defoyled, to the great diſpleaſure of God, and contrary to the kings lawes, and diſpergement of the ſaid women, and vtter heauineſſe and diſcomfort of their frendes, and to the euil enſample of all other: It is therefore ordeined, eſtabliſhed & enacted, by our ſoueraigne lord ẏ king, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, & by authoritie of the ſame, that what perſon or perſons from henceforth, that taketh any woman ſo againſt her wil vnlawfully, that is to ſay, mayde, widow, or wife, that ſuch taking, procuring and abbetting to the ſame, and alſo receiuing wittingly the ſame woman ſo taken againſt her will, and knowing the ſame, be felonie. And that ſuch miſdoers, takers and procurators to the ſame, and recettors, knowing the ſaide offence in forme aforeſaid, be henceforth reputed and iudged as principall felons. Prouided alway that this act extende not to anie perſon taking anie woman, onely claiming her as his warde or bonde woman.

Felony.

Cap. 3. Iuſtice of peace.

Item where in the parliament, late holden at Weſtminſter, the firſt yeere of Richarde late in déede and not in right king of England the third: It was ordeined and enacted among other diuerſe actes, that euery iuſtice of the peace, in euery ſhire, citie or towne, ſhould haue authority and power, by his or their diſcretion to let priſoners and perſons arreſted for light ſuſpection of felonie in baile or mainpriſe, by colour whereof, afterwarde diuerſe perſons, ſuch as were not mainpernable, were often times letten to baile & mainpriſe by Iuſtices of peace, againſt the due forme of the law, whereby many felons eſcaped, to great diſpleaſure of the king, & anoyance of his liege people, wherefore the king our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde, conſidering it by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and at the prayers of the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, & by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined, eſtabliſhed, & enacted, that the iuſtices of peace in euerie ſhire, citie, & towne, or two of them at the leaſt, wherof one to be of the quorum, haue authoritie & power to let anie ſuch priſoners, or perſons mainpernable by the lawe, that béene enpriſoned within their ſeuerall counties, citie or towne, to baile or mainpriſe, vnto their next generall ſeſſions, or vnto the next gayle deliuery of the ſame gayles, in euery ſhire, citie, or towne, aſwel within the franchiſes as without, where anie gayles béene or hereafter ſhall be, and that the ſaid iuſtices of peace or one of them ſo taking anie ſuch baile or mainpriſe, do certifie the ſame at the nexte generall ſeſſions of the peace, or the next generall gayoles deliuerance of anie ſuch gayol within euery ſuch countie, citie, or towne, next following, after anie ſuch baile or mainpriſe ſo taken, vpon paine to forfeit vnto the king for euery default thereupon recorded. x. li. And ouer that it is enacted, by the ſame authoritie, that euery ſhirife, bailife of franchiſe, & euery other perſon, hauing authoritie or power of kéeping of gayol or of priſoners for felonie, in like maner and forme do certifie the names of euery ſuch priſoner in their kéeping, and of euery priſoner to them committed for anie ſuch cauſe, at the next generall gayol deliuerie in euery countie or franchiſes, where anie ſuch gayol or gayols béene or hereafter ſhall be, there to be kalendred before the Iuſtices of the deliuerance of the ſame gayol, whereby they may as well for the king as for the partie procéede to make deliuerance of ſuch priſoners, according to the lawe, vpon paine to forfeit vnto the king, for euery default there recorded C. ſhillings. And that the foreſaid act giuing authoritie and power in the premiſſes to anie iuſtice of the peace by himſelfe, be in that behalfe vtterly voyde and of none effect, by authoritie of this preſent parliament.

Cap. 4. Deede of gift.

Item that where often times déedes of giftes of goods and cattals beene made to the entent to defraude their creditors, of their dueties, and that perſon or perſons that maketh the ſaid déede of gift, goeth to ſentuarie or other places priuileged, and occupyeth and liueth with the ſaid goods, and cattals, their creditours being vnpayed: It is ordeined, enacted, & eſtabliſhed, by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all deedes of gifte of goods and cattals made or to be made of truſt, to the vſe of that perſon or perſons, that made the ſame déede of gift, be voide and of none effect.

Chap. 5. Cheuiſance Vſury.

Item for as much as importable dammages, loſſe, and impoueriſhing of this realme is had by damnable bargaines grounded in vſury, coloured by the name of newe cheuiſance, contrary to the law of naturall iuſtice, to the common hurt of this lande, & to the great diſpleaſure of God: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, for the reformation thereof, and of al corrupt & vnlawful bargains, by the aſſent of the lords ſpiritual and temporall, and the commons in his ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined and enacted, that if hereafter anie bargaine couenant by buying of anie obligation, bill, or anie pledges put into ſuretie, or by bil or otherwiſe by the name of dry eſchange or otherwiſe, wherby anie certeine ſumme ſhall be loſt by any couenant or promiſe betwéene any perſon or perſons by them ſelfe or anie other to their knowledge within this realme, or if any bargaine or lone, whereby any of ẏ party ſhould leſe or pay for any ſumme certein: that is to ſay, for hauing an C. li. in money or marchandiſe or otherwiſe, & therefore to pay ſixe ſcore pound, or more or leſſe, in and for anie more or leſſe ſumme after anie maner rate, that all ſuch bargaines, couenants, promiſe and ſureties therefore made, and all thing thereof depending, be vtterly voide and of none effect. And ouer this it is ordeined by the ſame authoritie, that if anie marchandiſe, obligations, billes, or plate be promiſed to be deliuered vpon ſuch corrupt bargaine, and neuer deliuered, or deliuered and had againe to him that ought ſuch marchandiſes, obligations, billes, or plate, or knoweth by anie other man by aſſent, agréement or knowledge in anie maner forme, of him or his factour, or broker that ſuch marchandiſes ought, or priuie to ſuch bargaines, that all ſuch bargaines, couenants, promiſes, and all ſureties therefore made, be vtterly voide: And the ſeller, owner, bargainer, or promiſer, of ſuch corrupt bargaines, or goods, ſhall loſe for anie ſuch bargaine made by him or his factour C. li. And whoſoeuer will ſue therefore, to haue an action of Det: in which the partie ſhall not wage his lawe, the king to haue the one halfe, & he that will ſue the other halfe. And for as much as theſe corrupt bargaines be moſt vſually had within cities and boroughes hauing authoritie to trye all matters and caſes growen and had within the ſame cities and boroughes: and if anie ſuch defaultes, ſhoulde there bee tryed, periurie by likelineſſe thereby ſhould growe, and little of the premiſſes to be founde: Therefore it is ordeined by the ſaid authoritie, that as well the chauncellor of England for the time being, haue authoritie and power to examine all maner corrupt bargaines, promiſes, lones, or ſales, growen and had of anie of the promiſes, and thereupon by the examination to here & determine the ſame, and to giue like iudgement, and make like execution thereof as the matter were tryed and founde at the parties ſuite, in anie ſuch action of Det by the courſe of the common lawe, as the Iuſtices of the peace of anie ſhire next adioyning to anie citie or borough, where ſuch defaultes be, of anie of the premiſſes: And they to make like proceſſe againſt anie man thereof endyted afore them of anie of the premiſſes, as they ſhoulde, or ought to do againſt anie man that were endyted afore them of anie ryot, or treſpas, and to determine it. And if anie man be found guyltie afore them of anie of the premiſſes, to forfeit the foreſaid paine of C. li. reſeruing to the church (this puniſhment notwithſtanding) the correction of their ſoules according to the lawes of the ſame.

Chap.6.

Item for as much as there hath growen and daily groweth great diſpleaſure of God, & great hurt of the king our ſoueraigne lorde, and to this his realme, by and for the inordinate changes and rechanges that haue béene of long time vſed, and yet continued in this ſaide realme, without authoritie giuen of the king to ſuch changing and rechanging. For remedie whereof manie noble ſtatutes againſt the ſame made, whereof one ſpecial ſtatute was in the xv. yéere of king Edward the third, made for the ſame remedie, and in Henry the fourth, Henry the fifth, and in Henry the ſixth daies. Wherefore the king our ſoueraigne lord will, that all ſuch ſtatutes be put in due execution from henceforth. And that no man make anie exchange without the kinges licence, ne make anie exchange, or rechange of money, to be payed within this land, but only ſuch as the king ſhall depute thereunto, to kéepe, make, and aunſwere ſuch exchanges and rechanges, vpon the peines in the ſame ſtatute of king Richarde conteined. And ouer that it is ordeined by the king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and commons in his ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all vnlawfull cheuiſances & vſury be béene inducers and bargaine makers of vnlawfull cheuiſance and vſurie, and in ſome part of vnlawfull exchanges, to the hurt of our ſaide ſoueraigne lord and this his ſaid realme: Therefore it is enacted and eſtabliſhed, by the ſaide authoritie, that all ſuch brokers dealing vnlawfully of any of the premiſſes, be put a parte, and neuer to occupie as brokers within this his realme, as they may be eſpied and found in cities, boroughes, and townes, by Maiors, bailifes, or any of them or of their miniſters where ſuch bargaine is vſed. And that euery broker that is found defectiue, in making of vnlawfull brocage, ſhall forfeit for euery default xx. li. and haue impriſonment of halfe a yéere: And furthermore to be puniſhed by the pillorie, or otherwiſe to their open rebuke & ſhame: the king to haue the one halfe of euery of the ſaide forfeitures, & the partie that will ſue, the other halfe of the ſame, by action of Det by the common lawe, and the defendant in the ſame action be not admitted to his law, ne eſſoine ne protection be for the ſame defendant allowed.

Cap.7.

Item the king our ſoueraigne lorde, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons aſſembled in his ſaid parliament, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined and enacted, that euerie marchant, as well denizen as ſtraunger, which ſhall bring from where the goods or marchandiſes ſhall firſt come to, and the kings duitie thereof of the ſaide cuſtomers contented, or therefore with him agréed, and afterward that done will conuey or carrie the ſame goods or marchandiſes from thence in any other porte within the ſaid realme: that then the owner of the ſaide goods and marchandiſes, his factor or atturney, ſhall bring from the cuſtomers of the porte, where the ſaide goods or marchandiſes be ſo entred, a certificat vnder the ſame cuſtomers ſeales, direct to the cuſtomers of the port, whereto the ſaid goods or marchandiſes, ſhall be conueyed or carried, making mention within the ſame certificat, as well of the naturall colour, length, and valure of all maner of marchaundiſes ſo entred, vſed to be mette with elne or yard, as of the naturall weight content oꝛ valure of all manner other manner of marchandiſes vſed to be weied oꝛ valured. And that the ſame certificat ſo made be deliuered to the ſaid cuſtomers, befoꝛe the ſaid goods be diſcharged ſo that they may ſée, whether the nature, colour, oꝛ length, valoꝛ content oꝛ weight of the ſame do agrée with the ſaid certificat, ſo that the king be not deceiued of his cuſtomes & ſubſidies thereof due. And if anie certificat from henſefoꝛth be made by anie cuſtomer of anie poꝛt, whereto any ſuch marchandiſes, oꝛ goods ſhall be firſt bꝛought vnto, and therein their bookes entred, not making mencion accoꝛding as is afoꝛeſaid: that then ẏ ſaid cuſtomer oꝛ cuſtomers foꝛ their miſbehauing loſe their office, & to make fine with the king foꝛ ẏ ſame at his pleaſure. And furthermoꝛe if any ſuch goods oꝛ marchandiſes, oꝛ anie parcell thereof be diſcharged vnpacked oꝛ put to ſale within anie poꝛt, than within the ſame where they ſhalbe firſt entred, befoꝛe the ſaid certificat ſhalbe deliuered, and the ſame goods and marchandiſes, ſéene accoꝛding as aboue is expꝛeſſed: that then all ẏ ſaid goodes oꝛ marchandiſes, be foꝛfeited to the king our ſoueraigne loꝛd, the one halfe thereof to remaine to his highneſſe, and the other halfe to him oꝛ them which ſhall pꝛoue any ſuch goods oꝛ marchandiſes ſo foꝛfeited. And that the cuſtomer, oꝛ cuſtomers, noꝛ no deputie to any ſuch common officer, to whome ſuch certificat ſhall come, take nothing foꝛ the ſight of the ſame goods ſo certified. Alſo it is oꝛdeined and ſtabliſhed by auctoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that no maner of marchant, denizen ne ſtranger, do take vpon him to do entre oꝛ cauſe to be entred in the bookes of anie cuſtomer of anie poꝛt within this realme, any maner marchandiſes comming into this his ſaid realme, oꝛ going out of the ſame, in anie other marchantes name, ſauing onelie the name of the true marchant owner of the ſame, vpon paine of foꝛfeiture of all ſuch goods, and marchandiſes ſo entred. And euerie of the ſaid marchants, which ſo ſhall take vpon him to cauſe ſuch vntrue entre to be made, to haue pꝛiſonment and make fine therefoꝛe at the kinges pleaſure. And that no perſon take vpon him to be cuſtomer, controller, oꝛ ſearcher in anie poꝛt in anie citie, boꝛough, oꝛ towne, where he is common officer, noꝛ no deputie to any ſuch common officer, vpon paine of foꝛfeiture foꝛ euerie halfe yeare, that he occupieth the ſaid common office, and office of cuſtomerſhip, controller oꝛ ſearcher, the ſum of xl. pound the one halfe thereof to the king, and the other halfe to him that will ſue foꝛ it by wꝛit, bill oꝛ infoꝛmation.

Item that where in the parliament of king Edward the fourth, holden at Weſtminſter the vii. yeare of his reigne: It was oꝛdeined among other, that euery marchant alien, and euery other vitler and other ſtranger, not being denizen that reſoꝛt to anie place oꝛ poꝛt within this realme, oꝛ Wales, after the feaſt of Eaſter then next following, ſhould dulie imploie all the monie by him to be receiued within anie poꝛt within this realme, oꝛ Wales, vpon the marchandiſes oꝛ other commodities of this realme, oꝛ elſe without fraud put the ſame monie in due paiment within this realme, the ſame imploiment oꝛ paiment duelie to be pꝛoued by the marchant vitler oꝛ other ſtranger, befoꝛe his departing out of the ſame poꝛt, by wꝛiting from that marchant oꝛ marchants to whome the ſaide marchant alien vitler oꝛ other ſtranger haue imploied oꝛ paid his monie by him receiued foꝛ his marchandiſes bꝛought into this land, witneſſing that he hath ſo done, oꝛ els by ſuch pꝛoofes as ſhall be thought reaſonable to the cuſtomer oꝛ controller of the ſame poꝛt, oꝛ to the maioꝛ, bailiffe oꝛ other chiefe gouernoꝛs of anie citie, boꝛough, oꝛ towne, where anie ſuch poꝛt ſhall be, vpon paine of foꝛfeiture of all his goods being within this realme, and to haue impꝛiſonment of a yeare: ſauing to euerie ſuch marchant vitler, and other ſtranger his reaſonable coſtes, with certaine pꝛouiſions in the ſame, as by the ſame act moꝛe at large doth appeare, which act was made to indure but onelie from the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter, to the end of ſeuen yeares then next ſuing, ſo that no gold and ſiluer receiued by marchants aliens and other vitlers & ſtrangers not being denizens, foꝛ marchandiſe bꝛought into this land, is not imploied vpon the commodities of this land, but conueied and carried out of this realme, to the great loſſe to the king of his cuſtome and ſubſidie, and impoueriſhing of this realme. It is enacted oꝛdeined and ſtabliſhed by the king our ſouereigne loꝛd that now is, by the aduiſe of ẏ loꝛds ſpirituall and tempoꝛall, and at the pꝛaier of the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoꝛitie of the ſame, that the ſaid act, made the ſaid xvii. yeare of the reigne of king Edward the iiii. with all things compꝛiſed in the ſame touching the pꝛemiſſes, and euery pꝛouiſion made in the ſame, be good, effectuall, and to indure foꝛ euer. Alſo it is enacted by the ſaid auctoꝛitie, that euerie marchant of Irland Jerneſeie oꝛ Garneſeie, that bꝛingeth any marchandiſes into this realme, ſhall imploie the monie receiued foꝛ the ſame marchandiſe, his reaſonable expenſes deduct, vpon the commodities of this land, oꝛ els without fraud put the ſame monie in due paiment within this realme: The ſaid imploiment oꝛ paiment to be pꝛoued as is afoꝛeſaid, vpon paine of foꝛfeiture of ẏ value of the marchandiſe ſo bꝛought into this land. And it is oꝛdeined by the ſaid auctoꝛitie, that euerie cuſtomer oꝛ controller ſhall take ſufficient ſuretie foꝛ euerie of the ſaid marchant, vitler, oꝛ other ſtranger to imploy the value of the ſaid marchandiſes, oꝛ to put the ſame monie foꝛ the marchandiſe receiued in due paiment, his reaſonable expenſes alway deduct, vpon paine of foꝛfeiture of the value of the ſaid marchandiſes: The one halfe of the ſaid foꝛfeiture to the king, the other halfe to the partie that will ſue. This to begin and take effect at the feaſt of Chꝛiſtmas next comming.

Faire oꝛ market.

Item it was ſhewed vnto the king our ſouereigne loꝛd, by a petition put vnto him in his ſaid parliament, that now of late time the maioꝛ & aldermen and citizens of the citie of London haue made an oꝛdinance within ẏ ſame citie, vpon a great paine, that no man that is a fréeman oꝛ citizen of ẏ ſaid citie, ſhall go oꝛ come to anie faire oꝛ market out of ẏ ſame city of London, with any maner of ware or marchandiſe to ſell or to barter, to this intent that all buiers and marchantes ſhould reſort to the ſaid citie, to buie their ware and marchandiſes of the ſaid citizens and free men at London aforeſaide, becauſe of their ſinguler lucre and auaile. The king our ſoueraigne lorde, in conſideration of the hurt likelie to grow of and by the premiſſes, hath by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall and the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame ordeined, ſtabliſhed, and enacted, that euerie free man and citizen of the ſaid citie of London, that now is or hereafter ſhalbe, may lead carrie and go with his or their vittell, ware, or marchandiſe, whatſoeuer it be, at his or their libertie, to any faire or market that ſhall pleaſe him or them within this realme of England, any ſtatute act or ordinance made or to be made within this ſaid citie of London to the contrarie of the premiſſes notwithſtanding. And the ſaid ordinance and act made in the ſaid citie, be void and of none effect. And that no perſon of the ſaid citie be hurt or preiudiſed in leaſing of his libertie and franchiſe within the ſaid citie or otherwiſe, by reaſon or occaſion of adnulling of the ſaid ordinance and act, or for none obeying to the effect of yͤ ſame. And if anie perſon be preiudiſed in anie wiſe, by occaſion of the ſame, that he that putteth or cauſeth any perſon to ſuch preiudiſe, leaſe and forfeit vnto the king x.li. as often as he ſo doth. And he that will ſue for ſuch forfeiture, haue therfore an action of debt againſt ſuch offender, the king to haue execution of the one halfe, and he that ſueth the other halfe. And in ſuch action the defendant be not admitted to wage his law.

Error.

Item that where often times plaintife or demandant, plaintifes or demandants, that haue iudgement to recouer, be delaied of execution, for that the defendant or tenant, defendants or tenants, againſt whome iudgement is giuen, or other that bene bound to the ſaid iudgement, ſueth a writ or writts of error, to adnull and reuerſe the ſaid iudgement, to the intent onelie to delaie execution of the ſaid iudgement: It is enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the praier of the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that if anie ſuch defendant or tenant, defendants or tenants, or anie other yͭ ſhal be bound by the ſaid iudgement, ſue afore execution had, anie writ of error, to reuerſe anie ſuch iudgement, in delaying of execution: that then if the ſame iudgement be affirmed good, in the ſaid writ of error, and not erronious, or that the ſaid writ of errour be diſcontinued in the default of the partie, or that perſon or perſons, that ſueth writ or writs of error, be nonſued in the ſame: that then the ſaid perſon or perſons, againſt whome the ſaid writ of errour is ſued, ſhall recouer his coſts and damage, for his delaie and wrongfull vexation in the ſame, by the diſcretion of of the iuſtice, afore whome the ſaid writ of error is ſued.

Draperie.

Item where in the ſaid parliament it was ſhewed by ſhermen, fullers, and other artificers, that ſhould liue and obteine their needie ſuſtentation by meane of draperie made and draped within this realme, aſwell throughout the ſame realme, as within the citie of London, that where in a ſtatute made the ſeuenth yeare of the reigne of king Edward the fourth, among other it is conteined, that no perſon denizen ne ſtranger ſhould carrie or do to be carried to any parties beyond the ſea, anie wollen yarne, nor cloth vnfulled, but yͤ wollen yarne to be made in this realme ſhould be wouen in the ſame, and alſo all cloth in the ſame made ſhould be fulled & fullie wrought within this realme, before that anie of the ſame ſhould be had or caried out of this realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of the very value of ſuch yarne, not weaued and cloth not fulled, had or caried out of this realme: The one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to be leuied to the vſe of the king, and that other halfe to him or them that ſhould eſpie or make proofe of anie ſuch yarne not wouen, or cloth not fulled, caried to any place beyond the ſea. And for aſmuch as in yͤ ſaid ſtatute of king Edward there is none expreſſe mencion made, that the ſaid clothes ſhould be rowed and ſhorne, afore that they be caried and conueied out of this realme, whereby the ſaid poore commous of the craftes aforeſaid might be ſet in labor & occupation: therfore the ſaid clothes euer ſithen vnto this day, haue bene and yet dayly are in great number caried out of this realme, vnrowed, and vnſhorne, into the partie of beyond the ſea, aſwell by denizens as ſtrangers, whereby outlandiſh nations, with the ſame draperie, are ſet in labor and occupation to their great inriching, and the poore commons of the crafts aboueſaid, through all this realme that of naturall reaſon as the kinges true liege men, ſhould haue and obteine their needie ſuſtentation and liuing, by meanes of the ſame draperie, for lacke of ſuch occupation daily fall in great number into idleneſſe and pouertie, to their vttermoſt deſtruction, if it ſhould any longer continue: The king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the praier of the commons in his ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted, that no ſtranger nor denizen carie or make to be caried out of this realme any wollen clothes, but that they before be barbed rowed and ſhorne within the ſame realme, for the reliefe and ſetting on worke of the ſaid poore commons, vpon the paine and forfeiture limited in the ſaid ſtatute of king Edward, made vpon cloth carried out of this land not fulled to be deuided in maner and forme as in the ſame ſtatute it is conteined. Prouided alway, that clothes called veſſes raies ſailing clothes and other clothes, commonlie ſold at xl. ſhillings and vnder, be not compriſed in this preſent act.

Item the king remembring how by the negligence and vnlawfull demeanings of ſtewards, auditors, receiuers, ſuruetors, and bailifes of his honors, lordſhips, manors, lands and tenements, conſtables and keepers of caſtles, wardens, maiſters of game and keepers of his forreſts, chaſes, parkes and warrens, within his realme, great vnſuretie hath growne afore this time, as well to

to his highneſſe as to his progenitors and howe his tenants and inhabitants of his ſaid honors, lordſhips manours and tenements daily be greatlie troubled, aſwell by the vnlawfull retainers and retinues made, as well by the ſaid officers, ſuffering the ſame tenants and inhabitants to be vnlawfullie retained with other perſons and how by this vnlawfull retaining they bene called to vnlawfull aſſemblies & riots, to their oft great ieoperdies & charges, whereby they bene ſo pouerished, that they be not of power to pay to him their ducties, and his ſubiects neere their dwelling be vexed and troubled & greatly hurt by diuers charges and vnlawfull impoſitions: And ouer this his highneſſe remembreth, howe his woodes his vert and veniſon, by the wardens maiſters of the game parkers keepers and other officers of his ſaid forreſts, chaſes, parkes and warrens throughout this his realme, is almoſt deſtroied, and that diuers and manie perſons, to whome he hath granted ſuch offices, in his great troubles had againſt his traitors & rebels, haue abſented them from his grace, contrary to the dutie of their allegiance, againſt all truth & kindneſſe. Wherefore the king our ſouereigne lord will, that by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, & by auctority of the ſame, it be ordeined and enacted, that if any ſteward, auditor, receiuer, or bailiffe, that now is or hereafter ſhalbe of any of the ſaid honors, lordſhips, manors, lands, & tenementes, conſtable, or keeper of any of his ſaid caſtles, warden, maiſter of game, parker keeper or any other officer of any of his ſaid forreſts, chaſes, parks or warens, that now is or hereafter ſhalbe, be vnlawfully retained with any perſon from henſeforth or rettaine any man dwelling within anie of the ſaid honors, lordſhips, manors, landes and tenements contrarie to any ordinance or act afore this time made or ſuffer any man dwelling within ẏ ſaid honors, lordſhips, manors, lands & tenementes to be vnlawfullie retained with any other man or perſon, what degrée or condition ſo euer he be of, and ſhew it not to the king within fortie daies next after he hath knowledge therof, and how and with whome he is ſo retained: Or anie of the ſaid officers conuey any of the ſaid tenants inhabitants farmors to the king, to any field, or aſſemble or rout, otherwiſe than by the kings commandement to do him ſuch ſeruice as he ſhall be commanded, and that alway in the kings liuerie or ſigne, with a cogniſance of him that ſo conuey them by the kings commandement: or if ſuch officer come not vnto the kings highneſſe in time of trouble or warre, when he thereto ſhalbe commanded, hauing no reaſonable excuſe, to the contrarie, that all grants then made or had to him of any of the ſaid offices by the king, or by any of the kings progenitors or predeceſſors, be then vtterly void and of none effect. And it is ordeined by the ſame auctoritie, that if any farmor or tenant, within any of the ſaid honors, lordſhips, manors, lands and tenements, be retained with any perſon or perſons, contrarie to the ſtatutes, by liuerie, ſigne, token or oth, indenture or promiſe, or to go to anie field gathering or aſſemble in any mans liuerie ſigne or token, but onely in the kings liuerie and ſigne and to ſerue him onelie, or where he ſhall be commanded by the king: that all grants and leaſes to him made for terme of yeares or at will, of the lands, tenements, rentes or other poſſeſſions being parcell of anie of the ſaid honours lordſhips, manors, lands and tenements, be then vtterly void and of none effect.

Archers.

Long bowes.

Item for aſmuch as the great and ancient defence of this realme, hath ſtand by archers and ſhooters in long bowes, which is now left and fallen in decaie for the dearth and exceſſiue price of long bowes: It is therefore ordeined by the king our ſouereigne lord, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of ẏ ſame, that if any perſon or perſons, after the feaſt of ẏ purification of our Ladie next comming, ſell anie long bowes ouer the price of thrée ſhillings foure pence, that then the ſeller or ſellers of ſuch bowes forfeit for euerie bowe ſo ſold ouer the ſaid price, fortie ſhillings to the king: And he that will ſue for the ſame, haue an action of debt therefore againſt ſuch ſeller, or make information in the kings eſcheker thereof, the king to haue execution of the moitie thereof: and he that ſueth the other moitie and that in ſuch action of debt the defendant haue no eſſoine ne protection for him allowed, and be not admitted to wage his law.

Cap. 13.

Quarell.

Confederacie.

Conſpiracie.

Item for as much as by quarels made to ſuch as haue bene in great auctoritie office and councell with kings of this realme, hath inſued the deſtruction of the kings and nere the vndoing of this realme, ſo as it hath appeared euidently, when compaſſing of the death of ſuch as were of the kings true ſubiects was had, the deſtruction of the prince was imagined thereby, and for the moſt part it hath growne & bene occaſioned by enuie and malice of the kings owne houſhold ſeruants, as now late like thing was likelie to haue inſued: And for ſo much as by the lawe of this land if actuall déeds be not had, there is no remedie for ſuch falſe compaſſings imaginations and confederacies had againſt any lord, or any of the kings counſell, or anie of the kinges great officers in his houſhold, as ſteward, treaſurer, controller, and ſo great inconueniences might inſue if ſuch vngodly demeaning ſhould not be ſtraitlie puniſhed ere that actuall déed were done: Therfore it is ordeined by the king, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that from henſe forward, the ſteward, treaſurer, and controller of the kings houſe, for the time being, or one of them haue full auctoritie and power to inquire by twelue ſad men and diſcréet perſons of the cheker roll of the kings honorable houſhold, if any ſeruant admitted to be his ſeruant ſworne, and his name put into the cheker roll of his houſhold, whatſoeuer he be, ſeruing in any maner office or rowme reputed had and taken vnder the ſtate of a lord, make anie confederacies compaſſing conſpiracies imaginations with any perſon or perſons, to deſtroy or murder the king, or any lord of this realme, or any other perſon ſworne to the kings counſell, ſteward, treaſurer, controller of the kings houſe, that if it be found afore the ſaid ſteward, for the time being, by the ſaid xii. ſad men, that anie ſuch of the kings ſeruants, as is aboueſaid hath confedered, compaſſed, conſpired or imagined, as is aboueſaid, that he ſo found by that inquirie, be put thereupon to anſwere. And the ſteward, treaſurer and controller, or two of them, haue power to determine the ſame matter, according to the lawe. And if he put him in triall that then it be tried by other twelue ſad men of the ſame houſhold. And that ſuch miſdoers haue no challenge, but malice, and if ſuch miſdoers be found giltie, by confeſſion or otherwiſe, that the ſaid offenſe be iudged fellonie. And they to haue iudgement and execution as felons attainted ought for to haue by the common law.

The third parliament holden in the fourth yeare of the reigne of king Henrie the ſeuenth.

TO the worſhip of God and holie church, and for the common weale & profit of this realme of England, our ſouereigne lord Henry by the grace of God king of England and France and lord of Ireland, the ſeuenth after the conqueſt, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xiii. daie of Ianuarie, in the fourth yeare of his reigne, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, hath done to be made ordeined and eſtabliſhed diuers ſtatutes and ordinances in forme that followeth.

Chap. 1. FIrſt it was ſhewed by the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, that where in the parliament of the right noble prince Henrie firſt late king of England, holden at Weſtminſter the firſt yeere of his reigne he conſidering the great hurts and loſſes, which then were by yͤ increaſe of water in diuers parts of this realme, and manie greater hurtes likelie ſhould haue come, if remedie in that behalfe ſhould not haſtily haue bene purueied: It was enacted, ordeined, and ſtabliſhed, by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, that for ten yeares then next following ſeuerall commiſſions of ſewers ſhould be made to diuers perſons by the chancellor of England for yͤ time being, to be named in diuers parties of this realme, where need were, after the forme and tenour of a commiſſion in the ſaid act ſpecified. And afterward in the parliament of the ſaid late king holden at Weſtminſter the viii. yeare of his reigne, becauſe of commiſſioners named in the ſaide commiſſion had not plaine power ne auctoritie, to do performe and execute thinges compriſed in the ſaid commiſſions, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, that all ſuch commiſſioners ſhould haue power to make and execute ſtatutes and ordinances after the effect and purport of the ſaid commiſſion. And after the ſaid ten yeares paſt, in the parliament of the ſaid late king holden at Weſtminſter, the xviii. yeare of his reigne, It was alſo ordeined enacted & ſtabliſhed by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, that for ten yeares then next following, ſeuerall commiſſions of ſewers ſhould be made to diuers perſons by the chancellor of England for the time being, to be named in all parties of this realme, where neede ſhould be, after the ſaid forme and effect of the ſaid commiſſion conteined in the ſaid act, made the ſaid firſt yeare: & that ſuch commiſſioners ſhould haue power to ordeine and execute ſtatutes and ordinances and other things to do after the effect and purport of the ſaid commiſſions. And afterward in the parliament of the ſaid late king holden at Weſtminſter, the xxiii. yeare of his reigne. It was alſo ordeined enacted and ſtabliſhed by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, that for xv. yeares then next following, yͤ chancellor of England for the time being, ſhould haue power to make out of the chancerie commiſſions of ſewers vnder the great ſeale, in ſuch forme is it was granted to be made by the ſaid act, made the ſaid vi. yeare, as in the ſaid act is more plainlie conteined. And after yͤ ſaid xv. yeares paſſed, in the parliament of the noble prince Edward the fourth, late king of England, holden at Weſtminſter, the twelfth yeare of his reigne, it was alſo ordeined and ſtabliſhed, by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, that for xv. yeares then next following ſeuerall commiſſions of ſewers ſhould be made to diuers perſons by the chancellor of England for the time being, to be named in all the parties of this realme, and alſo the marches of Callis, Guines, and Hammes, where néed ſhould be, after the forme and effect of the ſaid commiſſion conteined in the ſaid act, made in the ſaid vi. yéere. And that all ſuch commiſſioners ſhould haue ful power to make ordeine and execute ſtatutes & ordinances and other things to do after the effect and purport of the ſame commiſſions as in the ſaid act more plainly is conteined: By which commiſſions and auctoritie, giuen to the ſaid commiſſioners in the ſaid forme, manie great hurtes & inconueniences in diuers parties of this realme done & had by increaſe of water, were neceſſarilie redreſſed, reformed, and amended. It is ſo now that late, aſwell in the counties of Gloceſter and Somerſet as elſwhere in diuers parties of this realme, & alſo within the bounds of the ſaid marches of Callis, Guines and Hammes, by the increaſe of waters, diuers landes and tenementes in great quantitie bene ſurrounded and deſtroied, and manie mo great like hurts and damages be like within ſhort time to fall, as well to the decreaſe and deſtruction of the liuelode of the king our ſouereigne lord, as of the liuelode of the church, and of other true liege people of this realme, and of the ſaid marches, and anie intiſement of the ſame, without that remedie in that behalfe be purueied and had. The king our ſouereigne lord therefore of his aboundant grace, the premiſſes tenderly conſidered, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined, enacted, and ſtabliſhed that for xxv. yeeres next comming ſeuerall commiſſions of ſhewers be made to diuerſe perſons by the chauncellour of England for the time being, to be named in all parties of this realme, and of the ſaide marches where neede is or ſhall be, after the forme and effecte of the ſaide commiſſion, contained in the ſaide acte made in the ſaid ſixt yeere. And ouer that hath ordained and ſtabliſhed by the ſaid auctoritie, that all ſuch commiſſioners haue full power to make ordaine and execute ſtatutes and ordinances, and other thinges doo after the effecte and purporte of the ſame commiſſion.

Chap. 2.
Finours.

Item whereas it was of olde time vſed & continued till now of late yeeres, that there was for the auaile of the king and the realme finours and parters of goulde and ſiluer, by fire and water, vnder a rule and order belonging vnto the mintes of London, Caleis, Canterburie, Yorke and Durham and other places where mintes bene holden, and at the gouldſmithes hall in London, to fine and parte all gould and ſiluer belonging and needefull for the ſaid mintes and felowſhip of gouldſmithes, for the amendment of moneie and plate in the realme, that euerie thing might be reformed to the right ſtandard, aſwell in moneie as plate to the leaſt coſte, for the weale of the kings noble men of the lande and common people. But ſo it is now, that ſuch finours and parters of gould and ſiluer by fire and water dwelled abroad in euerie place of this realme, out of the rules aforeſaid, and buie gilt ſiluer from the mintes chaunges and gouldſmithes, and parte and fine it as is aforeſaid, and for the moſt parte the ſiluer ſo fined, they doo alay it in diuers maners, and ſell it at their pleaſure to euerie man of what eſtate or degree ſoeuer he be, that will buie of them to make ſuch workes as pleaſeth the buies: Therefore men can get no fine ſiluer when they neede it for their moneie, for the amendment of moneie and plate as hath bene in times paſſed: wherefore it cauſeth moneie and plate in diuerſe places of the realme, to be made worſe in fineſſe than it ſhould be, as it appeareth euidentlie in diuers places, to the great hurt of the kings noble men of the land and common people. Wherefore the king our ſoueraigne lorde by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, hath ordained, enacted, and ſtabliſhed, that no finour of gould and ſiluer, nor parter of the ſame by fire or water from henceforth, allay anie fine ſiluer or gould, ne none ſell in anie other wiſe, ne to anie perſon or perſons, but onelie to the officers of mintes changes and gouldſmithes within this realme, for augmentation and amending of coine and plate as is aforeſaid: and that the maiſters of mintes changes and gouldſmithes, for all ſuch fine gould or ſiluer comming to them, to aunſwere the valoure as it is worth, according as it is now and hath bene of auncient time accuſtomed after the rate of fineſſe. Ne that no finour nor finours, parter nor parters, ſell to no perſon, neither to one nor to other anie maner of ſiluer in maſſe moulten and alaied, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, the king thereof to haue one halfe, and the finder that can proue and will ſue it in the kings eſchequer, the other halfe. And if anie finour or finours, parter or parters of gould and ſiluer, either by fire or water alate or ſell anie maner of fine gould or ſiluer, otherwiſe than it is ordained in this laſt acte, he or they to leeſe the valour of the ſame gould or ſiluer ſo alaied or ſould, the king to haue the one halfe, and the finder that can proue it & will ſue it in the kings eſchequer, the other halfe. And all ſuch fine ſiluer as ſhall be parted and fined, as is aforeſaid, that it be made ſo fine, that it may beare xii. penie weight of alay in a pound weight, and yet it be as good as ſterling and rather better than worſe. And that euerie finour put his ſeuerall marke vpon ſuch fine ſiluer, to beare witneſſe of the ſame to be true, as is aforeſaid, vpon the paine of the valour found contrarie to be forfeite, the king thereof to haue the one halfe, and the finder that can proue it and will ſue for it in the eſchequer the other halfe. And that no gouldſmith, or gouldſmithes within this realme, melt or alay anie fine ſiluer, to ne for anie workes or other entent, but onelie for making of amels, for diuers workers of gouldſmithrie. And for amending of plate to make it as good as ſterling or better for the common weale of this realme. Nor that they ſell no fine ſiluer nor other ſiluer alaied molten into maſſe, to anie perſon or perſons, what ſo euer they be, nor one gouldſmith to another. This ordinance to be kept by the gouldſmithes in euerie point, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame ſiluer or the value thereof. The king thereof to haue the one halfe, and the finder that can proue it, and will ſue for it in the kings eſchequer, the other halfe.

Siluer in maſſe molten.

Gouldſmith.

Alſo it is ordained by the ſame auctoritie, that all letters patents and grauntes of offices, belonging or pertaining to the mint of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, exerciſed in the ſame with fees and wages thereto belonging be from henceforth voide and of none effecte.

Chap. 3.

Item it was ſhewed by a petition put to the king our ſaide ſoueraigne lord, in the ſaide parliament, by his ſubiectes and pariſhens of the pariſh of S. Feithes & S. Gregories in London, nigh adioinant vnto the cathedrall church of Paules, that it was ſo great concourſe of people, aſwell of his royall perſon, as of great lords & eſtates, with other his true ſubiectes, often times was had vnto the ſaid cathedrall church, and that moſt parte throughout the pariſh aforeſaid, the which oftentimes bene greatlie anoied & enuenimed by corrupt aiers engendred in the ſaid pariſhes, by occaſion of bloud & other fouler things, by occaſion of the ſlaughter of beaſe, and ſkalding of ſwine, had and done in the boucherie of ſaint Nicholas fleſhambles, whoſe corruption and foule ordure, by violence of vncleane corrupt and putrified waters, is borne downe through the ſaid pariſhes, and compaſſeth two parties of the palace, where the kings moſt roiall perſon is wont to abide, when he commeth to the cathedrall church for anie acte there to be done, to the ieopardous abiding of his moſt noble perſon, and to ouer great annoiſance of the pariſhens there, and of other the kings ſub-ſects and ſtraungers that paſſe by the ſame: Complaint thereof at manie and diuers ſeaſons, alſo by the ſpace of xvi. yeeres continuallie, aſwell by the cannons & petie cannons of the ſaid cathedrall church, landlords there, as alſo by manie other diuers of the kings ſubiectes of right honeſt hauour vnto diuers maiors and aldermen of the cittie of London hath be made, and no remedie had ne founden: That it pleaſe our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde of his aboundaunt grace to prouide for the conſeruation aſwell of his moſt roiall perſon, as to ſuccour his poore ſubiectes and ſuppliauntes in this behalfe, conſidering that in few noble cities and townes or none within chriſtendome, where as traueling men haue laboured, the common ſlaughter houſe of beaſtes ſhould be kept in anie ſpecial parte within the walles of the ſame, leaſt it might ingender ſicknes, vnto the deſtruction of the people. The king our ſoueraigne lord, in conſideration of the premiſſes, hath by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this ſaid parliament aſſembled, & by auctoritie of the ſame ordained & enacted, that no butcher nor his ſeruaunt ſlea no maner beaſt within the ſaid houſe, called ÿ ſcalding houſe, or within the wall of London, vpon paine to forfeite for euerie oxe xii. d. and euerie cowe and other beaſt viii. d. The one halfe thereof to the king our ſoueraigne lord, & the other halfe to euerie of the kings lieges that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt. And no protection or eſſoine be allowed to anie of the defendauntes, againſt whom anie ſuch action ſhall be conceiued. And that in the ſame action of debt ſuch proceſſe be made, as in other actions of debt ſued at the common lawe. And ouer this it is ordained and enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, that the ſaid ordinance acte & lawe extend and be obſerued & kept in euerie citie borough and towne walled within this realme of England, and in the towne of Cambridge, the townes of Barwike and Carlile except and forpriſed. Prouided alway that this preſent acte begin and take effecte at the feaſt of the annunciation of our ladie next enſuing and not afore.

Chap. 4.

Item the king our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde, for diuers cauſes and reaſonable conſiderations him mouing, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall & temporall, and at the praiers of the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, hath ordained, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that euerie perſon, of what condition or degree that he be of, being or hereafter be in our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the kinges wages beyond the ſea in Brittaine, at his pleaſure haue the protection of profecture or moratur, Cum clauſula volumus. And in the exception of the ſaid protection there be made omiſſion of aſſiſe. And that the ſaide protection be alowable in all the kinges courtes and other courtes, where the ſaid protections ſhalbe pleaded, or laide for anie of the ſaide perſons in all pleas & aſſiſe, aſwell of nouell diſſeiſine as of freſh force without anie difficultie. And it is enacted that the iudgments to be giuen from hence forth in ſuch aſſiſe arrained, ſhall not be preiudiciall to anie of the ſaid perſons ſo being in ſeruice of our ſoueraigne lord the king in Brittaine as is aforeſaid, which haue anie thing in reuerſion or remainder in landes & tenements, whereof ſuch aſſiſe be arraied, if the names of thoſe perſons, which be in the reuerſion or the remainder of ſuch lands and tenements, be not in the ſaid aſſiſe, but that the ſaid iudgement be againſt all them voide. The ſaid ordinaunce to endure and be auailable to euerie of the ſaid perſons, as long as he abideth ſo in the kinges wages. And if this ordinaunce, touching the ſaid perſons ſo now abiding, or that after ſhall abide in the ſeruice of the kinges highnes in Brittaine, be not ſufficient for the eaſe and ſuretie of them: It is agreed by the ſame auctoritie, that our ſoueraigne lorde the king, & all the lordes of his councell for the time being, haue full power in all maner of actions, ſuites & proceſſes, to graunt to euerie of ſuch perſons protection, as ſhall be in their cauſe auilable after their diſcretion, during the time that their or anie of them continue in the ſaide armie or warre. Prouided that this acte be not auaileable to anie perſon for anie entre ſithen the firſt daie of this ſaide parliament.

Protection.

Brittaine.

Alſo it is enacted, that if diſcent of anie landes, or tenements, or anie other right or hereditamentes be to anie perſon or perſons being within this realme or elſewhere, that that diſcent be of no greater effecte to the damages or hurt of the ſaid perſons being in the kings ſeruice as is aforeſaid, than if the ſaide perſons in the kings ſeruice ſo being were within the age of xxi. yeeres. Alſo it is ordained by the ſaide auctoritie, that all ſuch perſons as ſhall paſſe ouer the ſea in the ſaid viage, and euerie of them, the which haue lands and tenementes holden of the king or of anie other, ſhall now lawfullie make thereof feoffementes and tranſmutation of poſſeſſion, by deede or deedes, fine or fines, recouerie or recoueries, for the performance of their willes, without anie fine for the ſaid feoffementes or tranſmutation of poſſeſſion therefore to be made in: And that they & euerie of them, their heires and aſſignes of euerie of them, be diſcharged of all ſuch fines by the ſaide acte without letters patentes of licence or pardon or other diſcharge for to be had in that behalfe. And further more it is alſo ordained and enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, that if anie of the ſaide perſons, ſo paſſing in the ſaid viage, which holde landes or tenements of the king, or of anie other by knightes ſeruice or otherwiſe, wherefore his heire oweth to be in ward, and fortune in the ſaid viage to deceaſſe beyond the ſea, or that anie feoffment of the ſame landes and tenementes be ſuppoſed to be made by colluſion, the heire of the owner of the ſame lands and tenementes being within age, that then ÿ ſame feoffees, or executours of ſuch perſons ſo deceaſed haue the ward and mariage of the heire ſo being within age, and of the landes and tenementes ſo houlden, during the none age of euerie ſuch heire to the performance of the will of the ſaide perſon ſo deceaſed, without anie account, or other thing therefore to be yeelded. Prouided alway, that if anie perſon or perſons retained in the ſaide armie or viage reſorte and come againe into this realme, diſcharged of the ſaide retinue armie and viage, or after the ſaide viage determined, that than anie feoffement made by him or anie other to his vſe of anie of the premiſes be voide and of none effect to exclude the king and his heires or anie other for the warde and mariage of the heire of anie of them ſo comming into this realme by vertue of this acte.

Chap. 5. Letters patentes adnulled. Diſmes.

Item the king our ſouereigne lorde remembreth, both aſwell his highnes and diuers of his progenitours and predeceſſours kinges of England, haue made and graunted vpon feigned ſuggeſtions to diuers abbottes, priours, wardens, maiſters, or rulers of other ſpirituall places, and to their ſucceſſours, diuers and manie letters patentes, ſome of them to be quitte and diſcharged of paiment of diſmes, and ſome of them to be quitte and diſcharged aſwell of the gathering of diſmes as of paiment of diſmes, by the which euerie diſme, whenſoeuer it be graunted, it is greatlie miniſhed, and other places the more greeuouſlie charged with gathering of the ſame: Remembreth alſo the great charges that now bene in hand, and that the bearing thereof muſt aſwell be to the reliefe of them that haue ſuch letters patentes, as to other of his ſubiectes: Hath therefore ordained and enacted by auctoritie of the ſaid parliament, that all ſuch letters patentes, as for the premiſſes bene voide and of none effecte, by whatſomeuer names, thoſe perſones, to whome the letters be made, be called or named.

Chap. 6. Foreſt of Inglewoode. Letters patentes adnulled.

Item for aſmuch as through the negligence of ſtewardes foreſters, and other keepers within the kings foreſtes of Inglewood, in the ſhire of Comberland, and by miſuſing of their offices, the deere and game is deſtroied and gone by occaſion whereof the ſaide offices require none actuall exerciſe. It is therefore ordained and enacted by auctoritie of the ſaide parliament that all letters patentes made by the king our ſouereigne lorde of anie office within the ſaide foreſt, be from the firſt day of this parliament voide and of none effecte. Prouided that it be ordained by the ſaide auctoritie, that the letters patentes late made by the king to Thomas lorde Dacre, of the office maiſter foreſter of that foreſt, ſtand and be good and effectuall to the ſame Thomas, after the tenour and effecte of the ſame letters patentes, the ſaide acte notwithſtanding. Prouided alſo, that this acte extend not ne be preiudiciall to Henrie earle of Northumberland, of or for anie graunt, letters patentes, or confirmation made by the king our ſouereigne lorde to the ſaid earle.

Chap. 7. Yomen of the corone. Groomes of the chamber. Letters patentes.

Item whereas diuers yomen of the corone and groomes of the kinge our ſouereigne lordes chamber, haue diuers offices and fees graunted to them by his letters patentes for the conſideration of their attendaunce in the kinges ſeruice, which do nor indeuour not them ſelfe in giuing attendaunce according to their dutie: It is therefore ordained, eſtabliſhed & enacted by the auctoritie of the ſaid parliament, that if anie of the ſaide yomen or groomes do not giue their attendaunce aboute the kinges highnes, according to the ordinaunce of his chamber, that then all letters patents to them or anie of them made, or hereafter to anie ſuch perſon or perſons, to be made be of no better force ne effect, but at the kinges pleaſure.

Chap. 8. Drapers. Tailours. Woollen cloth.

Item for as much as drapers and tailours, and other in the citie of London, and other places within this realme, that vſe to ſell woollen cloth at retaile by yardes, ſelling a yarde of cloth at exceſſiue price hauing vnreaſonable lucre, to the great hurte and impoueriſhing of the kinges liege people biers of the ſame, againſt equitie and good conſcience: Wherefore it is ordained by the king our ſoueraigne lorde, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame that no perſon ſell within this realme at retaile a brode yarde of woollen cloth, of the fineſt making, ſcarlet grained or other cloth grained, what colour ſoeuer it be to anie of the kinges ſubiectes, aboue the price of xvi. s. a brode yarde. And a brode yarde of wollen cloth, of anie other colour out of graine or anie ruſſet of the fineſt, not aboue the price of eleuen ſhillings vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie ſuch yarde ſould to anie of the kings ſubiectes, aboue the ſaide price xl. ſhillings: And of euerie other cloth whatſoeuer it be, that is vnder the ſaide price, a brode yarde to be ſould to the kings ſubiectes after the rate of the goodnes thereof. And he that will ſue for anie ſuch forfeiture, haue an action of debt thereof againſt him that ſo doth forfeite, in which action none eſſoine ne protection be allowable. And the defendaunt not to be admitted to wage his law, the king to haue ye execution of the one halfe thereof, and the partie that ſhall ſue, haue the other halfe. This ordinance to begin & take effecte from the feaſt of ſaint Thomas the apoſtle, in the yeere of our lord God M.CCCC.lxxxix. And the ſame ordinance before the ſame feaſt within the ſaide citie to be proclaimed.

Chap. 9. Hattes & cappes.

Item that where afore this time it hath bene dailie vſed and yet is, that certaine crafteſmen, named hatters and capmakers, doo ſell their hattes and cappes at ſuch an outrageous price, that where an hatte ſtandeth not them in xvi. pence, they will ſell it for three ſhillings, or xl. pence: and alſo a cappe that ſtandeth not them in xvi. pence, they will ſell it for iiii. s. or v. ſhillinges. And becauſe they know well that euerie man muſt occupie them, they will ſell them at none eſier price, to the great charge and damages of the kings ſubiectes, and againſt all good reaſon & conſcience. Wheerefore it is ordained, enacted, and eſtabliſhed, by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, at the requeſt of the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that no hatter nor capper, nor other perſon, ſell nor put to ſale anie hatte to anie of the kings ſubiectes aboue the price of xx. pence the beſte, nor anie cappe aboue the price of ii. s. viii. pence the beſt, at the moſt. And for all hattes and cappes vnder the value, to be ſould at ſuch a price as the buier and ſeller may reaſonablie agree; vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie hatte or cappe otherwiſe ſould, aboue the price aboueſaid xl. s. The one moitie thereof to be to our ſouereigne lorde, and the other moitie to the partie that will ſue and proue the ſaide forfeiture by action or actions of debt, by writte at the common lawe, by bill or pleint after the cuſtome of the citie or towne, where it ſhall fortune ſuch forfeiture to be, in the which like proceſſe, iudgement, and execution ſhall be had, as is vſed in actions, billes, or pleintes of debt ſued after the courſe of the common lawe, or cuſtome of towne or citie aforeſaid. And that the defendaunt in anie ſuch action, billes, or pleintes be not admitted to doo his lawe nor that anie protection or eſſoine be allowed. This ordinance to begin and take effecte from the feaſt of ſaint Thomas the apoſtle, in the yéere of our lorde M. CCCC. lxxxix. And the ſame ordinance before the ſame feaſt within the citie of London to be proclaimed.

Cap. 10.

Item that where great miniſhing and decaie hath bene now of late time of the nauie of this realme of England, and idlenes of the mariners within the ſame, by the which this noble realme within ſhorte proceſſe of time, without reformation be had therein, ſhall not be of abilitie ne of ſtrength and power to defend it ſelfe. Wherefore the king our ſouereigne lord by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the praiers of the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame hath ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, that no maner of perſon of what degrée or condition that he be, conueie or bring into this realme, Ireland, Wales, Caleis, or the marches thereof, or Barwike, from the feaſt of the natiuitie of ſaint Iohn baptiſt, that ſhall be in the yéere of our lorde god M. CCCC. lxxxx. anie maner wines of the growing of the duchie of Guien or Gaſcoine, or woade called Tholouſe woade, but ſuch as ſhall be conueied, auentred, and brought in ſhippe or ſhippes, whereof our ſaid ſouereigne lorde or ſome of his ſubiects of this his realme of England, Ireland, Wales, Caleis, or Barwike, bene owners poſſeſſours and proprietaries. And the maiſter vnder God, and the mariners of the ſame ſhippe or ſhippes Engliſh, Iriſh,, or Walſh, or men of Barwike, or men of Caleis, or of the marches of the ſame, for yͤ more partie, vpon paine to forfeite the ſame wines and woade ſo brought contrarie to this acte, the one halfe thereof to the king, and the other halfe to him or them that ſeaſeth the ſame wine or woade. And alſo hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, by the ſaid auctoritie, that no perſon inhabited within this realme, other than marchantes ſtrangers, from the feaſt of ſaint Iohn, freight ne charge within this realme or Wales anie ſhippe or other veſſell of anie alien or ſtranger, with anie maner marchandiſe, to be caried out of this realme or Wales, or to be brought into the ſame, if he may haue ſufficient freight in ſhippes or veſſels of deniſens of this realme in the ſame porte where he ſhall make his freight, vpon paine to forfeite the ſame marchandiſes, the one halfe thereof to the king our ſouereigne lorde, and the other halfe to him or them which ſeaſeth the ſame marchandiſes. Prouided alway that this acte extend not to anie ſhippe or ſhippes, hauing anie of the ſaide wares or marchandiſes, conſtrained by tempeſt of wether or enimies to arriue in anie porte or place within this realme, ſo that the owners of the ſaid wares and marchandiſes make thereof no ſale within this realme, other then for vitailes, or repairing of the ſame ſhippe to ſhippes, or takeling thereof, which they of neceſſitie be compelled to make.

Drapers.

Item for the increaſe and maintaining of draperie and making of cloth within this land, the king our ſouereigne lorde, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this ſaid preſent parliament aſſembled, & by auctoritie of the ſame, hath ordained, eſtabliſhed, & enacted, that no maner of perſon by himſelfe or by anie other, buie or bargaine from the firſt day of March, that ſhall be in the yéere of our lord God M. CCCC. lxxxix. any wools then vnſhorne, or take promiſe of bargaine of anie woolles then vnſhorne of the growing of Barkeſhire, Oxenfordſhire, Glouceſtreſhire, Herfordſhire, Shropſhire, Worceſtreſhire, Wiltſhire, Somerſetſhire, Dorſetſhire, Hampſhire, Eſſex, Hartfordſhire, Cambridge, Norffolke, Suffolke, Kent, Surreie, & Suſſex, or anie of them afore the feaſt of yͤ Aſſumption of our ladie then next enſuing: or buie or bargaine anie woolles, or take promiſe of bargaine of anie woolles that ſhall growe in anie of the ſame ſhires, in anie yéere or yéeres for to come, after the ſaid feaſt of the Aſſumption of our ladie, anie time before the ſame feaſt of the Aſſumption of our ladie, that ſhall be next after the ſheering of the ſame woolle or woolles, but onelie ſuch perſons as of the ſaid woolles ſhall make or doo for to be made yarne or clothes within this realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of the double value of the wools bought, or to be bargained, or taken by promiſe of bargaine, contrarie vnto this ordinance. Nor that anie marchant ſtranger by him ſelfe, or by anie other perſon, in anie yéere to come, buie anie woolles before the feaſt of the Purification of our ladie next after the clipping or ſheering of the ſame, vpon like paine of forfeiture: The one halfe of ſuch forfeiture to be had vnto the kings vſe, and the other halfe thereof vnto the vſe of him that will ſue the partie that ſo ſhall breake the ſaid ordinance. And that anie perſon that will ſue in that partie, haue an action of debt of the foreſaid forfeiture, and ſuch proceſſe in the ſame action to be had as in an action of debt at the common lawe, or after the cuſtome of the citie, borough, or towne, where it ſhall happe to be ſued. And that no eſſoine ne protection be allowed for the defendaunt in that actiun, nor that the ſaid defendaunt therein be admitted to wage his lawe. It is alſo ordained by the ſaid auctoritie, that no maner perſon being ſworne to be a woolle packer, in anie wiſe, after the ſaid firſt day of March, buie or bargaine anie maner woole for anie ſuch marchant ſtranger within this realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame woolle ſo bought bargained or gadered to the vſe of anie ſuch marchant ſtranger. This ordinance to endure from the ſaid firſt day of March, vnto the ende and terme of ten yéeres then next enſuing.

Iuſtices of peace.

Item the king our ſoueraigne lorde conſidereth, that by the negligence, miſdemeaning, fauour, and other inordinate cauſes of iuſtices of peace in euerie ſhire of this his realme, the lawes and ordinaunces made for the politique weale, peace and good rule of the ſame, and for the profite ſuertie and reſtfull liuing of his ſubiectes of the ſame, be not duelie executed, according to the tenour and effect that they were made and ordeined for: wherefore his ſubiectes bene greeuouſlie hurt, and out of ſuertie of their bodies and goods to his great diſpleaſure, for to him is nothing more ioyous then to know his ſubiects to liue peaceably vnder his lawes, and to increaſe in welth and proſperitie and to auoide ſuch enormities and iniuries ſo that his ſaide ſubiectes may liue reſtfullie vnder his peace and lawes to their increaſe: he will that it be ordeined and enacted by auctoritie of this ſaid parliament that euery iuſtice of peace, within euery ſhire of this his realme, within the ſhire where he is iuſtice of peace, do cauſe openly & ſolemnely to be proclaimed yerely foure times in a yeere, in foure principall ſeſſions, the tenour of this proclamation to this bill annexed: And that euery iuſtice of peace being preſent at any of the ſaid ſeſſions, if they cauſe not the ſaide proclamation for to be made in forme aboueſaid, ſhall forfaite vnto our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde at euerie time xx.s.

Proclamation.

Henricus dei gratia &c. The king our ſoueraigne lorde conſidereth, howe dailie within this realme his coine is traiterouſly counterfaited, murders, robberies felonies bene greeuouſly committed & done, and alſo vnlawfull reteiners, idelnes, vnlawfull plaies, extortions, miſdemeanings of ſhirifes exchetors, and many other enormities & vnlawfull demeanings daily growne more and more within this his realme, to the great diſpleaſure of God, hurt & impoueriſhing of his ſubiects, & to the ſubuertion of the policy & good gouernance of this his realme, for by theſe ſaid enormities and miſcheeues his peace is broken, his ſubiectes troubled inquieted and impoueriſhed, the huſbandrie of this land decaied, whereby the church of England is vpholden, the ſeruice of God continued, euery man thereby hath ſuſtenance, euery inheritour his rent for his lande, for repreſſing and auoiding of the ſaide miſcheefe, ſufficient lawes and ordinances bene made by auctoritie of many and diuers parliamentes, holden within this realme, to the great coſt of the king his lordes and commons of the ſame: And lacketh nothing, but that the ſaid lawes bene not put in due execution, which lawes ought to be put in due execution by the iuſtice of peace in euery ſhire of this realme, to whom his grace hath put & giuen ful auctority ſo to do ſith the beginning of his reigne. And now it is come to his knowledge, that his ſubiectes bee little eaſed of the ſaide miſcheeues by the ſaide iuſtices, but by manie of them rather hurt then helped: And if his ſubiectes complaine to theſe iuſtices of peace of anie wronges done to them, they haue thereby no remedie: And the ſaide miſcheeues doe encreaſe, and not ſubdued: And his grace conſidereth, that a great part of the wealth and proſperitie of this lande ſtandeth in that, that his ſubiectes maie liue in ſuertie vnder his peace in their bodies and goods: And that the huſbandrie of this lande maie encreaſe, and be vpholden which muſt be had by due execution of the ſaid lawes and ordinaunces: Chargeth & commaundeth the iuſtices of the peace of this his ſhire, to endeuour them to doe execute the tenour of their commiſſion, the ſaide lawes and ordinaunces ordeined for ſubduing of the premiſſes as they will ſtande in the loue and fauour of his grace, and in auoiding of the paines that be ordeined if they doe the contrarie. And ouer that hee chargeth and commandeth, that euerie man, what degree or condition that he be of, that let them in worde or deede to execute their ſaide auctoritie in anie maner forme aboue ſaide, that they ſhewe it to his grace. And if they doe it not, and it come to his knowledge by other then by them, they ſhall not bee in his fauour but taken as men out of credence, and be put out of commiſſion for euer, And ouer this he chargeth and commandeth all maner of men, as well the poore as the rich, which be to him all one in due miniſtration of iuſtice, that is hurt or greeued in any thing, that the ſaid iuſtice of peace may heare, determine, or execute in any wiſe, that he ſo greeued make his complaint to the iuſtice of the peace, that next dwelleth vnto him, or to any of his felowes, and deſire a remedie, and if then he haue no remedie, if it be nigh ſuch time as his iuſtices of aſſiſes come in to that ſhire, that then he ſo greeued ſhew his complaint to ÿ ſame iuſtices. And if then he haue remedie, or if the complaint be made long afore the comming of the iuſtices of aſſiſe, then he ſo greeued come to the kings highnes, or to his chauncellor for the time being, & ſhew his greefe, & his ſaid highnes then ſhall ſende for the ſaid iuſtice, to knowe the cauſe why his ſaide ſubiectes be not eaſed, & his lawes executed: whereupon if he find anie of them in defaulte of executing of his lawes in theſe premiſſes, according to this high commaundement, hee ſhall doe to him ſo offending to be put out of the commiſſion: And furthermore to bee puniſhed according to his demerites. And ouer that his ſaide highneſſe ſhall not let for any fauour, affection, coſt, charge, nor none other cauſe, but that he ſhall ſee his lawes to haue plaine and true execution, and his ſubiects to liue in ſuertie of their lands, bodies and goods, according to his ſaide lawes, and the ſaide miſcheeues to be auoided, that his ſubiectes may increaſe in wealth and proſperitie to the pleaſure of God.

Priuiledge of clergie.

Item where as vpon truſt of priuiledge of the church, diuers perſons haue bene the more bolde to commit murder, rape, robery, theft, and all other miſcheeuous deeds, becauſe they haue bene continually admitted to the benefice of the clergie, as oft as they did offende in any of the premiſſes: In auoiding of ſuch preſumptuous boldnes, It is enactd, ordeined, and ſtabliſhed, by the auctoritie of this preſent parliament, that euery perſon, not being within orders, which once hath bee admitted to the benefice of his clergie, eft ſones arained of any ſuch offence, be not admitted to haue the benefice oꝛ pꝛiuiledge of the clergie. And that euerie perſon ſo conuicted foꝛ murder, to bee marked with an M. vpon the brawne of the left thumbe. And if he be foꝛ anie other felonie, the ſame perſon to be marked with a T. in the ſame place of the thumbe, and theſe markes to be made by the gailer openly in the court befoꝛe the iudge, er that ſuch perſon be deliuered to the oꝛdinarie. Pꝛouided alway if any perſon at the ſecond time of aſking his clergie, becauſe he is within oꝛders, hath not there redie his letters of his oꝛders, oꝛ a certificate of his oꝛdinarie, witneſſing the ſame: that then the iuſtices, afoꝛe whom he is ſo arrained, ſhal giue him a day by their diſcretion to bꝛing in his ſaid letters oꝛ certificat: and if he faile, and bꝛing not in at ſuch a day his ſaid letters, noꝛ certificat: then the ſame perſon to loſe the benefice of his clergie, as he ſhall do that is without oꝛders.

Maioꝛ of London.

Thamiſe.

Item where the maioꝛ of the citie of London, foꝛ the time being, is conſeruatour, hauing the conſeruation of the water and riuer of Thames, from the bꝛidge of Stanes vnto the waters of Pendale and Medeway: It is ſo that within fewe yeeres, by tempeſt of weather and great abundance of waters in the ſaide riuer of Thamiſe, diuerſe bꝛeaches iſſues and creekes, haue bene and growen out of the ſaid riuer of Thamiſe, and by the ſame diuers paſtours medowes & grounds of diuers perſons bene dꝛowned and ouerflowen: In which bꝛeaches iſſues and creekes, and grounde dꝛowned, the frie and bꝛood of fiſh foꝛ the moſt part reſteth, and in the ſame place the ſayde frie and bꝛoode in great multitude dailie is taken by the ſayde fiſhers there, with vnlawfull engins and nettes foꝛ baite of yeles and coddes, and alſo foꝛ the feeding of their hogges, to the vtter deſtruction of the ſayde frie and bꝛoode, without a remedie the rather be pꝛouided. The king our ſayde ſoueraigne loꝛde by the aduiſe of the loꝛdes ſpirituall and tempoꝛall, and at the pꝛaiers of the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by auctoꝛitie of the ſame, hath oꝛdeined, ſtabliſhed, and enacted, that the maioꝛ of London, and his ſucceſſoꝛs maioꝛs foꝛ the time being, haue the conſeruation & rule, and like auctoꝛitie in euery of the ſaid bꝛeaches, iſſues, and creekes, and ground ſo dꝛowned and ouerflowen, as farre as the water ebbeth and floweth, as touching the punition foꝛ vſing of vnlawful nets and other vnlawfull ingins in fiſhing, like as he and his pꝛedeceſſoꝛs haue oꝛ hath in the ſame water and riuer of Thamiſe, within the boundes afoꝛe rehearſed: And to doe all other like coꝛrection and puniſhment there concerning the refoꝛmation and redꝛeſſe of vnlawfull nettes and engins, as hee and his pꝛedeceſſoꝛs haue vſed and ought to vſe in the ſayde riuer of Thamiſe. Pꝛouided alwaie, that the maioꝛ of London, oꝛ his ſucceſſoꝛs maioꝛs foꝛ the time being, haue not yͤ conſeruation noꝛ rule ne auctoꝛitie in anie of yͤ ſayd bꝛeaches, iſſues, creekes & grounds ſo dꝛowned and ouerflowen within the kinges grounde, oꝛ being within anie fraunchiſes of anie perſon oꝛ perſons ſpirituall and tempoꝛall, as touching the punition foꝛ vſing of vnlawfull nets and other vnlawfull enginnes in fiſhing, noꝛ to do anie coꝛrection oꝛ puniſhment there, concerning the refoꝛmation and redꝛeſſe of vnlawfull nets and engins, as the ſaide maioꝛ and his ſucceſſoꝛs haue vſed and ought to vſe in the ſaide riuer of Thamiſe.

Ile of Wight.

Item foꝛ as much as it is to the king our ſoueraigne loꝛde great ſuertie, and alſo to the ſuertie of this realme of Englande, that the ile of Wight in the countie of Suffolke bee well inhabited with Engliſh people, foꝛ the defence as well of his auncient enimies of the realme of Fraunce, as of other parties, the which ile is latelie decaied of people, by reaſon that manie townes and villages bene beaten downe, and the fieldes diched and made paſtures foꝛ beaſtes and cattalles: and alſo manie dwelling places, fermes, and fermeholdes, haue of late time bene vſed to bee taken in one mans holde and handes, that of oldetime were woont to bee in manie ſeuerall perſons holdes and handes, and manie ſeuerall houſholdes kept in them, and thereby much people multipliec, and the ſame ile thereby well inhabited, the which nowe by the occaſion afoꝛeſaide is deſolate, and not inhabited, but occupied with beaſtes and cattalles, ſo that if haſtie remedie bee not pꝛouided, that ile can not bee kept and defended, but open and readie to the handes of the kinges enimies, which God foꝛbid. Foꝛ remedie whereof, it is oꝛdeined enacted, and ſtabliſhed, by the aſſent of the loꝛdes ſpirituall and tempoꝛall, and the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled and by auctoꝛitie of the ſame, that from hence foꝛth no maner of perſon, of what eſtate degree oꝛ condition he is, oꝛ ſhall be, take any ſeuerall fermes, moe then one of anie maners, landes, and tenemenntes perſonages, oꝛ tithes, within the ſayde ile, whereof the ferme of them all together ſhall excéede the ſumme of tenne marke yéerely. And if any ſeuerall leaſes afore this time haue bene made to any perſon or perſons of diuerſe ſundrie ferme holdes, vnto the yeerelie value of tenne marke: then the perſon or perſons, that nowe holde the ſame, to choſe one or mo of the ſayde ferme holdes at his pleaſure, ſo that the ferme of them alſo choſon be not aboue the yeerelie value of tenne marke, to holde after the forme of his leaſe, and the remnaunt from the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell, which ſhall bee in the yeere of our lorde M.CCCC.lxxxx. to ceaſe and be vtterlie voide: and the occupier and fermer of them from thence be diſcharged againſt his leſſour of rent reſerued vpon the ſaine leaſſes. And if anie perſon doe hereafter the contrarie of this act: that then the leſſee in that behalfe forfaite to the king for euerie ſuch taking x.li. Prouided alwaies that they, which haue paied anie fines, or made anie building, or done great reparation vpon anie ſuch ferme, and be put from the ſaide ferme by reaſon of this act, ſhall be recompenced for ſuch building or reparation, as right and good conſcience require, that recompence to be adiudged by the diſcretion of the captaine of the ſaid ile for the time being, or his lieutenaunt of the ſame in his abſence.

Chap.17 Wardes. Item where by an eſtatute made at Marlebridge, it was ordeined, that when tenantes made feoffementes in fraude to make the lordes of the fee to leeſe their wardes, the lordes ſhoulde haue writs to recouer their wardes againſt ſuch feoffes, as in the ſaide eſtatute among other thinges appeareth more plainelie at large: Sith the making of which eſtatute manie imaginations haue bene had, and yet bene vſed, as well by feoffementes, fines, and recoueries, as otherwiſe, to put lordes from their wardes of landes holden of them by knightes ſeruice: It is therefore ordeined, ſtabliſhed, and enacted by auctoritie of the ſaid preſent parliament, that the ſaide eſtatute of Marlebourgh be obſerued and kept in all maner of thinges, after the forme and effect thereof. And ouer that it is ordeined and enacted, by the ſaide auctoritie, that if anie perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree, or condition he or they be of, or hereafter ſhall be, ſeaſed in demeane or in reuertion of eſtate, of inheritance, being tenaunt immediate to the lordes of anie caſtell, manours, landes and tenementes, or other hereditamentes, holden by knights ſeruice in his or their demeane as of fee, to the vſe of anie other perſon or perſons, and of his heires onlie, he to whoſe vſe he or they be ſo ſeiſed dieth, his heire being within age, no will by him declared nor made in his life touching the premiſſes or anie of them: the lorde of whom ſuch caſtelles, manors, landes, tenementes, and hereditamentes bene holden immediatlie, ſhall haue a writ of right of warde, as well for the bodie as for the land, as the lorde ſhoulde haue had, if the ſame aunceſter had be in poſſeſſion of that eſtate ſo being in vſe at the time of his death, and no ſuch ſtate to his vſe made. And if anie ſuch heire be of full age at the death of his aunceſter to paie a releeſe, as his aunceſter, whoſe heire he is, had beene in poſſeſſion of that eſtate ſo beeing in vſe at time of his death, and no ſuch eſtate to his vſe made or had. It is alſo ſtabliſhed and enacted, by the ſaid auctoritie, that ſuch heire or heires, ſo being in ward, ſhall haue like action of waſte againſt the ſaide lordes. or againſt them in whoſe warde they ſo be, as they or anie of them ſhoulde haue had, and recouer ſuch damages and ſuch penalties to be to the ſaid lord & gardeins as ſhould haue bene if their aunceſter had died thereof ſeiſed. And ouer if any ſuch lord bring anie ſuch writ of right of ward againſt ſuch perſon or perſons, & be barred in the ſame: that then the ſame defendaunt or defendauntes, ſhall recouer damages againſt the ſaid plaintifes for their wrongfull vexation in the ſame. Prouided alwaies that this act begin to take effect of the heires of them that ſhall die after the feaſt of Eaſter that ſhall be in the yeere of our lorde M.CCCC.lxxxx.

Chap.18 Coine counterfaited. Item for as much as by the kinges ſufferaunce, diuerſe coine of golde and ſiluer, which be not of the kinges proper coine of Englande, be currant in paiment within this realme, diuerſe and manie euill diſpoſed perſons, perceiuing that the forging and counterfaiting of ſuch coynes is neither fellonie nor treaſon, preſume and take vpon them for their ſinguler auaile and profite, to counterfaite and forge ſuch coines, to the great hurt and preiudice as well of the king our ſoueréigne lorde, as to the hurt of all the kinges ſubiectes. It is therefore ordeined and ſtabliſhed, by auctoritie of the ſaide parliament, that the counterfaiting and forging of euerie ſuch coine, bee adiudged treaſon, as it is of the counterfaiting of the proper coine of the king of this realme. Treaſon.

Chap.19 Houſes of husbandry. Item the king our ſoueraigne lorde, hauing a ſingular pleaſure aboue all thing to auoyde ſuch enormities and miſcheeues, as bene hurtfull and preiudiciall to the common weale of this his land & his ſubiects of the ſame, remembreth that among all other thinges great inconueniences dailie do encreaſe by deſolation and pulling downe, and wilfull waſte of houſes and townes within this realme, and lieng to paſture landes, which cuſtomablie haue bene vſed in tilthe, whereby idelneſſe, which is ground & beginning of all miſcheeues, daily doth encreaſe. For where in ſome townes two hundred perſons were occupied and liued by their lawfull labours, nowe beene there occupied two or three heardmen, and the reſidue fall in idelneſſe, the husbandrie which is one of the greateſt commodities of this realme is greatlie decaied, churches deſtroied, the ſeruice of God withdrawen, the bodies there buried not praied for, the patrons and curates wronged, the defence of this lande againſt our enimies outwarde, febled and empeired, to the great diſpleaſure of God, to the ſuburſion of the policie and good rule of this lande, if remedie bee not puruieid: Wherefore the king our ſoueraigne lorde, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this ſaide parliament aſſembled, & by auctoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined, enacted and ſtabliſhed, that no perſon, of what eſtate degree or condition that he be, that hath any houſe Tillage.

or houſes, that at any time within iii. yeeres paſſed, hath bene or that now is, or that hereafter ſhall be letten for ferme with xx. acres of land at leaſt, or more, lieng in tillage and huſbandrie, that the owner and owners of euerie ſuch houſe or houſes and land, to keepe ſuſteine and mainteine houſes and buildings vpon the ſaide ground, and land conuenient and neceſſarie for mainteining and vpholding of the ſaide tillage and huſbandrie. And if anie ſuch owner or owners of anie ſuch houſe or houſes and land, take land and occupie anie ſuch houſe or houſes, and keepe in his or their owne handes, that the ſaide owner or owners by the ſaide auctoritie be bounde in like wiſe to keepe and mainteine houſes and buildinges vpon the ſaide ground and lande conuenient and neceſſarie for the mainteining and vpholding of the ſaid tillage and huſbandrie. And if anie man doe contrarie to the premiſſes or anie of them, that then it be lawfull to the king, if anie ſuch landes or houſes be holden of him immediatelie, or to the lordes of the fees, if anie. ſuch landes bene holden of them immediatelie, to receiue yeerelie halfe the value of the iſſues and profites of anie ſuch landes, whereof the houſe or houſes bene not ſo mainteined and ſuſteined. And the ſame halfe deale of the iſſues and profites to haue, holde & keepe to his or their owne vſe, without anie thing therefore to be paied or giuen, to ſuch time as the ſame houſe or houſes be ſufficientlie builded or repaired againe. And that no maner of freeholde be in the king, ne in anie ſuch lorde or lordes, by the taking of anie ſuch profites, of or in anie ſuch landes in no maner of forme: but onelie the king and the ſaid lorde or lordes, haue power to take, receiue, and haue the ſaide iſſues and profites, as is aboue ſaide, and therefore the king or the ſaide lord or lordes to haue power to diſtraine for the ſame iſſues and profites to bee had and perceiued by them, in forme aboue ſayde, by auctoritie of this preſent act.

Chap.20 Actions populer.

Item that where actions populers in diuerſe cauſes haue bene ordeined by manie good actes and ſtatutes afore this time made, for the reformation of extortions, maintenaunce, oppreſſions, iniuries, exactions, and wronges, vſed and committed within this realme, which actions bene verie penall to all miſdoers & offenders in ſuch actions condemned, and much profitable as well to the king, as to euerie of his ſubiectes, that them will ſue and mainteine, if the ſame actions ſo ſued and commenced might be truelie purſued without couin or colluſion: But nowe is ſo commonlie vſed within this realme, that if anie ſuch offendors, offending in cauſes where anie of the ſayde actions lie, then the ſaide miſdoers or offenders, in eſchewing to leeſe the ſaide penalties, will cauſe an action populer to bee commenced againſt them by couine of the plaintife vpon that caſe, wherein they haue ſo offended, or elſe if anie ſuch action populer bee commenced againſt anie ſuch ſayde offender by good faith, then the ſame offender will delaie the ſaide action, either by non appearaunce, or by trauerſe, and hanging the ſame action, the ſame offender will cauſe like action populer to be brought againſt him by couin for the ſame cauſe and offence, that the firſt action was ſued. And then by couin of the plaintife in that ſecond action, he will be condemned, either by confeſſion, feined triall, or releaſe, which condemnation or releaſe ſo had by colluſion and couin pleaded by the ſaide offender, ſhall barre the plaintife in the action ſued in good faith, and by theſe ſubtill meanes of colluſion and couin the ſaide good actes and ſtatutes full ſeldome bene executed againſt ſuch offenders, which cauſeth them to bee bolder to offende the king, as well in breaking of the ſaide ſtatutes, lawes, and peace, as in robbing, murdering, exactions taking, quarels mainteining, and the kinges poore ſubiectes by extortion and manie other vnlawfull meanes oppreſſing. Therefore the king our ſoueraigne lorde, in reforming of the premiſſes, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons in this ſaide preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined, ſtabliſhed and enacted, that if anie perſon or perſons hereafter ſue with good faith anie action populer, and the defendaunt or defendauntes in the ſame action pleade anie maner of recouerie of action populer in barre of the ſaide action: or elſe that the ſame defendaunt or defendauntes pleade, that hee or they before that time barred anie ſuch plaintife or plaintifes in anie ſuch action populer that then the plaintife of plaintifes in the action taken with good faith, maie auerre, that the ſaide recouerie in the ſaide action populer, was had by couin, or elſe to auerre, that the ſaide plaintife or plaintifes was or were barred in the ſaide action populer by couin, that then if afterwarde the ſaide colluſion or couin ſo auerred, be lawfullie founden, the plaintife or plaintifes in that action ſued with good faith, ſhall haue recouerie according to the nature of the action, and execution vpon the ſame, in likewiſe and effect as though no ſuch afore had bee had. And ouer that it is enacted and ordeined, by the auctoritie afore ſaide, that in euerie ſuch action populer, wherein the defendaunt or defendaunts ſhall be lawfullie condemned or attainted of couin or colluſion, as is aforeſaide, that euerie of the ſame defendauntes haue impriſonment of two yeeres by proceſſe of Capias and Vtlagarie, to bee ſued within the yeere after ſuch iudgement had, or at anie time after, till the ſaide defendaunt or defendauntes be had and impriſoned, as is aforeſaide and that as well at the kinges ſuite, as of euerie other that will ſue in that behalfe. And that no releaſe of anie common perſon hereafter to bee made to anie ſuch partie, whether before or after anie action populer or enditement of the ſame had or commenced or made, hanging the ſame action, bee in anie wiſe auailable or effectuall to let or to ſurceaſe the ſaide action, enditement, proceſſe, or execution. Prouided alway that no plaintife or plaintifes be in anie wiſe receiued to auerre any couin in any action populer, where the point of the ſame action, or elſe that couin or colluſion haue bene once tried or lawfully founde with the plaintife or plaintifes, or againſt them, by triall of xii. men, and not other wiſe.

Cap. 21. Frye of fiſh.

Item where diuerſe ſtatutes and ordinances, for ſauing and kéeping of frye and broode of fiſh in freſh riuers of this realme before this time haue béene made and ordeined, but for ſauing & kéeping of frye & broode of fiſh reſorting out of the ſea & ſalt waters, into hauens & créekes within the ſaid realme, any ordinance generall hath not béene purueyed ne made, howbeit, it were full requiſite & profitable to all the commons of this realme & ſpecially to the kinges ſubiectes & inhabitants nigh and ioyning to the Maſſe and hauen of Orford in the countie of Suff. within which Maſſe & hauen there is yéerely great multitude of ſpawne & broode of all maner fiſhes of the ſea, & there would largely encreaſe & multiply, if they might there conuenient time be ſuffered to abide. But now it is ſo, that in late daies, in taking of a few great fiſhes, certeine perſons for a ſinguler couetiſe & lucre, haue vſed to ſet & ordeine certaine botes, called ſtalbotes, faſtened with ancres, hauing with them ſuch maner vnreaſonable nettes & engins, that all maner frie & broode of fiſh, in the ſaid hauen multiplyed, is taken & deſtroyed, as well great fiſhes vnſeaſonable, as the ſaid frie & broode to number innumerable, with the which frie and broode the ſaid perſons with part thereof féede their hogs, & the reſidue they put & lay in great pittes in the ground, which els woulde turne to ſuch perillous infection of the ayre, that no perſon thither reſorting, ſhould it abide or ſuffer: to the great hurt of the kings liege people within this realm, & ſpecially to the kings ſubiects & inhabitants within the ſhire of Norff. & Suff. and alſo cauſeth great ſcarſitie of fiſh in thoſe countreys, where afore this time was wont to be great plentie: Wherefore ẏ king our ſaid ſoueraigne lord of his noble grace, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporal, & at the prayer of the ſaid commons, in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, & by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined, eſtabliſhed, & enacted, that all ſuch ſtalebotes, nettes, & engins aforeſaid, from the firſt day of Aprill, that ſhall be in the yéere of our lord God M.cccc.lxxxx. be not occupyed nor vſed for the deſtroying or taking of anie frie or bréede of fiſh, within the hauen aforeſaid, vpon paine of forfeiture of x. li. at euery time that anie perſon ſhall happen to do contrary to this ordinance. The one halfe thereof to be to the king, & the other halfe to him that ſhall happen to find the ſame forfeiture, and ſhew the ſame by information into the kings eſcheker. And ouer that it is ordeined, by the authoritie aforeſaide, that Iuſtices of peace of the ſhires of Norff. and Suff. for the time being, haue authoritie & power to enquire in their ſeuerall ſeſſions, of all the botes, nettes and engins, vſed or occupyed contrary to this ordinance aforeſaid, and the offenders therein before them preſented to puniſh, as by their diſcretion ſhall be thought lawfull and reaſonable. This act and ordinance to endure vnto the beginning of the next parliament.

Cap. 22. Brouderers. Venice gold.

Item in the ſaid parliament it was ſhewed vnto the king our ſoueraigne lorde, by the wardeine and fellowſhip of brouderers in the citie of London, & of euery other citie towne & place of this realme, that where through miniſhing of the weight of Venice, Florence, & Ieane gold, & the vntrue packing thereof, as well the ſaid brouderers as other the kings ſubiectes, buyers of browdred workes within this realme, ſuſteine and beare great loſſe hinderance and diſauantage. For where in times paſt the pound weight of gold of anie of the ſaid countreys, of Venice, Florence, or Ieane, was wont to kéepe the full weight of xii. vnces, & then commonly ſold at xxxiii. ſhillings iiii. d. or there about, the gold packed, which they now ſell for a pound weight, weyeth not aboue ſeuen vnces, and ſold for thrée pound ſterling the packe. And alſo the bringers into this realme of the ſaid gold, ſo deceiuably and vntruely packen the ſaide golde, that the thréede and colour vnder the firſt ſhewe, is greater and courſer, than is ſhewed in ſight, and not according to the outward ſhew to the vtter impoueriſhing of the ſaid brouderers, and alſo great charge & diſauantage of the buyers of broudred worke, as is aforeſaid. Wherefore the king our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that no perſon of what degrée or condition he be, from the feaſt of Eaſter, that ſhall be in the yéere of our lord God M.cccc.lxxxx. bring & put to ſale within the ſaid realme, anie gold of Venice, Florence, or Ieane, as for a pound weight, but if the ſame gold ſo put or offred to ſale for a pound weight, conteine in the weight fully xii. vnces. And alſo that the ſame gold ſo packed, be in greatnes of thréede & colour wrought according to the outward ſhewe thereof, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſaid gold, ſold or put to ſale for a pound weight not weying fully xii. vnces, or not wrought in greatnes of thréede & in colour according to the outward ſhewe, or els the value thereof: The one halfe of the ſaid forfeiture to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other halfe to him or them of his ſubiectes, that ſhal ſeaſe and proue the ſame forfeitures by actions of dette at the common law, or by bil or plaint after the cuſtome of the citie or towne, where ſhall fortune anie ſuch forfeitures to fall and be; in which actions the defendant ſhall not be admitted to do his law, nor anie eſſoine ne protection ſhall be for ſuch defendant allowed. Prouided that this act, afore the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter, within the citie of London be proclaimed. This act and ordinance to endure vnto the beginning of the next parliament.

Cap. 23. Money. Plate. Bullion. Iewels. caried ouer ſea.

Item where in a parliament begon and holden at Weſtminſter the xvi. daie of Ianuarie, the xvii. yere of king Edward the iiii. among other it was ordeined by autoritie of ẏ ſame parliament ẏ no perſon ſhould carie ne make to be caried out of this realm or Wales, from no part to ẏ ſame any maner of money of the coine of this realme, nor money of ẏ coine of other realmes, lands, or lordſhips, nor plate, veſſel, maſſe, bullion nor iewels of gold garniſhed or vngarniſhed, or of ſiluer without the kings licence, but ſuch perſons as béene diſpenſed within the ſtatute made in the ſecond yere of the reigne of ẏ kings bleſſed vncle king Henry the fourth, & in other diuers ſtatutes made vpon peine of felonie, and to be deemed and reputed as a felon, the ſame felonie to be harde and determined in like maner and forme, and afore ſuch perſons as other felonies vſually were herde, and determined within this realme, as in the ſaide ſtatute more plainly doeth appeare, the which ſtatute and ordinance was made to endure from the feaſt of Eaſter, in the xviii. yeere of the reigne of the ſaid king Edward the fourth, vnto the end of ſeuen yeres then next enſuing: ſithen the which ſeuen yeres expyred, the golde and ſiluer of the coyne of this realme hath and daily is & beene caried and conueied into Flaunders, Normandie, Britaine, Ireland & other parties beyond the ſea, as well by marchants ſtrangers as by denizens, to the great inpoueriſhing, of this realme, and greater is like to be, without remedie therefore haſtily be prouided. The king our ſaide ſoueraigne lord, the premiſſes conſidered, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the prayers of the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined, enacted, and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid xvii. yeere of king Edwarde the fourth be and ſtande a ſtatute good and effectuall with all the premiſſes in the ſame, and be obſerued, kept and put in due execution, from the feaſt of the Purification of our lady, that ſhall be in the yeere of our lorde M. CCCC. lxxxix. and to endure vnto the ende of xx. yeere next ſuing. And ouer that by the ſame authoritie it is ordeined and enacted, that no perſon dwelling or inhabiting within this realme, from the ſaid feaſt of the Purification, pay or deliuer wittingly by way of exchange, or otherwiſe, to anie marchant or other perſon borne out of the kings obeyſance, for anie marchandiſes or wares, or anie otherwiſe anie maner peeces of golde coyned in this realme, or any other realme, or anie plate veſſels, maſſe, bullion, ne iewell of gold wrought or vnwrought, vpon peine to forfeit and leeſe the double ſumme, or the double value of all ſuch money of golde coyned plate or veſſel, maſſe, bullion or iewel of gold or ſiluer, payed, deliuered, or eſchanged, contrarie to this act, the one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to be to the king our ſoueraigne lorde, and the other halfe to anie of his ſubiectes that will ſeaſe it or ſue for anie ſuch payment deliuerance or eſchange made or to be made contrary to this act, and that it be lawfull to the kings ſubiects in this cauſe to ſue for the ſaid forfeiture by action of Det by writ at the common law, by bill or pleint after the cuſtome of the citie, port, or towne where it ſhall happen any forfeiture to fall and be, or by information to be made in the kings eſcheker. And that no protection nor eſſoine be allowable in anie ſuch action or information.

Felonie

Cap. 24.

Fines leuied.

Item where it was ordeined in the time of king Edward the firſt, by the ſtatute De finibus, that notes & fines to be leuied in the kings court afore his Juſtices, ſhould be openly & ſolemnely redde. And that plees in the meane time ſhoulde ceaſe. And this to be done by two dayes in the weeke, after the diſcretion of the Juſtices, as in the ſaid ſtatute more plainly appeareth. The king our ſoueraigne lord conſidereth that fines ought to be of the greateſt ſtrength to auoide ſtrifes and debates and to the finall ende and concluſion, and of ſuch effect were taken afore a ſtatute made of non claime, and now is vſed the contrarie, to the vniuerſall trouble of the kings ſubiects, will therefore it be ordeined, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that after the ingroſſing of euery fine to be leuied, after the feaſt of Eaſter, that ſhall be in the yeere of our lorde M. cccc. lxxxx. in the kings court, afore his Juſtices of the common place, of anie lands, tenements or anie other hereditaments, the ſame fins be openly and ſolemnely read & proclaimed in the ſame court the ſame terme, and in three termes then next following the ſame ingroſſing in the ſame court, at foure ſeuerall daies in euery terme: And in the ſame time that it is ſo read and proclaimed, all plees to ceaſe, and the ſaide proclamations ſo had and made, the fine to bee finall ende and conclude as well priueys as eſtraungers to the ſame, except women couert other than beene parties to the ſaide fine, and euery perſon then being within age of xxi. yeeres in priſon or out of this realme or not of whole minde, at the time of the ſaide fine leuied not parties to ſuch fine. And ſauing to euerie perſon or perſons, and to their heires, other than the parties in the ſaid fine, ſuch right, claime and intereſt, as they haue to or in the ſaid lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, time of ſuch fine ingroſſed. So that they purſue their title, claime or intereſt by waie of action or lawfull entre within fiue yeeres next after the ſaide proclamations had and made. And alſo ſauing to all other perſons ſuch action, right, title, claime and intereſt, in or to the ſaide landes, tenementes, or other hereditamentes, as firſt ſhall growe, remaine, or diſcende or come them after the ſaid fine ingroſſed and proclamation made, by force of anie gift in the taile, or by anie other cauſe or matter had and made before the ſaide fine leuied, ſo that they take their action, or purſue their ſaid right and title according to the lawe, within v. yeres next after ſuch action, right, claime, title, or intereſt to them accrued, deſcended, fallen or come, and that the ſaide perſons and their heires may haue their ſaid action againſt the parnour of the profits of the ſaid lands and tenements and other hereditaments time of the ſaid action to be taken, & if the ſame perſons at time of ſuch action, right and title accrued, deſcended, remained, or come vnto them be couert de baron, or within age, in priſon, or out of this land, or not of whole minde: That then it is ordeined by the ſaide authority, that their action, right and title to be reſerued and ſaued to them and to their heires vnto the time they come and be at their full age of xxi. yeeres, out of priſon, within this land, vncouert, and of whole minde, ſo that they or their heires take their ſaid actions or their lawfull entre according to their right and title, within fiue yeeres next after that they come and be at their full age, out of priſon, within this land, vncouert and of whole minde. And the ſame actions purſue, or other lawfull entre take, according to the lawe. And alſo it is ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaide, that all ſuch perſons as be couert de baron, not partie to the fine, and euery perſon being within age of xxi. yeeres, in priſon or out of this lande, or not of whole minde at time of the ſaide fines leuied and engroſſed, and by this ſaide act afore except, hauing anie right or title or cauſe of action to anie of the ſaide landes and other hereditamentes, that they or their heires inheritable to the ſame take their ſaide actions or lawfull entre according to their right and title, within v. yeeres, next after they come and be of age of xxi. yeeres, out of priſon, vncouert, within this lande, and of whole mind, and the ſame actions ſue, or their lawfull entre take and purſue according to the law. And if they doe and take not their actions and entre as is aforeſaide, that they and euery of them and their heires, and the heires of euerie of them be concluded, by the ſaide fines for euer, in like forme as they beene that beene parties or priuies to the ſaide fines. Sauing to euery perſon or perſons, not partie nor priuie to the ſaide fine, their exception to auoyde the ſame fine, by that that thoſe that were parties to the fine, nor anie of them, nor no perſon, nor perſons to their vſe, ne to the vſe anie of them, had nothing in the landes and tenementes compriſed in the ſaide fine at the time of the ſaide fine leuied. And it is ordeined by the ſaide authoritie, that euery fine that hereafter ſhall be leuied in anie of the kings courtes, of any manner landes, tenements and other poſſeſſions, after the manner vſe and forme, that fines haue beene leuied afore the making of this act, be of like force, effect and authoritie, as fines ſo leuyed be or were afore the making of this act, this act or anie other act in this ſaide parliament made or to be made, notwithſtanding. And euery perſon be at his libertie, to leuye anie fine hereafter, after his pleaſure, whether he will after the forme conteined: and ordeined in and by this act, or after the manner and forme afore time vſed.

The fourth parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the vii, yeere of the reigne of King Henrie the ſeuenth.

Cap. 1.

FOr as much as it is notoriouſly knowen, that the king to his great coſtes and charges hath ſent his ambaſſadors to Charles his aduerſarie of Fraunce, to haue had a conuenient peace with him, and to haue his right without effuſion of chriſtian bloud, which was refuſed: Wherefore the king, by the grace of God, in whoſe handes and diſpoſition reſteth all victorie, hath determined himſelſe to paſſe ouer the ſea, into his realme of Fraunce, and reduce the poſſeſſion thereof by the ſaide grace to him and to his heires kings of Englande, according to his rightfull title, whereby he truſteth not onely to bring this his realme to the auncient fame & honour, but alſo to enrich and ſet in perfit peace and tranquillitie, his ſubiectes of the ſame, truſting that thereby the more parte of all chriſtian realmes ſhall be in the more perfit peace and tranquillitie, and the better diſpoſed to ſerue God, which cannot be done by all likelyhode without battaile, as well on the ſea as in other places beyonde the ſea, wherein almightie God muſt be iudge, in whoſe defence mercie and goodnes the king putteth his full truſt aboue all other things, howbeit manie times by the inordinate couetiſe of capitaines, reteined with princes afore this time, great parte of number of ſouldiers, for whome ſuch capitaines haue endented with princes at time of neede, haue lacked of their number of ſouldiers, whereby great ieopardies hath enſued, and irrecuperable dammages there may enſue, if remedie be not therefore foreſéene and had: Be it therefore ordeined, by the authoritie of this preſent parliament, that if anie Capitaine bee retayned, or hereafter ſhall be, to ſerue the king on the ſea, or beyonde the ſea, in feate of warre, which hath not his or their whole and perfite number of men and ſouldiers, according as he ſhall be retayned with the king, or giue not them their full wages without ſhorting, as he ſhall receiue of the king for them, except for iakettes, for them that receiue lande wages, that is for to ſaye, ſixe ſhillings and eight pence, for a yeman, and xiii. ſhillinges foure pence, for a gentilman for a whole yeere, hee ſhall for ſuch defaulte forfeit to the king all his goods and cattals, and their bodies to priſon. And that euery Capitaine, peticapitaine, and all other hauing vnder them retinue of anie ſouldier or ſouldiers at the kinges wages, ſhall vpon the peine aforeſaide, paye to their retinue of ſouldier, or ſouldiers, and euery of the ſame, the wages ratably as is allowed vnto them by the king our ſoueraigne lorde, or the treaſurer of his warres, without leſſing or withdrawing of anie parte thereof: And for as long time as they ſhall receiue wages for them, this payment vnto the ſaide retinues and euery ſouldier of the ſame, of their capitaines and petie capitaines allwayes within ſixe dayes next and immediatly after that the ſaide capitaine petie capitaine or other ſhall haue receiued their wages of the king or of the Treaſurer of his warres, or of their lordes or maiſters. And if anie ſouldier being no capitaine, immediatly retained with the king, which hereafter ſhall be in wages and retained, or take anie preſt to ſerue the king vppon the ſea, or vppon the lande beyonde the ſea, departe out of the kinges ſeruice without licence of his Capitaine, that ſuch departinge be taken, deemed, and adiudged felonie. And that he ſo offending, ſuffer for the ſaide offence puniſhment and execution of felonie. And for as much as his offence ſtretcheth to the hurt & ieopardie of the king our ſoueraigne lord, the nobles of the realme, and of all the common weale thereof, that therefore he or they ſo offending, enioy not the benefice of his clergie. And that it be ordeined by the ſaide authoritie, that all the iuſtices in euery ſhire of Englande, where as anie ſuch offenders be taken, haue power to enquire of the ſaid offences, & the ſame to heare & determin as they do & may do of felony treſpaſſes

& other offences expreſſed in the kings commiſſion to them made, as though yͤ ſaid offences were done in the ſame ſhire. And alſo that the ſaid departing of ſuch ſouldiers, and alſo their reteiners, if it be trauerſed, be tryed in the ſame ſhire, where they be for ſuch cauſe arreſted and arained. Prouided alway that no maner of capitaine be charged by this act for lacke of his number retayned, as is aboueſaid, whoſe ſouldiers ſhall hap to dye or otherwiſe depart, not in the default of the capitaine, ſo that the ſaid capitaine, if he be at land wages, ſhewe the departing or lacking of his ſouldiour within x. dayes after the lacking of the ſaid ſouldier, vnto the treaſurer of the warres: or if the captaine be at ſea wages, if he ſhewe the departing or lacking of the ſaid ſouldiour ſo lacking to the Admirall of the nauie where he is retained, at next méeting with the ſaid Admirall.

Chap.2. Where by the grace of almightie God, the king our ſoueraigne lord entendeth in his royall perſon to take his voyage royall into the realme of Fraunce againſt his auncient enemies of the ſame realme, accompanyed in the ſame voyage with great multitude of the honourable actiſe perſons and true ſubiectes of this his realme of England, as well for the defence of his moſt noble perſon, as for the defence of them ſelfe, and of the inhabitants within this his ſaide realme of England, to the high laude, fame, and praiſe of the king our ſoueraigne lord, and of all thoſe which ſhall accompany him in the ſaid voyage either by ſea, or by lande: Wherefore the king our ſoueraigne lorde, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of this preſent parliament aſſembled, and the authoritie of the ſame, enacteth, ordeineth, and eſtabliſheth, that euery perſon, of what condition or degrée that he be of, being or hereafter ſhall be in our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the kings wages beyond the ſea, or on the ſea, at his pleaſure haue the Protectiõ protection of profectur. or moratur. cum clauſa volumus. And that the ſaid protection be allowed in all the kings courtes, and other courtes, where the ſaid protections ſhall be pleaded or layde for anie of the ſaid perſons, in all pl\u00e9es, pl\u00e9es of dower in the writ of dower, Vnde nihil habet; quare impedit, and aſſiſe of darreigne preſentment, except. Prouided that this act be not auailable to anie perſon for any entre ſith the firſt day of this preſent parliament. Alſo be it enacted that the iudgements to be giuen from henceforth in ſuch aſſiſe arrained or to be arrained, ſhall not be

Judgement. preiudiciall to anie of the perſons ſo being in the ſeruice of our ſoueraigne lord the king, as is aforeſaid, which haue anie thing in reuerſion or remainder in landes or tenements, whereof ſuch aſſiſe be arrained, if the name of thoſe perſons which be in reuerſion or the remainder of ſuch lands and tenements, be not in the ſaide aſſiſe, but that the ſaid iudgement be againſt them all voyde.

Diſcent. Alſo be it enacted, that if anie diſcent of anie lands or tenements, or anie other right or hereditaments, be to anie perſon or perſons, being within this realme or els where, that the diſcent be not greater in effect to the dammages or hurt of the ſaid perſons being in the kinges ſeruice as is aforeſaid, then if the ſaid perſons in the kings ſeruice ſo being were within age of xxi. yéeres. Alſo be it enacted by the ſame authoritie, that euery of the perſons paſſing in the ſaide voyage, may by Atturney. their writings vnder their ſeale, make their atturney to enter into all their lands and tenements, rents and ſeruices, which to them be comen by diſcent, reuerter, or remainder. And alſo to do all maner of ſuites, as well ſuite ſeruice as ſuite royall, and to make feoffements of landes, and to make grauntes of rents, reuerſions, and ſeruices. And alſo to attourne, and all other things to doe according to the entent and effect of his warrant for and in his name, as plenary and fréely as he him ſelfe ſhould do, as well where that the ſaid warrant of atturney is made beyonde the ſea, as on this halfe. And if it fortune, that in the execution of anie article compriſed in the ſaide warrant, anie man will trauers, that the ſaid warrant is not the déede of him that is named to be the maker of the ſaid warrant: then that iſſue ſhall be tryed, where the atturney named in the ſaide warrant putteth the ſaide article in execution. The ſaid ordinance to endure and be auailable to euery of the ſaide perſons, as long as he abideth ſo in the kings wages.

Cap.3. Feoffement. Be it alſo ordeined by the ſame authoritie, that they and their feoffées to the vſe of euery of them, may haue, and haue licence vnder the kings great ſeale, without anie fine or fée by them to be payed, to make feoffements, alienation and grauntes of their honors, caſtels, maners, landes, tenements, rents, ſeruices, annuities, and other their hereditaments and poſſeſſions, with their appurtenances, according to their right, title and intereſt, that they or anie of them haue in the ſame, to ſuch as ſhall pleaſe them. And the ſame feoffées to receiue the ſame honors, caſtels, and other the premiſſes, of what manner eſtate ſhall pleaſe them, according to their ſaide intereſt, to that entent that they thereof may make their willes for paiment of their dettes, rentes and charges, and other things. And if it happen anie ſuch owner, to whoſe vſe the ſaide feoffement ſhall be made to dye, during the ſaide voyage, and in the ſaide ſeruice being with the king, his heire being within age, that al ſuch feoffees, or other ſuch perſons as the ſame feoffor or owner ſhal depute and aſſigne, ſhall haue the ſame honours, caſtels and other the premiſſes with the appurtenances, to the vſe and performing of the will of the ſame perſon or owner, that ſo diſſeiſeth, immediatly from the death of the ſame perſon or owner ſo dying, during the time of iiii. yeeres then next enſuing after his death. And if anie ſuch perſon come or returne with the king, that the ſame feoffees, or ſuch perſons as the ſame owner ſhall depute, ſhall haue the ſame lands and tenements towardes performance of the ſame will, by thrée yéeres immediatly enſuing after the ſame returne. And if anie ſuch perſon ſo returning liue thrée yéeres after anie ſuch returning, or after that the ſaid foure yeeres afore expreſſed be expired, that from thence foorth the ſame perſon, his feoffees nor executors, nor the ſame other perſons ſhall take no benefit nor profit by this act, but that euery ſuch feoffement from thenſeforth be no longer in his force ſtrength nor effect. And be it ordeined by the ſaid auctoritie, that yͤ king our ſoueraigne lord haue the mariage of the heires being within age of the perſons ſo going with the king in his viage, if the ſame perſon ſo going, hold of the king anie lands by knights ſeruice time of deceaſe, in like maner and forme as if this act had not bene made, and none otherwiſe. And ouer that the profits of the ſaid land, during the nonage of anie ſuch heire, after the ſaid iiii. or iii. yeares determined and expired as is aforeſaid. Alſo be it enacted by the ſaid auctoritie that if it happen anie of the anceſtors of the ſaid perſons, ſo being in the kings wages, to die, holding any land or tenements, or other hereditaments of the king in ſuch wiſe as he by the order of the common law ought to ſue liuere for the ſame out of the kings hands, the ſaid perſon then being in the ſaid viage, and of full age, to haue licence of the king our ſoueraigne lord to entre by them or their atturnie, into the ſaid manors, landes and tenementes, and other hereditamentes: And that entre by force of the ſaid licence, be as good and auaileable to him and to his heires as though he had ſued liuere out of the kinges hands, of the premiſſes by courſe of the common law. And alſo be it enacted by the ſame auctoritie, that foraſmuch as ſargeants of armes, that bene purpoſely ordeined for the perſonall attendance of the perſon of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and they to await of ſuch noble perſons as ſhall pleaſe his highneſſe to aſſigne them. Therefore if anie ſargeant of armes, hauing anie fee for the ſaid office, go not with the kinges grace in this viages ouer the ſea, hauing no licence of the kinges highneſſe vnder the great ſeale to be out of the ſaid armie, that he forfeit his fee granted to him for exerciſing of the ſaid office. And that it be ordeined by the ſame auctoritie that if anie perſon being ſeiſed of anie lands or tenements in fee ſimple, holding of the king in chiefe by knights ſeruices, & make feoffement thereof by the kings licence as is aforeſaid, that the ſame feoffement be good to the wils of ſuch perſons ſo going with the king be performed, ſo vnder condition that he die in the ſeruice of the king being beyond the ſea. Prouided alwaie that the ſaid feoffement of landes in fee ſimple be not preiudiciall to the heires of ſuch feoffour for anie title in taile, or to anie other of the kings ſubiects for anie other title to the ſame before the ſaid feoffement. Alſo be it ordeined, that if anie perſon going ouer with the king, hath couenanted or ſhall couenant or agree, that his ſonne or daughter ſhall eſpouſe or marrie ſonne or daughter of anie perſon, that the ſame couenant or agreement ſtand good and effectuall againſt the king and his heires, and the king to be excluded of the value of the marriage thereof, or therefore, though ſo be anie of the ſame ſonnes or daughters ſo to be married or eſpouſed, be within the yeares of conſent, ſo that thoſe eſpouſels be ſolempniſed in church, chappell, or oratorie before the kings departing: And ſo the ſame perſon ſo going, diſſeaſe in the kings ſeruice, the king being beyond the ſea.

Chap. 3.
Weights and meaſures.

Praien the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where as well by yͤ charter of Magna carta, as by other diuers ordinances and ſtatutes, made in diuers parliaments in the time of your noble progenitors and predeceſſors, it hath bene ordeined, that one meaſure & one weight ſhould be throughout all this realme of England, which weight and meaſure ſhould be according to the ſtandard of your eſcheker: And that euerie man ſhould buy and ſell by the ſame, and with none other vpon certeine paines and forfeitures limited in the ſaid ſtatutes and ordinances, as in them more plainly it doth appéere, which ſtatutes & ordinances haue not in times paſſed, ne yet be put in due execution. Wherfore of your moſt bleſſed diſpoſition, intending reformation in the premiſſes, and that indifferent iuſtice ſhould be had and exerciſed among al your ſubiects within this your ſaid realme, according to yͤ effect of the ſaid ſtatutes and ordinances: and conſidering that in diuers parts of your ſaid realm there be vſed meaſures and weights, ſome more large than yͤ ſaid ſtandard, and ſome leſſe, becauſe that the verie true meaſure of the ſaid ſtandard is not to all your true lieges verely knowen, at your owne proper coſt and charge haue do let make both weightes & meaſures of braſſe according to your very true ſtandard: Which it may pleaſe your ſaid grace, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, to ordeine, ſtabliſh, and enact, that the ſaid meaſures and weights of braſſe be deliuered to the citizens and burgeſſes of the chiefe cities or ſhire townes or boroughs of euery ſhire of this realme, in this parliament now being, or to the chiefe officers of euery ſuch cities, ſhire townes, or boroughs, where ſuch citizens and burgeſſes like by indenture thereof to be made betwéene the treaſurer of England or vnder treaſurer for the time being: And the ſaid citizens, burgeſſes, & other chiefe officers aforeſaid, ſo them receiuing, ſafelie to be conueied to that citie, towne, or borough, that they be of, at the coſt and charge of the ſaid citie, towne, or borough, and to be deliuered to the maior, ſhirife, bailiffe, or other the chiefe officer of the ſame, there to reſt as your treaſure in the cuſtodie of the ſaid chiefe officer of the ſaid citie, towne, or borough, for the time being, and of his ſucceſſors for euer, to the intent that as well all weights & meaſures within the ſaid citie, town, or borough, as the meaſures and weights within yͤ ſaid ſhire may be corrected, reformed, amended, and made according and after the meaſure of the ſaid ſtandard, before the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming. And that the ſaid chiefe officer for the time being in euery ſuch citie, towne, or borough, haue for that cauſe a ſpeciall mark or ſeale, to do marke euerie ſuch weight and meaſure ſo made to be reformed and brought vnto him, without fraud or delaie. And that he take for his labour for ſealing of euerie buſhell, i.d. of euerie other meaſure, ob. of euerie C. weight, i.d. of euerie di. C. ob. halfe thereof to be to our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to him that is greeued and will ſue in that behalfe by action of debt, to be recouered after the courſe of common law. And that the defendant in anie ſuch action be not receiued to wage his law. And that the iuſtices of peace in euerie ſhire of England haue full auctoritie and power to inquire, heare, and determine ẏ ſaid defaults. And ouer that that open proclamation be made in euerie ſhire of this your ſaid realme, that no man buy ne ſell after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell, by any other waight or meaſure, than is according to the ſaid ſtandard, vpon ſuch paines and forfeitures as is limited in the ſaid ſtatutes.

Chap. 4. London. Challenge.

Prayen the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where of long time vſed in any iſſue to be tried within ẏ city of London, a chalenge commonly called (Riens deins le gard) hath be admitted for a good chalenge ſo ẏ none iſſue could be tried in no warde, without that there were foure ſufficient perſons of liuelode to the yearely value of xl.s. aboue all charges within the ſame city, & dwelling or hauing any liuelode within the ſame ward. And it is ſo now, ẏ cauſe God knoweth why, that there is no ward, or els but fewe, and in eſpeciall in plee of land, that any plaintife or demandant can haue ſufficient triall in his matter, as euidently is knowen, for cauſe of the chalenge aforeſaid, for in ẏ moſt part of wards as now there bene none ſufficient: & if any be, there are none officers ẏ dare ſummon them, or els if they be ſummoned, they will not appeare, their hauour is ſo great, and there amerciaments ſo litle: That it pleaſe your moſt abundant grace, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and by the auctoritie of this preſent parliament, to ordeine for the common weale of your true ſubiects, eſtabliſh and enact, that from henſeforth ẏ chalenge commonly called Riens deins le gard, be no chalenge, but vtterly void and of none effect: Sauing to euery perſon all maner of other chalenges what ſoeuer they bene according to law.

Cap. 5. Letters patents. xv. and x.

The king our ſouereigne lord remembreth, howe aſwell his highneſſe as diuers his progenitors and predeceſſors kings of England, haue made and granted aſwell vpon feined ſuggeſtions as otherwiſe, to diuers abbots, priors, gardeins, keepers, maiſters, and rulers, or ſouereignes of ſpirituall places, and to their ſucceſſors, diuers and manie grants and letters patents, that they and their ſucceſſors, and their tenants and ſeruants reſiant vpon their lands and tenements, and alſo all landes and tenementes, good and cattals of them and of their ſaid tenants and ſeruaunts whatſoeuer reſiants vpon their ſaid land and tenements, ſhall be quit and diſcharged of all quinzemes and diſmes, other quotis taxes and tallages by the common act of this realme in any wiſe granted or to be granted: by colour of which grant and letters patents, the grantees aforeſaid now in late daies haue aſked and yet aſke deductions and alowances at euerie quinzeme and diſme granted vnto our ſouereigne lord the king, of much greater and more exceſſiue ſums of monie, than hath bene allowed or deducted vnto them, by reaſon of their ſaid grants time paſſed: Where through euerie quinzeme and diſme to the king before this time granted, and hereafter to be granted, is, and of likelihood ſhall be greatly miniſhed and leſſed, and the poore common people of this realme ſo much the more greeuouſly aſſeſſed and charged to the ſame quinzemes and diſmes: Remembreth that the bearing and imploiyng thereof muſt aſwell be to the reliefe of them and their ſaid tenants, farmours, and ſeruantes, that haue ſuch grantes and letters patentes, as to other of his ſubiects: Hath therefore by the aſſent and aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame parliament ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that the ſaid abbots, priors, gardeins, keepers, maiſters, rulers or ſouereignes of ſpirituall places, nor none of them, nor none other whatſoeuer hauing ſuch letters or grantes, haue from henſeforth by reaſon of the ſaid letters patents and grants, anie allowance, deduction, or acquitals of anie more or greater ſums of monie, at anie ſuch quinzeme and diſme granted or hereafter to be granted, except onelie of ſuch and as much ſummes of monie as hath bene deducted and allowed, to or for them or anie of them by reaſon and force of the ſaid grantes & letters patents in time of king Edward the fourth, at ſuch quinzeme and diſme paied, the ſaid grants and letters patents, or anie act ſtatute or ordinance before this time in anie wiſe made or ordeined notwithſtanding. Prouided alwaie that this act or ordinance extend not, nor in anie wiſe be preiudiciall or hurt to anie our grant or grants, or letters patents, bearing date ẏ xii. daie of December, in the firſt yeare of our reigne, made vnto the bailifes, burgeſſes, men, commonaltie, and inhabitantes of the towne of Salop, called otherwiſe the towne of Shrewſburie, but that our ſaid grant and grants, and letters patents, and euerie thing therein conteined, be and ſtand good and effectuall, after the tenour and purport of the ſame: The ſaid act and ordinance, or anie thing therein conteined notwithſtanding.

Chap. 6. Scots.

The king our ſouereigne lord hath had, to his great coſt & charge, many aſſemblies & communications with the king of Scots for amitie, truce, and peace to be had and obſerued betwixt his highneſſe and his ſubiects on the one part, and the king of Scots and his ſubiects on ẏ other part: but what accord or agreement ſoeuer is taken and concluded, ſuch accord and agreement for the partie of the ſaid king of Scots is euer vnder their ſureſt promiſe broken and not kept: for the which it is better to be with them at open warre, than vnder ſuch a fained peace. Wherefore the king our ſouereigne lord, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and ẏ commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled & by the auctoritie of ẏ ſame enacteth, that all Scots dwelling within this realme of England and Wales, not made, or hereafter to be made denizen, auoid out of this realme within xl. daies after proclamation made within the ſhire where they dwell, vpon paine of forfeiturre of all their goods and cattals, and their bodies to priſon. And ouer this, that immediatly after ẏ ſaid xl.daies,ſearch be made in euerie citie,borough,and hundred of England ⁊ Wales for ſuch Scots,by the conſtable of the ſame and if anie man be found,that they and euerie of them be taken ⁊ arreſted, and their goods ſeaſed to the kings vſe:⁊ from the ſaid city, borough,or hundred,where they be taken,to be by the ſaid conſtables conueied ẏ next way toward Scotland vnto the next hundred,and there the conſtables of the ſaid next hundred to receiue them, and ſo conueie the ſaid Scots ẏ next waie toward Scotland vnto the next hundred,⁊ ſo from hundred to hundred, till they be brought into Scotland,in like maner and forme as abiured men for felonie bene vſed to be conueied from ẏ ſanctuarie wherein they abiure vnto the port to them aſſigned. And furthermore that it be ordeined by the ſaid auctoritie,that if default be in the conſtables of anie citie borough or hundred, in making of due ſearch after open proclamation made in this behalfe, or in anie conſtables in due conueiance of ẏ ſaid Scots toward ⁊ into Scotland,that they and euerie of them,being in ſuch default,forfeit to the king xx. s. Sauing to the lords of franchiſe and to euerie of them, ſuch right and intereſt as they haue in anie ſuch goods and cattals.

Nauie.

Praien the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled,ẏ where of time that no mind is, your Nauie hath bene maintained paſſing the ſtraits of Marrocke,and ſo to diuers ports in thoſe parties, to the vniuerſall increaſe of your ſaid Nauie,marchants,⁊ mariners:And in eſpeciall by lading of malmeſeies in ẏ port of Candie, which perteineth to the lordſhip of Venice where now the Venetians,within theſe two yeares laſt paſt,haue made a ſtatute and ordinance for ẏ increaſe of the ſaid lordſhip of Venice,⁊ mainteinance of themſelues ⁊ their nauie, ⁊ mariners, that none of your ſaid nauie nor mariners,ſhould lade in ẏ ſaid port of Candie anie malmeſeies to be conueied into this your realme of England,without that your ſaid marchants pay a new cuſtome for euerie But of malmeſeies ſo laden,iiii.duckets of gold,which amounteth to xviii.s.ſterling mony, ouer and aboue all other cuſtomes ⁊ charges afore that time vſed which is great hurt to your ſaid beſeechers,without ſpeciall remedie be had by your noble ⁊ ſpeciall grace. Pleaſe it therfore your moſt aboundant grace,by ẏ aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this your preſent parliament aſſembled,⁊ by auctoritie of the ſame, to enact ⁊ ſtabliſh,ẏ from henſeforth the malmeſies that ſhall be brought into this your realme of England, by anie perſon,ſhall be of full gauge,conteining,vi.ſcore and vi.galons at ẏ leaſt in meaſure:and if it lacke of the ſaid gauge,that then the ſeller to abate ſo much of the price after the rate of the ſaid content. And euerie marchant ſtranger bringing ſuch malmeſeies, into this realme, ſhall paie to your grace ẏ cuſtomes of xviii.s.for a But of malmeſeie,ouer and aboue the cuſtome aforetime to your grace vſed to be paid,likewiſe as they of Venice haue ſet in Candy vpon your foreſaid ſubiects. And moreouer,that it be enacted ⁊ ſtabliſhed,by the auctoritie aforeſaid, from henſeforth, that no But or Buts of malmeſeies in veſſel or in veſſels,that ſhalbe brought into this your ſaid realme, ſhalbe ſold aboue iiii. li. ſterling. Prouided alway that this act extend not to anie Engliſhman borne,touching the newe cuſtome aboue rehearſed,of xviii. s. And that this preſent act indure no longer than they of Venice ſhall ſet aſide the impoſition of ẏ paiment of the iiii.duckets aforeſaid.

THe king our ſouereigne lord Henrie the vii. after the conqueſt by the grace of God king of England and of France, and lord of Ireland, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xiiii daie of October, in the xi.yeare of his reigne, to the honour of God and holy church, and for the common profit of the realme, and by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, hath do to be made cretaine ſtatutes and ordinances in maner and forme following.

Cap.1.
Obedience

THe king our ſouereigne lord calling to his remembrance the duetie of allegiance of his ſubiects of this his realme, and that they by reaſon of the ſame are bound to ſerue their prince and ſouereigne lord for the time being,in his warres for the defence of him and the land, againſt euerie rebellion power and might reared againſt him, and with him to entre and abide in ſeruice in battell, if caſe ſo require, and that for the ſame ſeruice what fortune euer fall by chance in the ſame battell againſt the mind and will of the prince, as in this land ſometime paſſed hath bene ſeene,ẏ it is not reaſonable,but againſt all lawes,reaſon,and good conſcience,that ẏ ſaid ſubiects, going with their ſouereigne lord in wars,attending vpon him in his perſon,or being in other places by his commandement within this land or without, any thing ſhould leeſe or forfeit for doing their true dutie ⁊ ſeruice of allegiance. It be therfore ordained enacted ⁊ eſtabliſhed,by ẏ king our ſouereigne lord,by the aduiſe ⁊ aſſent of the lords ſpirituall ⁊ temporall,and commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame,that from henceforth no maner of perſon or perſons, whatſoeuer he or they be, that attend vpon the king ⁊ ſouereigne lord of this land for the time being in his perſon,and doo him true and faithfull ſeruice of allegiance in the ſame, or be in other places by his commandement in the wars within this land or without,that for the ſaid deede ⁊ true dutie of allegiance, he or they be in no wiſe conuicte or atteint of high treaſon ne of other offences for that cauſe by acte of parliament or otherwiſe by any proces of law,whereby he or anie of them ſhall mowe forfeite life, lands, tenements, rentes, poſſeſſions, hereditamentes, goods,catals,or anie other things,but to be for ẏ deed ⁊ ſeruice vtterlie diſcharged of any vexation trouble or loſſe. And if anie acte or actes or other proces of the law hereafter thervpon for ẏ ſame happen to be made,contrarie to this ordinance,that then ẏ acte or actes or other proces of ẏ law, whatſoeuer they ſhalbe, ſtand ⁊ be vtterlie void. Prouided alway ẏ no perſon or perſons ſhall take any benefit or auantage by this act,which ſhal hereafter decline from his or their ſaid allegiance.

Seruice faithfully done to the prince in warre and in battell.

Vacabōds. Beggers. Scholer. Shirife. Apprentiſe Seruant of huſbandrie. Vnlawfull games.

For aſmuch as the kings grace moſt entirely deſireth among all earthly things the proſperitie and reſtfulneſſe of this his land, and his ſubiects of the ſame to liue quietlie and ſurelie to the pleaſure of God & according to his lawes, willing alwaies of his pitie intending to reduce them thereto by ſofter meanes than by ſuch extreame rigor therefore purueied in a ſtatute made in the time of king Richard the ſecond, conſidering alſo the great charges that ſhould growe to his ſubiects for bringing of vacabonds to the gaoles, according to the ſame ſtatute, and the long abiding of them therein, wherby by likelihood manie of them ſhould loſe their liues. In modering of ẏ ſaid ſtatute his highneſſe will, by the auctoritie of this preſent parliament, it be ordeined and enacted, that where ſuch miſdoers ſhould be by examination committed to the common gaole, there to remaine as is aforeſaid, that the ſhirifes, maiors, bailifs, high conſtables, and petie conſtables, and all other gouernors and officers of cities, boroughs, townes, townſhips, villages, and other places within thrée daies after this act proclaimed, make due ſearch, and take or cauſe to be taken all ſuch vacabonds idle and ſuſpect perſons, liuing ſuſpiciouſly, and them ſo taken to ſet in ſtocks, there to remaine by ẏ ſpace of thrée daies and thrée nights and there to haue none other ſuſtenance but bread and water: And after the ſaid thrée daies and thrée nights, to be had out and ſet at large, & then to be commanded to auoid the towne. And if eftſoones he be taken in ſuch default in ẏ ſame towne or townſhip, then to be ſet in likewiſe in the ſtocks by the ſpace of vi. daies, with like diet as is afore rehearſed. And if anie perſon or perſons giue anie other meat or drinke to the ſaid miſdoers, being in ſtockes in forme aforeſaid, or the ſame priſoners fauour in their miſdoing, that then they forfeit for euerie time ſo doing, xii.d. And alſo it is ordeined by the ſaid auctoritie, that all maner of beggers, not able to worke, within vi. wéekes next after proclamation made of this act, go, reſt, and abide in that hundred where laſt he dwelled, or there where he is beſt knowen or borne there to remaine or abide without begging out of the ſaide hundred, vpon paine to be puniſhed as is aforeſaid. And that no man be excuſed by that he is a clerke of one vniuerſitie or of other, without he ſhew the letters of the chancellor of the vniuerſitie, from whence he ſaith he commeth, nor none other calling himſelfe a ſouldier, ſhipman, or trauelling man, without he bring a letter from his captaine, or from the towne where he landed, and that he then to be commanded to go the ſtrait high way into his countrie. And ouer this it is ordeined by auctoritie aboueſaid, that if any ſhirife or other officer afore rehearſed, execute not the premiſſes as is about ſaid of euerie vacabond, heremit, or begger able to labour, or clerke, pilgrime, or ſhipman, as oft as any ſuch commeth in his ſight: or that he hath thereof knowledge within the towne where he hath auctoritie, rule, and gouernance, that as often as any ſuch of the ſaid miſdoers abiding there by the ſpace of a day, depart vnexamined and vnpuniſhed as is aboue ſaid, for euery miſdoer ſo departed he to léeſe xx.d. And that the lord of euery lete within this realme, and the ſhirife in his turne haue auctoritie to inquire thereof in his lete and turne: And the lord of the lete to haue for euerie default found as is aboue ſaid xx.d. And the ſhirife to inquire in his turne of ſuch eſcapes within the iuriſdiction of his turne & to haue xx.d. for euery ſuch default found in his turne, and that ẏ penaltie limited by this ordinance to be forfeited by any officer or any other perſon, for none puniſhment of vacabonds and other miſruled perſons within euerie citie where maior and aldermen bene, that the profit of euerie ſuch penaltie be vnto the alderman of that ward, where ſuch forfeiture is had or made to his owne profit. And alſo it is ordained and enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie man, intitled to haue the ſaid penaltie, to diſtraine for it, in likewiſe as the lord of anie lete may do for amerciaments and fines had and aſſeſſed in the ſame lete. Furthermore it is ordeined and enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, that none apprentiſe ne ſeruant of huſbandrie, labourer ne ſeruant artificer plaie at the tables from the tenth daie of Ianuarie next comming, but onlie for meat and drinke, ne at the tennis, claſh, dice, cards, bowles, nor any other vnlawfull game in no wiſe out of Chriſtmas, and in Chriſtmas to plaie onelie in the dwelling houſe of his maiſter, or where the maiſter of any of the ſaid ſeruants is preſent, vpon paine of impriſonment by the ſpace of a day in the ſtocks openlie. And that the houſholder where dicing, carding, tennis plaieng, bowles, claſh, or any other vnlawfull game afore rehearſed ſhalbe vſed, otherwiſe than is afore rehearſed, and that lawfullie be preſented before the iuſtices of peace, the maior, ſhirife in his turne, or ſteward in his lete, or by examination had afore the ſaid iuſtices of peace, that proceſſe be made vpon the ſame as vpon inditement of treſpaſſe againſt the kings peace. And that ẏ ſaid miſdoer be admitted to no fine vnder the ſumme of vi.s. viii.d. And that it be lawfull to two of the iuſtices of the peace, whereof one ſhalbe of the Quorum, within their auctoritie to reiect and put awaie common ale ſelling in townes and places where they ſhall thinke conuenient, and to take ſuretie of the kéepers of ale houſes of their good behauing by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices, and in the ſame to be aduiſed and agréed at the time of their ſeſſions. Prouided alway that diminution of puniſhment of vagabonds and beggers aforeſaid, may and ſhall be had for women great with child, and men and women in extreame ſickneſſe, by him that hath auctoritie to do the ſaid puniſhments, this act notwithſtanding.

Riot. Reteindor. Liuerie.

The king our ſoueraigne lord calling to his remembrance, that manie good ſtatutes and ordinances be made for the puniſhment of riots, vnlawfull aſſemblies, reteindors, and giuing and receiuing of liueries ſignes & tokens vnlawfullie, extortions, maintenances, imbracerie, exceſſiue taking of wages contrarie to the ſtatute of labourers and artificers, the vſe of vnlawfull games, inordinate apparell, and manie other great enormities and offences, which bene committed and done daylie contrarie to the good ſtatutes for manie and diuers behoofefull conſiderations ſeuerallie made and ordained, to the high diſpleaſure of almightie God, and the great let of the common lawe & weale of this land, notwithſtanding that generallie by the iuſtices of ẏ peace in euerie ſhire within this realme in the open ſeſſions is giuen in charge to enquire of manie offences committed contrarie to diuerſe of the ſaid ſtatutes, and diuers enqueſtes therevpon there ſtraitelie ſworne & charged before the ſaid iuſtices, to enquire of the premiſſes, and therein to preſent the trouth, which are letted to be found by imbracerie maintenance, corruption & fauour, by occaſion whereof the ſaid eſtatutes be not nor can not be put in due execution. For reformation whereof, for ſo much that before this time the ſaide offences, extortions, contemptes, & other the premiſſes might not, nor as yet may be conuenientlie puniſhed by the due order of the lawe, except it were firſt found & preſented by the verdite of xii. men, thereto duelie ſworne, which for the cauſes afore rehearſed will not finde nor yet preſent the trouth: Wherefore be it by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, & by auctoritie of the ſame, enacted, ordained, and eſtabliſhed, that from henceforth aſwell the iuſtices of aſſiſe, in the open ſeſſions to be holden afore them, as the iuſtices of the peace in euerie countie of the ſaide realme, vpon information for the king tofore them to be made, haue full power & auctoritie by their diſcretion to heare & determine all offences and contemptes, committed and done by anie perſon or perſons againſt the forme ordinance & effecte of anie ſtatute made and not repelled. And that the ſaid iuſtices vpon the ſaid information haue full power & auctoritie to award & make like proces againſt the ſaid offenders, and euerie of them, as they ſhould or might make againſt ſuch perſon or perſons as bene preſent & endited before them of treſpas done contrarie to ẏ kings peace: and the ſaid offender or offenders duelie to puniſh according to the purporte forme & effecte of the ſaid eſtatutes. Alſo be it enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, that the perſon, whith ſhall giue the ſaid information for the king, ſhall by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices content & paie to the ſaide perſon or perſons, againſt whom the ſaid information ſhall be ſo giuen, his reaſonable coſtes and damages in that behalfe ſuſtained, if that it be tried or found againſt him that ſo giueth or maketh any ſuch information. Prouided alway that anie ſuch information extend not to treaſon, murder, or felonie, nor to anie other offence, wherefore anie perſon ſhall loſe life or member, nor to leeſe by nor vpon the ſame information, anie landes, tenementes, goodes, catals, to the partie making the ſame information. Prouided alſo, that the ſaide information ſhall not extend to anie perſon dwelling in an other ſhire than there as the ſaid information ſhall be giuen or made. Sauing to euerie perſon and perſons, cities, and townes all their liberties and franchiſes to them and euerie of them of right belonging and appertaining

Chap. 4. Weights and meaſures. Balance.

Praien the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, where diuerſe actes, ſtatutes, and ordinances in the times of the noble progenitours & predeceſſours of our now ſouereigne lord the king, haue bene made, that one meaſure and weight ſhould be vſed throughout this noble realme: And alſo that in euerie citie borough and towne within the ſame realme vpon certaine and ſeuerall paines in the ſaide ſtatutes and ordinances limitted, ſhould be common balaunce, with common weightes, and common meaſures marked according to the ſtandard of the eſchequer, by the which and other like balances weightes and meaſures marked according to the ſaid ſtandard, all men ſhould buie and ſell, auoiding of all fraude and diſcorde in that behalfe to be vſed, which actes ſtatutes and ordinances haue not bene obſerued and kept, as now in this preſent parliament it hath bene openlie by diuers perſons of diuers parties of this realme remembred, to the great hurt and vexation of diuers and manie of the kings ſubiectes of this his realme. For remedie whereof be it of the abundant grace of our moſt gratious ſouereigne lord, by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and by the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, enacted & eſtabliſhed, that vnto the knightes and citiſens of euerie ſhire and citie, aſſembled in this preſent parliament, barons of the fiue portes, and certaine burgeſes of borough townes, ere they departe from this preſent parliament, be deliuered one of euerie weight and meaſure, which now our ſouereigne lorde hath cauſed to be made of braſſe for the common weale of all his ſubiectes and lieges within this his realme of England, according to the king our ſouereigne lords ſtandard of his eſchequer of weight and meaſures, as they bene in the eſchequer of our ſaide ſouereigne lord: and that the ſaid knightes, citiſens and burgeſes, to whom the ſaid weightes and meaſures ſhalbe deliuered, as is aforeſaid, ſurelie conueie or cauſe the ſame to be conueied on this halfe the feaſt of Eaſter next comming by the ſaid citizens to their cities, and by the ſaid knightes vnto ſuch borough or towne corporate, or market towne within the ſhire, for which they bene elected, as is ſpecified and contained in a ſedule vnto this preſent bill annexed, there to remaine for euer in the keeping of the maior bailiffe, or other head officer for the time being of the ſame citie borough or towne, as the kings ſtandard of weight & meaſure: And that the inhabitants of all cities boroughes & market townes within euerie of the ſaid ſhires, ſhall on this halfe the feaſt of the Natiuitie of S. Iohn Baptiſt next comming, make or cauſe to be made common meaſures and weightes, according to the weightes and meaſures aboueſaid, to remaine within the ſaid cities, boroughes, and market townes, and euerie of them, and the ſame weightes and meaſures to be viewed, examined, printed, ſigned, and marked by the maior, bailiffe, or other head officer, in whoſe poſſeſſion the aforeſaide ſtandard ſhall remaine. And that euerie of the aforeſaid maior bailiffe or head officer, hauing the ſaid weightes and meaſures ſigned and printed vnder the ſigne and print for the ſame with a letter H. crowned, haue auctoritie and power to make ſigne and printe like weightes and meaſures vnto euerie the kinges lieges and ſubiectes, duelie requiring the ſame, taking for marking of euerie buſhell i. d. And from the ſaid feaſt of the natiuitie of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt, no marchaunt ne other perſon ne perſons, within anie citie or market towne, buie ne ſell with anie weight or meaſure, except it be marked ſigned or printed in maner and forme aforeſaid, ne anie other perſon or perſons, out of the ſaid cities boroughes and market townes, except it be like and equall with the ſaide eſtandard. And that euerie perſon, as well without cities boroughes and market townes, as within, buie and ſell with a buſhell ſealed ſigned or marked after the forme aforeſaid, and none otherwiſe. And that all the maiors bailiffes and other head officers of euerie citie borough or market towne, ſhall cauſe twiſe in the yéere or oftener, as they ſhall thinke neceſſarie, all weights and meaſures within the ſaid cities boroughes and market townes, to be brought afore them, & to be duelie viewed and examined: & ſuch as they ſhall vpon the ſaid examination finde defectiue, immediatelie to be broken & burnt, & the partie or parties, which in that behalfe hath offended, and be found defectiſe, ſhall forfeite for the firſt time vi. s. viii. d. the forfeiture thereof to be vnto the ſaid maior bailiffe or anie other hauing iuriſdiction & correction in that behalfe: and at the ſecond time the ſaid offender likewiſe to forfeite xiii. s. iiii. d. and at the third time likewiſe to forfeite xx. s. and for further puniſhment to be ſet vpon the pillorie, to the enſample of other. And two iuſtices of peace, whereof one ſhall be of the Quorum, haue auctoritie, aſwell by examination as by enquirie, to heare and determine the defaultes of the ſaid maiors bailiffes and other head officers in that behalfe: and alſo of all buiers and ſellers, doing contrarie to this preſent acte and ordinance. and to ſet fine & mercement vpon the offendours by their diſcretion. And the ſaid weightes and meaſures ſo found defectiſe, to be forfeited & burnt. Be it alſo enacted that there be but onelie viii. buſhels raiſed & ſtricken to the quarter of corne, and xiiii. poundes to the ſtone of woolle, and xxvi. ſtone to the ſacke. Be it alſo ordained by the auctoritie aboueſaid, that the iuſtices of peace aboueſaid, haue auctoritie to make like proces againſt all perſons founden as is aboueſaid defectiſe, & for ſuch fines and amerciaments as vpon them ſhalbe aſſeſſed, as if they were indited afore them for breaking of the kings peace. And where that by other ſtatutes & ordinances afore limitted it is ordained, that euerie citie borough & towne that hath a conſtable, ſhould haue common weights & meaſures ſealed vpon penalties in the ſame limitted, that thoſe penalties in that behalfe extend not to anie towne, which is no citie borough nor market towne. Prouided alway ẏ this acte ſhall not extend nor be preiudiciall to anie perſon ſelling or buieng by water meaſure, within the ſhipbord. And that it be by the auctority aboueſaid enacted, the premiſſes or anie other ordinance afore made notwithſtanding, that the ſaid water meaſure within the ſhipbord, ſhall onelie conteine v. pecks, after the ſaid ſtandard raſed and ſtriken. Prouided alſo that the examination of defaults aboueſaid, and puniſhment to the offenders of euery offence committed hereafter within anie of the ſaid v. portes, ſhall be had done & adminiſtred by the lord warden of the ſaid v. portes, or by his lieftenant of the ſame for the time being, and none other, the premiſſes notwithſtanding. Prouided alway that this act of weights and meaſures extend not, nor be in no wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to the prince within ẏ duchie of Cornewall, or anie weightes appertaining to the cunage of tinne within the counties of Cornewall and Deuonſhire, but that all ſuch weightes be vſed ordered demeaned and corrected as it hath bene vſed and accuſtomed before this time, the ſaide acte and ordinance notwithſtanding.

For as much as the portes, hauens, riuers, creekes, and arriuall of ſhippes within this realme of England, and the coaſtes of the ſame, bene now of late greatlie anoied, hurte, and decaied, and in eſpeciall the porte of Southampton, the which before this time hath bene the greateſt hauen, ſuccour and receite aſwell for marchantes and ſhippes of this realme of England, as of carrikes, galies, and other ſhippes and marchantes of other regions and countries there arriuing and reſorting, to the profite of our ſouereigne lorde the king, the great encreaſe of the marchantes of this land, and the common weale, and comforte of all the countrie thereto adioining, the which is now latelie greatlie decaied, and is like ſhortelie more to decaie, by reaſon and occaſion of diuers and manie weares and other engins for fiſhing there made leuied fixed and had, betweene a certaine place in the ſaid hauen called Calſhorde, and another place in the ſaid hauen called Redbridge directlie: ſo that by reaſon of the ſaid weares and engins within fewe yeeres no ſhippe of great burden ſhall mowe come or arriue in the ſaide hauen, without due and haſtie remedie be purueied in this behalfe. For remedie whereof, and for the common weale of this realme of England, and the increaſe of the marchantes of the ſame, the king our ſouereigne lord, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, ordaineth eſtabliſheth and enacteth that it be lawfull to euerie man to abate, plucke, and take away all & euerie of for ſaid weares & engins and euery of them at all times, at their pleaſure being in the ſaid hauen betweene the ſaid places called Calſhor and Redbridge directlie, without trouble, let, or vexation of anie man. And that no man let, trouble, vexe, hurt, or ſue the pluckers vp & takers away of the ſaid weares engins or anie of them, vpon paine of forfeiture of xl.li. of euerie of them that ſo letteth, troubleth, ſueth, vexeth, or hurteth. And that if anie perſon or perſons from henceforth make, leuie fixe or ſet anie weares or engins for fiſhing, ſtone, timber, or earth, in the ſaid hauen, directlie betweene the ſaid places: then he or they that ſo doo, ſhall forfeite C. li. the one halfe of eicher of the ſaid ſummes to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and that other halfe to him or them that will ſue in that behalfe by action of debt, pleint, bill, or information in the kings eſchequer: and that the defendaunt in ſuch action, pleint, bill, or information be not eſſoined, nor anie protection be allowed for him, nor be admitted to wage his lawe in that behalfe, and this acte to endure the ſpace of xx. yeeres now next enſuing.

Where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xii. yeere of the reigne of king Edward the fourth, late king of England, among other thinges it was ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, that where anie woollen clothes were or ſhould be packed in anie porte within this realme of England, and then to be caried from thence to anie porte within this realme to be caried ouer the ſea, that then the ſame clothes ſo to be packed & caried ſhould be packed in the preſence of the cuſtomers and controlers of the porte where the ſame clothes ſhould be packed, and that the cuſtomes & ſubſidies of the ſaid clothes, due to the king, ſhould be paied and contented vnto the collectours of the cuſtome within the ſame porte as in the ſaid acte more plainelie appeareth: Which acte for diuers & manie cauſes & conſiderations is thought hurtfull & preiudiciall, aſwell vnto the king our ſouereigne lord, as to the marchantes. In conſideration whereof be it ordained eſtabliſhed & enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, by the aſſent of yͤ lordes ſpirituall & temporall, & the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, & by auctoritie of the ſame, that from henceforth the cuſtome and ſubſidie of all woollen clothes to be ſhipped, & caried ouer the ſea, whereſoeuer they bene packed ſhall be paied to the cuſtomers of yͤ porte or portes, where anie ſuch clothes ſhalbe laide or ſhipped, or to their deputies. Praien the commons of this your land, in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where for the great reſt and tranquillitie of your ſaid commons, true liege men and ſubiects, inhabited in this your realme, diuers and many good ſtatutes, actes, and ordinances haue made in times paſt, ordeined ſtabliſhed to ſubdue and puniſh riots for the vnlawfull reiſing and leading of people riots routs and other vnlawfull aſſemblies: Whereby may euill deeds ieopardies perils feare and dread to your ſubiects haue growne, and therevpon great penalties ſet vpon the ſaid riotors and offenders as in diuers remembred ſtatutes actes and ordinances, in the daies of your noble progenitours at ſeuerall times made ordained and prouided, more at large doth and may appeare. Yet the ſame actes notwithſtanding, ſome perſons, not dreding God, their ſouereigne lord, ne the puniſhment of the lawes made & had in this behalfe, oft times as well by colour of ſuch offices as they haue obtained, as receiuours ſtuardes and bailifes of lordſhips and other officers, as by priuie reteinders by othe promiſe couenant and otherwiſe, and claiming alſo dutie of their tenantes and ſeruauntes, where none ſuch dutie is, to go with them when ſuch aſſemblie riote or route ſhall be. And after the ſame diuers of the ſaide ſeruantes and perſons oft times retreate and abſent themſelfe by the agreement couin and counſell of the ſaid maiſters and of the ſaide principall riotours, ſo that they may not be taken ne brought to aunſwere to the lawe, as the lawes require. And if anie inditementes be had, it ſhall be made vpon ſuch perſons as ſo retreate and abſent them ſelfe, and nothing founden againſt the ſaid principall riotours, in diſceite and fraude of the ſaide good ſtatutes actes and ordinances thereof made, to the great courage and bouldnes and comfort of the ſaid euill dooers, moſt daunger ieopardie and perill of your ſaide well diſpoſed ſubiectes, and to the worſte enſample that thereby may enſue, if haſtie remedie therein be not prouided. It may therefore pleaſe your highnes, of your moſt louing diſpoſition that ye beare and owe to the common weale of this your land, and to the great ſuertie of your ſubiectes of the ſame, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, to doo ordaine enacte and ſtabliſh that whatſoeuer perſon or perſons, within this your realme of what eſtate degrée or condition he be, that hereafter vnlawfullie reiſe, aſſemble, or leade your people within this your realme, without your commaundement or auctoritie of your lawes, and committe anie riot: that then if the partie gréeued, or anie other perſon in the kings behalfe complaine to the iuſtices of the peace within the countrie where ſuch riot is doone, or to anie of them hauing auctoritie to enquire of the ſame, where ſuch riot and vnlawfull aſſemblie ſhall be made, by bill of containing the riot and the circumſtance of the ſame, and of what towne ſhire miſterie or condition euerie of the perſons againſt whom yͤ ſame complaint be made, is dwelling, or elſe if the ſaid rioters be endited thereof, then therevpon the ſaid iuſtices and euerie of them, haue auctoritie & power in the next generall ſeſſions of the peace, within the ſame countie to be houlden, after the complaint ſo to them made, or inditement thereof had afore the ſame iuſtices, to doo make proclamation, that the ſaid maiſter or maiſters principall or principals, leder or leaders, that vnlawfullie cauſe the ſaid people to gather or riſe, that they appeare perſonallie at the next generall ſeſſions of the peace, after the ſaid proclamation ſo made: and euerie other perſon or perſons, that were preſent & attendant vpon him or them by his or their commaundement procuring or aſſent contained in the ſaid proclamation at the ſaid riot route & aſſemble and euerie of them, perſonallie to appeare at the ſaid next ſeſſions of peace, next after the ſaid proclamation to be holden within the ſaid countie: at which day if the ſaid maiſter or maiſters, principall or principals, leader or leaders, or anie other of the foreſaid offenders, appeare, then he or they to be put to aunſwere there vnto, if it ſéeme the ſaid iuſtices reaſonable, and be put to ſufficient baile by recogniſance before the ſaid iuſtices to appeare perſonallie from ſeſſions to ſeſſions, vnto the time the complaint be diſcuſſed. And if he or they refuſe ſo to doo, then he or they be committed to warde, there to remaine till they will. And if anie of the perſons againſt whom ſuch complaint or inditement is had or made, dwell in anie other countie then in the ſame countie where ſuch riot, route & aſſemble is made: that then the iuſtices, to or afore whom the ſame complaint or inditements is had or made, doo ſend a tranſcript of yͤ ſame complaint or inditements to ſome iuſtices of the peace in the countie where ſuch perſon is dwelling, deſiring him to cauſe proclamation to be made in the next generall ſeſſions of the peace in that countie to be houlden, that the ſame perſon or perſons appeare at the next ſeſſions of the peace in the ſhire where the ſaid riot is doone next after the ſame proclamation to be houlden. And if the ſame perſon or perſons dwelling in a forren ſhire appeare, then like order to be had for him or them ſo appearing, as is afore ſpecified, for and to them that bene dwelling in the ſaid ſhire, where the ſaid riot is ſuppoſed to be doone. And if the ſame perſon or perſons, or anie of them againſt whom ſuch proclamation is made in the countie where the ſaid riot is ſuppoſed to be doone, and they be dwelling at the time of the ſame proclamation making in the ſame countie, make default and appeare not at the ſaid generall ſeſſions to him or them limited in the ſaid proclamation, and eftſoones after that make default and appeare not at the next generall ſeſſions after that, ſo that like proclamation be made as is afore ſaid: And if anie of the ſaid rioters againſt whom proclamation is made in a foren ſhire, where they be dwelling, make default at the day and place in the ſaid proclamation to them limited, then he or they, in whether of the ſaid ſhires they dwell, that ſo make default, to ſtand & be adiudged and conuicte vpon the ſame defaultes of the ſaide riot and vnlawfull aſſemble, as if he or they were thereof conuicte by the due order of the lawe, without he or they can make ſuch lawfull excuſe, as the ſaid iuſtices ſhall thinke reaſonable by their diſcretion: and therevpon ſuch proceſſe to be awarded againſt them, as is accuſtomed vpon condemnations of treſpaſſe in your common bench at the ſuite of the partie. And that the ſaid iuſtices of the peace haue auctoritie and power to heare and determine the rehearſed cauſes, aſwell vpon bill before them as by enditementes, and vpon the ſame bill or inditementes to procéede and determine the ſame by enqueſtes according to the courſe of the common lawe: and the partie thereby and therevpon to ſtand conuicte as perfitelie, as if they were therevpon conuicte by due proceſſe of the lawe. And if the ſaide maiſter or maiſters, principall or principals, leader or leaders, or anie other afore rehearſed offender, be conuicte vpon the premiſes: then he or they be committed to priſon, there to remaine and abide without baile or mainpriſe by ſuch time and ſpace as ſhall be thought reaſonable by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices: and then ere he or they departe out of the priſon, to paie their fine ſeſſed after the diſcretion of the ſaide iuſtices, his or their hauour and offences conſidered. And that it be enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, that by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices, and as they ſo néede, euerie of the ſaid maiſter or maiſters, principall or principals, leader or leaders, and other the ſaid offenders ſo conuicte, be bound to the kings peace, from thenceforth in ſuch ſums of moneie as ſhall be conſidered by the ſaid iuſtices, and the ſaid ſuertie to ſtand by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices. And if it be ſo, that the ſaid riot and vnlawfull aſſemblie be committed with the number of xl. perſons or aboue, or with leſſe number then fortie, and that by the diſcretion of the ſaide iuſtices it be thought heinous: that then if the ſaid maiſter or maiſters, principall or principals, leader or leaders, that haue appeared, and ſo thereof be conuict, that then they remaine in priſon, vnto the time that they haue found ſufficient ſuertie to appeare afore the king and his councell at a certaine daie by the ſaide iuſtices to be limitted, at the which daie, or afore, the keeper of the gaioll rolles of the ſaide records, ſhall doe to be ſent vnder his ſeale the ſaid whole record of yͤ conuiction, to the king our ſouereigne lord & his councell, to the intent that his highnes and his councell may award ſuch impriſonment and fines of the ſaid maſter or maſters, principall or principalles, leder or leders, as by his highneſſe and by his ſaide councell ſhall be thought conuenient. And if the partie complainaunt, as is aforeſaide, can not proue the matter of his ſaide bill to be true, then he to paie reaſonable coſtes and damages of the partie vexed, as ſhall be thought reaſonable by the diſcretion of the ſame iuſtices, & they to make againſt the ſame complainant, not prouing the matter of his ſaid bill to be true, ſuch proces againſt him for the ſaid coſtes and damages, as is afore limitted againſt the ſaid riotors conuict of the ſaid riot for the paiment of their ſaid fines. And if the ſaid complainant or complainantes haue not ſufficient, whereof to reſtore the partie and parties ſo vexed or troubled in forme aforeſaide, that then he immediatlie be committed to the common gaole by the ſaid iuſtices, there to remaine the ſpace and time as ſhall be thought by the ſaid iuſtices conuenient & reaſonable, and that this act endure but vnto the next parliament.

Chap. 8.

Praien the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the third yeere of your moſt noble reigne, it was enacted, ordeined, & eſtabliſhed, that of for and vpon bargaines grounded in vſurye, coloured by the meanes of newe cheueſaunce or eſchange, contrary to the law of natural iuſtice, to the great diſpleaſure of God & of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, & the common hurt of this his lande, that certaine puniſhments & penalties ſhould runne vpon the offenders in that behalfe, as in yͤ ſaid act more at large is conteined, which act was & is ſo obſcured darke & defuſe, that the true intent of the makers thereof can not perfitlie be vnderſtande: Wherefore and for the plaine explanation & declaration of vſury & penalties to be hereafter executed vpon yͤ offenders in the ſame: The king our ſouereigne lord, by the aſſent & aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall & temporal, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, & by auctority of yͤ ſame, ordeineth, enacteth, & ſtabliſheth, yͭ all maner of perſon or perſons, lending mony to and for a time, taking for yͤ ſame lone, any thing more beſides or aboue yͤ mony lent by waie of contract of couenant at the time of the ſame lone, ſauing lawfull penalties for non paiment of the ſame mony lent, and that al maner of perſon and perſons, which hereafter ſel any goods, catals, or marchandiſes to any perſon or perſons being in neceſſitie, & yͤ ſeller himſelf, or by his broker or factor in that behalfe, againe buy the ſame goods, catals, or marchandiſes of yͤ ſame perſon, to whom they were ſold being in neceſſitie, of his broker or factor in that behalfe within three moneths after they bin ſold, for a leſſe ſumme of mony then they were ſold, for knowing yͤ ſame goods ſo bought againe, afore by the ſame buier or buiers to be ſold after the forme aforeſaid: and that euery perſon and perſons, lending or taking any mony to anie perſon or perſons to a certeine time, and taketh lands, tenements, or any hereditaments or other bonds, for perfite ſuertie, and ſure paiment of his or their monie lent at the time aſſigned, without condition or aduenture: and alſo at the time of the ſame lone or taking of the ſaide monie couenanteth, appointeth, or contracteth, couenaunten, appointen, or contracten, that he or they that ſo lende or take monie, ſhall haue the reuenues and profites of the landes, tenementes or hereditamentes of him that ſo boroweth or taketh monie by a certeine time: that then euerie perſon hereafter vpon anie of the premiſſes conuicted, forfaite the moite of the value in monie of the ſaide monie, goods, catals, marchaundiſes as is aboue ſaide, ſo ſolde or lent after ſuch value as they haue bene ſolde or lent for, after anie forme aforeſaide, whereof the king ſhall haue the one moite of yͤ ſame forfaiture, & the partie that will ſue the other moite, and if no man will ſue, then the king to haue the whole. And this ſute for the ſaide penaltie and forfaiture to bee as well at the kinges ſute as anie other that will ſue by information in anie of the kinges courtes of record, and ſuch proceſſe to be had in the ſame as is vſed in other actions of debt at the common lawe in the ſame courtes. Prouided alway that in the courtes of chauncerie and eſchequer they ſhall make ſuch proceſſe as hath bee vſed afore time in informations afore them commenced, wherein the defendaunt ſhall not wage his lawe, nor protection ne eſſoine de ſeruice le roy in the ſame allowable. And that the ſame act and ordinaunce, made the ſaide thirde yeere, and all thing therein conteined, bee from henceforth vtterlie voide and of none effect, reſeruing alway to the ſpirituall iuriſdiction their lawfull puniſhmentes in euerie cauſe of vſurie.

Chap. 9. Tindale.

For as much as the inhabitantes & dwellers within the lordſhip and boundes of North Tindale & South Tindale, not onlie in their owne perſons but alſo oftentimes accompanied & confedered with Scottes, auncient enimies to this realme, haue at manie ſeaſons in times paſt committed & done, and yet dailie and nightlie commit & do great hainous murders, treaſons, robberies, fellonies, depredations, riots and other great treſpaſſes vpon the king our ſouereigne lordes true and faithfull liege people and ſubiectes, inhabitours and dwellers within the ſhires of Northumberlande, Cumberlande, Weſtmerlande, Eramſhire, the biſhopricke of Durham, and in a part of Yorkeſhire, which treaſons, murders, robberies, fellonies, and other the premiſſes, haue not in time paſt in anie maner of forme bee puniſhed after the order and courſe of the common lawe, by reaſon of ſuch fraunchiſes as was vſed within the ſame, while it was in the poſſeſſion of anie other lorde or lordes then our ſouereigne lordes: and thus for lacke of puniſhment of the ſaide treaſons, murders, robberies, felonies, and other the premiſſes, the kinges true and faith-full liege people and ſubiectes, inhabiters, and dwellers within ſhires and places before rehearſed, can not be in anie maner of ſuertie of their bodies or goods, neither yet lie in their owne houſes, but either to be murdered, taken, or caried into Scotland, and there raunſomed, to their great deſtruction of bodie and goods, and vtter impoueriſhing for euer, vnleſſe due and haſtie remedie be had and founde in the premiſſes. In conſideration whereof the king our ſouereigne lorde, for verie zeale and gracious fauour that he beareth to the common weale of this his realme, not willing his true and faithfull liege people and ſubiectes to faile of remedie in the premiſſes, hath ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſame his realme in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that the ſaide lordſhip and boundes of North and South Tindale, nowe being in his handes, and all landes and tenementes within the ſame, in whoſe poſſeſſion ſo euer they bee, and euerie part thereof, ſtande and be from henceforth guildable, and part of the ſhire of Northumberland aforeſaid, and no franchiſe ne fraunchiſed, but that all maner of the kinges writtes ſhall runne, and all his officers as well his wardeine or wardeines of the Eaſt and middell marches of England, toward Scotland, their lieutenant or lieutenantes, the iuſtices of peace, ſhirife, eſchetour, coroners, bailifes and other officers, and their deputies, and euerie of them, of and within the countie of Northumberlande aforeſaide, and all their warrants and preceptes ſhall be obeied and of great auctoritie in the lawe by reaſon of this act, within the ſaide lordſhip and boundes of North and South Tindale, and in euerie part thereof, as in anie other part of the ſaide ſhire of Northumberland. And ouer this that no perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree, or condition he or they be of, that now hath or that hereafter ſhall haue auctoritie or power in his or their owne right, or any other mans, to dimit or let to ferme for yeere or yeeres, terme of life or at will, any lands or tenementes within the lordſhip and bounds of North and South Tindale aforeſaide, let or dimit to ferme for yeere or yeeres, terme of life or at will any landes or tenements within the ſaide lordſhip and bounds aforeſaid, but that the leſſee or leſſees, before he or they take or occupie by force of any ſuch leaſe, any landes and tenements, find good and ſufficient ſuertie at the leaſt two perſons, hauing lands and tenements within the ſaid ſhire of Northumberland, not being within the ſaide lordſhip and boundes of North and South Tindale, to the full yerely value of fourty ſhillings ouer and aboue all maner charges and repriſes, by recogniſaunce to the king our ſouereigne lord in xx.li. before two at the leaſt of the iuſtices of the peace of the ſaid ſhire of Northumberland, for the time being, whereof one ſhall be of the quorum, vpon this condition, that if the ſaid leſſee or leſſees within 8. daies warning to them or anie of them perſonally or openly at his or their owne houſe, or in his or their pariſh church, giuen by anie of the ſaide iuſtices of the peace, the ſhirife of the ſaide countie of Northumberlande, and wardeine of the Eaſt and middell marches for againſt Scotlande, or his lieutenaunt, perſonallie appeare not before the ſame iuſtices of the peace, wardeine or lieutenaunt, at anie ſeſſion or ſeſſions, gaile deliuerie, wardeine courte, at ſuch place and daie within the ſaid ſhire of Northumberland, or daie or daies of truce where ſo euer it ſhall fortune them to be aſſigned, and as they or any of them ſhall bee thervnto, as before is rehearſed warned: There & then to anſwere all ſuch treaſons, felonies, murders, and treſpaſſes or attemptates contrarie to the truce, from henceforth by them or any of them to be done: that then the ſaid ſumme of xx.li. ſhall be forfaited. The one halfe thereof to yͤ king our ſouereigne lord, & the other halfe to him or them that will ſue therefore, giuing thereof to the iuſtices, before the recogniſaunce is or ſhall be taken after the execution thereof be had of his ſaid part ſo recouered xl.s. And that the ſaid iuſtices of peace, afore whom the ſaid recogniſaunce is or ſhall be taken, as before is rehearſed, and all other iuſtices of the peace, within the ſaide ſhire of Northumberland for the time being, ſhall by reaſon of this ſaid act, haue full auctoritie to enquire thereof, and to take preſentments and informations thervpon, and to award proces and execution of and for the ſame ſumme, vpon any preſentment or information made thereon, in like & as ample forme, as the kings iuſtices of his bench ſhal or may do, of or for any recogniſance taken afore them, forfaited for yͤ keeping of the kings peace. And if any perſon or perſons, after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, take vpon him or them to let or dimit, as before is rehearſed, anie landes or tenements within the ſaide lordſhip or bounds of North & South Tindale, where no ſuch ſuerty is before had & found, as is before rehearſed, that perſon and perſons, that ſo letten or dimitten, ſhall by this ſame act, for euery acre of grounde, and euery meſe & manſion or dewelling place within yͤ ſaid lordſhip & bounds aforeſaid, by him or them ſo letten or dimit, forfait xl.s. yͤ one halfe to the king, & the other to him or them that will ſue therefore. And that yͤ iuſtices of the peace of the ſaid ſhire of Northumberland for yͤ time being, ſhall haue like auctoritie in all things, concerning this forfaiture, as by this act & ordinance is giuen to them in the recogniſance afore expreſſed. And that all maner of leaſes dimiſſions made or to be made of anie lands & tenements within the ſaid lordſhip and bounds of North and South Tindale, for the which no ſuch ſuerty ſhall be had & found at the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter, and ſo forth, as tofore is rehearſed, be and ſtand from thenceforth ward voide and of none effect. And if any perſon or perſons, of what eſtate degree or condition he or they be of, take vpon him or them, after the ſaide feaſt of Eaſter, to enter, occupie, dwell, hold, or inhabit anie lands, tenements, or ground within the ſaide lordſhip and bounds of North and South Tindale, not being his owne inheritance in fee taile, without lawfull or ſufficient auctoritie & ſufficient ſuertie by him or them found, as before is rehearſed, except he be a lord ſpirituall or temporall of this realme, that hee and they ſo doing, haue impriſonment by the ſpace of a yeere without baile or mainpriſe, and ſo to continue till he haue founde ſufficient ſuertie, to the king by recogniſaunce afore the iuſtices of peace of the ſaide countie to be of good bearing againſt the king and al his liege people.

Subſidie.

Praien the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where diuerſe and manie of your ſubiectes ſeuerallie graunted to your highnes diuerſe ſummes of monie, of their free willes and beneuolence, for the defence of this your realme, towarde the charge and great expences that your highneſſe ſuſteined and bare, for the ſaid defence, as well in your ſaid voiage roiall in the parties of Fraunce beyonde the ſea, as on this ſide, in for and about the ſame, which voiage your ſaide highneſſe toke vpon you in your moſt roiall perſon, to the great ieoperdie and labour of the ſame, as well for the ſaide defence of this your ſaide realme, as for the ſuertie, profite, weale and commoditie of vs all your true liege men & ſubiects, inhabited in the ſame, of which ſums of mony diuers your ſaid ſubiects full louingly haue made to you true paiment according to their grantes, & other many ſeuerall ſummes of mony by diuers of your ſubiectes to you in that party granted, as yet remaine not content ne paied part whereof reſteth in the hands of the ſaide graunters, and part in yͤ hands of the ſaid commiſſioners, collectors, & receiuors in that party aſſigned for the leuyrering & keeping of the ſame, which is not only to the damage, loſſe, & hurt of your ſaid highnes, but alſo to yͤ murmur, grudge, & miſcontenting of ſuch your ſaid ſubiects as haue made their ſaid payments in that behalfe. Wherfore may it pleaſe your ſaid highnes, by the aduiſe and aſſent of your lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, to ordeine enact and eſtabliſh, that proclamation be made in euery ſhire towne and hundred within this your realme, that euerie perſon and perſons, which haue not content and paied the ſummes of monie by them granted to your highnes, for the cauſes remembred, that ſuch commiſſioners, collectors, receiuors, and other perſons deputed to receiue the ſame, doe make payment thereof within 3. monethes next after the ſaide proclamation made, to the ſaide commiſſioners, collectors, receiuors, or other perſons that hereafter ſhall be therevnto deputed or aſſigned by your highneſſe, and by your letters patentes vnder your great ſeale, in like wiſe to be proclaimed: And that the ſaide commiſſioners haue auctoritie and power to make proceſſe to take euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſo ſhall make defaulte of paiment by his bodie, and the ſame to commit to the common gaile, there to remaine and abide without baile or mainpriſe, to the time he hath paied his ſaide dueties, or elſe finde ſufficient ſuertie for the paiment of the ſame, to the ſaide commiſſioners agreeable. And if anie ſuch perſon that hath not made paiment of this ſaide duetie graunted, be deceaſed: that then the goods and cattalles of him deceaſed, being in the handes of his executors or adminiſtrators not adminiſtred, be charged and chargeable to the ſaide paiment. And that the ſaide commiſſioners haue like auctoritie and power, to doe ordeine and awarde proceſſe for the leuie of the ſame, as the barons of the kinges eſchequer doe and may doe for the kinges dueties reſting afore them of recorde in the ſaide eſchequer. And the ſaide commiſſioners collectors or receiuors afore this time therevnto deputed, or that hereafter for and to the ſame ſhall be deputed, hauing and taking the receite of the ſame your monie, or anie parcell thereof, bee ſeuerallie countable for the portions by them ſeuerallie receiued, before your treaſurer of your warres, that was by you aſſigned in your ſaide viage roiall, or anie other perſon or perſons, that hereafter by your highneſſe ſhall be therevnto deputed and aſſigned, of and for all ſuch ſummes of monie as they ſeuerallie haue receiued, or ſhall receiue, or that ſeuerallie ſhall come to their handes, before ſuch auditors as by your highnes ſhall be aſſigned in that partie. And if anie of the ſaid commiſſioners, collectors, or receiuors, come not to make their accountes at ſuch daie and place as ſhall bee limitted in your priuie ſeale to them directed in that partie: that then vpon certificate of the deliuery of the ſaid writs or priuie ſeales, made by him that the ſame deliuered vpon his oth vnto the chaunceller of England for the time being, the ſaid chaunceller for the ſame time being hath auctoritie and power to make commiſſions vnder your great ſeale, to certaine perſons by his diſcretion to be limitted and choſen, to take the bodies of the ſaide perſons that ſo ſhall make defaulte, and them to commit to warde (vnleſſe then he make before the ſaide treaſurer or commiſſioners ſuch excuſe, as to them ſhall ſeeme reaſonable) there to remaine till they haue made their accountes of and for the premiſſes, and ſatiſfied, contented, and paied the duetie by them due vpon their ſaide accounts, vnto your ſaid treaſurer of your warres, or to ſuch other perſon or perſons to your vſe, as your grace ſhall depute and aſſigne in that partie to receiue the ſame. And ouer this be it enacted, by the ſaide auctoritie, that if anie trauers fortune to be betweene the ſaide commiſſioners, afore this time aſſigned to receiue the kings ſaid dueties, collectors, and the ſaid grantors, of and for paiing and not paieng, receiuing or not receiuing of the ſaide ſumme or ſummes of monie, or anie part thereof: that then, if the ſaide grauntors ſhew acquitance, writinges, bill, or billets, whereby it may appeare afore the commiſſioners hereafter to be aſſigned, that the ſaide commiſſioners or collectors afore this time aſſigned in forme rehearſed, haue receiued the ſumme or ſummes of mony, or anie part thereof, that ſhall bee in trauers, or that the ſaide grauntors offer to bring two witneſſes or mo, that will witneſſe and teſtifie the ſaide paiment, or that anie grauntor or grauntors denie the graunt of anie ſuch ſumme or ſummes of monie, or anie part thereof of them demaunded: that therevpon the ſaide commiſſioners hereafter to be aſſigned, haue auctoritie and power to heare the whole matter, euidence, writings, witnes, and proofes, concerning the ſaid trauers, and denieng of the ſaide graunts, and then to charge and diſcharge euery of the ſaide perſons by their diſcretions, as they ſhall ſeeme beſt, and the ſame charge or diſcharge to binde and diſcharge euery of the ſaide parties againſt the kings highnes, as if it were adiudged before the auditors aſſigned by due originall in anie of the kings courtes of record betweene partie and partie in actions of account, or elſe that ẏ king were plaintife in the ſaid action of account. Be it alſo ordeined by the ſaid auctoritie, that the ſaide commiſſioners hereafter to bee aſſigned by the kinges highneſſe, ſhall by their diſcretions vpon their account and full paiment made of all ſummes of monie by them receiued, or to be receiued by the collector or receiuers of the ſaide ſummes of beneuolence, allowe vnto the ſaide receiuers and collectors ſuch their reaſonable coſts and rewards, as they for ẏ gathering of the ſaide ſummes haue ſuſteined. Prouided alwaie that this act ſhall not extende to charge anie heire of anie man that hath afore time granted anie ſumme of monie by waie of his beneuolence.

Apprentiſe

Iuſtices of peace.

This act concerning ſhering of worſteds is repealed xix. H. vii. cap. xviii.

Praien the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where the citie of Norwiche, which is an auncient citie, is greatlie decaied, the eſpeciall cauſe whereof is for as much as there is a ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, the ſeuenth yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the fourth, conteining among other thinges, that no man nor woman ſhall put their ſonne or daughter to be apprentiſe within any citie or towne within the realme, but if they haue lands or rents to the value of xx.s. at the leaſt by the yere, and that to be teſtified vnder the ſeales of ii. iuſtices of peace, where the ſaid childe was borne: By force of which ſtatute many & diuers great vexations, troubles, and loſſes haue be done to the citizens of the ſaid citie, as well for the receiuing of their owne children as other to be their apprentiſes, whereby the moſt ſubſtanciall craft in the ſaid citie, called worſted weuers, and clothiers, by which crafts the weale of the ſaid citie hath and ſhould be mainteined, ſupported, and continued, among other diuers crafts there vſed bene greatly decaied: by reaſon whereof the yong people of the ſaid citie bene giuen to idelnes, vices, & other diuers miſgouernances: And if no remedie herein be had, it is like to be the vtter deſtruction of the ſaid citie. Wherfore pleaſe it your highnes, of your moſt benigne grace, in conſideration of the premiſſes, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, & the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, & by auctoritie of the ſame, to enact, ordeine, and eſtabliſh, that the ſaide citizens and euery of them, for euer from henceforth, ſhall be at their liberties to receiue and to take to their apprentiſes, the ſonne or daughter of any perſon or perſons, which will put their ſaide ſonnes or daughters to be apprentiſes in the ſaid citie, the ſtatute aforeſaide, and the paines in the ſame conteined, notwithſtanding: And that they and euery of them for euer from hence forth, ſhall be forpriſed and except out of euery puniſhment and hurt conteined in the ſaide ſtatute. Moreouer where in the ſaide citie in time paſt hath of long time be vſed, there ſhoulde no man take vpon him to ſhere worſteds, called tenne yardes, ſtamins, ne other worſteds, but if he had be apprentiſe to the occupation of ſhering of worſtedes by the ſpace of vii. yeeres, ſo that he might haue the knowledge and cunning in that craft: howe be it nowe of late manie and diuers perſons, as well aliens ſtraungers as other foreins, not dwelling nor inhabited, haue within your ſaide citie by ſupportation and maintenance of diuers perſons inhabitantes in the ſaide citie for their ſinguler lucre taken vpon them the occupation of ſhering of worſteds & ſtamins, which haue not the ſight, nor cunning in that occupation, nor haue be apprentiſe to the ſame, by whom great hurt and diuers loſſes haue bee, for the defaulte of cunning, by cutting and other wiſe of the ſaid worſteds, to the owners & other your ſubiectes in this your realme, infamie alſo and ſclaunder as well to the occupations of worſteds and worſted ſheremen, as to the marchantes, which put them, ſo hurt and cut in the ſhering, to ſale. And if remedie be not had in theſe premiſſes, and reformation, both the ſaid occupation of worſted making, and alſo of worſted ſhering, which God forbid, is likely to be deſtroied for lacke of policie and order: Wherefore it may pleaſe your highnes, by the auctoritie aforeſaide, for the common weale of your marchants and other your ſubiects of this your realme, and for the conſeruation and ſuſteining of the ſaid occupation of worſteds and worſted ſhering, to enact, ordeine, and eſtabliſh, that from henceforth no man ſhall take vpon him to ſhere worſteds within the ſaid citie, but if he hath be apprentiſe to ẏ ſaid occupation of worſted ſhering by ẏ ſpace of vii. yere, or ſuch as ẏ maſters of the ſaid occupation within the ſaid citie for the time being approuing their cunning, with the aduiſe of the maior for ẏ time being, will admitte. And they that take vpon them the contrarie, and the mainteinors of him or them ſo miſdoing, as afore is ſaide, eche of them to forfaitte for euerie defaulte xx.s. halfe to you gratious and ſoueraigne lorde, and halfe to the ſaide maior and maſters of the ſaide occupation of worſted ſhering, for that time being. And that no man inhabitant in the ſaid citie, citizen or other, being no ſhereman, keepe anie ſhereman of worſteds within his houſe, after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, vnder the paine of fortie ſhillings, as oft as he be in defaulte in the ſame: The one halfe to be emploied to you our ſoueraigne lorde, and the other halfe to the ſaid maior and maſters of the ſaid occupation of ſhering of worſted. And that the ſaide maſters of the ſaide occupation of ſhering of worſted, haue ſearch of the ſaid craft of worſted ſhering in euerie place, as well within the dwelling places of ſheremen, diers, and calenderers of the ſame worſteds, as other inhabitantes in the ſaide citie and precinct of the ſame. And if any citizen or inhabitant of the ſaide citie, denie the ſaide wardens of worſted ſhering due ſearch, or goe contrarie to this prouiſion and ordinance, ſhall forfaite the ſumme of xl.s. for euery defaulte, the one halfe thereof to you ſoueraigne lord, and the other halfe to the foreſaid maior and maſters of the ſaid occupation, the ſaide paine to bee leuied after the forme and ordinaunce purueied for the correction of the craft and occupation of worſted weauers within the ſaide citie. Prouided alway that the ſaide occupation of worſted ſhearing, ſhall make or doe to be made none ordinance concerning the ſaide occupation among them ſelfe, but ſuch as the Maior for the time being, with his brethren aldermen, ſhall thinke neceſſary and profitable to the kings ſubiectes.

Cap. 12. Poore ſuters.

Prayen the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where the king our ſoueraigne lorde, of his moſt gracious diſpoſition, willeth and intendeth indifferent iuſtice to be had and miniſtred according to his common lawes, to all his true ſubiectes, as well to the poore as rich, which poore ſubiectes be not of habilitie ne power to ſue according to the lawes of this lande for the redreſſe of iniuries and wrongs to them daily done, as well concerning their perſons, their inheritance, as other cauſes. For remedie whereof, in the behalfe of the poore perſons of this land, not able to ſue for their remedie after the courſe of the common law, be it ordeined & enacted by your highnes, & by the lords ſpirituall & temporall, & the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, & by authoritie of the ſame, that euerie poore perſon or perſons, which haue or hereafter ſhall haue cauſe of action or actions againſt anie perſon or perſons within this realme, ſhall haue by the diſcretion of the Chauncellor of this realme for the time being, writ or writs originall, and writs of Sub pena, according to the nature of their cauſes, therfore nothing paying to your highnes for the ſeales of the ſame, nor to anie perſon for the writing of the ſame writs to be hereafter ſued. And that the ſaid chancellor for the ſame time being, ſhall aſſigne ſuch of the clerkes, which ſhall do & vſe the making & writing of the ſame writs, to write the ſame redie to be ſealed, and alſo learned counſel & atturneys for the ſame without anie reward taking therefore, and after the ſaid writ or writs be returned, if it be afore the king in his bench, the Iuſtices there ſhall aſſigne to the ſame poore perſon or perſons councel learned by their diſcretions, which ſhall giue their councels, nothing taking for the ſame. And likewiſe the Iuſtices ſhall appoint atturney and atturneys for the ſame poore perſon or perſons, and all other officers requiſite and neceſſary to be had for the ſpeede of the ſaid ſuites to be had and made, which ſhall do their duetties without anie rewards for their counſels, help and buſines in the ſame, and the ſame law and order ſhall be obſerued and kept of all ſuch ſuites to be made afore the kings iuſtice of his common place, and barons of his eſcheker, and all other Iuſtices in courts of record, where any ſuch ſuites ſhall be.

Cap. 13.

Horſes & mares caried beyond the ſea.

For as much as many horſes and mares of the breede of this land, now of late haue been caried and conueyed out of the ſame into the parties of beyond the ſea, which cauſeth not onely the ſmaller number of good horſes to be within this realme for the defence thereof, but alſo the great & good plentie of the ſame to be in the ſaid parties beyond the ſea, that in times paſt were wont to be within this land, and ouer that the price of euery of them to be greatly enhaunced here, to the loſſe & noyance of all the kings ſubiects within the ſame. For remedy whereof it be ordeined, enacted, & eſtabliſhed, by the king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that from henceforth no maner perſon ne perſons carrie or conuey anie horſe out of this lande, without the kings ſpeciall licence, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, or any mare aboue the value of vi.s.viii.d. without the kings ſpeciall licence, vpon the ſaid paine of forfeiture of the ſame mare the owner thereof or his deputie, receiuing for the ſame mare vi.s.viii.d. at the time of the ſeaſure vpon the ſaid forfeiture, or els it to be not forfeit: and at the time of ſeaſure of the ſaide mare or mares they ſhall be praiſed by the head officers of the towne where anie ſuch mare is taken, and there openly to be ſold to the beſt price, and the halfe deale of the ouer price of her, being aboue vi.s.viii.d. to be to the king, and the other halfe to him that ſo ſeyſeth: and the kings partie thereof to be deliuered to the cuſtomer of the ſaid port. And that no maner perſon ne perſons hereafter, cary or conuey anie mare or mares out of this land, except euery of the ſaid mares ſo carried be of the age of thrée yeeres at the leaſt, & not ouer the price of vi.s.viii. paying to the king for euery of them not aboue the value of vi.s.viii.d. ſo to be carried or conueeyed in the ſame port, ſuch cuſtomes as hath be for mares before vſed. And that for euery mare of more value hereafter by the kings licence, after the forme aforeſaide, conueyed or carried beyond the ſea, the owner thereof or his deputie aſſigned or ſeruant ſhall paye ſixe ſhillinges eight pence for the cuſtome of the ſame, before it be ſhipped, vnder the peine of forfeiture of euery mare ſo ſhipped ere they be cuſtomed. And ouer that be it enacted, that if anie perſon at the port will giue for anie of the mares ſo to be caried vii. ſhillinges, that it be lawfull to him ſo giuing and paying the ſaide ſeuen ſhillinges, to take the ſaide mare, if ſhée be not afore taken by the kinges officer, nor the kinges licence be not in the behalfe aforeſaide for the ſame mare to be carryed, obteined. Prouided alway that it ſhall bee lawfull to euery perſon or perſons, being denizens, hereafter to carrie horſe beyonde the ſea, the kinges licence in that behalfe not obteined, for their owne vſe, not intending at the time of the ſhipping of the ſame, nor then fully purpoſed to ſell him, and that entent to be knowen by the othe of him that ſhall do ſhip the ſame horſe, taken before the cuſtomer or ſearcher of the ſame porte, this act notwithſtanding.

Cap. 14. Straungers made denizens. Cuſtome payde by denizens.

Where the king our ſoueraigne lord is greatly deceiued in his cuſtomes & ſubſidies by marchauntes ſtraungers, ſuch as the king our ſoueraigne lorde hath graunted by his letters patentes to be denizens, and to pay none other cuſtomes ne ſubſidies for their marchandiſe inward & outward, but as a denizen, vnder colour thereof they cuſtome not onely their own marchandiſe vnder the forme aforeſaid, but alſo they colourably enter into ẏ cuſtomers books the marchandiſes of other ſtrangers, calling and ſaying the ſaide goods of other marchants to be the goods of them ſo made denizens, to the great loſſe and defraude to the king our ſoueraigne lorde. Wherefore be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lorde, the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all marchants ſtrangers and other that be made denizens by the kings letters patents, or otherwiſe, pay from henceforth ſuch cuſtomes and ſubſidies for their goods and marchandiſe, inward and outward, as they ſhould haue payed, if ſuch letters patents and gaunts had neuer to them be made.

Cap. 15.

Where as great extortion is yeerely vſed and had within diuerſe counties within this realme of England, by the ſubtiltie and vntrue demeanor of ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, ſhire clerkes, or anie other officers, holding and keeping the counties in the name of the ſhirife, that is to ſaye, if any man affirme a plaint before the ſhirifes in the counties, or before any other of the ſaide officers, the ſaid ſhirife, vnderſhirife, or his ſhire clerke will enter or cauſe to be entred into their bookes, in the ſame plaintifes name diuers and manie plaintes, both of dette, treſpas, and couenant, at their pleaſure, and vnknowing to the ſaid plaintife, in whoſe name the ſaide plaintes beene affirmed, to the intent that if the defendant appere not at euery ſhire daie or court, hanging the ſame plaint, he ſhall leſe for this default made at euery plaint iiii. d. where diuerſe times by couine betweene the ſaid ſhirifes vnderſhirifes and ſhire clerke, and the other foreſaid officers the ſaide defendants being neuer attached ſummoned nor warned, according to the due forme of the common lawe, wherefore the ſame parties ſo put in ſuite, haue no knowledge of anie ſuch ſuite had againſt them: And ouer that the ſame ſhirifes vnderſhirifes and ſhire clerkes, will cauſe diuerſe plaints to be taken in the names of ſuch perſons that are not in plaine life, where the ſaide defendant ſhall haue like loſſe as is before rehearſed, ſo that by the vnlawfull demeanour of the ſaide ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, ſhire clerkes, for time being, and the bailifes of the hundredes for their default and negligence in their offices, and couine betweene the ſaide ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, ſhire clerkes and other of the foreſaide officers, cauſeth the amerciaments, that be in one yeere after the bookes be ingroſſed, to amount of great and importunable ſummes of money, which ſummes of money beene yeerely leuied of the poore commons in the ſaid counties by the ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, and ſhire clerkes, and other deputies being of no ſubſtance, neither of hauour, which deputies take and leuye more by extortion than is conteined to their eſtretes, to the expreſſe pillage & empoueriſhing of the ſaide commons. Be it therefore enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that no ſhirifes, vnderſhirifs or ſhire clerkes hereafter, nother any perſon in their names, nor by their commaundement, ſhall take and enter no plaintes into their bookes, in no mans name, vnleſſe the partie plaintife be in his proper perſon preſent in the courtes, or els by ſufficient atturney or deputie, that is knowen to be of good name and diſpoſition: and that the ſame partie plaintife ſhall finde pledges to purſue his ſaid plaint, ſuch perſons as are knowen there in the counties, and that the partie plaintife ſhall haue but one plaint for one treſpas or contract. And if the ſaid ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, ſhire clerkes, take and enter, or cauſe to be entred any mo plaintes, than the plaintife ſuppoſeth that he hath cauſe of action againſt the defendant, that then the ſaide ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, ſhire clerkes, that do enter or cauſe to be entred anie ſuch plaints, contrarie to the ſaid prouiſion and ordinance, ſhall forfeit for euery default xl.s. the one halfe thereof to be had to the vſe of our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other partie to him or them that will ſue and proue the ſame matter by action of Det or information in the eſcheker. And ouer that the Iuſtices of peace in the ſame counties, and euerie of them, ſhall haue authoritie vpon complaint made by the partie, ſo vnlawfully greeued, to examine the ſaid ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, or ſhire clerkes, and plaintifes, and if the ſaid Iuſtics of peace, or none of them finde by their examination default in the ſaide ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, or ſhire clerkes, in entering of the ſaide plaintes diſceitfully, for his or their auantage, as is before rehearſed, contrary to this preſent act, that then the ſaide ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, and ſhire clerkes, ſhall be conuict and attaint of the ſame offence without further enquirie or examination, and that he ſhall forfeit vpon the ſame examination xl.s. to the vſe of our ſoueraigne lord the king for euery default. And the ſaide Iuſtices of peace, that ſo ſhall take the examination, ſhall certifie the ſame examination within a quarter of a yeere into the kings eſcheker, vpon peine of xl.s. And furthermore that the ſaide ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, & ſhire clerkes, make or cauſe to be made a ſufficient precept to the bailifes of the ſaid hundredes, to attach, ſummon, or warne the defendants that are ſo in ſuite, to appeare and anſwere to the ſaide plaintes, and if there be any default in the ſaide bailifes of the hundredes, in warning of the defendants, to appeare and aunſwere to the ſaid plaintes commenced againſt them in their counties or in executing their ſaide office: that then the ſame bailifes ſhall forfeit for euery default vnto our ſoueraigne lord the king xl. ſhillings, and to be attaint & conuict thereof by like examination of the Iuſtices of peace, or euery of them, as before is rehearſed. And that the ſame ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, ſhire clerkes, and their deputies for the time being, ſhall make none eſtretes to leuye the ſaid ſhirifes amerciaments, vntill ſuch time that two Iuſtices of peace, whereof one ſhall be of the quorum, haue had the viewe and ouerſight of their bookes, and that the eſtretes be endented betwixt the ſaid Iuſtices of peace and the ſaide ſhirifes and vnderſhirifes, and ſealed with their ſeales, the one part to remaine with the ſaide iuſtices, and the other parte with the ſaide ſhirifes or vnderſhirifes, to the entent they may

And that theſe perſons which ſhall be gatherers of the ſame amerciaments, as bailifes or other officers, be ſworne by the ſaide Juſtices, that they take no more money than is forfeited and conteined in the eſtreates, ſeled with the ſeales of the ſaid iuſtices of peace, vpon the ſame peine of forfeiture as before is rehearſed; thereof the ſame gatherers to be conuict by examination of the ſaid Juſtices of peace, or one of them as before is rehearſed. Prouided alwaye that the ſaide Juſtices of peace ſhall be appointed and named at the generall ſeſſions after the feaſt of Saint Michael the archangel, by him that is Cuſtos rotulorum of the ſaide counties, or els by the eldeſt of the quorum in his abſence to haue the ouerſight and controlment of the ſaide ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, and ſhire clerkes, and other of the ſaide officers, and of the ſaide ſhirifes amerciaments. And the ſaid Juſtices of peace, vpon ſuggeſtion or information of the partie ſo gréeued, ſhall make like proces as in an action of treſpas againſt the ſaide ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes or ſhire clerkes, and other the foreſaide officers, miſdealing as before is rehearſed, for to appeare before them to anſwere to the ſaid ſuggeſtion or information.

Cap. 16.
Caleys.
Watch keping in Caleys.

Where king Edward the thirde, vpon the winning of the towne of Caleys, eſtabliſhed and made diuers good ſtatutes, ordinances, and lawes within the ſame towne, for the ſure and ſaufe keping of the ſame: And thereupon for the ſame entent he gaue diuerſe tenements and faire places builded there, to diuerſe lordes and noble men of his armie, fréely to them & their heires without anie rents or charges yelding for the ſame, ſaue onely for finding of certeine watches limitted to euery of the ſaid places for kéeping of the ſame towne, to the entent ſpecially, that the ſaid watches by the ſaid lordes and honorable men ſhould the better and more ſure and firmely be kept and mainteined. And ſo it is nowe, that the owners of the premiſſes conſider not their ſaid charges, ne do not beare the ſaide watch by them due as is aforeſaide, by meane whereof the burgeſes of the ſaid towne, for the ſuerty of the ſame, haue beene many yéeres & yet nightly beene forcharged, to their great importable loſſe, which they cannot nor may continue & ſuſteine without the king our ſoueraigne lord prouide for the reliefe of the ſame towne. For the remedie whereof the king our ſoueraigne lord by the aſſent & the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, ordeineth and enacteth, that who that hath anie frée hold within the towne of Caleys, out of the which anie yerely charge is going for the ſure kéeping of the ſaid town, for watch or otherwiſe, that hereafter ceaſeth in doing of the ſaid charge by the ſpace of a yéere and a daie, that then the ſaide fréeholde be ſeaſed into the kings hands, he to haue it to him & his heires, & during the time it be in the hands of the kings highnes, the treaſurer of Caleys, take the profits thereof to the kinges vſe, and beare the charges yéerely going out of the ſaid fréehold towards the ſaide kéeping of the ſaide towne, as before that time it was accuſtomed to beare, if the ſaid frée hold will beare the ſaid charge. And in like wiſe be charged the kings committees or his patentées for ẏ kéeping of the ſaid towne as afore is ſaid, and for the default of the doing of the ſame by the ſpace of a yéere and a daie, the ſaide tenements effſones to be ſeaſed as is aforeſaid. And ſo from time as oft as the ſaid charge is not content ne payde by the ſaid time and during the time the ſaid tenements be in the handes of the kings highnes. And if the ſaid treaſurer of Caleys pay not the ſaide charge within a yéere and a daie, that then the ſaid treaſurer forfeit the double value of the ſame, to the kings highnes, if the reuenues be able to finde the ſaid watche.

Cap. 17.

Item for as much as diuers perſons hauing little ſubſtance to liue vpon, vſe many times as well by nettes, ſnares, and other engins to take and deſtroy feſants, and partriches vppon the lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements of diuers owners and poſſeſſioners of the ſame without licence, conſent, or agréement of the ſame owners or poſſeſſioners, by the which the ſame owners & poſſeſſioners léeſe not only their pleaſure and diſport, that they their friendes and ſeruants ſhould haue about hawking, hunting and taking of the ſame, but alſo they léeſe the profit and auaile that by the occaſion ſhould growe to their houſhold, to the great hurt of all lordes and gentilmen, and other hauing anie great liuelode within this realme. Wherefore it is ordeined and enacted, by the authoritie of this preſent parliament, that it ſhall not be lawful to anie perſon, of what condition he be, to take or cauſe to be taken anie feſants or partriches by nette, ſnares, or other engins out of his owne waren, vpon the frehold of anie other perſon, without the aſſent, agrement and ſpeciall licence of the owner or poſſeſſioner of the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of x. li. the one halfe thereof to the partie that will ſue for the ſame by action of det, or by bill, or otherwiſe, and the other halfe thereof to the owner or poſſeſſioner of the ſaid ground, vpon the which the ſaide feſants & partriches be ſo taken.

And it is ordeined by the ſaid authoritie, that no maner of perſon, of what condition or degrée he be, take or cauſe to be taken, be it vpon his owne ground or anie other mans, the egges of anie fawcon, goſhaukes, laners, or ſwannes, out of the neſt vpon peine of impriſonment of a yere and a day, and fine at the kings wil, the one halfe thereof to the king, & the other half to ẏ owner of the ground where the egges were ſo taken, & that the Juſtices of the peace haue authoritie by this preſent act, to heare and determine ſuch matters, as wel by inquiſition as information and proues.

Also it is ordeined by ẏ ſaid authoritie, that no man from the feaſt of Paſche next comming, beare anie hauke of the bréede of England, called an nyeſſe, goſhauke, taſſell, laner, laneret, or fawcon, vpon peine of forfeiture of his hauke to the king, & the ſaid hauke to be at ẏ kings pleaſure. parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that if anie women, which hath had or hereafter ſhall haue anie eſtate in dower, or for terme of life, or in taile iointly with her huſband, or onelie to her ſelfe or to her vſe, in anie manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, of the inheritance or purchace of her huſband, or giuen to the ſaid huſband and wife in taile, or for terme of life, by anie of the anceſtors of the ſaid huſband, or by any other perſon ſeaſed to the vſe of the ſaid huſband, or of his anceſtors, & haue or ſhall hereafter being ſole, or with any other after taken huſband, diſcontinued or diſcontinue, aliened, releaſed, or confirmed, alien releaſe or confirme, with warrantie, or by couin ſuffered or ſuffer any recouer of ẏ ſame againſt them or any of them, or anie other ſeaſed to their vſe, or to the vſs of either of them, after the forme aforeſaid, that all ſuch recoueries, diſcontinuances, alienations, releaſes, confirmations and warrantes, ſo had and made, and from henſeforth to be had and made, be vtterly void and of none effect. And that it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon and perſons, to whome the intereſt, title, or inheritance after the deceaſe of the ſaid women of the ſaid manors, lands, and tenements or other hereditaments, being diſcontinued, aliened or ſuffered to be recouered after the firſt daie of December next comming, in the forme aforeſaid, ſhould appertaine, to enter into all and euerie of the premiſſes, and peaceablie to poſſede and inioy the ſame in ſuch maner and forme as he or they ſhould haue done, if no ſuch diſcontinuance, warrantie, nor recouerie had be had nor made. And ouer this be it ordeined and enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, that if anie of the ſaid huſbands & women, or anie other ſeaſed, or that ſhalbe ſeaſed to the vſe of them of the eſtate afore ſpecified, after the ſaid firſt daie of December, do make or cauſe to be made, or ſuffer anie ſuch diſcontinuance, alienations, warranties, or recoueries in forme aforeſaid, then it ſhalbe lawfull to the perſon or perſons, to whome the ſaid tenementes ſhould or ought to belong after the deceaſe of the ſaid women, to enter into the ſame, and them to poſſede and inioie, according to ſuch title and intereſt as they ſhould haue had in the ſame, if the ſame woman had bene dead, no diſcontinuance nor recouerie had, as againſt the ſaid huſband during his life, if the ſaid diſcontinuance, alienation, warranties and recoueries be hereafter had by or againſt the ſame huſbands and women during the couerture and eſpoſell betwixt them. Prouided alwaie that the ſaid women, after the deceaſe of their ſaid huſband, may reenter into the manors, lands and tenements, and them to inioy according to their firſt eſtate in ẏ ſame. And ouer this be it ordeined and enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, that if the ſaid women, at the time of ſuch diſcontinuance, alienations, recoueries, warranties, after the ſaid firſt daie of December, in forme aforeſaid to be had and made of anie of ẏ premiſſes be ſole, that then ſhe ſhalbe barred & excluded of her title & intereſt in the ſame from henſeforth, and ẏ the perſon and perſons, to whome the title intereſt and poſſeſſion of the ſame ſhould belong after the ceaſe of the ſaid woman, ſhall immediatlie after the ſaid diſcontinuance, alienations, warranties and recoueries, enter into the ſame manors, lands, tenements & other hereditamentes and the to poſſede and inioy according to his or their title in the ſame. Prouided alſo that this act extend not to auoid anie recouerie, diſcontinuance, or warrantie after the forme aforeſaid afore this time had made or ſuffered, but onelie where the ſaid huſband and woman, or either of them now being aliue, or any other to their vſe, now haue intereſt and title to the ſaid manors, lands tenements or other hereditaments aliened, diſcontinued, or ſuffered to be recouered after the forme aforeſaid, and thereof nowe taking the iſſues and profits, or anie other perſon or perſons to their vſe. Prouided alſo that this act extend not to anie ſuch recouerie, or diſcontinuance to be had with the heires next inheritable to the ſaid woman, or he or they that next after the death of the ſame woman ſhould haue eſtate of inheritance in the ſame manors lands or tenements, be aſſenting or agreeable to the ſaid recoueries, where the ſame aſſent and agreement be of record or inrolled. Prouided alſo that it ſhalbe lawfull to euerie ſuch woman, being ſole or married, after the death of her firſt huſband, to giue, ſell or make diſcontinuance of anie ſuch lands terme of her life onelie, after the courſe and vſe of the common law before the making of this preſent act.

forfeit in iſſues xii.d. and at ſecond default two ſhillings, and ſo at euerie ſuch default after that, the iſſues and penalties to be double and all ſuch iſſues left in the maiors court, ſhall be forfeited leuied and perceiued to the vſe and behoofe of the maior and commonaltie of the ſaid citie, and all ſuch iſſues loſt in the ſhirifes court or courts ſhalbe forfeited leuied and perceiued to the vſe of the ſhirifes of the ſame citie for the time being, towardes their feefarme. And alſo be it enacted by like auctoritie, that the party greeued by anie vntrue or falſe verdite hereafter to be giuen in anie of the courts of the ſaid citie, ſhall and may haue and ſue attaint by bill in the huſtinges of London, holden for common plées before the maior and aldermen of the ſame citie for the time being, and thervpon a precept to be awarded and made by the ſame maior to euerie alderman of ẏ ſaid city, or his deputie in his abſence, to preſent and certifie the names of iiii. indifferent and diſcréete perſons of good fame, & euery of them of ſubſtance of C.li. or more, citizens of the ſame citie, dwelling in his ward, to the maior and aldermen of the ſaid citie for the time being at the huſtinges of common plées within the ſame citie then next inſuing to be holden, of which perſons ſo preſented and certified the ſaid maior and vi. aldermen or mo, holding the ſame court of huſtinges, ſhall take name and impanell xlviii. by their diſcretion thought moſt able ſufficient and indifferent, and the maior and his ſucceſſors maiors of the ſaid citie, ſhall do to be ſommoned the ſaid xlviii. perſons, ſo by the ſaid maior and aldermen named and impanelled, and alſo the iurors of the petie iurie, and the partie or parties named as tenants or defendants in the ſaid bill of attaint, to appeare before the maior and aldermen of the ſame citie at the huſtings of common plées then next to be holden in the ſame citie, and if the ſame attaint then, or any other time hap to remaine vntaken for or by default of iurors by challenge or otherwiſe, that vpon euerie tales granted, the ſaid maior and aldermen ſhall impanell the ſaid perſons which were certified by the ſaide aldermen or their deputies, and omitted out of the ſaid panell, or put therein other perſon or perſons being citizens of the ſaid citie, and of the ſubſtance of C.li. or more. And alſo that all the plée and plées to be alledged or pleaded by or for the tenant or defendant, tenants or defendantes, or by any of the iurours of the petie iurie in the ſame attaint, and triable by anie iurie or inqueſt ſhall be tried within the ſame citie, & by the inqueſts of the ſame, and in none other place ne countie. And that none of the ſaid pety iury, ne other parties named in any ſuch bill of attaint, ſhall or may haue any chalenge to ẏ array or to anie perſon or poll therein being impanelled for lacke of ſufficience of goods or of landes. Ouer that be it prouided and enacted, that the iudgement in any ſuch attaint ſhall not extend to anie lands or tenements, ne to other puniſhment of the petie iurie, ne other proceſſe to be in the ſame attaint then is limited and appointed in this preſent act, and if the xxiiii. perſons of the ſaid fortie eight perſons ſworne in the ſame atteint, finde that the iurours named in the petie iurie haue made and giuen an vntrue verdite, that then the iudgement ſhall be againſt the partie defendant in the ſame attaint as is vſed in attaint ſued by writ at common law. And furthermore ẏ iudgement in ẏ ſame attaint ſhall be againſt the petie iurie, that euery of the iurours of the ſame petie iurie ſhall forfeit and léeſe xx.li. or more by the diſcretion of the maior and aldermen of ẏ ſaid city, kéeping the ſame huſtings, or any other huſtings of common plées, to ſuch vſe and behoofe as other iſſues & penalties bene forfeited and loſt in any action or plaint commenced before the maior and aldermen of the ſame citie, and his bodie to be impriſoned, there to remaine without baile or mainepriſe, vi. moneths or leſſe by the diſcretion of the maior and aldermen of the ſame citie for the time being, and to be diſabled for euer to be ſworne in anie iurie before any temporall iudge. And ouer that be it enacted by the ſame auctoritie, that if it be found by the graund iurie in the ſame attaint, that the petit iurie haue giuen a true verdit, that then the graund iurie ſhall haue auctoritie and power to inquire if anie of the petie iurie tooke or perceiued any ſumme of monie, or other reward or promiſe of mony, or other reward of them named defendants or tenants in the ſame attaint, or if any other perſon or perſons by the commandement couin or aſſent of anie of them, to or for the intent of their verdit giuing, wherevpon the ſame attaint is grounded, and after any ſuch corruption by the ſaid graund iurie is founden, ẏ then the iurour or iurors of the ſaid petie iurie, that is found ſo defectiue in taking and perceiuing anie ſummes of monie or other reward or promiſe of reward, ſhall loose, forfeit, and paie to the plaintife or plaintifes named in the ſaid attaint ten times the value of that ſum, other reward ſo taken perceiued or promiſed, in forme abouesaid, & to ſuffer impriſonment without baile or mainpriſe, vi. moneths or leſſe by ẏ diſcretion of the ſaid maior and aldermen, and to be diſabled for euer to be ſworne in anie iurie before any temporall iudge. And ouer that be it enacted, that ſuch defendant or tenant, defendantes or tenantes in the ſame attaint, ſhall loose, forfeit and pay to ſuch vſe and behoofe as other penalties bene forfeited within the ſame citie ten times the value of that ſumme of moneie or other reward by him or them ſo giuen to anie of the ſaide petie iurie, and the ſame defendant or tenant, defendants or tenants, to be impriſoned, there to remaine without baile or maineprife during ſix moneths, or leſſe by the diſcretion of the ſaid maior and aldermen. And if any debts, damages, or coſts be recouered in any action wherevpon ſuch attaint is grounded, and by the ſame attaint that it be found, that the petie iurie haue giuen a falſe ſerement, that then for that recouerie and reſtitution of the ſame debt dammages and coſtes, the plaintife or plaintifes, in euery attaint ſhall and maie ſue an action of debt againſt the ſame defendant or tenant, by writ, bill or plaint in euerie of the kinges courtes, wherein the ſame defendant or tenant and euerie of them, ſhall not be receiued to doe his lawe. And ouer that be it enacted, that if anie plaintife or plaintifes, tiſes, in anie ſuch attaint commenced before the ſaid maior and aldermen vpon any record remaining within the ſame citie, and therein be none ſute, or if the firſt ſerment therein be affirmed, that then he or they ſhall haue impriſonment, and make fine by the diſcretion of the maior and aldermen of the ſaid citie for the time being, and that fine to be and go to the maior and commonaltie of the ſaid citie. And if there be two or mo plaintiſes in anie ſuch atteint ordeined by this eſtatute, and anie of them die or be noneſute, the other by this act ſhall be enabled to ſue for the proceeding in the ſame atteint, and notwithſtanding the death of the defendant or tenant, defendants or tenants, or anie of the petie iurie named in the ſame attaint, ſo that there be two of the ſame petie iurie on line, the ſame attaint ſhall not abate. And alſo be it ordeined by the ſame auctoritie, that if anie of the iurours of the ſaid graund iurie, impanelled and ſommoned in forme aforeſaid, at the ſommons make default, ſo that the attaint remaineth to be taken for default of iuroures, that then euerie of the ſame iurours ſo making default loſe and forfeit for the firſt default fortie ſhillings, and at the ſecond default, v.pound. And at euerie default after that x.pound and like proceſſe to be made and ſued there againſt the graund iurie and the petie iurie, and the partie and parties, as is to be made and ſued in attaint ſued at the common lawe: And that the ſame proceſſe to be made returnable at euerie huſtings of common plees: and that the attaint remaine not to be taken after the firſt ſummons returned for or by the default of the defendant, or tenant, defendants or tenants, or of anie of the petie iurie named in the ſame atteint by this act ordeined. And that the ſaid iſſues or penalties forfeited by anie of the ſaid graund iurie, be forfeit, leuied & perceiued to the vſe of the maior and commonaltie of yͤ ſaid citie. And that no protection nor aſſoine be allowed in this attaint by this act purueied. Prouided alway that vpon all attaints hereafter to be commenced within the ſaid citie, vpon anie record, wherein the triall and enqueſt was by halfe tonge, that the ſaid maior and aldermen ſhall impanell the graund iury in the ſame attaint, the one halfe of ſtrangers of good fame, & of the ſubſtance of goods to the value of C.li. and more inhabiting within the ſame citie at large, and the reſidue of the ſame graund iurie to be of like value and ſubſtance of goods impanelled of citizens as aforeſaid. And ouer this be it enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, that no act of attaint of the petie iurie made in this preſent parliament, nor nothing therein conteined, other than this preſent act, nor none other penaltie or puniſhment in any other act than this afore conteined in this preſent act, be hurtfull nor extend to anie iurie or inqueſt hereafter to be taken before anie iudge of and within the ſame citie.

Cap.22. Laborers. Artificers.

Where diuers eſtatutes before this time haue bene made and ordeined for ſeruantes of huſbandry, and alſo for labourers and artificers, by diuers and manie roiall & noble progenitors vnto our ſoueraigne lord the king now being, and in eſpeciall a ſtatute made by the right noble chriſten prince of bleſſed memorie king Henry the vi. vncle vnto our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, the xxiii. yeere of his reigne, which notwithſtanding great and many defaults daily increaſe reſt & continue among labourers and artificers ſome becauſe the ſaid eſtatutes be not executed, and ſome becauſe the remedie by the ſaid eſtatutes, is not very perfit, nor giueth certaine ne haſtie remedie, that dailie by their ſubtile imagination in defraud of the ſaid eſtatutes manie of the king our ſoueraigne lords ſubiects bene hurt, deceiued, let, and damaged in their building and huſbandrie. Be it therefore eſtabliſhed, enacted, and ordeined by auctoritie of this preſent parliament. Firſt yͭ no bailiſe of huſbandrie ſhall take for his wages by the yeere aboue xvi.s.viii.d. and for his clothing v.s. with meat and drinke: No chiefe hine as a carter, or chiefe ſhepheard, aboue twentie ſhillinges by the yeare, and for his clothing fiue ſhillings with meat and drink: No common ſeruant of huſbandry aboue xvi.s.viii.d. by the yeare, and for his clothing iiii.s. with meat and drinke: No woman ſeruant aboue x.s. by the yeare, and for her clothing, iiii.s. with meat and drinke: No child within the age of xiiii. yeares, aboue vi.s.viii.d. by the yeare, and for his clothing, foure ſhillings with meat and drinke. And that no artificer ne labourer hereafter named, take more ne greater wages then in this eſtatute is limited, vpon the paine aſſeſſed as well vnto the taker as to the yeuer, that is to ſaie, a freemaſon, maiſter carpenter, rough maſon, bricklaier, maiſter tiler, plummer, glaſier, keruer, nor ioyner, from Eaſter vnto Michaelmas, euery of theſe artificers aforeſaid, vi.d by the day without meat or drinke, & with meat and drinke iiii.d. And from Michelmas vnto Eaſter v.d. without meat or drink, and with meat and drinke, iii.d. And that the wages of a ſhipwright fro the feaſt of Candlemas to the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, ſhall not exceed the form inſuing, that is to ſaie a maiſter ſhipcarpenter, taking the charge of yͤ worke, hauing men vnder him by the daie v.d. with meat and drinke, & without meat and drink, vii.d. An other ſhipcarpenter called an hewer, by the daie iiii.d. with meat and drinke, without meat and drinke vi.d. An able clincher by the daie, ii.d. with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke, v.d. An holder by the daie iii.d. with meat and drinke and without meat and drinke, iiii.d. A maiſter calker by the day, iiii. pence with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke, vi.d. Another meane calker by the day, iii.d. with meat and drink, and without meat and drinke, v.d. A calker labouring by the tide for as long time as he may aboue the water & bineth the water ſhal not exceede for his wages for euery tide, iiii.d. with meat & drinke. And from the feaſt of Michaelmas to Candlemas the wages of a maiſter ſhipwright by the daie, foure pence with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke, vi.d. An hewer by yͤ daie, iii.d. with meat and drinke, and without meate and drinke v.d. An able clincher by the day, ii.d.ob. with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke, iiii.d.ob. An holder by the day i.d.ob. with meat and drinke, and without meat and drink iii.d. A maiſter calker by the daie three pence with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke fiue pence. An other meane calker by the daie two pence halfepenie with meat and drink, and without meat and drinke foure pence halfepenie. Be it alſo enacted that in ſuch ſhires and countries, that where it hath bene and is now vſed to giue leſſe wages, that in thoſe ſhires and countries they ſhall ſo giue: And the taker of wages be compelled according as they haue leſſe vſed to take, this act notwithſtanding. And that the maiſter maſon and maiſter carpenter, which ſhall take the charge of the worke, hauing vnder anie of them, ſix men, ſhall haue ſeuen pence without meat and drinke, and fiue pence by the day with meat and drinke. And that euerie perſon and artificer ſpecified in this eſtatute, being not retained in any ſeruice for any worke, be compelled to ſerue euerie other perſon for ſuch wages as in this eſtatute before is limited. And that no artificer retained in ſeruice to worke with the kings highneſſe or any perſon, depart not from his ſaid highneſſe, or from the ſaid other perſon, till ſuch time as the worke be finiſhed, accompliſhed or made an end, if the perſon ſo retaining thartificer, ſo long will haue him & paie his wages, vpon paine of impriſonment of any perſon ſo departing by the ſpace of a month, and to make fine of xx.s Alwaies prouided and foreſeene, that if the ſame artificer be deſired vnto the kings ſeruice and worke, that then he maie lawfullie depart, ſo that he enter and be in the kings ſeruice and worke. And it is further ordeined by yͤ ſaid auctoritie, that euerie other labourer and artificer not afore named, ſhall take from Eaſter till Michaelmas, for euerie daie that he ſo laboureth, except the ſeaſon of harueſt, iiii.d. without meate and drinke and ii.d. with meat and drinke. And from Michaelmas to Eaſter, iii.d. without meat or drinke, and i.ob. with meat and drinke. And in the ſaid time of harueſt euerie mower ſhall take by the daie iiii.d. with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke vi.d. A repar and carter euerie of them, iii.d. by the daie with meat & drinke, and without meat and drinke, v. d. A women labourer and other labourers euerie of them ii.d.ob. by the day with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke iiii.d.ob. And that no artificer nor labourer working by the halfe daie, take no wages but for the halfe daie, and nothing for the whole daie And if any bailiffe of huſbandrie, hine, carter, ſhepheard, common ſeruant, or child ſeruant aboue ſpecified, not reteined in anie ſeruice or work, refuſe to ſerue according to the ordinance aboue ſpecified: then the ſame perſon to be committed to ward by the conſtable, or other head officer within the citie, towne, or village, where the party ſo refuſing is at the complaint of him that will receiue ſuch ſeruant, there to remaine till he haue found ſuretie to ſerue according to the ſaid ordinance. Furthermore if anie artificer or labourer, being not retained in any ſeruice or worke, refuſe to ſerue after yͤ rate of this ſtatute, or take greater, or more wages, than therein is limited for the ſame artificers & labourers, or if any artificer or labourer take wages for the whole daie, where he worketh but the halfe daie, that then euerie artificer and labourer offending anie of the foreſaid articles, forfeit for euerie default, as often as they offend, xx.s. and they to be conuicted for euery ſuch default by preſentment afore the iuſtices of peace in the ſeſſions according to the common law, or by examination of the ſame iuſtices in the ſame ſeſſions, or by examination of ii. iuſtices of the peace out of yͤ ſeſſions, in any place within the ſhire where they bene iuſtices, and where ſuch default ſhalbe made, & that the ſaid forfeiture of xx.s. be leuied of their lands, goods, and cattals ſo offending. And furthermore where diuers artificers & labourers retained to worke and ſerue, waſt much part of the day, & deſerue not their wages, ſometime in late comming vnto their worke, earlie departing therefro, long ſitting at their breakfaſt at their dinner and nonemeat, and long time of ſleeping at after noone, to the loſſe and hurt of ſuch perſons as the ſaid artificers and labourers bene retained within ſeruice: It is therefore eſtabliſhed enacted and ordeined, by auctoritie aforeſaid, that euery artificer and labourer be at his worke betweene the midſt of the moneth of March, and the midſt of the moneth of September before fiue of the clocke in yͤ morning, and that he haue but halfe an houre for his breakefaſt, and an houre and a halfe for his dinner, of ſuch time as he hath ſeaſon for ſleeping to him appointed by this ſaid eſtatute, and at ſuch time as is here appointed, that he ſhall not ſleepe, then he to haue but one houre for his dinner, and halfe an houre for his noone meat, and that he depart not from his worke betweene the midſt of the ſaid moneths of March and September, till betweene vii. and viii of the clocke in the euening, and if they or any of them offend in any of theſe articles, that then their defaults be marked by him or his deputie, that ſhall paie their wages, and at the weekes end their wages be abated for ſuch rate of time as they haue offended contrarie to this eſtatute. And that from the midſt of September, to the midſt of March, euery artificer & labourer be at their worke in the ſpringing of the daie: and depart not till night of the ſame daie, and yͤ ſaid artificers and labourers ſleepe not by day, but onelie from the midſt of the moneth of Maie, vnto the middle of the moneth of Auguſt. And alſo it is enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, that no perſon from henſeforth giue no more wages to any bailiffe of huſbandrie, hine, ſhepheard, or other afore named, nor to anie artificer or labourer in this eſtatute ſpecified, than in the ſame eſtatute is limited and aſſigned, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie ſuch default xl.s. and that the partie ſo offending be conuict thereof afore the iuſtices of peace, aſwell by preſentment in the ſeſſions, as by examination of two iuſtices of peace out of the ſeſſions, in likewiſe as is before rehearſed of labourers and artificers. Alſo it is ſtabliſhed and enacted, by the ſaid auctoritie, that if anie artificer or labourer, retained in ſeruice with any perſon for building or reparation, make or cauſe to be made any aſſemblie, to aſſault, harme or hurt anie perſon aſſigned to controll and ouerſee them in their working that he or they ſo offending haue impriſonment for a yeare, without letting to

Cap. 23.

Salmon well and truelie packed.

Where at a parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the xxii. yeere of the reigne of king Edward the fourth, among other thinges it was enacted, ordained, and eſtabliſhed, that no marchant ſtranger nor deniſen, after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell then next comming, ſhould ſell nor put to ſale anie ſalmon by butte, barell, halfe barell, or anie other veſſell, afore it ſhould be ſeene, but if the ſame butte ſhould hould and containe lxxxiiii. galons, the barrell xlii. galons, the halfe barrell xxi. galons well and truelie packed, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie butte, barrell, and halfe barrell, ſo lacking their ſaid meaſure vi. s. viii. d. Alſo that no ſuch marchant, being vnder the ſaid kings obeiſance, after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell, ſhould ſell or put to ſale anie maner ſalmon by butte, barrell, or other veſſell but if it ſhould be well and truelie packed, that is to ſay the great ſalmon by it ſelfe, without medling of anie grils or broken bellied ſalmon with the ſame: and that all ſmall fiſh called grils, ſhould be packed by them ſelfe onelie without anie medling, vpon paine of forfeiture & leeſing of vi. s. viii. d. for euerie butte, barrell, or halfe barrell contrarie to the ſaid acte, medled packed and put to ſale. And that no marchant nor other perſon ſhould put anie herring to ſale by barrell, demy barrell or ferkin, but if the ſame barrell containe xxxii. galons: the halfe barrell and ferkin after the ſame rate, and that the ſame herring ſhould be well, truelie and iuſtlie laied and packed, and ſhould be of one time taking and ſalting, and that the ſame herring ſhould be as good and as well packed in the middes and euerie parte of the ſame barrell and other veſſels, as it ſhould be at anie of the endes of the ſame barell and veſſell, vpon paine of forfeiting and loſing of iii. s. iiii. d. for euerie barrell, halfe barrell, and ferking, ſo lacking their ſaid meaſure, and alſo vpon paine of forfeiting and loſing of iii. s. iiii. d. for euerie barrell halfe barrell and ferkin of herring contrarie to the ſaid acte, ſorted, laied or packed. Alſo that no ſuch marchant nor paling man ſhould ſell or put to ſale anie eles by barrell halfe barrell or ferkin, but if the barrell containe xlii. galons, the halfe barrell and ferkin after the ſame rate, nor that anie ſuch marchant nor paling man ſhould meddle anie galbitten ſtoruen or piled eles with good eles, but that the ſame good eles ſhould be well & iuſtlie packed and ſould by them ſelfe, nor ſhould meddle with the ſaid good eles, nor put to ſale anie red eles, vpon paine of forfeiture & leeſing of x. s. for euerie barrell, halfe barrell, & ferkin ſo lacking their ſaid meaſure, & vpon paine of leeſing of x. s. for euerie barrell halfe barrell and ferkin ſo as is aforeſaid medled, and contrarie to the ſaid acte, packed or put to ſale. Alſo that no marchant after the ſaid feaſt, ſhould ſell nor put to ſale anie barrelled fiſhe, but if the ſame fiſhe ſhould well and truelie be packed, that is to ſay, the taile fiſhe by them ſelfe, & the ſmall fiſhe, called gulles by them ſelfe, without anie medling of the ſaid ſmall fiſh with the great fiſhe, & without medling & packing of thokes and broken bellied fiſhe, with the ſaide taile fiſhe or ſmall fiſhe, and that neither the taile fiſhe nor ſmall fiſhe ſhould be laied double in packing, and that euerie taile fiſhe ſhould containe in length from the bone of the fin to the third ioint of the taile xxvi. inches at the leaſt. And that the napes of all ſuch barrelled fiſhe ſhould be no longer then the littel bone that ſitteth vpon the great fin, and that the bone of euerie ſuch ſaltfiſhe ſhould be taken away vnto the nauell of the ſame fiſhe, and that euerie ſuch fiſhe ſhould be platted downe to an handfull of the taile, vpon paine of forfeiture of leeſing of iii. s. iiii. d. for euerie barrel of fiſhe, which from henceforth ſhould be found packed ſorted and medled, naped, leied double, or not boned nor ſpletted according to the ſaid acte. And alſo in eſchewing of the common hurtes and diſceites aboue rehearſed, the ſaid late king ordained & enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, that all maiors, bailifes, and gouernours of cities, townes, boroughes, markets & all other places of this realme for the time being, where they ſhould be maiors, bailifes, and gouernours, ſhould haue power and auctoritie to name & chooſe a diſcreete & expert perſon or perſons duelie to ſearch and gauge all ſuch veſſels, as bene aboue rehearſed, that they ſhould be truelie packed, & keepe their true meaſure and aſſiſe according to the ordinance aboue ſaid, as in the foreſaide acte thereof made more plainelie appeareth, and for aſmuch as in the ſaide acte is no certaintie appointed how much euerie ſuch gauger packer and ſearcher ſhould take for his labour in executing of their ſaide office, they bene their owne iudges, and at their pleaſures take for the ſame gauging, packing and ſearching by way of extortion ſuch great ſummes of moneie as them liketh, whereby the kings true ſubiectes are greatlie impoueriſhed and wronged. That it might therefore pleaſe the kings highnes, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame to confirme, ratifie, and eſtabliſh the ſaide acte and euerie thing therein compriſed: And ouer that by the ſame auctoritie to ordaine and eſtabliſh, that euerie ſuch gauger, packer, and ſearcher take no more for gauging of a barrell ſalmon, barrell herring, barrell fiſhe, barrell eles, halfe barrell, and ferkin, for euerie peece ſo gauged, but a farthing, and for his labour for ſearching and packing, if it be neede, of a barrell ſalmon from head to head i. d. and for his labour for boning, naping, and packing of a barrell fiſhe, if it be neede i. d. and for his labour in ſearching and packing of a barrell herring from head to head if it be needefull ii. d. & for ſearching and packing of euerie barrell of eles two pence, and for ſearching & packing of euerie halfe barrell of herring from head to head one penie, and for euerie halfe barrell eles ſearching and packing one penie, and for ſearching and packing of euerie ferkin of herring, if it be needefull one halfepenie. And ouer that that all and euerie ſuch gauger, ſearcher, and packer, that miſbe-hauen or offend in any thing concerning the ſaid offices of gauger, ſearcher, and packer, contrarie to this acte, & ſo proued before anie of the ſaid maiors, bailiffes, or gouernours of anie citie, towne, borough, market, or anie other place within this realme, where he or they ſo be gaugers, packers, or ſearchers, gauger, packer, or ſearcher, ſhall looſe & forfeite his ſaid office, & the ſame from thenceforth no longer to enioie: anie leaſe graunt or grauntes thereof made notwithſtanding: & for further puniſhment to haue & ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of fortie daies without baile or mainpriſe. Prouided alway that the ſaid ſearcher and packer or anie of them ſhal nothing receiue of the ſaid fees by colour of their office, but onelie for ſuch buttes, barrels, halfe barrels & ferkins as by them ſhall hereafter be ſufficientlie ſearched and packed, and be not afore ſufficientlie packed. This preſent acte to begin and take effecte at the feaſt of Eaſter next comming and not before.

Cap. 24.
Periurie.

The king our ſoueraigne lorde, of his moſt godlie and gratious diſpoſition, calling to his remembraunce, how that periurie in this land is in manifold cauſes by vnreaſonable meanes deteſtablie vſed to the diſheritaunce and great damage of manie and great number of his ſubiectes well diſpoſed, and to the moſt high diſpleaſure of almightie God: the good ſtatutes againſt all officers hauing returne of writes and their deputies, making panels partiallie for rewardes to them giuen againſt vnlawfull maintainours, imbraſours and iurours, and againſt iurours vntruelie giuing their verdite notwithſtanding: For reformation of the ſame by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, be it enacted, ordained and eſtabliſhed, that vpon euerie vntrue verdite hereafter giuen betwixt partie and partie in anie ſuite plaint or demaunde before iuſtices of recorde, where the thing in demaunde, and verdite thereupon giuen, extendeth to the value of fortie poundes, and concerneth not the ieopardie of mans life, the partie greeued by the ſame verdite, ſhall haue a writ of atteint againſt euerie perſon hereafter ſo giuing an vntrue verdite, and euerie of them, and againſt the partie which ſhall haue iudgement vpon the ſame verdite. And that in the ſame atteint there ſhalbe awarded againſt the petite iurie, the partie, & the graund iurie, ſumme, reſumme and diſtreſſe infinite, which graund iurie ſhall be of like number as the graund iurie is now in atteint, and euerie of them that ſhall paſſe in the ſame ſhall haue landes & tenements to the value of xx. markes by the yeere of freehold out of auncient demeane: and vpon the diſtreſſe, which ſhall be deliuered of recorde vpon the ſame open proclamation to be made in the court, there the diſtreſſe ſhalbe awarded more then xv. daies afore the returne of the ſame diſtreſſe, euerie ſuch diſtreſſe ſhall be made vpon the land of euerie of the ſaid graund iurie, as in other diſtreſſe is & hath bene vſed. And if the ſaid partie defendant, or the petite iurours or anie of them appeare not vpon the diſtreſſe: then the graund iurie to be taken againſt them & euerie of them, that ſhall ſo make default. And if anie of the ſaide petite iurie appeare, then the partie complainant in that behalfe, ſhal aſſigne the falſe ſerement of the firſt verdite vntruelie giuen, whereunto they of the petite iurie ſhall haue none aunſwere, if they be the ſame perſons, & the writ, proceſſe, returne & aſſignement good & lawfull, except that the demaundant or plaintiffe in the ſame atteint hath afore bene noneſuite, or diſcontinued his ſuite of atteint taken for ẏ ſame verdite, or hath for the ſame verdit in a writ of atteint had iudgement againſt ẏ ſaid petie iurie, but onelie that they made true verdit, which iſſue ſhalbe tried by xxiiii. of the ſaid graund iurie, & the partie ſhall pleade that they gaue true verdit, or anie other matter, which ſhalbe a ſufficient barre of the ſaid atteint, & that plea notwithſtanding ẏ graund iurie to be taken without delaie, to enquire whether the firſt iurie gaue true verdite or no. And if they finde, that the ſaide petie iurie gaue an vntrue verdite, then euerie of the ſaid petit iurie to forfeite xx. li. whereof the one halfe ſhall be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, & the other halfe to the partie that ſueth. And ouer that euerie of the ſaide petit iurie ſhall ſeuerallie make fine & raunſome by the diſcretion of the iuſtices, before whome the ſaid falſe ſerement ſhalbe found, after their ſeuerall offences, defaultes and ſufficiencie of euerie of the ſaid petie iurie. And after that thoſe of the ſaid petie iurie ſo atteinted, ſhall neuer after be of no credence, nor their oth accept in anie court. And if ſuch plee as the partie pledeth, which is a barre of the ſaid atteint, be found or demed againſt him that ſo pleadeth, then the partie that ſo ſueth, ſhall haue iudgement to be reſtored to that he loſt, with his reaſonable coſtes and damages. Forſeene alway, that anie outlawrie in anie action or cauſe perſonall, or excommengement, pleaded or alleged in ẏ partie plaintiffe or demaundant, ſhall be taken but as a void plee, and to that he ſhall not be put to aunſwere. And that in all the aforeſaid proceſſe ſuch day ſhalbe giuen as in a writ of dower, and none eſſoine or protection to lie nor to be allowed in the ſame. And if the ſaid graund iurie appeare not vpon the firſt diſtreſſe had againſt them, ſo that the iurie for their default do remaine, he that ſo maketh default ſhall forfeite to the king xx. s. and vpon the ſecond diſtreſſe xl. s. and after making default for euerie ſuch default v. li. And like penalties and forfeitures to be againſt them and euerie of them, that ſhall be named in the tailes, as is afore expreſſed againſt euerie of the ſaide graund iurie aforeſaid. And that for and by the death of the partie, or of anie of the ſaide petite iurie, the ſaid atteint ſhall not abate nor be deferred againſt the remnant, as long as two of the ſaid petite iurie be aliue. And if hereafter anie falſe verdite be giuen in anie action, ſuite, or demaunde, afore anie iuſtice of recorde, of anie thing perſonall, as debt, treſpaſſe and other like, which ſhall be vnder the value of fortie poundes, that then the partie greeued ſhall haue atteinte, with ſuch proceſſe & plees as is afore rehearſed, and delaies to be taken away as afore is remembred: Except that in this caſe of atteint euerie perſon of ẏ graund iurie that may diſpend v. marke by ẏ yeere of freehold out of auncient demeane, or is worth C. markes of goods and catals, ſhall be able to paſſe in the ſame attaint. And if the petit iurie be atteinted, that then they ſhall in this caſe of atteint, euerie of them forfeite but v. li. whereof the one halfe ſhall be to the king, and the other halfe to the partie after the forme afore rehearſed, and ouer that to make fine and raunſome by the diſcretion of the iuſtices, as is aforeſaid. And if there be not perſons of ſuch ſufficiencie within the ſhire, where anie of ſaid atteintes ſhall be taken, as may paſſe in the ſame: be it ordained by the auctoritie abouesaid, that then the tailes ſhall be awarded in the ſhire next adioining, by the diſcretion of the iuſtices, afore whom the ſame atteintes ſhall be taken: which ſhall be warned to appeare vpon like paines as is afore ſaid, and enabled to paſſe in the ſaid atteintes, as if they were dwelling in the ſhire where the ſame atteint ſhall be taken. And that the ſame lawes, action, and remedie, ordained by this preſent acte, be kept for and to all them that ſhall be greeued by ſuch vntrue verdites of anie inheritance in diſcent, reuertion, or remaider, or of anie freehold in reuertion or remainder. And if the partie in atteint giuen by this acte be noneſuite, or the ſame diſcontinue, that then the partie ſo noneſuite, or ſo diſcontinuing the ſaid atteint, make fine and raunſome by the diſcretion of the iuſtices, afore whom the ſaid atteint ſhall be taken and depending. And that all atteintes hereafter to be taken, ſhall be taken afore the king in his bench, or afore the iuſtices of the common place, and none in other courtes. And that Niſi prius ſhall be graunted by diſcretion of the iuſtices vpon the diſtreſſe. And euerie of the ſaid petit iurie may appeare and aunſwere by attourneie in the ſaid atteint. And that the moitie of the ſaid forfeiture of the petite iurie ſhall be leuied to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord by Capias ad ſatiſfaciendum, or Fieri fac. or Elegit, or by action of debt againſt euerie perſon of the petite iurie ſo forfeiting, and againſt his executours and adminiſtratours, hauing then ſufficient goods of their ſaid teſtatour not adminiſtred: and the other moitie ſhall by like proceſſe be leuied to the vſe of the partie that ſueth anie atteint giuen by this acte againſt euerie of the ſaid petite iurie, and his executours or adminiſtratours, hauing then ſufficiencie of goods, as is aforeſaid, not adminiſtred: and the iudgement of reſtitution to the partie greeued, ſuing this acte and execution of the ſame, to be had and like iudgement for the partie defendant or tenant to be diſcharged of reſtitution, as afore this preſent acte in caſe of a graund atteint hath bene vſed. Be it alſo ordained and enacted by the auctoritie abouesaid, that in euerie writte of atteint hereafter to be taken by or vpon this acte, the which ſhall be ſuch as other writes of atteint bene, and after the Teſte of that ſame writte ſhall be written theſe wordes in Latin, Per ſtatutum anno vndecimo Henrici ſeptimi editum. Be it alſo ordained and enacted by the ſame auctoritie, that all panels hereafter to be returned, which bene not at the ſuite of anie partie, that ſhall be made and put in afore anie iuſtices of gaile deliuerie, or iuſtices of peace in their open ſeſſions to enquire for the king: ſhall hereafter be reformed by additions and taking out of names of perſons, by diſcretion of the ſame iuſtices, before whom ſuch panell ſhall be returned, and that the ſame iuſtices ſhall hereafter commaund the ſhiriffe or his miniſters in his abſence, to put other perſons in the ſame panell by their diſcretions, and that panell ſo hereafter to be made, to be good and lawfull. This acte to endure onelie to the next parliament.

Cap. 25.
Periurie.

The king our ſouereigne lord well vnderſtanding the heinous and deteſtable periuries daylie committed within this realme in enqueſtes and iuries, taken as well betwixt his highnes and other his ſubiectes, and partie and partie, as inqueſtes of office, to the high diſpleaſure of almightie God, and letting of adminiſtration of iuſtice the which periurie groweth by vnlawfull reteindours, maintenance, embracing, champartie, and corruption of good, aſwell of the ſhiriffes as of other officers, notwithſtanding anie lawes before this time made for the puniſhment of ſuch offenders. Wherefore the king our ſouereigne lorde, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, enacteth, eſtabliſheth, willeth and commaundeth, that all the ſaide lawes be duelie put in execution. And be it ordained by the ſaid auctoritie, that the iuſtices of peace within this realme, in anie enqueſtes of office before them or anie of them to be taken, admitte nor take anie panell of ſuch enqueſtes, to be returned afore them, but if the ſame panell be firſt ſeene before them, & they to reforme it by their diſcretion if cauſe be, and that euerie panell otherwiſe receiued be voide and of none effect. And furthermore be it enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, as for anie periurie committed by anie enqueſtes betweene the king and the partie or partie and partie, whervpon iudgement is hereafter giuen that the partie greeued, or anie other that will complaine of anie vnlawfull maintenance imbraſing corruption of anie officers, whereby the ſaid periurie was induced, and of periurie by the ſaid enqueſtes committed, may complaine by bill to be preſented afore the iuſtice or iuſtices, by whome iudgement ſhalbe giuen, which iuſtice or iuſtices ſhall be bound to receiue it, ſo that the complainant preſent the ſame bill before ÿ ſame iuſtice or iuſtices within ſixe dayes after the iudgement giuen, and finde ſufficient ſuertie before the ſame iuſtice or iuſtices by his diſcretion to be admitted, that will binde them by recogniſance or otherwiſe in ſuch ſum or ſums of moneie, as ſhall be limited by the diſcretion of the ſame iuſtice or iuſtices, to the ſeuerall parties vpon whome he ſhall complaine vpon condition that if the partie complainant proue not ſufficiently the matter of his complaint to be true: that then the ſaid complainant to paie ſuch coſtes & damages to the ſeuerall parties greeued, and all ſuch time as ſhall be conſidered and awarded by the diſcretion of the ſaid perſons, that haue power by this preſent acte to examine the ſame. And that the ſaid iuſtice or iuſtices, after the receite of the ſaid bill of complaint in forme rehearſed, certifie the ſaide bill vnder his or their ſeale or ſeales vnto the chaunceller of England for the time being, and then the ſame chaunceller ſhall cauſe by writ at the ſuite and coſtes of the partie complainant, all ſuch perſon or perſons, againſt whom the ſaid complaint is ſo made, to come afore the ſame chauncellour and treaſurer of England, the chiefe iuſtice of either bench, and the clerke of the roles for the time being, which ſhall haue full power and auctoritie by this preſent acte, by their diſcretion, to examine all ſuch perſon or perſons appearing before them, of all thinges compriſed in the bill of complaint, and to puniſh all and euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, as by that examination ſhall be found offender or offenders, aſwell of periurie as other after their diſcretion. And ouer that be it enacted, that if the partie complainant purſue not or proue not his bill of complaint, then he to yéeld to euerie perſon by him wrongfullie vexed his coſtes and damages, and make fine to the king, after the diſcretion of them before whom the examination is ſo had. And it is further ordained, that this acte extend not to the anintiſement, neither vndoing of the verdite and iudgement giuen, but that the ſaide verdite and iudement ſtand in his ſtrength, to the time it be vndone or auoided by writte of errour or atteinte, or otherwiſe, after ſuch order as the common lawe was afore the time of making of this ſtatute, this preſent acte notwithſtanding. And ouer that be it ordained by the ſaid auctoritie, that if periurie be committed by proues in the kings courte of the Chauncerie. chauncerie, or before the kings honorable counſell or elſewhere, that then the forenamed chancellour, vpon a bill to him put with like ſuertie as is afore rehearſed, make like proceſſe to call in the ſuppoſed periured perſons, afore the ſaide chauncellour, treaſurer, iuſtices, and clerke of the roles, and they to haue power to heare and examine the ſaide perſons. And if the ſaide perſons of the periurie or other miſbehauing before rehearſed, ſo be conuicted, that then they to be puniſhed vnder like forme as is afore rehearſed. Prouided alway that this acte begin to take his effecte at the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our lord next comming and no longer to endure but vnto the next parliament.

Cap. 26. Shiriffes turne.

Praien the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where it was eſtabliſhed and enacted, the firſt yéere of the reigne of king Richard the third, late in déede and not of right king of England, that no bailife nor other officer ſhould returne in anie panell, in anie ſhiriffes turne or lawday, anie perſon but ſuch as be of good name and fame, and haue landes and tenements of fréehold within the ſame countie, where they bene inhabitant, of the yéerelie value of xx. s. at leaſt, or elſe landes and tenementes holden by the cuſtome of the maner called copiehold, within the ſaid countie, of the yéerelie value of xvi s. viii. d. ouer all charges at leaſt, as in the ſaid ſtatute more plainelie it appeareth: And that all inditements and preſentments taken afore anie ſhirife in his turne otherwiſe, be voide and of none effecte. By reaſon of which ſtatute manie ſhiriffes of the counties of South. Sur. and Suſſex intending truelie, haue loſt the profit of manie of his or their turnes, and manie great miſſauntes and offences not preſented, nor the offendours and treſpaſſours in the ſame puniſhed, to the great hurt of the inhabitantes of the ſame, for within ſome hundreds there, there bene not ſo manie perſons of ſuch landes and tenements dwelling out of franchiſes, and though they were of that hauiour, they would not appeare for the loſſe of two pence or foure pence at the day of the turne, which ſmall amerciament is of old time vſed, whereby the kings ſaid courtes, in diuers parties of the ſaid counties, bene loſt. In conſideration whereof it may be ſtabliſhed and enacted, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie ſhiriffe, of anie of the ſaid counties, to impanell and ſummon xxiiii. lawfull men of ſuch inhabitants within the precinct of euerie of his or their turnes, as owe ſuite to the ſame tourne or tournes, and whereof euerie of the ſaide xxiiii. men haue landes and tenements of fréehold to the yéerelie value of x. s. ouer all charges, or land and tenements of copiehold to the yéerelie value of xiii. ſhillings iiii. pence ouer all charges, within anie of the ſaid counties, where ſuch turne or turnes is or be to be kept, and ſo manie there to appeare at the day of the tourne before the ſaid ſhirife, vnderſhrife or clerke, to enquire of ẏ articles of the ſaid turne. And that euerie of the ſaid xxiiii. men, ſo being impanelled & ſummoned, not appearing be amerced in the ſaide ſhirifes turne or turnes, for not doing of their ſuite to the ſame xii. pence. Prouided alway that if there be xii. of the ſaid inhabitants ſo impanelled within the precinct of euerie turne appeare, ſo that in euerie turne there be a lawfull iurie of them ſworne, that then all the remnant of them ſo impanelled that make default, be not amerced for that default, but onelie for their ſuite, and as it was lawfullie vſed afore the making of the ſaid ſtatute. And ouer that be it enacted, that after due and lawfull ſummons had of the inhabitants, as is aforeſaid, if that there appeare not xii. men in euerie of the ſaid ſhirifes turnes of the ſaide inhabitants, hauing landes and tenements of the yéerelie value of x. s. or xiii. s. iiii. d. as is aboue ſaid, and if there be not xxiiii. ſuch inhaitantes, which may be impanelled and ſummoned in maner & forme aboueſaid, in anie of the ſaide turnes: that then it ſhall be lawfull to euerie ſhirife, vnderſhirife, clerke, bailife, or other miniſter, to charge and ſweare anie other perſon or perſons in anie of the ſaid ſhiriffes turnes, where ſuch none ſufficient and default of inhabitauntes and appearaunce is had, ſuch as be of good name and fame, and the beſt by his or their diſcretion that appeare before him or them, and none officer nor ſeruant to the ſaid ſhiriffes, vnderſhiriffes, clerkes, bailifes or miniſters. And that all inditements and preſentments, other then felonie, ſo taken concerning the ſaid ſhirifes turnes, be good and effectuall notwithſtanding the ſaide acte made in the firſt yéere of king Richard aforeſaide. And that the ſhirifes vnderſhirifes,clarkes,nor bailifes of any of the ſaid counties,nor none of them doing according to this preſent act, forfait anie thing or be in anie wiſe preiudiced for doing anie thing contrary to the ſaid ſtatute,made in the firſt yere of the ſaid king Richard. And that euery ſhirife, vnderſhirife,clark,bailife or miniſter,that do contrarie to this ordinance in any point,forfaite the ſumme of C.s.at euery time,that they,or any of them do the contrary of the ſame in any point of the ſame. Sauing to euery perſon and perſons their lawfull liberties and franchiſes, and tenantes and inhabitants of the ſame.This act to endure vnto the next parliament.

Chap.27
Fuſtians.

Praien the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where as fuſtians brought from the parties of beyonde the ſea, vnſhorne into this realme, haue be and ſhoulde be the moſt profitableſt cloth for doublets, and for other wearing clothes greatlie vſed among the common people of this realme, & longeſt haue endured of anie thing that haue come into the ſame realme from the ſaide parties, as to that intent, whereof the cauſe hath bene, that ſuch fuſtians afore this time haue bene truelie wrought and ſhorne with the broad ſhere,and with none other inſtrument, or other diſceitfull meane occupied vpon the ſame. Nowe ſo it is, that diuerſe perſons by ſubtiltie and vndue ſleights and meanes,haue diſceiuablie imagined and contriued inſtrumentes of yron, with the which yrons in the moſt higheſt and ſecrete places of their houſes, they ſtrike and drawe the ſaide yrons on the ſaide fuſtians vnſhorne, by meanes whereof they plucke off both the noppe and cotton of the ſame fuſtians, and breake commonlie both the grounde and thredes in ſunder, and after by craftie ſleking they make the ſame fuſtians to appeare to the common people fine whole and ſounde, and alſo they raiſe vp the cotton of ſuch fuſtians, and then take a light candell and ſet in the fuſtian burning, which ſingeth and burneth away the cotton of the ſame fuſtian, from the one ende to the other downe to the hard thredes in ſteade of ſhearing, and after that put them in colour, and ſo ſubtillie dreſſe them, that their falſe worke can not be eſpied, without it be by workemen ſherers of ſuch fuſtians, or by the wearers of the ſame: And ſo by ſuch ſubtilties where as fuſtians made in dublets,or put to anie other vſe, were wont and might endure the ſpace of two yéeres or more, will not endure nowe whole by the ſpace of foure monethes ſcarcelie, to the great hurt of the poore commons and ſeruing men of this realme, to the great damage loſſe and diſceite of the kings true ſubiectes buiers and wearers of ſuch fuſtian. For remedie whereof be it enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed, by the king our ſoueraigne lorde, and the lordes ſpirituall and temporall and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that none ſuch yron, or inſtrumentes, nor anie other vntrue ſubtill meane or ſlight be from henceforth vſed vpon anie fuſtian within this realme,but onely by yͤ broad ſheres,vpon forfaiture of xx.ſhillings to be leuied,for euerie defaulte of euerie ſuch perſon or perſons hereafter offending and vſing anie ſuch diſceiuable inſtruments or ſlightes as is aforeſaid. The one halfe of the forfaitures to be to the king our ſoueraigne lorde, and that other halfe to him or them that will ſue for the ſame forfaitures by action of debt bill plaint or information in anie of the kinges courtes of recorde, where the ſame maie be determined after the courſe of the common lawe,and that the defendaunt in ſuch behalfe in no wiſe bee admitted to wage his lawe, nor that anie protection or eſſoine be in the ſame allowable. And ouer this bee it ordeined by the ſaide auctoritie that the maior and wardeines of ſheremen of the citie of London, for the time being, haue auctoritie to enter and ſearch the workmanſhip of all maner perſons occupieng the broade ſhere, as well fuſtian as cloth,and the execution of this preſent act to be as well of denizens as of forens and ſtraungers.

London.

THe king our ſoueraigne lorde Henrie the vii. after the conqueſt, by the grace of God king of England & of Fraunce,and lord of Irelande, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xvi.daie of Ianuarie,in the xii.yeere of his reigne to the honour of God and holie church, and for the common profit of the realme, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall and the commons of the ſaide parliament aſſembled,and by auctoritie of the ſaid parliament,hath do to be made certaine ſtatutes and ordinances in maner and forme following.

Chap.1.

TO the king our ſoueraigne lorde,praien your commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where the common weale and profite of your inhabitauntes within your countie of Norfolke,haue in time paſſed be by yͤ due occupation of making of worſteds, ſayes,& ſtamines, which occupation nowe is like to decaie,for as much as the occupiers of the ſame may not haue anie aprentiſe,but if his father may diſpend lands or rents to the value of xx.s.by yeere: Of which abilitie can fewe or none be had to be apprentiſe. So that for lacke of apprentiſe,the ſaid occupation is like to be ſet apart, and in time to come to be vtterlie deſtroied, which ſhoulde be to the loſſe of the common weale of your ſaide countie, and the impoueriſhing of the inhabitantes of the ſame. That it maie like your highneſſe, of your benigne grace, in conſideration of the premiſſes, by the aſſent of your lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the commons in this preſent parliament aſſmbled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, to enact, ordeine and eſtabliſh, that euerie perſon of the aforeſaide occupation within your countie of Norffolke, the which the foure wardeines of the ſaid occupation within your foreſaide countie yeerely choſen, ſhall inhable to kéepe a prentiſe, ſhall by this preſent act be at libertie to take and kéepe at all times one or two apprentiſes, anie perſon or perſons hereafter put to the aforeſaid occupation:So that he paſſe not two at once at the moſt.And in like wiſe hereafter euery perſon ſhall be at his libertie, to put anie apprentiſe to the aforeſaid occupation,anie act or ordinance afore made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Chap.2. Continuation of acts.

Where in the laſt parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xxiiii. daie of the moneth of October, the xi. yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the vii. diuerſe good and profitable ſtatutes, as well for the reformation of great and heinous riots, as periurie and other diuerſe offences and miſbehauing, were made, which ſtatutes haue no longer continuaunce to be effectuall, but to this preſent parliament begun the xvi. daie of Januarie, the xii. yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde. And for as much as the ſaide ſtatutes, for ſhortneſſe of time ſith the making of them, haue not be put in execution, whereby the effect of the ſame as yet may not bee perfectlie knowen. Therefore the king our ſouereigne lorde, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, enact, ordeine, and ſtabliſh, that all ſuch acts as were made the ſaide laſt parliament, the which ſhoulde continue but to the parliament then next following, ſtande good and effectuall from the making of the ſame, vnto the next parliament to endure.

Chap.3. Artificers. Wages.

For diuers and many reaſonable conſiderations and cauſes, the kings highneſſe mouing, and for the common wealth of the poore artificers, as free maſons, carpenters, and other perſons neceſſarie, and conuenient for the reparations and buildinges, and other labourers and ſeruauntes of huſbandrie: Bee it by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, that all actes of parliament made in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the fourteenth daie of October, the eleuenth yeere of the king that nowe is, touching onelie the wages of artificers, labourers, and ſeruants of huſbandrie, and euerie of them, be from henceforth voyde and of no force ne effect.

Chap.4. Draping of wollen clothes. Clothier.

Praien the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xxiiii. daie of Januarie, the firſt yeere of the reigne of Richarde the thirde, late in deede and not in right king of England, an act was made concerning the making and draping of wollen clothes, for as much as the ſaide act is in ſuch forme, that the clothier doing his true diligence can not obſerue the ſame, without oft and manie times offending againſt the ſaide act, in which bee ſo ſtrait and great penalties and forfaitures againſt the ſaide clothiers, the aduantage and profite whereof is giuen and limit by the ſaid act as well to other perſons, as to the kings highneſſe for euerie defaulte in the ſaide act limitted, which the clothier can not eſchewe: So that the more partie of clothiers within this realme, can ne dare vſe them ſelfe in making and draping of wollen clothes, as they haue done in time paſt. By reaſon whereof your poore ſubiectes, in great number, which before time haue had by cloth making their occupation & liuing, be nowe like to fall in great pouertie and idelnes, wherof many great inconueniences ſhould and may enſue. Wherefore be it enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, that the king our ſouereigne lord, nor any perſon or perſons take anie aduantage or profite of anie penalties of forfaiture by the ſaide act, made the ſaid xxiiii. daie of Januarie, giuen, limitted, or aſſigned for anie cloth made or to be made, afore the beginning of the next parliament.

Chap.5. Weights & meaſures. Buſhell. Galon.

Where as afore this time the king our ſouereigne lorde, intending the common weale of his people, and to auoide the diſceite of weights and meaſures, long time vſed within this his realme, contrarie to the ſtatute of Magna carta, and of other ſtatutes thereof made by diuers of his noble progenitors, at his great charge and coſt did to make weightes and meaſures of braſſe, according to the olde ſtanders thereof remaining within his treaſurie. And for that, that one weight and one meaſure ſhoulde bee vſed throughout all his realme, in auoyding of all fraude and diſcorde in that behalfe, it was at the laſt parliament, holden the fourteenth daie of October, in the eleuenth yeere of our ſaide ſouereigne lordes reigne, ordeined, that the ſaide meaſures and weights ſhoulde be deliuered to the knightes and citizens of euerie ſhires and cities, aſſembled in the ſame parliament, boroughs of the fiue ports, and certaine burgeſſes of boroughs, townes, ſurely by them to be conueied to certeine boroughes & townes ſpecified in a ſcedule vnto the ſame act annexed, there to remaine for euer, to the intent in the ſame act more largelie declared: which weights and meaſures vpon more diligent examination had ſith the making of the ſaid eſtatute, bene approued defectiue, and not made according to the olde lawes and ſtatutes thereof ordeined within the ſaid realme. Wherefore the king our ſouereigne lorde, by the aſſent of his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, ordeineth, eſtabliſheth, and enacteth, that the meaſure of the buſhell conteine viii. galons of whete, and that euerie galon conteine viii.li. of wheate of troie weight, and euerie li. conteine twelue ounces of troie weight, and euerie ounce conteine twentie ſterlinges, and euerie ſterling be of the weight of xxxii. cornes of wheate, that growe in the middes of the eare of ẏ wheate, according to the olde lawe of this land. And that it pleaſeth the kings highnes to make a ſtandarde of a buſhell, and a galon after the ſaid aſſiſe, to remaine in his ſaide treaſurie for euer: and from henceforth the ſaide newe buſhelles & galons lately ſent forth, be not vſed nor occupied for no meaſures, but that they be ſent againe vnto the kings receite by the feaſt of Whitſontide next comming, at the coſtes and charges of the ſaid cities, boroughes and townes, hauing the ſaide buſhelles and galons in keeping, vpon paine of x.li. to be forfaited to the king, the ſame buſhelles and galons ſo ſent againe in to the kinges receite, to be broken, and with the ſtuffe and metall of the ſame buſhelles and galons, other newe buſhels and galons, by the aduiſe of the treaſurer and vnder teraſurer of Englande for the time being, before the feaſt of all ſaintes next comming, to bee made and ſiſed according to the ſaide buſhell and galon, which by this preſent act is ordeined to be made, and to remaine in the ſaid treaſurie, at the coſtes & charges of the ſame cities, boroughs, & townes. And that euerie citie, borough, and towne within this realme, which nowe haue or ſhould haue had by reaſon of the ſaid act made in the ſaid xi. yeere, anie of the ſaid newe buſhell or galon, do conuey and carie before the feaſt of ſaint Andrewe next comming, into euerie of the ſame citie, borough, and towne, a buſhell and a galon newlie to be made as is aforeſaide, at the coſt and charges of the ſame citie, borough, and towne, there to remaine: And all other buſhelles, galons, and meaſures, which bee to bee made after the forme by this act ordeined, be marked and ordered after the forme & effect of the ſaid act, made the ſaide xi. yeere, & in the meane ſeaſon to vſe ſuch buſhelles and galons as hath bene vſed laſt afore the comming downe of the ſaide newe buſhelles and galons and before the making of the ſaide ſtatute in the ſaide xi. yeers, and that all penalties in the firſt act expreſſed be of none effect, vnto the feaſt of Candelmas which ſhall be in the yeere of our lorde God M.CCCC.lxxxvii. and after the ſame feaſt, the ſame act made in the ſame xi. yeere, to ſtand in full ſtrength with his penalties vpon the buſhell and galons newe to be made, as it ſhould haue done vpon the ſaide newe buſhelles and galons made afore the making of this preſent act, if this act had not be made. And that it be ordeined by the ſaid auctoritie, that after the ſaid newe buſhels and galons be made according to this preſent act, that all other buſhels and galons of braſſe, remaining as well in the ſaide treaſurie as in all other places of England, before the feaſt of Chriſtmas next comming be damned and broken, vpon paine of xx.li. to be leuied vpon euerie citie borough and towne, or anie other place hauing the keeping of the common meaſures, that keepe ſtill anie other buſhell or galon vnbroken and not dampned of braſſe, then is ordeined to be made by this preſent act.

Chap. 6. Marchants aduenturers.

To the diſcrete commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, Sheweth vnto your diſcrete wiſdomes the marchants aduenturers, inhabiting and dwelling in diuers parties of this realme of Englande out of the citie of London, that where they haue their paſſage, reſort, courſe and recourſe, with their goods wares and marchaundiſe in diuerſe coſtes and parties beyonde the ſea, as well into Spaine, Portingale, Britaine, Irelande, Normandie, Fraunce, Ciuile, Venice, Danſke, Eaſtlande, Friſelande, and other diuers and manie places, regions and countries being in leage and amitie with the king our ſoueraigne lord, there to buie and ſell and make their exchanges with their ſaide goods wares and marchaundiſes, according to the lawe and cuſtome vſed in euerie of the ſaide regions and places: And there euerie perſon freelie to vſe them ſelfe to his moſt aduauntage without exaction, fine, impoſition or contribution to be had or taken of them or of anie of them to for or by anie Engliſh perſon or perſons. And in ſemblable wiſe they before this time haue had, vſed, and of right owen to haue and vſe their free paſſage reſort and recourſe in to the coſtes of Flaunders, Hollande, Selande, Braband, and other places thereto nigh adioyning, vnder the obeiſaunce of the archduke of Burgoine: In which places the vniuerſall martes be commonlie kept and holden foure times in the yeere, to the which martes all Engliſh men, and diuerſe other nations in time paſt, haue vſed to reſort, there to ſell & vtter the commodities of their countries, and freelie to buie againe ſuch things as ſeemed them moſt neceſſary and expedient, for their profite and the weale of their countries and parties that they be come fro, till nowe of late that by the fellowſhip of the marcers and other marchauntes and aduenturers dwelling and being free within the citie of London, by confederacie made among them ſelfe of their incharitable and inordinate couetiſe, for their ſinguler profite and lucre, contrarie to euerie Engliſhmans libertie, and to the libertie of the ſaide marte there, which is that euerie perſon, of what nation that he be of ſhoulde haue their free libertie, there to buie and ſell and make the commutations with the wares, goods and marchaundiſes at their pleaſure, haue contrarie to all lawe, reaſon, charitie, right and conſcience, among them ſelfe, to the preiudice of all Engliſhmen, made an ordinaunce and conſtitution, that is to ſaie, that no Engliſhman, reſorting to the ſaide marte, ſhall neither buie ne ſell anie goods wares or marchaundiſes there, except he firſt compound and make fine with the ſaide fellowſhip marchauntes of London, and their ſaide confederates at their pleaſure, vpon paine of forfaiture to the ſaide fellowſhip marchaunts of London and to their confederates, of ſuch marchandiſes, goods, or wares ſo by him bought or ſolde there which fine, impoſition, & exaction, at the beginning when it was firſt taken, was demanded by colour of fraternitie of Thomas Becket biſhop of Caunterburie, at which time the ſaide fine was but the value of an olde noble ſterling, and ſo by colour of ſuch feined holineſſe it hath be ſuffered to be taken for a fewe yeeres paſſed, and afterwarde it was encreaſed to an hundred ſhillings flemiſh, and nowe it is ſo, that the ſaide fellowſhippe and marchauntes of London take of euerie Engliſhman or yong marchaunt being there at his firſt comming xl.li. ſterling for a fine, to ſuffer him to buie and ſell his owne proper goods wares and marchaundiſes that he hath there: by occaſion whereof all marchants not being of the ſaide fellowſhip and confederacie, withdrawe them ſelfe from the ſaid martes, whereby the wollen cloth of this realme, which is one of the greateſt commodities of the ſame, by making whereof the kings true ſubiects be put in occupation, & the poore people haue moſt their liuing and alſo other diuerſe commodities of diuerſe and ſeuerall parties of this ſame realme is not ſold ne vttered, as it was in time paſt; but for lacke of vtterance of the ſame in diuerſe parties, where ſuch clothes be made, they be conueyed to London, where they be ſolde farre vnder the price that they be worth and that they coſt to the makers of the ſame, and at ſome time they be lent to long daies, and the monie thereof at diuerſe times neuer paied: And ouer that the commodities and marchandiſes of that parties, which the ſaid fellowſhip marchaunts of London and other their confederates bring into this land, is ſo ſolde to your ſaid complainaunts and other the kings true ſubiectes, at ſo deare & high exceeding price, that the buier of the ſame can not liue thereupon: by reaſon whereof all the cities, townes, and boroughes of this realme in effect be fallen into great pouertie ruine and decaie, and as nowe in maner they without hope of comfort or reliefe, and the kinges cuſtomes and ſubſidies, and the nauie of the land greatlie decreaſed and miniſhed, and dailie they be like more to decaie, if due reformation be not had in this behalfe. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſouereigne lorde, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by autoritie of the ſame, that euerie Engliſhman, being the kinges true liege man from henceforth, haue free paſſage, reſorte, courſe, & recourſe into the ſaide coſtes of Flaunders, Holland, Seland, Braband and other places thereto nigh adioining vnder the obeiſaunce of the ſaide archduke to the martes there, hereafter to be holden, with his or their marchandiſes, goods and wares, there to buie and ſell and make their eſchange freelie at his or their pleaſure, without exaction, fine, impoſition, extortion, or contribution, to bee had, leuied, taken, or perceiued of them or of anie of them to for or by anie Engliſh perſon or perſons to his or their owne vſe, or to the vſe of the ſaide fraternitie or fellowſhip, or of any other like except onelie x. marke ſterling, and that no perſon Engliſh as is afore rehearſed hereafter take to his owne vſe or to the vſe of the ſaid fraternity or fellowſhip thereof any other Engliſh perſon, of what eſtate, degree or condition that he be of, ſo alway that he be the king our ſouereigne lordes true liege man, anie fine, exaction, impoſition, or contribution for his libertie or freedome to buie and ſell goods, wares, or marchandiſes, in or at anie of the ſaide marts more or aboue the ſaide ſum of x. marke ſterling onelie, vpon paine of forfaiture, to our ſouereigne lorde for euery time that he doth the contrary of this act xx. li. and alſo to forfait to the parties ſo greeued in this behalfe x. times ſo much as he contrary to this preſent act taketh of him. And that the parties ſo greeued ſhall haue in this behalfe an action of debt for the ſaid forfaiture, of tenne times in anie of the kings courtes, within this realme, by writ, bill, plaint or information, and ſuch proceſſe to be made in the ſame, as is or ought to be made in or vpon an action of debt at common law, and the triall thereof to be had in ſuch ſhire, citie or place, where the ſaid action is commenced or ſued, and that the defendaunt in anie action be not admitted to wage his lawe, nor none eſſoine nor protection be for ſuch defendaunt admitted or allowed in that behalfe.

Chap. 7. Murder prepenſed. Where abhominable and wilfull purpenſed murders be by the lawes of God and of naturall reaſon forbidden and are to be eſchewed, yet not the leſſe, manie and diuerſe vnreaſonable and deteſtable perſons, lacking grace, wilfullie commit murder, to the high diſpleaſure of God, and contrarie to all the lawes aboue ſaid, and moreouer againſt their naturall and obliged duetie, wilfully commit purpenſed murder, in ſleaing their maſter, or their immediate ſouereigne, vnder whom he or they be or owe obedience, in truſt to eſchew the perill & execution of the law by the benefite of their clergie: In hope whereof of late one Iames Grame, late of London yoman, wilfullie aſſented and purpenſed the murder of one Richard Tracie gentelman, then his maſter, by him and his purpenſed aſſent, the xix. daie of Februarie laſt paſt at Brent wood in the countie of Eſſex, murdered and ſlaine, to the right perillous enſample of other ill diſpoſed. Wherefore in auoiding of like miſcheeues to enſue, by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by autoritie of the ſame, be it enacted, that the ſaide Iames Grame, for the murder of the ſaide Richard Tracie his late maſter, be attainted of the ſaide murder as felon that hath offended in petie treaſon, and that the ſame Iames for the ſame murder ſhall be drawen and hanged in ſuch maner and forme, as by the lawe of this lande hath bene vſed in ſuch cauſes, as perſons being no clarkes, doing like murder, haue or ought to be puniſhed, anie priuiledge of his clergie, nor his demaunde of the ſame notwithſtanding. Priuiledge of clergie. Alſo be it ordeined by the ſaid autoritie, that if anie late perſon hereafter purpenſedlie murder their lorde, maſter or ſouereigne immediate, that they hereafter be not admitted to their clergie, and after conuiction or atteinder of anie ſuch perſon, ſo hereafter offending had after the courſe of the lawe, that the ſame perſon be put in execution as though he were no clarke.

Henricus dei gratia Rex Angliæ & Franciæ, & dominus Hiberniæ, vicecomiti Eſſex ſalutem. Precipimus tibi firmiter iniungentes, quod in ſingulis locis infra balliuam tuam, tam infra libertates quam extra, vbi magis expediens videris, publicas proclamationes quorundam ſtatutorum & ordinationum in vltimo parliamento noſtro, auctoritate eiuſdem parliamenti editorum, fieri facias in forma ſequenti.

The king our ſouereigne lorde Henrie the ſeuenth, after the conqueſt by the grace of God king of Englande and of Fraunce, and lorde of Irelande, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter the twentie fiue day of Ianuarie, in the nintenth yere of his moſt noble reigne to the honor of God and holie church, and for the common weale and profite of this his realme, by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by autoritie of the ſame, hath do to be ordeined made and enacted certeine ſtatutes and ordinaunces in maner and forme following.

Where

Cap. 1.

Attendance on the king in warre.

Letters patents.

Wages for warfare.

Warde. Idiot.

Where in yͤ parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xi. yere of the king our ſoueraigne lords reigne, for good and reaſonable conſiderations in an act of the ſaid parliament conteined, it was ordeined by the ſame, that euery perſon and perſons, being within this realme of England or Wales, hauing offices, fees or annuities of the kings giftes and grants, and did not giue their attendance vpon the kings highnes, when he ſhould fortune to go in warres in his perſon, in their perſons, as their duetie bindeth them in that behalfe, that then they and euery of them, making thereof default, the kings ſpeciall licence not had, or els the ſaide perſon or perſons hauing ſuch vnfeined ſicknes, letting, or diſeaſe, that he or they after due proofe of the ſame, ſhould forfeit and leeſe their ſaid offices fees and annuities, and the ſame to ſtand void at the kings pleaſure, as in the ſame act more at large it is conteined. And for as much as diuers and manie perſons, hauing of the kings giftes and graunts manie honors, lordſhips, caſtels, maners, lands, tenements & other poſſeſſions and hereditaments, by reaſon whereof they are more bound to giue their attendance vpon the kings moſt royall perſon in his ſaide warres, then other rehearſed perſons hauing but fees, offices, and annuities for terme of life, as well for defence of his moſt noble perſon, as for the defence of this his realme, which was at the time by ouerſight omitted and left out of the ſaide act. Be it therefore enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall & temporall in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that euery perſon or perſons, hauing or occupying, or that hereafter ſhall haue or occupie anie honors, caſtels, lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, and other poſſeſſions and hereditaments, by reaſon and vertue of the letters patents of the king our ſoueraigne lord that now is, nowe giuen, graunted, & made, or hereafter to be giuen, graunted, or made, by our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde, and giue not their daily attendance in their perſons vpon his highnes, when he ſhall fortune to go in warres within this his realme, or els for anie vrgent or anie other reaſonable cauſes in his perſon, for the honor or ſuretie of the ſame his perſon and the defence of this his realme, and againſt his enemies and rebels within the ſame realme or without, for the repreſſing and ſubduing of them and their malicious purpoſe, and well and truely according to the duetie of their allegeance to ſerue the king in his ſaide iourney and voyage, and to giue their attendance vpon his grace in the ſame. And not for to depart without his ſpeciall licence in writing vnder the kinges ſigne manuell or ſignet, or vnder his great ſeale, or priuie ſeale, or els vntill after the generall proclamation be made, that they ſhall depart or els the ſaid perſon or perſons, hauing ſuch vnfeined ſickeneſſes, letting, or diſeaſe, that he or they may not in their perſons come to do their perſonal attendance and ſeruice, & that duely proued, that then all ſuch letters patents, giftes and grauntes and all thinges in them conteined be vtterly from thenceforth adnulled voide and of none effect, and at the kings pleaſure. Prouided that all ſuch perſons ſo giuing attendance, ſhall haue the kings wages from the time of comming from his houſe towarde the king, when they come to the king & from the king home againe at the time of their departing, after the rate of xx. myles for a daie, and while they be with the kings grace to haue alſo the kings wages. Prouided alway that this act extende not to no ſpirituall perſon nor to the maiſter of the Rolles, nor to none other officer, and clerkes of the chauncerie, iuſtice of either benches, barons of the kings eſcheker, and other officers & clerkes of the ſaide places, the kings atturney and ſollicitors and the ſergeants at lawe, nor to the clerke of the kinges councels for the time being, nor to anie perſon being within the age of xxi. yeeres, nor to anie graunt or patent of anie warde, or ydiote, or cuſtodie of the ſame, nor to no heires females, inherited by reaſon of anie ſuch grauntes. Prouided alſo that it extende not to anie patentes, nor landes or tenementes compriſed in the ſame, the which patentes make mencion, that anie graunt, is made by the king of ſuch landes of retinue, ſumme or ſummes of money conteyned in the ſame letters patents.

Cap. 2.

Bowſtaues.

Cuſtome.

Pleaſe it your highnes, for as much as by long time paſt fewe ſufficient bowſtaues haue bin brought into this your realme, for ſcarceneſſe whereof as well the artillery of the ſame is almoſt decayed, as is the facultie of bowyers almoſt deſtroyed. Notwithſtanding manie good ſtatutes herebefore made for bringing of bowſtaues into this your realme, that to giue courage to marchants to bring into this your realme in time comming good bowſtaues more plentiouſly to the encreaſe of archers, and of the artillerie of the ſame, then they haue beene accuſtomed to bring in times paſt. That it may pleaſe your ſaid highnes, of your moſt ſpeciall and habundant grace, by the aduiſe and aſſent of your lordes ſpirituall and temporal, and of the ſaid commons in this parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that it may be ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted, that no cuſtome be payed after the making of this act, for anie ſufficient bowſtaffe or bowſtaues conteining the length of ſixe foote and an halfe or aboue, that ſhall be brought into this your realm by anie marchant ſtrangers or other, betweene this and the next parliament, But that all maner marchants, for bringing into this your realme of anie ſufficient bowſtaues, of the length of ſixe foote & a halfe or aboue, be diſcharged of all cuſtomes for the ſame bowſtaues, during the ſaid time.

Cap. 3.

Verdit.

Atteint.

The king our ſoueraigne lord remembring, that at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xiiii. daie of October, in the xi. yeere of his reigne, among other things it was ordeined & enacted, that vpon euery vntrue verdit to be giuen within this his realme betweene partie & partie, in anie ſuite, plaint or demaund before iuſtices of record, where the things, in demaund extendeth to the value of xl.li. not concerning the ieopardie of mans life, the partie greeued by the ſaide vntrue verdict, ſhall haue a writte of attaint againſt euery perſon, giuing an vntrue verdict, and againſt the partie which hath iudgement vpon the ſame, which good ſtatute then was made to endure vnto the parliament then next following, as in the ſame ſtatute plainly appeareth, and that at the next parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xvi. daie of January, in the xii. yeere of his reigne, the ſame good ſtatute was ordeined to continue vnto the firſt day of this preſent parliament, begon the xxv. daie of Januarie. And for as much as the ſame ſtatute is much neceſſary to be continued, for the puniſhment of the horrible vice of periurie: Therfore our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde willeth, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, with the aſſent of the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, it be ordeined and enacted that the ſaid good and neceſſarie ſtatute and euery thing therein conteined, be and ſtand good and effectuall for to continue and endure vnto the next parliament.

Periurie.

Cap. 4.

The king our ſoueraigne lorde conſidering right well, that in time of his moſt noble progenitors ſhooting in long bowes hath be much vſed in this his realme, whereby honor and victorie hath beene gotten againſt outward enemies, and the realme greatly defended, and much the more dred among all chriſtian princes by reaſon of the ſame: Which ſhooting is now greatly decayed in this realme, for as much as nowe of late the kings ſubiectes of the ſame greatly delight them ſelfe and take pleaſure in vſing of croſbowes, whereby great deſtruction of the kinges deere as well in forreſtes, chaſes, as in parkes, daily is had and done: and ſhooting in long bowes little or nothing vſed, and likely in ſhort ſpace to be loſt and vtterly decayed, to the great hurt and enfeebling of this realme, and to the comfort of our outward enemies, if remedie be not therefore in due time purueyed. Wherefore our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, willing that his ſubiectes in this his realme ſhal vſe their long bowes after the lawdable cuſtome vſed in time of his moſt noble progenitors, to the great honor, ſtrength & defence of this his realme, by the aduiſe of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this his preſent parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined & enacted, that after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming no perſon within this realme, without the kings ſpeciall licence vnder his placarde, ſigned and ſealed with his priuie ſeale or ſignet, ſhall occupie or ſhoote in any croſſebowe (but if he ſhoote out of an houſe for the lawfull defence of the ſame) Except he be a lorde, or that he or other perſons to his vſe haue landes and tenementes of freeholde to the yeerely value of two hundred marke ouer all charges, vpon the peine for to forfeit the ſame croſſebowe, with all the apparell that thereto belongeth, to anie perſon that will ſeaſe & take the ſame. And that it ſhall be lawful vnto anie perſon, that ſeeth anie other perſon ſhooting in anie croſſebowe, contrary to this ordinance, to ſeaſe the ſame croſſe bowe, with all the apparell thereto belonging, to their owne vſe, ſo that he that ſo ſhall ſeaſe anie ſuch croſſe bowe at the next aſſiſes or ſeſſions of the peace, giue openly euidence againſt him that ſo ſhooteth. And that the iuſtices of aſſiſe, & iuſtice of the peace at their ſeſſions by authoritie to enquire if any perſon or perſons do contrary to ye ordinances of this eſtatute. And if it be preſented by verdict of xii. men before the Juſtice of aſſiſe, or iuſtices of the peace in their ſeſſions, that anie perſon or perſons haue done contrary to the ſaide ordinances, then like proces ſhall be made thereupon, as ſhall be made vpon an enditement of ryot or treſpaſſe: and ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall be thereof conuicted, ſhall forfeit to the king for euery day ſo vſing his croſſebow contrary to this preſent act xl.s. by force of this ſtatute: And if that conuiction be not had by reaſon of the giuing of euidence of anie perſon ſeaſing anie croſſebowe in forme aforeſaide, then the Juſtices ſhall award to the ſame perſon ſo giuing euidence x.s. of the ſame xl.s. by their diſcretion, to be leuied by Fieri facias at the ſuite of the ſame partie or els to be payed, when the reſidue of the ſame xl.s. ſhall be payed to the king. And if anie of the ſaid lord or perſons, hauing lands or tenements to the value of CC. merke, ſuffer anie of their ſeruants to ſhoote with their croſſe bow, otherwiſe then to aſſay his lord or maiſters bowe, or to vnbend the ſame, then that lorde or perſon from henceforth to leeſe their libertie of vſing of anie croſſe bowe, and foorthwith ſhall diſcharge the ſeruant out of his ſeruice, or els they to forfeit x.li. for euery time that he ſhooteth in a croſbowe.

Coyne.

The king our ſoueraigne lord ſeing euidently, that his coyne, and ſpecially of ſiluer, is ſore empayred, aſwel by clipping thereof as by counterfaiting of the ſame, and by bringing into this his realme of the coyne of Ireland, by occaſion whereof great rumor and variance daily encreaſeth among his ſubiectes, for taking and refuſing of the ſame, for ceaſing and pacifying thereof, & for the vniuerſall weale of this his realme, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this his parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that all manner of golde of the coynes of a ſoueraigne, halfe ſoueraigne, ryall, halfe ryall, and the fourth part of a ryall, the angell, halfe angell, and euery of them, being gold, whole and weight, ſhall go and be currant in payment through all this his realme for the ſumme that they were coyned for: And alſo as well all maner grotes of engliſh coyne, and of the coyne of other landes nowe currant in this realme for grotes, or for iiii.d. being ſiluer, and not clipped, miniſhed or otherwiſe empaired, except reaſonable wearing, al be it they be cracked, as al maner of halfe grotes or pence of ii.d. of engliſh coyne or of the coyne of other lands, now currant in this realme for halfe grotes or ii.d. not clipped, miniſhed, or otherwiſe empayred being ſiluer, how be it they be cracked, ſhall in like wiſe go and be currant through all the ſame realme, for the ſumme as they were coyned for. And ouer that that all maner of pence being ſiluer, and hauing the print of the kings coyne, ſhall haue courſe and be currant for payment, aſwell to vs in all our receites, as to all our receiuors, and to all other lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and all their receiuors, and to all other within this our realme,without anie manner refuſe or contradiction, except onely pence bearing diuers ſpurres, or the mullet betwixt the barres of the croſſe, and thoſe pence ſo bearing the print of the ſpurre or the mullet,to haue courſe for halfe pence and not aboue. And if anie perſon hereafter refuſe anie coyne afore rehearſed, to take it in payment after the effect of the tenor of this act. He that ſo refuſeth it ſhall be compelled by the Maior, ſhirife, bailiſe, conſtable or chiefe officer or gouernour of the towne or place where anie ſuch payment ſhall be refuſed,to except and take the ſaid payment, & furthermore to bee impriſoned, or otherwiſe puniſhed by the diſcretion of the ſaid Maior,ſhirife,bailife,conſtable or other chiefe officer or gouernor afore rehearſed.And if the ſaid ſhirife,bailife,conſtable, or other chiefe officer or gouernor, refuſe to take anie ſuch coyne in payment,as it is aboue rehearſed,that then he ſo refuſing the ſaide payment,to be compelled by the Juſtice of the peace of the ſame countie,where ſuch paiment ſhall be ſo refuſed,to accept and take the ſaid payment, and he ſo refuſing the ſame, to be further puniſhed,for the ſaide refuſing by the diſcretion of the ſame Juſtice. And alſo it is ordeined by the ſaide authoritie,that all manner of grotes and halfe grotes,or pence of two pence,aſwel engliſh coyne as coyne of other landes, clipped, miniſhed,or otherwiſe empayred, except reaſonable wearing, ſhall not go nor be in anie wiſe currant for the payment within this realme, but vtterly to be refuſed and forſaken in paiment from hencefoorth: and that notwithſtanding it ſhall be lawfull to anie perſon,hauing anie ſuch grotes or pence of two pence clipped or miniſhed, to bring the ſame to the kings mynt,there to be changed after the cuſtome of the ſame mynt, or conuert the ſame into plate bullyon or otherwiſe ſell or imploy it to his moſt profit and auantage within this realme, any other act or actes to the contrary in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And in eſchewing and auoyding of ſuch clipping in time to come,the king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aduiſe of his councell hath cauſed to be made new coynes of grotes and pence of two pence,and that euery peece of the ſame coynes ſhall haue a circle about the vtter part thereof. And alſo that all maner of gold hereafter to be coyned within this his realme,ſhall haue ẏ whole ſcripture about euery péece of ẏ ſame gold,without lacking of anie part thereof,to the entent that his ſubiects hereafter may haue perfit knowledge by the circle or ſcripture,when the ſame coynes be clipped or appaired. And alſo it is enacted by the ſaid authoritie,that if the warden & controller of the kings mynt,hereafter duely execute not their office in ſearching the ſame coyne,and ſee that it be made perfit in forme as is aforeſaid,before that it paſſe from the mynt: that then the ſame warden and controller ſhall forfeit their ſaid office,& make fine for the ſame at the kings pleaſure. Moreouer it is enacted by the ſaid authoritie,that no manner of perſon ſhall carrie , nor conuey nor cauſe to be carried out of this realme,anie bullion plate or coyne of gold or ſiluer into Ireland,ouer & aboue the ſumme of vi.s. viii d.nor conuey anie ſuch bullion plate or coyne into anie ſhip,bote or other veſſels vpon peine to forfeit the ſaid bullion plate or coyne,& to haue impriſonment,and make fine & ranſom at ẏ kings will. And in like wiſe,that no maner of perſon bring nor conuey,nor cauſe to be brought nor conueyed anie maner of coine of gold or ſiluer aboue the ſumme of iii.s.iiii.d.of the coyne of Ireland into this realme,vpon peine of forfeiture of al the ſame coyne aboue the ſaid ſumme of iii.s.iiii.d. ſo brought into this realme,& to haue impriſonment & make fine & ranſome at the kings wil. And that it ſhall be lawful for euery of the kings ſubiectes to take and ſeaſe all ſuch money of the coine of Ireland hereafter to be brought or conueyed into this realme,ouer and aboue the ſaide ſumme of iii.s.iiii.d.and to bring it to the kings mynt, there to leaue the ſame to the kings vſe. And euery perſon that ſo ſhall bring anie ſuch Iriſh money to the ſaid mynt, ſhall haue the value of the one halfe of all ſuch Iriſh money by him ſo brought to the ſaide mynt, at the ſame time deliuered to him to his owne vſe,by the maſter of the mynt for the time being.

Peuterers Braſyers.

Humbly and lamentably ſhewen and complaine vnto your moſt abundant grace,your humble ſubiectes the pewterers and braſyers of your cities of London and Yorke,and of all other places of this your realme, That where manie ſimple and euill diſpoſed perſons of this your realme of Englande, vſing the ſaide craftes, daily go about this your realme from village, from towne and from houſe to houſe,aſwell in woods and forreſtes, as in other places, to buy pewter and braſſe, and that knowing théeues and other pickers that ſteale aſwel pewter and braſſe belonging to your highnes,and vnder your marke,and to the lordes ſpirituall & temporall, as to other your ſubiectes of this your realme, bring ſuch ſtollen veſſels vnto them in ſuch hid places to ſell, and ſell it for little or nought, and about they bring it into priuie places, or into corners of cities, or townes,and there ſell much parte of it to ſtraungers, which carrie it ouer the ſea by ſtealth. Alſo the ſaid perſons ſo going about, and diuerſe other vſing the ſaid craftes, vſe to make new veſſels, and to mixe good mettall and bad togither, and make it nought, and ſell it for good ſtuffe, where of in déede the ſtuffe and metall thereof is not woorth the fourth part that it is ſold for,to the great hurt, diſceite, and loſſe of your ſubiectes. Alſo diuerſe perſons vſing the ſaide craftes, haue diſceiuable and vntrue beames and ſcales, that one of them woulde ſtande euen with xii. li. weight at one ende, againſt a quarter of a pound at the other ende to the ſingular profit of them ſelfe,and to great diſceit and loſſe of your ſubiects buyers & ſellers with them. For reformation of the premiſſes it would pleaſe your highneſſe, of your moſt abundant grace,with the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame to enact and eſtabliſh, that no perſon or perſons, vſing the ſaide craftes of pewterers & braſyers, from hencefoorth ſhall ſell or change any pewter or braſſe new or old at any place within your realme,but onely in open faires or markets, or in their dwelling houſes, but if they be deſired by the ſaide buyers of ſuch ware, vpon peine of forfeiture to our ſoueraigne lorde the king in euery ſuch default.x.li. Alſo that by the ſame authoritie it may be enacted, and eſtabliſhed, that no perſon ne perſons,of what condition or degrée ſo euer he or they be from henceforth within the ſaid cities of London & Yorke,or without either,caſt or worke anie pewter veſſell, or braſſe in anie place or places within this your realme, but that it be as good fine metall as is the pewter and braſſe caſt and wrought after the perfit goodnes of the ſame within the citie of London, & by the ſtatutes of the ſame ought to be, vpon peine of forfeiture of all ſuch pewter & braſſe ſo caſt & wrought, or worſe pewter and braſſe then ought to be brought into the ſame cities,the one halfe of euery ſuch forfeiture to be to the vſe of your highnes,and the other halfe to the vſe of the finders thereof. Prouided alway that this forfeiture in no wiſe ſtretch ne extend to braſſe or pewter,being in the poſſeſſion of anie perſon,other than the workers of the ſame,or ſuch as haue the ſame to ſel or being of the craftes or myſteries. Alſo that it may by the ſame authoritie be enacted & eſtabliſhed,that no maner perſon or perſons,of what degrée or condition ſo euer he or they be,from henceforth make no hollow wares of pewter,that is to ſay, ſaltes and pottes that are made of pewter called ley mettall,but that it may be after the aſſiſe of pewter ley mettall wrought within the citie of London: And that the makers of ſuch wares ſhall marke the ſame wares with ſeuerall markes of their owne, to the entent that the makers of ſuch wares ſhall auowe the ſame wares by them (as is abouеſaid) to be wrought. And that all and euery of ſuch wares, not ſufficiently made and wrought,and not marked in forme abouеſaid,found in the poſſeſſion of the ſame maker or ſeller,to be forfeited.And if the ſame ware be ſold,the ſaid maker to forfeit the value of the ſame ware ſo vnlawfully wrought and ſolde, the one halfe of the ſaid wares or the value thereof, to be to the vſe of your highnes, and the other half to be to the vſe of the finder or finders or ſerchers thereof. Alſo that it may by the ſame authoritie,be enacted and eſtabliſhed, that if anie perſon or perſons hereafter vſing buying and ſelling of pewter or braſſe,that hereafter occupie any diſceiuable or falſe beames or weightes of the ſaid wares, that euery ſuch perſon or perſons,vſing or occupying ſuch diſceiuable and vntrue beames, or weightes,to forfeit xx.s. the one halfe to the king, and the other halfe to the partie that therefore ſhall ſue, by action of Det: And that in the ſaide action no protection nor eſſoyne ſhall be allowed, and alſo the ſaide partie ſo offending, ſhall forfeit his beames to him that ſhall ſeaſe it. And if the ſaide offender or offenders be not ſufficient to pay the ſaid ſumme or ſummes by them ſo forfeited,that then it ſhall be lawful to the Maiors, bailiffes or other head officers of ſuch place or places,where anie ſuch offender or offenders ſhall be found, to put them in the ſtockes,and them ſo to kéepe till the next market day next adioyning, and in the market place to put them on the pillorie all the market time. And furthermore, that it be lawfull by the ſaid authoritie,that the maiſter and wardens of the ſaid craft of pewterers, within euery citie and borough of this realme where ſuch wardens are,and where no ſuch wardens are, the head officers or gouernors of the ſame citie or borough,to appoint a certeine perſon and moſt expert in knowledge of the ſame,to make ſearch within the ſaid cities or boroughes where they dwell. And ouer this the iuſtices of peace within euery ſhire,at the generall ſeſſions holden at Michaelmas, ſhall aſſigne & appoint two certeine perſons,hauing experience therein to make ſearch in the premiſſes in euery part of ẏ ſhire,aſwel within the franchiſe as without,ſauing in cities or bourghes where ſerchers be appointed by the heads & gouernors of the ſame: And that of all ſuch vnlawfull pewter or braſſe, as the ſaid ſerchers ſhall finde,the one halfe to the vſe of your grace, & the other halfe to the ſaid ſerchers.And that in the default of the ſaid maiſters and wardens of the ſaid occupations,not ſerching in forme as is aforeſaid,and whereby that anie ſuch vnlawfull metall is caſt or made,or vnlawfull weightes vſed: it ſhall be lawfull to any perſon or perſons, hauing ſufficient cunning and knowledge in the ſaid occupations,by ouerſight of the Maiors, bailiffes,and head officers of the ſaid cities and boroughes,to ſerch all the ſaid places and to put the ſaide authoritie & act in execution in forme aforeſaid. Prouided alway that this preſent act continue and endure to the next parliament,and no longer.

Wardens of fraternities & companies

Ordinances.

Prayen the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where in a parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xv. yéere of the reigne of the bleſſed king Henrye the vi. for that that maiſter wardens and people of guyldes,fraternities and of other companies corporate, dwelling in diuers parties of the realme, often times by colour of rule and gouernance to them graunted and confirmed by charters and letters patentes of diuers kinges, made among themſelfe many vnlawfull and vnreaſonable ordinances, aſwell in priſes of wares as other things for their owne ſinguler profit, and to the common hurt and dammage of the people: It was enacted, that there ſhould from henceforth no ſuch maiſter,wardens, nor companies, make nor vſe none ordinance in diſheritance or diminution of the prerogatiue of the king, nor of other, nor againſt the common profit of the people, nor none other ordinance of charge, but if it were firſt diſcuſſed and proued by good and reaſonable aduiſe by the iuſtices of peace, or the chiefe gouernors of cities, and before them entred of record, and that vpon peine to léeſe and forfeit the force and the effect of all the articles in their ſaid letters patents and charters conteined concerning the ſame, & ouer that to loſe and pay x.li.to the king for euery ordinance that anie of them made, or vſe to the contrary of this ordinance. The ſame ordinance to endure at the kings pleaſure, as in the ſame act it appeareth,which act in now expired,& ſith the expiring of the ſame, diuers & many ordinances haue bene made, by manie and diuers priuat bodies corporat within cities, towns, and boroughs, contrarie to yͤ kings prerogatiue his lawes & the common weale of his ſubiects. Be it therfore ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted, by the king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that no maiſters wardens and fellowſhips of crafts or maiſters, nor anie of them, nor anie rulers of guilds or fraternities, take vpon them to make any acts or ordinances, ne to execute anie acts or ordinances by them here afore made, in diſheritance or diminution of the prerogatiue of the king, nor of other, nor againſt the common profit of the people, but if the ſame acts or ordinances be examined and approued by the chancellor, treaſurer of England, or chiefe iuſtices of either benches, or three of them, or before both the iuſtices of aſſiſe in their circuit or progreſſe, in the ſhire where ſuch acts or ordinances be made, vpon paine of forfeiture of fortie pound for euery time that they do contrary. And ouer that it is enacted, that none of the ſame bodies corporat take vpon them to make anie acts or ordinances, to reſtraine any perſon or perſons to ſue to the kings highneſſe, or to anie of his courts for due remedie to be had in their cauſes, ne put ne execute anie penaltie or puniſhment vpon anie of them for anie ſuch ſute to be made, vpon paine of forfeiture of fortie pound for euerie time that they do the contrarie. And this act to begin and take effect at the feaſt of Penthecoſt next comming, and from thenſeforth.

Cap. 8.

Praien the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where the marchants and inhabitants of diuers cities boroughs and townes within this realme, and aſwell diuers tenants of our ſoueraigne lord the king, as of other that haue by grantes made by noble progenitors and predeceſſors of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, aſwell to them by ſuch name or names, as they or any of them be corporat, as by grants made vnto diuers lordes both ſpirituall and temporall, and by the preſcription that they their tenants reſiants and inhabitantes within their ſeuerall lordſhips boroughs and townes, ſhould be quit and diſcharged of diuers and manie cuſtomes, as of tolles and of other exactions, demands and taske by diuers maiors, ſhirifes, bailifes, and other officers of diuers cities boroughs and townes within this realme, for their ſinguler lucre, of marchantes denizens and of the kings true ſubiectes borne, dwelling and inhabited within this realme, contrarie to their priuiledge, and lately more and otherwiſe than in times paſſed, haue diſtrained, leuied, and taken of them a certaine cuſtome called ſcauage, otherwiſe called ſhewage, to their great charge and trouble, which ſcauage was neuer vſed to be taken nor leuied but onely of marchants ſtrangers. Be it therefore ordeined ſtabliſhed and enacted, by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, & by auctoritie of yͤ ſame that if anie maior, ſhirife, bailife or other officer, in anie citie borough or towne within this realme, diſtraine, take, or leuie any cuſtome called ſcauage otherwiſe called ſhewage, of anie marchant denizen or of other the kings ſubiectes denizens, of or for anie maner of marchandiſe to our ſoueraigne lord the king before truelie cuſtomed that is brought or conueied by land or by water to be vttered and ſold in anie citie borough and towne in this land: Or if anie maior, ſhirife, bailife or other officer, in anie citie, borough, and towne, for no paiment of the ſaid ſcauage, let or diſturbe anie marchant or anie other perſon or perſons being denizens, to ſell and vtter their marchandiſe by them brought into anie citie, borough, or townes, yͭ then euerie maior, ſhirife, bailife, or other officer, diſtraining, leuieng, or taking anie ſuch ſcauage, or otherwiſe offending in any thing contrarie to this preſent act, ſhall forfeit for euerie time that he ſo offendeth twentie pound, the one moitie thereof to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other moitie thereof to the partie in that behalfe greeued, or to anie other that firſt ſueth in that partie by action of debt in anie ſhire within this realme for to be ſued, and that the defendants in any ſuch action be not admitted to wage or do their lawe, nor do anie protection ne eſſoine for anie ſuch defendants be allowed in the ſame. Prouided alway that the maior, ſhirifes and commonltie of the citie of London, and euerie of them, ſhall haue and take all ſuch ſums of monie for the ſaid ſcauage, and of euerie perſon denizens, as by our ſoueraigne lord the king and his moſt honorable counſell ſhalbe determined to be the right title of the maior ſhirifes and commonaltie of the ſaid citie of London, or anie of them, this act in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Delaies in actions on the caſe.

For aſmuch as before this time there hath bene great delaies in actions of the caſe that haue bene ſued aſwell before yͤ king in his bench as in his court of his common bench, bicauſe of which delaies manie perſons haue bene put from their remedie. Be it therefore ordeined enacted and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled and by auctoritie of the ſame, that like proceſſe be had hereafter in actions vpon the caſe as well ſued and hanging, as to be ſued in any of the ſaid courts, as actions of treſpaſſe or debts.

Cap. 10.

Be it ordeined eſtabliſhed, and enacted, by the king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, & by auctoritie of yͤ ſame, that euerie ſhirife within euery countie within this realme of England, haue the cuſtody rule keeping and charge, from the Quindecim of Paſche, next comming, of euery of the kings common gaoles priſons and priſoners, in yͤ ſame, in euery of the ſaid counties where he is ſhirife, during the time of his office, except all gaoles, wherof anie perſon or perſons ſpiritual or temporall, or body corporat, haue the keeping of eſtate of inheritance, or by ſucceſſion. And from the ſame Quind. of Paſche next comming, that all letters patents made to any perſon or perſons for terme of life or liues, or for terme of yeares, of the keeping of the ſaid gaoles, and of any conſtableſhips of anie caſtle, wherein any ſuch common gaole is, by yͤ king our ſouereigne lord, or any other kings of this land. And euerie thing in the ſaid letters patents conteined, be from henſeforth repealed, adnulled voyd and of no force ne effect in the lawe. And that euerie ſuch ſhiriffe, from the ſaid Quindecim of Paſche, be charged and chargeable with the ſaid gaoles priſons and the priſoners remaining in the ſame. And ouer that where diuers and manie perſons, for treaſon murder, robberies and other fellonies before this time haue bene taken, ſome for ſuſpection of the ſame deedes, and ſome vpon inditements, and therevpon brought vnto the ſame gaoles and priſons, and ſometime remained in the keeping of the perſons that ſo arreſted them for the ſaid cauſes, and by colour of negligence, ſubtlelie and craftelie, and oftentimes for fauour, mede, affection or corruption, ſuffered the ſaid offenders to eſcape, as if it had bene by negligence, to the ouert and expreſſe impediment of iuſtice, and execution of the kings lawe, ordered for the punition or puniſhment of ſuch offenders. And when ſuch eſcapes haue bene found before iuſtices, hauing auctoritie to iuquire thereof, and therevpon the parties conuicted, or elſe yeald them ſelues to make fine for the ſame ſmall fines haue bene vſed to be ſet in thoſe cauſes, to the little dread and feare, & great enbolding of the ſaid offenders and miſdoers: By meane whereof great and erraunt fellons and heinous murderers oftentimes haue by negligence eſcaped: ſo that neither they nor the keepers of them, from whome they eſcaped, hitherto haue not bene puniſhed according to their demerits.

Be it therefore enacted ordeined and eſtabliſhed, by the ſaid auctoritie of this preſent parliament, that for euerie negligent eſcape hereafter from anie ſhirife, hauing the keeping of anie gaole, or from anie conſtable of caſtle, or other being keeper of any gaoles, where ſuche priſoners accuſtomablie haue bene and ſhall be kept, of perſons indited of high treaſon being in their keeping, that no leſſe fine be ſet or made for euerie ſuch eſcape, then an hundreth marke, and more, by the diſcretion of the iuſtices, that ſhall aſſeſſe ſuch fines: And for euerie eſcape of perſon eſcaping being in their keeping for ſuſpection of high treaſon, no leſſe fine bs ſet ne made than fortie pound, and for euerie eſcape of perſons indited of murder or pet it treaſon twentie pound at the leaſt, and more, by the diſcretion of the iuſtices, that ſhall aſſeſſe ſuch fines, and for euerie eſcape of perſons ſuſpected of murder or petit treaſon ten pound, or more, by the diſcretion of the iuſtices that ſhall aſſeſſe ſuch fines: And for euerie perſon eſcaping, being in their keeping, indited of fellonie, other than murder or treaſon x. li., and for euerie perſon ſuſpected of fellonie, other than murder or treaſon, as is aforeſaid, to forfeit for euerie ſuch eſcape an hundreth ſhillinges, or more, by the diſcretion of the iuſtices after the maner and quantitie of their demerits: Sauing to euery perſon or perſons, their heires and their ſucceſſors, ſuch ſufficient and lawfull right and title, to anie ſuch eſcapes and fines for the ſame, or to be quit of ſuch eſcapes, or of anie other eſcapes, as they haue or ought to haue at yͤ time of making of this act: this act or any clauſe conteined in yͤ ſame, in anie thing notwithſtanding. And if anie perſon hereafter haue anie priſoner in his keeping, arreſted for ſuſpection of fellonie, treaſon or murder, and that perſon that ſo is arreſted, eſcape by negligent keeping before that he be brought to the gaoles, that perſon, from whome he ſo eſcaped, ſhall forfeit for euery perſon that ſo doth eſcape ſuch fines as ſhalbe ſet by diſcretion of the iuſtices, that ſhall haue auctoritie to aſſeſſe ſuch fines, as the cauſe will require, and the ſame forfeiture to go to them that be intitled to haue ſuch forfeitures the time of making of this act. And moreouer be it enacted and ordeined by the ſaid auctoritie, that all offices of conſtables of caſtle, fortreſſes, or other places: and all other officers within this realme of England or Wales, not requiring actuall exerciſe in anie of yͤ ſame offices by them to whome ſuch grant or offices is made or granted, or by their deputie or deputies, granted by the king our ſouereigne lord that now is, to anie perſon or perſons for terme of life or liues, and letters patents of the ſame, ſhalbe from the feaſt of Paſche next comming vtterly repealed, adnulled, voyd, and of no force ne effect in the law. And this act as concerning yͤ penalties aforeſaid and euery of them, to indure to the next parliament and no longer. Prouided alwaie, that neither yͤ ſhirife of the countie of Surrie for yͤ time being, nor any other ſhirife haue any rule cuſtodie or gouernance of yͤ gaoles of the kings bench and marſhalſie: or of either of them, by reaſon or by auctoritie of the ſaid act: but that ſir Thomas Brandon knight, and ſir John Digby knight, and euery of them haue and inioy the cuſtodie and keeping of the ſame gaoles, according vnto their ſeuerall grants to them made, this act notwithſtanding. Prouided alway that the ſame act of reſumption, or any articles therein conteined, extend not ne be in any wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to Edward Courtney earle of Deuonſhire, for the auoyding & repelling of any letters patents or grant to him made by the king our ſouereigne lord, of and for the conſtableſhip of the caſtle of Keſtermell, otherwiſe called Keſtormin, in the countie of Cornwall: But that ſuch letters patents or grant of the ſame office be of as great force ſtrength and effect, and to the ſaid erle as auaileable, as they ſhould or might haue bene if the ſaid act or reſumption had neuer bene had ne made. Prouided alway that this preſent act of reſumption, or any other made or to be made in this preſent parliament, extend not, ne in any wiſe be hurtfull or preiudiciall vnto anie maner of grant, made by the king our ſouereigne lord by his letters patents to John Morgan, of or for the parkerſhip of the parke of Carlion, with the profits of the ſame within the lordſhip of Uſke of Southwales: but that the ſaid letters patents, and euerie thing in them conteined, be from henſeforth good and effectuall to the ſaid John, according to the tenor and purport of the ſame, the foreſaid act or acts in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Cap. 11.

Deere hayes. Buckſtals. Stalking. Herons. Iuſtices of peaſe.

Foraſmuch as it is well vnderſtand and knowne, that the greateſt deſtruction of red deere and fallow within this realme in time paſt hath bene and yet is with nets called deere haies, and buckſtals, and ſtalking with beaſts, to the great diſpleaſure of our ſouereigne lord the king and of all the lords and other noble men within this his realme hauing forreſts, chaſes or parkes, in their poſſeſſion rule or keeping: ſo that if the ſaid nets or ſtalking ſhould vnlawfullie be vſed and occupied in anie time comming, as they haue bene in time paſt, the moſt partie of the forreſtes chaſes and parkes of this realme ſhould be therewith deſtroied: Be it therefore eſtabliſhed and enacted by the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that any perſon ſpirituall or temporall, hauing no parke chaſe nor forreſt of their owne, keep nor cauſe for to be kept anie nets called deere haies or buckſtals, by the ſpace of a moneth next after the proclamation of this act made: vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie moneth that he or they keepe or cauſe to be kept the ſame nets, haies or buckſtals, xl.li. And ẏ no perſon from henſeforth ſtalk or cauſe any other perſon to ſtalke with any buſh or beaſts to any deere, being in any parke, chaſe, forreſt, or without, but if it be within his owne ground, chaſe, forreſt, or parke without licence of the owner, maiſter of the game, or keeper of ẏ ſame ground, chaſe, forreſt or parke, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery time that he or they ſo ſtalketh, x.li. And furthermore ẏ no perſon ne perſons without his own ground ſlea take or cauſe to be taken by meane of craft or engine anie herons, without it be with hawking or with long bowe, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery heron taken or ſlaine, vi.s.viii.d. And that no perſon or perſons without his or their own ground, take any yong herons out of ẏ neſt, without licence of the owner of ẏ ground where the ſaid neſt is, vpon pain of forfeiture for euerie heron ſo taken out of the neſt, x.s. and that euery man ẏ will may and ſhalbe admitted to ſue for any of the ſaid forfeitures, by action of debt, & like proceſſe to be had & made therin as in other actions of debt at the making of his act. And ẏ the defendant be not admitted to tend nor to do his law in anie ſuch action, nor any eſſoine nor protection to be allowed for the defendant in the ſame. And that two iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions ſhall haue auctoritie to call before them anie perſon ſuſpected of the premiſſes, & to their diſcretion to examine them in the premiſſes. And if by their examination the parties ſo examined be found in default contrarie to the premiſſes, that then he ſo found in default to be committed to priſon, till he haue found ſuretie for paiment for the ſame forfeitures to the king. And that thoſe iuſtices that ſo examine them, ſhall haue the tenth part of euerie ſuch forfeiture for their labour in that behalfe.

Cap. 12.

Vagabonds. Beggers.

Foraſmuch as the kinges grace moſt intirely deſireth among all other earthly thinges, the proſperitie and the reſtfulneſſe of this his realme, and his ſubiects of the ſame, to liue quietly and ſurely, to the pleaſure of God and according to his lawes, willing alway of his pitie, and intending to reduce them thereto by ſofter meanes then by extreame rigour, therefore purueied in a ſtatute made in the time of king Richard the ſecond, conſidering alſo ẏ great charges that ſhould grow to his ſubiects, for bringing of vagabonds to the gaoles, according to the eſtatute. His highneſſe will, by the auctoritie of this his preſent parliament to be ordeined and enacted, ẏ where all ſuch miſdoers ſhould be by examination committed to the common gaole, there to remaine as is aforeſaid, that the ſhiriffes, maiors, bailiffes, high conſtables, pety conſtables, and other gouernors, and officers of cities, boroughs, and towns, townſhips, villages & other places, within three dayes after this act proclaimed, make due ſearch, and take or cauſe to be taken all ſuch vagabonds, idle people, and ſuſpect perſons, liuing ſuſpitiouſlie, and them to take & ſet in ſtocks, there to remaine by the ſpace of one day and one night, and there to haue none other ſuſtinance, but bread & water and after the ſaid daie and night paſſed, to be had out and ſet at large, and then to auoid the towne or place where they be taken, into ſuch citie, towne, place or hundred where they were borne or els to the place where they laſt dwelled or made their abode by the ſpace of iii. yeers, and that as haſtily as they conueniently may, and there to remaine and abide, and if eftſoones they be taken in ſuch default in the ſame town or townſhips, then to be ſet likewiſe in ſtocks by the ſpace of three daies and three nights, with like diet as is aforeſaid, and if any perſon or perſons giue any other meat or drinke to the ſaid miſdoers, ſo being in ſtocks in forme aforeſaid, or the ſaid priſoners fauour in their miſdoing, or them receiue or harborow one night, that then they forfeit for euerie time ſo doing, xii.d. And alſo it is ordeined by the ſaid auctoritie, that all maner of beggers not able to work, within vi. weeks next after proclamation made of this act, go, reſt and abide in his citie, towne, or hundred, where they were borne, or els to the place where they made laſt their abode by the ſpace of iii. yeeres, there to remaine or abide without begging out of the ſaid citie, town, hundred, or place, vpon pains to be puniſhed as is aforeſaid, and that no man haborowe or keepe any ſuch begger in his houſe ouer one night, vpon the ſame paine, and that no man be excuſed by that he is a clerke of an vniuerſitie, from whence he ſaith he commeth, without a letter of the vice chanceller of the vniuerſity from whence he commeth, nor none calling himſelfe a ſouldier, ſhipman or trauailing man, without he bring a letter from his captaine, or from ẏ towne where he lande, & that he then to be commanded to go the ſtraight hie way into his country. And if he depart not according to ſuch commandements in that behalfe to him giuen: ẏ then he to be taken, reputed & puniſhed as a vacabond, & he that harboreth anie ſuch perſon, ſhall forfaite for euerie one ſuch perſon that he harboreth ouer one night xii. d. And ouer this it is ordeined by the ſaide auctoritie, that if any ſhirife or other officer afore rehearſed, execute not the premiſſes as is aboueſaid, of euery vacabounde hermit or begger able to labour, or clerke, pilgrime, or ſhipman, as often as any ſuche commeth in his ſight, or that he hath thereof anie knowledge, within the towne or place where he hath auctoritie rule or gouernance, and that as often as anie ſuch of the ſaid miſdoers, abiding thereabout the ſpace of one daie and one night, depart vnexamined and vnpuniſhed, as is aboueſaid: For euerie miſdoer ſo departed, he to leeſe iii.s.iiii.d. and the lord of euerie lete within this realme and the ſhiriſe in his turne, haue auctoritie to inquire thereof and of all the ſaid defaults and miſdemeanors in his lete and turne, and the lord of the lete to haue for euerie default found as is aboueſaid, the forfeitures aboue limited, and the ſhiriffe to inquire in his turne of ſuch eſcapes within the iuriſdiction of his turne, and to haue thrée ſhillings foure pence for euery ſuch default found in his turne, and that this penaltie limited by this ordinance to be forfeited by anie officer or anie other perſon, for none puniſhment of vagabonds and other miſruled perſons, within euery citie where maior and aldermen bene, that the profit of euerie ſuch penaltie be vnto the alderman of euerie ward where ſuch forfeiture is had or made, to his owne vſe and profit. And alſo it is ordeined and enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, that it ſhalbe lawfull to euerie man, intituled to haue ỹ ſaid penalty, to diſtreine for it likewiſe as the lord of anie leete may do for amerciaments and fines, had and aſſeſſed in the ſame lete. And ouer this be it enacted by the ſaide auctoritie, that the chancellor of England, or kéeper of the kings great ſeale, treaſurer of England, the two chiefe iudges, ỹ chiefe baron of the kings eſcheker for the time being, & alſo the iuſtices of aſſiſe within their circuit, and euery of them, ſhall haue within ỹ ſhire or ſhires where they or anie of them ſhall fortune to be, ful power and auctoritie, to call before them and euerie of them the ſhiriſe, maiors, conſtables and all other officers, of or within the ſame ſhire or ſhires, which haue power to put this ſtatute in execution, and them and euerie of them to examine of the execution of this ſtatute. And if it can be found by ſuch examination, that the ſaid officers or anie of them be defectiue in due execution thereof: that then the ſaid officers & euerie of them ſo found defectiue, ſhall haue and ſuffer like paine and puniſhment, as if the ſaid officer or officers had bene thereof duelie conuicted by the due proceſſe and courſe of the kings law. And ouer this be it enacted, that the ſteward treaſurer and controller of the kings moſt honorable houſhold for the time being, ſhall haue ful power and auctoritie to examine correct and puniſh as is afore rehearſed, being within the precinct and liberty of the verge. London. Alſo the maior and aldermen of the citie of London, that is to ſaie, euerie alderman within his ward, and the maior throughout the whole citie ſhall haue like power and auctoritie to examine correct and puniſh the ſaid offenders within the ſaid citie and liberties of the ſame being in maner and forme aboueſaid. And furthermore it is ordeined and enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, that none apprentice ne ſeruant at huſbandrie, labourer ne ſeruant artificer, plaie at the tables, from the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, ne at tennis, cloſh, dice, cardes, bowles, nor any other vnlawfull games in no wiſe out of the xii. daies at Chriſtmas, and then to plaie onelie in dwelling houſes of his maiſter, or where the maiſter or anie of the ſaid ſeruants is preſent, vpon paine of impriſonment by the ſpace of a daie in the ſtocks openlie. And that the houſholder, where dicing, carding, tennis plaieng, bowles, cloſh, or anie other vnlawfull game afore rehearſed ſhalbe vſed, otherwiſe than is afore rehearſed, and that lawfullie bene preſented before iuſtices of the peace, maior ſhiriſe in his turne or ſteward in his lete, or by examination had before the ſaid iuſtices of peace, ỹ proceſſe be made vpon the ſame as vpon inditement of treſpaſſe againſt the kinges peace, and that the ſaid miſdoer be admitted to no fine vnder the ſum of vi.s.viii.d. and that it be lawfull to two of the iuſtices of peace, whereof one ſhalbe of the Quorum, within their auctoritie, to reiect and put awaie common ale ſelling in townes and places where they ſhall thinke conuenient, and to take ſuretie of the kéepers of the ale houſes of their good behauing, by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices, and in the ſame to be aduiſed and agréed at the time of their ſeſſions. Prouided alway that diminution of puniſhments of vagabondes and beggers aforeſaid, may and ſhall be had for women great with child, and men and women in great ſickneſſe, and perſons being impotent and aboue the age of lx. yéere, by the diſcretion of him ỹ hath auctoritie to do the ſaid puniſhment this act notwithſtanding. Furthermore be it enacted by the ſaid auctoritie that iuſtices of the peace, or two of them at the leaſt within their ſhires, and euerie maior, ſhiriſe, and bailiſe within their cities, townes, and boroughs, ſhall haue full power and auctoritie to make foure times in the yeare, that is to ſaie, euerie quarter once, or ofter, as by their diſcretion ſhalbe thought neceſſarie, throughout all their ſhire, a due and a diligent ſecret ſearche, and if they or anie of them can find by the reaſon of the ſaid ſearch, anie of the ſaid miſruled perſons, the ſaid miſruled perſons ſo found, to haue like puniſhment and correction as is aforeſaid.

Cap. 13. Where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the tewſdaie the morowe next after all ſoules day, the xiii. yeare of the reigne of king Henry the fourth, among other things it was enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed, that if anie riot aſſemble or rout of people againſt the lawe were made in anie part of the realme, that the iuſtices of the peace, thrée or two of them at the leaſt, and the ſhiriſe or vndershiriſe of the countie, where ſuch riot aſſemble or rout ſhould be done, after the ſame ſtatute ſhould come with the power of the ſhire, if néede ſhould be, to arreſt them, and them ſhould arreſt, and the ſame iuſtices and ſhiriſe or vndershiriſe ſhould haue power to record that, that they ſhould find ſo done in their preſence againſt the lawe, and that by the record of the ſame iuſtices and ſhiriſe or vndershiriſe, the ſame treſpaſſers and miſdoers ſhould be conuicted in maner and forme as it is conteined in the ſtatute of forcible entres, with diuers other articles touching and concerning the premiſſes, as in the ſame ſtatute, made the ſaid xiii. yeare more plainlie at large it appeareth, which ſtatute is thought good and neceſſarie. Wherefore by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame. Be it therefore ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted, that the ſaide act made in the ſaide xiii. yeere of king Henrie the fourth, concerning riots aſſemblies and routes of people, and all and euerie article and articles compriſed in the ſame, and alſo all other eſtatutes before this time made concerning the puniſhment of riotors, at the time of the making of this act being in force, from henceforth ſtand in their force, and be duelie put in execution after the tenours and purports of the ſame. And for as much as in the ſaide ſtatute, made in the ſaide xiii. yeere, it is not expreſſed, of what ſufficiencie the iurours impanelled ſhould be, or what iſſues they ſhould loſe if they appeare not, nor no mention therein made of anie puniſhment of the mainteinors and embracers of the iurours that ſhall ſo be empanelled, ſhoulde haue for their miſdemenours, if anie be: It is therefore furthermore enacted by the ſaide auctoritie in this preſent parliament, that if anie riot route or vnlawfull aſſemblie be committed and done at anie time after the firſt daie of Maie next comming within this realme of England, that ẏ ſhirif, hauing a precept direct to him, ſhall returne xxiiii. perſons, dwelling within the ſhire where ſuch riot rout or vnlawfull aſſemblie ſhall be ſo committed and done, whereof euerie of them ſhall haue landes and tenementes within the ſame ſhire to the yeerelie value of twentie ſhillings of charter land or free holde, or xxvi.s.viii.d. of copie holde, or of both, ouer and aboue all charges for to enquire of the ſaide riot route or vnlawfull aſſemblie. And he ſhall returne vpon euerie perſon, ſo by him empanelled, in iſſues at the firſt daie twentie ſhillings, and at the ſeconde daie fourtie ſhillings, if that they appeare not and be ſworne to enquire of the premiſſes at the firſt daie. And if defaulte be founde in the ſhirife or vndershirife, for returning of other perſons, not being of the ſaide ſufficiencie, or returne not iſſues in forme aforeſaide, that then the ſaide ſhirife ſhall forfaite to our ſoueraigne lorde the king for either twentie pounde. And if the ſaide riot, route, or vnlawfull aſſemblie be not founde by the ſaide iurie, by reaſon of anie maintenaunce, or embracerie of the ſaide iurours, then the ſame iuſtices and the ſhirife, or vnderſhirife, ouer and aboue all ſuch certificate that they muſt and bee bounde to make, according to the ſaide ſtatute made the ſaide thirteenth yeere, ſhall in the ſame certificate certifie the names of the mainteinours and embraſours in that behalfe, if anie be, with their miſdemeanours that they knowe, vpon paine of euerie of the ſaide iuſtices and ſhirife or vnderſhirife to forfaite twentie pounde, if the ſame iuſtices and ſhirife or vnderſhirife haue no reaſonable excuſe, for none certificng of the ſame, which certificate ſo made ſhall bee of like force and effect in the lawe, as if the matter conteined in the ſame were duelie founde by the verdite of twelue men. And euerie perſon duelie proued to bee a mainteinour or embraſour of the ſame, ſhall forfaite to our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde twentie pounde, and as well the ſame mainteinours as the embraſours ſhall bee committed to warde, there to remaine by the diſcretion of the iuſtices.

Liueries.

The king our ſoueraigne lorde, calling to remembraunce, that where before this time diuers ſtatutes for puniſhment of ſuch perſons that giue or receiue liueries, or that retaine anie perſon or perſons, or bee retained with anie other perſon or perſons, with diuerſe paines and forfaitures in the ſame ſtatute compriſed, haue bene made and eſtabliſhed: And that notwithſtanding diuerſe perſons haue taken vpon them, ſome to giue and ſome to receiue liueries, and to retaine, and bee retained contrarie to the forme of the ſaide eſtatutes, and litle or nothing is or hath bene done for the puniſhment of the offenders in that behalfe: Wherefore our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe of his lords ſpirituall & temporall, and of the commons of his realme in this parliament being, and by the auctoritie of the ſame hath ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted, that all his ſtatutes and ordinaunces afore this time made againſt ſuch as make vnlawfull retainours, and ſuch as ſo be retained, or that giue or receiue liuerie, bee plainelie obſerued and kept, and put in due execution. And ouer that our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted, by the ſaide auctoritie, that no perſon, of what eſtate degree or condition that hee bee of, by him ſelfe or anie other for him by his commaundement agreement or aſſent, priuilie or openlie giue anie ſuch liuerie or ſigne, or retaine anie perſon, other then ſuch as hee giueth houſholde wages vnto, without fraude or colour, or that he be his meniall ſeruaunt, or his officer, or man learned in the one lawe or in the other, by anie writing, othe, promiſe, liuerie, ſigne, badge, token, or in anie other maner wiſe vnlawfully retaine: and if anie doe the contrarie, then they runne and fall in the paine of forfaiture for euerie ſuch liuerie or ſigne, badge or token an hundred ſhillings: and the taker and accepter of euery ſuch liuerie, badge, token or ſigne, to forfaite and paie for euerie ſuch liuerie and ſigne badge or token ſo taken or accepted C.s. and for euerie moneth that he vſeth or keepeth ſuch liuerie or ſigne, badge or token after that he hath taken or accepted the ſame, to forfaite and paie an C. s. And euery perſon that by oth writing or promiſe, or in anie other wiſe vnlawfullie retaine priuilie or openlie, and alſo euerie perſon that ſo is retained, to forfait and paie for euerie ſuch time C s. And as well euery perſon, that ſo retaineth as euerie perſon that ſo is retained, to forfaite for euery moneth that ſuch retainour is continued an C.s. and that euerie perſon, that before the making of this act by liuerie, ſigne, token, writing, bage, oth, promiſſe or otherwiſe vnlawfully hath retained any perſon and by reaſon therof is retained at the time of making of this act, contrary to the premiſſes, that as well euery of them that keepeth anie perſon ſo in retainor, as euery perſon that ſo is & continueth ſo retained, ſhall forfaite to the king for euerie moneth, from the feaſt vnder written, that ſuch retainour is continued C.s. And alſo it is ordeined and enacted, that no perſon, of what eſtate or condition he bee, from the ſame feaſt, name or cauſe him ſelfe to be named ſeruant or retained to or with anie perſon, buie or cauſe to be bought, or weare anie gowne as a liuerie gowne, ſigne or token of the ſuite or liuerie of anie perſon, or anie badge token or ſigne of anie perſon vpon paine of forfaiture for euerie daie & time, that he ſo doth xl.s. and alſo to haue impriſonment by the diſcretion of the iudges or perſons afore whom he ſhall be therof conuicted and that without baile or mainpriſe. And ouer this be it ordeined Iuſtices of the peace. and enacted by the ſaide autoritie, that the iuſtices of the peace within euerie ſhire of Englande, ſhall at euerie of their generall ſeſſions, that is to ſaie, foure times in the yere at the leaſt, make or cauſe to be made to the ſhirife of the ſame ſhire a warrant or precept, to returne before them a panell of xxiiii. perſons, euerie one of them to haue lands tenements to the yeerelie value of v.li. or xl.

s. at the leaſt, by the diſcretion of the iuſtices. And ÿ ſhirife to returne euerie one of them at xx.s. in iſſues at the leaſt, of the which perſons an enqueſt ſworne ſhall among all other articles ſpeciallie be charged to enquire of all ſuch vnlawfull retainours, and vnlawfull demening afore rehearſed, had within anie part of the ſame ſhire, as farre as the commiſſion, whereby the ſame iuſtices ſitteth, ſtretched: and after the ſame iurie be ſworne, that the ſaid iuſtices ſhall charge and commande Conſtable. Bailifes. the cheefe conſtables of the hundred, and conſtables of euerie towne, And alſo the bailifes of the hundredes, which appeare at the ſame ſeſſions, to giue euidence vpon their othes to the ſame iurie, of all and euerie thing touching this act. And if the cheefe conſtable of the hundred, and bailife of the ſame hundred, euerie of them for the hundred whereof he is officer, And the conſtable of the townes, for euerie towneſhip that they be conſtables of, conceale and giue not true & plaine euidence to their knowledge, of all ſuch retainors contrarie to the premiſſes, as be within the precinct of his or their ſaide officers, then euery of the ſaid bailifes, or conſtables, or bailife of the ſame hundred, to forfaite to the king, for euerie perſon ſo concealed vi.s.viii.d. and to haue impriſonment by diſcretion of the ſaide iuſtices, without baile or mainpriſe. And that the iuſtices ſhall giue daie to the iurie, if it be thought to them expedient, to the next generall ſeſſions, or ſhorter by their diſcretion, Verdite. to giue their verdite. And that the ſame iuſtices ſhall and may take the ſame verdite by parcels at ſeuerall times, & as often as anie thing ſhall be founde by them for the king. And if the ſaid iury ſo ſworne, doe not finde all ſuch vnlawfull retainours and demeanours, and preſent all ſuch perſons, as contrarie to this act be retained within the ſame ſhire, and within the precinct of their commiſſion, as is aforſaide, by liuerie, ſigne, or token, oth, writing, promiſe, otherwiſe vnlawfullie retained, as is aforeſaide, or that name them ſelfe to be ſeruant to anie other perſon, and of the retainours of the ſame, and whereof they or anie of them haue knowledge or credible euidence giuen, that then the iuſtice of peace within the ſame ſhire dwelling, being there at the ſeſſions, hauing then in deede any perſon retained contrary to the ſaid act, and euerie of the ſaid perſons ſo enpanelled and thereupon ſworne, and the ſhirife which the ſaide perſons enpanelled, and that in deede hauing anie perſon retained contrarie to the ſaide act, euerie of them, that is to ſaie, euerie man for his owne defaulte onelie and none otherwiſe, ſhall forfaite to our ſoueraigne lorde xl.li. at euerie time that ſuch a iurie be ſworne. And ouer this be it enacted by the ſaide auctoritie, that the iuſtices of the peace, at their open ſeſſions, ſhall haue ful power and auctoritie, to cauſe all ſuch perſons as they ſhall thinke to be ſuſpected of anie retainour, contrary to this act, to come afore them, or two of them, whereof one ſhall be of the quorum, at ſuch time & place as they ſhall thinke conuenient, & them to examine of all ſuch retainours contrarie to this act, or otherwiſe name them ſelfe to be ſeruant to anie perſon, or of anie other miſbehauing contrarie to this act, by the diſcretion of the ſaide iuſtices, and the ſaide iuſtices, by whom examination is had, ſhall vpon the paine of euerie of them of C. pound the terme next following the ſame examination, certifie before the king in his bench, the names as well of all the perſons that before them by examination ſhall be founden retained, or that before them bee founde to doe anie thing contrarie to this act, as the names of all perſons that by that examination ſhall be accuſed, to be retainours, or to doe contrarie to the ſame act, and the certificate to be of like effect and ſtrength againſt all them ſo examined, and by that examination founde in defaulte, as though they were conuicted thereof by the due order of the kinges lawes, and that ſame certificate to bee of like effect and ſtrength againſt them, that by that examination ſhall be accuſed to be retainours, or to haue done in anie thing contrarie to the ſaide act, as an enditement, had againſt them of retainours. More ouer the king our ſoueraigne lorde, by the aduiſe, aſſent, and auctoritie aforeſaide, hath ordeined, eſtaliſhed, and enacted, that euerie perſon that will ſue or complaine before the chaunceller of Englande, or the keeper of the kinges great ſeale in the ſtarre chaumber, or before the king in his benche, or before the king & his councell attending vpon his moſt roiall perſon, where ſoeuer he be, ſo there be three of the ſame councell at the leaſt, of the which two ſhall be lordes ſpirituall or temporall, againſt anie perſon or perſons, offending or doing againſt the forme of this ordinance, or anie other of the premiſſes, be admitted by their diſcretion to giue information, and euerie ſuch informer ſo admitted ſhall bee receiued to ſue vpon the ſaide matter by information, and that he be receiued to giue ſuch information or informations before the ſaid chaunceller or keeper of the kings ſeale in the ſtarre chamber, or before the king in his benche or before the king and his councell aforeſaide, againſt as manie ſuch offenders as the perſon that ſo ſhall enforme, will or ſhall name, and vpon the ſame all ſuch perſons be called by writ, Sub pena, priuie ſeale, or otherwiſe, and the ſaide councell to haue

haue power to examine all perſons defendantes & euerie of them,as well by oth as otherwiſe,and to adiudge him or them conuict or attaint,as well by ſuch examinnation as otherwiſe,in ſuch penalties as is aforeſaide,as in caſe ſhall require. And alſo ſhall charge by iudgement in the ſame, ſuch perſon or perſons ſo conuict or attaint, to the perſon plaintife or informer in all coſtes therein had by their diſcretion him or them,before whom he ſhall be attainted or conuicted. And alſo the ſame partie plaintife or informer ſhall haue ſuch reſonable rewarde of that that by his complaint ſhall growe to the king, as ſhall be thought reaſonable by the diſcretion of the ſaide chaunceller, or keeper of the great ſeale, iuſtices, or councell. And alſo it is enacted by the ſaide auctoritie, that the ſaide chaunceller or keeper of the great ſeale, iuſtices, or councell, haue full auctoritie and power by this ſtatute, to do ſende by writ, Subpena, priuie ſeale, warrant, or otherwiſe by their diſcretion, for anie perſon or perſons offending or doing contrarie to the premiſſes, without anie ſuite or information made or put before them or anie of them, and the ſame perſon or perſons to examine by othe or otherwiſe by their diſcretion, and to adiudge all ſuch perſons as ſhall be founde guiltie in the premiſſes,by verdit, confeſſion,examination, proues, or otherwiſe, in the ſaide forfaitures and paines as the caſe ſhall require, as though they were condemned therein, after the courſe of the common law, & to commit ſuch offenders to warde,& to warde execution according. And alſo it is ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the ſaide auctoritie, that if anie perſon or perſons be examined of or vpon anie of the premiſſes, vpon anie ſuch information as is aforeſaide, before the ſaide chaunceller or keper of the great ſeale, the king in his bench, his councell, or without information, and denie the ſame, or if anie the ſaide chaunceller, keeper of the great ſeale, or the king in his bench, or councell, doe ſende for anie ſuch perſon or perſons, and them or anie of them examine vpon the premiſſes, and then he or they ſo examined denie his offence in that behalfe: and if that after that time anie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo denieng, be found guiltie or conuicted or attainted by verdit or examination as is aforeſaide or otherwiſe,of any thing done or attempted contrary to the forme of this ordinance, that is by him before denied: that then he or they forfaite to loſe and paie the ſaide paines and forfaitures, as the caſe ſhall require for his or their offences in that behalfe. And ouer that the ſame perſon or perſons to forfait and paie to the king, ouer and aboue that, the moitie of the ſame forfaitures and paines, and alſo to haue impriſonment by the diſcretion of the chaunceller,iuſtices,or councell,for his denier in that behalfe.And that all maner of writings or endentures betwæne anie perſons here before made,whereby anie perſon is retained contrarie to this act:that indenture or writing,as touching anie ſuch reteinder onely and no further,be void and of none effect. This act to take his effect and beginning for ſuch retainors offences and other miſdemeanors, as ſhall be done, had or made contrarie to the forme of this act, after the feaſt of Penthecoſt next comming onelie: and the ſame act to endure and continue during the life of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, and no longer. Prouided alway and by the ſaide auctoritie be it enacted, that if it ſhall fortune hereafter anie perſons to be puniſhed for anie article or other cauſe conteined in this preſent act,that then ſuch perſon or perſons be from henceforth for that mater or cauſe onelie, that he is ſo puniſhed for, clearelie diſcharged and acquited of all paines and forfaitures, the which he or they for that mater or cauſe onely ſhoulde haue ſuſteined by the reaſon or occaſion of anie other act or actes before this time had ordeined or made. Prouided alſo that this act extende not to the puniſhment of anie perſon or perſons, the which by the vertue of the kinges plackard or writing ſigned with his hand & ſealed with his priuie ſeale or ſignet, ſhall take appoint or endent with any perſons to do and to be in a readineſſe to doe the kinges ſeruice in warre or otherwiſe at his commandement,ſo that they that ſhall haue ſuch plackard or writing for their partie vſe not by that reteinor, ſeruice, attendance, or any otherwiſe the perſon or perſons that they ſhall take appoint or endent with,nor the perſons ÿ ſo do endent to do ſeruice vnto our ſoueraigne lorde the king, vſe not them ſelfe for their partie in doing ſeruice and giuing attendance to them that ſhall haue auctoritie by reaſon of the kings writing to take appoint or endent with them,in any thing concerning this ſaid act,other wiſe then ſhalbe compoſed in the ſame the kings plackard or writing, and that plackard or writing for to endure, during the kinges pleaſure and no longer. Prouided alſo that this act extende not to anie liuerie to be giuen by anie ſeriauntes at the lawe, at their making or creation: or to be giuen by anie executours at the enterment of anie perſon for anie murning araie, or to be giuen by anie guilde fraternitie craft corporate, or by the maior and ſhiriffes of the citie of London, or by anie other maior, ſhiriffe or chæfe officer of anie citie, borough, towne or port of this realme of Englande, during the time of his office, and by reaſon of the ſame: or to be giuen by anie abbot or prior,or anie other chæfe head gouernour or officer of anie monaſtery abbeie or priorie or other place corporate,giuen to their fermours or tenaunts, or other wiſe according as it hath bene accuſtomed & vſed in the ſame monaſterie abbey or priorie.

Bondman

of the ſame, to the great hurt diſceite and defraude of the kinges true liege people within this his realme, if that remedie be not therefore purueted. In conſideration whereof be it ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lorde, by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that from henceforth it ſhall be lawfull for euery ſhirife or other officer, to whom anie writ or precept is or ſhall be direct at the ſute of anie perſon or perſons, to haue anie execution of anie landes tenements or other hereditaments againſt anie perſon or perſons, of for and vpon any condemnation, eſtatute marchant, eſtatute of the ſtaple, recogniſance hereafter to be made or had, to do make and deliuer execution vnto the partie in that behalfe ſuing, of all ſuch landes and tenementes as anie other perſon or perſons be in anie maner of wiſe ſeaſed, or hereafter ſhall be ſeaſed in anie wiſe, to the onlie vſe of him againſt whom execution is ſo ſued, like as the ſaid ſhirife or other officer might or ought to haue done if the ſaide partie, againſt whom execution hereafter ſhall ſo be ſued, had be ſole ſeaſed of the ſaide landes and tenementes of ſuch eſtatute as they bee ſeaſed of to his vſe at the time of the ſaide execution ſued. And ouer that be it ordeined by the ſaide auctoritie, that the lordes of whom anie ſuch landes and tenementes be holden in ſocage, ſhall from henceforth after the death of him, to whoſe vſe any perſon or perſons as is aforeſaid be ſeaſed, and no will thereof declared, haue his reliefe ſee hariot and all other duties, like as the ſaide lorde ought or might haue had if he had died ſeaſed of the ſame. Prouided alway that euerie ſuch perſon, againſt whom execution is or ſhall bee had of landes and tenementes ſo being in poſſeſſion of other perſons to his vſe, may haue all ſuch aduauntage in the lawe againſt him or them that ſo haue execution of the lands or tenements afore rehearſed, as he might or ſhoulde haue had if he had be ſole ſeaſed of the ſaide landes and tenementes at time of the ſaide execution ſued. And ouer that bee it ordeined by the ſaid auctoritie, that if any bondman purchaſe anie lands or tenements in fee ſimple, fee taile, or for terme of life, or terme of yeeres, and cauſeth eſtate to be made to diuers perſons to his vſe, or taketh eſtate to him ſelfe & to diuers other iointlie with him and to his vſe and behofe, that it ſhall be lawfull to the lord of anie ſuch bondman to enter during the ſame vſe, into the landes and tenements and euerie parcell thereof ſo purchaſed by his bondman, in like maner and forme as he might haue done, if the ſaide bondman had onelie be ſeaſed of the ſaid lands and tenementes in fee or otherwiſe.

Shirifes turne.

Praien the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where it was eſtabliſhed and enacted in the firſt yeere of the reigne of king Richarde the thirde, late in deede and not of right king of Englande, that no bailife nor other officer ſhoulde returne in anie panell in anie ſhirifes tourne or lawe daie, anie perſon but ſuch as be of good name and fame, and haue landes and tenementes of free holde within the ſame countie, where they be inhabitant, of the yeerelie value of xx.s. at the leaſt, or elſe landes and tenementes holden by the cuſtome of the maner, called copiholde, within the ſame countie of the yerely value of xxvi.s.viii.d. ouer all charges at the leaſt, as in the ſame ſtatute more plainely it appeareth, and that all enditementes and preſentments taken afore anie ſhirife in his tourne otherwiſe, be voide and of none effect. By reaſon of which ſtatute manie ſhirifes of the counties of South Surreie, and Suſſex, intending truely, haue loſt the profites of his or their tournes, and manie great noyſaunces and offences not preſented, nor the offenders and treſpaſſers in the ſame puniſhed, to the great hurt of the inhabitantes of the ſame, for within ſome hundred there, there be not ſo manie perſons of ſuch lands and tenementes dwelling out of fraunchiſes, and thoſe that were of that hauour, they would not appeare for the loſſe of ii.d. or iiii.d. at the daie of the tourne, which ſmall amerciaments is of olde time vſed, where by the kinges ſaide courtes in diuers parties of the ſaid counties be loſt. In conſideration whereof it was eſtabliſhed and enacted, in a parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xiiii. daie of October, in the xi. yeere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lorde king Henrie the vii. that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie ſhirife of anie of the ſaid counties to impanell and ſommon xxiiii. lawfull men of inhabitants within the precinct of his or their tournes, ſuch as owe ſute to the ſame tourne or tournes, & whereof euery of the ſaide xxiiii. men haue lands and tenementes of free holde to the yeerely value of x.s. ouer all charges, or lands and tenementes of copiholde to the yeerely value of xiii.s.iiii.d. ouer all charge within anie of the ſaide counties where ſuch turne or turnes is or be kept, and ſo many there to appeare at the daie of the turne before the ſaide ſhirife vnderſhirife or clarke, to enquire of the articles of the ſaide tourne, and that euerie of the ſaide xxiiii. men ſo being empanelled and ſommoned not appearing, be amerced in the ſaide ſhirifes tourne or tournes for not doing of their ſuite to the ſame xii.d. Prouided alwaie that if there bee twelue of the ſaide inhabitantes ſo impanelled within the precinctes of euerie tourne appeare, ſo that in euery tourne be a lawfull iury of them ſworne, that then all the remnaunt of them ſo impanelled that make defaulte be not amercied for the defaulte but onelie for their ſuite, and as it was lawfullie vſed afore the making of this ſtatute. And ouer that be it enacted, that after due and lawfull ſommons had of the inhabitantes as is aforeſaide, if there appeare not xii. men in euerie of the ſaide ſhirifes tournes of the ſaide inhabitauntes, hauing lands and tenements of the yerely value of x.s. or xiii.s.iiii. as is aboue ſaid, & if there be not xxiiii. ſuch inhabitantes, which may be impanelled and ſommoned in maner and forme aboue ſaide in anie of the ſaid tournes: that then it ſhall be lawfull to euery ſhirife, vnderſhirife, clarke, bailife, or other miniſter, to charge & ſweare anie other perſon or perſons in anie of the ſaid ſhirifes tournes, where ſuch none ſufficient and defaulte of inhabitanutes and appearaunce is had, ſuch as be of good name and fame: and the beſt by his or their diſcretion that appeare afore him or them and none officer nor ſeruant to the ſaid ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, clerkes nor bailifes or miniſters. And that all enditements & preſentmentes, other than felonie ſo taken concerning in the ſaid ſhirifes turnes, be good and effectuall, notwithſtanding the ſaid act made the firſt yeere of king Richarde aforeſaide. And that the ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, clerkes and bailifes of anie of the ſaide counties nor none of them doing according to this preſent act, forfeit anie thing, or be in anie wiſe preiudiced for doing anie thing contrarie to the ſaide ſtatute, made in the firſt yéere of the ſaid king Richard. And that euerie ſhirife, vnderſhirife, clerke, bailife, or miniſter that do contrary to this ordinance in anie point, forfeit the ſumme of C. s. at euery time that they or anie of them doe the contrarie of the ſame in anie point of the ſame, ſauing to euery perſon and perſons their lawfull liberties & franchiſes & tenants inhabitants of the ſame. This act to endure vnto the next parliament. And for as much as before the making of the ſame act, as wel diuers ſhirifes as other inhabitants of the ſame counties of South. Surrey, and Suſſex, were greatly hurt and preiudiced, and hereafter in like forme ſhall be, vnleſſe that it may be enacted in this preſent parliament, that the ſaid act made the ſaid xi. yéere of our ſaid ſoueraigne lordes reigne may endure & from henceforth be good & effectuall, and ſtand in force as by the tenor & purport of the ſame act more plainly may appeare. In conſideration whereof, that it may be eſtabliſhed, & by authoritie of this preſent parliament enacted that the ſame act from henceforth be good and effectuall, and ſtand in force in euery thing after the returne and effect of the ſame. And this act to endure to the next parliament.

Cap. 17. Norwich. Worſted ſhearers.

Prayen the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that whereas the citie of Norwich is an auncient citie, as in the ſame citie without time of minde among other crafts hath bin vſed a certeine craft called ſhiermans craft and the artificers of the ſame haue alwaie vſed by the ſame time to ſheere aswel worſteds, ſtamins and fuſtians, as all other wollen cloth, & all apprentiſes of the ſame craft haue béene taken and bound to ſhéeremans craft only, and by reaſon therof they haue had & enioyed their liberties & fredom in their occupation by yͤ name of the ſhéeremans craft generall and none other wiſe, and they haue euery yéere vſed within the ſaid citie to be choſen and ſworne two wardens of the ſame craft, and all defaultes by the ſaide wardens in their craft found to be preſented before the Maior of the ſaide citie for the time being, & the offenders in that behalfe to be puniſhed according to the cuſtome of the ſame citie, till now of late time diuers perſons for their owne ſinguler profit, contrarie to the common weale of the ſaide citie, feining to haue a craft of worſted ſhearing ſeparate from the ſaide craft of ſhéeremans craft, ſurmitted a bill in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xiiii. daie of October, the xi. yéere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, by force of which pretended bill it was in the ſaide parliament enacted and ordeined, that from henceforth no man ſhould take vpon them to ſhéere worſtedes within the ſaid citie, but if he had be apprentiſe to the ſaid occupations of worſted ſhéering, by the ſpace of vii. yéeres, or ſuch other as the maſters of the ſaid occupation within the ſaide citie for the time being, approuing their conning, with the aduiſe of the Maior for the time being in the ſaide citie, will admit. And furthermore in the ende of the ſaid act it was prouided, that the ſaide occupation of worſted ſhéering ſhall not make nor doe to be made anie ordinance concerning the ſaide occupation among them ſelfe, but ſuch as the Maior of the ſaide citie for the time being with his brethren aldermen ſhall thinke neceſſarie and profitable for the weale of the kings ſubiectes, as more plainly in the ſaid actes among other things doth appeare. It is ſo that ſith the making of this act, by colour of the ſame, the worſted ſhéeremen within the ſaid citie within them ſelfe, without aduiſe or conſent of the Maior of yͤ ſaid citie, haue choſen wardens of worſted ſhearing, and ſeparate the ſame pretended craft from the foreſaid craft called ſhéeremans craft, contrarie to the liberties and good cuſtomes of the ſaide citie in time paſſed vſed and approued: And ouer that the ſaide pretended wardens, with their companie to them confedered, diuers and many times aſſemble and make ordinances among them ſelfe, contrarie to the common weale of the ſaid citie, without any aduiſe of the Maior of the ſaid citie, intending to bring the ſhearing of worſteds into fewe mens hands, & to enhance the price of ſhearing of worſted at their pleaſure, in ſo much yͭ they wil not admit to ſhearing of worſteds but certeine perſons, where manie other wͭin the ſaid citie be as perfit, & haue as great cunning in the ſaid ſhearing of worſteds, as they the ſaid pretended wardens daily do ſuffer to ſhéere, haue and wil not admit anie man to the ſhearing of worſteds, though he haue ſufficient cunning therein without he wil compound with them, & make great and importable fines with force wherof diuers & manie of the ſhéeremen, lately inhabitants of the ſaid citie, be departed out of the citie into the countrey, and ſo diuers & manie houſes within the ſaid citie now be vnoccupied and decayed, & daily more are like to be, to the great deſolation of the ſaid city, and alſo, to the impoueriſhing of the marchants buyers of the ſaid worſteds within the ſaid citie, whereby the great weale & proſperitie of the ſaid citie ſtandeth, and the inhabitants of the ſame ſupported. In conſideration of all which premiſſes it may pleaſe the king our ſoueraigne lord of his moſt abundant grace, and for the great zeale his grace hath to the vniuerſal weale of his ſubiectes in this his realme, by the aduiſe & aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall and of the commons in this parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, to ordeine, ſtabliſh and enact, that the foreſaid act made the xiiii. daie of October, the xi. yere aforeſaid, in euery thing touching & concerning the ſaid worſted ſhearing, or the ſaid pretended craft of worſted ſhearing onely be vtterly void, repealed, adnulled & of no force ne effect. Prouided alway that the reſidue of yͤ

Apprentiſes. aforeſaide act concerning the ſetting or putting, taking or receiuing of apprentiſes for all the citizens and inhabitants within the ſaid citie of Norwich, may ſtand in his full ſtrength and effect, in ſuch forme as in the ſaid act is expreſſed and conteined, this preſent act notwithſtanding.

Cap.18. Seuerne. Prayen the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where time out of minde marchants vittailers, and all other your liege people of this your realme, at their pleaſure haue had vſed free courſe and paſſage through and vpon your riuer and water of Seuerne, within this your realme, with ſhips, trowes, botes and all other their veſſels, to carry and conuey their mar-marchandiſes, vitailes and other goods from towne to towne and from place to place, without interruption, trouble, vexation, let or diſturbance, & without anie thing therefore paying or giuing, vntill late time that diuers marchants and other of this your realme of England, were by diuers Forreſt of Deane. and certeine miſruled perſons inhabited in the forreſt of Deane and other places to the ſaid riuer adioyning wrongfully letten, vexed and interrupted, whereupon for the ſure and peacible paſſage & courſe vpon the ſaid water and ryuer of all the kings liege people to be had and continued, diuers actes and lawes were made and purueyed, and in eſpecial one in the ix. yeere of the reigne of the moſt bleſſed and famous in memorie your vncle king Henry the vi. by the which act it was eſtabliſhed, ordeined & prouided that all your liege people & euery of them, ſhould haue their common & free paſſage vpon your ſaid riuer & water, with their trowes, botes and other veſſels from Briſtow, Glouceſter, Worceſter, & other places, without let, interruption or denyer, and if any of your liege people or ſubiectes were of their ſaide courſe and paſſage letted or diſturbed, that they ſhould haue actions of treſpas againſt the offenders in that behalfe. And the premiſſes notwithſtanding diuers perſons late & now being your officers of & in your citie of Worceſter and towne of Glouceſter, and other places adioyning to your ſaid ryuer and water will not ſuffer any bote trowe or other veſſel to paſſe through and vpon your ſaide ryuer & water without diuers impoſitions by them thereupon ſet, & by them leuyed gathered and rered vpon the marchants and owners of the ſaid goods and marchandiſes, by the ſaide ryuer and water paſſing, in manifeſt contempte of your ſaid lawes, and breaking of the lawdable cuſtome afore time remembred. Pleaſe it therfore your highnes, the premiſſes conſidered by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporal, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, to ordeine eſtabliſhe and enact, that what ſoeuer perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree or condition he or they be hereafter take anie impoſition of anie of the kings liege people, for trowe, bote, or anie other veſſel, for anie goods or marchandiſes carried or conueyed in and vpon the ſaide ryuer and water of Seuerne or let vexe or interrupt anie botes, trowes or veſſels ſo paſſing by the ſaid ryuer & water, for anie ſuch impoſition, or otherwiſe againſt your lawes, that euery ſuch perſon or perſons ſo doing and offending, ſhall forfeit to the king our ſoueraigne lorde for euerie ſuch offence xx.li. & for euery ſuch ſumme or ſummes ſo forfeit, the partie greeued and other perſons that will ſue for Action populer. the ſame forfeiture, ſhall haue and ſue an action populer of Det, aſwell to and for the vſe of our ſoueraigne lord the king, as to the vſe of him that ſhall ſo ſue for it in his owne name, and that our ſoueraigne lord the king haue two parties of the ſaid ſumme ſo forfeited, and the partie that ſo ſhall ſue for the ſame, haue the third partie thereof: And the partie defendant in euery ſuch action ſhall not be receiued to wage his lawe, and alſo be outed of all delatories in the ſame action, as protections, eſſoine and other. And if it fortune the parties in anie ſuch action to defend or plede to anie iſſue, for anie offences done or committed contrarie to the premiſſes triable in the citie of Worceſter, or thr liberties of the ſame, than the ſame iſſue to be tryed by xii. men within the countie of Worceſter, not dwelling ne hauing anie lands within the ſame citie, ne the ſuburbes of the ſame. And if the partie aforeſaid in anie ſuch action defende and plede to an iſſue for anie offence done or committed contrarie to the premiſſes, triable in the ſhire of the towne of Glouceſter, or in the countie of Glouceſter of the ſame iſſue, to be tryed by xii. men of or in the countie of Glouceſter thereto adioyning, not hauing anie lands ne dwelling within the ſame ſhire of the towne of Glouceſter. Prouided alway that this act or anie thing in the ſame conteined, or ſpecified, in anie wiſe extend not nor be preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie perſon or perſons, hauing anie landes or meades, adioyning to the ſaid ſtreame or water of Seuerne, to take of euery perſon or perſons going vpon his or their ſaid lands & meades, & haling and drawing anie ſuch trowe, bote or veſſell, reaſonable recompence or ſatiſfaction for ſuch hurtes and offences as he or they hauing ſuch lands or meades adioyning to the ſaide ſtreame or water, ſhall ſuſteine by reaſon of anie ſuch going or drawing of anie ſuch trowe, bote or veſſel. Prouided alway that if anie perſon or perſons ſpirituall or temporall, or anie bodie corporate, come before the lords of the kings honorable councel in ye ſtarre chamber at Weſtminſter, at any time hereafter before the feaſt of the Aſcention of our lord, that ſhall be in the yeere of our lord God M.D. and v. and there make anie ſufficient proofe & lawfull title of their own offer, or by other meanes before the ſame feaſt to haue anie manner of duetie & impoſition of & for anie maner bote, trowe or other veſſel aforeſaid, or for anie other marchandiſes or goods in anie of the ſame carried & conueyed in & vpon the ſaide riuer water and of Seuerne, & the ſame proofe and title by the ſaid counſel admitted and decreed before the ſame feaſt to be good and auailable to the partie or parties that ſue for the ſame: that then from henceforth after ſuch proofe & title ſhewed, & ſo by the ſaid councel admitted, and by them before the ſame feaſt decreed to be good, thoſe perſons hauing ſuch lawful title, may and ſhall haue from the time of that decree made, al maner ſech duties of euerie of the kings liege people ſo carrying or conueying anie bote, trowe or veſſel in and vpon the ſaid water of Seuerne, according to their title and right ſo proued and decréed, after the maner and forme of the ſame title and decrée: This preſent act or anie thing therein conteined in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Cap. 19.

Cordwainer. Tanner. Curriour. Lethers

Shewing vnto your noble grace and great wiſedome your poore commons and ſubiectes of this your realme, that where at a parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the ſeconde yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the vi. it was ordeined among other, that no cordwayner, nor none other to his vſe, ſhould occupie the myſterie of a tanner, whiles he occupied the miſterie of cordwayner, vnder the peine of forfeiture for euery hyde ſo tanned by them or anie other to their vſe vi.s.viii.d. Alſo where it is ordeined at a parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the firſt yéere of the reigne of king Henrie the vii. our ſoueraigne lord that now is, that no tanner, whiles he vſed or occupied yͤ myſterie of a tanner nor none other to his vſe ſhould occupie the myſterie of a curriour, ne black no hyde, vpon peine of forfeiture for euerie hyde by him ſo curried vi.s.viii.d. And that no curriour of lether take vpon him to currie anie hyde of leather but ſuch as before be ſufficiently tanned, vpon peine to loſe for euery hyde ſo curryed iii.s.iiii.d. and where as no act nor ſtatute is prouided as yet, but that the curriour of leather may vnpuniſhed occupie the myſterie of a cordwayner, & in likewiſe the cordwainer the myſterie of a curriour, by reaſon whereof manie and diuers cordwainers of cities & boroughes within this ſaid realm, haue vſed & do daily vſe the craft of curriours in their houſes at their pleaſure, without anie ouerſéeing or controlling of anie other craft or of anie of the kings officers: ſo that ſometime for lack of cunning, and ſometime for their owne ſpéede & lucre, they ſuffer their lether to paſſe vntruely curried. And alſo where manie tanners put their hydes & lether to ſale before they be ſufficiently dryed, ſo that the buyers of the ſame cannot know, whether the lether be ſufficiently tanned & barked, to the great hurt & diſceit aſwell of al the poore commons within the ſaid cities & boroughes, as of the kinges liege people within the whole realme. Pleaſe it therefore your highnes and great wiſedoms to prouide, by the authoritie of this preſent parliament, for due remedie in this behalf that no man of yͤ craft of cordwainers or ſhoomakers, nor none other to his vſe in citie, borough or town within this realm, ſhal in time to come vſe nor occupie the myſterie or craft of curriours, while he vſeth the craft of cordwayners, vpon peine of forfeiture of vi.s.viii.d. for euery hyde ſo curried & wrought, whereof iii.s.iiii.d. ſhall be to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other iii.s.iiii.d. to ſuch perſon or perſons that firſt finde and ſhewe it. And in ſemblable wiſe that no man of the craft of the curriours, nor none other to his vſe, within anie citie, borough or towne of this ſaid realme, ſhall from hencefoorth vſe nor occupie the myſterie of a cordwainer while he occupieth the craft of curriours, vpon like peine as is next aboue rehearſed. And alſo that no tanner nor barker put no maner of hyde nor leather to ſale before the ſame hyde and leather be ſufficiently dryed, vpon peine of forfeiture for euery ſuch hyde ſo put to ſale vi.s.viii.d. whereof iii.s. iiii.d. to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other iii.s. iiii.d. to ſuch perſon or perſons as firſt finde and ſhewe the ſame.

Cap. 20.

Error. Delay. Execution.

Prayen the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where in a parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the third yéere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord that now is, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſame parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, it was enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed among other things, that if any defendant or tenant, defendants or tenants, or anie other that ſhall be bound by any iudgement, ſue afore execution had anie writ of error, to reuerſe anie ſuch iudgement, in delaying of execution of the partie, that then if the ſame iudgement be affirmed good in the ſaide writ of error and not erronious, or that the ſaid writ of error be diſcontinued in the default of the partie, or the perſon or perſons that ſueth the writ or writs of error be nonſued in the ſame: then that perſon or perſons, againſt whome the ſaide writ of error is ſo ſued, ſhall recouer his coſtes and dammages for his delay and wrongfull vexation in the ſame, by diſcretion of Iuſtices afore whome the ſaide writ of error is ſued, which act or ordinance hath not beene as yet duely put in execution, by reaſon whereof aſwell plaintiffes and demaundants in diuers actions by them ſued, ſith the making of the ſaide ſtatute, haue béene often times delayed of their execution, to their great and importable hurt, loſſe and charge. Wherefore the king our ſoueraigne lorde, by the aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that the ſaide act made the ſaide thirde yéere of his reigne concerning the premiſſes, be good and effectuall, and that from hencefoorth be duely put in execution.

Cap. 21.

Silke wrought beyond ſea.

Be it eſtabliſhed, ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parliament, that no maner of perſon from hencefoorth bring or cauſe to be brought into this realme of England to be ſold, anie maner ſilk wrought by it ſelf, or with anie other ſtuffe in anie place out of this realme in rybands, laces, gyrdels, corſes, calles, corſes of tyſſues, or points, vpon peine of forfeiture of all the ſame rybands, laces, gyrdels, corſes, calles, corſes of tyſſues and points, & euery of them, in whoſe hands ſo euer they be found, or the value of the ſame, the one moitie of the ſaid forfeiture to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other moitie thereof vnto anie of the kings ſubiectes that wil ſeaſe the ſame, the which to do, it ſhall be lawfull to euerie of the kings ſubiects at all times. And that it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon, as well ſtranger as other, to bring into this realme from hencefoorth all other maner of ſilkes, as wel wrought as rawe or vnwrought, to ſell at his or their pleaſure, any act or acts of parliament heretofore to be contrary made in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And that it ſhall be lawfull to all perſons, that haue anie ſuch rybandes, laces, gyrdels, calles, corſes of tyſſues, or points, wrought beyond the ſea, brought into this land by the kings licence, and to be ſolde, to make ſale of the ſame, and euery perſon thereof to haue licence & libertie thereto to the feaſt of Pentecoſt, that ſhall be in the yeere of our lorde M.D.v.

Cap. 22.
Caleys.
Atturney.
Factor.
Staple.

Where in the parliament holden in the fourth yeere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the ſeuenth, it was ordeined enacted and eſtabliſhed, by authoritie of the ſame parliament that none inhabitant nor burgeys of the towne of Caleys or marches of the ſame than being, or at anie time there after to be, before the vi. day of April, the yeere of our lord God M cccc.lxxxviii. ſhould be factor or atturney within the ſaid towne of Caleys or marches of the ſame, to or for any marchaunt of the ſtaple there then dwelling within this realme, or that after that ſhould dwell, to buy or ſell for them or anie of them any woll wolfelles or other marchandiſes of the ſaide ſtaple, but ſuch as ſhould be verie meniall & meere ſeruants or apprentices vnto marchants, then dwellers or that after that ſhould dwell within this realme of England, and by them ſent or to be ſent vnto the ſaid ſtaple. By reaſon of the which ordinance act and ſtatute, manie than inhabitants of the ſaide towne before the time getting their liuing, and keeping within the ſame towne honeſt houſholdes by the gayne and auauntage that they had of the dealing and occupying as factours & atturneys, within the ſame town for other marchants of the ſtaple, dwelling in the parties of this realme, are now departed out of the ſaid towne, and the towne thereby ſore decayed, and by the ſaide inhabitants marchants ſeſing the kings generall priuilege in that behalfe. Be it therefore by authoritie of this preſent parliament ordeined and enacted, that this act and ordinance aboueſaid be from henceforth vtterly adnulled, voide, and of none effect.

Cap. 23.
Stylyard.

Be it ordeined eſtabliſhed enacted and prouided, by the king our ſoueraigne lorde, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of the ſame in this preſent parliament aſſembled, for marchants of the Hanſe in Almayne, hauing the houſe in the citie of London commonly called Guildhalda Theutonicorum, that by authoritie of this ſaide parliament euery act, ſtatute or ordinance, actes, ſtatutes or ordinances heretofore made, not concerning marchantes marchandiſes or other wares, extende not to the preiudice hurt or charge of the ſaide marchantes of the Hanſe contrarie to their auncient liberties priuileges free vſages & cuſtomes of olde time graunted to the ſaide marchants of the Hanſe as well by the kinges noble progenitors, and ratified and confirmed by the kings grace, as by authoritie of diuers parliaments: but that all ſuch act ſtatute and ordinance, actes ſtatutes and ordinances ſo made or to be made in derogation of their ſaid liberties, priuileges, free vſages and cuſtomes ſtand & be as againſt the ſaid marchants and their ſucceſſours and euery of them voide, repealed adnulled and of none effect, anie acte ſtatute or ordinance, actes ſtatutes or ordinances to the contrarie made or to be made notwithſtanding. Prouided alway that this act or anie thing therein conteined extend not, or be in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to the Maior, ſhirife, citizens or comminaltie of the citie of London, or anie of them, or to the ſucceſſours of anie of them, of or for anie entrees, liberties, priuileges, franchiſes or other thing to them or anie of them giuen or graunted by the kinges moſt noble progenitors or predeceſſors kings of this realme, or by authoritie of this parliament or otherwiſe, this preſent act or anie thing therein conteined notwithſtanding.

Cap. 24.
Shire court.
Chycheſter

In conſideration that the ſhire court of and for the ſhire of Suſſex, holden and kept in the citie of Chicheſter, which is in the extreme partie of the ſame ſhire, the ſame ſhire being lxx. myles in length: by reaſon whereof diuers and manie of the kings ſubiectes, inhabiting that ſhire, are ſometime outlawed, & ſometimes loſe great ſummes of money in that court or they haue knowledge thereof to their vtter vndoing. Be it therefore enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parliament, that from the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, the ſhire court for that ſhire ſhall be holden and kept one time at Chycheſter aforeſaide, and the next time at the borough of Lewes, which borough is in the middes of that ſhire, and ſo to be kept Alternis vicibus, for euer; And euery ſhire court holden to the contrarie hereof, and all things therein done, to be voide.

Here endeth the Statutes of King Henry the ſeuenth.

ANNO PRIMO HENRICI OCTAVI.

Acts made in the parlement begun and holden the one and twentith daie of Ianuarie, in the firſt yeere of the reigne of our late ſoueraigne lord Henrie the eight, king of England, and of France, and lord of Ireland.

A reuocation of an act made, the eight yeere of king Henrie the ſixt for going into Denmarke, and Iſland.

The firſt Chapter.

WHere in time paſſed the king of Denmarke made an ordinance, that no Engliſhman, or other ſtranger, borne out of his land, ſhould repaire into anie part of his realme or dominions to get fiſh or other merchandize, but onelie to the towne called Northbarne. At which time the king of noble memorie Henrie the firſt (late king of this realme) being then in perfect amitie with the ſaid king of Denmarke, and at his contemplation ordeined and eſtabliſhed, by authoritie of parlement, holden at Weſtminſter the eight yeere of his reigne, that none of his ſubiects, being Engliſhmen, ſhould go or repaire into anie of the parties, lordſhips or dominions of the king of Denmarke, contrarie to his ſaid ordinance: vpon paine of forfeiture of all his goods moueable. By force of which ſtatute (made in the ſaid eight yeere) diuerſe of the kings ſubiects, not knowing of the ſaid Ignorance eſtatute, aduenturing and repairing into Iſland and other parties of the lordſhips and dominions of the ſaid king of Denmarke, for fiſh and other merchandize, haue beene greeuouſlie puniſhed, to their great loſſe and hinderance, and contrarie to good conſcience: conſidering that fiſh and other commodities of that countrie be much behoouefull and neceſſarie toward the commonweale of this realme.

Be it therefore ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid act (made in the eight yeere of the ſaid king Henrie the firſt, at his ſaid parlement) and all other acts therof made, be from henſefoorth vtterlie void and of none effect, repealed and annulled. A reuocation of an act made the firſt yeere of king Richard the third, for clothmaking.

WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, the three and twentith daie of Ianuarie, Chap.2.
in the firſt yeere of the reigne of Richard the third, late in deed and not in right king of England, an act was made concerning the making and draping of woollen clothes. Forasmuch as the ſaid act is in ſuch forme, that the clothier, doing his true diligence, can not obſerue the ſame without manie times offending againſt the ſaid act, in which be ſo ſtreict and great penalties and forfeitures made againſt the ſaid clothiers, ſo that they hauing no comfort, but that the aforeſaid act ſhould ſtand ſtill good and effectuall, be like to leaue the occupation of clothmaking, which ſhould be occaſion of extreeme pouertie and idleneſſe of a great number of the kings ſubiects, whereof manie great inconuenienceſ ſhould and maie inſue: therefore be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the king our ſoueraigne lord, nor anie other perſon or perſons, ſhall take anie aduantage or profit of anie penalties or forfeiture giuen or limited by the ſaid act. made the ſaid three and twentith daie of Ianuarie, for anie cloth made or to be made afore the beginning of the next parlement.

An act concerning paiments to be made to Iohn Heiron generall receiuer to our ſoueraigne lord the king.

WHere as the king our ſoueraigne lord intendeth, that diuerſe reuenues & duties, due & to be Chap.3.
due to his highneſſe, ſhall be paid to his truſtie ſeruant Iohn Heiron his generall receiuer, and to other perſons by his highneſſe hereafter in like office to be deputed and aſſigned, as in the time of the late king of famous memorie Henrie the ſeuenth hath beene vſed.And for that,that his ſubiects maie be trulie and lawfullie diſcharged of paiments made or to be made by them of euerie of the premiſſes to the ſaid Iohn Heiron,or to other perſons thereto to be limited and appointed in forme aforeſaid: Be it therefore ordeined,enacted, and eſtabliſhed, by the authoritie of this pre- Acquitan. ſent parlement,that all acquitances and bils of receipt heretofore made by the ſaid Iohn Heiron in the time of the ſaid late noble king,and in the time of our ſouereigne lord that now is,and hereafter to be made by the ſaid Iohn Heiron, & all other the ſaid perſons by our ſaid ſouereigne lord to the ſaid offices to be appointed,and of euerie of them, of anie his reuenues or duties whatſoeuer they be, be a ſufficient diſcharge to euerie ſuch perſon againſt the king our ſouereigne lord, his heires,and ſucceſſors,as well in the kings excheker, as in anie other of the kings courts, without anie other warrant,taile or priuat ſeale thereof to be had,obteined,or ſued.And that the treaſuror, chamberlaine,and barons of the ſaid eſcheker, and euerie of them,& all other iudges, auditors and officers accept,take,and allow the ſaid acquitances and bils for ſufficient diſcharge of the ſaid paiments.And this act onelie to indure to the next parlement.

And ouer that be it ordeined and enacted,by the ſaid authoritie,that the ſaid Iohn Heiron,and euerie other perſon that ſhall haue the ſaid or like office of receipt,be chargable & charged to euerie perſon & perſons,ſpirituall and temporall,now hauing or that hereafter ſhall haue anie intereſt in anie part of his or their receipts, by title of inheritance or ſucceſſion, or by grant, aſſignment, act of parlement or otherwiſe.And that euerie of them haue like remedie againſt the ſaid Iohn,& euerie other perſon that ſhall haue the ſaid or like office of receipt, as they haue had or ought to haue had againſt anie other perſon that haue receiued anie of the premiſſes, this preſent act notwithſtanding. And that euerie ſuch perſon ſpirituall or temporall, for non paiment of all ſuch ſums of monie,as they or anie of them ought to haue of the ſaid receipts by title of inheritance,or ſucceſſion,or by grant,aſſignment,act of parlement,or otherwiſe,haue their actions and remedies in euerie of the kings courts againſt the ſaid Iohn, and euerie other perſon, hauing the ſame or like office of receipt for their recouerie and paiment of all ſums that ſhall be ſo due vnto them or anie of them after the firſt daie of this preſent parlement.

An act for penalties vpon actions populars.

Chap.4. WHere in times paſſed haue béene made manie and diuerſe acts & ſtatutes penall, for the which penalties haue béene giuen actions & informations popular,by writ, information or bill,and alſo indictments made and taken vpon the ſame ſtatutes: the great number of which ſtatutes penall haue not béene put in execution till now of late,by meane wher- Ignorãce. of manie and diuerſe good and well diſpoſed perſons (ignorant of anie ſuch ſtatutes) their heires & executors haue béene put to great loſſe of goods,vexation,and trouble by action,information,and indictments for offenſes ſurmiſed to be doone contrarie to the ſame ſtatutes , manie yéeres after the offenſes were ſurmiſed to be doone : vpon which delating of ſo long time, much periurie, great trouble,vexation,& manie inconuenienees inſued to great number of the kings ſubiects, therfore be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord,and by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,& by authoritie of the ſame,that all actions, informations,and indictments from henſeforth to be made,had,or taken,by or for the king our ſouereigne lord, his heires or ſucceſſors, of and vpon anie ſuch penall ſtatutes, made or to be made, be had,made,& taken within thrée yéere next immediatlie following after the ſaid offenſe ſo made, 3. yeeres. committed, or doone. And that all ſuch actions, informations, and indictments, hereafter to be taken,made or had by or for the king our ſaid ſouereigne lord, his heires or ſucceſſors, after the ſaid thrée yéeres(in forme aforeſaid)ended,be vtterlie void and of no force nor effect.

1. yeere. Be it alſo enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all actions and informations from henſeforth to be had,made or taken by any perſon,other than the king,his heirs or ſucceſſors, of & vpon anie ſuch penall ſtatutes made or to be made, be had, made, or taken within one yéere next immediatlie following after the ſaid offenſe ſo made, committed,or doone. And that all ſuch actions & informations hereafter to be taken by any other perſon than the king,his heirs,or ſucceſſors,after the ſaid one yéere(in forme aforeſaid)ended,be void & of no force nor effect. Prouided alway,that where any actions,informations or indictments is limited by any ſtatute to be had,made or taken within ſhorter time than a yéere:that it be had, made, or taken according to the time limited in that eſtatute,this preſent act notwithſtanding.This act to indure to the next parlement.

A reuocation of an act made the third yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the ſeuenth, concerning the entring of merchandizes in the cuſtomers books.

Chap.5. WHere at the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the third yeere of the reigne of the moſt noble king Henrie the ſeuenth.It was ordeined & eſtabliſhed,by the authoritie of the ſame: that no maner of merchant, denizen nor ſtranger, ſhould take vpon him to doo entrée, or cauſe to be entred in the books of anie cuſtomer of anie port within this realme, anie maner merchandize comming into this his ſaid realme, or going out of the ſame, in anie other merchants name,ſauing onlie the name of the merchant,owing the ſame,vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch goods & merchandizes ſo entred ; and euerie of the ſaid merchants , which ſo ſhall take vpon him to cauſe ſuch vntrue entrée to be made, to haue impriſonment, and to make fine therfore at the kings pleaſure: it is now by our ſouereigne lord the king, and his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, well conſidering that the intent and cauſe of the making of the ſaid ſtatute was onelie for as much as by the ſubtill dealing of ſome Engliſhmen, colourablie entering in their owne names the goods of merchant ſtrangers, the kings highneſſe was deceiued in his cuſtomes, and that the ſaid ſtatutes was made for none other cauſe, yet for as much as the words of the ſaid ſtatute were generall, it was extended as well vnto the goods of an Engliſhman, entred in the name of one other Engliſhman, as to the goods of a ſtranger, entred in the name of an Engliſhman, to the great hurt, loſſe and damage of manie and diuerſe of the kings ſubiects, and contrarie to the verie intent and meaning of the ſaid ſtatute.

It is therefore ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the act afore rehearſed, made the ſaid third yéere, & all things conteined in the ſame, be from henſeforth repelled, adnulled, and vtterlie void and of none effect. And furthermore be it enacted, by our ſouereigne lord the king, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that it be lawfull from henſeforth, that euerie Engliſhman, and all other the kings ſubiects, maie in euerie port or hauen within this realme of England, Ireland, and Wales, and the marches of the ſame, and in the towne of Barwike, where it ſhall happen anie merchandize to arriue or to be charged and caried out, to cuſtome in his name all maner of goods and merchandize of an other Engliſhman, or the kings ſubiect.

Cuſtome

And in like forme euerie merchant ſtranger to cuſtome in his name anie goods or merchandize of anie other merchant ſtranger, ſo that the ſaid merchant ſtranger, that cuſtometh the goods of another merchant ſtranger, and the verie owner or proprietarie of the goods ſo cuſtomed, be charged with like cuſtome, ſubſidie, and other things, ſo that the kings grace be not defrauded of his right. And if anie merchant ſtranger or denizen, or anie other the kings ſubiect, cuſtome anie goods or merchandizes of another ſtranger or denizen, or of anie other the kings ſubiect, wherby the kings grace ſhould looſe his cuſtome, ſubſidie, or other his right or dutie, that then the ſaid merchant ſtranger or denizen, or anie other the kings ſubiect, that ſo taketh vpon him or them, to forfeit to our ſouereigne lord the king the goods or merchandizes ſo cuſtomed: and ouer that to forfeit to the partie or parties in this behalfe gréeued, aſmuch monie as the goods or merchandizes of the merchant ſtranger, denizen, or other the kings ſubiect (ſo cauteouſlie cuſtomed) amounted vnto. And that no citizen of London, or other the kings ſubiects, inhabiting in the cinque ports, or anie other being frée of priſage, or butlarage of wines, by grant, cuſtome, or otherwiſe, cuſtome no wines of anie perſon or perſons, not being frée of anie priſage or butlarage. And if anie perſon frée of the ſaid priſage or butlarage ſo doo, that then the ſaid perſon or perſons (that ſo doo) forfeit to our ſaid ſouereigne lord the double value of the priſage of the ſaid wines ſo cuſtomed. And further that it be lawfull to anie perſon or perſons gréeued contrarie to this act, to haue an action of debt againſt anie perſon or perſons that ſo cuſtumed the goods or merchandizes in his name: and not in the owners name, of the ſumme of the value of the ſaid merchandizes ſo cuſtomed and forfeited: in the which action none eſſoine nor protection ſhall lie, nor the defendant to wage his law.

A renocation of a ſtatute made concerning informations to be made before iuſtices of aſſiſe and iuſtices of peace.

Chap. 6.

WHere in a parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the eleuenth yéere of the reigne of the right high and mightie prince late our ſouereigne lord king of England Henrie the ſeuenth. It was enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that from henſeforth aſwell the iuſtices of aſſiſe in the open ſeſſions to be holden afore them, and euerie of them: as the iuſtices of the peace in euerie countie of this realme, vpon information for the king tofore them to be made, ſhould haue full power and authoritie (by their diſcretion) to heare and determine all offenſes and contempts committed and doone by anie perſon or perſons, againſt the forme, ordinance, and effect of anie ſtatute made and not repelled: and that the ſaid iuſtices vpon the ſaid information ſhould haue full power and authoritie to award and make like proceſſe againſt the ſaid offendors and euerie of them, as they ſhould or might make againſt ſuch perſon or perſons as béene preſented and indicted before them of treſpaſſe doone againſt the kings peace, and the ſaid offendor or offendors dulie to puniſh according to the purport, forme and effect of the ſaid ſtatutes. And alſo that the perſon, which ſhould giue the ſaid information for the king, ſhould by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices, content and paie to the ſaid perſon or perſons, againſt whom the ſaid information ſhould be ſo giuen, his reaſonable coſts and damages in that behalfe ſuſteined, if that it be tried or found againſt him, that giueth or maketh anie ſuch information.

Prouided alwaie that anie ſuch information extend not to treaſon, murder, or felonie, nor to anie other offenſe, wherefore anie perſon ſhould looſe life or member vpon the ſame information, anie lands, tenements, goods, chattels, to the partie making the ſame information. Prouided alſo that the ſaid information ſhall not extend to anie perſon dwelling in anie other ſhire than where as the ſaid information ſhould be giuen or made, ſauing to euerie perſon and perſons, cities and townes, all their liberties and franchiſes, to them and euerie of them of right belonging & apperteining. For as much as by force of the ſame act it is manifeſtlie knowen that manie ſiniſter & craftie feigned and forged informations haue béene purſued againſt diuerſe of the kings ſubiects, to their great damage & wrongfull vexation. Be it therefore enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoureeigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons in this preſent parlement Repeale assembled, & by the authoritie of the ſame, that the act afore rehearſed, made the ſaid eleuenth yéere, & euerie thing therein compriſed, be from henſefoorth of none effect, void, adminiſhed, and repelled,

An act concerning the office of coroners.

Chap 7 Where as by a ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, the third yéere of king Henrie the ſeuenth, it was enacted, that a coroner ſhall haue for his fée vpon euerie inquiſition, taken vpon the view of the bodie ſlaine and murdred thirtéene ſhillings and foure penſe, of the goods and chattels of him that is the ſleer or murderer: where by the common law a coroner had not, nor ought not to haue anie thing for their office dooing, as by the ſame ſtatute more plainlie dooth appéere.
Sith which ſtatute ſo made, the coroners haue vſed, that if anie perſon hath happened to be ſlaine by miſaduenture, and not by no mans hand, that they will not inquire vpon the view of the bodie, ſo by miſaduenture ſlaine: except they haue for their labors thirtéene ſhillings & foure penſe, which is contrarie to the common law, and alſo to the ſtatute afore rehearſed: wherby great inconuenience dooth dailie grow to the kings ſubiects, for as much as oftentimes the perſon that is ſo by miſaduenture ſlaine, lieth long aboue the ground vnburied, to the great noiance of the kings liege people, therefore the king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame ordeineth, Coroners ſhall doo their office without fee. that vpon a requeſt made to a coroner to come and inquire vpon the view of anie perſon ſlaine, drowned, or otherwiſe dead by miſaduenture, the ſaid coroner diligentlie doo his office vpon the view of the bodie of euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, without anie thing therefore: vpon paine to euerie coroner that will not indeuer himſelfe to doo his office (as afore is ſaid) or that he taketh anie thing for dooing of his office vpon euerie perſon dead by miſaduenture, for euerie time fortie Iuſtices ſhillings. And that the iuſtices of aſſiſes, iuſtices of peace within the countie where anie ſuch default of the coroners be, haue authoritie and power to inquire thereof and determine the ſame, as well by examination as by preſentment.

An act concerning eſchetors and commiſſioners.

Chap.8. For as much as diuerſe of the kings ſubiects now of late time haue béene ſore hurt, troubled, and wronged, and ſome diſherited by eſchetors and commiſſioners, cauſing vntrue offices to be founden and ſometime returning into the courts of record offices and inquiſitions that were neuer found: And ſome time changing the matter of the offices that were trulie founden, to the great hurt, trouble, and diſheriſon of the kings true ſubiects: that like before this time hath not béene ſéene in this realme: wherefore be it ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted in this preſent parlement, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that if anie eſchetor or commiſſioner hereafter returne or put into anie of the kings courts, anie inquiſitions or offices concerning lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, not founden nor preſented Eſchetors Forfeit by the oths of twelue men, and indented and by them ſealed: that then the ſame eſchetor or commiſſioner forfeit for euerie ſuch office or inquiſition, ſo returned and put into anie of the ſaid courts, an hundred pounds to the partie or parties gréeued by anie ſuch inquiſition or office, and that from henſefoorth no eſchetor, ne no man ſit by vertue of anie commiſſion to inquire of lands, Lands tenements, or other hereditaments, except he, or other to his vſe, haue lands, tenements, or hereditaments of the yéerelie value of fortie marks aboue all charges & repriſes, vpon paine of twentie pounds.

Commiſſ. And that it ſhall be lawfull for all perſons, that be not ſufficient of frée hold in poſſeſſion or vſe, at the time of anie ſuch commiſſion to them deliuered, to refuſe to ſit and inquire by vertue of the ſame commiſſion. And that they vpon proceſſe made againſt them out of the kings excheker, Oth by vertue of the ſame commiſſion, to be diſcharged vpon their oths, for their ſaid non ſuffiencie, without fine or fée.

Places to ſit in. Open euidence. And that euerie eſchetor and commiſſioner ſhall ſit in conuenient and open places, according to the ſtatutes heretofore made. And that the ſaid eſchetors and commiſſioners ſhall ſuffer euerie perſon to giue euidence openlie in their preſence, to ſuch inqueſts as ſhall be taken before anie of them, vpon paine of fortie pounds.

Shirife And that no ſhirife, nor other perſon, which ſhall or ought to returne writs or precepts, returne before eſchetors, or ſuch commiſſioner, anie perſon or perſons to inquire of anie lands or tenements except euerie of the ſame iurie ſo returned, or other to their vſe, haue lands or tenements xl.s.land of the yéerelie value of fortie ſhillings within the ſame ſhire, where the ſame inquirie ſhall be made without fraud or colluſion, aboue all charges and repriſes, vpon paine of forfeiture for Iurie euerie perſon ſo returned one hundred ſhillings. And that the iurie that ſhall be ſworne before anie eſchetor or ſuch commiſſioner to inquire of lands, tenements or other hereditaments, ſhall receiue Counterp. the counterpane of the office or inquiſition, that by them ſhall be preſented, indented, and ſealed by the eſchetor or by ſuch commiſſioner, and the ſame deliuer & ſuffer to reſt in the poſſeſſion of the firſt perſon that ſhall be ſworne in the ſaid iurie, with him to remaine, to the intent that the ſaid commiſſioner or eſchetor maie not change nor imbezell the ſaid offices or inquiſitions.

And this to be done vpon paine of euerie of the ſaid perſons, that ſhalbe ſworne xxv. s. And that euerie eſchetor and commiſſioner (after a iurie or inqueſt before anie of them ſworne) be readie to giue their verdict or preſentment, and offer to preſent the ſame, that the ſame eſchetor or commiſſioners, or part of them, ſhall receiue the ſame verdict without further delaie, vpon paine of one hundred pounds. And deliuer the counterpane of the indenture to the iurie, in forme aboue rehearſed vpon like paine: and that if the clerke of the petie bag of the kings chancerie, for the time being, or his deputie or deputies, or anie other officer there, hauing authoritie to receiue anie ſuch office or inquiſition, to whoſe hands anie ſuch office or inquiſition ſhall come: which ought to be returned into the ſaid chancerie, will not receiue the ſame office or inquiſition, and put it on the filas, to remaine of record, within thrée daies after it be receiued or offered to him to be receiued, he to forfeit for euerie ſuch default fortie pounds. And the commiſſioners or eſchetors, afore whom the ſame office or inquiſition is founden, and (as is beforeſaid) offered to be deliuered to the chancerie, to be diſcharged of the penaltie of fortie pounds limited by ſtatute for non returning of the ſame office or inquiſition within the moneth. And that like law and penaltie be to charge the officer or officers of the kings excheker, for the time being, which ought to receiue inquiſitions or offices returnable into the ſame excheker, for refuſing ſo to receiue them. And that the commiſſioners or eſchetor, before whom the ſaid inquiſitions or offices be founden, be diſcharged of the penaltie of the ſtatute for non returning of the ſame inquiſitions or offices, ſo that then the ſaid eſchetor or commiſſioners at anie time after the moneth of anie ſuch offices, before them or anie of them taken, within another moneth then next inſuing returne the ſaid office into the chancerie or excheker, as the caſe ſhall require. And that the ſaid clerke of the petie bag (for the time being) certifie or cauſe to be certified the tranſcript of euerie ſuch office or inquiſition (taken before anie commiſſioners or eſchetor) to the kings excheker the next terme following the receipt thereof, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie ſuch default fiue pounds. And that no man be compelled after the feaſt of All ſaints next comming, to occupie nor exerciſe the office of an eſchetor by anie one patent ouer one whole yéere. And that he that is once eſchetor ſhall not be made eſchetor againe within thrée yéers after the foreſaid whole yéere ended. And if anie eſchetor after the feaſt of All ſaints be made eſchetor, or exerciſe his office by reaſon of one patent ouer the time of one whole yéere ended, or be made eſchetor within thrée yéeres after (as is aforeſaid) that then after the ſaid whole yéere (in forme aforeſaid, ended, his patent ſo made to be void and of none effect. And that the partie or parties ſo gréeued, ſhall haue his or their recouerie of euerie of the ſaid forfeitures of one hundred pounds, by action of debt, in which action the defendant ſhall not wage his law, nor be by protection nor eſſoine. And the reſidue of the other forfeitures expreſſed in this preſent act, the king ſhall haue the one moitie thereof, and the partie that will ſue therefore by action of debt, the other moitie. And the defendant ſhall haue no other delaie, but as is aforeſaid.

Eſcheator by patent 3 yéeres.

Prouided alwaies, that this act concerning eſchetors for exerciſing of their office ouer a whole yéere togither, and letters patents or grants made or to be made to anie eſchetor for terme of life, or for yéeres, or otherwiſe, extend not, ne be preiudiciall to anie eſchetor that now is, and that héereafter ſhall be made and ordeined in anie citie or towne corporat, or in the duchies of Lancaſter, Cornewall, and the counties palantines of Lancaſter, Cheſter, Durham or Elie, or to anie other countie palantine within the realme of England, Wales, or marches of the ſame. Or to anie eſchetor made or héereafter to be made by anie perſon or perſons ſpirituall or temporall, hauing authoritie by reaſon of anie franchiſes, libertie, priuileges, preſcriptions, or grant, to depute or make anie ſuch eſchetor in the ſame.

Eſchetors in cities, &c.

Prouided alſo that this act, as to anie penaltie in the ſame concerning the ſufficiencie of eſchetor and iurors aforeſaid, extend not, nor be preiudiciall to anie eſchetor in cities or townes corporat, ne to anie other eſchetor made or héereafter to be made by anie perſon or perſons hauing priuilege to make eſchetors for inquiſition of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, ne to anie ſhiriffe or bailiffe for returning in anie pannell anie perſon or perſons before anie of the ſaid eſchetors of leſſe value than is conteined in the ſaid act. The eſchetor of the countie palantine of Lancaſter and Cheſter in this prouiſo onelie forpriſed and excepted.

Prouided alſo, that this act extend nor be preiudiciall to any iuſtices of the peace, for any thing doing concerning the commiſſion of the peace.

Prouided alſo, that nothing penall, conteined in this preſent act, take effect before the feaſt of Eaſter next comming. And this act to indure to the next parlement.

An act concerning the bridge of Stanes.

Chap. 9.

Whereas the chancellor of England and his predeceſſors time out of mind haue vſed to ordeine and aſſigne two, thrée, or foure certeine perſons of the towne and pariſh of Stanes in the countie of Middleſex, to haue the receipt of toll and cuſtome concerning the making and repairation of the bridge of the ſame towne, aſwell of carts & horſſe laden with merchandizes and other ſtuffe, carried ouer and vpon the ſame bridge, as of barges comming vnderneath the ſame bridge, with which toll and cuſtome the ſaid bridge was repaired, and alſo a cauſie extending a mile from the ſame towne in length vnto the towne of Egham, and incloſeth the water of Thames from the kings high waie, ſo that if the ſaid cauſie and bridge be not well mainteined and kept, the kings ſubiects ſhall not nor maie not paſſe on horſſebacke nor on foot by that waie, which ſhould be to the great noiance aſwell of the kings grace as of all his ſubiects, that ſhall ride or go from London to the weſt parties of this land.

Account

Let. paten. void

And foraſmuch as the ſaid toll and cuſtome hath beene at ſometime afore this deſired of the kings highneſſe to be giuen to certeine perſons as of fee by his letters patents: and ſometime the ſaid toll and cuſtome hath not beene well applied to the repairation of the ſaid bridge and waie: be it therefore ordeined, enacted and eſtabliſhed by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that according to the ſaid old vſage the chancellor of England for the time being, or keeper of the kings great ſeale, and their ſucceſſors, haue the deputation and aſſignement of two, three, or foure certeine perſons of the ſaid towne and pariſh of Stanes, that they ſhall take and receiue the ſaid toll and cuſtome, as before this time hath beene vſed to be paid: and the ſame toll and cuſtome ſo by them or anie of them receiued, to imploie vpon the repairation and making of the ſame bridge and waie, and thereof yeerelie to yeeld accounts to the ſaid chancellor or keeper of the kings great ſeale for the time being, or before ſuch perſons as he ſhall depute & aſſigne, and offer themſelfe ſo to doo yeerlie betweene the feaſts of S. Michaell the archangell, and All ſaints. And that all letters patents made or to be made by the kings highneſſe, or by anie of his heirs or ſucceſſors to anie perſon or perſons of the ſaid toll or cuſtome, or of the receipt or imploieng thereof, be from henſefoorth void and of none effect.

An act inlarging a ſtatute concerning the trauers of lands ſeized into the kings hands, by inqueſts afore eſchetors and commiſſioners,

Chap. 10.

Whereas by a ſtatute made the eight yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the ſixt, it is ordeined among other things, that no lands and tenements ſeized into the kings hands, vpon inqueſts taken afore the eſchetor or commiſſioners, ſhall in no wiſe be let or granted to farme by the chancellor of England, to anie other officer of the kings whatſoeuer he be, till the ſame inqueſts and verdicts be returned plainelie into the chancerie, or into the excheker, but that all ſuch lands and tenements, ſhall abide wholie and continuallie in the kings hands, vnto the ſame inqueſts and verdicts be returned. But it be ſo, that he or they, that be greeued by the ſame inqueſts, or put out of their lands and tenements, come into the chancerie, and offer to trauerſe the ſame inqueſts, and offer to take the ſame lands and tenements to farme: and if they ſo doo, then the ſame lands and tenements be committed vnto them, if they ſhew good euidence, prouing their trauerſe to be true, and find ſuretie after the forme of the ſaid ſtatute, as in the ſame ſtatute more at large appeareth.

And notwithſtanding the ſaid ſtatute, diuerſe eſchetors and commiſſioners which haue taken ſuch inqueſts, after the death of the kings ſubiects, of their couin, to the intent to put them that had cauſe of trauerſe, to the verdicts of the ſaid inqueſts, from the farme of the premiſſes, would in the time of vacation put into the chancerie, or into the excheker, their ſaid office by them taken, becauſe the moneth ſhould paſſe before the beginning of the terme next inſuing, by reaſon wherof they that ſhould of right haue the farme vpon their trauerſe according to the true intent of the ſaid ſtatute, were put from the ſame farmes, contrarie to right and good conſcience.

Office Trauers

3. months

For remedie whereof be it ordeined, enacted, and eſtabliſhed, by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that from henſefoorth, after ſuch office found afore anie eſchetor or commiſſioner, put into the chancerie or the excheker, if anie perſon or perſons, which will tender a trauerſe to the ſaid office, and deſireth to haue the lands conteined in the ſame office to farme, and findeth ſuretie, and ſheweth euidence to the chancellor of England for the time being, according to the ſtatute afore reherſed, come into the chancerie within three months next after the ſame office ſo put into the chancerie or excheker, that he be then by the ſaid chancellor thereto admitted, and that then all other patents and grants heereafter to be made thereof within the ſaid three moneths ended, be void and of none effect, the ſaid ſtatute made the eight yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the ſixt, or anie other ſtatute made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act concerning the confirmation of the act of attaint to continue.

Chap. 11.

Whereas at the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the foureteenth daie of October, in the eleuenth yeere of the moſt famous prince king Henrie the ſeuenth, late king of England, father to our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, it was ordeined and enacted vpon euerie vntrue verdict to be giuen within the realme of England betweene partie and partie, in anie ſute, plaint, or demand before the iuſtices of record, where the things in demand extend to the value of twentie pounds not concerning ieopardie of mans life, the partie greeued by the ſame vntrue verdict, ſhould haue a writ of attaint againſt euerie perſon giuing an vntrue verdict, and againſt the partie, which hath iudgement vpon the ſame, which good ſtatute then was made for to indure vnto the next parlement; at the which parlement, in the twelfe yeere of the ſaid late king the ſaid ſtatute alſo was enacted to continue vnto the parlement then next following, which was holden at Weſtminſter the fiue and twentith daie of Ianuarie, the nineteenth yeere, at which parlement alſo it was ordeined to continue vnto this preſent parlement begun the one and twentith daie of Ianuarie. By reaſon of which ſtatute manie light and vnſtable ſworne iuries betweene partie and partie hath beene, and yet be more in feare to giue vntrue verdicts for puniſhment of the ſame. And foraſmuch as the ſaid good ſtatute is ſo much neceſſarie to be continued for the puniſhment of the horrible vice of periurie now daily committed and vſed, to the great diſpleſure of almightie God, and alſo to the great hurt and vtter vndoing of the kings true ſubiects: wherefore be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and by the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid good eſtatute, made in the ſaid eleuenth yéere, as well concerning the ſaid atteint, as the reformation of panels by Iuſtices of peace and gaole deliuerie, and euerie thing conteined in the ſame, be and ſtand good and effectuall in euerie point from this time forward: this act to indure to the next parlement.

An act concerning vntrue inquiſitions, procured by Empſon and Dudleie.

Sheweth vnto your diſcréet wiſdoms, that where diuers and manie vntrue inquiſitions, Chap.12. by the procurement of Richard Empſon knight, and Edmund Dudleie, haue béene had & taken within this realme, as well before commiſſioners aſſigned by letters patents of the late king, king Henrie the 7. as before his eſchetors, as well by vertue of writs of the ſaid late king, as by vertue of their office, by the which inquiſition ſomtime parcell of the ſaid lands conteined in the ſaid inquiſitions, & ſomtime the whole lands there founden, holden of the ſaid late king In capite, where in troth the ſaid lands conteined in the ſaid inquiſitions, nor no parcell of them was hold of the ſaid late king In capite, ne of anie of his progenitors To the which inquiſitions the parties then gréeued by the ſame, could not nor might not take their trauers to the ſame, according to the law of the land, but were inforced and conſtrained to ſue their liuerie of the ſame out of the hands of the ſaid late king, wherby they were and be concluded to ſaie, that the ſaid lands be holden of the king in chiefe, to their great loſſe and hindrance, where in truth they were not holden of the ſaid late king, ne of anie his progenitors: wherefore be it enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that euerie perſon and perſons, hauing poſſeſſion of the ſaid lands, conteined in the ſame inquiſitions, or anie part therof, maie be admitted to haue their trauers to the ſaid vntrue inquiſitions, notwithſtanding anie liuerie ſued in Trauers the time of the ſaid late king, king Henrie the ſeuenth. And that it be further enacted by the ſame authoritie, that anie liuerie ſued of the ſame, in the time of the ſaid late king, ne anie thing conteined in the ſame liuerie, be any concluſion after the courſe of the common law, or in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons that ſhall happen to tend their trauers to the ſaid office, but that they and euerie of them ſhall be admitted to their trauers to the ſaid inquiſitions, and to haue like aduantage in the law, as though no liuerie had béene ſued of the ſame in the time of the ſaid late king, and this at the reuerence of God, and in the waie of charitie, &c.

Prouided alwaie, that they or anie of them, which ſhall tend their trauers to anie of the ſaid inquiſitions, in anie maner and forme, as is aforeſaid, ſhall not be reſtored to anie meane iſſues or profits of lands and tenements compriſed in the ſaid inquiſitions.

An act that no coine, plate, veſſell, bullion nor iewell be caried out of this land.

Where in a parlement begun and holden at Weſtminſter the 16 daie of Ianuarie, in the Chap.13. 17 yéere of king Edward the fourth, amongſt other it was ordeined by authoritie of the ſame parlement, that no perſon ſhould carie nor make to be caried out of this realme or Wales, from no part of the ſame, anie maner monie of the coine of this realme, nor monie of the coine of other realmes, lands, or lordſhips, nor plate, veſſell, bullion nor iewell of gold garniſhed or vngarniſhed, or of ſiluer, without the kings licence, but ſuch perſons as be diſpenſed within the ſtatute made in the ſecond yéere of king Henrie the ſixt. And other diuers ſtatutes made vpon paine of felonie, as in the ſaid ſtatute and ordinance was made to indure from the feaſt of Eaſter, in the eightéenth yéere of the ſaid king Edward, vnto the end of ſeuen yéeres then next inſuing, which ſtatute and ordinance afore rehearſed by authoritie of parlement, holden in the third yeere of the reigne of the late king of moſt famous memorie Henrie the ſeuenth, were affirmed and enacted to be good and effectuall, from the feaſt of the Purification of our ladie, the yeere of our Lord God, a thouſand foure hundred fourescore and nine, and to indure to the end of twentie yeeres then next inſuing. And foraſmuch as the ſaid ſtatute, ordinance and act ſhould expire, and which is thought for the more part to be verie good and neceſſarie: therefore be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid ſtatutes ordinances, and acts (aboue rehearſed) be and ſhall ſtand good and effectuall from the feaſt of the Purification of our ladie, in the yeere of our Lord God, a thouſand fiue hundred and nine, after the computation of England, in euerie thing therein conteined, except onelie the penaltie of felonie in the ſaid ſtatute limited. And that from the ſaid feaſt of the Purification of our ladie, in the yeere of our Lord God, a thouſand fiue hundred and nine, euerie perſon that ſhall carrie or do to be carried anie monie, coine, plate, veſſell, bullion, iewell of gold, garniſhed or vngarniſhed, or of ſiluer, contrarie to the forme of the ſaid ſtatutes, ſhall forfeit the double value of the ſame: the one halfe thereof to the king, and the other halfe to him that ſhall ſeize it, or therefore ſue by action of debt at the common law. And this act to Forfeit. indure vnto the next parlement.

FOraſmuch as the great and coſtlie araie and apparell vſed within this realme, contrarie to good ſtatutes thereof made, hath beene the occaſion of great impoueriſhing of diuers of the kings ſubiects, and prouoked manie of them to rob and to doo extortion, and other vnlawfull deeds to mainteine thereby their coſtlie araie. In eſchewing whereof, be it ordeined by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no perſon, of what eſtate, condition or degree that he be, vſe in his apparell anie cloth of gold, of purpure colour, or ſilke of purpure colour, but onelie the king, the queene, the kings mother, the kings children, the kings brothers and ſiſters, vpon paine to forfeit the ſaid apparell, wherewith ſo euer it be mixt, and for vſing the ſame, to forfeit twentie pounds. And that no man vnder the ſtate of a duke, vſe in anie apparell of his bodie, or vpon his horſſes, anie cloth of gold of tiſſue, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame apparell wherewith ſoeuer it be mixt, and for vſing the ſame, to forfeit twentie marks. And that no man vnder the degree of an erle, weare in his apparell anie ſables, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame apparell. And that no man vnder the degree of a baron, vſe in his apparell, of his bodie or of his horſſes, anie cloth of gold, or cloth of ſiluer, or tilſen ſattin, ne no other ſilke or cloth mixt or brodered with gold or ſiluer, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame apparell, albeit that it be mixed with anie other ſilke or cloth, and for vſing of the ſame to forfeit ten marks. And that no man vnder the degree of a lord or a knight of the garter, weare anie woollen cloth made out of this realme of England, Ireland, Wales, Calis, or the marches of the ſame, or Barwike, vpon paine to forfeit the ſaid cloth, & for vſing of the ſame to forfeit ten pounds. And that no man vnder the degree of a knight of the garter, weare in his gowne or cote, or anie other his apparell, anie veluet of the colour of crimoſin or blew, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame gowne or cote, or other apparell, and for vſing of the ſame to forfeit fortie ſhillings. And that anie of the vſhers of the kings chamber for the time being that firſt ſueth his action of detinue for the ſame apparell, haue the ſaid forfeitures of the ſaid apparell. And if none of the ſaid vſhers commenſe their action thereof within fifteene daies in the terme next after the ſaid forfeiture, then the kings chamberleine for the time being to haue thereof his like action. And the king our ſouereigne lord and his heires, to haue the one halfe of the ſaid forfeitures of the ſaid monie ſo forfeited, and the ſaid chamberlaine of the king for the time being, to haue the ſaid other halfe of the monie.

Prouided, that if there be anie like forfeiture committed or doone by anie of the queenes ſeruants being in hir checker roll, that then anie of the vſhers of hir chamber, and in their default the queens chamberlaine for the time being haue like actions for the ſaid forfeitures, as is aforeſaid, for the kings vſhers and his chamberlaine. And that no man vnder the degree of a knight, except ſquiers for the kings bodie, his cup bearers, caruers, and ſewers, hauing the ordinarie fee for the ſame, and all other eſquiers for the bodie hauing poſſeſſion of lands and tenements, or other hereditaments in their hands, or other to their vſe, to the yeerlie value of three hundreth marks, and lords ſonnes and heires, iuſtices of the one bench or of the other, the maiſter of the rols, and barons of the kings excheker, and all other of the kings counſell, and maiors of the citie of London (for the time being) vſe or weare anie veluet in their gownes or riding cotes, or furs of martron in their apparels, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame fur and apparell, wherewith ſoeuer it be mixt, and for vſing of the ſame to forfeit fortie ſhillings. Nor no perſon other than be aboue named, weare veluet in their dublets, nor ſattin nor damaſke in their gownes nor cotes, except he be a lords ſonne, or a gentleman, hauing in his poſſeſſion, or other to his vſe, lands and tenements, annuities at the leaſt for terme of life, to the yeerelie value of 100 li. aboue all repriſes, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame apparell, wherewith ſoeuer it be mixt, and for vſing of the ſame to forfeit fortie ſhillings. Nor no perſon vſe or weare ſattin or damaſke in their dublets, nor ſilke or chamlet in their gownes or cotes not hauing lands or tenements in his poſſeſſion, or other to his vſe, office or fee for terme of life or liues, to the yerelie value of 20 li. except he be a yeoman of the crowne, or of the kings gard, or gromes of the kings chamber or of the queens, hauing therfore the kings fee or the queens, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame apparell wherwith ſoeuer it be mixt, & for vſing of the ſame, to forfeit 40 s. And that no man vnder the degree of a gentleman, except graduats of the vniuerſities and except yeomen, groomes and pages of the kings chamber and our ſouereigne ladie the queens, and except ſuch men as haue lands, tenements, fees or annuities to the yeerlie value of ten li. for terme of life, or 100 li. in goods, vſe or weare anie furs whereof there is no like kind growing in this land of England, Ireland, Wales, or in anie land vnder the kings obeiſance, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame furs, and for vſing of the ſame to forfeit 40 s. the value of their goods to be tried by their owne oths. And that no man vnder the degree of a knight, except ſpirituall men and ſeriants at the law or graduatts at vniuerſities, vſe anie more cloth in a long gowne than foure brode yards, and in a riding gowne or cote, aboue three yards, vpon paine of forfeiture thereof. And that no ſeruing man vnder the degree of a gentleman, vſe or weare anie gowne or cote, or ſuch like apparell, of more cloth than two brode yards and a halfe in a ſhort gowne, and three brode yards in a long gowne. And that in the ſaid gowne or cote they weare no maner fur, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaid apparell or the value thereof. And that no ſeruing man waiting vpon his maiſter, vnder the degree of a gentleman, vſe or weare any garded hoſe or anie cloth aboue the priſe of 20 penſe the yard in his hoſe except that it be of his maiſters wearing hoſe, vpon paine of forfeiture of 3 s. 4 penſe.

Shirts

And that no man vnder the degrée of a knight,weare anie garded or pinched ſhirt,pinched partlet of linen cloth,vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame ſhirt or partlet,and for vſing of the ſame x.s.And that no ſeruant of huſbandrie,nor ſhéepheard,common labourer,or ſeruant to any artificer out of citie or borough,nor huſbandmen hauing no goods of his owne aboue the value of x.pounds,vſe or weare anie cloth,wherof the brode yard paſſeth in priſe two ſhillings. Nor that anie of the ſaid ſeruants of huſbandrie,ſheepheards nor laborers,weare any hoſe aboue the priſe of x.d.the yard,vpon paine of impriſonment in the ſtocks by thrée daies.And that he that will ſue for anie of the ſaid forfeitures of the ſaid apparell forfeited by anie perſon vnder the degrée of a lord or a knight of the garter haue the ſaid apparell forfeited by action of detinue,and the king our ſouereigne lord to haue the one halfe of the forfeiture of the ſaid monie ſo forepriſed,or the lord of the franchiſe, if it be recouered or preſented within a franchiſe or léet, and the partie that will ſue haue the other halfe. And the ſute to be by action of debt,and that in anie wiſe of all the ſaid actions, the defendant ſhall not wage his law,nor be by protection nor eſſoine,nor the partie to be barred by the kings pardon, nor be delaied by anie plea,to the diſablement of his perſon, and that the lord ſteward of the kings houſe for the time being,within the verge,and iuſtices of aſſiſe, and iuſtices of the peace, ſtewards in léets,or lawdaies,and euerie of them haue alſo power to inquire and hold plea of euerie default of the premiſſes,as well by examination of the partie,as after the courſe of the common law, and to determine the ſame,as well at the kings ſute as at the ſute of the partie. Prouided alwaie,that this act be not preiudiciall nor hurtfull to anie ſpirituall or temporall man in wearing anie ornaments of the church in executing diuine ſeruice,nor to anie merchants ſtrangers.

Iuſtices.
Stewards

Prouided alſo that it ſhall be lawfull to all maiors, recorders, aldermen, ſhirifs, and bailifs, and all other head officers of cities,boroughs or towns corporat,that now be,or hereafter ſhall be, to vſe and weare like apparell in their gowns, doublets, clokes, and other apparell, as their predeceſſors haue doone in times paſt,this act in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Women

Prouided alſo,that this act be not preiudiciall nor hurtfull to anie women,or to anie ambaſſadors,henxmen,harolds of arms,minſtrels,plaiers in enterludes, nor to anie man wearing anie apparell of the kings liuerie, giuen him by the king for the time of his attendance about the kings grace.

Repeals

Alſo be it enacted by authoritie aforſaid, that all other ſtatutes of arraie made afore the making of this preſent ſtatute, and all penalties and forfeitures to be leuied or demanded by reaſon of them,or anie of them,be vtterlie void,repelled,and of none effect,and diſcharged. And that this act of arraie, made at this preſent parlement,begin to take effect at the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell next comming,and not before,and to indure vnto the next parlement.

Wars

Prouided alſo that this act extend not to anie perſon or perſons,vſing anie maner of apparell, as well vpon himſelfe,as vpon horſe,being in the kings ſeruice in the time of war.

Placard

Prouided alwaie,that the kings grace by this preſent act be not letted nor reſtrained of his libertie but that his highneſſe(at his pleaſure)by his placard or his letter, or his bill aſſigned with his moſt gratious hand,maie grant and giue licence and authoritie to ſuch of his ſubiects, as his grace ſhall thinke conuenient, to weare all and ſingular ſuch apparell on his bodie or his horſſes, as ſhall ſtand with the pleaſure of the kings grace, without damage or forfeiture to him or them that ſo dooth,of anie apparell or other paine conteined in this ſtatute.

An act adnulling and reuoking all feofments made to Empſon and Dudleie

Chap.15.

WHere as Richard Empſon,late of London knight,and Edmund Dudleie,late of London eſquire,now ſtanden and be atteinted of high treaſon, after the courſe of the common law, and they or one of them were or be ſeized, or they or anie of them iointlie with other were ſeized of diuers manors, lands, and tenements, and other hereditaments, to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king, or to the vſe of other the kings ſubiects, or in morgage, or to couenant vpon paiment or non paiment,and vpon diuers other couenants. Be it therefore ordeined and enacted, by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that euerie perſon and perſons to whoſe vſe the ſaid Richard and Edmund, or either of them were ſeized the twentith daie of Aprill laſt paſt, or anie time ſithens, maie enter into the ſame, whereof the ſaid Richard or Edmund were ſeized, and make eſtate thereof to other perſons,in fée or to their vſe, as they might haue doone if the ſaid attaindor had neuer béene had ne made,as well vpon the poſſeſſion of our ſouereigne lord the king, as of anie other perſon. And that of all ſuch maner lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, whereof the ſaid Richard and Edmund, or either of them were iointlie ſeized with anie other perſon or perſons,the ſaid twentith daie,or anie time ſith, the ſame ioint feoffées, and their heirs, and euerie of them,to ſtand and be ſeized of the whole, to ſuch vſe and intent, as the ſame ioint feoffée or feoffées,with the ſame Richard and Edmund,or either of them,were ſeized the twentith daie, or anie time ſith,the attaindors notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaie,that this act extend not to anie lordſhips,manors,lands,tenements,poſſeſſions or hereditaments that were of Iohn Ratcliffe knight,late lord Fitzwater,vnto the which Robert Ratcliffe knight,now lord Fitzwater, ſonne and heire of the ſaid Iohn, is reſtored by an act of reſtitution made for him in this preſent parlement, but that the ſaid Robert and his heirs, maie haue and inioie all the ſame lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments, according to the ſaid act of reſtitution, with the prouiſoes conteined in the ſame.

This act, or anie other act made or to be made in this preſent parlement in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. Ne that this act, or any thing conteined therein, be in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to the ſaid Robert, or his heirs, of or in the premiſſes or anie of them.

An act that no monie, coine, plate, veſſell, bullion, nor iewels be caried out of this realme.

The firſt chapter.

Where in the parlement begun and holden at Weſtminſter the xvi. daie of Ianuarie, in the 17 yere of K. Edward the 4 among other it was ordeined by authoritie of the ſame parlement, that no perſon ſhould carie, ne make to be caried out of this realme or Wales, from no part of the ſame, anie maner monie of the coine of this realme, nor monie of the coins of other realms, lands, or lordſhips, nor plate, veſſell, bullion, nor iewell of gold, garniſhed or vngarniſhed, or of ſiluer, without the kings licence, but ſuch perſons as be diſpenſed within the ſtatute made in the ij. yeere of K. Henrie the ſixt, and other diuers ſtatutes made vpon paine of felonie, as in the ſaid ſtatute & ordinance more plainlie doth appeare. The which ſtatute & ordinance was made to indure from the feaſt of Eaſter, in the xviij. yeere of the ſaid K. Edward, vnto the end of vij. yeeres then next inſuing, which ſtatute and ordinance afore rehearſed by authoritie of parlement holden in the iiij. yere of the reigne of the late king of moſt famous memorie Henrie the vij. were affirmed and enacted to be good & effectuall, from the feaſt of the Purification of our Ladie, the yeare of our Lord God 1489, and to indure vnto the end of xx. yeares, then next inſuing. And for as much as the ſaid ſtatute, ordinance and act ſhould expire, and which is thought for the more part to be verie good and neceſſarie. Therfore be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid ſtatutes, ordinances, and acts aboue rehearſed, be and ſhall ſtand good & effectuall from the feaſt of the Purification of our ladie, in the yere of our Lord God 1509, after the computation of England, in euerie thing therin conteined, except onlie the penaltie of felonie in the ſaid ſtatute limited. And that from the ſaid feaſt of the Purification of our ladie, in the yere of our Lord God 1509, euery perſon that ſhall carie or doo to be caried ouer the ſea, or bring it into anie ſhip or veſſell to be caried ouer the ſea, anie monie, coine, plate, veſſell, bullion, iewell of gold, garniſhed or vngarniſhed, or of ſiluer, contrarie to the forme of the ſaid ſtatutes, ſhall forfeit the double value of the ſame, the one halfe thereof to the king, and the other halfe to him that ſhall ſeize, or therefore ſue by action of debt at the common law, and this act to indure to the next parlement.

Forfeit.

An act concerning eſchetors and commiſſioners for true finding of offices to indure for euer.

Chap.2.

Praien the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that where in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, the one and twentith daie of Ianuarie, the firſt yeare of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, for as much as diuers of the kings ſubiects of late time were hurted, troubled, wronged, and ſome diſherited by eſchetors, and commiſſioners, cauſing vntrue offices to be founden, and ſometime returning into the courts of record, offices, and inquiſitions, that were neuer found, and ſometime changing the matter of the offices that were truelie founden, to the great hurt, trouble, and diſheriſon of the kings true ſubiects, that like before time hath not beene ſeene in this realme. Wherefore it was ordeined, eſtabliſhed, & enacted by authoritie of the ſaid parlement, that if anie eſchetor or commiſſioner hereafter returne, or put into anie of the kings courts, anie inquiſitions or offices, concerning lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, not founden nor preſented by the othes of twelue men, and indented, and by them ſealed, that then the ſame eſchetor or commiſſioner to forfeit for euerie ſuch office or inquiſition ſo returned and put into anie of the ſaid courts, a hundred pounds to the partie or parties greeued by anie ſuch inquiſition or office. And from thenſeforth that no eſchetor, ne no man ſit by vertue of any commiſſion, to inquire of lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, except he, or other to his vſe, haue lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of the yearelie value of fortie marks, aboue all charges and repriſes, vpon paine of twentie pounds. And that it ſhall be lawfull for all perſons that be not ſufficient of freehold in poſſeſſion or vſe, at the time of anie ſuch commiſſion to them deliuered, to refuſe to ſit and inquire by vertue of the ſame commiſſion: and that they vpon proceſſe made againſt them out of the kings excheker, by vertue of the ſame commiſſion, to be diſcharged vpon their oths for their ſaid non ſufficiencie, without fine or fee. And that euerie eſchetor and commiſſioner ſhall ſit in conuenient and open places according to the ſtatutes heretofore made. And that the ſaid eſchetor and commiſſioner ſhall ſuffer euerie perſon to giue euidence openlie in their preſence to ſuch inqueſts as ſhall be taken before anie of them, vpon paine of fortie pounds. And that no ſhiriffe nor other perſon, which ſhall or ought to returne writs or precepts, returne before eſchetor or ſuch commiſſioner anie perſon or perſons to inquire of anie lands or tenements, except euerie of the ſame iurie, ſo returned, or other to their vſe, haue lands or tenements of the yearelie value lue of fortie ſhillings, within the ſame ſhire where the ſame inquirie ſhall be made, without fraud or colluſion, aboue all charges and repriſes, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie perſon ſo returned, fiue pounds. And that the iurie, that ſhall be ſworne before anie eſchetor or ſuch commiſſioner, to inquire of lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, ſhall receiue the counterpaine of the office or inquiſition, that by them ſhall be preſented, indented and ſealed by the eſchetor, or by ſuch commiſſioner, and the ſame deliuer & ſuffer to reſt in the poſſeſſion of the firſt perſon, that ſhall be ſworne in the ſaid iurie, with him to remaine (to the intent that the ſaid commiſſioner or eſchetor may not change nor imbezell the ſaid offices or inquiſitions. And this to be done vpon paine of euery of the ſaid perſons, that ſhall be ſworne, xx.s. And that euerie eſchetor and commiſſioner after a iurie or inqueſt before anie of them ſworne, be readie to giue their verdict or preſentment, and offer to preſent the ſame, that the ſame eſchetor or commiſſioners, or part of them, ſhall receiue the ſame verdict without further delay, vpon paine of 100 pounds, and deliuer the counterpane of the indenture to the iurie, in forme afore rehearſed, vpon like paine. And that if the clerke of the petie bag of the kings chancerie, for the time being, or his deputie or deputies, or anie other officer, there hauing authoritie to receiue any ſuch office or inquiſition, to whoſe hands any ſuch office or inquiſition ſhall come, which ought to be returned into the ſaid chancerie, will not receiue the ſame office or inquiſition, and put it on the filas to remaine of record, within thrée daies after it be receiued or offered to him to be receiued, he to forfeit for euerie ſuch default fortie pounds. And the commiſſioner or eſchetor, afore whome the ſame office or inquiſition is founden, as is aforeſaid, and offered to be deliuered into the chancerie, to be diſcharged of the penaltie of fortie pounds, limited by ſtatute for non returning of the ſame office or inquiſition within thrée months. And that like law and penaltie be to charge the officer or officers of the kings excheker, for the time being, which ought to receiue inquiſitions or offices returnable into the ſame excheker, refuſing ſo to receiue them. And that the commiſſioner or eſchetor, before whome the ſaid inquiſitions or offices be founden, be diſcharged of the penaltie of the ſtatute for non returning of the ſame inquiſitions or offices, ſo that then the ſaid eſchetor or commiſſioners, at anie time after the month of anie ſuch offices before them or anie of them taken, within another month then next inſuing, returne the ſaid office into the ſaid chancerie or excheker, as the caſe ſhall require. And that the ſaid clerke of the petie bag, for the time being, certifie, or cauſe to be certified, the tranſcript of euerie ſuch office or inquiſition, taken before anie commiſſioners or eſchetors, into the kings excheker, the next terme following the receipt thereof, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie ſuch default fiue pounds. And that no man be compelled after the feaſt of All ſaints next comming, to occupie nor exerciſe the office of anie eſchetor by anie one patent, ouer one whole yere. And that he that is once eſchetor, ſhall not be made eſchetor againe within thrée yeares after the foreſaid whole yeare ended. And if anie eſchetor, after the feaſt of All ſaints, be made eſchetor, or exerciſe his office by reaſon of one patent, ouer the time of one whole yeare ended, or be made eſchetor within thrée yeare after, as is aforeſaid, that then after the ſaid whole yeare, in forme aforeſaid ended, his patent ſo made to be void and of none effect. And that the partie or parties ſo greeued, ſhall haue his or their recouerie of euerie of the ſaid forfeitures of one hundred pounds, by action of debt, in which action the defendant ſhall not wage his law, nor be by protection nor eſſoine. And the reſidue of the other forfeitures (expreſſed in this preſent act) the king ſhall haue the one moitie thereof, and the partie that will ſue therefore by action of debt, the other moitie, and the defendant ſhall haue none other delaie, but as is aforeſaid.

Prouided alwaie that this act, concerning eſchetors for exerciſing of their office ouer a whole yeare together, and letters patents or grants made or to be made to anie eſchetor for terme of life or for yeares, or otherwiſe, extend not, ne be preiudiciall to anie eſchetor that now is, and that hereafter ſhall be made and ordeined in anie citie, or towne corporat, or in the duchies of Lancaſter, Cornewall, and the counties palantines of Lancaſter, Cheſter, Durham, or Elie, or anie other countie palantine within the realme of England, Wales, or other marches of the ſame, or to anie eſchetor made, or hereafter to be made, by anie perſon or perſons ſpirituall or temporall, hauing authoritie by reaſon of anie franchiſe, libertie, priuileges, preſcriptions, or grant, to depute or make anie ſuch eſchetor in the ſame.

Prouided alſo that this act (as to anie penaltie in the ſame concerning the ſufficiencie of eſchetor and iurors aforeſaid) extend not, nor be preiudiciall to anie eſchetor in cities or towns corporat, ne to anie other eſchetor made, or hereafter to be made by anie perſon or perſons, hauing priuileges to make eſchetors for inquiſitions of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, ne to anie ſhiriffe or bailiffe, for returning in anie panell anie perſon or perſons before anie of the ſaid eſchetors of leſſe value than is conteined in the ſaid act. The eſchetors of the counties palantine of Lancaſter and Cheſter in this prouiſo onelie forepriſed and excepted.

Prouided alſo that this act extend nor be preiudiciall to anie iuſtices of the peace, for any thing doing concerning the commiſſion of the peace, which act and ſtatute was ordeined and made to indure vnto the firſt daie of this preſent parlement. And for as much as the ſaid act is thought to be verie neceſſarie and behoueable: be it therefore ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid act concerning eſchetors, and commiſſioners, and euerie thing therein conteined, ſtand and be in full ſtrength, vertue, and effect for euermore.

An act concerning the mainteinance of archerie and ſhooting in long bowes within this realme.

Chap. 3.

The king our ſoueraigne lord, calling to his moſt noble and gratious remembrance, that by the feat and exerciſe of the ſubiects of this his realme in ſhooting in long bowes, there hath continuallie growne and beene within the ſame great number and multitude of good archers, which haue not onelie defended this realme and the ſubiects thereof againſt the cruell malice and danger of their outward enimies, in time heretofore paſſed, but alſo with little number and puiſſance in regard haue done manie notable acts and diſcomfitures of war, againſt the infidels and other, and furthermore ſubdued and reduced diuers and manie regions and countries to their due obeiſance, to the great honour, fame, and ſuretie of this realme and ſubiects, and to the terrible dread and feare of all ſtrange nations, anie thing to attempt or doo to the hurt or damage of them, or anie of them. And albeit that diuers good and profitable ſtatutes in the time of his noble progenitors and predeceſſors, kings of this land, for the mainteinance of archerie and long bowes heretofore haue béene made, among which the right famous king of noble memorie, Henrie the ſeuenth, father to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, by authoritie of diuers parlements, cauſed good and notable acts and ſtatutes to be eſtabliſhed and made, and that ſhooting in croſſebowes ſhould be ſet on part and not vſed. And alſo that great number of bowſtaues of yew ſhould be brought and conueied by merchants repairing into this realme from thoſe parts where they grow, vpon certeine paines in the ſame ſtatutes limited and conteined, yet neuertheleſſe archerie and ſhooting in long bowes is right little vſed, but dailie miniſheth, decaieth and abateth more and more, for that much part of the commonaltie and parcell of the realme, whereby of old time the great number and ſubſtance of archers hath growne and multiplied, be not of power nor abilitie to buie them long bowes of yew to exerciſe ſhooting in the ſame, and to ſuſteine the continuall charge thereof, and alſo by means and occaſion of cuſtomable vſage of tenis plaie, bowles, cloſh, and other vnlawfull games, prohibited by manie good and beneficiall eſtatutes, by authoritie of parlement, in that behalfe prouided and made, great inpoueriſhment hath inſued, and manie heinous murders, robberies, and felonies be committed and doone, and alſo the diuine ſeruice by ſuch miſdoers on holie and feſtiuall daies not heard or ſolemnized, to the high diſpleaſure of almightie God: wherefore the kings highneſſe of his moſt bleſſed diſpoſition, great wiſedome and prouidence, and alſo for zeale to the publike weale, ſuretie and defenſe of this his realme and ſubiects, and their ancient fame in this behalfe to be reuiued and repaired by the aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and his commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame hath ordeined, enacted, and eſtabliſhed, that the ſtatute of Wincheſter for archers, be put in due execution.

Statute of Wincheſter

Age

And ouer that, that euerie man being the kings ſubiect, not lame, decrepit, nor maimed, nor hauing anie other lawfull or reaſonable cauſe or impediment, being within the age of fortie yeares, except ſpirituall men, iuſtices of the one bench and of the other, iuſtices of aſſiſe, and barons of the excheker, doo vſe and exerciſe ſhooting in long bowes. And alſo to haue a bow and arrowes readie continuallie in his houſe to vſe himſelfe, and doo vſe himſelfe in ſhooting. And alſo that the father, gouernors and rulers of ſuch as be of tender age, doo teach and bring vp them in the knowledge of the ſame ſhooting. And that euerie man hauing a man child, or men children in his houſe, ſhall prouide, ordeine, and haue in his houſe for euerie man child, being of the age of ſeuen yeares, and aboue, till he ſhall come to the age of ſeuentéene yeares, a bow and two ſhafts, to induce and learne them, and bring them vp in ſhooting, and ſhall deliuer all the ſame bowes and arrowes to the ſame yoong men to vſe and occupie. And if the ſame yoong men be ſeruants, that then their maiſters ſhall abate the monie that they ſhall paie for the ſame bowes and arrowes, of their wages. And after all ſuch yoong men ſhall come to the age of ſeuentéene yeares, euerie of them ſhall prouide and haue a bow and foure arrowes continuallie for himſelfe, at his proper coſts and charges, or elſe of the gift or prouiſion of his friends, and vſe and occupie the ſame in ſhooting, as is afore rehearſed.

Iuſtices.

And that the iuſtices of aſſiſes, of gaole deliuerie, iuſtices of peace, and ſtewards of franchiſes, léets, and lawdaies, haue power to inquire of all the premiſſes in their ſeſſions, léets, and lawdaies, and heare and determine the ſame. And alſo by their diſcretions examine all perſons lacking and not hauing bowes, ſhafts, and arrowes, according to the forme afore rehearſed.

Forfeit

And euerie perſon that ſhall be found by ſuch inquirie or examination in default, or not prouiding and hauing bowes, arrowes, and ſhafts, readie by the ſpace of one month, ſhall forfeit and paie for euerie ſuch default twelue penſe. And where anie ſuch forfeiture ſhall happen to be founden within the precinct of anie franchiſe, léet, or lawdaie, then the lord of the ſame franchiſe, léet, or lawdaie ſhall haue the forfeiture thereof. And in all other places all ſuch forfeiture to be to the king our ſonereigne lord, his heirs and ſucceſſors.

Unlawfull games

Hed officers

And that all ſtatutes heretofore made againſt them that vſe vnlawfull games, be dulie put in execution, and puniſhment had according to the penalties of the ſame, as well againſt the offendors and occupiers of ſuch vnlawfull games, as againſt them that be owners or keepers of houſes or other places, where any ſuch vnlawfull games be vſed, according to the purport, tenor, & intent of the ſame ſtatutes, & furthermore that all the iuſtices of peace, maiors, bailifs, ſhirifs, conſtables, & all other head officers, & euery of them, finding or knowing any maner perſon or perſons, vſing or exerciſing any vnlawfull games, contrary to the ſaid ſtatute, haue full power & authoritie to commit euery ſuch offendor to ward, there to remaine without out baile or mainpriſe, to ſuch time he or they ſo offending, be bounden by obligation to the kings vſe in ſuch ſum of monis as by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices, maiors, bailifs, or other head officers ſhall be thought reaſonable that they nor anie of them ſhall not from thenſeforth vſe anie vnlawfull games. And that euerie bowier within this realme, allwaie make for euerie one bow of yew, that he maketh to ſell, at the leaſt two bowes of elme, wich, or other wood of meane priſe, and if they or anie of them refuſe ſo to doo, and it founden before iuſtices of peace in the ſhire, or maiors, bailifs, or other head officer of cities or boroughs, within their cities or boroughs, by preſentment of twelue men, or by due examination before the ſaid iuſtices of peace, or two of them, or before the ſaid maiors or bailifs, that then the ſame iuſtices, maiors, or bailifs, haue full authoritie & power to commit them to ward, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe, by the ſpace of viij. daies, or more, by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices, maiors, or bailifs. And alſo that buts be made in euerie citie, towne, and place, according to the law of ancient time vſed. And that the inhabitants & dwellers in euerie of them be compelled to make & continue ſuch buts, and to exerciſe themſelues with long bowes in ſhooting at the ſame, and elſe where on holie daies, and other times conuenient. And ouer that it is enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that euerie iuſtice of peace within this realme, or two of them within their ſeuerall iuriſdictions, haue full power & authoritie to take, aſſigne, & appoint bowiers, in three, two, or more places, by their diſcretion, within euerie ſhire, citie, or boroughs, where the moſt common repaire and reſort is of his ſubiects, and there to inhabit and make long bowes of elme, wich, or other wood of little priſe and value to ſerue the commonaltie for the due exerciſe of ſhooting, and to take & compell as manie of them as they ſhall thinke neceſſarie by their diſcretions to inhabit at ſuch places for the ſame. And ſo in likewiſe as often as the caſe ſhall require and be thought behoouefull. And that all bow ſtaues of yew hereafter to be brought into this realme to be ſold, be open and not ſold in bundels, nor cloſe, to the intent the buiers of them maie haue perfect knowledge of the goodneſſe of them, and giue the better priſe for them, if they be ſo worth. And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all maiors, bailifs, ſhirifs, and all other head officers, ſhall make open proclamation of theſe preſents in euerie market and faire to be holden within their ſeuerall iuriſdictions and authorities. And alſo that the iuſtice of the gaole deliuerie, aſſiſes, and iuſtices of peace doo cauſe the ſame to be proclaimed in their ſeuerall circuits, and ſeſſions before them to be holden. This act concerning the making of bowes of elme, wich, or other than of yew, to begin to take effect at the feaſt of Lammas next comming, and the reſidue of all this act to take effect and be put in execution immediatlie, and to indure to the next parlement. Item that no ſtranger borne out of the kings obeiſance (not being denizen) ſhall not conueie nor doo to be conueied into anie parts out of the kings obeiſance anie long bowes, arowes, or ſhafts, without the kings ſpeciall licence, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, whereſoeuer they ſhall be taken within this the kings power, and vpon paine of impriſonment, without baile or mainpriſe, vnto ſuch time he or they (ſo being in ward) haue made a reaſonable fine to the king for his or their offenſes, afore the iuſtice of peace or two of them in their ſeſſions in the ſame countie, where he or they ſhall be committed to ward, or find ſufficient ſuretie for the paiment of the ſame fine. Item that no maner perſon (not being borne within the kings obeiſance) not made denizen, vſe within the kings obeiſance ſhooting with long bowes, without the kings licence, vpon paine of forfeiture of ſuch bowes, arrowes, and ſhafts, as they ſhall be founden ſo ſhooting with, and euerie of the kings ſubiects maie haue authoritie to take and ſeize the ſame forfeitures to his owne vſe.

An act of protections and licence of alienation for ſuch perſons as ſhall be in the kings wars.

THe king our ſoueraigne lord, for diuers cauſes and reaſonable conſiderations him mouing by the aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed, that euerie perſon, of what condition or degrée he be of, being or herafter ſhall be in our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the kings wages and ſeruice of war beyond the ſea, or vpon the ſea, at his pleaſure, haue the protection of profecture or morature, cum cla. volumus. And in the exception of the ſaid protection there be made omiſſion of aſſiſes. And that the ſaid protections be allowable in all the kings courts and other courts, where the ſaid protections ſhall be pleaded or laid for anie of the ſaid perſons in all pleas of aſſiſe, as well of nouell deſeizon as of freſhforce without anie difficultie. And except alwaie that the ſaid protections be not allowable in actions of debt, taken or to be taken by our ſoueraigne lord the king, or by anie perſon to his vſe, or to the vſe of our late ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the ſeuenth, or to the vſe of his executors for the performance of his will, nor in anie appeale of murder or felonie by anie perſon or perſons, ſued or to be ſued. And that a ſpeciall clauſe be expreſſed in the ſame protection for the ſame.

Appeales

Alſo be it enacted, that the iudgements to be giuen from henſeforth in ſuch aſſiſe, arreigned, or to be arreigned, ſhall not be preiudiciall to anie of the ſaid perſons, ſo being in the ſeruice of our ſoueraigne lord the king, as is aforeſaid, which haue anie thing in reuerſion or remainder in lands, or tenements, whereof ſuch aſſiſe be arreigned, if the names of thoſe perſons, which be in the reuerſion or the remainder of ſuch lands or tenements, be not in the ſaid aſſiſe, but that the ſaid iudgment be againſt all them void. The ſaid ordinance to indure and be auaileable to euerie of the ſaid perſons, as long as he abideth in the kings wages and ſeruice of war. And if this ordinance, touching the ſaid perſons ſo now abiding or after this ſhall ſo abide in the ſeruice of the kings highneſſe, be not ſufficient for the eaſe and ſuretie of them: be it ordeined and enacted by the ſame authoritie, that our ſouereigne lord the king, and the lords of his counſell, for the time being, haue full power in all maner of actions, ſutes, and proceſſe, to grant to euerie ſuch perſons protections, as ſhall be in their cauſes auaileable after their diſcretions, during the time that they or anie of them continue in the ſaid ſeruice of war.

Iudgmẽts

Diſcents

Prouided that this act be not auaileable to anie perſon for anie entree, ſince the firſt daie of this preſent parlement. Alſo be it enacted, that if anie diſcent of anie lands or tenements or anie other right or hereditaments be to anie perſon or perſons (being within this realme or elſe where) that that diſcent be of no greater effect to the damage or hurt of the ſaid perſons being in the kings ſeruice, as is aforeſaid, than if the ſaid perſons in the king ſeruice ſo being, were within the age of one and twentie yeares.

Alienat.
Fines
Colluſion
Wardſhip

Alſo be it ordeined by the ſaid authoritie, that all ſuch perſons as ſhall paſſe ouer the ſea, or bide vpon the ſea in the kings ſeruice, as is aforeſaid, euerich of them, which haue lands and tenements holden of the king, or of anie other to their onelie vſe, ſhall and maie lawfullie make thereof alienation, feofments, and tranſmutation of poſſeſſion by deed or debts, fine or fines, recouerie or recoueries, for the performance of their wils, without anie fine for the ſaid alienations, feofments, fines, recoueries, or tranſmutation of poſſeſſion therfore to be made, and that they & euery of them, their heirs and aſſignes, and the heirs and aſſignes of euerie of them, be diſcharged of all ſuch fines by the ſaid act without letters patents of licence or pardon, or other diſcharge to be had in that behalfe. And furthermore be it alſo ordeined and enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that if anie of the ſaid perſons, ſo being in the ſaid ſeruice, which hold lands or tenements of the king, or of anie other by knights ſeruice or otherwiſe, wherefore his heirs ought to be in ward, and fortune in the ſaid ſeruice to deceaſe beyond the ſea or vpon the ſea, or that anie feofment of the ſame lands and tenements, be ſuppoſed to be made by colluſion, the heire of the owner of the ſame lands & tenements, being within age: that then the feoffees or executors of ſuch perſon ſo deceaſſed, haue the ward and mariage of the heire, ſo being within age, and of the lands and tenements ſo holden during the nonage of euerie ſuch heire, to the performance of the will of the ſaid perſon ſo deceaſed, without anie account or other thing to be yeelden, paieng yearelie the rents to the cheefe lord or lords of the fee: ſauing to euerie perſon or perſons, other than the ſaid perſons, that ſhall make anie ſuch alienation, feofment, fine, or ſuffer recouerie to be had againſt them, without paieng therefore anie fine to the king, or the lord or lords, of whome the ſaid lands is holden, for the ſame, ſuch right, title, vſe and intereſt, as they had before the ſaid feofment, alienation, fine, recouerie, or tranſmutation of poſſeſſion, or anie of them, made or ſuffred of anie ſuch lands, tenements, or hereditaments, wherof anie ſuch feofment, fine, alienation, or recouerie ſo ſhall be made.

Prouided alwaie, that this act extend not to any capteins or ſoldiors, that now be or hereafter ſhalbe reteined within the towne of Calis, Hams, Guiſnes, Riſebanke, and Barwike, Wales, or anie of them, and the marches of the ſame.

An act for paiment of wages to ſoldiors being in the kings war.

Soldiors depart without licence.
Felonie

FOr as much as the king our ſouereigne lord intendeth, by the grace of God, to ſend ouer the ſea a great armie, truſting thereby not onelie to preſerue this his realme in his ancient fame and honor, but alſo to ſet in perfect peace and tranquillitie his ſubiects of the ſame, and the better to be diſpoſed to ſerue God. Howbeit manie times by the inordinat couetouſneſſe of capteins reteined with princes afore this time great part of the number of ſoldiors, for whome ſuch capteins haue indented with princes at time of need, haue lacked of their number of ſoldiors, whereby great ieopardie hath inſued, and irrecuperable damages maie inſue, if remedie therefore be not ſeene and had. Be it therefore ordeined by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie capteine be reteined or hereafter ſhall be, to ſerue the king vpon the ſea, or beyond the ſea in feat of war, which haue not his or their whole & perfect number of men and ſoldiors, according as he ſhall be reteined with the king, or giue not them their full wages without abridgement, as he ſhall receiue of the king for them: he ſhall for ſuch default forfeit to the king all his goods and chattels, and their bodies to priſon. And that euerie capteine, petie capteine, and all other hauing vnder them retinue of ſoldior or ſoldiors at the kings wages, ſhall (vpon the paine aforeſaid) paie to the retinue of ſoldior or ſoldiors, and euerie of the ſame, the wages ratablie as is allowed vnto them by the king our ſouereigne lord, or the treaſuror of his wars, without leſſing or withdrawing of anie part thereof. And for as long time as they ſhall receiue wages for them, this paiment to be made vnto the ſaid retinues, and euerie ſoldior of the ſame, of their capteins, and petie capteins, alwaies within ſix daies next and immediatlie after that the ſaid capteine, petie capteins or other, ſhall haue receiued their wages of the king, or of the treaſuror of his wars, or of their lords or maiſters. And if anie ſoldior, being no capteine immediatlie reteined with the king, which hereafter ſhall be in wages and reteined, or take anie preſt to ſerue the king vpon the ſea or vpon the land, or beyond the ſea depart out of the kings ſeruice, without licence of the kings lieutenant there, that ſuch departing be taken, deemed, and adiudged felonie. And that he ſo offending, ſuffer for the ſaid offenſe, puniſhment, and execution of felonie.

And for as much as his offenſe ſtretcheth to the hurt and ieopardie of the king our ſouereigne lord, the nobles of the realme, and of all the commonweale thereof, that therefore he or they ſo offending(not being within orders of holie church)inioy not the benefit of his clergie. And that it be ordeined by the ſaid authoritie, that the iuſtices of the peace of euerie ſhire of England, where any ſuch offendors be taken, haue power to inquire of the ſaid offenſes, and the ſame to heare and determine as they doo and maie doo of felonies, treſpaſſes, and other offenſes expreſſed in the kings commiſſion to them made, as though the ſaid offenſes were doone in the ſame ſhire. And alſo that the ſaid departing of ſuch ſouldiors, and alſo their reteinors, if it be trauerſed, be tried in the ſame ſhire, where they be for ſuch cauſes arreſted and arreigned.

Clergie.
Iuſt. of p.

Prouided alwaies, that no capteine be charged by this act for lacke of his number reteined, as is abouesaid, whoſe ſouldiors ſhall happen to die, or otherwiſe depart not in the fault of the capteine, ſo that the ſaid capteine, if he be at land wages, ſhew the departing or lacking of his ſouldior within ten daies after the lacking of the ſaid ſouldior, vnto the kings lieutenant there, and to the treaſuror of the wars. Or if the capteine be at the ſea wages, if he ſhew the departing or lacking of the ſouldior ſo lacking, to the admerall of the nauie, where he is receiued at the next méeting with the ſaid admerall. Prouided alwaies, that this act extend not to anie capteins or ſouldiors, that now be or héereafter ſhall be reteined within the townes of Calis, Hammes & Guiſnes, Riſebanke, Barwike and Wales, or anie of them, and the marches of the ſame.

Prouided alwaies, that this act be not preiudiciall nor hurtfull to the ſaid capteins, petie capteins nor anie other, hauing vnder them retinue of ſouldiors, nor anie of them, for non paiment of the kings wages to their houſhold ſeruants and other, to whom they ſhall dailie find and giue meat and drinke during the ſaid ſeruice of war.

An act concerning true making and draping of woollen clothes.

Chap.6.

FOr the deceiptfull draping and making of woollen clothes made and draped within this realme, and alſo for meaſuring in ſale of the ſame, our ſouereigne lord the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted diuerſe ordinances and ſtatutes for the true making and draping of ſuch woollen clothes and for meaſuring in ſales the true content of the ſame, in maner and forme following. Firſt, that the wooll which ſhall be deliuered for or by the clothier to anie perſon or perſons for breaking, kembing, carding or ſpinning of the ſame, the deliuerie thereof ſhall be by euen, iuſt and true poize & weight of haberdipoize ſealed by authoritie, not excéeding in weight after the rate of twelue pound wooll ſeimed aboue one quarter of a pound for the waſt of the ſame wooll, and in none other maner. And that the breaker or kember to deliuer againe to the ſaid clothier the ſame woollen ſo broken and kempt, and the carder and ſpinner to deliuer againe to the ſame clothier yarne of the ſame wooll by the ſame euen, iuſt and true poize and weight(the waſt thereof excepted)without anie part thereof concealing, or anie more oile, water, or other thing put thereunto deceiuablie, vpon paine to be ſet vpon the pillorie, or the cucking ſtoole, man or woman, as the caſe ſhall require, vpon due proofe of ſuch deceipt afore, & by the diſcretion of the maior, bailiffe, or other head officer of citie, borough or towne, where the deceipt ſhall appeare, the ſame maior, bailiffe, or head officer, calling to him ſuch perſons as ſhall ſéeme to him conuenient for the proofe of ſuch deceipt.

Spinners

Item that the weauer, which ſhall haue the weauing of anie woollen yarne to be webbed into cloth, ſhall weaue, worke, and put into the web for cloth to be made thereof, as much & all the ſame yarne, as the clothier or anie perſon for him ſhall deliuer to the ſame weauer with his vſed marke put to the ſame, without changing, or anie parcell thereof leauing out of the ſame web, or to reſtore to the ſame clothier the ſurplus of the ſame yarne, if anie be left not put into the ſame web, and without anie more oile, brene, moiſture, duſt, ſand, or other thing deceiuable, putting to or caſting to the ſame web, vpon paine to be ſet vpon the pillorie, by proofe, diſcretion, and in maner as is aforeſaid.

Weauer.

Item that no maner perſon buie anie coloured wooll, or coloured woollen yarne of any carder, ſpinner or weauer, but onelie in open market, vpon paine to be ſet vpon the pillorie in maner aforeſaid.

Buier.

Item that the walker and fuller ſhall trulie walke, full, thicke, and worke euerie web of woollen yarne, which he ſhall haue to walke, full, thicke, or worke, without anie flocks, or anie other maner deceipt to be vſed within the ſame, and ſhall not row nor worke anie cloth or web with anie cards on the right ſide, nor on the wrong ſide, vpon paine to be ſet vpon the pillorie in maner afore rehearſed.

Fuller.

Item that the clothier, nor other perſon, whatſoeuer he be, after the feaſt of Midſummer next comming, ſhall not put anie cloth to ſale, which when it ſhalbe full wet, ſhall ſhrinke more than one yard in all the length, and one quarter of a yard in the bredth, for the more part thereof. And clothes called narow or ſtraits after the rate, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie cloth otherwiſe put to ſale thrée ſhillings foure penſe. And beſide that to reduct of his price for the ſame, to be rebated to the buier thereof as much after the rate as the ſame cloth ſo otherwiſe put to ſale, being full wet, ſhall ſhrinke more than a yard of that it was in length, at the time of the ſame ſale, and as it being wet ſhall want of the bredth of one yard, and thrée quarters of a yard.

Prouided alwaie, that if ſuch buier of clothes, for proofe, cauſe ſuch clothes to be full wet, he maie draw & ſtraine them for euening of them onlie, ſo that it exceed not one yard in length more than it ſhall be when it ſhall be full wet. Item that no maner perſon, what degree or condition ſoeuer he be of, worke or put vpon anie woollen clothes anie flocks or other deceiueable thing vpon paine to forfeit for euerie cloth, ſo wrought deceiuablie with flocks or other deceiueable thing, xl.s. and beſide that to be ſet vpon the pillorie, in maner and forme afore reherſed. Item that no maner perſon or perſons, denizen nor alien, ſhall not draw nor ſtraine, nor do to be drawne nor ſtrained within this realme, nor anie of the parties beyond the ſea, anie woollen clothes, of the making and draping within this realme, in length nor in bredth, more nor in other maner than is aforeſaid, nor after the ſaid feaſt of Midſummer, ſend or conueie, nor cauſe to be ſent or conueied into anie of the parties of beyond the ſea, there to put to ſale anie woollen clothes of the making or draping of this realme, drawne & ſtrained in length or bredth, more than is afore rehearſed, after the rate of xxiiij. yards for a brode cloth, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie cloth, ſo more drawne & ſtrained in length and bredth than is aforeſaid, xx. li. Item that no maner perſon, denizen nor other, buie or ſell anie woollen cloths by other meaſure more or leſſe, than after the true content therof to be moten & meaſured by the yard, adding to euerie yard one inch of the rule of the true meaſuring for the content of the ſame clothes, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie cloth to the contrarie meaſured, 5 li. Item that euerie clothier & other perſon, which ſhall put or deliuer to anie perſon anie wooll to breake, kembe, card, or ſpin, or yarne to weauers to web, or the web to the fullers to full, walke, and thicke, ſhall without deceit or male engin, ſatiſfie, content and paie to the ſame breaker, kember, carder, ſpinner, weauer and fuller for the ſame their labor and workmanſhip readie monie of the kings coine, without to deliuer for paiment of ſuch labour or workemanſhip, or anie part thereof in wares or vittels, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie default in that he or they ſhall deliuer for ſuch paiment for ſuch labour and workemanſhip anie wares or vittell ten ſhillings. Item that the aluager or ſealer after the ſaid feaſt of Midſummer next comming, reaſonablie required, ſhall put to euerie woollen cloth, made & draped within the circuit or precinct of his office to be ſold, the kings ſeales of lead, and not put to anie ſuch clothes anie ſeales of wax in anie wiſe, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie cloth ſealed otherwiſe than with lead, iij.s.iiij.d. The one moitie of all the ſaid forfeitures, conteined in all the ſaid ordinances, made for making and draping of woollen clothes, and for the meaſuring thereof, to be to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and to euerie perſon, which will and ſhall ſue by writ, bill, or other action in that behalfe againſt anie perſon doing to the contrarie of the ſame ordinances, the other moitie. And that the defendant in anie plea vpon anie ſuch action, be not admitted to wage his law, nor anie protection nor eſſoine for anie ſuch defendants be allowed in the ſame. The ſaid acts and ordinances to indure to the next parlement. And be it furthermore ordeind and enacted by the aduiſe & authoritie aforeſaid, that the king our ſoueraigne lord, or any other perſons take not anie aduantage or profit of anie penalties or forfeitures by an act made in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the xxiiij. daie of Ianuarie, in the firſt yeare of the reigne of Richard the third, late in deed and not in right king of England, concerning the making & draping of woollen clothes giuen, limited, or aſſigned for anie cloth made or hereafter to be made, but onelie according to the ſaid ordinances and ſtatutes now made in this preſent parlement, anie act, ſtatute, ordinance, or prouiſion to the contrarie heretofore made notwithſtanding.

Deuonſh.

Prouided alwaie, that this act extend not to woollen clothes, called kendals, nor clothes called carpenell whites, commonlie made for lining for hoſen. And prouided alſo that this act extend not to woollen clothes called toſtocks, made in the countie of Deuonſhire, for medling flocks with their wooll, ſo they make the ſame clothes onelie of wooll growing in the countie of Deuonſhire, and of none other wooll, ſo that they draw nor ſtraine the ſame clothes more, nor in other manner than is aforeſaid.

Cornwall

Prouided alſo that this act or anie penaltie or article therein conteined, extend not, ne in anie wiſe be hurtfull or preiudiciall to anie clothmakers, for making of anie cloth within the countie of Cornewall, but that all clothmakers within the ſame countie, maie make cloth, and vſe cloth making as they before the making of this act haue vſed and accuſtomed: this act or anie thing therein conteined notwithſtanding. Prouided alſo that this act extend not or be preiudiciall of or to the maker, merchant or buier of anie woollen clothes, called baſtards, made with cremill liſts.

An act concerning woollen clothes to be full wrought, barbed, rowen, and ſhorne, ere they be caried out of this realme.

Chap.7.

WHere at the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the ix. daie of Nouember, the third yeare of the reigne of our late ſoueraigne lord K. Henrie the ſeuenth (whoſe ſoule God pardon) it was ſhewed by ſhermen, fullers, & other artificers, that ſhould liue & obteine their needie ſuſtentation by meane of draperie made & draped within this realme, as well throughout the ſame realme as within the citie of London, that wheras in a ſtatute made the vij. yere of the reigne of king Edward the iiij. amongſt other it was conteined, that no perſon (denizen nor ſtranger) ſhould carie, or do to be caried to anie parties beyond the ſea, anie woollen yarne nor cloth vnfulled, but the woollen yarne to be made in this realme, ſhould be wouen in the ſame, & alſo all cloth, within the ſame made ſhould be fulled and fullie wrought within the ſame, before that anie of the ſame ſhould be had or caried out of this realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of the verie value of ſuch yarne not wouen, & cloth not fulled, had or caried out of this realme. The one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to be leuied to the vſe of the king, and the other halfe to him or them that ſhould eſpie or make proofe of anie ſuch yarne not wouen, or cloth not fulled, carried to anie place beyond the ſea. And foraſmuch as in the ſaid ſtatute of king Edward there is none expreſſe mention made that the ſaid clothes ſhould be rowed & ſhorne before that they be caried and conueied out of this relme, wherby the ſaid poore commons of the crafts aforeſaid might be ſet in labor and occupation, therfore the ſaid cloths then were and yet bin in great number & plentie caried and conueied out of this realme vnrowed and vnſhorne, into the parties of beyond the ſea, as well by denizens as by ſtrangers, wherby outlandiſh nations with the ſame draperie bin ſet to labor and occupation, to their great inriching, and the poore commons of the crafts aforeſaid, through all this realme, which of naturall reaſon as the kings true léege men ſhould haue & obteine their néedie ſuſtentation and liuing by meanes of the ſame draperie, for lacke of ſuch occupation, dailie fall in great number into idleneſſe & pouertie, to their vttermoſt deſtruction if it ſhould then anie longer continue, wherevpon our ſaid ſouereigne lord king Henrie the 7, by the aduiſe of his lords ſpirituall & temporall, & at the praiers of the commons in his ſaid parlement aſſembled, & by authoritie of the ſame ordeined, eſtabliſhed & enacted, that no ſtranger nor denizen ſhould carrie or make to be carried out of this realme anie woollen cloths, but that they before be barbed, rowed & ſhorne within the ſame realme for the reléeſe and ſetting a worke of the ſaid poore commons of the crafts aforeſaid, vpon paine of the forfeiture limited in the ſaid ſtatute of king Edward, made vpon cloth caried out of this relme not fulled, to be diuided in maner & forme as in the ſame ſtatute is conteined. So that cloth called veſſes, raies, ſailing cloths, & all other cloths commonlie ſold at 40 s. or vnder, be not compriſed in the ſaid act made the ſaid third yéere of the reigne of our ſaid late ſouereigne lord king Henrie the 7, as by the ſame act more plainlie appéereth. And for lacke of due execution of the ſaid acts, litle effect or profit hath followed or growen to the ſame poore craftſmen, being naturall ſubiects, which for lacke of worke and occupation dailie fall in idleneſſe & pouertie. Be it therfore ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid acts & ordinances maie ſtand and continue in their full ſtrength and vertue, and that they from henſeforth bin dulie put in execution, according to the tenor, purport and effect of the ſame & of either of them. And that euerie perſon that will ſue for the ſame forfeitures be admitted to his action of debt by bill or information in anie of the kings courts of record, where the ſame maie be determined after yͤ courſe of the common law, and that the defendant in ſuch behalfe in no wiſe be admitted to wage his law, nor that anie protection or eſſoine be in the ſame allowable. Neuertheleſſe, for that the draping and making of ſuch cloths called veſſes, raies, ſailing cloths & other cloths, which time of making of the eſtatute of king Henrie the 7, were commonlie ſold at 40 s. or vnder, the maker therof and clothier of times paſſed, and now is and héereafter is like to be at greater charge about the draping & making of the ſame, and alſo of all other cloths, for the wooll is of far greater priſe, and alſo the coſts and charges for the workmanſhip of ſuch cloths is far more chargeable than it was at the time of making of the ſaid eſtatute. Be it therefore prouided by the authoritie aforeſaid, that clothes called veſſes, raies, ſailing clothes, and other clothes now commonlie ſold at foure marks or vnder, be not compriſed in this or anie of the ſaid acts, but maie be carried and conueied out of this realme into the parties of beyond the ſea, not barbed, rowed nor ſhorne, this or anie the ſaid acts notwithſtanding.

An act repealing the act made at Yorke for ſelling of vittels by head officers.

Chap.9.

WHere in the parlement of king Edward, ſonne of king Edward, holden at Yorke in the twelfe yéere of his reigne, amongſt other things it was accorded and enacted, that no miniſter in citie or borough, which by reaſon of his office ought to kéepe aſſiſes of wines and vittels as long as he ſhould be attendant to that office, ſhould merchant wines or vittels in groſſe, or at retaile, vpon certeine paine limited and expreſſed in the ſaid ſtatute, as in the ſame more plainlie doth appéere. Sithens the making of which ſtatute and ordinance, manie and the moſt part of all the cities, boroughs and townes corporat within this realme of England, be fallen in ruine and decaie, and not inhabited with merchants and men of ſuch ſubſtance as they were at the time of the making of the foreſaid ſtatute and ordinance, for at this daie the dwellers & inhabitants of the ſame cities and boroughs be moſt commonlie bakers, brewers, vintners, fiſhmongers, and other vittellers, and few or none other perſons of ſubſtance be within manie of the ſaid cities, boroughs and townes corporat, other than the foreſaid vittellers at this daie able and ſufficient to beare office within the ſame, and ſo content, anſwer and paie vnto the kings grace his fée farme wherewith they be charged. In conſideration whereof, and for the eaſe, comfort, and reléefe of the foreſaid poore cities, boroughs and townes corporat, and of the inhabitants of the ſame: be it ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, by the aduiſe of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that whenſoeuer and as often as anie vitteller is choſen to beare anie office within anie citie, borough or towne corporat, which for the time that he ſhall ſtand and be in ſuch office, ſhould haue the aſſiſing and correction for ſelling of vittels, that then two diſcreet and honeſt perſons of the ſame citie, borough or towne corporat, not being vittellers, ne anie of them being a vitteller, ſhall be choſen by the commonaltie of the ſame citie, borough or towne corporat, in like forme as the ſaid officer ſhall be choſen, which two perſons, with the ſaid officer, ſhall be ſworne truelie to ſeize and ſet the priſes and aſſiſes of vittell there, for the time that anie ſuch vitteller ſhall abide in his ſaid office. And that then it ſhall be lawfull to all and euerie of the ſaid officers, after the ſame vittels be ſet and ſeized by the ſame officer, and the ſaid two perſons or one of the ſame two perſons, the other being abſent, to merchant and ſell wines, and all other vittell in groſſe and at retaile, during the time that he ſhall be in anie ſuch office, without anie thing therefore to forfeit. The ſaid ſtatute, act and ordinance, or anie other act or acts, ordinance or ſtatute to the contrarie made in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

London Yorke Couentrie

Prouided alwaie that this act or anie thing therein conteined, extend not to diſcharge anie miniſter of the cities of London, Yorke and Couentrie, nor none of them, for anie wine or vittell to be ſold by anie retaile within anie of the ſaid cities of London, Yorke, and Couentrie.

An act againſt mummers.

Chap.9.

FOraſmuch as latelie within this realme diuers perſons haue diſguiſed and appareled them, and couered their faces with viſors or other things, in ſuch maner, that they ſhould not be knowen, and diuers of them in a companie togither, naming themſelues mummers, haue commen to the dwelling place of diuers men of honor and other ſubſtantiall perſons, and ſo departed vnknowen, wherevpon murthers, felonie, rape and other great hurts and inconueniences haue afore time growen, and heereafter be like to come by the colour thereof, if the ſaid diſorder ſhould continue not reformed. Wherefore be it ordeined and enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and by the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon heereafter diſguiſe or apparell them with viſors, or otherwiſe vpon their faces, and ſo diſguiſed or apparelled as mummers or perſons vnknowen, by reaſon of their apparell, aſſociat or accompanie them togither or apart, and attempt to enter, or enter into the houſe of anie perſon or perſons, or aſſault or affraies make vpon anie perſon in the kings high waie, or anie other place, in forme aforeſaid diſguiſed, that then the ſaid mummers or diſguiſed perſons, and euerie of them, ſhall be areſted by anie of the kings leege people, as ſuſpects or vagabonds, and be committed to the kings gaole, there to be impriſoned by the ſpace of three moneths without baile or mainpriſe, and then to make fine to the king by the diſcretion of the iuſtices by whome they ſhall be deliuered out of priſon. And alſo it is ordeined and enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that if anie perſon or perſons ſell or keepe anie viſors or viſor in his houſe, or in anie other place within this realme, after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, and after this act proclaimed, that the ſaid perſon (that keepeth the ſaid viſor or viſors) ſhall forfeit to the king our ſouereigne lord for euerie viſor twentie ſhillings, and further ſhall ſuffer impriſonment and make fine after the diſcretion of the iuſtices, afore whome he is therefore conuicted by examination, or by inquiſition after the courſe of the common law. And that the iuſtices of the peace in their ſeſſions, and iuſtices of the gaole deliuerie, and all other the kings iuſtices, haue authoritie to inquire, heare, and determine all the premiſſes, as well by examination as by inquiſition, after the courſe of the common law, and this act to indure to the next parlement.

Chap.10.

IN their moſt humble wiſe ſhewen vnto your highneſſe, and to your moſt honorable counſell, your poore ſubiects and dailie orators the wardens and fellowſhip of the craft of curriers within your citie of London, that where at diuers parlements holden as well in the ſecond yeere of one of your noble progenitors king Henrie the firſt, as in the firſt and nineteenth yeeres of the reigne of your moſt noble father of famous memorie king Henrie the ſeuenth, diuers ordinances and eſtatutes were made, enacted and eſtabliſhed, that no tanner ſhould vſe or occupie the crafts of a cordwainer or currier, neither no cordwainer ſhould vſe or occupie the crafts of a tanner or currier, neither no currier ſhould vſe or occupie the crafts of a tanner or cordwainer, and that anie perſon occupieng anie of theſe three occupations, while and as long as he occupieth one of them, not to occupie anie of the other two, vpon diuers paines conteined in the ſaid eſtatutes. And where as all maner of ſtrangers aliens borne out of this your realme of England, Ireland, Wales, Calis, or the marches of the ſame, occupieng the craft or myſterie of cordwainer, dwelling as well within the citie of London, the franchiſe of ſaint Katherines, ſaint Martins, and alſo in the ſuburbs of the ſame citie, as in the towne of Weſtminſter, the borough of Southwarke, & other places within & about the ſaid citie, vſe dailie to buie leather, as in innes, corners, & other ſecret places, and not in the open market, where the aſſaie & ſeale for ſuch cauſes is kept, that no deceitfull ware, vnſufficientlie wrought or tanned, ſhould be vttered to your léege people, but to be forfeited, which leather ſo deceitfullie and inſufficientlie tanned, and by the ſaid perſons of franchiſes and ſuburbs aforeſaid ſo bought, the ſame perſons currie and dreſſe in their owne houſes, and in other places by them ſecretlie hired therefore, and for their ſingular lucre and aduantage ſell and vtter the ſame to your léege people, to the great damage and vniuerſall hurt and deceit, as well of all your léege people, as to your ſaid orators, and hitherto vnpuniſhed, foraſmuch as none act ne ordinance extendeth vpon anie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo franchiſed. In tender conſideration whereof, it maie pleaſe your ſaid highneſſe by the aſſent and conſent of your ſaid lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons at this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, to eſtabliſh and enact, that no ſtranger alien, not borne within your ſaid relme of England, Ireland, Wales, Calis, or the marches of the ſame, dwelling within ſuch franchiſes places, or within the ſuburbs, or about other places of the ſaid citie, buie or cauſe to be bought to his or their vſe, anie ſuch leather or wares in anie ſecret places, but onelie in the open market where it maie be ſéene, aſſaied, ſealed and abled good and ſufficientlie tanned and curried, vnder the paine of forfeiture for euerie hide ſo bought, ſix ſhillings eight penſe, the one halfe thereof to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to the taker, finder, or ſhewer of the ſame. And alſo that from thenſeforth the wardens of the ſaid fellowſhip of curriers (for the time being) and their ſucceſſors or their ſufficient deputie or deputies, dulie and ſubſtantiallie aſſigned, maie haue ſearch as well within the fellowſhips of tanners, as the fellowſhips of ſtrangers aliens occupieng the ſaid craft of cordwainers, and alſo in their owne proper craft of curriers dwelling within the ſaid franchiſes, ſuburbs, and other places as is aboueſaid, for all maner ſuch leather inſufficientlie tanned, ſealed and curried, as often as they ſhall thinke conuenient. And the ſame leather ſo found inſufficient, to be forfeited, and the owner thereof to be committed to ward, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe by the ſpace of fiue daies, and to paie for a fine for euerie time ſo offending twentie ſhillings, the one halfe of the ſaid monie (ſo forfeited) to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe of the ſaid monie to the partie that will ſue therefore. And if anie perſon or perſons franchiſed or vnfranchiſed, of what degrée ſo euer he be, interrupt, let, or diſturbe the ſaid wardens of curriers, or their ſucceſſors, deputie, or deputies, to make due ſearch in maner and forme aboueſaid, that then the ſaid interrupters and letters thereof to be brought to gaole or priſon, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe by the ſpace of ten daies, and to paie for a fine fortie ſhillings, the one halfe thereof to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to the ſaid fellowſhip of curriers, and chamber of the ſaid citie, to the vſe of the commonaltie of the ſame citie. And the lords of all the franchiſes aforeſaid, and their ſucceſſors, euerie of them to haue to their owne vſe all ſuch leather ſo forfeited within his owne franchiſe, as often as anie ſuch forfeiture ſhall be found by the ſaid wardens, or their ſufficient deputie or deputies, in maner and forme aboue rehearſed. And the ſute for the recouerie of the premiſſes, and euerie part thereof, to be by action of debt. And that the defendant in anie wiſe ſhall not wage his law, nor be by protection or eſſoine, nor the partie to be barred by the kings pardon, nor be delaied by anie plée to the diſablement of his perſon.

An act concerning the approbation of phyſitions and ſurgions.

Chap. 6.

TO the king our ſouereigne lord, and to all the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled. Foraſmuch as the ſcience and cunning of phyſike and ſurgerie (to the perfect knowledge whereof, be requiſit both great learning and ripe experience) is dailie within this realme exerciſed by a great multitude of ignorant perſons, of whom the great part haue no maner of inſight in the ſame, nor in anie other kind of learning. Some alſo can no letters on the booke, ſo far forth, that common artificers, as ſmiths, weauers, & women boldlie and cuſtomablie take vpon them great cures and things of great difficultie, in the which they partlie vſe ſorcerie and witchcraft, partlie applie ſuch medicins vnto the diſeaſe, as be verie noious and nothing méetlie therefore, to the high diſpleaſure of God, great infamie to the facultie, and the gréeuous hurt, damage and deſtruction of manie of the kings léege people, moſt ſpeciallie of them that cannot diſcerne the vncunning from cunning. Be it therefore (to the ſuretie and comfort of all maner people) by authoritie of this preſent parlement enacted, that no perſon within the citie of London, nor within ſeuen miles of the ſame, take vpon him to exerciſe and occupie as a phyſicion or ſurgion, except he be firſt examined, approoued, and admitted by the biſhop of London, or by the deane of Paules for the time being, calling to him or them foure doctors of phyſike, and for ſurgerie other expert perſons in that facultie, and for the firſt examination ſuch as they ſhall thinke conuenient, and afterward alwaie foure of them that haue béene ſo approoued, vpon the paine of forfeiture for euerie moneth that they doo occupie as phyſicions or ſurgions, not admitted nor examined after the tenor of this act, fiue pounds, to be imploied the one halfe thereof to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king, and the other halfe thereof to anie perſon that will ſue for it by action of debt, in which no wager of law nor protection ſhall be allowed. And ouer this, that no perſon out of the ſaid citie & precinct of ſeuen miles of the ſame, except he haue béene (as is aforeſaid) approoued in the ſame, take vpon him to exerciſe and occupie as a phyſicion or ſurgion in anie dioceſſe within this realme, but if he be firſt examined and approoued by the biſhop of the ſame dioceſſe, or he being out of yͤ dioceſſe, by his vicar generall either of them calling to them ſuch expert perſons in the ſaid faculties, as their diſcretion ſhall thinke conueni-

An act concerning the reformation of impanels for the king.

Chap.12. Where as great extoꝛtions and oppꝛeſſions be and haue béene within the moꝛe partie of all the counties and ſhires within this realme of England, by the ſubtiltie and vntrue demeanoꝛ of ſhirifs and their miniſters,committed and dóne vnto manie perſons in great number of the kings ſubiects, by meane and making and returning at euerie ſeſſions holden within the ſaid counties and ſhires foꝛ the bodie of the ſhire, in taking and putting in and returning of names of ſuch perſons,as foꝛ the ſingular aduantage,benefit and gaine of the ſaid ſhirifs and their miniſters will be wilfullie foꝛſwoꝛne and periured by the ſiniſter laboꝛ of the ſaid ſhirifs and their miniſters: by reaſon whereof manie and diuers ſubſtantiall perſons (the kings true ſubiects) contrarie to góod equitie and righteouſneſſe, haue diuers times and manie,wꝛongfullie béene indicted of diuers murders,felonies and other miſbehauioꝛ, by their couin and falſhóod,to the vtter vndóing of their liues, loſſe of their góods and their lands: by reaſon whereof they and euerie of them in auoiding the vntrue trouble and vexation, which to them might come and inſue by reaſon and occaſion of the ſame falſe indictments, and alſo ſomtime by laboꝛ of the ſaid ſhirifs diuers great felonies and murders concealed, and by the ſaid perſons. Alſo by the ſaid ſhirifs and their miniſters parciallie returned not pꝛeſented, be and haue béene compelled to make fines and giue rewards to the ſaid ſhirifs and their miniſters. Wherefoꝛe be it enacted,oꝛdeined, and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoueraigne loꝛd, and by the aſſent of the loꝛds ſpirituall and tempoꝛall, and the commons of this pꝛeſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoꝛitie of the ſame, that all panels to be returned,which be not at the ſute of anie partie, that ſhall be made and put in by euerie ſhirife and their miniſters afoꝛe anie iuſtice of gaole deliuerie oꝛ iuſtice of peace, where- Iuſtices of one to be of the Quorum,in their open ſeſſions to inquire foꝛ the king,ſhall be refoꝛmed by putting tóo and taking out of the names of the perſons which ſo be impanelled by euerie ſhirife & their miniſters, by the diſcretion of the ſame iuſtices, befoꝛe whome ſuch panels ſhall be returned. And that the ſame iuſtice and iuſtices ſhall command euerie ſhirife and their miniſters in his abſence, to put other perſons in the ſame panell by their diſcretions, and that the ſame panels ſo refoꝛmed by the ſaid iuſtices,be góod and lawfull. And that if anie ſhirife oꝛ anie their miniſter,at anie time dóo not returne the ſame panels ſo refoꝛmed, that then euerie ſuch ſhirife oꝛ miniſter ſo offending,

Chap.13. Where in the 19 yéere of the reigne of our late ſoueraigne loꝛd king Henrie the ſeuenth, foꝛ vſing of long bowes and increaſe of archers, which is and hath béene a great ſuretie and defenſe of this realme, it was enacted that no perſon within this realme, of what condition oꝛ degrée he were of,except he were a loꝛd,oꝛ that he might ſpend of lands and tenements of fréehold to the yéerelie value of two hundꝛeth marks aboue the charges, oꝛ elſe had the kings ſpeciall licence vnder his placard,ſigned and ſealed with his pꝛiuie ſeale oꝛ ſignet,ſhould occupie oꝛ ſhóot in anie croſbow within this realme, but onelie foꝛ lawfull defenſe of his houſe, vpon diuers paines expꝛeſſed in the ſaid ſtatute. And ſince the ſaid ſtatute made, ſo manie men haue obteined licence to ſhóot in croſbowes by placards,made by the ſaid late king,and by the king our ſoueraigne loꝛd that now is. And manie men pꝛetending to haue lands and tenements to the yéerelie value of two hundꝛed marks,ſhóot dailie in croſbowes,ſo that ſhóoting in croſbowes is little oꝛ nothing adminiſhed ſince the ſaid ſtatute, but rather increaſed. Be it therefoꝛe oꝛdeined by authoꝛitie of this pꝛeſent parlement,that the ſaid ſtatute made the ſaid ninetéenth yéere, ſtand in Placard void his foꝛce, and be executed in euerie article thereof. And that all placards of licence foꝛ ſhóoting in croſbowes made by the ſaid late king,oꝛ by the king our ſoueraigne loꝛd, afoꝛe the firſt daie of this pꝛeſent parlement,be void. And that no perſon except he be a loꝛd, oꝛ haue lands oꝛ tenements of fréehold oꝛ other to his vſe, to the yéerelie value of thrée hundꝛeth marks ouer all charges, ſhóot in anie croſbow,otherwiſe than in the ſaid act is expꝛeſſed foꝛ defenſe of his houſe, and that the penalties in the ſaid ſtatute compꝛiſed foꝛ ſuch perſons hauing lands oꝛ tenements to the yéerelie value of two hundꝛeth marks,foꝛ ſuffering of their ſeruants to ſhóot in croſbbowes otherwiſe than to aſſaie his maiſters bowes, oꝛ to vnbend the ſame, extend to the ſaid perſons that maie expend two hundꝛeth marks,and all other penalties compꝛiſed in the ſame ſtatute.

An act concerning making of bulwarks on the ſea ſide.

The firſt chapter.

PRaien the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that for as much as the land of Britaine, and alſo the hauen of Breſt lieth ſtreight againſt the ſouth ſea coaſts of the countie of Cornwall, and that the Frenchmen (our ancient enimies) and Britains enimies, by reaſon of their fiſhing vpon the ſea coaſts, know as well euerie hauen and créeke within the ſaid countie, as euerie landing place, in as large maner as anie ſubiect of our ſouereigne lord the kings doth. And that the ſaid countie is 70 mile in length, and the ſubſtance thereof right little more than ſix mile in bredth from the ſouth ſea to the north ſea: by reaſon whereof they alſo know that great multitude of people cannot ſhortlie reſort to put them off at their landing, and that in diuers and manie of the ſaid landing places, neither pile, blockhouſe, ne bulwarke is made to gréeue or annoie them at their landing, which conſiderations vnto our ſaid enimies great audacitie, comfort and courage, giueth to arriue and land in the ſame parties, to the great annoiance of our ſaid ſouereigne lord his ſubiects there, and to the vtter vndoing of diuers and manie of them, vnleſſe a remedie be the ſooner prouided.

Maior Conſtable

Therefore be it enacted by the king our ſoureigne lord, his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the iuſtices of the peace and ſhiriffe of the ſaid countie, doo ride & view all the ſaid ſouth coaſt, from Plimmouth weſtward to the lands end. And that doone, incontinent to appoint within themſelues ſuch boroughs townes and pariſhes, as they ſhall thinke reaſonable to make bulwarks, braies, wals, ditches, and all other fortifications for the ſame cauſe, in maner, forme, and faſhion, as ſhall be thought by their diſcretion in euerie of the ſaid landing places betwéene this and the firſt daie of March next now comming. And further be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that euerie maior and conſtable of the ſaid countie by the ſaid iuſtices of peace or ſhirife appointed, doo command all the inhabitants within the precinct of their office, to be at the ſea ſide with ſuch inſtruments as they haue or can get for the making of the ſaid bulwarks and other the premiſſes in ſuch landing places, as ſhall be aſſigned by the ſaid iuſtices of the peace or ſhiriffe. And that the ſaid maior or conſtables doo commit to ward all ſuch wilfull perſons as will not obeie, come, nor ſend anie other perſon to the ſea ſide, to make the ſaid bulwarks and other the premiſſes at the daie and time by the ſaid maior or conſtables ſtables to be appointed, and there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe by the ſpace of ten daies or leſſe, at the diſcretion of the ſaid maior or conſtables. And if anie of the ſaid maiors or conſtables doo not their dutie as is aforeſaid, that then the iuſtices of the peace next adioining, doo commit to ward the ſame maior or conſtable ſo offending, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe by the ſpace of a moneth, or elſe at the diſcretion of the iuſtice of peace.

Bulwarks

And alſo be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that good and ſubſtantiall bulwarks, braies, wals, ditches, and all other fortifications in euerie landing places (in maner, forme and faſhion as is aforeſaid) as well from Plimmouth aforeſaid by the ſea coaſts eaſtward, as in all other parts within the realme of England, be made there, as the iuſtices of the peace and ſhiriffe within that ſhire, where anie ſuch landing places be, ſhall thinke needfull. And that euerie iuſtice of peace, maior and conſtable within euerie ſhire, where anie ſuch landing places be, haue like and as good authoritie by this preſent act to command the inhabitants of euerie borough, towne, and pariſh adioining to the ſea ſide or elſe where, after the diſcretions of the iuſtices of peace, to make the ſaid bulwarks and other the premiſſes, and alſo to commit to ward all ſuch wilfull perſons as will not obeie, in like maner as the iuſtices of the peace, maiors and conſtables of the ſaid countie of Cornwall maie doo by anie of the acts aforeſaid.

Dig

And ouer this be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that it be lawfull for euerie of the kings ſubiects within this realme of England, by the aduiſe and aſſignment of the ſaid iuſtices of the peace or ſhirife, to make all maner of bulwarks and other the premiſſes in euerie mans ground, of what eſtate or degree he be of, and alſo to dig and to delue as well for earth, ſtones and turfs, as to cut and to hew heath in anie mans ground for the making of anie ſuch bulwarks and other the premiſſes, as oft and as manie times as need ſhall require, and the ſaid earth, ſtones, turfs and heath to take and occupie, and carrie awaie out of the ſaid ground to anie other mans ground, for the making of anie ſuch bulwarks & other the premiſſes, in whoſe ground ſo euer the ſaid earth, ſtones, turfs and heath happen to be, without anie interruption or let of anie perſon or perſons being lord or lords of anie ſuch ground, or hauing anie other intereſt in the ſame, and without anie maner of paiment to be demanded for anie of the premiſſes, or anie maner of action by anie maner of perſon or perſons, at anie time heereafter to be attempted, or in anie wiſe mainteined againſt anie of the kings ſubiects for anie ſuch matter or cauſe, and this act to indure to the next parlement.

An act for puniſhment of murder.

Chap. 2.

WHereas robberies, murders and felonies dailie increaſe more and more, and bin committed and doone in more heinous open and deteſtable wiſe than hath beene oft ſeene in times paſt, and the perſons ſo offending little regard the puniſhment thereof, by the courſe of the common law, ne by reaſon of anie ſtatute heeretofore made, but beare them bold of their clergie, and imagining and pleading of fained and vntrue forren plees, triable in forren counties, to the intent to be remooued from place to place, by colourable and vntrue ſuggeſtions, and for to be vntrulie acquit by fauour, might, and corruption, ſo that they liue in maner without feare or dread. For reformation whereof, & for the common wealth of this relme, and to put the ſaid murderers, felons, and offendors in more feare and dread ſo to offend: be it ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all perſon or perſons heereafter committing murder or felonie in anie church, chapell, or halowed place, or of and vpon malice prepenſed, rob or murder anie perſon or perſons in the kings high waie, or elſe rob or murder anie perſon in his houſe, the owner or dweller of the houſe, his wife, child or ſeruant then being therein, & put in feare or dread by the ſame, that ſuch perſons ſo offending, be not from henſeforth admitted to his or their clergie, ſuch as beene within holie orders onlie except. And ouer that be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that if anie murderer or felon vpon his arreignment, heereafter doo allege, that he had taken anie church or churchyard for murder, felonie, or other place priuileged for the ſame in a forren countie, and againſt his will taken out thereof, that then the kings atturnie or anie other perſon that will ſue or alleage for the king, that the ſaid murderer or felon ſo arreigned, was taken at large in the ſame ſhire where he is ſo arreigned, that then the ſame allegeance and iſſue to be tried by the inqueſt that ſhould trie the ſaid murder or felonie within the ſame ſhire, and before the ſame iuſtice where the ſaid murderer or felon is arreigned, as though the ſaid forren plee had not bin pleaded by the ſaid felon. And if it be founden by the ſame inqueſt, that the ſaid murderer or felon was taken within the ſame ſhire (as is aforeſaid) that then he to haue none aduantage or benefit of the matter alleged by him for taking out of the church or churchyard or other place priuileged in anie ſuch forren ſhire, and this act to indure to the next parlement.

An act concerning iuries in London.

Chap. 3.

WHere at a parlement holden at Weſtminſter the 11 yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the 7. for the good due adminiſtration and expedition of iuſtice, it was ordeined & among other things enacted, that euerie perſon heereafter to be impanelled or ſummoned to appeere in anie iurie or inqueſt in anie court within the citie of London, before anie iudges of the ſame citie, making default at the firſt ſummons, ſhould looſe and forfeit twelue penſe, and at the ſecond default two ſhillings, and ſo at euerie ſuch default after that, the iſſues and penalties to be doubled. And alſo ſuch iſſues loſt in the maiors court, ſhould be forfeited, leuied, and perceiued to the vſe and behoofe of the maior and the commonaltie of the ſaid citie. And that all ſuch iſſues loſt in the ſhirifs court or courts, ſhould be forfeited, leuied, and perceiued to the vſe of the ſhirifs of the ſame citie for the time being, toward their fée farme, as by the ſame act more plainlie doth appéere: in the which act is not expreſſed, how or by what means the foreſaid iſſues, ſo loſt and forfeited, for non appéerance of the perſons ſo impanelled & ſummoned, ſhould be leuied. The lacke therof is the cauſe that ſuch perſons as haue béene impanelled and ſummoned, as well for the king as betwéene partie and partie (being ſubſtantiall & indifferent) haue made manie times default, and would not appéere. And ſo it remaineth in like miſchéefe as it was before the making of the foreſaid act, to the great let of iuſtice, and the delaie as well in the kings cauſes, as in other cauſes betwéene parties. Wherefore for the good execution of the ſaid ſtatute and perfect remedie in this behalfe to be had, be it eſtabliſhed, ordeined and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by the authoritie of the ſame, that for all ſuch iſſues (in forme aforeſaid) héereafter to be loſt or forfeited in the maiors court, it ſhall be lawfull to the ſaid maior and to his ſucceſſors, to diſtreine, and the ſame diſtreſſe to reteine till he or they be ſatiſfied of the ſaid iſſues. And in like maner that it ſhall be lawfull to the foreſaid ſhirifs and their ſucceſſors, to diſtreine for ſuch iſſues loſt in their court or courts and the ſaid diſtreſſe to reteine till they be ſatiſfied of the ſaid iſſues. Item, foraſmuch as after iſſues ioined in actions and ſutes commenſed, taken or depending in the kings courts before himſelfe in his bench, and before his iuſtice of the common bench. And alſo in his excheker at the kings ſute, or at the ſute of the parties triable in the ſaid citie of London, as well the king as the parties haue ſuffered great delaie manie times for default of apparance of the iurors impanelled to trie the ſaid iſſues, and manie times for lacke of iurors not hauing lands and tenements of the yéerlie value of fortie ſhillings.

And ouer that be it ordeined by the ſaid authoritie, that the ſhirifs of the ſaid citie (for the time being) ſhall returne vpon the firſt diſtreſſe in euerie ſuch action or ſute vpon euerie of the iuries impanelled to trie the iſſues thereof, 20 d. And vpon the ſecond diſtreſſe vpon euerie of the ſame iurors 40 d. An act of proclamations to be made before exigents be awarded in forren counties.

Chap. 4.

The king our ſoueraigne lord calling to his moſt gratious remembrance how that before this time diuers of his ſubiects of this his relme of England, haue béene gréeuouſlie vexed and troubled by reaſon of outlawries had againſt them in forren counties & ſundrie actions perſonals, at the ſute of diuerſe malicious perſons which of cruell mind attempted ſuch actions perſonals, more for malice than for anie iuſt cauſe of action that they had againſt the parties defendants named in the ſame. And of the which outlawries ſo had in forren counties, the partie defendant named in ſuch forren actions, had neuer knowledge ne monition to ſuch time as the outlawrie were againſt them had and certified, and ſome of them neuer came within the countie where ſuch actions were againſt them ſued, ne neuer were dwelling ne conuerſant within the ſaid countie. Neuertheleſſe, the parties (ſo outlawed in forren counties) haue loſt their goods and ſubſtance to their vtter vndooing. Wherefore in auoiding of ſuch malicious and forren ſutes héereafter to be ſued, the king our ſoueraigne lord intending the reſtfulneſſe of his ſaid ſubiects, and that indifferent iuſtice ſhould be adminiſtred to euerie perſon, as well to the poore as to the rich, and that euerie perſon ſhould haue lawfull knowledge and monition of ſuch actions as héereafter be, to be attempted and ſued againſt him in anie of the kings courts by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that from henſeforth at the ſame daie that anie exigent is awarded or to be awarded againſt anie perſon or perſons in anie action perſonall, if it doo appéere by the vſing of the ſame action, that the partie defendant is dwelling in another countie, than in the ſame countie where the ſame action is ſued, that then the iuſtices before whome anie ſuch exigent is to be awarded, award one writ of proclamation, to be direct to the ſhiriffe of the countie where it dooth appéere by the vſing of ſuch action, that the partie defendant is dwelling, the which writ of proclamation ſhall conteine the effect of the ſame action. And that

And that euerie ſuch writ of proclamation haue the ſame daie of returne, as the writ of the exigent vpon ſuch forren actions ſo awarded ſhall haue: and that euerie ſuch writ of proclamation be deliuered of record to the ſhiriffe or his deputie of the countie, into the which anie ſuch writ of proclamation is to be awarded. And that the ſhiriffe of the ſame countie dulie execute the ſame, and thereof make due returne at the daie in the ſame writ appointed, vpon paine to forfeit ſuch amerciament, as by the iuſtices, before whom ſuch action is vſed, ſhall be ſeſſed. And that the feliſſor or exegenter, in whoſe office ſuch ſute is taken, make out the ſaid writ & writs of proclamation, as after ſhall be awarded in anie of the ſaid courts. And that the ſame feliſſor or exigenter take no more for the making of anie ſuch writ of proclamation and the entring of the ſame record, but onelie ſix penſe.

An act concerning cuſtomers and controllers for ſealing of cloth of gold and ſiluer, and all other ſilks.

Chap.6.

WHere at a parlement holden in the twelfe yéere of the reigne of king Edward the fourth, amongſt other it was ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, that the collectors of the ſubſidie, and the controllers, ſhould at all times be readie when they ſhould be required, to ſeale anie maner of cloth of gold, of ſiluer, baudkin, veluet, damaſke, ſatin, ſarſenet, tartron, chamlet, and euerie other cloth of ſilke, and euerie corſe of ſilke and gold, and euerie corſe of ſilke of the making beyond the ſea, and the ſame merchandizes ſhould ſeale at euerie time when they ſhould be required without delaie, tarieng, or anie thing for their ſealing to take by any meane, vpon the paine of forfeiture to the owner of ſuch merchandizes twentie ſhillings by euerie of the ſaid collectors and controllers at euerie time when they refuſe to ſeale any ſuch merchandizes after ſuch requeſt made, or take anie thing for ſealing of anie ſuch merchandizes, as by the ſame act amongſt other things more plainlie appeareth. Sithens the making of which act, the ſaid collectors & controllers, and their clerks, not fearing the penaltie limited in the ſame act, haue vſed and dailie vſe to take for ſealing of euerie peece of the ſame merchandizes, aboue rehearſed, two penſe, to the great hurt & damage of the merchants owners of the ſame. For the ſame merchants at manie times bring and conueie in one ſhip thrée or foure thouſand péeces of the ſame merchandizes, which amounteth to thirtie or fortie pounds after the rate of two penſe a péece. And foraſmuch as the foreſaid penaltie, expreſſed in the ſaid ſtatute, is but twentie ſhillings, therefore the ſaid collectors, controllers, nor their clerks feare not to run in ieopardie of the ſame: wherefore be it ordeined, and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that from henſeforth the collectors and controllers of the ſaid ſubſidie, nor their clerks, nor anie of them, take for the ſealing of anie peece of the ſaid merchandizes (aboue rehearſed) anie thing, vpon paine of forfeiture at euerie time twentie pounds.

Forfeit.

And alſo be it enacted by the ſame authoritie, that if and as often as the ſame collectors and controllers, or anie of them, vnreaſonablie delaie or tarrie the ſaid merchants, or anie of them, for and about the ſealing of the ſame merchandizes; that then and as often the ſame collectors and controllers, and euerie of them, ſo vnreaſonablie delaieng and tarrieng the ſame merchants, or any of them, to forfeit for the ſame fortie ſhillings. The one moitie of euerie of the ſaid penalties ſo forfeited, to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other moitie thereof to the merchant ſo greeued, that will ſue for the ſame by waie of information in the kings excheker, or by action or bill of debt, after the order of the common law, as in other actions of debt is vſed: in which action the defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, nor protection, nor eſſoine to be to him allowed in the ſame ſute, for the ſaid forfeiture.

London, Yorke.

FOraſmuch as a certeine act was made and eſtabliſhed in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the ninteenth yeere of the reigne of the late moſt famous king your father Henrie the ſeuenth (whom God pardon) concerning pewterers and braſiers, hauking and walking about the countries, and alſo concerning falſe beames, ſcales, and weights, with a prouiſion for caſting of fine mettall and of perfect goodneſſe: which act was made to indure to the next parlement, the tenor whereof heereafter inſueth. That where manie ſimple and euill diſpoſed perſons of this your realme of England (vſing the ſaid crafts) dailie go about this your realme from village, from towne, and from houſe to houſe, aſwell in woods and forreſts, as other places, to buie pewter and braſſe, and that knowing, theeues and other pickers, that ſteale as well pewter and braſſe, belonging to your highneſſe, and vnder your marke, and to the lords ſpirituall and temporall, as to your ſubiects of this your realme, bring ſuch ſtollen veſſels vnto them in ſuch hid places to ſell, and ſell it for little or nought, & about they bring it to priuie places, or into corners of cities or townes, and there ſell much part of it to ſtrangers, the which carrie it ouer the ſea by ſtealth. Alſo the ſaid perſons (ſo going about) and diuerſe other vſing the ſaid crafts, vſe to make new veſſels, and mix good mettall and bad togither, and make it nought, and ſell it for good ſtuffe, where in deed the ſtuffe and mettall therof is not worth the fourth part that it is ſold for, to the great hurt, deceipt and loſſe of your ſubiects. Alſo diuerſe perſons, vſing the ſaid crafts, haue deceiuable and vntrue beames & ſcales, that one of them will ſtand euen with twelue pound weight at the one end, againſt a quarter of a pound at the other end, to the ſingular aduantage of them ſelfe, and to the great deceit and loſſe of your ſubiects, buiers and ſellers with them. For reformation of the premiſſes it would pleaſe your highneſſe of your moſt abundant grace, with the aduiſe of your lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, to enact and eſtabliſh, that no perſon nor perſons, vſing the ſaid crafts of pewterers and braſiers, from henſeforth ſhall ſell or change anie pewter or braſſe, new or old, at anie place or places within this your realme, but onelie in open fairs or markets, or in their owne dwelling houſes, but if they be deſired by the ſaid buiers of ſuch wares, vpon paine of forfeiture to our ſouereigne lord the king for euerie ſuch default ten pounds. Alſo by the ſame authoritie it maie be enacted and eſtabliſhed, that no perſon nor perſons, of what condition or degree ſoeuer he or they be, from henſeforth within the citie of London and Yorke, or without, either caſt or worke anie pewter veſſels or braſſe at anie place or places within this your realme, but that it be as good fine mettall, as is the pewter and braſſe caſt and wrought after the perfect goodneſſe of the ſame, within the citie of London, & by the ſtatutes of the ſame ought to be, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch pewter & braſſe, ſo caſt and wrought of worſſe pewter or braſſe than ought to be wrought in the ſame cities: the one halfe of euerie ſuch forfeiture to be to the vſe of your highneſſe, and the other halfe to the vſe of the finders thereof.

Hollow wares.

Marks.

Forfeit.

Prouided alwaies, that this forfeiture in no wiſe ſtretch ne extend to braſſe or pewter, being in the poſſeſſion of anie perſon, other than the workers of the ſame, or ſuch as haue the ſame to ſell, and being of the crafts or myſterie. Alſo that it maie by the ſame authoritie be enacted and eſtabliſhed, that no maner of perſon or perſons, of what degree or condition ſoeuer he or they be, from henſeforth make no hollow wares of pewter, that is to ſaie, ſalts and pots, that is made of pewter called laie mettall, but that it maie be after the aſſiſe of pewter laie mettall wrought within the citie of London. And that the makers of ſuch wares ſhall marke the ſame with ſeuerall marks of their owne, to the intent that the makers of ſuch wares ſhall auow the ſame wares by them (as is aboueſaid) to be wrought. And that all and euerie ſuch wares not ſufficientlie made and wrought, and not marked in forme aboueſaid, founden in the poſſeſſion of the ſame maker or ſeller to be forfeited: and if the ſame ware be ſold, the ſaid maker to forfeit the value of the ſame ſo vnlawfullie wrought and ſold, the one halfe of the ſaid wares, or the value thereof, to be to the vſe of your highneſſe, and the other halfe to be to the vſe of the finder or ſearchers of the ſame. Alſo that it maie by the ſaid authoritie be enacted and eſtabliſhed, that if anie perſon or perſons heereafter, vſing buieng and ſelling of pewter or braſſe, that heereafter occupie anie deceiuable or falſe beames or weights of the ſaid wares, that euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, vſing or occupieng ſuch deceiuable and vntrue beames or weights, to forfeit twentie ſhillings, the one halfe to the king, and the other halfe to the partie that therefore ſhall ſue by action of debt: and that in the ſaid action no protection nor eſſoine ſhall be allowed. And alſo the ſaid partie ſo offending, ſhall forfeit his beame to him that ſhall ſeize it: and if the ſaid offendor or offendors be not ſufficient to paie the ſaid ſum or ſums by them ſo forfeieed, that then it ſhall be lawfull to the maiors, bailifs, or other head officers of ſuch place or places, where anie ſuch offendors ſhall be found to put them in the ſtocks, and them ſo to keepe till the next market daie next adioining, and in the market place to put them in the pillorie all the market time. And furthermore that it be lawfull by the ſaid authoritie, that the maſter and wardens of the ſaid craft of pewterers within euerie citie and borough of this realme, where ſuch wardens are, and where no ſuch wardens are, the head officers or gouernors of the ſame citie or borough, to appoint certeine perſons moſt expert in knowledge of the ſame, to make ſearch within the ſaid cities or boroughs where they dwell. And ouer this the iuſtices of peace within euerie ſhire at the generall ſeſſions holden at Michaelmas, ſhall aſſigne and appoint two certeine perſons, hauing experience therein, to make ſearch in the premiſſes, in euerie part of that ſhire, aſwell within the franchiſes as without, ſauing in cities or boroughs, where ſearchers be appointed by the heads or gouernors of the ſame. And that all ſuch vnlawfull pewter or braſſe, as the ſaid ſearchers ſhall find, the one halfe to the vſe of your grace, and the other halfe to the ſaid ſearchers. And that in the default of the ſaid maiſters and wardens of the ſaid occupations, not ſearching in forme as is aforeſaid, and whereby that anie ſuch vnlawfull mettals is caſt or made, or vnlawfull weights vſed: that then it ſhall be lawfull to anie perſon or perſons, hauing ſufficient cunning and knowledge in the ſaid occupations, by ouerſight of the maior, bailifs, or head officers of the ſaid cities, boroughs, and townes, to ſearch all the ſaid places, and to put the ſaid authoritie and act in execution in forme aforeſaid. Pleaſeth it therefore your grace and wiſdoms, in ſo much as the ſaid act is thought good and profitable, that it be ordeined, enacted and eſtabliſhed, by the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid act maie indure for euer. And ouer that be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that if anie vntrue or deceiuable mettall or workemanſhip of tin or pewter, be founden either in platters, chargers, diſhes, ſaucers, potengers, trenchers, baſons, flagons, bottles, pots, ſaltſels, goblets, ſpoones, cruets or candleſticks, or anie other ſuch wares of tin or pewter, whereſoeuer it be caſt, made, or wrought within this realme or without, and brought to be ſold within the ſame realme: that then it ſhall be lawfull to the maior of the citie of London, and the maiſter and wardens of the craft of pewterers of the ſaid citie for the time being, and their deputies, to haue ſearch of the ſame within the citie of London, and the ſuburbs of the ſame. And that in all other cities, boroughs, and townes, where anie wardens be or ſhall be, the maiors, bailifs, or head officers, and wardens to haue like authoritie. And where no wardens be, then the head officers or gouernors of the ſame cities, boroughs, and townes to appoint certeine perſons moſt expert and cunning in knowledge of the ſame, to make ſearch within the ſaid cities, boroughs and townes where they dwell. And if anie ſuch new wares wrought of tin and pewter, as is aforeſaid, be found defectiue, and being in the poſſeſſion of the ſeller, that then the ſame perſon or perſons that putteth anie ſuch new wares of pewter to ſale, ſhall forfeit the ſame wares, the one halfe to the vſe of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other halfe to the ſearchers or finders of the ſame.

Prouided alwaies, that this act concerning the forfeiture be not preiudiciall nor hurtfull to anie perſon or perſons, hauing grant of our ſoueraigne lord the king, or of anie of his noble progenitors by his letters patents of ſuch forfeiture, but that they and euerie of them ſhall and maie inioy the ſame according to their former grants and liberties.

An act concerning Richard Strode.

Chap.8.

Lamentablie complaineth and ſheweth vnto your moſt diſcreet wiſdoms in this preſent parlement aſſembled, Richard Strode gentleman of the countie of Deuonſhire, one of the burgeſſes of this honorable houſe, for the burgh of Plimton in the countie aforeſaid, that where the ſaid Richard condeſcended and greed with other of this houſe, to put forth certeine bils in this preſent parlement againſt certeine perſons, named tinners in the countie aforeſaid, for the reformation of the periſhing, hurting, and deſtroieng of diuers ports, hauens, and creeks, and other bils for the commonweale of the ſaid countie, the which heere in this high court of parlement ſhould and ought to be communed and treated of.

And for becauſe the ſaid Richard is a tinner, for the cauſes and matters afore rehearſed, one Iohn Furſe tinner, vnder ſteward of the ſteimerie in the ſaid countie, in and at foure courts of the ſaid ſteimerie at diuerſe places and times before him ſeuerallie holden in the ſaid countie, he and other haue condemned the ſaid Richard in the ſum of one hundred and threeſcore pounds: that is to wit, at euerie court daie fortie pounds, and that by the procurement of the ſaid Iohn Furſe, at the ſaid foure ſeuerall courts and lawdaies, in the ſaid ſteimerie by him holden, in this maner publiſhed & ſaid, that the ſame Richard at the laſt parlement holden at Weſtminſter, would haue auoided and vtterlie deſtroied all liberties, priuileges, and franchiſes concerning the ſteimerie: by reaſon whereof the ſaid Richard, vpon foure bils had and made thereof by the ſaid Iohn Furſe and other, cauſed that the ſaid Richard was preſented and founden guiltie of the premiſſes in euerie of the ſaid courts in fortie pounds to be loſt and forfeit by him, by reaſon of an act and ordinance by tinners made and had at a place in the ſaid countie called Crokerentor: the tenor of the which act appeereth in a ſcedule to this bill annexed: to the which the ſaid Richard was neuer warned nor called to make anſwer to the premiſſes, contrarie to all lawes, right, reaſon, and good conſcience. And for the execution of the ſame, one Iohn Agwilliam vpon a ſurmiſe by him made to the kings highneſſe to the ſaid condemnation to be to his grace forfeit, thereof atteined a bill aſſigned of twentie pounds parcell of the ſaid hundred and threeſcore pounds, to be to him granted by the ſaid kings highneſſe: wherevpon the ſaid Iohn Agwilliam and other cauſed the ſaid Richard to be taken and impriſoned in a dungeon and a deepe pit vnder the ground in the caſtle of Lidford in the ſaid countie, and there and elſwhere remained by the ſpace of three weeks and more, vnto ſuch time he was deliuered by a writ of priuilege out of the kings excheker at Weſtminſter, for that he was one of the collectors in the ſaid countie for the firſt of the two quindeims granted at and in this preſent parlement: the which priſon is one of the moſt annoious, contagious, and deteſtable places within this realme; ſo that by reaſon of the ſame impriſonment he was put in great perill and ieoperdie of his life, and the ſaid Richard ſo being in priſon, and the ſaid Iohn Agwilliam ſeeing the ſame cruell impriſonment of the ſaid Richard, intreated and inſtantlie deſired one Philip Furſe (then being keeper of the ſaid priſon) ſtreictlie to keepe the ſaid Richard in priſon, and to put irons vpon him to his more greater paine and ieoperdie, and to giue him but bread and water onelie, to the intent to cauſe the ſaid Richard to be faine to content and paie him the ſaid twentie pounds. And for the ſame promiſed the ſaid keeper foure marks of monie: for the which foure marks the ſaid Richard for to be eaſed of his irons and painefull impriſonment aforeſaid (for ſauegard of his life) promiſed & granted to pay the ſaid keeper foure marks: whereof he paid the ſaid keeper in hand thirteene ſhillings foure penſe. And ouer that the ſaid Richard for to be eaſed of his ſaid painefull impriſonment, was alſo of neceſſitie driuen to be bounden to Thomas Denis, deputie vnto ſir Henrie Marnie knight, warden of the ſaid ſteimerie, in an obligation of the ſum of one hundred pounds. Vpon condition whereof partie is as heereafter followeth: that is to ſaie, that if the aboue bounden Richard Strode, defend and ſaue harmeleſſe the ſaid Thomas Denis, and to vſe himſelfe as true priſoner during the time it ſhall pleaſe the king to haue him priſoner in the caſtle of Lidford, and alſo to doo nothing, whereby he ſhall in the law be deemed out of priſon, and other articles compriſed in the ſaid condition, the which the ſaid Richard perfectlie remembreth not: wherefore the premiſſes by your great wiſdoms tenderlie conſidered, the ſaid Richard humblie praieth, that it maie be ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, by the king our ſouereigne lord, and by the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid condemnation and condemnations of the ſaid hundred and threeſcore pounds, and euerie parcell thereof, and iudgements and executions had or to be had for the premiſſes, or anie of them, to be vtterlie void againſt the ſaid Richard and of none effect.

Fines for parlement matters void.

And ouer that be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that all ſutes, accuſements, condemnations, executions, fines, amerciaments, puniſhments, corrections, grants, charges, and impoſitions, put or had, or heereafter to be put or had vnto or vpon the ſaid Richard, and to euerie other of the perſon or perſons afore ſpecified, that now be of this preſent parlement, or that of anie parlement heereafter ſhall be, for anie bill, ſpeaking, reaſoning, or declaring of anie matter or matters, concerning the parlement to be communed and treated of, be vtterlie void and of none effect.

And ouer that be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that if the ſaid Richard Strode, or anie of all the ſaid other perſon or perſons, heereafter be vexed, troubled, or otherwiſe charged for anie cauſes, as is aforeſaid, that then he or they and euerie of them ſo vexed or troubled, of and for the ſame, to haue action vpon the caſe againſt euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, ſo vexing or troubling anie contrarie to this ordinance and prouiſion, in the which action the partie greeued ſhall recouer treble damages and coſts. And that no protection, eſſoine, nor wager of law in the ſaid action in anie wiſe be admitted nor receiued.

BE it inquired for our ſouereigne lord the king, that wheras at the parlement holden at Crokerentor, before Thomas Denis, deputie to ſir Henrie Marnie knight, warden of the ſteimerie, the fourteenth daie of September, the ſecond yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the eight: It was ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, that (from the daie aforeſaid) it ſhalbe lawfull for euerie man to dig tin within the countie of Deuonſhire, in all places whereas as tin may be founden. And alſo to carrie the water to their works without anie let or trouble of anie perſon or perſons, according to our vſages and confirmations of our charter, and according to our cuſtome out of mind. And if anie perſon or perſons let, trouble, or vexe anie man to dig tin, or to carrie water for the ſame, contrarie to our old cuſtome and vſage, and if it be founden by verdict of twelue men at the law daie, he that ſo letteth, vexeth, or troubleth anie ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall fall in the penaltie of fortie pounds as oft as he ſo vexeth or troubleth: the one halfe to my lord prince, and the other halfe to him that was ſo letted, vexed, or troubled. And a Fieri facias to be awarded, as well for my lord prince as for the partie, if one Richard Strode of Plimton tinner, at the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the fourth daie of Februarie laſt paſt, letted, vexed, and troubled one William Rood the yonger, and Elis Elford tinner, & all other tinners in the ſame parlement for digging of tin in the ſeuerall ſoile of the ſaid Richard and other perſons contrarie to this our act made.

An act concerning miniſtration of iuſtice to the kings ſubiects of his citie of Turnie.

The firſt chapter.

Chap.1.

WHereas the king our ſoueraigne lord greatlie deſiring to recouer the realme of France, his verie true patrimonie and inheritance, and to reduce the ſame to his obeiſance, and for the ſame purpoſe & intent latelie made preparations of great roiall armies aſwell by ſea as by land, to his right great & maruellous coſts and charge. And ſithens that by his great wiſdome and ſingular policie hath now reduced the cities and townes of Tirwin and Turneie, to due obeiſance: by reaſon whereof now ſhall follow and inſue great amitie, familiaritie and intercourſe in buieng and ſelling merchandizes, wares, and otherwiſe betweene the citizens and inhabitants of the ſaid cities, townes, and precincts of the ſame, and the kings naturall ſubiects inhabitants in this his realme of England. Therefore the king our ſoueraigne lord willing, and intending that true and indifferent iuſtice ſhalbe miniſtred in all matters and cauſes, as well to citizens and inhabitants dwelling and inhabiting in the ſame cities, townes, and the precincts of the ſame, as to his naturall ſubiects dwelling within this his realme of England: and to the ſame intent the king our ſoueraigne lord hath deputed and ordeined in the ſaid citie and towne of Turneie, and in the bailiwike, and precinct of the ſame, diuerſe officers & miniſters, and among other two of them called notaries, otherwiſe called graffers, to accept, take and record the knowledge of all contracts, bargeins, conuentions, pacts, and agreements made and to be made within the ſaid citie and towne of Turneie, bailiwike, and precinct of the ſame, by all maner of perſons, that will and ſhall reſort and come before them to make knowledge of the ſame: which notaries or graffers ſhall preſent and deliuer in writing all ſuch knowledge, as ſhall be ſo taken vnder their notarie ſignes vnto another officer of the ſame citie and towne, which our ſaid ſoueraigne lord hath there made and deputed to accept and take of them the ſame: which officer for the more affirmance thereof ſhall ſet thereto the ſeale of our ſoueraigne lord, made and left in the keeping of the ſame officer for the ſame intent, the king our ſoueraigne lord by the aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame hath ordeined and enacted, that vpon euerie writing obligatorie, and knowledge to be made of all contracts, bargeins, conuentions, pacts and agreements, ſigned and ſealed in forme aboue rehearſed, by anie of the kings ſubiects inhabited in this realme of England to anie citizen or inhabitant within the ſaid citie and towne of Turneie, bailiwike, or precinct of the ſame, or by anie citizen or inhabitant within the ſame citie, towne, bailiwike, or precinct, to anie other of the ſame, or elſe by anie citizen or inhabitant of the ſame citie, towne, bailiwike, or precinct to any of the kings ſubiects inhabited within the realme of England, or by anie of the kings ſubiects inhabited in the realme of England, to another of the ſame ſubiects ſhewed and exhibited to the chancellor of England (for the time being) the ſame chancellor haue full authoritie and power vpon the ſight of the ſame, to ſend a ſargent of armes or another officer, to the perſon ſo bounden to require and command the perſon ſo bounden to performe the contents of euerie ſuch writing obligatorie and knowledge. And if the ſame perſons ſo bounden, denie ſo to doo, and obiect or allege anie cauſe whie he ſhould not ſo doo, that the ſame ſargent or officer immediatlie ſhall bring the ſame perſon ſo bounden before the chancellor of England to anſwer to the premiſſes. And if the perſon ſo bounden brought before the ſaid chancellor, obiect or allege anie matter or cauſe reaſonable whie he ſhould not performe the contents of the ſame writing obligatorie and knowledge, that then he ſhall be adiudged to bring in ſufficient gage and pledge to the verie value of the contents of the ſame writing obligatorie into the kings court of chancerie, or elſe to remaine in ward: and then the ſaid chancellor by his wiſdome and diſcretion ſhall prefix and aſſigne vnto him a conuenient peremptorie day to proue his obiection and allegation. And if the partie ſo bounden proue not his obiection and allegation before the ſaid chancellor to be true before or at the ſaid daie prefixed: that then the ſaid partie ſo bounden without delay ſhall performe the contents of the ſaid obligation, and knowledge then not performed, or elſe to forfeit the ſaid gages and pledges to the partie to whom the ſaid obligation or knowledge was made. And in likewiſe vpon all recognizances to be made before the king in his chancerie, or in his bench, or in anie other the kings court of record within the realme of England. And alſo vpon all writings obligatorie to be made and knowledged before the maior of the ſtaple of Calis of all debts, contracts, & bargeins by anie of the ſaid citizens or inhabitants of the ſaid citie or towne of Turneie or bailiwike, or precinct of the ſame, to anie of the kings ſubiects, and the ſame knowledge or writing obligatorie be then certified to the bailiffe of the ſame citie and towne by the chancellor of England, vnder the kings great ſeale of England, that then the bailiffe of the ſame citie and towne for the time being, or his deputie haue full authoritie and power to ſend and ſhall ſend a ſargent or other officer of the ſame citie and towne to the perſon ſo bounden, to require and command the ſame perſon ſo bounden to performe the contents of the ſame knowledge and writing obligatorie. And if the partie ſo bounden denie ſo to doo, and obiect and allege anie cauſe whie he ſhould not ſo doo: that then the ſaid ſargent or officer immediatlie ſhall bring the perſon ſo bounden before the bailiffe of the ſaid citie and towne, for the time being, to anſwer to the premiſſes. And if the perſon ſo bounden and brought before the ſaid bailiffe obiect and allege any matter or cauſe ſo reaſonable, why he ſhould not performe the contents of the ſame writing obligatorie and knowledge: that then he ſhalbe adiudged to bring ſufficient gage & pledge to the verie value of the contents of the ſame writing obligatorie or knowledge into the court before the ſame bailiffe or his deputie, or elſe to remaine in ward, and then the ſaid bailiffe or his deputie, by his wiſdome and diſcretion ſhall prefix and aſſigne vnto him a conuenient peremptorie daie to prooue his obiection and allegation, and if the partie ſo bounden prooue not his obiection and allegation before the ſaid bailiffe or his deputie to be true, before or at the ſaid daie prefixed, that then the ſaid partie ſo bounden, without delaie ſhall performe the contents of the ſaid writing obligatorie & knowledge then not performed, or elſe to forfeit the ſaid gages & pledges to the partie to whom the ſaid obligation or knowledge was made: this act to indure during the kings pleaſure.

An act concerning true making of clothes in Deuon, called white ſtraits.

Chap.2. PRaien the commons and inhabitants (clothmakers & buiers of the ſame) within the countie of Deuonſhire, that where diuerſe and manie clothes, called white ſtraits, be and haue béene continuallie made within the ſaid countie, to the great profit of the kings ſubiects there, the which clothes were woont to be well & ſufficientlie made, and beare their bredth yard brode and halfe quarter raw, and fiftéene yards of length, and that no man in times paſt hath vſed to make them, but that the maker thereof hath ſet his ſpeciall marke vpon euerie of the ſaid clothes, ſo by him or them made, whereby euerie man maie know their owne clothes from other mens by reaſon of their ſaid ſeuerall marks: ſo it is that now a daies the ſaid clothes be not ſufficientlie made, ne beare their length & bredth, according as they ſhould doo, ne marked with euerie mans owne marke, whereof great inconuenience dooth dailie inſue & increaſe, to the impoueriſhing & hurting aſwell of the kings ſubiects buiers and ſellers of the ſame, as merchants ſtrangers; therefore the premiſſes conſidered, that it maie be therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, by Bredth Length Marke the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that from the feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming no perſon make ſuch clothes (called white ſtraits) to ſell, without that it be when it is raw readie to be tucked, of the bredth of a yard and halfe a quarter, and of length fiftéene yards. And that no perſon make ſuch clothes, but if he ſet his ſpeciall marke vpon euerie of the ſaid clothes ſo by him or them made. And that no perſon vſe no marke on his clothes ſuch as any other perſon dooth and hath vſed before him, vpon paine of forfeiture of euerie of the ſaid clothes, the one halfe to the king, and the other halfe to him that ſo ſeizeth the ſaid clothes ſo made or marked contrarie to the forme and effect afore expreſſed: and this act to indure vnto the next parlement.

An act concerning white woollen clothes of fiue marks and vnder, maie be carried ouer the ſeas vnſhorne.

Chap.3. WHere in this preſent parlement (before the firſt prorogation thereof) it was ordeined and enacted, that no woollen cloth, aboue the priſe of foure marks ſhould be conueied ouer the ſea vnrowed, vnbarbed, and vnſhorne, vpon certeine penalties in the ſame act expreſſed more at large, which act put in execution ſhall not onelie turne to the abatements of the kings cuſtoms, but alſo grow to the vtter vndooing of his ſubiects (clothmakers and merchants) conueiers of the ſaid clothes. Foraſmuch as wooll is riſen of a far greater priſe than it was at the making of the ſaid act: for where a cloth was then commonlie ſold at foure marks, it is now ſold for fiue marks. And alſo by force of the ſaid act the merchants ſhould be bound to dreſſe euerie white cloth aboue the value of foure marks on this ſide the ſea after they haue bought them, which white cloth ſo dreſſed, when they be brought into the parties beyond the ſea, and there by the buiers of them, died and put in colours, then they muſt be newlie dreſſed, barbed, ſhorne, and rowed, and ſo they ſhalbe thereby the leſſe in ſubſtance of themſelfe, and the worſſe to the ſale, & ſold for leſſe priſe by ten or twelue ſhillings a péece beyond the ſea than they ſhould be if they were vndreſſed: wherefore be it ordeined and enacted by like authoritie, that euerie white woollen cloth ſold at fiue marks & vnder, maie Clothes of fiue marks be carried and conueied into the parties beyond the ſea, there to be ſold at the pleaſure of the buiers of the ſaid cloth, vnbarbed, vnſhorne, and vnrowed, anie act or acts to the contrarie made notwithſtanding. And ouer this be it ordeined and enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that if anie perſon or perſons conueie or cauſe to be conueied into the parties beyond the ſea anie white woollen cloth vnrowed, vnbarbed, and vnſhorne aboue the value of fiue marks in other forme than is aforeſaid, that Forfeit then the perſon or perſons ſo offending, ſhall forfeit the value of the ſaid cloth or clothes ſo carried or conueied into the parties beyond the ſea, the one moitie of the ſame forfeiture to be to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other moitie to anie perſon that will ſue for the ſame, and that the defendant in anie plée vpon anie ſuch action not be admitted to wage his law nor anie protection or eſſoine for anie ſuch defendant be allowed in the ſame.

An act for auoidng deceipts in worſteds.

Chap.4.

Praien the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that where as worſteds, which bin trulie made, ſhorne, died ⁊ calendred, as of old time haue bin accuſtomed to be made, ſhorne, died ⁊ calendred, haue beene one of the goodlieſt merchandize ⁊ greateſt commoditie for this realme, and not onelie worne within this realme, but alſo much worne ⁊ vſed in other realmes. And ſo it is, that now of late diuerſe ſtrangers beyond the ſea haue taken vpon them to drie calender worſteds with gums, oiles and preſſes, ſo that a courſe peece of worſted, not being paſt the value of xxvj.s.viij.d is ⁊ ſhall be made by their ſaid gums, oiles, and preſſes to ſhew like to the value of xl.s.or better. And if the ſame worſted ſo drie calendred, taketh any wet, incontinent it will ſhew ſpottie ⁊ foule, and euer after continue ſtill foule ⁊ will not indure, to the great deceipt ⁊ hurt of the wearers thereof, and no loſſe of the ſaid commoditie: and for the ſaid deceipts and falſeneſſe, the ſaid calendring is ſcorned and abhorred in the parties beyond the ſea, ſo that no perſon doo ne ſhall vſe in thoſe parties anie ſuch worſteds to drie calender. And alſo now of late the ſaid ſtrangers (called drie calenders) are come into this realme, and heere within the ſame vſe the ſaid drie calendring of worſted, to the great hurt of the ſaid commonweale ⁊ commoditie of this realme aforeſaid: wherefore be it enacted, ordeined ⁊ eſtabliſhed by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall ⁊ temporall, the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that no perſon ne perſons within this ſaid realme, heereafter doo take vpon him or them to drie calender anie worſted within this ſaid realme, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie worſted, that is ſo drie calendred v.li. And ouer that whereas the ſaid old calendring of worſteds, called wet calendring hath bin vſed well and ſubſtantiallie in times paſt in the citie of Norwich, and yet is by perſons hauing cunning in the ſame: be it therfore furthermore enacted, ordeined ⁊ eſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon ne perſons heereafter doo take vpon him or them to wet calender any worſted, but onelie ſuch perſons as haue beene bound apprentiſes to other perſons of the ſame craft or occupation of wet calendring of worſteds, by the ſpace of ſeuen yeeres, or be cunning in the ſame, and their cunning approued and admitted by the maior of the ſaid citie of Norwich for the time being and the two maiſters of the ſaid craft ⁊ occupation yeerlie to be choſen within the ſaid citie of Norwich, or in the countie of Norfolke of the craft of wet calendring, vpon paine of euerie ſuch perſon or perſons which heereafter ſhall doo the contrarie, to forfeit for euerie peece ſo calendred againſt the ordinances ⁊ purueiances aforeſaid v.li. the one moitie of which penalties ⁊ forfeitures aboue ſpecified, and of euerie of them, to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other moitie thereof to be to the maiſters of the ſaid occupation of wet calendring for the time being. And that it ſhalbe lawfull to the maiſter of the ſaid occupation for the time being, and their ſucceſſors, to ſue for the one moitie of all ſuch penalties heerafter to be forfeited, againſt euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, as heerafter ſhall do contrarie to the forme and effect of this eſtatute, by action of debt, by writ at the common law, or by bill or plaint, after the cuſtome of ſuch citie, port, or towne, where ſhall happen anie ſuch forfeiture to be or fall, or by information in the kings excheker. And that no protection or eſſoine, ne no wager of law for the defendant, in anie ſuch action, plaint, or information be allowable before anie maner of iuſtices, where anie ſuch ſute or information ſhalbe vſed for the ſaid forfeiture: and this act to indure to the next parlement.

An act concerning iuries in London.

Chap.5.

Where in this preſent parlement holden at Weſtminſter the fourth day of Februarie, in the third yeere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord the king, and proroged vnto the fourth daie of Nouember, in the fourth yeere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord the king, ⁊ adiourned vnto Weſtminſter aforeſaid, foraſmuch as after iſſues ioined in actions ⁊ ſutes commenſed, taken or depending in the kings courts before himſelfe in his bench, ⁊ before his iuſtices of the common bench, and alſo in his excheker at the kings ſute, or at the ſute of the partie, triable in the citie of London, aſwell the king as the parties ſuffered great delay manie times for default of appeerance of the iuries impanelled to trie the ſaid iſſues, ⁊ manie times for lacke of iurors, not hauing lands and tenements of the yeerelie value of xl.s. It was the ſaid fourth day of Nouember ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſhirifs of London, for the time being, ſhould haue full authoritie ⁊ power to returne in panels or araies of all actions and ſutes then depending, or that ſhould depend in anie of the ſaid courts or excheker, perſons being citizens, hauing goods to the value of 100 marks or aboue, to trie the iſſue ioined in euerie ſuch action or ſute. And that the perſons ſo returning, hauing goods to the value of 100 marks or aboue, ſhould be ſworne and doo in all ſuch iuries, in likewiſe in euerie thing as other perſons ſhould doo, hauing lands ⁊ tenements of the yeerelie value of xl.s. ouer all charges. And that the ſhirifs of the ſaid citie for the time being, ſhould returne vpon the firſt diſtreſſe in euerie ſuch action or ſute vpon euerie of the iurors impanelled to trie the iſſues therof xx.d. and vpon the ſecond diſtreſſe vpon euerie of the ſame iurors xl.d. and vpon euerie diſtreſſe after that vpon euerie of the ſame iurors the double, till a full iurie in euerie ſuch action ⁊ ſute ſhould appeare ⁊ be ſworne to trie the iſſue ioined in the ſame. And that the ſhirifs that ſhould make anie returne vpon ſuch diſtreſſe contrarie to the forme aforeſaid, ſhould forfeit for euerie ſuch default x.li. the one halfe therof to the king, ⁊ the other halfe to the partie that will ſue therfore: and that the defendant in any ſuch action ſhould not be admitted to wage his law, nor protection therein for him allowed, which ſtatute was onelie made for the good expedition of iuſtice for to haue quicke appearance of iurors citizens of London at S. Martins the grand, within the ſaid citie, where all iuries were and beene bounden onlie to appeare to trie the iſſues ioined of all things triable in London by proceſſe of Niſi prius out of the ſaid courts, and in none other place, according to their ancient libertie, priuilege, and cuſtome: wherefore for more plaine declaration of the ſame good eſtatute be it ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid act be expounded, interpreted and taken, that the ſhiriffs for the time being be bounden to returne at euerie firſt diſtreſſe of Niſi prius to be had at the ſaid S. Martins in euerie ſuch action or ſute, vpon euerie of the iurors impanelled to trie the iſſues thereof twentie penſe, and vpon the ſecond diſtreſſe of Niſi prius, vpon euerie of the ſame iurors fortie penſe. And vpon euerie diſtreſſe of Niſi prius after that, euerie of the ſame iurors the double, till a full iurie in euerie ſuch action and ſute ſhall appeare and be ſworne to trie the iſſue ioined in the ſame. And that no ſhiriffe of the ſaid citie or other, anie thing forfeit, by force or colour of the ſaid eſtatute, for anie returne to be made, except onelie vpon returnes to be made contrarie to the forme, declaration, interpretation, and expoſition of this eſtatute, that is to ſaie, vpon writs of diſtreſſes before iuſtices or iuſtice of Niſi prius within the ſaid citie, and that vpon all other writs and proceſſes, that be and ſhalbe awarded out of the ſaid courts or eſcheker, it ſhalbe lawfull to the ſhiriffs for the time being to make their returnes according to the order of the law as the ſhiriffs of London were wont to doo before the making of the ſaid ſtatute, without anie loſſe or forfeiture.

An act concerning ſurgeons to be diſcharged of queſts and other things.

Chap.6.

Sheweth vnto your diſcréet wiſdoms your humble orators the wardens and fellowſhip of the craft and myſterie of ſurgeons infranchiſed in the citie of London, not paſſing in number twelue perſons, that whereas they and their predeceſſors, from the time that no mind is to the contrarie, aſwell in this noble citie of London, as in all other cities and boroughs within this realme, or elſwhere, for the continuall ſeruice and attendance that they dailie and nightlie at all houres and times giue to the kings léege people, for the releefe of the ſame according to their ſcience, haue beene exempt and diſcharged from all offices and buſineſſe, wherein they ſhould vſe or beare anie maner of armor or weapon, and with like priuilege haue beene intreated as heralds of armes, aſwell in battels and feelds and other places, there for to ſtand vnharneſſed and vnweaponed according to the law of arms, becauſe they be perſons that neuer vſed feats of war, nor ought to vſe, but onelie the buſineſſe & exerciſe of their ſcience, to the helpe and comfort of the kings léege people in the time of their need. And in the foreſaid citie of London, from the time of their firſt incorporation, when they haue béene manie mo in number than they be now, were neuer called nor charged to be on queſt, watch nor other office, whereby they ſhould vſe or occupie anie armor or defenſible geare of war: where through they ſhould be vnreadie and letted to practiſe their cure of men being in perill. Therefore for that they be ſo ſmall number of the ſaid fellowſhip of the craft & myſterie of ſurgeons, in regard of the great multitude of patients that be and dailie chance & fortune, hapneth and increaſeth in the foreſaid citie of London, and that manie of the kings léege people ſuddenlie wounded and hurt for default of helpe in time to them to be ſhewed periſh, and ſo diuerſe haue doone, as euidentlie is knowne by occaſion that your ſaid ſuppliants haue béene compelled to attend vpon ſuch conſtableſhip, watches and iuries, as is aforeſaid: be it enacted & eſtabliſhed by the king our ſouereigne lord and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and by the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that from henſeforth your ſaid ſuppliants be diſcharged and not chargable of conſtableſhip, watch, and all maner of office, bearing anie armor, and alſo of all inqueſts and iuries within the citie of London. And alſo that this act in all things doo extend to all barbers ſurgeons admitted and approoued to exerciſe the ſaid myſterie of ſurgeons, according to the forme of the ſtatute latelie made in that behalfe, ſo that they excéed, ne be at one time aboue the number of twelue perſons.

An act concerning ſtrangers for buieng of lether in open market.

Chap.7.

IN their moſt humble wiſe ſhewen and complaine vnto your highneſſe your poore and dailie orators the fellowſhip and brotherhood of the bleſſed trinitie at the Blacke friers in your citie of London, of the craft of cordwainers, ſtrangers, that where at your laſt parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the third yéere of your moſt noble reigne, amongſt other things it was accorded and enacted, by an act made and granted vnto the wardens and fellowſhip of the curriers, to haue ſearch of leather for certeine cauſes in the ſaid act largelie named and expreſſed, that no ſtranger alien not borne within your realme of England, Ireland, Wales, Calis, or the marches of the ſame, dwelling within anie franchiſed place or places, within the precinct of the ſaid citie of London and ſuburbs, as in the franchiſe of ſaint Katherins, ſaint Martins, in the towne of Weſtminſter, and in the borough of Southwarke, ſhould buie, or cauſe to be bought to his or their vſe, anie lether or wares in anie ſecret place, but onelie in the open market where it ſhould be ſeene, aſſaied, ſealed, abled good and ſufficientlie tanned and curried. And alſo that the wardens of the curriers, their ſucceſſors and aſſignes, ſhould haue ſearch in the craft and brotherhood of the trinitie aforeſaid, as well in franchiſed places, as in anie other places, for all maner of ſuch lether or ware ſufficientlie tanned, ſealed and curried, as often as they ſhould thinke conuenient, and the ſame lether ſo found ſufficient, to be forfeited, with other paines in the content of the ſaid act limited and expreſſed. Sith the making of which ſtatute, manie and the moſt partie of all your ſaid poore orators be fallen in great decaie and pouertie, by the meanes of which ſtatute the ſaid craft of curriors wrongfullie dailie compell your ſaid poore orators ſtrangers, borne vnder the dominion of the emperor, and the prince of Caſtile, to buie their lether and wares of them, and of no perſon elſe, after their owne priſe, without anie right or conſcience: In as much that by force of the aboue named act, your poore orators ſtrangers maie buie no red lether as they were wont to doo before the making of the ſaid ſtatute, but it muſt be curried. And ſo if the ſaid lether be vnlawfullie dreſt or curried, all the fault returneth to your ſaid poore orators, where as afore time they bought both red lether and other, and ſaw that it ſhould be ſufficientlie curried and dreſt, or elſe to be forfeited, whereof your ſaid orators maie not pleaſe and ſerue the lords, ſtates, and commonaltie of this your realme, as they were wont to doo in times paſt afore the making of the ſaid act: for (as it is openlie knowen) the ſaid wardens and craft of curriers dailie ſell the beſt lether in groſſe to merchants ſtrangers, Italians and other perſons, ſo that your poore orators be compelled to take and buie of them vnlawfull lether in retaile, or elſe in groſſe, with ouer chargeable priſe for lacke of a due order and prouiſion. In conſideration whereof, and for the moſt comfort and releéſe of the ſaid brotherhood and felowſhip of the bleſſed trinitie, it would pleaſe your ſaid highneſſe, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this your preſent parlement aſſembled, that it maie therefore be ordeined, enacted and eſtabliſhed, by authoritie of the ſame, that from henſeforth it be lawfull to all maner of perſon or perſons ſtrangers, being in the felowſhip of the bleſſed trinitie afore named, & to all maner other perſons, borne vnder the dominion of the emperor and the prince of Caſtile to buie all maner of red lether, or other lether, curried or not curried in open market and faires within your realme of England, ſufficientlie wrought, aſſaied and ſealed, with all lawfull ſearch, in all places franchiſed or vnfranchiſed, as they haue doone and occupied in times paſt afore the making of the aboueſaid act, in the third yéere of your reigne, without anie let, interruption, and trouble by anie perſon or perſons, according to the old vſance, and cuſtome, the ſaid act of curriers ſtatute and ordinance, or anie other act or acts, grants, ſtatutes or ordinances to the contrarie made or to be made notwithſtanding.

Felowſhip of the trinitie.

Strãgers

Curriers

Prouided alwaie that this preſent act doo not extend to anie other perſon, but ſuch as be of the brotherhood, and to all other perſons borne vnder the emperor and the king of Caſtils dominion.

Prouided alſo, that this act ſhall not extend to giue anie perſon (borne out of the kings obeiſance) libertie to buie anie lether vntanned, nor vnſufficientlie tanned.

Prouided furthermore, that no perſon (borne out of the kings obeiſance) by colour of this act ſhall haue authoritie to buie anie lether in anie ſecret place, but onlie in open markets and faires.

Opẽ markets

Prouided alſo that no perſon by colour of this act haue authoritie to buie or ſell anie lether within the citie of London, but if either the buier or the ſeller be a frée man of the ſaid citie, according to the ancient cuſtoms & liberties of the ſaid citie, & according to diuerſe eſtatutes in that caſe made and purueied, except onelie in ſaint Bartholomewes faire.

London

Prouided alſo, that this act ſhall not extend to take awaie or miniſh anie power or authoritie, giuen by the ſaid former eſtatute vnto the wardens of the felowſhip of curriers, and to their ſucceſſors, for due ſearch by them and their deputies to be made in anie place, or vpon anie perſon for lether vnſufficientlie dreſt, wrought, tanned, or vnſealed, nor in the execution of ſuch penalties as be conteined in the ſaid former act and ſtatute for the puniſhments of ſuch defaults as ſhall be by the ſaid ſearch founden.

Curriers

Prouided alſo, that no perſon borne out of the kings obeiſance, haue none authoritie, by reaſon of this act, to begin anie new markets within ſaint Martins the grand of London, or in anie other franchiſed place, but onlie ſhall buie in ſuch markets as haue béene of old time accuſtomed.

An act concerning the maner and forme of ſute for the kings moſt gratious letters of generall pardon.

Chap.8.

Where it hath pleaſed the kings highneſſe of his méere motion and moſt aboundant grace, to grant to euerie of his ſubiects his generall pardon, by his letters patents to be obteined vpon and concerning all and ſingular articles conteined and ſpecified in a bill ſigned with his moſt gratious hand, deliuered and remaining in the cuſtodie of his chancellor of England for the warrant for the ſame. Be it enacted by our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all and as manie, and euerie of the kings ſubiects, the which at anie time héereafter will ſue for anie of the ſaid pardons, ſhall haue the aduantage, auaile and benefit of the ſame pardon in all and euerie of the kings courts to him or them to be allowed without writ or writs of allowance therevpon to be made, ſued, the ſame perſon or perſons paieng onelie ſuch fées, as well of ſealing, as other duties in the kings chancerie, and all other the kings courts, as ſhall be ordered, aſſigned, limited, and appointed by our ſaid ſoueraigne lord: or by ſuch of his moſt honorable counſell as his highneſſe ſhall therevnto name, and no more neither other fées to be paid for the premiſſes.

Anno ſexto Henrici octaui, at Weſtminſter the fift of Februarie.

An act concerning apparell to be vſed and worne.

The firſt chapter.

For as much as the great and coſtlie araie and apparell vſed within this realme contrarie to good ſtatutes thereof made hath béene the occaſion of great impoueriſhing of diuerſe of the kings ſubiects, and prouoked them to rob, and to doo extortion and other vnlawfull déeds to mainteine thereby their coſtlie arraie. In eſchewing whereof be it ordeined by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no perſon, of what eſtate, condition, or degrée that he be, vſe in his apparell, anie cloth of gold of purpure colour, or ſilke of purpure colour, but onelie the king, the queene, the kings mother, the kings children, the kings brethren and ſiſters, vpon paine to forfeit the ſaid apparell, wherewith ſo euer it be mixt, and for vſing the ſame to forfeit for euerie time ſo offending twentie pounds. And that no man vnder the eſtate of a duke vſe in anie apparell of his bodie or vpon his horſſes, or horſſeharnes, anie cloth of gold of tiſſue, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame apparell wherewith ſoeuer it be mixt, garded or brodered, & that for vſing of the ſame to forfeit euerie time ſo offending twentie marks. And that no man vnder the degrée of an earle, weare in his apparell anie fur of ſables or blacke ienets, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame apparell, and for vſing the ſame to forfeit for euerie time ſo offending twentie marks. And that no man vnder the degrée of the ſonne of a duke, marques, or earle, or the degrée of a baron, vſe in his apparell of his bodie, or on his horſſe or horſſe harnes, anie cloth of gold or cloth of ſiluer, ne anie ſuch apparell, mixt, garded, or inbrodered with gold or ſiluer vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame apparell, and for vſing of the ſame to forfeit for euerie time ſo offending ten marks. And that no man vnder the degrée of the ſonne of a duke, earle, or the degrée of a baron, or a knight of the garter, weare anie woollen cloth made out of this realme of England, Ireland, Wales, Calis or the marches of the ſame, or Barwike, vpon paine to forfeit the ſaid cloth & for vſing of the ſame, to forfeit for euerie time ſo offending ten pounds. And that no man vnder the degrée of a knight of the garter, weare in his gowne or cote, or in anie other his apparell of his bodie or apparell of his horſſe anie veluet, of the colour of crimſin or blew, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame apparell, and for vſing of the ſame to forfeit for euerie time ſo offending fortie ſhillings. And that no man vnder the degrée of a barons ſonne, or knight, or ſquiers for the kings bodie, his cup bearers, caruers, & ſewers, hauing the ordinarie fée for the ſame, and all other ſquiers, for the bodie hauing poſſeſſion of lands, & tenements, or other hereditaments in their hand, or other to their vſe, to the yéerelie value of thrée hundred marks: iuſtices of the one bench or of the other, the maiſter of the rols, and barons of the kings excheker, and all other of the kings counſell, and maiors of the citie of London for the time being, vſe or weare anie veluet, or furs of martron in their apparels for their bodies, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame furs and apparell, wherewith ſo euer it be mixt, ioined, garded, or brodered, & for vſing of the ſame to forfeit for euerie time ſo offending fortie ſhillings. And that no other man, other than the perſons aboue named, weare ſattin and damaſke in their gownes, iackets, nor cotes except a gentleman, hauing in his poſſeſſion or other, to his vſe, lands, or tenements, or annuities at the leaſt for terme of life, to the yéerelie value of a hundred pounds aboue all repriſes, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame apparell, wherewith ſoeuer it be mixt, or ioined, garded, or brodered, and for vſing of the ſame to forfeit fortie ſhillings for euerie time ſo offending.

And that none other perſon or perſons, other than be afore named, vſe or weare in their doublets, ſattin, damaſke, or ſilken chamlet, except they haue lands, or tenements in his or their poſſeſſion, or other to his or their vſe, office, or fée for terme of life or liues, to the yéerelie value of a hundred marks, ouer all charges, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame apparell, wherewith ſoeuer it be mixt, ioined, garded, brodered, and for vſing of the ſame to forfeit at euerie time ſo offending fortie ſhillings. And that no man vnder the degrée of a gentleman, except graduats of the vniuerſities, & except yeomen, gromes & pages of the kings chamber, or our ſouereigne ladie the quéenes, & except ſuch men as haue lands, tenements, fées, or annuities, to the yéerelie value of ten pounds for terme of life, or a hundred pounds in goods, vſe or weare anie furs, whereof there is no like kind growing in this land of England, Ireland, Wales, or in anie lands vnder the kings obeiſance, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame furs, and for vſing of the ſame to forfeit for euerie time ſo offending fortie ſhillings. The value of their goods to be tried by their owne othes. And that no man vnder the degrée of a knight, and other than be afore named, except ſpirituall men, and ſergeants at the law, or graduats of the vniuerſities vſe more cloth in a long gowne than foure brode yards, and in a riding gowne or cote aboue thrée yards, vpon paine of forfeiture thereof. And that no ſeruing man vnder the degrée of a gentleman, vſe, and weare a gowne or cote or ſuch like apparell of more cloth than thrée brode yards in a garment, and that in the ſaid gowne, cote or garment they weare no chamlet, chamlet, nor no maner fur, except lambs fur, of the growing of this realme of England, Ireland, or Wales, vpon paine to forfeit the ſaid apparell, or the value thereof. And that no ſeruing man, vnder the degrée of a gentleman, weare anie cloth in his hoſe aboue the priſe of twentie penſe the yard vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, and for vſing of euerie paire of hoſe, whereof the yard ſhall excéed the priſe of twentie penſe as is aforeſaid, thrée ſhillings foure penſe. And that no man from henſeforth, vnder the degrée of a ſonne of a duke, or earle, or the degrée of a lord, weare or vſe anie apparell of his bodie imbrodered, broched, or garded with anie gold, ſiluer, goldſmiths worke, ſilke, cloth, or other thing vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame apparell, and for vſing the ſame to forfeit for euerie time ſo offending fortie ſhillings. And that no man vnder the degrée of a knight were anie chaine of gold or gilt, or collet of gold, anie gold about his necke, or bracelets of gold, vpon paine of forfeiture thereof. And that no man, vnder the degrée of a gentleman, weare anie ſilke points, or weare anie points in anie of his apparell of his bodie, with aglets of gold, or ſiluer, or ſiluer guilded, or button, or broches of gold, or ſiluer and guilt, or anie goldſmiths worke, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame. And that no man, vnder the degrée of a knight other than before except for wearing of gowns of veluet, weare anie garded or pinched ſhirt, or pinched partlet of linnen cloth, or plaine ſhirt garniſhed, or made with ſilke, or gold, or ſiluer, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame ſhirt or partlet, and for vſing of the ſame, for euerie time ſo offending ten ſhillings. And that no ſeruant of huſbandrie, nor ſhéepherd, common laborer, nor ſeruant vnto anie artificer, out of citie, or borough, nor huſbandman hauing no goods of his owne aboue the value of ten pounds vſe or weare anie cloth, whereof the broad yard paſſeth in priſe two ſhillings, nor that anie of the ſaid ſeruants of huſbandrie, ſhéepherds, nor laborers, weare anie hoſe aboue the priſe of twelue penſe the yard, vpon paine of impriſonment in the ſtocks by thrée daies. And that euerie of the vſhers of the kings chamber (for the time being) haue the forfeitures of the ſaid apparell, ſo worne or vſed in the kings court, contrarie to the forme aboueſaid, by meane of ſeizure thereof, or by action of detinue for the ſame. And he that firſt ſeizeth or ſueth the ſaid action, to haue the ſame forfeiture. And that euerie of the ſaid vſhers, that ſhall ſo ſeize, or haue action for miſuſing of the ſaid apparell, maie haue action of debt for recouerie of the ſaid penalties before limited. And if none of the ſaid vſhers ſeize the ſaid apparell, ne commenſe their action within fiftéene daies in the terme next after the ſaid forfeiture: then the kings chamberlaine (for the time being) to ſeize the ſame apparell, and to haue like action. And alſo be it enacted, that if anie like forfeiture be committed or doone in the quéenes court, that then anie the vſhers of hir chamber, and in their default the quéenes chamberleine (for the time being) maie likewiſe ſeize and haue like action for the ſaid apparell ſo forfeited, and penalties in the quéenes court, as is afore rehearſed for the kings vſhers and his chamberlaine. And in the default of the ſaid vſhers and chamberlaine, the king to haue the the ſaid forfeitures of the ſaid apparels, and the penalties for wearing of the ſame by ſeizure thereof, by action, or by information in his excheker, or by inquiſition. And that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie of the kings ſubiects to ſeize anie apparell, vſed or worne by anie man out of the kings court, and quéenes court, contrarie to the forme aboueſaid, or to haue therefore action of detinue for the ſaid apparell, and to haue the ſame to his proper vſe. And if anie perſon ſo vſing ſuch apparell, make anie reſiſtance for deliuerie thereof, that then he for his reſiſtance ſhall loſe and forfeit as much as he ſhould forfeit by this eſtatute, ouer and aboue the forfeiture and penalties conteined in this eſtatute for vſing or wearing of the ſame apparell. And that euerie of the kings ſubiects maie haue their action of detinue for the ſaid apparell ſo forfeited: And the king our ſouereigne lord to haue the one halfe of the forfeiture of the ſaid monie ſo forfeited: and the partie that will ſue, haue the other halfe. And the ſute to be by action of debt, and that in anie of all the ſaid actions of debt, or detinue, the defendant ſhall not wage his law, nor be by protection nor eſſoine, nor the partie to be barred by the kings pardon, nor be delaied by anie pléa, to the diſablement of his perſon. And that the lord ſteward of the kings houſe (for the time being) within the verge, and iuſtices of aſſiſe, and iuſtices of the peace, ſtewards in léets, or lawdaies, and euerie of them, haue alſo power to inquire and hold plée of euerie default of the premiſſes, as well by examination of the partie, as after the courſe of the common law, and determine the ſame as well at the kings ſute, as at the ſute of the partie.

An act concerning the maintenance of archers.

PRaien the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that where in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter,the fourth day of Februarie,the third yéere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord the king that now is, our ſaid ſouereigne lord then calling to his moſt noble and gratious remembrance, that by the feat and exerciſe of the ſubiects of this his realme in ſhooting in long bowes, there hath continuallie growen and béene within the ſame, great number and multitude of good archers which haue not onelie defended this realme,and the ſubiects thereof againſt the cruell malice and danger of their outward enimies,in time heretofore paſſed,but alſo with little number and puiſſance (in regard) haue doone manie notable acts,and diſcomfitures of war againſt the infidels and other, and furthermore ſubdued and reduced diuerſe and manie regions and countries to their obeiſance, to the great honor, fame,and ſuretie of this realme and ſubiects, and the terrible dread and feare of all ſtrange nations anie thing to attempt or doo to the hurt or damage of them, or anie of them. And albeit that diuerſe good and profitable ſtatutes,in the time of his noble progenitors, and predeceſſors kings of this land, for the maintenance of archerie, and long bowes heretofore haue beene made, amongſt which the right famous king of noble memorie Henrie the ſeuenth, father to our ſaid ſouereigne lord,by the authoritie of diuerſe parlements, cauſed good and noble acts and ſtatutes to be eſtabliſhed and made, and that ſhooting in croſſebowes ſhould be ſet on part, and not vſed. And alſo that great number of bow ſtaues of yew ſhould be brought and conueied by merchants repairing into this realme from thoſe parties, where they grow, vpon certeine paines in the ſame ſtatutes limited and conteined: yet neuertheleſſe archerie and ſhooting in long bowes is right little vſed, but dailie miniſheth, decaieth, and abateth more and more, for that much partie of the commonaltie and poore people of this realme, whereby of old time the great number and ſubſtance of archers hath growen and multiplied, be not of power nor abilitie to buie them long bowes of yew, to exerciſe ſhooting in the ſame, and to ſuſteine the continuall charge thereof. And alſo by meanes and occaſion of cuſtomable vſage of tennis plaie, bowles, cloſh, and other vnlawfull games, prohibit by manie good and beneficiall eſtatutes, by authoritie of parlement in that behalfe prouided and made, great impoueriſhment hath inſued, and manie heinous murthers, robberies, and felonies committed and doone, and alſo the diuine ſeruice by ſuch miſdoers on holie and feſtiuall daies not heard or ſolemnized, to the high diſpleaſure of almightie God. Wherefore the kings highneſſe,of his moſt bleſſed diſpoſition, great wiſdome and prouidence,and alſo zeale to the publike weale, ſuretie and defenſe of this his realme and ſubiects, and their ancient fame in this behalfe to be renued and repaired, by the aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall,and his commons in this ſaid parlement aſſembled,and by the authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined,enacted,and eſtabliſhed, that the ſtatute of Wincheſter for archers be put in due execution. And ouer that,that euerie man,being the kings ſubiect, not lame, decrepit, nor maimed, nor hauing anie other lawfull or reaſonable cauſe or impediment,being within the age of ſixtie yéeres, except men ſpirituall, iuſtices of the one bench and of the other, iuſtices of aſſiſe, and barons of the excheker ſhould vſe and exerciſe ſhooting in long bowes. And alſo to haue a bow and arrowes readie continuallie in his houſe,to vſe himſelfe, and doo vſe himſelfe in ſhooting. And alſo the father, gouernors and rulers of ſuch as be of tender age doo teach and bring vp them in the knowledge of the ſame ſhooting.And that euerie man hauing a man child or men children in his houſe, ſhall prouide, ordeine, and haue in his houſe, for euerie man child, being of the age of ſeuen yéeres & aboue, till he come to the age of ſeuentéene yeeres,a bow and two ſhafts, to induce & learne them, & bring them vp in ſhooting,and ſhall deliuer all the ſame bow and arrowes to the ſame yoong men to vſe and occupie.And if the ſame yoong men be ſeruants, that then their maiſters ſhall abate their monie that they ſhall paie for the ſame bowes & arrowes of their wages, and after all ſuch yoong men ſhall come to the age of 17 yéeres,euerie of them ſhall prouide & haue a bow & foure arrowes continuallie for himſelfe, at his proper coſt and charges,or elſe of the gifts or prouiſion of his fréends, and vſe and occupie the ſame in ſhooting (as is afore rehearſed.) And that the iuſtices of aſſiſes, or goale deliuerie, iuſtices of peace, and ſtewards of franchiſes, leet,and lawdaie, haue power to inquire of all the premiſſes in their ſeſſions, léets, and lawdaies, and heare and determine the ſame, and alſo by their diſcretion examine all perſons, lacking and not hauing bowes, ſhafts, and arrowes according to the forme aforeſaid, and euerie perſon that ſhall be found by ſuch inquirie or examination in default, and not prouiding and hauing bowes, arrowes and ſhafts readie by the ſpace of one moneth, ſhall forfeit and paie for euerie ſuch default twelue penſe, and where anie ſuch forfeiture ſhall happen to be founden within the precinct of anie franchiſe, léet, or lawdaie, than the lords of the ſame franchiſe, léet, or lawdaie ſhall haue the forfeiture thereof. And in all other places all ſuch forfeitures to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, his heires and ſucceſſors. And that all ſtatutes heretofore made againſt them that vſe vnlawfull games, be dulie put in execution, & puniſhment had according to the penalties of the ſame, as well againſt the offendors and occupiers of ſuch vnlawfull games, as againſt them that be owners, or kéepers of houſes, or other places, where anie ſuch vnlawfull games be vſed, according to the purport, tenor, and intent of the ſame ſtatutes. And furthermore that all iuſtices of the peace, maiors, bailifs, ſhirifs, conſtables, and all other head officers and euerie of them, finding or knowing anie maner perſon or perſons vſing or exerciſing anie vnlawfull games, contrarie to the ſaid eſtatutes, haue full power and authoritie to commit euerie ſuch offendor to ward, there to remaine without baile or mainepriſe, to ſuch time he or they (ſo offending) be bounden by obligation to the kings vſe in ſuch ſumme of monie as by diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices, maiors, bailifs, or other head officers ſhall be thought reaſonable, that they nor anie of them ſhall not from henſeforth vſe anie vnlawfull games. And that euerie bowier within this realme alwaie make for euerie one bow of yew, that he maketh to ſell, at the leaſt two bowes of elme, wich, or other wood of meane priſe. And if they or anie of them refuſe ſo to doo, and it founden before the iuſtices of peace in the ſhire, or before maiors, bailifs, or other head officer of cities or boroughs by preſentment of twelue men, or by due examination before the ſaid iuſtices of peace, or two of them, or before the ſaid maiors, or bailifs: that then the ſame iuſtices, maiors, or bailifs haue full authoritie and power to commit them to ward, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe by the ſpace of eight daies or more, by the diſcretion of the ſaid maiors, and bailifs. And alſo that buts be made in euerie citie, townes, and place according to the law of ancient time vſed. And that the inhabitants and dwellers in euerie of them be compelled to make and continue ſuch buts, and exerciſe themſelfe with long bowes in ſhooting at the ſame and elſe where on holie daies, and other times conuenient. ¶ And ouer that it is enacted by the ſaid authoritie that euerie iuſtices of peace within this realme, or two of them within their ſeuerall iuriſdictions, haue full power and authoritie to take, aſſigne, and appoint bowiers in thrée, two or more places by their diſcretion, within euerie ſhire, citie, or borough, where the moſt common repaire and reſort is of his ſubiects, and there to inhabit and make long bowes of elme, wich, or other wood of litle priſe and value, to ſerue the commonaltie for due exerciſe of ſhooting, and to take and compell as manie of them as they ſhall thinke neceſſarie by their diſcretions, to inhabit at ſuch places for the ſame.

And ſo in likewiſe as often as the caſe ſhall require, and be thought behouefull. And that all bow ſtaues of yew heereafter to be brought into this realme to be ſold, be open & not ſold in bundels nor cloſe, to the intent the buiers of them may haue perfect knowledge of the goodnes of them, and giue the better priſe for them, if they be ſo worth. ¶ And be it alſo enacted, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all maiors, bailifs, ſhirifs: and all other head officers, ſhall make open proclamation of theſe preſents in euerie market and faire to be holden within their ſeuerall iuriſdiction and authorities. And alſo that the iuſtices of the goale deliuerie, aſſiſes, and iuſtices of peace doo cauſe the ſame to be proclamed in their ſeuerall circuits and ſeſſions before them holden. ¶ And alſo that no ſtranger borne out of the kings obeiſance, not being denizen, ſhall not conueie, nor doo to be conueied into anie parties out of the kings obeiſance, anie long bowes, arrowes, or ſhafts, without the kings ſpeciall licenſe, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, where ſoeuer they ſhall be taken within this the kings power, and vpon paine of impriſonment without baile or mainepriſe, vnto ſuch time he or they, ſo being in ward, haue made a reaſonable fine to the king for his or their offenſes, afore the iuſtices of peace, or two of them in their ſeſſions in the ſame countie, where he or they ſhall be committed to ward, to find ſufficient ſuretie for the paiment of the ſame fine. Item that no maner of perſon (not being borne within the kings obeiſance) not made denizen, vſe within the kings obeiſance ſhooting with long bowes, without the kings licence, vpon paine of forfeiture of ſuch bowes, arrowes and ſhafts, as they ſhall be founden ſo ſhooting with, and euerie of the kings ſubiects maie haue authoritie to take & ſeize the ſame forfeitures to his owne vſe, as in the ſaid act more plainlie appéereth: which act was made to indure to this preſent parlement. And forasmuch as the ſaid act is good and neceſſarie for vpholding of archerie for the defenſe of this realme, be it therefore ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid act and euerie thing therein conteined (as is afore rehearſed) ſhall from henſeforth ſtand and be in full ſtrength, vertue, and effect for euermore. Continuance.

An act concerning artificers and laborers.

Chap. 3.

WHere diuers eſtatutes before this time haue béene made and ordeined for ſeruants of huſbandrie, and alſo for laborers and artificers by diuers and roiall and noble progenitors vnto our ſouereigne lord the king now being, and in eſpeciall a ſtatute made by the right noble prince of bleſſed memorie king Henrie the ſixt, vncle vnto our ſaid ſouereigne lord, the thrée and twentith yéere of his reigne, which notwithſtanding great and manie defaults dailie increaſe reſt and continue among laborers and artificers, ſome bicauſe of the ſaid eſtatutes be not executed, and ſome bicauſe the remedie of the ſaid eſtatutes is not verie perfit, nor giueth certeine ne haſtie remedie, ſo that dailie by their ſubtill imagination in defraud of the ſaid eſtatutes, manie of the king our ſoueraigne lords ſubiects be hurt, deceiued, let, and damaged in their building and huſbandrie. Be it therefore eſtabliſhed, enacted, and ordeined by authoritie of this preſent parlement, Wages for ſeruants. firſt that no bailife of huſbandrie ſhall take for his wages by yéere aboue ſix & twentie ſhillings eight penſe, and for his clothing fiue ſhillings with meat and drinke: no chéefe hine, as a carter or chéefe ſhéepherd aboue twentie ſhillings by the yéere, and for his clothing fiue ſhillings with meat and drinke: no common ſeruant of huſbandrie aboue ſixtéene ſhillings eight penſe, by the yéere, and for his clothing foure ſhillings with meat and drinke: no woman ſeruant aboue ten ſhillings by the yéere, and for hir clothing foure ſhillings with meat & drinke: no child within the age of fouretéene yéeres aboue ſix ſhillings eight penſe by yéere, & for his clothing foure ſhillings with Wages for artificers. meat and drinke. And that no artificer ne laborer hereafter named take no more ne greater wages, than in this ſtatute is limited, vpon the paine ſeſſed aſwell to the taker as to the giuer, that is to ſaie, a fréemaſon, maiſter carpenter, roughmaſon, bricklaier, maiſter tiler, plummar, glaſier, caruer, ne ioiner, from Eaſter to Michaelmas, euerie of theſe artificers aforeſaid ſix penſe by the daie without meat and drinke, and with meat and drinke foure penſe. And fro Michaelmas to Eaſter fiue penſe without meat and drinke, and with meat and drinke thrée penſe. And that the wages of a ſhipwright from the feaſt of Candlemas, vnto the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell, ſhall not excéed the forme inſuing. That is to ſaie, a maiſter ſhip carpenter taking the charge of the worke hauing men vnder him by the daie fiue penſe with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke ſeuen penſe. An other ſhip carpenter called a hewer, by the daie thrée penſe with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke ſix penſe. An able clincher by the daie thrée penſe with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke fiue penſe. An holder by the daie two penſe with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke foure penſe. A maiſter calker, by the day foure penſe with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke ſix penſe. Another meane calker by the daie thrée penſe with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke fiue penſe. A calker laboring by the tide, for as long time as he maie labor aboue the water and beneath the water ſhall not excéed for his wages for euerie tide foure penſe with meat and drinke, & from the feaſt of Michaelmas to Candelmas, the wages of a maiſter ſhipwright by the daie foure penſe with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke ſix penſe. An hewer by the daie thrée penſe with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke fiue penſe. An able clincher by the daie two penſe halfepenie with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke foure penſe halfepenie. An holder by the daie thrée halfepenſe with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke thrée penſe. A maiſter calker by the daie thrée penſe with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke fiue penſe. Another meane calker by the daie two penſe halfepenie with meat and drinke, and without meat and drinke foure penſe halfepenie.

¶ Be it alſo enacted, that in ſuch ſhires and countries, where it hath béene and is now vſed to giue leſſe wages, that in thoſe ſhires and countries they ſhall giue, and the taker of the ſaid wages be compelled according as they haue leſſe vſed to take, this act notwithſtanding. And the maiſter maſon and maiſter carpenter, which ſhall take the charge of the worke hauing vnder him or them ſix men ſhall haue ſeuen penſe without meat and drinke, and fiue penſe by the daie with meat and drinke, and euerie perſon and artificer ſpecified in this ſtatute being not reteined in anie ſeruice for anie worke be compelled, to ſerue euerie other perſon for ſuch wages as in this ſtatute before is limited, and that no artificer reteined in anie ſeruice, to worke with the kings Perſons hired ſhall not depart till the worke be finiſhed. highneſſe or anie other perſon, depart not from his ſaid highneſſe, or from the ſaid other perſon, till ſuch time as the worke be finiſhed: if the perſon ſo reteining the artificer ſo long will haue him and paie his wages, vpon paine of impriſonment of anie perſon ſo departing by the ſpace of a moneth, & to make fine for twentie ſhillings. Alwaies prouided and foreſéene, that if the ſame artificer be deſired to the kings ſeruice & worke, that then he maie lawfullie depart, ſo that he enter and be in the kings ſeruice and worke. And it is further ordeined by the ſaid authoritie that euerie other laborer & artificer not afore named ſhall take from Eaſter to Michaelmas for euerie daie that he ſo laboreth, except the ſeaſon of harueſt foure penſe without meat & drinke, and two penſe Harueſt people. with meat & drinke. And from Michaelmas till Eaſter thrée penſe without meat and drinke, & thrée halfe penſe with meat and drinke: and in the ſame time of harueſt euerie mower ſhall take by the daie foure penſe with meat & drinke, and without meat and drinke ſix penſe, a reaper & carter euerie of them iij.d. by the daie with meat and drinke, and without meat & drinke v.d. A woman laborer and other laborers euerie of them two penſe halfepenie, and that no artificer nor laborer, working but the halfe daie, take no wages but for the halfe daie & nothing for the holie daie, & if anie bailife of huſbandrie, hine, carter, ſhepherd, common ſeruant, woman ſeruant, or child ſeruant aboue ſpecified, Refuſe to worke not reteined in anie ſeruice or worke, refuſe to ſerue or worke, according to the ordinanſe aboue ſpecified: then the ſame perſon to be committed to ward by the conſtable, or other head officer within the citie, towne, or village, where the partie ſo refuſing is, at the complaint of him that will receiue ſuch ſeruant, there to remaine till he haue found ſuretie to ſerue according to the ſaid ordinance.
Furthermore if anie artificer, or laborer, being not reteined in anie ſeruice or worke, refuſe
to

to ſerue, after the rate of his eſtate, or to take greater or more wages, than therein is limited for the ſame artificers, and laborers, or if anie artificer or laborer, take wages for the whole daie, where he worketh but the halfe daie, that then euerie artificer or laborer offending in anie of the foreſaid articles, to forfeit for euerie default as oft as they offend xx. ſhillings. And they to be conuicted for euerie ſuch default by preſentment afore the iuſtices of peace, in the ſeſſions according to the common law, or by examination of the iuſtices of the ſame ſeſſions, or by examination of two iuſtices of peace, out of the ſeſſions in anie place within the ſhire, wherein they be iuſtices, and where ſuch defaults ſhall be made. And that the ſaid forfeiture of twentie ſhillings to be leuied of their lands, goods, and chattels ſo offending. And furthermore where diuerſe artificers and laborers, reteined to worke and ſerue, waſt moſt part of the daie, and doo not deſerue their wages, ſometime in late comming to their worke, earlie departing there fro, long ſitting at their breakefaſt, at their dinner, and at their noone meat, and long time of ſleeping at after noone to the loſſe and hurt of ſuch perſons as the ſaid artificers and laborers beene reteined within ſeruice. It is therefore eſtabliſhed, enacted, and ordeined, by authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie artificer and laborer be at worke betweene the middeſt of the moneth of March, and the middeſt of the moneth of September, before fiue of the clocke in the morning, and that he haue but halfe an houre for his breakefaſt, and an houre and a halfe for his dinner, at ſuch time as he hath ſeaſon for ſleepe to him appointed by the ſaid eſtatute, & at ſuch time as it is herein appointed, that he ſhall not ſleepe, then he to haue but an houre for his dinner, and halfe an houre for his noone meat, and that he depart not from his worke betweene the midſt of the moneth of March and September, till betweene ſeuen and eight of the clocke in the euening. And if they or anie of them offend in anie of theſe articles, that then their defaults to be marked by him or his deputie, that ſhall paie their wages, and at the weeks end to be abated of ſuch rate of time as they haue offended. And that from the midſt of September, to the midſt of March, euerie artificer and laborer be at their worke in the ſpringing of the daie, and depart not till night of the ſame daie, and that the ſaid artificerrs & laborers ſleepe not by daie, but onelie from the midſt of the moneth of Maie, vnto the midſt of Auguſt. And it is enacted by the ſame authoritie, that if anie artificer or laborer, reteined in ſeruice with anie perſon of building or reparation, doo aſſault, or make, or cauſe to be made anie aſſemblie, to aſſault, harme or hurt anie perſon aſſigned to controll, or ouerſee them in their working, that he or they ſo offending, haue impriſonment for a yeere without letting to baile or mainpriſe. And furthermore to make fine at the kings will. The ſame aſſemblie or aſſault to be tried by examination before the iuſtices of peace, as is aforeſaid. This act to begin and take effect at the feaſt of Whitſuntide next comming, and in the meane time the ſame to be proclaimed in euerie good citie, borough, & towne of this realme.

the vſing of ſuch action, that the partie defendant is, or latelie was dwelling if the kings writ there be currant, and elſe to the next ſhire adioining to the countie or counties, or other places, whereof the partie is called, or latelie ſuppoſed by the ſaid exigent to haue his being of, where the kings writ ſo runneth not, and in euerie action, as beforeſaid, whereof the exigent ſhall be directed into London or Midd. and the defendant or defendants in the ſame called late of London or Midd. and at the time of the exigent awarded not hauing his or their dwelling in London or Midd. then the writ of proclamation to be awarded made and directed vnto the ſhirife of the ſhire, where the defendant at the time of the exigent ſo againſt him or them awarded, ſhall haue his dwelling: or in caſe where the kings writ runneth not, vnto the next ſhire therevnto adioining, the which ſaid writ of proclamation ſhall conteine the effect of the ſame action, and that the ſhirife of the countie, to whom anie ſuch writ of proclamation ſhall be directed, to make thrée proclamations within his countie at thrée ſeuerall daies, that is to ſaie, two of the ſame proclamations in the full and plaine ſhire court of the ſame countie, and the third of the ſaid proclamations to be made at the generall ſeſſions in thoſe parties, where the partie defendant is ſuppoſed to be dwelling, or in the parties of the countie next adioining to the countie or counties, where the kings writ runneth not, that the partie defendant yéeld himſelfe to the ſhirife of the forren countie, to whom anie ſuch exigent in anie action perſonall is awarded, ſo that the ſhirife of ſuch forren countie maie vpon his yéelding haue the bodie of the ſaid defendant before the iuſtices, before whom anie ſuch exigent is awarded, at yͤ day of the ſame exigent compriſed, there to anſwer to the plaintife in the ſame according to the law. And that euerie ſuch writ of proclamation ſhall haue the ſame daie of returne as the writ of exigent, vpon ſuch forren actions ſo awarded ſhall haue: and that euerie ſuch writ of proclamation be deliuered of record to the ſhirife or deputie of the countie, into the which anie ſuch writ of proclamation is to be awarded. And that the ſhirife of the ſame countie dulie doo execute the ſame, and thereof make true returne at the daie of the ſame writ appointed, vpon paine to forfeit ſuch amerciament vnto the king our ſoueraigne lord, and to his heires, as by the diſcretion of the iuſtices, before whom ſuch exigent ſhall be returneable, to be ſet: And that the officer, in whoſe office ſuch exigent is taken, make out the ſaid writ and writs of proclamation, as hereafter ſhall be awarded in anie of the ſaid courts. And that the ſame officer take no more for the making of anie ſuch writ of proclamation, and the entring of the ſame of record, but onelie ſix penſe. And if anie outlawrie hereafter be had, or promulgated againſt anie perſon or perſons, in anie action perſonall, in anie forren countie, and no writ of proclamation (as is aforeſaid) awarded and returned, that then euerie ſuch outlawrie to be vtterlie void and of none effect ne force in the law. And that all outlawries had contrarie to this act be auoided by auerrement without ſuing of anie writ of error.

An act auoiding deſtructions and pulling downe of townes.

Chap.5.

THe king our ſoueraigne lord, calling to his moſt bleſſed remembrance, that where great inconueniences be and dailie increaſe by deſolation, pulling downe & deſtruction of houſes, and townes within this realme, and laieng to paſture lands, which cuſtomablie haue béene manured, and occupied with tillage and huſbandrie whereby idleneſſe dooth increaſe. For where in ſome one towne two hundred perſons, men, women and children, and their anceſtors time out of mind were dailie occupied and liued by ſowing of corne and graines, bréeding of cattell, and other increaſe neceſſarie for mans ſuſtenance. And now the ſaid perſons and their progenies be miniſhed and decreaſed, whereby the huſbandrie, which is the greateſt commoditie of this realme for ſuſtenance of man, is greatlie decaied, churches deſtroied, the ſeruice of God withdrawen, chriſten people there buried, not praied for, the patrones and curates wronged, cities and market townes brought to great ruine and decaie, neceſſaries for mans ſuſtenance made ſcarce and déere, to people ſore miniſhed in the realme, whereby the power and defenſe there of is féebled and impaired, to the high diſpleaſure of God, and againſt his lawes, and to the ſubuerſion of the commonweale of this realme, and deſolation of the ſame, if ſubſtantiall and ſpéedie remedie be not therefore prouided, wherfore the king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame ordeineth, ſtabliſheth & enacteth, that all ſuch townes, villages, boroughs, and hamlets, tithing houſes, and other inhabitations in anie pariſh, or pariſhes within this realme, whereof the more part the firſt daie of this preſent parlement was or were vſed and occupied to tillage and huſbandrie by the owner or owners thereof for their owne ſingular profit, auaile and lucre, wilfullie hath ſith the ſaid firſt daie, or hereafter ſhall be ſuffered or cauſe to fall downe and decaie, whereby the huſbandrie of the ſaid townes, villages, boroughs, hamlets, tithing houſes, and other inhabitations and pariſhes within this realme, béene or hereafter ſhall be decaied and turned from the ſaid vſe and occupation of huſbandrie and tillage into paſture, ſhall be by the ſaid owner or owners, their heirs, ſucceſſors, or aſſignes, or other for them within one yéere next after ſuch wilfull decaie, reedified and made againe méet and conuenient for people to dwell and inhabit in the ſame, and to haue vſe, and therein to exerciſe huſbandrie and tillage, as at the ſaid firſt daie of this preſent parlement, or ſithen was there vſed, occupied, and had, after the maner and vſage of the countrie, where the ſaid land lieth, at the coſts and charges of the ſame owner or owners, their heires, ſucceſſors or aſſignes. And if ſithens the ſaid firſt daie of this preſent parlement anie lands, which at the ſame firſt daie or ſithen, were commonlie vſed in tillage, bin incloſed, or from henſefoorth ſhall be incloſed and turned onelie to paſture, whereby anie plough or huſbands houſe within this realme is or ſhall be heereafter decaied, that then all ſuch lands, ſhall be by the ſame owner or owners, their heires, ſucceſſors, or aſſignes, or other for them, within the yeere next inſuing the ſame decaie put in tillage, and exerciſed, vſed, and occupied in huſbandrie and tillage, as they were the ſaid firſt daie of this preſent parlement, or any time ſithen, after the maner and vſage of the countrie, where ſuch land lieth. And if anie perſon or perſons doo contrarie to the premiſſes or anie of them, that then it be lawfull to the king, if anie ſuch lands or houſes beene holden of him immediatlie, or to the lords of the fees, if anie ſuch lands or houſes beene holden of them immediatlie, to receiue yeerlie halfe the value of the iſſues and profits of anie ſuch lands, whereof the houſe or houſes be not ſo mainteined and ſuſteined. And the ſame halfe deale of the iſſues and profits, to haue, hold, & keepe, to his or their owne vſe, without anie thing therefore to be paied or giuen, to ſuch time as the ſame houſe or houſes be ſufficientlie builded or repaired againe. And that no maner of freehold be in the king, ne in anie ſuch lord or lords, by the taking of anie ſuch profits of or in anie ſuch lands in no maner of forme: but onelie the king and the ſaid lord or lords haue power to take, receiue, and haue the ſaid iſſues and profits, as is aboueſaid. And therefore the king, or the ſaid lord or lords to haue power to diſtreine for the ſame iſſues and profits to be had and perceiued by them in forme aboueſaid by authoritie of this preſent act.

Lords of the fee.

Be it further enacted, that if anie of the ſaid lord or lords immediat doo not execute the premiſſes according to the tenor of this act: that then the lords immediat aboue them, within halfe a yeere next after that, haue, receiue, and take the moitie of the iſſues and profits thereof, in like maner and forme as is aforeſaid, of the ſaid lords immediat, and ſo euerie lord or lords from one to an other, to haue like time and aduantage of and in the premiſſes, as in this act is conteined.

Lords immediat.

Prouided alwaie, that this act extend not, nor be not preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie parke or parks, or anie marſh or marſhes, for walling or incloſing the ſame, within this realme. This act to continue vnto the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord next comming.

Parks. Marſhes.

An act for remitting priſoners with their indictments to the places where the crimes were committed.

Chap. 6.

WHere diuerſe felons and murderers vpon feigned & vntrue ſurmiſes, haue often times remooued as well their bodies as their indictments by writ & otherwiſe before the king in his bench, and cannot by the order of the law be remitted and ſent downe to the iuſtices of gaole deliuerie, or of the peace, ne other iuſtices, ne commiſſioner, to proceed vpon them after the courſe of the common law: be it therefore ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the iuſtices of the kings bench (for the time being) haue full authoritie and power by their diſcretions to remaund and ſend downe as well the bodies of all felons and murderers, brought or remooued, or that ſhall be remooued or brought before the king in his bench, as their indictments, into the counties where as the ſame murders or felonies haue been committed and doone. And to command all iuſtices of gaole deliuerie, iuſtices of peace, and all other iuſtices, and commiſſioners, and euerie of them, to proceed and determine vpon all the foreſaid bodies and indictments, ſo remooued after the courſe of the common law, in ſuch maner as the ſame iuſtices of gaole deliuerie, iuſtices of peace, and other commiſſioners, or anie of them might or ſhould haue doone, if the ſaid priſoners or indictments had neuer beene brought into the ſaid kings bench.

An act concerning wages for botemen.

Chap. 7.

WHere as by the laudable cuſtome and vſage within this realme of England, time out of mind vſed, that euerie of the kings ſubiects, and all other perſons paſſing by the riuer of Thames or Midwaie, and repairing to the ſame by water in barge or whirribote, that is to ſaie, from London to Grauesend, and from Grauesend to London, one perſon or mo, to haue a barge of the owners or occupiers of the ſame to paſſe themſelfe with their males, or fardels betweene the ſaid places, for the ſum of foure ſhillings or elſe euerie perſon paſſing in the ſaid barge, to paie for himſelfe, or for himſelfe, his male or fardell, two penſe, ſo that the ſum of two penſe of euerie perſon, amount to the ſum of foure ſhillings. And a whirribote betweene the ſaid places, for the ſum of two ſhillings, hath beene compelled to paſſe foorth at euerie tide, betweene the ſaid places. And in likewiſe it hath beene vſed of like time, that euerie of the kings ſubiects, and all other perſons paſſing or repairing by water in the tide bote or whirribote from London to Erith, Grenhith, Graiſforocke, or Purflete, or from anie of the ſaid places to London, one perſon or mo to haue a whirribote of the owners or occupiers of the ſame bote, to paſſe themſelfe with their males or fardels betweene euerie of the ſaid places, for the onelie ſum of twelue penſe, or elſe euerie perſon paſſing in the ſaid bote or whirrie, to paie for himſelfe, or for himſelfe his male or fardell one penie, ſo that the ſum of one penie of euerie perſon, amount to the ſum of twelue penſe, hath beene compelled to paſſe foorth at euerie tide betweene the ſaid places. And alſo it hath beene vſed of like time, that euerie of the kings ſubiects, and all other perſons, paſſing, or repairing by water in the tide bote or whirribote from London to Woolwich, or from Woolwich to London, one perſon or mo to haue a bote or whirrie of the owners, or occupiers of the ſame, to paſſe themſelfe with their males and fardels)betweene the ſame places)for the onelie ſum of eight penſe, or elſe euerie perſon paſſing in the ſaid bote or whirrie to paie for himſelfe,his male or fardell,one halfepenie,ſo that the ſum of a halfepenie of euerie perſon amount to the ſum of eight penſe,hath beene compelled to paſſe forth at euerie tide betweene the ſaid places. And alſo it hath beene vſed of like time, that euerie of the kings ſubiects, and all other perſons, paſſing or repairing by water in bote or whirrie from London to Greenwich, or from Greenwich to London, one perſon or mo to haue a bote or whirrie of the owners or occupiers of the ſame,to paſſe themſelfe with their males and fardels,betweene the ſame places, for the onelie ſum of foure penſe, or elſe euerie perſon paſſing in the ſaid bote or whirrie, to paie for himſelfe, or for himſelfe his male or fardell one halfepenie, ſo that the ſum of a halfepenie of euerie perſon amount to the ſum of foure penſe, hath beene compelled to paſſe forth at all times betweene the ſame places.And that of like time it hath beene vſed and accuſtomed, that euerie of the kings ſubiects, and all other perſons, paſſing or repairing by water, in bote or whirrie from London bridge, the Old ſwan, the Crane in the Vintree, Paules wharffe,or from S.Marie Oueries to Weſtminſter,or Lambeth, or from Weſtminſter or Lambeth to anie of the ſaid places,one perſon or mo to haue a bote or whirrie of the owners or occupiers of the ſame,to paſſe themſelues with their males and fardels betweene euerie of the ſaid places,for the onelie ſum of three penſe,or elſe euerie perſon,paſſing in the ſaid bote or whirrie,to paie for himſelfe,or for himſelfe and his fardell one halfepenie,ſo that the ſum of a halfe penie of euerie perſon amount to the ſum of three penſe hath beene compelled to paſſe forth at all times betweene the ſame places. And alſo it hath beene vſed of like time, that euerie of the kings ſubiects, and all other perſons paſſing or repairing from the Blacke friers, Bridewell, or from the Temple to Weſtminſter or Lambeth, or from Weſtminſter or Lambeth to anie of the ſaid places, one perſon or mo to haue a bote or whirrie of the owners or occupiers of the ſame, to paſſe themſelues with their males and fardels,betweene euerie of the ſame places,for the onelie ſum of two penſe, or elſe euerie perſon paſſing in the ſaid bote or whirrie,to paie for himſelfe,or for himſelfe his male or fardell one halfepenie, ſo that the ſum of a halfepenie of euerie perſon amount to the ſum of two penſe hath beene compelled to paſſe forth at all times betweene the ſame places. And alſo it hath beene vſed in like time,that all maner of perſons,paſſing or repairing from Weſtminſter to Lambeth,or from Standgate to Weſtminſter,or from any of the ſaid places ouerthwart the water,one perſon or mo to haue a bote or whirrie to paſſe betweene euerie of the ſaid places,in maner and forme aforeſaid,for the onelie ſum of a halfepenie, and the owners or occupiers of botes haue bin compelled to paſſe forth at all times betweene the ſame places for the ſame ſum. And alſo it hath bin vſed of like time,that euerie of the kings ſubiects,and all other perſons paſſing from London to Mortlake,or from Mortlake to London,one or mo to haue a bote or whirrie of the owners or occupiers of the ſame,to paſſe themſelues with their males or fardels betweene the ſaid places, for the onelie ſum of xij. d. or elſe euerie perſon, paſſing in the ſaid bote or whirrie, to paie for himſelfe,or for himſelfe his male or fardell two penſe, ſo that the ſum of two penſe of euerie perſon amount to the ſaid ſum of xij. d. All ſuch lawdable cuſtoms & vſages, notwithſtanding the owners or occupiers of the ſaid barges,botes,and whirries, now refuſe and will not paſſe with no man for the ſaid ſums,except that they haue according to their owne wils and deſires, to the great let and inquietneſſe of all the kings ſubiects, and of all other that paſſe and repaire by the ſame and contrarie to the ſaid ancient vſages and cuſtoms. For breaking of which ordinance,diuerſe and manie aſſaults and fraies dailie beene made,ſo that oftentimes thereof manſlaughter doth inſue. And ouer that,the poore huſbandman and other houſholders, dwelling nigh about where ſuch ferries bin vſed,can haue no ſeruants that will ſerue by the yeere, but onelie by the weeke, and at the weekes end to be at their libertie,to the intent that they may be watermen,for their ſingular and exceſſiue lucre in that behalfe. Be it therefore enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed, by the king our ſouereigne lord,the lords ſpirituall and temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid laudable cuſtome and vſages, in maner and forme before rehearſed,be obſerued and kept, and dulie put in execution in euerie point. And that all and euerie the watermen rowing in great barges with anie lord or lords, or other perſon or perſons, whatſoeuer they be,take no more for his wages or labor by the daie than vj.d.without meat or drinke, except he row to Mortlake or Greenwich, and than to take viij. d. onelie without meat and drinke. And that if the king ſubiects, or anie of them, or anie other perſon or perſons from henſeforth require the owners or occupiers of any ſuch barges, botes, or wherries,at anie of the ſaid ferries,to paſſe with them,offring them monie for their fare or fares, in forme as is afore ſpecified: or elſe if the ſaid lords,or other, require the ſaid watermen to go with them in their barges or barge, for the vj.d. aboueſaid, and the ſaid owners or occupiers, watermen or bargemen, refuſe to paſſe forth with him or them for the ſame fare or wages, that the ſame owners or occupiers of ſuch barges, botes,or whirries,or the ſaid watermen or bargemen ſo refuſing, & euerie of them, for euerie ſuch refuſall, to forfeit the treble value of the fare, fares, or wages ſo refuſed: the one halfe of the ſaid treble value of the ſaid fare,fares,or wages,to be to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king, & that other halfe to him that will ſue in that behalfe,which ſute yͤ partie that in that caſe will ſue to haue his ſute by action of debt,information,or preſentment,and the partie defendant there not to be admitted to wage his law,ne to be eſſoined,ne protection for him to be allowed in the ſame And ouer that be it lawfull to the bailifs,conſtables, & other of the kings officers, & euerie of them,in euerie place

Chap. 8.

Where at the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the xiiij. daie of Ianuarie, after the laſt prorogation thereof, in the fift yeere of the kings moſt noble reigne, the commons and inhabitants (clothmakers and buiers of the ſame) within the countie of Deuonſhire, praied and deſired, that where diuerſe and manie clothes, called white ſtraights, be and haue been continuallie made within the ſaid countie,to the great profit of the kings ſubiects there, the which clothes were wont to be well and ſufficientlie made,and to beare their bredth,yard brode and halfe quarter raw, and fifteene yards of length. And that no man in times paſt hath vſed to make them,but that the maker thereof hath ſet his ſpeciall marke vpon euerie of the ſaid clothes, ſo by him or them made,whereby euerie man maie know their owne clothes from other mens, by reaſon of their ſaid ſeuerall marks, ſo at the ſaid parlement it was ſhewed by the inhabitants (clothmakers and buiers of the ſame)in the countie aforeſaid,that now a daies the ſaid clothes be not ſufficientlie made, ne beare their length and bredth according as they ſhould doo ne marked with eueris mans owne marke,whereof great inconuenience doth dailie inſue and increaſe,to the impoueriſhing and hurting aſwell of the kings ſubiects, buiers, and ſellers of the ſame, as mer- chants ſtrangers, whereof the premiſſes conſidered,it was therefore enacted by the king our ſoue- reigne lord,by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall,and temporall,and the commons in the ſame parle- ment then aſſembled,and by the authoritie of the ſame,that from the feaſt of Pentecoſt next after the making of the ſaid act, no perſon ſhould make anie ſuch cloth, called white ſtraights, to ſell, without that he or they be when they be raw readie to be tucked of the bredth of a yard and halfe a quarter,and of length fifteene yards,and that no perſon make no ſuch clothes,but if he ſet his ſpeciall marke vpon euerich of the ſaid clothes, ſo by him or them made, and that no perſon vſe no marke on his clothes ſuch as anie other perſon doth and hath vſed before him, vpon paine of forfeiture of euerie of the ſaid clothes,the one halfe thereof to be to king,and the other halfe thereof to him that ſo ſeizeth the ſaid clothes ſo made or marked contrarie to the forme and effect afore expreſſed,and this act to indure vnto the firſt daie of this preſent parlement, and foraſmuch as the ſaid act is thought to be verie neceſſarie and behouable.Be it therefore ordeined eſtabliſhed and enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord,and the lords ſpirituall and temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,and by authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid act, concerning making of clothes called white ſtraights,and euerie thing therin conteined ſtand and be in his full ſtrength vertue and effect. And ouer that it is ordeined by the ſaid authoritie, that no perſon nor perſons from the feaſt of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt next comming, ſhall make anie ſuch clothes called white ſtraights,ne anie cloth of that making of ruſſet colour called ruſſet ſtraights, without that they and euerie of them (being raw) be of the bredth and length before rehearſed, and to be marked in maner and forme before expreſſed, and ſo being raw, to weie fourteene pound by true weight at leaſt,vpon paine of forfeiture of euerie of the ſaid clothes made,and being leſſe in length or elſe in breadth,or markt contrarie to the forme and effect before rehearſed : or elſe being of weight contrarie to the forme before expreſſed : the one halfe of the ſaid forfeiture to be to the king,and the other halfe to him that ſo ſeizeth the ſaid clothes ſo made,and being of weight contrarie to the forme and effect aforeſaid,and this act to indure for euer.

Weauer. Item that the weauer which ſhall haue the weauing of anie woollen yarne to be webbed into cloth, ſhall weaue worke, and put into the web for cloth to be made therof, as much and all the ſame Marke. yarne as the clothier or anie perſon for him ſhall deliuer to the ſame weauer, with his vſed marke put to the ſame without changing or any parcell therof, leauing out of the ſame web, or that to reſtore to the ſame clothier, the ſurpluſe of the ſame yarne, if anie ſhall be left not put into the ſame web, and without anie more oile, bran, moiſture, duſt, ſand, or other thing deceiuablie putting or caſting in the ſame web, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie default thrée ſhillings foure penſe.

Market. Item that no maner perſon buie anie coloured wooll or coloured woollen yarne of anie carder, ſpinner, or weauer, but onelie in open market, vpon paine of forfeiture of ſuch wooll and yarne wrought.

Fuller. Item, that the walker and fuller ſhall trulie walke, full, thicke, and worke euerie web of woollen yarne, which he ſhall haue to walke, full, thicke, or worke, without anie flocks, or anie other maner deceipt to be vſed on the ſame, and ſhall not row, nor worke anie cloth of web with anie cards on the right ſide, nor on the wrong ſide, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch default, 6.s.8.d.

Clothier. Item, that the clothier, nor other perſon whatſoeuer he be, ſhall not put anie cloth to ſale, which when it ſhalbe full wet, ſhall ſhrinke more than one yard in all the length, & one quarter of a yard in the bredth for the more part thereof: & clothes called narrowes or ſtraights, after the rate, vpon Forfeit. paine to forfeit for euerie cloth otherwiſe put to ſale, ſix ſhillings right penſe, and beſide to deduct of his priſe for the ſame to be rebated to the buier thereof, aſmuch after the rate as the ſame cloth ſo otherwiſe put to ſale, being full wet, ſhall be ſhrunke more than one yard of that it was in length time of the ſame ſale, and as it ſhall (being wet) want of the bredth of one yard, and thrée quarters of a yard.

Buiers Item that the buier of woollen clothes, denizen or alien after the buieng, therof, ſhall not draw nor cauſe to be drawen in length, nor ſtraine, nor doo to be ſtrained in bread the ſame clothes or anie of them by tentor or wrinch, or by anie other meane, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie of the ſame clothes ſo to be drawen, or ſtreined, fiue pounds.

Prouided alwaie that if ſuch buier of woollen clothes for proofe cauſe the ſame to be wet, he maie draw or ſtraine them for euening of them onlie, ſo that he excéed not one yard in length more than it ſhall be when it ſhall be full wet. Item that no maner of perſon worke or put vpon anie Flocks woollen clothes any flocks or other deceiueable thing, vpon paine to forfeit for any cloth ſo wrought deceiueablie with flocks, or other deceiueable thing, xx. s. Item that no maner perſon buie or ſell Meaſure anie woollen clothes, by other meaſure more or leſſe than after the true content therof to be moten and meaſured by the yard, adding to euerie yard, one inch of the rule, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie cloth to the contrarie meaſured fiue pounds. The one moitie of all the ſaid forfeitures to be to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and to euerie perſon which ſhall ſue by writ, bill, or other plaint of debt in that behalfe againſt the perſon dooing to the contrarie of anie of the ſaid ordinances, the other moitie. And that the defendant in anie plée vpon anie ſuch action, be not admitted to wage anie law, nor anie protection nor eſſoine for anie ſuch defendant be allowed in the ſame.

Prouided alwaie that this act extend not to woollen clothes called kendals, nor clothes called carpenell whites commonlie made for lining for hoſen, nor to anie clothes toſtokes made in the countie of Deuonſhire, nor to anie woollen clothes made in the countie of Cornwall, nor for anie cottons or plain lining or friſe made or to be made in Wales, Lancaſhire & Cheſhire, or any of them.

Chap. 10.

WHere in the parlement of the right noble prince Henrie the ſixt late (king of England holden at Weſtminſter, the ſixt yéere of his reigne, one good eſtatute was made and ordeined, that for ten yéeres then next following ſeuerall commiſſions of ſewars ſhould be made to diuers perſons by the chancellor of England for the time being, to be named in diuers parties of this realme, where néed were, after the forme & tenor of a commiſſion in the ſaid act ſpecified, which act & other acts for the authoritie of ſuch commiſſioners, & executions of the ſame, haue ſithen béene made & ordeined, and continued as bin more plainlie rehearſed in the parlement holden in the fourth yéere of the reigne of king Henrie (late king of England) the ſeuenth. And in the ſame parlement the ſaid fourth yéere it was among other enacted, & eſtabliſhed, that for fiftéen yéeres than following ſeuerall commiſſions of ſewers ſhould be made to diuerſe perſons by the chancellor of England for the time being to be named in all parties of this realme, & of the marches of Calis, Guines, & Hams, where néed ſhould be made according to the ſaid commiſſion, conteined in the ſaid ſixt yéere of king Henrie the ſixt, & that all ſuch commiſſioners ſhould haue full power, to make, ordeine, and execute ordinances, and all other things doo according to the purport of the ſame commiſſion, which fiftéene yeeres compriſed in the ſaid act aforeſaid beene now determined, pleaſeth it therefore the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, to ordeine, eſtabliſh, and enact, that the ſaid acts, and all other acts and authorities heretofore made concerning commiſſioners of ſewars and their commiſſions and authoritie not being before this time, time repelled, abide, and ſtand from henſeforth good and effectuall to indure for euer. And alſo that the chancellor of England, for the time being ſhall haue from henſeforth full power and authoritie, for euer to grant commiſſioners of ſewars into euerie part of this realme, & the ſaid marches where néed is or ſhall be to certeine perſons by the ſaid chancellor, for the time being to be named according to the forme and effect of the ſaid commiſſion and act expreſſed in the ſaid parlement, holden the ſaid firſt yéere of the reigne of king Henrie the firſt. And ouer that be it ordeined, enacted and eſtabliſhed by the ſaid authoritie, that all ſuch commiſſioners haue and ſhall haue full power and authoritie to put their commiſſion in due execution, and to make and execute ſtatutes and ordinances, and all other things to doo after the effect and purport of their commiſſion, and that all commiſſions of ſewars granted or made ſithen the ſaid twentie yeeres determined, and the acts ordinances and all executions and other things by the commiſſioners of the ſame, concerning the ſaid commiſſions or anie two of the ſame commiſſioners, and euerie thing in the ſame compriſed, be and ſhall be effectuall and of like ſtrength, as if the ſaid commiſſion had béene made or granted within the ſaid fiue and twentith yeeres immediatlie after the ſaid parlement holden the ſaid fourth yéere of the reigne of king Henrie the ſeuenth.

Continuance. L. Chanc. Commiſſions

And alſo be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie that the chancellor of England, for the time being ſhall make no commiſſion to anie perſon or perſons for the execution of this act, except he haue lands and tenements of eſtate of fréehold to the yeerelie value of twentie pounds at the leaſt, or els be iuſtice of Quorum learned within anie of the ſhires where he ſhall be made commiſſioner.

Commiſſioners 20 pounds freehold

And if anie ſuch commiſſion be directed to anie perſon or perſons not hauing lands and tenements to the yéerelie value of twentie pounds, or not being one of the iuſtices of Quorum, learned as aforeſaid, that euerie ſuch commiſſion, & all preſentments and accuſations had and preſented before anie ſuch commiſſioners & alſo all and euerie fines ſet by the ſaid commiſſioner or commiſſioners to be vtterlie void and of none effect. This act to indure but for ten yeeres, and fro the end of the ſame ten yeeres vnto the next parlement.

An act for bowſtaues to be brought into this realme by ſtrangers.

Chap.11.

Where by an act of parlement holden at Weſtminſter the xiiij. date of October, in the third yéere of the reigne of king Richard the third, in deed, and not in right king of England, it was enacted, that no marchant of Venice, nor other, wont to reſort into this realme with merchandize of thoſe parts, bring into this ſaid realme anie merchandizes, but if the ſame merchant bring with euerie but of Malmſeie, and with euerie but of Tire, ten bowſtaues of good and able ſtuffe, vnder paine of forfeiture of xiij.s. iiij.d. for euerie but of the foreſaid wines ſo brought, and not the number of the ſaid bowſtaues with the ſaid but, the one halfe thereof to the king, and the other halfe thereof to the partie that for the ſame will ſue, as by the ſaid act and ordinance more plainelie appeareth. The intent of which act and ſtatute, and the minds of the makers thereof was, that the ſaid eſtatute ſhould not extend to anie of the kings ſubiects borne within this realme of England, Wales, or Ireland, but onelie vnto merchants of Venice, and other merchants ſtrangers, wont to reſort into this realme with merchandizes of thoſe parties. And this notwithſtanding, diuerſe the kings ſubiects (borne within this realme of England (of late haue béene inquieted, vexed, and troubled in the kings excheker, for bringing of Malmeſeis into this realme without bowſtaues, contrarie to the true intent of the ſaid act and eſtatute, wherefore be it enacted, ordeined, iudged, and declared, by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid act made in the third yéere of the ſaid late king Richard, extend not to anie of the kings ſubiects, borne within this realme, Wales, or Ireland, but that they and euerie of them be forepriſed out of the ſaid act, for anie penaltie to be leuied in anie wiſe vpon them or anie of their executors or adminiſtrators, but that they and euerie of them be diſcharged by the authoritie of this parlement of all maner of actions, ſutes, billes of complaints, taken, ſued, or to be taken and ſued in the kings excheker, or anie other of his courts, or anie other court or courts, place or places for anie penaltie or ſums of monie compriſed in the ſaid act, for or concerning anie thing ſpecified in the ſaid act. This act to indure to the next parlement.

Expoſition.

An act for Norfolke wools not to be carried out of the land.

Chap.12.

Where as much people, being in the citie of Norwich, and countie of Norfolke, haue béene well occupied by wools, which haue growne in the ſaid countie of Norfolke, as in ſpinning and weauing of worſted, ſhearing thereof, dieng, and calendring of the ſame, whereby great commoditie of worſteds and ſtamins haue béene well mainteined within this realme. And although the ſaid wools, growing in the ſaid ſhire of Norfolke, be no ſtaple wools, yet be there diuerſe ſtrangers (intending the deſtruction of the ſaid commoditie of worſted making to be vſed in this realme) haue now of late conueied out of the ſame countie of Norfolke, by ſhips into the parties of Holland, and Zeland, beyond the ſea, great plentie of wools, that hath growne in the ſaid countie of Norfolke, and vpon the borders of the ſame, of which like wools the ſaid worſteds and ſtamins haue béene accuſtomed to be made within the ſaid citie and countie: which wools in no wiſe will ſerue to drape or make anie woollen clothes, but onelie ſerue to the vſe of making of the ſaid worſteds:

Ships of wools.

Forfeit.

Licences void.

and of them (as it is ſaid) the ſtrangers and aliens intend to make worſteds and ſtamins in the ſaid parties beyond the ſea, to the vtter vndoing of the ſaid citie and countie, and deſtruction of the ſaid commodities of worſteds, if remedie be not therfore redilie prouided, wherfore by the aſſent of the king our ſoueraigne lord, and his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, be it enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed, that from henſeforth, no perſon ne perſons, of what degrée or condition they or he be of, take vpon him or them to ſhip, carrie, or doo to be ſhipped or carried into anie parts beyond the ſea, anie maner wooll or wools, growing or héereafter ſhall grow there vſuallie called Ireland, or anie other wools growing within the ſame ſhire, or the borders of the ſame, neceſſarie and behouefull vnto the inhabitants there, for the making and weauing of worſteds and ſtamins aforeſaid, &c, within the ſaid ſhire of Norfolke, or anie part of the ſame ſhire, vpon paine of forfeiture of euerie ſtone of wooll ſo ſhipped, carried, or conueied xl. s. the one part of ſuch forfeiture to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other of the ſaid forfeiture to him or them that will ſue therefore, by action of debt, by writ at the common law, or plaint in anie court of record within the ſaid realme, or by information in the kings excheker, in which action none eſſoine nor protection ſhall be allowable for the defendant. And that all licences thereof granted, or héereafter to be granted, and euerie of them, be vtterlie void, and héereafter take none effect, &c. And this act to indure to the next parlement.

An act concerning the auoiding of ſhooting and keeping of croſbowes and handguns.

Chap.13.

300.mark lands.

Seize.

Placards void.

Where the kings ſubiects dailie delight themſelues in ſhooting in croſbowes, whereby ſhooting in long bowes is the leſſe vſed, and diuerſe good eſtatutes for reformation of the ſame haue béene made and had, and that notwithſtanding manie and diuerſe not regarding nor fearing the penalties of the ſaid eſtatutes, vſe dailie to ſhoot in croſbowes and handguns, whereby the kings deare, and other lords of this his realme are deſtroied, and ſhall be dailie deſtroied more and more, vnleſſe remedie therefore be prouided. Wherefore be it ordeined and enacted, by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no maner of perſon from henſeforth ſhoot in anie croſbow, or handgun, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame bow and gun, vnleſſe he or other to his vſe, or to the vſe of his wife, haue lands and tenements, fées, annuities, or other profits, to the yéerelie value of thrée hundred marks. And for euerie time ſo vſing to ſhoot in croſbow or handgun, to forfeit ten pounds for euerie time ſo offending, and that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie of the kings ſubiects, to ſeize and take anie ſuch croſbow or gun, and them to haue and reteine to his owne vſe. And that euerie man that will purſue for the ſaid penaltie of ten pounds, to haue the one moitie, and the king to haue the other moitie. And that no man after the feaſt of Whitſontide next comming, keepe in his houſe ne elſewhere, any croſbow or handgun, vpon paine of impriſonment, and to forfeit to our ſoueraigne lord the king ten pounds, vnleſſe that he or other to his vſe, haue lands and tenements to the yéerelie value of thrée hundred marks, as is aboueſaid. And that all placards, or other licence giuen by the king our ſoueraigne lord to anie perſon or perſons, to ſhoot in croſbowes, be from henſeforth void and of none effect. And that all the ſaid defaults beforeſaid, be aſwell puniſhable before the kings councell by examination, as before the iuſtices of peace by examination or preſentment. And that in anie action to be taken for anie the ſaid penalties, the defendant ſhall not wage his law.

Prouided alwaie, that this act extend not to the makers of croſbowes, but that they maie lawfullie kéepe croſbowes in their houſes, and ſhoot in croſbowes onelie for prouing and aſſaieng of them.

Sea coſts.

Prouided alwaies, that in all walled townes within ſeauen miles of the ſea, and other towns or holds ſtanding vpon the ſea coſts, or vpon anie of the Engliſh marches for againſt Scotland, it ſhall be lawfull to euerie man, dwelling in ſuch townes or holds, to kéepe in their houſes being within the ſame townes, croſbowes and handguns, for the onelie defenſe of the ſaid townes, holds, and houſes, and aſwell to exerciſe and vſe them, in and for the defenſe of the ſaid townes and houſes being in the ſame townes, as for to carrie them to their ſhips, there to kéepe and exerciſe them for the defenſe of their ſhips, and for goods in the ſame ſhips, and for none other cauſe: any thing compriſed or expreſſed in this ſaid act, or anie other act or acts tofore made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, that if anie perſon or perſons, héereafter in anie part doo offend, or doo contrarie to the purueie and remedie of this act, whereupon there is cauſe of action for the ſame giuen to the king or his heires, or to anie other perſon or perſons, that will ſue by vertue of this act, for the puniſhment of the ſaid offenſe or forfeits, that if the king our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, or his heires, within a yéere next & immediatlie after ſuch offenſes & forfeits had and made, doo not purſue their action or actions ſo giuen by this ſaid act, or cauſe examination vpon ſuch defaults & offenſes to be had and made before their counſell, according to the meaning of the ſame act: & euerie one perſon, which héereafter maie haue action or actions vpon this eſtatute, within halfe a yeere next and immediatlie after ſuch offenſes and forfeits, had & made, doo not commenſe their ſutes, informations, or preſentments, of & vpon the ſaid forfeits, by action or otherwiſe, as of & vpon ſuch forfeits as be declared and expreſſed in the ſaid act: that then aſwell the king our ſaid ſoueraigne lord and his heires, after a yéere next after ſuch offenſes and forfeits had and made, if no ſute in his or their name be taken by action oꝛ otherwiſe (as is afoꝛe expꝛeſſed) befoꝛe the ſame yéere ended and determined, as euerie other perſon after halfe a yéere next after like offenſes and foꝛfeits had and made in foꝛme afoꝛeſaid, if no ſute therevpon be taken by none of them in foꝛme aboue declared, be vtterlie excluded and barred of their ſaid ſutes, actions, and examinations to them giuen by vertue of this ſaid act, and the parties and euerie of them ſo offending, be of all ſuch offenſes and foꝛfeits cléerelie diſcharged and quite, anie thing in this act oꝛ anie other act oꝛ acts héeretofoꝛe made and compꝛiſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding, and as though this act had neuer béene had ne made.

Repeale.

And alſo pꝛouided and be it enacted, that all other acts had and made, at anie time befoꝛe the beginning of this pꝛeſent parlement, onelie concerning ſhooting in croſbowes, be from henſefoꝛth vtterlie void and of none effect.

Pꝛouided alſo that this act, oꝛ anie thing therein conteined, extend not noꝛ be pꝛeiudiciall to any merchants, the which haue oꝛ ſhall haue anie croſbowes oꝛ handguns, to ſell within this realme, and to none other vſe.

Pꝛoclam.

Pꝛouided alwaie, that no maner perſon run in anie danger, oꝛ take hurt by reaſon of any penaltie oꝛ foꝛfeiture conteined in this act, to ſuch time pꝛoclamation be made of the ſame act, noꝛ by the ſpace of twentie daies next after the ſaid pꝛoclamation be made within the countie, where the partie that ſhall oꝛ maie offend contrarie to the tenoꝛ of this act, dwelleth.

Pꝛouided alſo, that if anie maner of perſon, bꝛing, oꝛ doo to be bꝛought with him into his lodging, oꝛ into anie other mans houſe, anie croſbow oꝛ handgun, that then the penaltie and foꝛfeiture (if anie ſuch be oꝛ heereafter ſhall be foꝛfeited by reaſon of this act) to run and be onelie vpon the bꝛinger of the ſaid croſbow and handgun, and not to the owner of the ſame lodging oꝛ houſe, anie thing in this act made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Placard.

Pꝛouided alwaies that this act (concerning croſbowes and handguns) ne anie thing therein conteined, extend oꝛ in anie wiſe be hurtfull to anie perſon oꝛ perſons, to whome it ſhall pleaſe the king our ſoueraigne loꝛd oꝛ his heires to licence by his placard, as well to ſhoot in croſbowes oꝛ handguns and in euerie of them, as to haue and kéepe the ſame croſbows and handguns in his oꝛ their houſes foꝛ the defenſe of the ſame, and that it be enacted by authoꝛitie of this pꝛeſent parlement, that euerie ſuch licence by the kings placard, oꝛ his heires to be made, ſhall be as good and effectuall in the law to euerie ſuch perſon oꝛ perſons, hauing the ſame foꝛ anie thing concerning this act of croſbowes and handguns, as though it were vnder the great ſeale.

An act for the kings ſubſidie of tunnage and poundage.

Chap. 14.

WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, the xij. yéere of the reigne of king Edward the fourth, amongſt other things it is oꝛdeined and pꝛouided: that if anie marchandizes were ſhipped to be carried into the parties beyond the ſea, oꝛ bꝛought from the ſaid parties into anie poꝛt of this realme, and there put to land and diſcharged by waie of merchandizes, the ſubſidie of tunnage and poundage, thereof due to the king not paied, noꝛ therefoꝛe agréed with the collectoꝛs of the ſaid ſubſidie in the poꝛt, where it ſhould happen the ſaid merchandizes to be ſhipped oꝛ diſcharged: that then the ſaid merchandizes ſhould be foꝛfeited to the king, as in the ſame oꝛdinance moꝛe at large dooth appeare, which oꝛdinance was made to indure during the naturall life of the ſaid late king, and no longer. And ſince the expiring of the ſaid eſtatute, the kings ſubiects dailie doo bꝛing in their merchandizes, and laie it on land, and ſometime haue it into their owne houſes, the ſubſidie, tunnage, and poundage, thereof due to the king our ſoueraigne loꝛd not paid, noꝛ therfoꝛe agréed with the collectoꝛs of the ſubſidie in the poꝛt, where the ſaid merchandizes is ſo laid on land: By reaſon whereof the king our ſoueraigne loꝛd that now is, dailie dooth ſuſteine great and manifold deceipts and loſſes in the paiment of theſe ſubſidies, and moꝛe is like to ſuſteine if remedie be not pꝛouided in this behalfe. Be it therefoꝛe oꝛdeined by the king our ſoueraigne loꝛd, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the loꝛds ſpirituall and tempoꝛall, and the commons in this parlement aſſembled, & by authoꝛitie of the ſame parlement, that the ſaid oꝛdinances ſtand and be good & effectuall during the naturall life of the king our ſoueraigne loꝛd that now is, and no longer.

Continuation.

An act adnulling ſecond letters patents, during the kings pleaſure, making no mention of the firſt letters patents.

Chap. 15.

THe kings highneſſe of his goodneſſe calling to his remembꝛance, that where his grace hath granted to diuerſe of his ſeruants (foꝛ their ſeruice to his grace doone) lands, tenements, fées, offices, & other things, to haue them during his pleaſure: & after other perſons, by their ſundꝛie ſutes haue obteined of his highnes other letters pattents of the ſame, not aduertiſing his grace of his foꝛmer grants, whereby the ſaid foꝛmer patentées haue bin auoided and put from the aduantage of their ſaid foꝛmer grants and patents, contrarie to the intent and grant of our ſoueraigne loꝛd. Wherefoꝛe be it oꝛdeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by our ſaid ſoueraigne loꝛd, the loꝛds ſpirituall and tempoꝛall, & the commons in this pꝛeſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoꝛitie of the ſame, that if anie perſon oꝛ perſons, from henſefoꝛth, doo make ſute to the kings highneſſe foꝛ anie lands, tenements, offices, oꝛ anie other things, ſo by his grace granted, oꝛ héereafter to be granted to anie perſon oꝛ perſons, during his pleaſure, the ſaid firſt patentée, then being in life, that he doo expꝛeſſe in his ſaid bill of petition oꝛ patent, the tenoꝛ of the ſaid foꝛmer patent. And that the king then hath determined his pleaſure againſt the ſaid firſt patentée, oꝛ elſe the ſecond letters patents of anie of the premiſſes to anie perſon héereafter to be granted, to be void and of none effect.

This act to commenſe and take effect, from the fourth daie of Aprill next comming, and not before.

An act that no knights of ſhires, nor burgeſſes, depart before the end of the parlement.

Chap.16. FOr as much as commonlie in the end of euerie parlement, diuerſe and manie great and weightie matters, aſwell touching the pleaſure, weale, and ſuretie of our ſoueraigne lord the king, as the commonweale of this his realme and ſubiects, are to be tracted, communed of, and by authoritie of parlement to be concluded. So it is that diuerſe knights of ſhires, citizens for cities, burgeſſes for boroughs, and barons of the cinque ports, long time before the end of the parlement of their owne authorities depart and goeth home into their countries, whereby the ſaid great and weightie matters are manie times greatlie delaied. In conſideration whereof be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that from henſeforth none of the ſaid knights, citizens, burgeſſes, and barons, nor anie of them, that héereafter ſhall be elected to come, or be in anie parlement, dóo not depart from the ſame parlement, nor abſent himſelfe from the ſame, till the ſame parlement be fullie finiſhed, ended or proroged, except he or they ſo departing, haue licence of the ſpeaker and commons in the ſaid parlement aſſembled and the ſame licence be entred of record in the bóoke of the clerke of the parlement, appointed or to be appointed for the common houſe, vpon paine to euerie of them ſo departing or abſenting themſelues in anie other maner, to lóoſe all thoſe ſummes of monie, which he or they ſhould or ought to haue had for his or their wages. And that all the counties, cities, and boroughs, whereof anie ſuch perſon ſhall be elected, and the inhabitants of the ſame, ſhall be cléerelie diſcharged of the ſaid wages againſt the ſaid perſon and perſons, and their executors for euermore.

Licence.

An act for clenſing of the riuer of Canturburie.

Chap.17. IN moſt humble wiſe ſhewen the kings highneſſe his true and faithfull ſubiects, the maior, aldermen, citizens, and inhabitants of the citie of Canturburie, that where the ſaid citie is one of the ancient cities of this realme, and thorough the ſame hath béen and yet is great recourſe of ambaſſadors, and other ſtrangers from the parties of beyond the ſea, where alſo the bodies of the holie confeſſor and biſhop of ſaint Auſtin the apoſtolike of England and alſo manie other holie ſaints béene honorablie humate and ſhrined, is now of late in great ruine and decaie, and the inhabitants thereof impoueriſhed, and manie great manſions in the ſame deſolate, which ruine, decaie, and deſolation, of like cannot be reformed ne amended, vnleſſe the riuer that goeth & extendeth from the towne of great Chart, in the countie of Kent to the ſaid citie, and through and fro the ſaid citie vnto the hauen of Sandwitch, maie be ſo déeped, inlarged, and of mils and dams and other annoiances now being in and ouerthwart the ſame riuer, betwéene the ſaid citie and the common crane in the towne of Fordwitch, be auoided, ſkoured, and taken awaie: which riuer betwéene the ſaid citie and crane, conteineth in length two miles, ſo that cariages by lighters and botes, maie by the ſaid riuer be conueied betwéene the ſaid crane in the ſaid towne of Fordwitch, vnto the ſaid citie, which déeping, inlarging, and ſkouring of the ſaid riuer, as is beforeſaid, ſhall not be onelie to the profit and auaile of the ſaid citie, and inhabitants of the ſame, but alſo ſhall cauſe the hauen of the towne and port of Sandwitch to be déeper and larger, to the great commoditie of great number of the kings ſubiects, in conſideration whereof it maie pleaſe the king, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, to enact and eſtabliſh, that the ſaid maior, aldermen, citizens, and inhabitants of the ſaid citie, and their ſucceſſors, with the aduiſe, aſſent, and agréement as well of the reuerend father in God William archbiſhop of Canturburie, or his ſucceſſors, and of two or thrée knights being iuſtices of peace of the ſhire of Kent, for the time being, as of the maior of the towne and port of Sandwitch aforeſaid, to the ſaid works, at the requeſt of the ſaid maior of the ſaid citie, for the time being, deſired and called, maie lawfullie at all and euerie time héereafter in ſuch places of the ſaid riuer, as to the ſaid knights, maiors, and aldermen, ſhall ſéeme conuenient, déepe, inlarge, clenſe, inhanſe, and ſkoure, and cauſe to be déeped, inlarged, and clenſed the ſaid riuer, with all things therevnto requiſit betwéene the ſaid towne of Chart, and the ſaid citie, and through the ſame, and fro the ſaid citie vnto the ſaid crane, in ſuch maner as lighters and botes maie haue by the ſame riuer their full paſſage and courſe for carriage by the ſame to be conueied, and without let, interruption, impeachment, diſturbance or deniall of anie perſon or perſons. And after ſuch déeping, inlarging, inhanſing, clenſing, ſkouring (as is beforeſaid) dóone, the ſaid maior, aldermen, citizens, and inhabitants of the ſaid citie, with the aſſent and conſent (as is beforeſaid) obteined, may lawfullie aſwell ſtop ditches, and make and inhanſe baies, brinks, dams, and wals, for the aduancing and inhighing of the ſaid riuer, as to take downe, abate, and put awaie all mils, bridges, dams, wals, and other whatſoeuer impediment lieng ouer or ouerthwart the ſaid riuer, betwéene the ſaid towne of great Chart, to the ſaid citie, and through the ſame, and fro the ſaid citie to the foreſaid common crane, and other things therevnto requiſit, whereby the concourſe of the ſaid lighters and botes ſhould be letted: and that no action nor ſute therefore be Prouided alwaies, that euerie perſon that ſhall be damnified by putting awaie or abating of his mill, bridge or dam, or mils, bridges or dams, ſhall be reaſonablie ſatiſfied therefore, for ſuch damages as he or they ſhall haue by reaſon of the ſame, by the ſaid maior, aldermen, citizens and inhabitants of the ſaid citie and their ſucceſſors, as the ſaid archbiſhop of Canturburie that now is, and his ſucceſſors, and the ſaid knights ſhall award, conſider and adiudge.

An act for continuance of the vnderſhirifs of Briſtow.

Chap.18.

Where at a parlement holden at Weſtminſter the firſt daie of Maie, in the thirtéenth yéere yeere of the reigne of king Edward the third, amongſt other things it was ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that no ſhiriffe, vnderſhiriffe, ne clerke of ſhiriffe, ſhould continue or abide in his office ouer one yéere as by the ſaid eſtatute more at large it dooth appeare: which eſtatute in a parlement holden at Weſtminſter the fiue and twentith daie of Februarie, in the thrée and twentith yéere of the reigne of king Henrie the ſixt, among other was rehearſed, and by authoritie of the ſame parlement, then was ordeined, that the ſaid eſtatute among other ſhould be dulie obſerued in euerie ſhire of England, the vnderſhirifs, and all other officers within the citie of London, that then were, or after that ſhould be, alwaies excepted. And ſuch counties onlie excepted, in which diuerſe of the léege people of the ſaid king, in or to the office of the ſhiriffewike at that day were inheritable. And alſo ſuch perſons as at that time had eſtate of fréehold in the office of anie ſhiriffewike, and letters patents to them made of the office of ſhiriffewike, and their vnderſhirifs and clerks excepted.

And ouer that by the ſame eſtatute of Henrie the ſixt, it was ordeined and enacted, that if anie ſhiriffe, vnderſhiriffe, or clerke of ſhiriffe occupie the offices of ſhiriffe, vnderſhiriffe or clerke of ſhiriffe contrarie to the eſtatute before recited, or againſt the effect or intent of the ſame, except before excepted, that then he that ſo occupieth ſhould forfeit the ſum of two hundred pounds yéerelie as long as he occupieth contrarie to the effect of the ſaid eſtatute.

And that euerie pardon in time to come to be made for ſuch offenſe or occupation, of forfeiture of ſums, ſhould be void and not auailable, and all patents made and to be made of anie of the ſaid offices for terme of yéeres, terme of life in fée ſimple, or fée taile to anie of the kings léege people (except before excepted) ſhould be void and of no value by the ſame authoritie, anie clauſe or word (De non obſtant.) to be put in ſuch patents to be made notwithſtanding. And that euerie of the kings léege people, that will ſue for the ſum forfeited againſt him or them, that in ſuch maner ſhall forfeit, ſhalbe receiued & admitted to ſue an action of debt in his owne name, and the king to haue the one moitie of all that, that by that action ſhould be recouered, & he that ſo ſhall ſue ſhould haue the other moitie, as by the ſaid eſtatutes among other things more plainelie it dooth appeare. Be it now enacted, eſtabliſhed and ordeined by the king our ſoucreigne lord, by the aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that it ſhall be lawfull for the vnderſhiriffe, or vnderſhirifs, and all other officers of ſhirifs that now be, or héereafter ſhall be within the ſhire of the towne of Briſtow from henſeforth to continue & occupie their ſaid offices, and euerie of them from yéere to yéere, in like maner & forme as the vnderſhirifs and other officers of ſhirifs within the citie of London doo and may doo, without anie penaltie or forfeiture for the ſame, the ſaid act or acts before expreſſed, or anie other act or acts before this time had or made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

ſcarſe and deere, the people ſore miniſhed in the realme, whereby the power and defenſe thereof is feebled and impaired, to the high diſpleaſure of God, and againſt his lawes, and to the ſubuerſion of the commonweale of this realme, and deſolation of the ſame, if ſubſtantiall and ſpeedie remedie be not therefore prouided. Wherefore the king our ſouereigne lord, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, ordeineth, eſtabliſheth, and enacteth, that all ſuch townes, villages, boroughs and hamlets, tithing houſes, and other inhabitations in anie pariſh or pariſhes within this realme, whereof the more part the firſt daie of this preſent parlement was or were vſed and occupied to tilling and huſbandrie by the owner or owners thereof, for their ſingular profit, auaile and lucre, wilfullie ſithens the ſaid firſt daie be or heereafter ſhall be ſuffered or cauſed to fall downe and decaie, whereby the huſbandrie of the ſaid townes, villages, boroughs, hamlets, tithing houſes, and other inhabitations and pariſhes within this realme, beene or heereafter ſhalbe decaied and turned from the ſaid vſe and occupation of huſbandrie and tillage into paſture, ſhall be by the ſaid owner or owners, their heires, ſucceſſors, or aſſignes, or other for them, within one yeere next after ſuch wilfull decaie reedified, and made againe meet and conuenient for people to dwell and inhabit in the ſame, and to haue, vſe, and therein to exerciſe huſbandrie and tillage, as at the firſt daie of this preſent parlement, or ſithens was there vſed, occupied, and had after the maner and vſage of the countrie where the ſaid land lieth, at the coſts & charges of the ſame owner or owners, their heires, ſucceſſors or aſſignes. And if ſithens the ſaid firſt daie of this preſent parlement, anie lands, which at the ſame firſt daie, or ſithens, were commonlie vſed in tillage, beene incloſed, or from henſeforth ſhalbe incloſed, be turned onelie to paſture, whereby any houſe of huſbandrie within this realme is or ſhall be heereafter decaied, that then all ſuch lands ſhall be by the ſame owner or owners, their heirs, ſucceſſors or aſſignes, or other for them within one yeere next inſuing the ſame decaie put in tillage and exerciſed, vſed and occupied in huſbandrie and tillage, as they were the ſaid firſt daie of this preſent parlement, or anie time ſithens, and after the maner and vſage of the countrie where ſuch land lieth. And if any perſon or perſons doo contrarie to the premiſſes, or any of them: that then it be lawfull to the king, if anie ſuch lands or houſes beene holden of him immediatlie, after office or inquiſition founden therof, comprehending the ſame matter of record, or to the lords of the fees, if anie ſuch lands or houſes beene holden of them immediatlie without office or inquiſition thereof had, to receiue yeerelie halfe the value of the iſſues and profits of anie ſuch lands, whereof the houſe or houſes of huſbandrie, be not ſo mainteined and ſuſteined, and the ſame halfe deale of the iſſues & profits to haue, hold and keepe to his or their owne vſe, without anie thing thereof to be paid or giuen, to ſuch time as the ſame houſe or houſes be ſufficientlie reedified, builded, or repaired againe for the exerciſing and occupieng of huſbandrie: and immediatlie after that, aſwell the intereſt and title giuen by this act to our ſouereigne lord the king, as to the lords of the fee to ſeize, & no longer to indure. And that it ſhalbe lawfull to the owner & owners of ſuch lands, houſe or houſes, holden immediatlie of our ſaid ſoureigne lord the king, to haue & inioy the ſame, and to take the iſſues & profits thereof, as if no ſuch office or inquiſition had euer beene had or made. And that no maner of freehold be in the king, ne in anie ſuch lord or lords, by vertue of this act, or taking of anie ſuch profits, of or in anie ſuch land in no maner of forme, but onelie the king & the ſaid lord or lords haue power to take, receiue and haue the ſaid iſſues and profits, as is aboueſaid, and therfore the king, or the ſaid lord or lords to haue power to diſtreine for the ſame iſſues and profits to be had and perceiued by them, in forme aboueſaid, by authoritie of this preſent act.

L. immediat

Be it further enacted, that if anie of the ſaid lord or lords immediat doo not execute the premiſſes according to the tenor of this act, that then the lords immediat aboue them, within halfe a yeere next after that, to haue, receiue & take the moitie of the iſſues and profits thereof, in like maner and forme as is aforeſaid, of the ſaid lords immediat: and ſo euerie lord or lords from one to another to haue like time and aduantage of and in the premiſſes, as in the ſaid act is conteined.

An act concerning the maintenance of the kings nauie.

Chap.2.

Wines

Woad

WHere in a parlement holden at Weſtminſter the ſecond yeere of the reigne of the late king Henrie the ſeuenth, it was enacted by the authoritie of the parlement, for the maintenance of the nauie of this relme of England and the mariners of the ſame, that no maner of perſon ſhould bring into this realme of England, Ireland, Wales, Calis, or the marches thereof, or into Barwike, anie wines of the growing of Guion, Gaſcoine, or woad called Tholouſe woad, but ſuch as ſhall be conueied, aduentured and brought in ſhip or ſhips, whereof our ſaid ſouereigne lord, or ſome of his ſubiects of this realme of England, Ireland, Wales, Calis, or Barwike bin owners, poſſeſſors and proprietaries, and the maiſters and mariners of the ſame ſhip be Engliſh, Iriſh, Welſh, or men of Barwike, Calis, or marches of the ſame, for the more partie, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame wines and Tholouſe woad ſo brought in contrarie to the ſaid act. And now of late diuerſe perſons, as well aliens as denizens, haue obteined of our ſouereigne lord the king that now is,diuerſe licences to bring in wines of the growing of Gaſcoine and Guion,and Tholouſe woad,which licence be to the great hurt,preiudice,and to the decaie of the ſaid nauie of this realme,and the mariners of the ſame. Wherefore be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement,that all ſuch licences héere before made (not executed before the feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming)foraſmuch as then ſhall not be executed before the ſaid feaſt,from henſeforth to be void and of none effect.

Licences void.

An act concerning actions popular and ſtatutes penall.

Chap.3.

Where diuers and manie penall ſtatutes and ordinances haue béene made and ordeined, ſome whereby the puniſhments giuen onelie to the king our ſoueraigne lord, his heires and ſucceſſors by action,writ,bill,indictment or information,and ſome whereby the king by himſelfe,anie other common perſon for the king or for himſelfe onlie maie ſue by writ, bill, indictment or information againſt the offendor or offendors in that behalfe,and bicauſe of long tract of time,and for ſparing of the ſute therof,and that then after ſuch long tract of time,diuerſe and manie of the kings true ſubiects haue bin in time paſſed, vexed and troubled for the penalties conteined in the ſaid ſtatutes and ordinances, more for malice than for iuſtice, whervpon periuries haue inſued to the great trouble and vexation of the kings true ſubiects,their heires and executors,being ignorant of the ſaid ſtatutes and offenſes, wherefore and for the tender loue and zeale that our ſoueraigne lord the king beareth to his ſaid louing ſubiects, and at their humble deſire. Be it enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed by his highneſſe, and by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all and ſingular ſuch actions, ſutes, bils, indictments or informations, as from the twentith daie of the moneth of Nouember, the ſeuenth yéere of our ſaid ſoueraigne lords reigne, ſhall be commenſed, taken,ſued, had or made onelie for anie debt, moueable goods or chattels forfeited and loſt,or to be forfeited or loſt,whereto the king onelie, his heires or ſucceſſors,and none other common perſon,ſhall or maie be intituled by reaſon of the ſaid penall ſtatutes or anie of them,ſhall be commenſed,ſued,taken or had within foure yéeres next after the offenſe or offenſes, forfeiture or forfeitures,of or for the ſame had or made againſt the ordinance and prouiſion of anie ſuch act or acts, ſtatute or ſtatutes penall, and not after the ſaid foure yéeres. And that for anie offenſe or forfeiture made or had, or to be made or had againſt the ordinance and prouiſion of anie act or acts penall,made and ordeined,or to be made and ordeined,wherby action, ſute, bill, or information popular is or ſhall be giuen to anie perſon or perſons, ſuch as will ſue for the king and for him or themſelues,or onelie for him or themſelues,that ſuch action,bill ſute or information be commenſed, ſued, had and made by ſuch perſon or perſons, other than the king,as will ſue in that behalfe,within one yeere next after the offenſe or forfeiture,had, made, or committed againſt the ordinance and prouiſion of any ſuch act or acts penall,and not after the ſaid yéere ended.And that the kings ſute by writ,bill,plaint,indictment or information on that behalfe, be commenſed,ſued,had or made within two yéers next after the offenſe or forfeiture made or had againſt the prouiſion and ordinance of anie act or acts,ſtatute or ſtatutes penall, and not after the ſaid two yéeres.And if anie action,ſute,bill,indictment or information concerning the foreſaid ſtatutes or anie of them, had or made otherwiſe, than within the time or times limited as is aforeſaid, that then the ſame action, ſute, bill, indictment and information, and euery of them commenſed, ſued, had or made for the ſaid offenſe or offenſes, forfeiture or forfeitures, ſhall be void and of no force ne effect.Anie act or acts,ſtatute or ſtatutes made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Time to ſue penall ſtat.

Prouided alwaie, that where anie action, information or indictments is limited by anie ſtatute to be had,made,or taken within ſhorter time or times than (as is afore rehearſed) that it be had,made,and taken according to the time limited in that eſtatute.

Au act concerning aduoures for rents and ſeruices.

Chap.4.

Where as diuers,as well noble men as other the kings ſubiects, haue ſuffered recoueries againſt them of diuers their manors, lordſhips, lands and tenements for the performance of their wils,or for the ſuretie of their wiues iointers,or for the iointer of ſonnes and heires apparant, and their wiues, or for anie other perſon or perſons according to their couenants and agréements, and thoſe perſons that ſo haue recouered the ſaid manors by the courſe of the common law had no remedie nor maie haue to compell the farmar, fréeholders and tenants,which held of the ſame manors by the rents, ſeruices or cuſtoms, to atturne to them, nor could by the order of the law atteine to the rents,ſeruices,or cuſtoms (if they were denied) by diſtreſſe or action,without they could once atteine to the poſſeſſion of the ſame rents,ſeruices and cuſtoms, by paieng or doing the ſaid rents, ſeruices and cuſtoms by the ſame fréeholders, farmars and tenants,which to do,diuers and manie of them haue oftentimes refuſed,and yet do to the great offenſe and charge of their conſcience,not onlie to the diſheritance of the ſaid recouerers, but alſo in breaking of the laſt wils of them againſt whom ſuch recouerie is had, & alſo to the diſheritance of the ſaid huſband,wiues and other,to whoſe vſe the ſame recouerie was ſo had. Alſo if there were anie aduouſon appendant to anie of the ſaid manors, the ſame aduouſon had fallen void, and a ſtranger had preſented the ſaid recouerers, nor they to whoſe vſe the ſame recoueries were had, had no remedie for the ſame diſturbance,and ſometime thereby they haue béene diſinherited. Be it therfore enacted by this preſent parlement,and by the authoritie of the ſame,that the recouerers in all ſuch recoueries,their heires,& all aſſignes,maie from henſeforth diſtreine for the foreſaid rents, ſeruices and cuſtoms ſo being due and vnpaid,and make auowrie or iuſtifie the ſame, as thoſe perſons againſt whome the ſaid recouerie is,ſhould haue doone,if the ſaid recouerie had not beene had, and alſo haue like remedie for the recouering of the ſaid rents, ſeruices and cuſtoms by auowrie. And alſo Quare impedit for the ſaid aduouſon,if any diſturbance be made,as thoſe perſons againſt whome the ſaid recoueries were had, might or ſhould haue had by the courſe of the common law afore the ſaid recouerie,if anie ſuch rents,ſeruices or cuſtoms had beene denied them,or anie ſuch diſturbance had bin had in their times.And alſo that euerie auowant,and euerie other perſon or perſons that maketh auowrie,cognizance or knowledge, or iuſtifie, as bailiffe to anie other perſon or perſons in anie replegiarie,ſecond deliuerie for anie rent,cuſtome or ſeruice,if their auowrie,cognizance or iuſtification be found for them or the plaintifs in the ſaid actions otherwiſe barred, ſhall recouer their damages & coſts that they haue ſuſteined, as the plaintiffe ſhould haue doone, if they had recouered in the ſaid repleuies.

An act concerning artificers and laborers,

Chap.5.

The act that here ſhould follow is afore in Anno ſexto,the third chapter, word for word, and therfore I leaue it out now,for I ſuppoſe it was miſtaken when the acts were printed in times paſt.

An act concerning artificers and laborers within the citie of London.

Chap.6.

WHere at the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the fift daie of Februarie, in the firſt yeere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, and proroged to the mondaie next after the feaſt of S.Martin laſt paſt,amongſt other things it was ordeined and enacted,what wages ſeruants of huſbandrie,laborers & artificers ſhould take, as in the ſaid ſtatute more plainlie doth appeare. Now at the humble petition of the free maſons,rough maſons,bricklaiers,carpenters, ioiners, caruers, plaiſterers, dawbers, tilers, hillers,plummers,glaſiers,laborers, apprentiſes, and ſeruants to ſerue with the ſaid artificers, inhabitants within the citie of London, in conſideration of the great charges of their houſe rent, their vittell,and alſo be chargeable to and with diuers offices, as conſtables, ſkauengerſhip, and other when it happens,and alſo with lot and ſkot, with manie other things in the ſaid citie vſed and accuſtomed,which charges be more there than in anie other place within this realme.In conſideration whereof,be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all and euerie of the ſaid artificers, labourers and their ſaid apprentiſes, working within the ſaid citie, or within the libertie of the ſame,from henſeforth maie take for their wages like wages as they did take before the ſaid eſtatute had or made,the ſame former act notwithſtanding.

Wages

And if the ſaid artificers and their apprentiſes worke out of the ſaid citie of London,and the libertie and franchiſe of the ſame, that then they and euerie of them take but onelie ſuch wages as is compriſed in the ſaid former ſtatute. And alſo that all ſuch artificers and laborers as ſhall from henſeforth worke within the ſame citie and libertie of the ſame in the kings works, that they nor none of them take anie more wages,but as it is expreſſed in the ſaid former ſtatute. And that the penaltie compriſed in the ſaid former ſtatute extend not, but onelie to the taker, and not to the giuer,the ſaid former act notwithſtanding.

An act concerning apparell to be vſed and worne.

Chap.7.

FOraſmuch as the great and coſtlie arraie and apparell vſed within this relme,contrarie to the good ſtatutes thereof made, hath beene the occaſion of great impoueriſhing of diuers of the kings ſubiects,and prouoked diuers of them to rob and to doo extortion and other vnlawfull deeds to mainteine therby their coſtlie arraie : in eſchewing whereof,be it ordeined by the authoritie of this preſent parlement,that no perſon,of what eſtate,condition or degree that he be,vſe in his apparell anie cloth of gold of purpure colour, or ſilke of purpure colour,or fur called fur of blacke genets,but onlie the king, the queene, the kings mother,the kings children,the kings brethren and ſiſters,vpon paine to forfeit the ſaid apparell, wherewith ſo euer it be mixt,& for vſing the ſame to forfeit for euerie time ſo offending twentie pounds. And that no man other than the kings children, vnder the ſtate of a duke or marques, vſe in anie apparell of his bodie, or vpon his horſſe or horſſe harneſſe, anie cloth of gold,of tiſſue, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame apparell wherwith ſoeuer it be mixt,garded or brodered,& that for vſing the ſame to forfeit for euerie time ſo offending twentie marks. And that no man other than the kings children,or vnder the degree of a duke or dukes ſonne,and heire apparant,marques or erle,vſe or weare in his apparell anie fur of ſables,vpon paine to forfeit the ſame apparell,& for vſing the ſame to forfeit for euerie time ſo offending twentie marks. And that no man vnder the degree of the ſonne of a duke,marques or erle,and the ſons & heires apparant of & vnder the degree of a baron, vſe in his apparell of the bodie.or of his horſſe or horſſes harneſſe,anie cloth of gold or cloth of ſiluer,ne anie ſuch apparell mixt,garded & imbrodered with gold or ſiluer,vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame apparell,and for vſing the ſame to forfeit for euerie time ſo offending x. marks. And that no man vnder the degree of the ſon of a duke,erle,or yͤ degree of a baron,or a knight of the garter,weare anie

And that all other ſargents of all other offices of the kings moſt honorable houſhold, and all ſargents at arms, for the time being, maie vſe and weare in their apparell doublets of veluet, damaſke, or chamlet, and in their iackets and cotes, damaſke and chamlet, and gowns of chamlet at their pleaſure.

Item that the marſhals of the hals of the king, queene, and princes houſholds, and all gentlemen in euerie office, and gentlemen of the kings chapell, the maiſter cookes, the foure ſecond clerks of the kings houſhold, maie weare in their apparell doublets of blacke veluet, damaſke, or chamlet, and in their iackets or cotes, damaſke, or chamlet, and in their gowns chamlet at their pleaſure.

Item yeomen of the kings gard, and yeomen of the queens chamber, that be dailie waiters, and yeomen of the crowne, that haue the fee of the crowne, maie weare in their doublets blacke veluet, ſattin, or damaſke, and in their gowns chamlet.

Item yeomen and groomes for the mouth of the king, queene, prince, and the three porters, and all other gentlemen, fellowes in the foure ins of court, to weare in their doublets, ſattin, damaſke, or chamlet, and iackets of chamlet.

Imbroderie of gold

Item that no man vnder the degree of a ſonne of a duke, marques, or earle, or of the degree of lord, or knight of the garter, weare or vſe anie apparell of his bodie imbrodered, brooched, or garded with anie gold, ſiluer, or goldſmith worke, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame apparell, and for vſing of the ſame, to forfeit for euerie time fortie ſhillings.

Item that no other man of whatſoeuer degree he be of, weare or vſe anie apparell of his bodie imbrodered, brooched, or garded with anie other thing, than he is limited and appointed by this ſtatute to vſe and weare in his apparell, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame apparell, and for vſing of the ſame to forfeit for euerie time fortie ſhillings.

Quantitie of cloth in garments

And that no man vnder the degree of a knight, and other that be afore named, except ſpirituall men, and ſargents at the law, or graduats of the vniuerſities, vſe more cloth in a long gowne or cote aboue three yards, vpon paine of forfeiture thereof.

And no ſeruingman vnder the degree of a gentleman, vſe or weare in a gowne or cote, or ſuch like apparell, of more cloth than three brode yards in a garment, and that in the ſaid gowne, cote or garment they weare no chamlet, nor no maner fur, except lambs fur, of the growing of this relme of England, Ireland, or Wales, vpon paine to forfeit the ſaid apparell or the value thereof.

Priſe of cloth

And that no ſeruingman vnder the degree of a gentleman, weare any cloth in his hoſe aboue the priſe of twentie penſe the yard, but if it be of the leauing and gift of his maiſters hoſe, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, and for vſing of euerie paire of hoſe, whereof the yard ſhall exceed the priſe of twentie penſe as is aforeſaid, to forfeit three ſhillings foure penſe.

Silke. Aglets

And that no man vnder the degree of a gentleman, weare anie maner of ſilke or chamlet, or anie points in anie apparell of his bodie with agglets of gold or ſiluer gilded, or buttons or brooches of gold or ſiluer gilt, or anie goldſmith worke, except it be his lord or maiſters badge, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, and to loſe for euerie time ſo offending, ten ſhillings.

Linnen

And that no man vnder the degree of a knight, other than be afore except for wearing gowns of veluet, weare anie pinched ſhirt, or pinched partlet of linnen cloth, or plaine ſhirt garniſhed or made with ſilke or gold, or ſiluer, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame ſhirt or partlet, and for vſing of the ſame for euerie time ſo offending ten ſhillings.

Priſes of cloth

And that no ſeruant of huſbandrie, nor ſheepheard, common labourer, nor ſeruant vnto anie artificer out of cities nor boroughs, or huſbandman, hauing no goods of his owne aboue the value of ten pounds, vſe or weare anie cloth, whereof the brode yard paſſeth in priſe two ſhillings iiij. d. nor that anie of the ſaid ſeruants of huſbandrie, ſheepheards, ne labourers weare anie hoſe aboue the priſe of twelue penſe the yard, vpon paine of impriſonment in the ſtocks by three daies.

Church

Prouided alwaie, that this act be not preiudiciall nor hurtfull to anie ſpirituall or temporall man in wearing anie ornaments of the church in executing diuine ſeruice, nor to anie merchants ſtrangers.

War

Prouided alſo, that this act be not hurtfull ne preiudiciall to anie ambaſſadors, the maiſter of the horſſes, maiſter of the henxmen of the king, queene, or prince, the maiſter of the kings armorie, ne henxmen or footmen, harolds of arms, minſtrels, plaiers in enterludes, nor to anie man being in the kings gariſon, or in his war at the kings wages, for the time that they ſhall continue in wages there: ne to anie man wearing anie apparell to him giuen, by the kings grace, queene, or prince.

Graduats

Prouided alwaies, that neither this act nor anie thing therein conteined, be hurtfull or preiudiciall to anie doctors, graduats of vniuerſities, but that they maie weare veluet in their tippets, this act notwithſtanding.

Maiors Recorders

Prouided alſo, that it ſhall be lawfull to all them, that haue bin, be, or ſhalbe maiors, recorders, aldermen, ſhirifs, wardens of fellowſhips, and ſword bearer of London, bailifs, iurats of the cinque ports, as well of all cities, towns and boroughs corporat, as the maior, lieutenant of the ſtaple of Calis, and the gouernors of the Engliſh nation, to vſe and weare all ſuch apparell as they or their predeceſſors did or vſed in time of occupation and exerciſing of their ſaid offices or anie of them.

Prouided alwaie that this act of apparell, ne anie thing conteined in the ſame, extend not, neither be in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall vnto anie perſon or perſons, to whom it ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe to licence by his placard, to vſe or weare apparell on his or their bodies, or horſſes, contrarie to the tenor of this act.

Placard

And that it be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that euerie ſuch licence by the kings placard, by his highneſſe to be made, ſhall be as good and effectuall in the law to euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, concerning this act of apparell, as though it were vnder the kings great ſeale. And it is ordeined and enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that the gentlemen vſhers of the kings chamber (for the time being) haue the forfeiture of the ſaid apparell, worne or vſed in the kings chambers, and the gentlemen vſhers of the quéenes chamber (for the time being) the forfeiture of the ſaid apparell worne or vſed in the quéenes chambers. And the gentlemen vſhers of the princes chamber, the forfeiture of the ſaid apparell, vſed and worne in the princes chambers. And the marſhals of the kings hall, for the time being, the forfeitures of the ſaid apparell in all other places in the kings houſe out of the kings chambers, and the marſhals of the quéenes hall the forfeiture of the ſaid apparell, vſed or worne in all other places in the quéenes houſe out of hir ſaid chambers. And the marſhals of the princes hall, for the time being, the forfeiture of the ſaid apparell, vſed or worne in the princes houſe in all other places out of his ſaid chambers, contrarie to the forme aboueſaid, by meane of ſeizure thereof, or by action of detinue for the ſame, and he of the ſaid vſhers or marſhals that firſt ſeizeth or ſueth the ſaid action of detinue, to haue the ſame forfeiture. And that euerie of the ſaid vſhers and marſhals, that ſo ſhall ſeize or haue action of miſuſing of the ſaid apparell, ſhall haue the forfeiture of the ſaid penalties for vſing or wearing of the ſame, and ſhall haue action of debt for recouerie of the ſaid penalties before limited. And if none of the ſaid vſhers ne marſhals ſeize the ſaid apparell, ne commenſe their action within fiftéene daies next after the beginning of the terme next after the ſaid forfeiture: then anie of the kings ſubiects, that will firſt ſue, ſhall haue an action of detinue of the ſame apparell, and an action of debt for the ſaid penaltie forfeited for wearing or vſing of the ſame: and haue the ſame apparell, or the value therof, and the one halfe of the ſaid penaltie forfeited for the ſame to his owne vſe, and the other halfe of the ſame penaltie ſhall be to the kings vſe.

What perſhall haue
the forfeit.

Item that euerie perſon in this realme, of whatſoeuer eſtate or degrée he be of, or anie of his houſhold ſeruants, that he ſhall name and appoint, ſhall haue the forfeiture of the ſaid apparell, worne or vſed in his owne houſe contrarie to the forme of this act by meane of ſeizure thereof, or action of detinue in forme afore rehearſed, and the forfeiture of the ſaid penaltie for vſing and wearing of the ſame, and haue like actions thereof as be aboue rehearſed. And if the perſons in whoſe houſes the ſaid apparell ſhall be worne, ne anie of the ſaid ſeruants, ſeize not the ſaid apparell in his houſe, ne commenſe his action of detinue thereof, and haue action of debt for the ſaid penaltie, within fiftéene daies next after the beginning of the terme next after the ſaid forfeiture: then anie of the kings ſubiects, that will firſt ſue therefore, ſhall haue an action of detinue for the ſame apparell, and an action of debt for the ſaid penaltie forfeited for wearing of the ſame, and haue the ſame apparell, or the value thereof, and the one halfe of the ſaid penaltie to his owne vſe, and the other halfe ſhall be to the kings vſe.

Item that the warden of the fléet, and the marſhall of the kings bench, or their deputies waiting on the kings courts at Weſtminſter, ſhall haue the forfeiture of the ſaid apparell, worne or vſed at Weſtminſter hall, and the kings palace of Weſtminſter out of the kings houſe contrarie to the forme of this act, by meane of ſeizure thereof by action of detinue in the forme afore rehearſed: and the forfeiture of the ſaid penaltie, for vſing and wearing of the ſame, and haue like action thereof, as is aboue rehearſed. And if the ſaid warden and marſhall, ſeize not the ſaid apparell in the ſaid hall or palace, nor commenſe their action of detinue thereof, and an action of debt for the ſaid penaltie within fiftéene daies next after the beginning of the terme next after the ſaid forfeiture, then anie of the kings ſubiects that will firſt ſue for the ſame ſhall haue an action of detinue for the ſame apparell, and an action of debt for the ſaid penaltie forfeited for wearing of the ſame, and haue the ſame apparell or the value thereof, and the one halfe of the ſaid penaltie to his owne vſe, and the other halfe to the kings vſe.

Item that all maiors, ſhirifs and bailifs of all cities, boroughs and townes corporat in likewiſe, and the bailifs of franchiſes and liberties, ſhall haue the forfeitures of the ſaid apparell, worne or vſed contrarie to this act, euerie of them in the citie or towne corporat, franchiſe, or libertie where they ſhall be officers, by meane of ſeizure thereof, or action of detinue, in the forme afore rehearſed: and the forfeiture of the ſaid penaltie for vſing and wearing of the ſame, and haue like action thereof, as is aboue rehearſed. And if the maiors, ſhirifs, & bailifs of anie citie, borough, or towne corporat, or bailifs of franchiſes and liberties, ſeize not the ſaid apparell, ne commenſe their action of detinue thereof, and an action of debt for the ſaid penaltie within fiftéene daies next after the beginning of the terme next after the ſaid forfeiture, then anie of the kings ſubiects that will firſt ſue thereof, ſhall haue an action of detinue for the ſame apparell, and an action of debt for the ſaid penaltie forfeited for wearing of the ſame, and haue the ſame apparell or the value thereof, and the one halfe of the ſaid penalties to his owne vſe, and the other halfe to the kings vſe.

Item that the ſhirifs, vnderſhirifs, and eſchetors of euery countie of this realme, and the chéefe conſtables of euerie hundred or Wapentake, haue the forfeiture of all the ſaid apparels, worne in the counties (where they ſhall be officers out of cities, townes corporat, franchiſes and liberties) contrarie to the forme of this preſent act, by meane of ſeizure thereof, or action of detinue in the forme afore rehearſed: and the forfeiture of the ſaid penaltie for vſing and wearing of the ſame, and haue like action thereof, as is aboue rehearſed. And if the ſhirifs, vnderſhirifs, and eſchetors of the ſaid counties ſeize not the ſaid apparell, ne commenſe their action of detinue thereof, and an action of debt for the ſaid penaltie within fiftéene daies next after the beginning of the terme next after the ſaid forfeiture, then anie of the kings ſubiects, that will firſt ſue therefore, ſhall haue an action of detinue for the ſame apparell, and an action of debt for the ſaid penaltie forfeited for wearing of the ſame, and haue the ſame apparell or the value therof, and the one halfe of the ſaid penaltie to his owne vſe, and the other halfe to the kings vſe.

Reſiſtance

Item if anie perſon ſo vſing ſuch apparell, make anie reſiſtance for the deliuerie thereof, that then he for his reſiſtance, ſhall loſe and forfeit as much as he ſhould forfeit by this ſtatute, ouer all, and aboue the forfeiture and penalties conteined in this ſtatute for vſing and wearing of the ſame apparell. And that euerie of the kings ſubiects maie haue their action of detinue for the ſaid apparell ſo forfeited, and the king our ſouereigne lord to haue the one halfe of the forfeiture of the ſaid monie ſo forfeited, and that partie that will ſue, to haue the other halfe, & the ſute to be by action of debt, & that in any of all the ſaid actions of debt or detinue, the defendant ſhall not wage his law, nor be eſſoined, nor anie protection allowed: nor the partie to be barred by the kings pardon, nor be delaied by anie plée to the diſablement of his perſon. And that the lord ſteward of the kings houſe (for the time being) within the verge, and iuſtices of aſſiſe, and iuſtices of the peace, ſteward in leets or lawdaies, and euerie of them, haue alſo power to inquire and hold plée for euerie default of the premiſſes, as well by examination of the partie, as after the courſe of the common law, and to determine the ſame as well at the kings ſute, as at the parties. And that this act begin at the firſt daie of Maie next comming, and indure for euer.

Detinue

Repeals

And it is further enacted and ordeined by authoritie aboueſaid, that the act of apparell made in this preſent parlement the fift daie of Februarie, in the firſt yeare of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, and all other acts of apparell before the ſaid fift daie of Februarie made, and euerie thing in the ſaid acts, and euerie or anie of them conteined, ſhall be void, adnulled, repealed, and of none effect.

Anno decimo quarto & quinto Henrici octaui, at London the fifteenth daie of Aprill.

An act concerning brode white woollen clothes.

The firſt chapiter.

For as much as merchant ſtrangers, ſtudieng and imagining the policies, waies and means to ſet aworke the people inhabited in forren countries and regions, with and by the commodities of this realme, and to bring the kings naturall ſubiects from occupation to idleneſſe, do daily conueie, tranſport, and carrie out of this realme of England (for their owne ſingular lucre) a great number of brode white woollen clothes, to be coloured, died, and wrought in diuers and ſundrie parts beyond the ſea, to the great increaſe, comfort, profit, and aduantage of the people inhabited in the ſaid outward and forren regions, and to the vtter ruine, decaie, impouerriſhing, and vndoing of a great number of the kings owne naturall ſubiects. And for the effectuall furtherance of the ſaid euill intents and purpoſes in the premiſſes, the ſaid merchant ſtrangers, as well by colour of inhanſing of priſe of the ſaid clothes for long daies of paiment, as by faire promiſes, and ſubtill adulations, haue heretofore gotten and regrated into their hands an innumerable number of the ſaid clothes vpon their credence, amounting vnto great ſummes of monie, far excéeding their owne valures and ſubſtance, which ſummes of monie manie and often times they haue not paied, according to their appointment, whereby the makers of the ſaid clothes, ſubtillie compaſſed by and with their faire and flattering promiſes, haue ſuſtained importable loſſes, to the great impouerriſhing of this the kings owne realme, and to the inriching of the regions and countries of forren princes.

Cloth ſhall not be ſold to aliens

¶ For remedie whereof, be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by authoritie of the ſame, that from the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell next comming, no perſon or perſons, inhabited within this realme, of what eſtate, degrée, or condition ſo euer he be of, ſhall ſell or deliuer, or cauſe to be ſold or deliuered within this realme, by contract,couenant,bargaine, gift,or anie of them,or otherwiſe, to any merchant or merchants ſtrangers,being borne in anie of the parties beyond the ſea,or elſwhere,out of the kings obeizance,or to anie of his or their factors, deputies, or atturnies, ſtrangers or Engliſhmen, to the vſe of the ſaid merchant or merchants ſtrangers, anie maner of brode white woollen clothes, made, or hereafter to be made within this realme of England, vpon paine to forfeit fortie ſhillings for euerie cloth ſold or deliuered after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell, contrarie to the effect and forme of this preſent act, the one halfe of euerie ſuch forfeiture to be to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king,& the other halfe thereof to be to the perſon or perſons(other than the offendor)that will firſt ſue for the ſame,by originall of debt,bill,plaint,or information,in anie of the kings courts, after the vſuall courſe of the lawes and cuſtoms of the realme: in which ſute or action the defendant or defendants ſhall not be admitted to wage their law,ne any eſſoine, licence or protection ſhall be allowed.

Forfeit.

¶ Prouided alwaies,that if anie perſon or perſons being the kings naturall ſubiects,conueie and bring,or cauſe to be conueied and brought,anie brode white cloth or cloths to the common market,kept and holden in Blackewell hall, within the citie of London, and doo not there or elſwhere bargaine,vtter and ſell the ſaid cloth or clothes thither brought, to or with ſome Engliſh merchant or merchants within eight daies, next after the ſaid cloth or clothes ſhall be brought and ſhewed to ſell in the ſaid market : that then it ſhall be lawfull to anie ſuch perſon or perſons immediatlie after the ſaid eight daies,and not before,to contract, bargaine, vtter, ſell and deliuer his or their ſaid cloth or clothes,ſo brought and ſhewed,at and in the ſaid market,as is beforeſaid,and being vnſold to anie and euerie merchant ſtranger or ſtrangers, being priuileged, and hauing libertie to contract and buie woollen clothes freelie and openlie within the libertie of the ſaid citie of London.So that the ſaid merchant or merchants ſtrangers doo paie and deliuer for the ſaid cloth or cloths ſo by him or them tc be bought, without couine or male ingine, at and vpon the receipt of the ſaid cloth or clothes,or within one moneth next inſuing the ſaid ſale and deliuerie of the ſaid cloth or clothes, or within leſſe time, at the will of the ſeller thereof, all ſuch whole and intire ſums of readie monie or wares,or readie monie and wares,or anie of them, as was agreed and contracted to be had for the ſaid clothes, by the ſaid ſellers or ſeller of them, without anie other or further reſpit or daies of paiment to be had,made or agreed,in any behalfe,any thing before conteined in this preſent act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Readie monie

¶ Prouided alſo that this preſent act or anie thing therein conteined be not in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to anie of the kings ſubiects,for or concerning the deliuerie of anie ſuch woollen clothes to anie merchant,or merchants ſtrangers,by reaſon of any bargaine or ſale made by them or anie of them, of the ſaid clothes, before the twentith daie of Iulie, in the fifteenth yeere of king Henrie the eight. But that the ſaid kings ſubiects maie freelie and quietlie deliuer, or cauſe to be deliuered the ſaid clothes, ſo bargained and bought before the ſaid twentith daie of Iulie without anie penaltie or forfeiture, anie thing in this preſent act conteined to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

¶ And be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons at anie time heereafter, and before the ſaid feaſt of S.Michaell, bargaine or ſell to anie merchant or merchants ſtrangers, anie ſuch brode white woollen clothes, to be deliuered vnto the ſaid merchant or merchants ſtrangers,at anie time after the ſame feaſt of S.Michaell, to the intent to defraud the effect & true meaning of this eſtatute,vpon the paine before limited and expreſſed.

¶ And furthermore be it prouided that euerie of the kings naturall ſubiects, at their liberties and pleaſures, maie anie time heereafter ſell and deliuer for readie monie or wares, or for readie monie & wares,or anie of them,to be paid and deliuered,as is aforeſaid, to anie merchant or merchants ſtrangers,all maner of brode white woollen clothes, made or to be made in Cogſhall, Bocking,Blanctre, or anie of them,and white clothes called Cleinforths,and all maner of white brode woollen clothes with crumpilliſts,otherwiſe called baſtards : ſo that euerie of the ſaid white woollen clothes,conteined in this prouiſo, conteine in length ſeuen and twentie yards at the leaſt, or aboue at the water,anie thing in this preſent act conteined to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

¶ And ouer this be it further prouided,ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon or perſons, being the kings naturall ſubiects, to vtter, bargaine, contract, ſell and deliuer all maner of white brode woollen clothes to anie merchant or merchants ſtrangers, in and at all common faires to be holden and kept, within anie place or places within this relme: and alſo to all and euerie merchant ſtranger or ſtrangers,repairing from forren countries by the ſea, to anie ports or creeks within this realme with anie vittell, or other merchandize, at all times from time to time : ſo that all ſuch clothes, ſo or in anie other wiſe heereafter to be bargained and ſold to anie merchant or merchants ſtrangers,as is beforeſaid,be alwaies ſold and deliuered without couine or male ingine for readie monie or wares, or for readie monie and wares, or anie of them,to be paid and deliuered at ſuch time or times,as is before limited, without anie other or further reſpite or daies of paiment to be had.accorded and agreed in anie behalfe,anie thing in this preſent act conteined to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Faires

Redie mon.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, which doo ſell their woollen cloth or cloths to anie citizen and free man of London,without the libertie of the ſaid citie, and before the ſaid cloth or clothes be conueied and brought within the ſame citie, ſhall not be compelled

compelled by anie perſon or perſons, to bring their ſaid cloth or clothes ſold in forme aboueſaid, to the market called Blackwell hall within the ſaid citie, ne to paie anie toll, cuſtome, or other impoſition, for anie libertie or eaſe to be had in the ſame hall, for anie ſuch cloth or clothes ſo ſold, but maie freelie at their pleaſure, bring, conueie & deliuer their ſaid cloth or clothes immediatlie to the houſe or houſes of ſuch citizen and freemen, as did buie the ſame in forme aforeſaid, without anie let or diſturbance in anie behalfe.

And if anie clothmaker, or other perſon be letted or diſturbed contrarie to this act, then the letter or diſturber to forfeit to the owner of the ſaid cloth or clothes, for euerie cloth letted or diſturbed to the contrarie hereof twelue penſe, for which forfeiture the ſaid owner ſhall haue his remedie againſt the ſaid letter or diſturber, by action or plaint of debt in anie of the kings courts: in which action or plaint, the defendant or defendants ſhall not wage their law, ne anie eſſoine, licence, or protection ſhall be allowed, this act to indure vnto the laſt daie of the next parlement.

Northren whites

¶ Prouided alwaies that this act extend not to northen whites, commonlie named and called dozens, made in the north parts of this realme.

An act coacerning ſtrangers artificers for taking of apprentiſes, iournimen, and couenant ſeruants.

Chap.2.

Apprentiſe

BE it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that no manner of ſtranger borne out of the kings obeiſance, be he denizen or not denizen, vſing anie maner of handicraft within this realme, ſhall take from henſeforth anie apprentiſe, except the ſame apprentiſe be borne vnder the kings obeiſance, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie apprentiſe that hee ſhall take contrarie to this act, ten pounds, the one halfe thereof to our ſoureigne lord the king, the other halfe to him or them that will ſue for it, be it by action of debt, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe, in which ſute the defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, ne anie eſſoine, licence, or protection to be allowed.

Iournimen

¶ Be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, and vnder like paine to be forfeited and recouered as is aforeſaid, that no ſtranger being alien borne, and vſing any maner of handicraft within this realme, from the feaſt of All ſaints next inſuing, ſhall in anie maner of wiſe vſe, take, reteine or keepe into his or their ſeruices, anie maner of iourniman or couenant ſeruant aboue the number of two at one time, except the ſame iourniman or couenant ſeruant be bo[illegible]nder the kings obeiſance.

And ouer this be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all maner of perſons being aliens borne, vſing anie maner of handicraft, be they denizens or not denizens, and inhabited within the citie of London, or ſuburbs of the ſame, within the towne of Weſtminſter, the pariſh of S. Martins in the field, the pariſh of our ladie of the Strond, S. Clement of Danes without Templebar, ſaint Giles in the field, ſaint Andrewes in Holborne, in the towne and borough of Southwarke, Shordich, White chapell pariſh, ſaint Iohns ſtreet, the pariſh of Clarkenwell, ſaint Botolphs pariſh without Algate, ſaint Katherins, Barmondſeie ſtreet, or within two miles compaſſe of the ſaid citie of London, or the pariſhes aforeſaid, ſhall be vnder the ſearch & reformation of the wardens and the fellowſhips of handicrafts within the ſaid citie of London, with one ſubſtantiall ſtranger being an houſholder of the ſame craft, by the ſame wardens to be choſen, that is to ſaie, euerie ſuch ſtranger, occupieng anie myſterie or handicraft, as is aforeſaid, ſhalbe vnder the ſearch and reformation of the wardens, and one ſubſtantiall ſtranger, being an houſholder of that craft that they ſhall ſo occupie. And that the wardens of the ſaid citie of euerie ſuch handicraft, with one ſtranger or houſholder, as is aforeſaid, of the ſame craft, haue full power and authoritie by this preſent act, to limit & appoint to euerie ſtranger of the myſterie and handicraft that they be of, inhabiting within the ſaid citie, ſuburbs, places or precinct aboue remembred, a proper marke, without taking anie thing therefore, by the which their wares, veſſels, and workemanſhips that they make, maie be knowne. And that the wardens of euerie ſuch handicraft and myſterie aforeſaid, calling to them one ſtranger of the myſterie and occupation that they be of, being an houſholder, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to ſearch, view, and reforme, as well within the ſaid citie of London as in all other places and limits beforeſaid, all maner of wares of workemanſhips, made by anie maner of ſuch handdicraft men being aliens borne, as is beforeſaid.

Marks

¶ And that no ſtranger borne out of the kings obeiſance, vſing anie of the myſteries or occupations of ſmiths, ioiners, or coopers, ſhall make anie maner of wares or veſſels, concerning the ſame myſteries or occupations, except that they and euerie of them put ſuch marks to euerie of the ſame wares and veſſels, before they ſhall be put to ſale, or vſe as the wardens of their occupations, crafts or myſteries, ſhall limit and appoint, without taking anie thing therefore, vpon paine of forfeiture the double value of the ſame wares and veſſels, the one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the king our ſoureigne lord, the other halfe to the partie that firſt will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in which the defendant ſhall not wage his law, nor anie eſſoine ſhall be caſt, or protection allowed.

And further it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if vpon anie ſuch ſearch or view to be made by the wardens, and one ſtranger of anie craft or myſterie, beforeſaid, after the forme of this eſtatute, in veſſels or wares to be found in the poſſeſſion of the workers or owners thereof, putting the ſame veſſels or wares to workemanſhip of anie ſtranger falſlie and deceitfullie made, to the hurt of the kings léege people, and ſo adiudged by the ſaid wardens and one ſtranger: that then ſuch worker or owner, in whoſe poſſeſſion the ſame falſe and deceitfull wares ſhall be found, ſhall forfeit the ſame wares, the one halfe therof to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe thereof, to the firſt finder thereof, ſuing for the ſame in anie of the kings courts by action of detinue, in which action the defendant nor defendants ſhall not be admitted to wage their law, nor protection ne eſſoine be to them herein allowable.

Wardens

¶ Be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all wardens and maiſters of fellowſhips, of all and euerie ſuch handicrafts within anie ſuch citie, borough, or towne corporat within this realme, where anie ſuch wardens happen to be, and in ſuch boroughs and towns corporat, where no wardens of handicrafts are, the bailifs, or the gouernour or gouernours of the ſame boroughs or towns, ſo lacking wardens, ſhall haue like power and authoritie with the bailiffe or bailifs of the liberties with them, where anie ſuch libertie ſhall be, being content ſo to doo, to view, ſearch, and reforme ſtrangers, borne out of the kings obeiſance, inhabiting and vſing within anie ſuch citie, borough, or towne corporat, any maner of handicraft, in as large and ample maner as the ſaid wardens and fellowſhips of the ſaid citie of London maie doo by vertue of this preſent act. And that all ſtrangers vſing anie of the ſaid handicrafts in anie of the ſaid cities, boroughs or towns corporat, be bounden to doo and obeie in euerie thing, according to the tenor of this preſent act, vpon like pains and forfeitures as is aboue remembred, to be had and recouered in forme aboue rehearſed.

Chancellor
Treaſuror

¶ Prouided alwaie, that if the wardens of anie fellowſhip or myſterie beforeſaid, bailifs, gouernor or gouernors beforeſaid, wrongfullie will intreat anie ſtranger in executing of this act, or anie thing therein conteined: that then the ſtranger ſo gréeued, maie by authoritie of this act, by bill or information complaine to the lord chancellor and treaſuror of England, or the iuſtices of aſſiſe in the countie for the time being, which by their examinations ſhall haue full power and authoritie to heare & determine the ſame complaint, and award to the partie complainant ſuch amends, as by their diſcretions ſhall be thought reaſonable.

Prouided alſo that it ſhalbe lawfull for and to euerie the ſaid ſtrangers, borne out of the kings obeizance, being a houſholder, to haue and reteine aſwell all and euerie ſuch ſtrangers borne out of the kings obeizance, being the time of this parlement with him reteined as a iourniman, as to haue and reteine euerie ſuch ſtranger being borne out of the kings obeizance being an apprentiſe with him the time of this parlement, this act notwithſtanding: this to indure to the laſt daie of the next parlement.

Vniuerſit.

Prouided alſo that this act extend not to the inhabitants ſtrangers that now be, or héereafter ſhall be, in the vniuerſities of Oxford or Cambridge, or within the ſanctuarie of S. Martins le grand, within the ſaid citie of London.

Prouided alwaies, that if the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie of London, with a ſtranger, or gouernor or gouernors of any citie or borough corporat within this relme, refuſe to marke the wares of anie ſtranger, after that they be required ſo to marke, that then it ſhall be lawfull to the ſame ſtranger or ſtrangers, to whom ſuch refuſall ſhalbe made, to ſell and put to ſale his ſaid wares, ſo required to be marked and refuſed, this act notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, that this act extend not to anie other handicraft, than to the crafts of ioiners, pouchmakers, coopers, & blacke ſmiths, for or concerning the foreſaid article of marking of wares of the ſaid ſtrangers.

L. of parlem.

Alſo that it ſhalbe lawfull to anie lord of the parlement, and euerie other of the kings ſubiects, hauing lands and tenements to the yéerelie value of one hundred pounds, to take & reteine ſtrangers ioiners and glaſiers in their ſeruice, from time to tune, to and for the exerciſing with them their crafts, this act notwithſtanding.

An act concerning worſted weauers in Yarmouth and Lin.

Chap. 3.

BEcauſe it is diſcréetlie conſidered in this preſent parlement, that the true making and draping of worſteds, ſais, and ſtamins, is one of the moſt profitable occupations of this realme: and that the ſame worſteds, ſaies and ſtamins, truelie & ſubſtantiallie made and wrought, béene right acceptable and commodious merchandizes, as well in this realme of England, as in other forren regions and countries: for eſtabliſhment and good order thereof, diuers good and laudable eſtatutes, acts and ordinances, héeretofore haue béene made and enacted, and namelie in a parlement holden at Weſtminſter the third daie of Iune, in the ſeuenth yéere of the reigne of the late king of famous memorie Edward the fourth. Sithens which parlement, the making of the ſaid worſteds, ſais and ſtamins hath much increaſed, and béene multiplied in the citie of Norwich, and in diuers towns and places in the countie of Norfolke. And bicauſe the towns of great Yarmouth and Lin in the ſaid countie, béene townes corporated, and the inhabitants of the ſame townes now dailie practiſe and vſe the making and draping of the ſaid clothes of worſteds, ſais and ſtamins, more buſilie and diligentlie then they haue doone in times paſt, to whome it is painfull and coſtlie to tranſport and conueie their ſaid clothes to the ſaid citie of Norwich, or to places within the ſaid countie of Norfolke, which béene far diſtant from either of the ſaid townes to be ſearched and ſealed by the wardens of the worſted weauers of the ſame citie of Norwich or countie, according to the ſaid act of parlement made the ſaid 7 yéere of king Edward the fourth.

It is therefore ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and by the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the craftſmen called worſted weauers, inhabited in the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, ſhall haue power and authoritie by this preſent act, from henſeforth to elect and chooſe yearelie for euer, in the mondaie next after the feaſt of Pentecoſt, one honeſt man of the ſame myſterie and occupation, being an houſholder within the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, and hauing of his proper goods and chattels to the value of ten pounds at the leaſt, or lands and tenements to his owne vſe, of the eſtate of fréehold at the leaſt, to the cléere yéerelie value of xx. ſhillings, to be warden of the ſame craft and myſterie for the yéere next inſuing, which man ſo elected and choſen, ſhall perſonally appeare before the maior of the ſaid citie of Norwich, for the time being, the mondaie next after the feaſt of Corpus Chriſti, then next inſuing, then and there to be ſworne and charged by like oth, concerning the true and ſubſtantiall making of the ſaid clothes within the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, as the foure wardens of the ſaid citie of Norwich, by vertue of the ſaid act of parlement made in the vij. yere of K. Edward the iiij. bin charged & ſworne for the ſame citie of Norwich. And if the ſaid maior happen to be abſent the ſaid mondaie after Corpus Chriſti, or elſe then refuſeth to receiue or take the ſaid oth, then the ſaid warden ſo elect, within 4 daies next after the ſame mondaie, ſhall come before the bailifs of the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, for the time being, or before one of them, the other being abſent, and then and there receiue a corporall oth for the true exerciſing of the ſame office of wardenſhip, after the tenor of the oth accuſtomablie vſed to be giuen to the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie of Norwich. And then the ſaid warden of the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, for that time being, ſo elect & ſworne, maie ordeine & appoint a ſeale with this letter Y to be grauen in the ſame ſeale, and maie haue full power and authoritie to view, ſearch, ſeize, and ſeale in lead with the ſame ſeale, ſo to be appointed and ingrauen and none other, all worſteds, ſais and ſtamins within the ſaid towne of Yarmouth and ſuburbs of the ſame, made or to be made and not elſwhere, in as large and ample maner, as the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie of Norwich, and wardens of the ſaid countie of Norfolke, or any of them hath or haue within the ſaid citie or countie, or in anie wiſe maie doo in that behalfe by authoritie or vertue of the before remembred act made in the ſaid ſeuenth yéere of king Edward the fourth, anie thing in the ſame act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding. ¶ And that no perſon inhabited within the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth or ſuburbs thereof, weaue any worſteds, ſais or ſtamins within the ſame towne, except he be an Engliſhman borne, and haue bin apprentiſe to the ſaid occupation, and without he weaue there ſuch proper marke as ſhall be limited and appointed by the ſaid warden of the ſaid towne for the time being, elect and ſworne, as is aforeſaid, vpon paine of forfeiture thereof to the king our ſouereigne lord. And that euerie warden of the ſaid towne ſhall limit diſtinct and ſeuerall marks to euerie of the ſaid worſted weauers of the ſame towne of great Yarmouth, and the ſame marks by the ſaid warden to be regiſtred in a booke.

¶ And alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if and whenſoeuer héereafter the ſaid towne of Lin ſhall be inhabited with ten ſundrie houſholders, or more number of houſholders, exerciſing & vſing the ſaid craft or myſterie of worſted weauers, then and from thenſeforth, that is to ſaie, as long as the ſame towne of Lin ſhalbe inhabited with the number of ten ſuch houſholders at the leaſt, it ſhall be lawfull to the ſame inhabitants of the ſaid towne of Lin yéerlie on the monday next after the feaſt of Pentecoſt, to elect & chooſe of themſelues one warden of the ſaid craft and myſterie of worſted weauers, to be of the value in lands & goods as is beforeſaid of the warden of Yarmouth, which warden ſo elect ſhall yéerelie be ſworne and charged at the ſaid citie of Norwich in like maner, and at the like daie, as is before limited to the wardens of Yarmouth. Or in default of the ſaid maior of Norwich, then the ſaid warden ſo to be elect for the ſaid towne of Lin, to take a corporall oth before the maior of the ſaid towne of Lin, within ſuch time, and after ſuch forme, as is before limited vnto the warden of Yarmouth. And that the ſaid warden of the ſaid towne of Lin for the time being, ſo elect and ſworne, by himſelfe maie ordeine and appoint a ſeale, with this letter L, to be grauen in the ſame ſeale, and maie haue full power and authoritie to view, ſearch, ſeize, and ſeale in lead with the ſame ſeale ſo to be ingrauen, and with none other, all worſteds, ſaies, and ſtamins, within the ſaid towne of Lin, and ſuburbs of the ſame, made or to be made, and not elſe where, in as large and ample maner as the ſaid warden of the citie of Norwich, and wardens of the ſaid countie of Norfolke, or anie of them hath or haue within the ſaid citie or countie, or otherwiſe maie doo by authoritie or vertue of the before remembred act, made in the ſaid ſeuenth yéere of king Edward the fourth, anie thing conteined in the ſame act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And that no perſon inhabited within the ſaid towne of Lin, or ſuburbs therof, make anie worſteds, ſaies, or ſtamins within the ſame towne, except he be an Engliſhman borne, and haue béene apprentiſe to the ſame occupation, and without he weaue therein ſuch proper marke as ſhalbe limited and appointed by the ſaid warden of the ſame towne of Lin, for the time being, vpon paine and forfeiture thereof to the king our ſouereigne lord. And that euerie warden of the ſaid towne ſhall limit diſtinct & ſeuerall marks to euerie of the worſted weauers of the ſame towne, and the ſame marks by the ſaid warden to be regiſtred in a booke.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that from the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, vnto ſuch time as the ſaid towne of Lin ſhalbe inhabited with the ſaid number of ten houſholders of the ſaid craft of worſted weauers, and alwaies after, when that number of ten houſholders ſhall happen to faile, and not be inhabited in the ſaid towne of Lin, the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie of Norwich, and their ſucceſſors, ſhall procure and cauſe one of themſelues, or one of the wardens of the ſaid craft of the ſaid countie of Norfolke, perſonallie to come and be euerie eight and twentith daie from and after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, in and to the ſaid towne of Lin, or within ſix daies next after euerie ſuch eight and twentith daie, and there to continue and abide by ſo long time as he maie ſearch and ſeale all ſuch worſteds, ſaies, and ſtamins, made in the ſame towne of Lin, as then ſhalbe brought to him to be ſealed, within the ſpace of one whole daie. And the ſaid inhabitants of worſted weauers, of the ſame towne of Lin being, ſhall content and pay to the ſaid warden of Norwich or Norfolke which ſhall ſo come to Lin, in the ſaid eight and twentith daie, or within ſix daies next after the ſaid eight and twentith daie, for his coſts and expenſes, for euerie time that he ſhall ſo come to Lin, betwéene the feaſts of S. Michaell the archangell, and the Annunciation of our ladie S. Marie thrée ſhillings, and for euerie time that he ſhall ſo come to the ſaid towne of Lin betwéene the feaſt of the Annunciation of our Ladie, and the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, two ſhillings. And if the ſaid inhabitants of worſted weauers of the ſaid towne of Lin, doo not content & paie to the ſaid warden comming to Lin, in forme aforeſaid, for the ſaid coſts and charges, the ſaid thrée ſhillings, or two ſhillings, as is aboue limited, then the ſame inhabitants ſhall forfeit and paie to the ſaid warden, or to his executors, for euerie ſuch default of paiment fortie ſhillings. And if none of the ſaid wardens of Norwich and Norfolke, come to the ſaid towne of Lin, for the cauſe aforeſaid, in maner and forme aboue remembred: then the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie of Norwich, ſhall forfeit and paie to the ſaid inhabitants of Lin, of the ſaid myſterie of worſted weauers, for euerie ſuch default fortie ſhillings. For recompenſe of which penaltie and forfeits, the ſaid wardens of Norwich or Norfolke, being thereunto intituled by this preſent act, by his proper name with this addition. That is to ſaie: Vnius gardianorum, or Nuper vnius gardianorum artis ſiue myſteriæ textorum panni lanei vocat. Worſtedes in ciuitate Norwich, vel comit. Norfolke, as the truth requireth, ſhall and maie haue action of debt by writ, bill, or plaint in anie competent or lawfull court of this realme againſt the ſaid inhabitants of Lin, of the ſaid myſterie for the time being, by their ſundrie proper names. And the ſaid inhabitants by their ſaid names, with this addition, Textorum panni lanei vocat. Worſtedes, inhabitantes ville de Linne, ſhall and maie haue like actions of debt againſt the ſaid wardens of Norwich, by the name of Gardiani artis, ſiue myſteriæ textorum pannorum laneorum vocat. Worſtedes infra ciuitatem Norwic. comit. Norfolke. To be vſed in good congruities of Latine, & forme of the lawes of this realme. In which actions, or anie of them, none eſſoine, protection, or wager of law ſhall be ſuffered or allowed. And that the particular bodies or goods of anie of the ſaid wardens or inhabitants, being condemned in anie of the ſaid actions, ſhall and maie be put in execution, after ſuch maner and forme as is vſed in actions of debt, by courſe of the common law of this realme.

Wardens of Norwich.

Coſts

And moreouer be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all clothes of worſteds, ſaies, & ſtamins, made or to be made within anie of the ſaid townes of Lin and great Yarmouth, or ſuburbs of the ſame, or anie of them, and marked with ſuch marks as ſhalbe limited to the makers, by the ſaid wardens of the ſaid towne, in maner and forme aboueſaid; and weaued and ſealed by anie of the wardens of the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth, in forme aboue remembred: by force and vertue of this preſent act may be lawfullie put to ſale by the owners and makers of the ſame without anie other marking or ſealing vpon the ſaid clothes, or vpon anie of them to be had or made by anie other wardens, dwelling or abiding without the ſaid towne, and without anie arreſt, ſeizure, or forfeiture to be had or made of or vpon any of the ſaid clothes, for lacke of anie other ſeales or marks, anie thing conteined in the ſaid former act, made in the ſaid ſeuenth yéere of king Edward the fourth, to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And ouer this be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie craftſman of the ſaid myſterie & occupation of worſted making, dwelling within anie of the ſaid townes of Lin & great Yarmouth, or ſuburbs of the ſame, at their owne frée wils and liberties from henſeforth for euer, maie haue and take apprentiſe or apprentiſes (being male) of the age of fouretéene yéers and vpward, and being the kings naturall ſubiects, for the terme of ſeuen yéers and not vnder, ſo that none of them excéed the number of two at once, to learne, vſe, and exerciſe the ſaid craft within either of the ſaid townes of Lin and great Yarmouth, or ſuburbs of the ſame: albeit the father of the ſame apprentiſes or apprentiſe, maie not expend in anie lands and tenements to the yéerelie value of twentie ſhillings: anie act or ordinance to the contrarie made or to be made notwithſtanding.

Apprentiſe

Prouided alwaies, that this preſent act nor anie thing therein conteined, be not in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to the maior of Norwich, or to his ſucceſſors, or to the wardens of the ſaid citie and countie, or to their ſucceſſors, in anie point, article, power, or authoritie, other than for weauing, ſearching and ſealing of worſteds, ſaies and ſtamins made or to be made onelie within the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth, or ſuburbs of the ſame, or to anie of them. And for limiting of marks to the maker of worſteds, ſaies and ſtamins, onelie inhabited in either of the ſaid townes or ſuburbs thereof, and taking of apprentiſes, in forme aboue remembred: but that the ſaid maior of the ſaid citie of Norwich, and wardens of the ſaid citie & countie, and euerie of them may haue and vſe all other points, articles, powers and authorities conteined and ſpecified in the aboue remembred act, made in the ſaid ſeuenth yéere of king Edward the fourth, aſwell for the ſearch, ſealing, correction and reformation of the ſaid wardens newlie to be elect by vertue of this preſent act, and euerie of them, according and after ſuch forme as they maie doo or vſe, anie of the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie or countie, by force of the ſaid act, made in the ſaid ſeuenth yéere of king Edward the fourth, as all and euerie other inquiries, corrections, ſearches, ſealings and reformations to be had, for the true making of worſteds, ſaies, and ſtamins, in and vpon anie perſon or perſons, aſwell within the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth as without, without trouble, let, or vexation of anie of the inhabitants of the ſaid townes, in as large and ample wiſe as they might haue doone before the making of this preſent act: any thing conteined in the ſame preſent act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Die, ſhere &c

And alſo prouided, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid craftſmen of worſted weauers inhabited, or héereafter to be inhabited within either of the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth, or ſuburbs of the ſame, and the merchants of anie other perſon or perſons, which ſhall happen to buie of the ſame craftſmen or anie of them, or of anie other perſon, anie of the ſaid clothes of worſted, ſtamins, or ſaies, made or to be made within either of the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth, and ſealed by the ſaid wardens of the ſame towne to be elect and ſworne, as is aforeſaid, and anie of them, ſhall not ſhéere, die, or put in colour, or calender anie worſteds, ſtamins, or ſaies, made or to be made within either of the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth, or ſuburbs of the ſame, in any other place or places, but onelie within the ſaid citie of Norwich, or ſuburbs of the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of euerie péece of worſted, ſaies, or ſtamins to be made within anie of the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth, or ſuburbs of the ſame, or the value thereof, ſhorne, died, coloured, or calendred by anie of the ſaid craftſmen, buiers, or merchants, in any other place or places than in the ſaid citie of Norwich or ſuburbs of the ſame: the one halfe thereof to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe thereof to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall ſeize the ſame: ſo that the ſaid worſteds brought to the ſaid citie of Norwich to be ſhorne, died, coloured, and calendred without couine or craft of anie of the ſaid inhabitants and merchants, maie be ſhorne, died, coloured, and calendred at and by as conuenient priſe or priſes, and in as readie wiſe as the ſaid inhabitants of either of the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth, and merchants buiers of the ſaid worſteds or other of the ſaid citie or countie hath had in times paſt, or héereafter ſhall haue.

And alſo that the inhabitants and merchants, and euerie of them, ſo bringing their ſaid worſteds to the ſame citie for to be ſhorne, died, coloured and calendred, be reaſonablie and lawfullie intreated according to the ſaid act made in the ſaid ſeuenth yéere of king Edward the fourth, and the ordinances made & affirmed, or héereafter to be made & affirmed for the ſaid myſterie, without let or diſturbance, contrarie to the ſame act or ordinance in that behalfe.

Tranſport

And be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons anie time after conueie or tranſport into anie of the parties of beyond the ſea, anie maner of clothes of worſteds, before the ſame clothes be ſhorne, died, coloured, and calendred, vpon paine of forfeiture the value thereof: the one halfe to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe thereof to the partie that will ſue therefore, by action or plaint of debt in anie of the kings courts: in which action or ſute no protection or eſſoine ſhall be allowed, nor the offendor admitted to wage his law: this act to indure to the next parlement.

An act concerning Engliſhmen being ſworne to forren princes.

Chap.4.

PRaien the commons in this preſent parlement, that where manie and diuerſe perſons being the kings ſubiects naturallie borne within this his realme, haue withdrawne themſelues out of the ſame realme, and tranſported themſelues with their wiues, children and goods into Holland, Zealand, Braband, Flanders, and into other countries of forren princes, and there be ſworne to the obeizance of the princes, and lords of the countries, where they be now inhabited, making their great buildings, and be contributories to all maner of charges, as the ſubiects of thoſe countries be: and thus they mainteine as much as in them is, the cities, boroughs, and townes of thoſe countries, and manie mo of the kings ſubiects intend to doo the ſame, if remedie therein be not prouided: which ſubiects borne in England, notwithſtanding that they thus eſtrange themſelues from the kings obeizance, yet they occupie héere in all the ports, hauens and créeks, cities, boroughs and townes of England, as fréelie and as frée in cuſtome and ſubſidie as the kings ſubiects doo occupie, and not onelie for themſelfe, but alſo colourablie for other ſtrangers, their fréends and partners, and alſo make themſelues quit and exempt from all charges within this realme, in preiudice and decaie of the cities, townes and boroughs of England: and as for beyond the ſea they will obeie to none authoritie granted to the Engliſh nation, by the kings highneſſe and his noble progenitors, vnder the great ſeale of England, and by authoritie of parlement, but they giue themſelues ouer to the protection and defenſe of thoſe outward princes, to whom they be ſworne ſubiects: and by theſe maner of perſons much coine is conueied out of the land. Wherefore be it ordeined and enacted, by the king our ſouereigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all and euerie ſuch ſubiects borne in England, and ſworne to be ſubiects to forren princes and lords of outward parties, from henſeforth (as long as they ſhall ſo abide, and be as ſubiects to forren princes and lords) that from henſeforth ſo long they and euerie of them ſhall paie ſuch cuſtomes, Subſidie &c.

Chancerie

ſubſidie, toll, and other impoſitions within this realme of England, as other ſtrangers of thoſe parts where the ſaid Engliſhmen make their inhabitation, paie or vſe to paie within this ſaid realme. And that the knowledge of all and euerie ſuch perſon or perſons inhabitants, and ſworne in maner and forme as is before rehersed within the archdukes countries, that is to ſaie, Holland, Zealand, Brabant and Flanders onlie, ſhall be had by certificat thereof made by the gouernor of the merchant aduenturers, and the aſſiſtants there for the time being, and alſo for all other realms and countries of forren princes to be certified by the kings moſt noble ambaſſadors, being at ſuch time there as they ſhall happen to be in the ſaid countries vpon the kings affaires, ſhall likewiſe certifie as is beforeſaid, vnder their ſeale into the chancerie of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and thereupon out of the ſaid chancerie writs to be made and directed vnto the cuſtomers, controllers, or other officers of the kings cuſtome, in euerie port, hauen or creeke within this ſaid realme, to perceiue, leuie, and take all maner of ſuch cuſtoms, ſubſidies, tols, and other impoſitions, as is before ſpecified, of all ſuch goods and merchandizes as ſhall belong vnto anie ſuch perſon or perſons inhabited and ſworne in maner and forme aboue written, as well inward as outward.

Writs.

Prouided alwaie, that if héereafter it ſhall happen anie ſuch perſon or perſons to returne into the realme, and héere to tarie and inhabit, that then he or they ſhall be reſtored to all ſuch liberties and freedoms in paieng of cuſtoms or ſubſidies and other charges, as all other Engliſhmen doth vſe to paie, and to haue a writ out of the chancerie for the ſame. This act or anie thing therein made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act concerning phyſicions.

AND for ſo much that the making of the ſaid corporation is meritorious and verie good for the commonwealth of this your realme, it is therefore expedient and neceſſarie to prouide, that no perſon of the ſaid politike bodie and commonaltie aforeſaid, be ſuffered to exerciſe and practiſe phyſike, but onelie thoſe perſons that be profound, ſad, and diſcreet, groundlie learned and deeplie ſtudied in phyſike.

In conſideration whereof, and for the further authorizing of the ſame letters patents, and alſo inlarging of further articles for the ſaid commonwealth to be had and made. Pleaſeth your highneſſe with the aſſent of your lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, to enact, ordeine and eſtabliſh that the ſaid corporation of the ſaid commonaltie and fellowſhip of the facultie of phyſike aforeſaid, and all and euerie grant, article and other thing conteined and ſpecified in the ſaid letters patents, be approued, granted, ratified, and confirmed in this preſent parlement, and cleerelie authorized and admitted by the ſame good, lawfull, and auailable to your ſaid bodie corporat, and their ſucceſſors for euer in as ample & large maner as maie be taken, thought conſtrued by the ſame. And that it pleaſe your highneſſe with the aſſent of your ſaid lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this your preſent parlement aſſembled, furtherlie to enact, ordeine, and ſtabliſh that the ſix perſons beforeſaid, in your moſt gracious letters patents named as principals, and firſt named of the ſaid commonaltie and fellowſhip, chooſing to them two more of the ſaid commonaltie from henſeforward be called and cleaped elects. And that the ſame elects yéerelie chooſe one of them to be preſident of the ſaid commonaltie, and as oft as anie of the roumes and places of the ſame elects ſhall fortune to be void by death or otherwiſe, then the ſuperuiſors of the ſame elects (within 30 or 40 daies next after the death of them or anie of them) ſhall chooſe, name, and admit one or more as néed ſhall require, of the moſt cunning, and expert men, of and in the ſaid facultie in London, to ſupplie the ſaid roume and number of eight perſons. So that he or they that ſhall be ſo choſen, be firſt by the ſaid ſuperuiſors ſtreictlie examined, after a forme deuiſed by the ſaid elects, and alſo by the ſame ſuperuiſors approued. And where that in the dioceſſes of England out of London, it is not like to find alwaie men able ſufficientlie to examine (after the ſtatute) ſuch as ſhall be admitted to exerciſe phyſike in them, that it maie be enacted in this preſent parlement, that no perſon from henſeforth be ſuffered to exerciſe or practiſe in phyſike through England, vntill ſuch time that he be examined at London by the ſaid preſident and thrée of the ſaid elects, and to haue from the ſaid preſident or elects, letters teſtimonials of their approuing and examination, except he be a graduat of Oxford or Cambridge, which hath accompliſhed all things for his forme without anie grace.

An act concerning the high waies in the wild of Kent.

Chap.6.

IN humble wiſe beſéecheth your highneſſe your true and faithfull ſubiect George Gilford eſquier for your bodie, that where there is, and of time whereof mind of man is not to the contrarie, hath béene an old common waie or ſtréet for carriers and all other paſſages and buſineſſe for you and your progenitors, and you and their people in the hundred of Cranebroke, in the wild of your countie of Kent, leading and extending betwéene and among the lands of the manor of Hempſted of the ſaid George in the ſaid hundred of Cranbroke, fro ẏ bridge called Hempſted bridge, diuiding the ſaid hundred of Cranbroke and the hundred of Roluinden in the ſame wild of your ſaid countie, to a croſſe called Totenden croſſe, ſtanding nigh to a great oke, named Hempſted oke, which is in length vpon 190 perches, which common waie ſo vſed, is in diuers places therof right déepe annoious for the paſſage of your people, and alſo is not ſo directlie leading betwéene the ſaid bridge & croſſe, neither ſo commodious for your people as another waie of like breadth in other places within and ouer the lands of the ſaid manor might be made.

In conſideration whereof it maie pleaſe your highneſſe of your bleſſed diſpoſition with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame to enact and ordeine, that it ſhall be lawfull to your ſaid beſéecher his heires and aſſigns, owners of the ſaid manor of Hempſted, at his and their proper coſts & charges at anie time on this ſide the 27 daie of Maie, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God 1527 by the ouerſight and aſſent of two iuſtices of peace of the ſaid countie of Kent, and twelue other diſcréet men inhabitants within the ſaid hundreds of Cranbroke and Roluinden, to aſſigne, limit and laie ouer and through the lands of the ſaid manor one other waie for carriages and paſſages of your grace and of your people, and your and their heires and ſucceſſors, of as great largeneſſe in breadth or larger than the ſaid old waie now being, is, and as commodious for the ſaid carriages and paſſages, as the ſame waie now being is, or better, extending and leading directlie betwéene the ſaid bridge and croſſe, ſo that your grace and your people by the ſaid new waie ſo to be aſſigned and laied out, ſhall haue the more eaſie carriage and paſſage than is or of late time hath béene by the ſaid old waie. And that after the ſaid new waie ſo laied out and aſſigned, the ſaid carriages, paſſages and other buſineſſe there, maie be as liberallie, commonlie, and fréelie from thenſeforth there vſed and had for euer, and euerie other thing there exerciſed and kept, as before this time hath béene had and vſed, exerciſed and kept in the ſaid old waie without let or interruption of the ſaid George, his heires or his aſſignes, or anie other perſon which héereafter ſhall haue, hold, or poſſeſſe the ſaid manor. And that immediatlie after that the ſaid new waie (as is beforeſaid) to be aſſigned and limited, ſhall be as is abouesaid laied out and fullie made, it ſhall be lawfull to your ſaid beſéecher, his heires & aſſigns, owners of the ſaid manor, to incloſe the ſaid old waie & euerie partie thereof. And that fro henſeforth to hold in ſeueraltie to them, & to their heirs & aſſignes to their owne vſe and profit for euer, as parcell of the ſaid manor, without any common waie or paſſage there fro thenſeforth to be had or claimed, anie preſcription or vſe to the contrarie héeretofore had notwithſtanding. ¶ And in conſideration that manie other common waies in the ſaid wild of Kent be ſo deepe & noious by wearing and courſe of water and other occaſions, that people cannot haue their carriages or paſſages by horſſes vpon or by the ſame, but to their great paine, perill and ieopardie, it maie be by the ſaid authoritie enacted & eſtabliſhed, that if any other perſon or perſons any time héerafter in any place within the ſaid wild of your ſaid countie, of his good mind & diſpoſition, without anie value of good by him or them to be receiued for the ſame, will for ẏ common weale of your people, aſſigne & laie out a more commodious waie in, & ouer the lands therunto adioining, whereof the perſon or other to his vſe ſhalbe ſeized of fée in eſtate of inheritance, that ẏ ſame new waie ſo to be aſſigned & laid out by ouerſight & aſſent of two iuſtices of peace of the ſaid countie, & 12 other diſcréet men inhabiting within the hundred where anie ſuch new waie ſhalbe limited & laid out, or inhabiting within the ſame hundred & other hundreds to that hundred next adioining, ſhall be from thenſeforth holden, occupied & vſed in like maner as the old waie there now is, or before hath bin.

New waie

¶And that alſo the ſame perſon or perſons, ſo diſpoſed, willing and accompliſhing the ſame, ſhall and maie for the ſaid new waie ſo aſſigned and vſed, reteine and hold in waie of recompenſe for the ſame new waie ſo to be giuen, the ſoile and ground of the old waie in ſeueraltie as is aboue ſaid, to him or them, and to their heirs for euer, in like maner as is aboue ſaid, of the ſaid new waie to be aſſigned at Hempſtede. And that the ſaid two iuſtices of peace, and twelue other diſcréet perſons, by whoſe ouerſight and aſſent, the ſaid new waie at Hempſtede or anie other waie by vertue of this act ſhall be héereafter aſſigned, limited and laid out, ſhall within thrée moneths next after the aſſignment, limitation, and laieng out of the ſame, make certificat into the kings moſt honorable court of chancerie vnder their ſeales, of the length and bredth of the ſaid new waie or ſtréet, and of other things adioining or concerning the ſame, as by their diſcretions ſhall be thought moſt expedient or requiſit for the commonwelth of that countrie to be certified: and that certificat to be made from time to time, as often as anie ſuch new waie or ſtréet ſhalbe aſſigned, limited and laid out in forme aboue written. Certificat

Church way ¶Prouided alwaie, that if anie perſon or perſons, or bodie politike, haue or ought to haue, or héereafter ſhall haue anie church waie or other whatſoeuer waie or paſſage, ouer or through anie maner lands adioining to anie of the ſaid old waies or ſtréets, which ſhalbe taken and vſed by force of this act, as ſeuerall ſoile and fréehold in recompenſe for anie new waie to be made and laid out in forme aforeſaid, or haue or ought to haue héereafter, ſhall haue anie lands or tenements adioining to the ſaid old waie, that they and euerie of them, their heires and ſucceſſors, ſhall and maie haue and vſe their ſaid waie or waies, out of and into the ſaid new waie ouer and through the land of the ſaid old waie or ſtréet, into or ouer the ſaid land or tenement adioining to the ſame, and ſo to paſſe & repaſſe, as ſhall apperteine ouer the ſame old waie, at ſuch conuenient place or places thereof, as therefore ſhall be limited and aſſigned by the ſaid two iuſtices of peace & other twelue men, and by them to be certified into the chancerie, among other things by them to be certified in forme aforeſaid: anie thing in this act aboue written notwithſtanding.

An act concerning ſhooting in croſſebowes and handguns.

Chap.7. BE it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, by the aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that euerie perſon and perſons hauing lands, tenements, hereditaments, fées, annuities or other yéerelie profits in his owne right, or in his wiues, to the yéerelie value of one hundred pounds, from henſeforth maie lawfullie vſe and ſhoot in croſbowes and handguns, and in euerie of them, and reteine and kéepe the ſame: anie thing conteined in the act made at a parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the firſt yéere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord, for reformation of ſhooting in croſbowes and handguns, and for kéeping of the ſame notwithſtanding. 100 li. land Placards And further be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all licences, grants, and placards made by our ſaid ſouereigne lord to anie perſon or perſons, before the 20 daie of Auguſt, in the 15 yéere of his reigne, for ſhooting in croſbowes or handguns, or for kéeping of the ſame or any of them, ſhall be from the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, vtterlie void and of none effect.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that euerie perſon not hauing in vſe or poſſeſſion, lands, tenements, fées, annuities, or other yéerlie profits, to the yéerelie value of 100 li. (as aforeſaid) offending contrarie to the ſaid act made in the ſaid firſt yéere, ſhall forfeit for euerie time that he ſhall ſo offend, but onlie 40 s. and the croſbowes and handguns to be had, recouered, ſeized, and leuied according to the ſaid former act, anie thing conteined in the ſaid former act, of, or for any greater penaltie notwithſtanding. And that it ſhall be lawfull to all iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions, and ſtewards and bailifs in their léets, to inquire of euerie perſon and perſons other than be prouided for by this preſent act, offending contrarie to the ſaid former act, of, or for anie great penaltie notwithſtanding. Forfeit. Iuſt of p.

Iuſtices Stewards ¶And that it ſhall be lawfull to all iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions, & ſtewards and bailifs in their léets, to inquire of euerie perſon & perſons, other than be prouided for by this preſent act, offending contrarie to the ſaid former act, and that vpon all preſentments had before iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions, proceſſes ſhall be made for leuieng of the ſaid 40 s. to the kings vſe, in ſuch forme and in like maner as is made vpon indictments of riots, and vpon euerie preſentment had in anie léets, the lord and owners of the léets to leuie and haue the ſaid penaltie of 40 s. by waie of diſtreſſe, action of debt or otherwiſe, in the which the offendor ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, ne anie eſſoine or protection to be allowed.

¶And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no lords or owners of léets beare or mainteine anie of their tenants or ſeruants within the iuriſdiction of their léets, to do or offend contrarie to the ſaid former act, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie time ſo doing, 40 s. the one halfe thereof to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to the partie that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in which ſute no wager of law, ne eſſoine or protection ſhall be allowed or admitted. The old act in all other points not otherwiſe prouided for in this act, to be of force and effect.

An act concerning the ſix clerks of the chancerie to be maried.

Chap.8. IN moſt humble wiſe beſeecheth your true & faithfull ſubiects & daily ſeruants ẏ ſix clerks of your high court of chancerie, that wheras of old time accuſtomed hath bin vſed in the ſaid court that all maner clerks and miniſters of the ſame court writing to the great ſeale, ſhould be vnmaried except onlie the clerke of the crowne: ſo that as well the curſetors and other clerks, as the ſix clerks of the ſaid chancerie were by the ſame cuſtome eſtrained from mariage, wherby all thoſe that contrarie to the ſame did marrie, were no longer ſuffered to write in the ſaid chancerie, not onelie to their great hinderance, loſing thereby the benefit of their long ſtudie, and tedious labors and paines in youth taken in the ſaid court, but alſo to the great decaie of the true courſe of the ſaid court. And for as much as the ſaid cuſtome taketh no place nor vſage, but onelie in the office of the ſaid ſix clerks, but that it is permitted and ſuffered for maintenance of the ſaid court, that as well the ſaid curſetors, as the other clerks aforeſaid, maie and doo take wiues and marrie at their libertie after the lawes of holie church, and of long time haue ſo doone, without interruption or let of anie perſon: It maie therefore pleaſe your highneſſe of your moſt abundant grace, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, in conſideration of the premiſſes, & for that the ſame cuſtome is not grounded vpon anie law, to ordeine, enact and eſtabliſh, that Iohn Treuerthen, Richard Welles, Oliuer Leder, Iohn Croke, William Ieſſen, and Iohn Lemſeie, now being in the office of the ſix clerks of the chancerie, and euerie of them, and all other which in time to come ſhall be in the ſame office, and euerie of them maie and doo take wiues, and marrie at their libertie, after the lawes of holie church. And that they and euerie of them ſo maried maie haue, hold and inioie their ſaid office of ſix clerks in as ample, large and like maner, as they did or ſhould doo before the ſaid eſpouſals, or as if they had neuer beene married, the ſaid cuſtome or ordinance heeretofore had or made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Mariage

Prouided alwaie, that by anie thing in this act conteined, the maiſter of the rols (for the time being) be not preiudiced either in the giuing and diſpoſition of the ſaid offices from time to time, as hath beene heeretofore accuſtomed, the forfeiture of that office by reaſon of marriage onelie except. And that the ſaid officers which now be, & heereafter ſhall be, doo giue ſuch attendance vnto the ſaid maiſter of the rols for the time being, as heretofore in the ſaid offices hath bin accuſtomed.

Maiſter of the rols

An act concerning the libertie of cordwainers or ſhoomakers.

Chap.9.

PRaien the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that where in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the fourth yere of the reigne of the excellent prince of famous memorie Edward the fourth, late king of England your noble grandfather, among other things it was ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that no perſon cordwainer of the citie of London, or within three miles next about the ſame, vpon anie ſundaie of the yere, in the feaſts of the Natiuitie or Aſcenſion of our Lord, or Corpus Chriſti, ſhould ſell, command or make to be ſold anie ſhooes, boots, or galeges, or vpon anie of the ſaid ſundaies or feaſts, ſhould put vpon the foot or legs of anie perſon or perſons, anie ſhooes, boots or galeges, vpon paine to forfeit and loſe xx.s. ſterling, as often and whenſoeuer anie perſon ſhould doo contrarie to the ſaid ordinance or anie parcell thereof.

And where by the ſame eſtatute it is ordeined and prouided, that the ſame act ſhould not extend to the damage or preiudice, nor in anie maner be hurtfull or preiudiciall to the deane & chapter (for the time being) of the free chapell of the king, of S. Martins le grand of London, nor to anie perſon or perſons dwelling, abiding, or being within anie place or places in S. Martins lane in London, or within anie place or places within the precinct, fee or franchiſe, of the ſaid deane, or of the ſaid deane and chapter. Wherefore to the honor of almightie God, and to the intent that the kings ſubiects maie be heereafter at their libertie, as well as the ſaid inhabitants within the liberties and precinct of the ſaid S. Martins the grand, be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid eſtatute made in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the ſaid fourth yeere of the reigne of king Edward the fourth, ſtand and be from henſeforth vtterlie void and of none effect.

An act concerning the hunting of the hare.

Chap.10.

FOraſmuch as our ſouereigne lord the king, and other noble men of this realme of England, before this time hath vſed and exerciſed the game of hunting of the hare, for their diſport and pleaſure, which game is now decaied and almoſt vtterlie deſtroied, for that, that diuers perſons in diuers parties of this realme, by reaſon of the tracing in ſnow, haue killed and deſtroied, and dailie doo kill and deſtroie the ſame hares by ten, twelue, or ſixteene vpon a daie, to the diſpleaſure of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, & to other noble men of this his realme. Wherefore be it enacted by our ſaid ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that no perſon or perſons of what eſtate, degree or condition they be, from henſeforth trace, deſtroie, and kill no hare in ſnow with anie dog, bitch, nor otherwiſe. And that the iuſtice of the peace within euerie ſhire, at euerie ſeſſions of the peace, and ſtewards of leets ſhall haue full authoritie and power to inquire of ſuch offendors. And after ſuch inquiſitions found, the ſaid iuſtices of the peace & ſtewards of leets for euerie hare ſo killed, ſhall ſeſſe vpon euerie ſuch offender ſix ſhillings eight penſe, to be forfeited to our ſaid ſouereigne lord that ſhall be ſo founden by the iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions, and the forfeiture found in euerie leet to be to the lord of the leet.

An act concerning clothes called veſſes, made in the countie of Suffolke.

Chap.11. HUmblie ſhewen vnto your highneſſe, your true ſubiects and clothiers of your countie of Suffolke, that where in the firſt yéere of your moſt noble reigne, it was and is enacted amongſt other things concerning making of cloth, that anie perſon or perſons ſhall not put anie cloth to ſale, which when it is full wet, ſhall ſhrinke more than one yard in length, and one quarter of a yard in bredth, for the more part thereof: & clothes called narrows or ſtraits after the rate, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie cloth otherwiſe put to ſale ſix ſhillings eight penſe, & beſide to deduct of his priſe for the ſame, to be rebated to the buier therof as much after the rate, as the ſame cloth ſo otherwiſe put to ſale (being full wet) ſhall be ſhrunke more than one yard of that it was in length, time of the ſame ſale, and as it ſhall (being wet) lacke of the bredth of one yard & thrée quarters of a yard. And in the ſame act was and is a prouiſo made, after the forme following.

Prouided alwaie, that this act extend not to wollen clothes called kendals, nor clothes called carpenell whites, commonlie made for lining of hoſen, nor to anie clothes called toſtocks, made in the countie of Deuonſhire, nor to anie wollen clothes made in the countie of Cornewall, nor for anie cottons, or plaine lining, or fréeſe, made or to be made in Wales, Lancaſhire and Cheſhire, or anie of them.

So it is moſt gratious ſoueraigne lord, that veſſes, otherwiſe called ſet clothes of diuerſe colours, be made in your ſaid countie of Suffolke, which be made to be worne, and be worne in far countries, and not in England, and be of ſmall priſes, not aboue fortie ſhillings a cloth, that doo not hold the length nor bredth when they be wet, which the buiers doo know well when they buie them, ſo that therein is no deceit, which clothes in the third yéere of the reigne of your moſt noble father king Henrie the ſeuenth, were prouided for, ſo that they might lawfullie be ſold without anie penaltie or forfeiture, though they lacked in length or bredth when they were full wet, and ſo they haue vſed to doo time out of mind.

And in the prouiſo made in the ſaid act of the firſt yeere of your moſt noble reigne, they were forgotten and not prouided for, which ſhould be to the vtter impoueriſhings of the clothiers of your ſaid countie, and all other that be wrought by reaſon of cloth making within the ſaid countie of Suffolke, if no remedie ſhould be therefore prouided.

Wherfore your humble ſubiects humblie beſéech your highneſſe, that it be enacted by all the lords ſpirituall and temporall, & all the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, with your moſt roiall aſſent to the ſame: that all clothes called veſſes, otherwiſe called ſet clothes, what colour ſoeuer they be of, not being aboue the value of fortie ſhillings a cloth, ſhall not be forfeit, for that they lacke in length and bredth when they be full wet, after the ſale of them afore this time made or héerafter be made. The ſaid act made in the firſt yéere of your moſt noble reigne, or anie other act héretofore made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act concerning coiners, that ſhall coine and make anie monie at anie mint within this realme of England.

Chap.12. BE it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all ſuch coiners, as ſhall coine and make anie monie at anie mint within this realme of England, ſhall make and coine of euerie hundreth pounds worth of gold, that they ſhall ſtrike into coine twentie pounds in the coine of halfe angels, commonlie called péeces of gold of fortie penſe. And of euerie hundred pounds worth of bullion, plate or ſiluer, that they ſhall ſtrike into coine, as manie grotes as ſhall amount to the ſum of fiftie pounds ſterling: as manie halfe grotes called penſe of two penſe, as ſhall amount to the ſum of xx. li. ſterling: as manie penſe as ſhall amount to the ſum of xx. li. as manie halfe penſe as ſhall amount to the ſumme of ten marks ſterling, and as manie farthings as amount to the ſum of fiue marks ſterling. And that at anie time that anie coiners, in anie mint within this realme, ſhall doo contrarie to this act, the maiſter and kéeper of that mint for the time being, ſhall forfeit and loſe x. li. The one moitie thereof to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, the other moitie to the partie that ſhall ſue for the ſame, by bill, information, action of debt or otherwiſe, wherein the ſaid maiſter ſhall not be admitted to doo his law, and no protection ne eſſoine to be allowed for the defendant.

And foraſmuch as at this preſent time farthings and halfepenſe be ſtricken all with one coine ſo that the common people of the realme manie times take thoſe that be farthings for halfepenſe. Be it therfore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all ſuch farthings (that from henceforth ſhall be made within this realme) ſhall haue vpon the one ſide thereof the print of the portcullis, and vpon the other ſide thereof the print of the roſe with a croſſe vpon like paine.

And furthermore be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all maner perſons reſorting to the ſaid mint with anie plate or bullion, vnder the value aboueſaid, to be coined, ſhall haue & receiue at the ſaid mint the tenth part of all ſuch plate and bullion in halfepenſe and farthings.

Bullion

Prouided alwaie that this act or anie thing conteined in the ſame, be not in anie wiſe preiudiciall to the coiners and mint maiſters of Yorke, Dureſme and Canturburie, ne to anie of them, for any monie to be coined there, other than héertofore hath bin accuſtomed. This act to begin to take effect at the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming and not before.

Yorke

An act concerning the hauen and port of Southhampton.

Chap.13.

WHere in a parlement holden at Weſtminſter the 14 daie of October, the 11 yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the ſeuenth, amongſt other it was ordeined, eſtabliſhed, & enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſame parlement aſſembled, for the reformation and remedie of the decaie of the hauen and port of Southhampton, had by reaſon of diuerſe weres and engins for fiſhing, made and leuied in the ſame hauen, betwéene a certeine place called Calſhare, and another place called Rédbridge, that it ſhould be lawfull to euerie man to abate, plucke, and take awaie all and euerie of the ſaid weres and engins, at all times at their pleaſure, being in the ſaid hauen, betwéene the ſaid places, called Calſhare and Rédbridge, directlie, without trouble, let, or vexation of anie man, with diuerſe penalties and forfeitures, to all ſuch perſons as héereafter ſhould make or leuie anie ſuch weres or engins, as in the ſame act more plainelie maie appeare: the which act was made to indure onelie the ſpace of 20 yéeres then next inſuing; during which act the ſaid weres and engins were pulled downe, and the ſaid hauen greatlie amended, to the ſuccor and comfort of all the merchants there reſorting, the which yeeres be now expired and paſt, and the ſame act in no force by the ſpace of ſeuen yéeres now paſſed, during which ſeuen yéeres diuerſe new weres, gores, ſtacks, and engins haue béene leuied & inhanſed, by reaſon whereof, the ſaid hauen is greatlie decaied againe, & likelie to be loſt for euer, to the kings diſheriſon, and hurt of the commonwealth of all thoſe parties, if remedie therefore be not ſhortlie had and prouided: wherefore be it now enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſame act & euerie thing therein conteined, ſhalbe from henſeforth good and effectuall according to the purport and intent of the ſame, and to continue for euer.

Weres

And furthermore be it enacted, that euerie owner, farmar, & occupier of the ſaid weres, gores, and engins, and euerie of the ſame, do pull downe and put awaie the ſame, on this ſide the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, without leuieng, mainteining, making, or repairing the ſame from henſeforth, vpon paine of one hundred pounds to be forfeited and leuied likewiſe, and in like maner, as in the ſame former act is conteined. This act to indure for euer.

Forfeit

An act concerning ſuch as be in the kings wars ouer or vpon the ſea.

Chap.14.

THe king our ſoueraigne lord of his moſt bleſſed diſpoſition well conſidering, that now he is brought into war of neceſſitie with his ancient enimies, the French king and the Scots, and hath had and ſhall haue dailie the humble ſeruice in his ſaid wars, aſwell of his nobles as other his true ſubiects: of his moſt eſpeciall grace and benigne fauor that he beareth vnto his ſaid ſubiects, and for their more ſuretie and profit, and for other reaſonable conſiderations him eſpecialle mouing, by the aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame hath enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed that euerie perſon and perſons, of what degrée or condition he be of, that ſhall paſſe ouer the ſea, or that abideth vpon the ſea, or beyond the ſea, and be in the kings wages or ſeruice of war at this time, or héereafter ſhall be in anie other place during his ſaid wars in ſeruice of war, that euerie of them, which haue lands and tenements holden of the king or anie other to their onelie vſe, ſhall now lawfullie make thereof alienation, feofments and tranſmutation of poſſeſſion, by déed or deeds, fine or fines, recouerie or recoueries, for the performance of his or their will or wils, without anie fine or fines, for the ſaid alienations, feofments, fines, recoueries, or tranſmutation of poſſeſſion therfore, or for anie of them to be made; and that they & euerie of them, their heires & aſſignes, and the heirs and aſſignes of euerie of them, by authoritie of this preſent act, be diſcharged of all and euerie ſuch fines without letters patents of licence or pardon, or other diſcharge in that behalfe. And furthermore be it alſo ordeined & enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that if anie perſon or perſons ſo being in the ſaid ſeruice of war, which hold lands, tenements or hereditaments of the king, or of anie other by knights ſeruice or otherwiſe, wherfore his heire or heirs ought or might be in ward, & fortune in the ſaid ſeruice to deceaſe beyond the ſea, or vpon the ſea, or elſe where, in the ſeruice of the king in his wars againſt his enimies, or that anie feofment of the ſame lands and tenements be ſuppoſed to be made by colluſion, the heire or heirs of the owner of the ſame lands & tenements being within age: that then the feoffées or executors of euerie ſuch perſon & perſons ſo deceaſed, haue the ward and marriage of the heire or heirs ſo being within age, vntill they come to their full & lawfull age. And the lands and tenements, & other hereditaments ſo holden, during the nonage of euerie ſuch heire or heirs, to the performance of the will of the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo deceaſed without anie account or ſums of monie, or other thing therefore to be yéelden, paieng therout yéerelie the rents of the chiefe lord or lords of the fée of the ſame, ſauing to euerie perſon or perſons, other than the ſaid perſon or perſons that ſhall make anie ſuch alienation, feofment, fine, or ſuffer recouerie to be had againſt him, without paieng therefore anie fine to the king, or the lord or lords (of whome the ſaid lands be holden) for the ſame ſuch right, title, vſe & intereſt, as they had before the ſaid feofment, alienation, fine, recouerie or tranſmutation of poſſeſſion, or anie of them made or ſuffered of anie ſuch lands, tenements or hereditaments, wherof anie ſuch feofment, fine, recouerie, or alienation ſo ſhalbe made. Prouided alwaies that this act extend not to anie capteine or capteins, ſoldior or ſoldiors, that now be or héereafter ſhall be reteined within the towns of Calis, Hams, Guines, Riſebanke, Barwike, Wales, or anie of them, or the marches of the ſame. Except they or anie of them proceed in armie roiall againſt the kings enimies.

An act concerning the kings generall pardon.

The firſt chapter.

The king our ſouereigne loꝛd calling to his bleſſed and moſt gracious remembꝛance, the dailie and manifold dangers wherein his good and louing ſubiects of this his realme of England, doo and maie incur by things doone, perpetrated, and committed contrarie to the oꝛder of his lawes, and hauing alwaie a tender eie, with mercie, pitie, and compaſſion toward his ſaid ſubiects, minding of his high goodneſſe and great benignitie, ſo alwaies to impart the ſame vnto them, as iuſtice being dailie adminiſtred, all rigour be excluded, & the great & beneuolent minds of the kings ſaid ſubiects largelie & many times appꝛoued toward his highneſſe, by coꝛreſpondence of gratuitie reacquited, of his meere motion, benignitie, and liberalitie, by authoꝛitie of his parlement, hath giuen & granted his liberall and free pardon to his ſaid good and louing ſubiects, and to euerie of them, to be had, taken and inioied to and by them and euerie of them by vertue of this pꝛeſent act, in maner & foꝛme inſuing. That is to wit, the kings highneſſe of his ſaid benignitie and high liberalitie is fullie and reſolutelie contented and pleaſed, that it be oꝛdeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, by authoꝛitie of this his ſaid parlement, that all and euerie of his ſaid ſubiects, as well ſpirituall as tempoꝛall, the heirs, ſucceſſoꝛs, executoꝛs, and adminiſtratoꝛs of them and euerie of them, and all and ſingular bodies in anie maner of wiſe coꝛpoꝛat, cities, boꝛoughs, ſhires, ridings, hundꝛeds, laths, rapes, wapentakes, towns, villages, and tithings, and euerie of them, the ſucceſſoꝛs and the ſucceſſoꝛ of euerie of them, ſhall be by the authoꝛitie of this pꝛeſent parlement acquited, pardoned, releaſed, and diſcharged againſt his highneſſe, his heirs, ſucceſſoꝛs and executoꝛs, and euerie of them, of all and all manner offenſes, contempts, treſpas, wꝛongs, deceits, miſdemeanours, foꝛfeitures, penalties, pꝛofits, ſums of monie, pains of death, and pains coꝛpoꝛall and pecuniarie, and generallie of all other things, cauſes, quarels, ſutes, iudgements and executions, in this pꝛeſent act hereafter not excepted noꝛ foꝛepꝛiſed, which maie be oꝛ can be by his highneſſe in anie wiſe, oꝛ by anie meane pardoned, befoꝛe and vnto the laſt daie of the month of October, in the one & twentith yeare of his moſt noble reigne, to euerie of his ſaid ſubiects, bodies coꝛpoꝛat, cities, boꝛoughs, ſhires, ridings, hundꝛeds, laths, rapes, wapentakes, towns, villages, and tithings, oꝛ to anie of them. And alſo the kings highneſſe is contented, that it be enacted by authoꝛitie of this pꝛeſent parlement, that this ſaid free pardon ſhall be as good and effectuall in law to euerie of his ſaid ſubiects of this his realme, and to all and euerie of the ſaid bodies coꝛpoꝛat, cities, boꝛoughs, ſhires, ridings, hundꝛeds, laths, rapes, wapentakes, towns, villages, and tithings, and to euerie of them, by theſe generall woꝛds befoꝛe rehearſed, in all things, which be not hereafter excepted as the ſaid pardon ſhould haue beene, if all offences, contempts, foꝛfeitures, cauſes, matters ſutes, quarels, iudgements, executions, penalties, and all other things not hereafter excepted, had be particularlie, ſingularlie, ſpeciallie, and plainlie pardoned, named, rehearſed, and ſpecified, by pꝛoper oꝛ expꝛeſſe woꝛds, and names in their kinds, natures, and qualities, in woꝛds, and terms thereunto requiſit in the ſaid pardon, and that his ſaid ſubiects, noꝛ anie of them, their heirs, executoꝛs, noꝛ adminiſtratoꝛs, noꝛ the heirs, executoꝛs, oꝛ adminiſtratoꝛs of anie of them, noꝛ anie of the ſaid bodies coꝛpoꝛat, cities, boꝛoughs, ſhires, ridings, hundꝛeds, laths, rapes, wapentakes, towns, villages noꝛ tithings, noꝛ anie of them be ſued, vexed, oꝛ inquieted in their bodies, goods, lands, noꝛ chatels, noꝛ anie maner matter, cauſe, contempt, miſdemeanoꝛ, foꝛfeiture, treſpaſſe, offenſe, oꝛ anie other thing ſuffered, doone, oꝛ committed befoꝛe the ſaid laſt daie of October, againſt the kings highneſſe, his crowne, pꝛerogatiue, lawes, ſtatutes, oꝛ dignitie, but onelie foꝛ ſuch cauſes, matters and offenſes as be ſpeciallie and plainlie rehearſed in the exceptions and foꝛepꝛiſes in this pꝛeſent pardon hereafter mentioned, and foꝛ none other. Anie ſtatute oꝛ ſtatutes, lawes, cuſtoms, vſe oꝛ pꝛeſident heretofoꝛe had, made, oꝛ vſed to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Alſo the kings highneſſe of his bountious liberalitie, by authoꝛitie of this pꝛeſent parlement, granteth, and freelie giueth vnto his ſaid ſubiects, and to euery of them, and to euerie of the ſaid bodies coꝛpoꝛat, cities, boꝛoughs, ſhires, ridings, hundꝛeds, laths, wapentakes, towns, villages, and tithings, and to euerie of them all ſuch goods, chattels, fines, iſſues, pꝛofits, amerciaments foꝛfeitures, and ſums of monie, by anie of them foꝛfeited, which to his highneſſe doo oꝛ ſhould belong oꝛ apperteine by reaſon of any offenſe, contempt, miſdemeanoꝛ, treſpaſſe, matter, cauſe, oꝛ quarell, ſuffred, doone, oꝛ committed by them oꝛ anie of them, befoꝛe the ſaid laſt daie of October, which be not hereafter ſpeciallie & plainlie foꝛpꝛiſed & excepted in this pꝛeſent pardon. And that all and euery the kings ſaid ſubiects, and all and euerie bodies coꝛpoꝛat, cities, boꝛoughs, ſhires, ridings, hundꝛeds, laths, rapes, wapentakes, towns, villages, and tithings maie by himſelfe, or his or their atturnie, or atturnies, plead and miniſter this preſent act and free pardon for his or their diſcharge of and for euerie thing that is thereby pardoned without anie fee or other thing therefore in any wiſe paieng to anie perſon or perſons for pleading, writing, or entrie of the iudgement, or for anie other cauſe concerning the ſame, but onlie twelue penſe to the clerke that ſhall enter the plee, matter, or iudgement, for his or their diſcharge in that behalfe, anie eſtatute or vſe to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And furthermore the kings highneſſe is contented, that it be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that his free pardon in all maner courts of his lawes, and elſe where ſhall be reputed, deemed, and iudged, allowed, and taken as well in the words and clauſes of the exceptions and foreppriſes ſpecified in this preſent pardon and act, as in all & ſingular the other clauſes, words, and ſentences, mentioned and rehearſed in the ſaid free pardon, moſt beneficiallie and auaileablie to all and ſingular his ſaid ſubiects of this his realme, and to euerie of the ſaid bodies corporated, cities, boroughs, ſhires, ridings, hundreds, laths, rapes, wapentakes, towns, villages, and tithings, and euerie of them, and moſt ſtronglie in bar and diſcharge againſt his highneſſe, his heirs, ſucceſſors, and executors, in euerie thing without obſtacle, chalenge, or other delate whatſoeuer it be, to be made, pleaded, obiected, or alleaged by the king our ſoueraigne lord, his heirs, ſucceſſors, or executors, or by his or anie of their generall atturnie or atturnies, or by anie other perſon or perſons for his highneſſe, or anie of his heirs, ſucceſſors or executors.

And furthermore it is enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie officer or clerke of his high courts commonlie called the kings bench, chancerie, and common place, or of his excheker, or anie other officer or clerke of anie other of his courts within this realme, after the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God next comming, make out or write out anie maner of writs or other proceſſe or any extracts or other precepts, whereby anie perſon or perſons of his ſaid ſubiects, or anie of the ſaid bodies corporated, cities, boroughs ſhires, ridings, hundreds, laths, rapes, wapentakes, townes, villages, and tithings, or anie of them ſhall be in anie wiſe arreſted, attached, diſtreined, ſummoned, or otherwiſe vexed, troubled or greeued in their bodies, lands, tenements, goods or chattels, or in anie of them, for, or bicauſe of any maner of thing acquited, pardoned, releaſed or diſcharged by this preſent act of free pardon, he ſo offending, and thereof lawfullie condemned, ſhall yeeld and paie for recompenſe thereof to the partie ſo greeued or offended, treble damages, accounted as parcell of thoſe damages, all coſts of the ſute. And neuertheleſſe all and ſingular ſuch writs, proceſſe, extracts and precepts, made or to be made, for or vpon anie maner thing acquited, pardoned, releaſed or diſcharged by this preſent act of free pardon, ſhall be vtterlie void and of none effect.

Except alwaies and forepriſed out of this pardon all maner of high treaſon, all prepenſed and voluntarie murders, all robberies of churches and robberies done vpon or to mens perſons, all other felonies and robberies by the common law, of felonious taking of anie monie, goods or chattels aboue the value of 20 s. all felonious burning of houſes, all carnall rauiſhments of women, all razing of records, all outlawries of high treaſons, and of all maner of felonies, other than felonies to the ſaid value of 20 s. or vnder that ſumme.

And that all other outlawries had or promulged vpon or againſt anie perſon or perſons for anie cauſe not being treaſon, murder or felonie, aboue the ſaid ſum of 20 s. to be pardoned by the generall words of this pardon aforeſaid, ſo alwaie that the ſame perſons and euerie of them ſtand to right to anſwer or ſatiſfie the partie at whoſe ſute he is outlawed, according to the lawes of this realme. Alſo excepted and forepriſed out of this pardon all offenſes and contempts committed and done againſt the ſtatute or ſtatutes of prouiſion and premunire, or anie of them, and of forfeitures and titles that maie grow to the kings highneſſe by reaſon of anie of the ſame eſtatutes, and all tities and actions of Quare impedit, all rauiſhments of the kings wards, all waſts of the kings woods in his forreſts, parks or chaſes, all concealments of cuſtoms and ſubſidie, all riots, routs and vnlawfull aſſemblies committed and done aboue the number of twentie perſons. And alſo except and forepriſed out of this pardon all iſſues, and profits, fines and other penalties for incloſures of lands, and iſſues, profits, fines and other penalties for decaies of houſes and huſbandrie if that the ſame incloſures be not reformed, and the lands put in tillage, or the ſaid houſes not reedified before the laſt daie of September next comming. ¶ And alſo except all maner of alienations & gifts into mortmaine, or the vſe of any maner of mortmaine, & all intruſions, had, made, or done in any manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, ſithens the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, which was in the twentith yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord. ¶ And alſo all offenſes committed by digging downe or caſting downe of anie croſſe or croſſes which ſtood or were ſet in anie common or high waie or waies. And all and ſingular debts, other than debts growing vpon recogniſances being alredie forfeited for ſuertie of the peace, or for apparance at anie daie or place.

And excepted and forepriſed out of this pardon all accounts, and all actions, ſutes, and impetitions for the ſame accounts and arrerages of accounts, and for the ſaid debts or anie of them hereby excepted and forepriſed. All homages and reliefs, all wilfull eſcapes as well of conuicts as other debts, which were due to the moſt noble king of famous memorie king Henrie the 7, or to anie perſon or perſons to his vſe, by anie condemnation, recogniſance, obligation or otherwiſe. All and ſingular thoſe forfeitures due to our ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, by anie penall ſtatute or ſtatutes which be conuerted into the nature of debt by iudgement or by agreement of the offendors before the firſt daie of this preſent parlement, and all forfeitures and other penalties & profits growne or due by reaſon of anie offenſe or act committed or doone contrarie to anie ſtatute or ſtatutes, or contrarie to the common law wherof anie ſeizure is made, or anie information giuen in the kings exccheker, or any ſute there commenſed before the ſaid firſt day of this parlement, or wherof the kings highnes by his bill ſigned, or otherwiſe heretofore hath made anie gift or aſſignment to anie of his ſeruants: and alſo excepted all iſſues forfeited, fines, amerciaments, afferred, taxed, ſet, extreated, or iudged ſeuerally & particularlie, extending to the ſum of fiue pounds, or aboue that ſum. And that all and ſingular other fines, as well fines Pro licentia concordandi, as other, and all other iſſues and amerciaments, as well reall as other, which ſeuerallie or particularlie extend not to the ſaid ſum of 5 pounds, whether they be totted or not totted, taken to the charge of the ſhiriffe, or not taken to his charge, extreated or not extreated, whether they be turned into debt or not debt, and not being leuied nor receiued by any ſhiriffe or ſhirifs, bailifs, miniſters, or other officers, ſhall be fullie cleere and plainly pardoned and diſcharged againſt the king our ſoueraigne lord, his heirs and ſucceſſors for euer.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that in caſe it be obiected to anie ſhiriffe or ſhirifs, or other accountants in the kings court of exccheker, or in anie other his courts, that anie ſhiriffe or ſhirifs or other officers accountant, hath receiued or taken anie ſuch fines, iſſues, or amerciaments before pardoned, releaſed and acquited, that then euerie ſuch ſhiriffe and ſhirifs, and other accountants ſhall be diſcharged, releaſed, pardoned, and acquited thereof by his or their oth, without anie further triall in that behalfe.

An act that abiured perſons ſhall be marked in the right hand with the ſigne of an A.

Chap. 2. Sanctuarie. Abiuration Coroner Marke

BE it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon take ſanctuarie in anie church, churchyard, or other holie place, for felonie or murder, where he ought by the lawes and cuſtoms of this realme, to haue his abiuration for the ſame, that then the ſame felon or murderer, ſhall take his abiuration and paſſage out of the ſame church, churchyard, or other holie place, at ſuch daie and time as ſhall be limited to him by the coroner of the ſhire, or place wherein he taketh ſuch ſanctuarie, and that the coroner immediatlie after his confeſſion, and before his abiuration, ſhall cauſe euerie ſuch felon or murderer to be marked with an hot iron vpon the brawne of the thumbe of the right hand with the ſigne of an A, to the intent he maie be the better knowne among the kings ſubiects, that he was abiured, and then to giue him his abiuration, and to be vſed in all other things as hath beene accuſtomed. And that all maiors, bailifs and conſtables, ſhall be attendant at the commandement of the coroner for the due execution thereof, as they will anſwer at their perils to the kings highneſſe for the ſame.

Refuſe

And if anie felon or murderer that ought to haue anie ſuch abiuration, refuſe to take his paſſage out of the ſaid ſanctuarie, at ſuch time as ſhall be limited to him by the ſaid coroner: that then the ſaid felon or murderer ſo refuſing ſhall loſe the benefit of the ſame ſanctuarie, and be taken out of the ſame, and committed to priſon, and further to be ordred for his offenſe after his merits, without anie reſtitution to ſanctuarie for the ſame.

An act concerning abridgements of plaints in aſſiſe.

Chap. 3. Bar

FOr as much as aſſiſes which haue béene thought the moſt ſpéedie remedie, be now by occaſion of pleading of manie bars to moities and parts of the land put in view and plaint, greatlie delaied for difficulties and diuiſion of pleading. And one cauſe thereof is, becauſe the plaintifs in the aſſiſe in ſuch plées, to moities and parties, can not by the law abridge their plaints.

Abridge plaints

For remedie thereof, be it enacted that the plaintiffe in euerie aſſiſe from henſeforth maie at his pleaſure ſeuer and abridge his plaint, of anie part or parts, whereunto anie bar is pleaded, in ſuch like maner, as he or they might doo in caſe the plées in bar had be made and diuided to anie certeintie or number of acres in the plaint, and that the plaint for the reſidue of the part or parts of the lands not abridged, ſhall be, and ſtand good and effectuall in law.

An act concerning the ſale of lands by executors of the teſtaments.

Chap. 4.

WHere diuers ſundrie perſons before this time, hauing other perſons ſeized to their vſes, of and in lands & other hereditaments to & for the declaration of their wils, haue by their laſt wils and teſtaments willed and declared ſuch their ſaid lands, tenements, or other hereditaments to be ſold by their executors, as well to and for the paiments of their debts, performance of their legacies neceſſarie, and conuenient finding of their wiues, vertuous bringing vp, and aduancement of their children to mariage, as alſo for other charitable déeds to be doone and executed by their executors for the health of their ſoules. And notwithſtanding ſuch truſt and confidence ſo by them put in their ſaid executors, it hath oft times beene ſéene, where ſuch laſt wils and teſtaments of ſuch lands, tenements, and other hereditaments hath beene declared, and in the ſame diuers executors named and made, that after the deceaſe of ſuch teſtators, ſome of the ſame executors willing to accompliſh the truſt and confidence that they were put in by the ſaid teſtator, haue accepted and taken vpon them the charge of the ſaid teſtament, and haue béene readie to fulfill and performe all things conteined in the ſame, and the reſidue of the ſame executors, vncharitablie contrarie to the truſt that they were put in, haue refuſed to intermeddle in anie wiſe with the execution of the ſaid will and teſtament, or with the ſale of ſuch lands ſo willed to be ſold by the teſtator. And foraſmuch as a bargaine and ſale of ſuch lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, ſo willed by anie perſon to be ſold by his executors after his deceaſe, after the opinion of diuerſe perſons, can in no wiſe be good and effectuall in the law, vnleſſe the ſame bargaine and ſale be made by the whole number of the executors, named to and for the ſame: by reaſon whereof aſwell the debts of ſuch teſtators hath reſted vnpaid and vnſatiſfied, to the great danger and perill of the ſoules of ſuch teſtators, and to the great hinderance, and manie times to the vtter vndoing of their creditors. As alſo the legacies and bequeſts made by the teſtator to his wife, children, and for other charitable déeds to be doone for the wealth of the ſoule of the ſame teſtator, that made the ſame teſtament, hath beene alſo vnperformed, aſwell to the extreme miſerie of the wife and children of the ſaid teſtator, as alſo to the let of performance of other charitable déeds for the wealth of the ſoule of the ſaid teſtator, to the diſpleaſure of almightie God. For the remedie whereof, be it enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that where part of the executors named in anie ſuch teſtament of anie ſuch perſon ſo making or declaring anie ſuch will of the lands, tenements or other hereditaments, to be ſold by his executors, after the death of anie ſuch teſtator, doo refuſe to take vpon him or them the adminiſtration and charge of the ſame teſtament and laſt will, wherein they be ſo named to be executors, and the reſidue of the ſame executors doo accept and take vpon them the cure and charge of the ſame teſtament and laſt will: that then all bargains and ſales of ſuch lands, tenements, or other hereditaments ſo willed to be ſold by the executors of anie ſuch teſtator, as well héeretofore made, as héereafter to be made by him or them, onelie of the ſaid executors that ſo doth accept, or that héeretofore hath accepted and taken vpon him or them anie ſuch cure or charge of adminiſtration of anie ſuch will or teſtament, ſhall be as good and as effectuall in the law, as if all the reſidue of the ſame executors, named in the ſaid teſtament, ſo refuſing the adminiſtration of the ſame teſtament, had ioined with him or them in the making of the bargaine, and ſale of ſuch lands, tenements, or other hereditaments ſo willed to be ſold by the executors of anie ſuch teſtator, which héeretofore hath made or declared, or that héereafter ſhall make or declare anie ſuch will of anie ſuch lands, tenements, or other hereditaments after his deceaſe to be ſold by his executors.

Prouided alwaies, that this act ſhall not extend to giue power or authoritie to anie executor or executors at anie time héereafter to bargaine or put to ſale anie lands, tenements, or hereditaments by vertue and authoritie of anie will or teſtament héeretofore made, otherwiſe than they might doo by the courſe of the common law afore the making of this act.

An act concerning probat of teſtaments.

Chap. 5.

WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the one and thirtith yéere of the reigne of the noble king of famous memorie, Edward the third, vpon the complaint of his people for the outragious and gréeuous fines and ſums of monie taken by the miniſters of biſhops, and of other ordinaries of holie church for the probat of teſtaments, and for the acquitances by the ſaid ordinaries to be made concerning the ſame, the ſaid noble king in the ſame parlement openlie charged and commanded the archbiſhop of Canturburie, and the other biſhops for that time being, that amendment thereof ſhould be had. And if none amendment were thereof had, it was by the authoritie of the ſame parlement accorded, that the king ſhould thereof make inquirie by his iuſtices of ſuch oppreſſion and extortions. And that the ſame iuſtices ſhould heare and determine them aſwell at the ſute of the king, as of the partie, as of old time hath béene vſed, as by the ſame ſtatute plainlie appeareth. And where at the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the third yéere of the reigne of king Henrie the fift, it was recited, that the commons of the realme had oftentimes complained them in diuerſe parlements of that, that diuerſe ordinaries take for the probation of teſtaments, and other things thereunto belonging, ſometime fortie ſhillings, ſometime thrée pounds, and ſometime more, againſt right and iuſtice, where in the time of king Edward the third, men were woont to paie for ſuch cauſes but two ſhillings ſix penſe, or fiue ſhillings at the moſt, by which vnlawfull exactions the teſtaments of the teſtators might not be executed according to their laſt wils. It was then enacted for the auoiding of ſuch oppreſſions, that no ordinarie from thenſeforth ſhould take for the probation of any teſtament & inuentorie, or for anie other things to the ſame belonging anie more than was accuſtomed and vſed in the time of the ſaid noble king Edward the 3. vpon paine to yéeld to the partie ſo greeued, thrée times as much as the ſaid ordinaries did ſo receiue, which act did indure but to the next parlement following, by reaſon that the ordinaries did then promiſe to reforme and amend the ſaid oppreſſions and exactions. And for that the ſaid vnlawfull exactions of the ſaid ordinaries and their miniſters, be nothing reformed nor amended, but greatlie augmented and increaſed, againſt right and iuſtice, and to the great impoueriſhing of the kings ſubiects.

The king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, & the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, that from the firſt daie of Aprill, in the yeare of our Lord one thouſand fiue hundred and thirtie, that nothing ſhall be demanded, receiued, nor taken by anie biſhop, ordinarie, archdeacon, chancellor, commiſſarie, officiall, nor anie other maner of perſon or perſons whatſoeuer they be, which now haue, or which at anie time hereafter ſhall haue authoritie or power to take or receiue probation, inſinuation, or approbation of teſtament or teſtaments, by himſelfe or themſelues, nor by his or their regiſters, ſcribes, praiſers, ſummoners, apparators, or by anie other of their miniſters, for the probation, inſinuation, and approbation of anie teſtament or teſtaments, or for writing, Inuentorie ſealing, praiſing, regiſtring, fines, making of inuentories, and giuing of acquitances, or for anie other maner of cauſe concerning the ſame, where the goods of the teſtator of the ſaid teſtament

5. pounds or perſon ſo dieng, doo not amount cleerelie ouer and aboue the value of fiue pounds ſterling, except onelie to the ſcribe to haue for writing of the probat of the teſtament of him deceaſſed, whoſe goods Six penſe ſhall not be aboue the ſame cléere value of fiue pounds ſix penſe, and for the commiſſion of miniſtration of the goods of anie man deceaſſing inteſtat, not being aboue like value of 5 li. cleere, Cōmiſſ. 6 d. ſix penſe and that neuertheleſſe the biſhop, ordinarie, or other perſon or perſons, hauing power or authoritie to take or receiue the probation or approbation of teſtaments, refuſe not to approue anie ſuch teſtament, being lawfullie tendred or offered to them to be prooued or approoued, whereof the goods of the teſtator or perſon ſo dieng, amount not aboue the value of fiue pounds ſterling, ſo that the ſaid teſtament be exhibited to him or them in writing with wax thereunto affixed readie to be ſealed, and that the ſame teſtament be lawfullie prooued before the ſame ordinarie (before the ſealing) to be true, whole, and laſt teſtament of the ſame teſtator, in ſuch forme as hath béene commonlie accuſtomed in that behalfe.

And when the goods of the teſtator doo amount ouer and aboue the cléere value of fiue pounds, 40 pounds doo not excéed the ſumme of fortie pounds ſterling, that then no biſhop, ordinarie, nor other maner of perſon or perſons, whatſoeuer he or they be, now hauing, or which hereafter ſhall haue authoritie to take probation or approbation of anie teſtament or teſtaments as is aforeſaid, by themſelues nor anie of their ſaid regiſters, ſcribes, praiſers, ſummoners, apparators, nor anie other their miniſters, for the probation, inſinuation, and approbation of anie teſtament or teſtaments, or for the regiſtring, ſealing, writing, praiſing, making of inuentories, giuing of acquitances, fines, or anie other thing concerning the ſame, ſhall take, or cauſe to be taken of anie perſon or perſons, but onelie thrée ſhillings ſix penſe, and not aboue, whereof to be to the ſaid biſhop or ordinarie, or to other perſon or perſons, hauing power and authoritie to take the probation or approbation of anie teſtament
3. s. 6. d. or teſtaments, for him and his miniſters two ſhillings ſix penſe, and not aboue, and twelue

And where the goods of the teſtator, or perſon or perſons ſo dieng, doo amount ouer and aboue the cléere value of fortie pounds ſterling, that then the biſhop nor ordinarie, nor other perſon or perſons, now hauing, or which hereafter ſhall haue authoritie or power to take probat of teſtaments, as is aforeſaid, by him or themſelues, nor anie of his or their ſaid regiſters, ſcribes, praiſers, ſummoners, apparators, or anie other their miniſters, for the probation, inſinuation, and approbation of anie teſtament or teſtaments, or for the regiſtring, ſealing, writing, praiſing, making of inuentories, fines, giuing of acquitances, or anie thing concerning the ſame probat of teſtament, ſhall from the ſaid firſt daie of Aprill, take or cauſe to be taken of anie perſon or perſons, but onelie fiue
5. ſhillings ſhillings, and not aboue, whereof to be to the ſaid biſhop, ordinarie, or other perſon hauing power to euerie line to conteine in length ten inches, one penie. And that euerie ſuch biſhop or ordinarie, and other perſon or perſons, ſo hauing or which hereafter ſhall haue authoritie or power to take or receiue the probation or approbation of anie teſtament or teſtaments, as is aboueſaid, their regiſters ¶ Prouided alwaies that this preſent act be not preiudiciall to anie ordinarie or other perſon which now haue or héereafter ſhall haue authoritie for probat of teſtaments,but that euerie of them ſhall and maie conuent before them all and euerie perſon or perſons made and named executor or executors of anie teſtament, to the intent to prooue or refuſe the teſtament or teſtaments of their teſtator or teſtators,and to bring in inuentories, and to doo euerie other thing concerning the ſame as they might doo before the making of this act,ſo that alwaies anie ſuch ordinarie,or other perſon or perſons hauing ſuch authoritie by themſelfe,their commiſſaries, ſcribes,regiſters,or other miniſters aforeſaid, ſhall not in anie wiſe take for the ſame aboue the fées limited by this act, ne in anie wiſe attempt anie thing contrarie to anie part of the ſame act.

An act concerning taking of mortuaries.

Chap.6.

FOr as much as queſtion, ambiguitie, and doubt, is chanced and riſen vpon the order, maner and forme of demanding, receiuing and claiming of mortuaries, otherwiſe called corſe preſents, as well for the greatneſſe and value of the ſame which as hath latly beene taken, is thought ouer exceſſiue to the poore people and other perſons of this realme, as alſo for that ſuch mortuaries or corſe preſents, haue beene demanded and leuied for ſuch as at the time of their death haue had no propertie in anie goods or chattels. And manie times for trauelling and waifaring men in the places where they haue fortuned to die, to the intent that all doubt, contention and incerteintie herein maie be remoued, and as well the generalitie of the kings people therein remedied, as alſo the parſons, vicars, pariſh preeſts, curats, and others hauing intereſt in ſuch mortuaries and corſe preſents, indifferentlie prouided for.

¶ Be it therefore enacted ordeined & eſtabliſhed by the king our ſouereigne lord, & the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons of this parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that from the firſt daie of Aprill, in the yeare of our Lord 1530, no parſon, vicar, curat, or pariſh preeſt, ne anie other ſpirituall perſon, nor their farmars, bailifs, nor leaſſees, ſhall take, receiue, or demand of anie perſon or perſons within this realme, for anie perſon or perſons dieng within the ſame, anie maner mortuarie or corſe preſent, ne anie ſum or ſums of monie, ne anie other thing for the ſame, more than is hereafter mentioned.

Ne alſo ſhall conuent or call anie perſon or perſons before anie iudge ſpirituall, for the recouerie of anie ſuch mortuaries or corſe preſents, or anie other thing for the ſame more than is hereafter mentioned, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie time ſo demanding, receiuing, taking, conuenting, or calling anie ſuch perſon or perſons before anie ſpirituall iudge, ſo much in value as they ſhall take aboue the ſum limited by this act. And ouer that fortie ſhillings to the partie greeued contrarie to this act, for the which forfeiture the partie ſo greeued contrarie to this act, ſhall haue an action of debt by writ, bill, plaint, or information in anie of the kings courts, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, nor protection ſhall be allowed.

Firſt it is ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, that no manner mortuarie ſhall be taken or demanded of anie perſon whatſoeuer he be, which at the time of his death hath in moueable goods vnder the value of ten marks. Alſo that no mortuarie ſhall be giuen or demanded from henſeforth of anie maner perſon, but onelie in ſuch place where heretofore mortuaries haue beene vſed to be paid and giuen, and in thoſe places none otherwiſe but after the rate and forme hereafter mentioned. Ne that anie perſon paie mortuaries in more places than one, that is to ſaie, in the place of their moſt dwelling and habitation, and there but one mortuarie. Nor no parſon, vicar, curat, pariſh preeſt, or others, ſhall for anie perſon dieng, or dead, and being at the time of his death of the value in moueable goods of ten marks or more cleerelie, aboue his debts paid, and vnder the ſumme of thirtie pounds, take for a mortuarie three ſhillings foure penſe in the whole. And for a perſon dieng or dead, being at the time of his death of the value of thirtie pounds or aboue, cleerelie aboue his debts paid in moueable goods, and vnder the value of fortie pounds, there ſhall no more be taken or demanded for a mortuarie, than ſix ſhillings eight penſe in the whole, and for anie perſon dieng or dead, hauing at the time of his death of the value in moueable goods of fortie pounds or aboue, to anie ſum whatſoeuer it be, cleerelie aboue his debts paid, there ſhall be no more taken, paid, or demanded for a mortuarie, than ten ſhillings in the whole.

Prouided alwaie, that for no woman being couert baron nor child, ne for anie perſon not keeping houſe, anie maner mortuarie be paid, ne that anie parſon, vicar, curat, pariſh preeſt, or other, aſke, demand, or take for anie ſuch woman, child, or for anie perſon not keeping houſe, dieng, or dead, anie maner thing or monie by waie of mortuarie, ne alſo for anie waifaring man, or other that dwelleth not ne maketh reſidens in the place where they ſhall happen to die, but that the mortuarie of ſuch waifaring perſons, be anſwerable in places where mortuaries be accuſtomed to be paid, and in maner and forme, and after the rate before mentioned, and none otherwiſe, in the place or places where ſuch waifaring perſons, at the time of their death had their moſt habitation, houſe, and dwelling places, and no where elſe.

¶ Prouided alwaie that it ſhall be lawfull to all maner parſons, vicars, curats, pariſh preeſts, and other ſpirituall perſons, to take and receiue anie maner ſumme of monie, or other thing which by anie perſon dieng, ſhall fortune be diſpoſed, giuen, or bequeathed vnto them, or anie of them, or to the high altar of the church, this act or anie thing therein mentioned notwithſtanding.

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no mortuaries nor corſe preſents, ne anie ſum or ſums of monie or other thing, for anie mortuarie or corſe preſent ſhall be demanded, taken, receiued, or had in the parties of Wales, nor in the marches of the ſame, nor in the towns of Calis or Barwike, nor the marches of the ſame, but onelie in ſuch parties and places of Wales, marches, and towns aforeſaid, where mortuaries hath beene accuſtomed to be taken & paid. And in thoſe parties & places, no mortuaries nor corſe preſents, nor anie other thing for mortuarie or corſe preſent from henſeforth ſhall be demanded, taken, receiued or had, but onlie after the forme, order, and maner aboue ſpecified in this preſent act, and none otherwiſe, ne of anie other perſon or perſons than is limited by this preſent act, vpon the paine aboue conteined in this preſent act.

Prouided alſo that it ſhall be lawfull to the biſhops of Bangor, Landaffe, ſaint Dauids, and ſaint

S. Aſſe, and likewiſe to the archdeacon of Cheſter, to take ſuch mortuaries of the préeſts within their dioceſſe and iuriſdictions, as héeretofore haue béene accuſtomed.

Prouided alſo, that in ſuch like places where mortuaries haue béene accuſtomed to be taken of leſſe value than is aforeſaid, that no perſon ſhall be compelled to paie, in anie ſuch place, anie other mortuarie, or more for anie mortuarie than hath béene accuſtomed, ne that anie mortuarie in ſuch place ſhall be demanded, taken, receiued, or had, of anie perſon or perſons, exempt by this act, nor in anie wiſe contrarie to this act vpon the paine afore limited.

An act againſt ſeruants imbezelling their maiſters goods.

Chap.7.

WHere before this time diuerſe, aſwell noble men, as other the kings ſubiects haue vpon confidence and truſt deliuered vnto their ſeruants their caſkets, and other iewels, monie, goods and chattels ſafelie to kéepe to the vſe of their ſaid maiſters or miſtreſſes, and after ſuch deliuerie the ſaid ſeruants haue withdrawne themſelfe, and gone away from their ſaid maiſters or miſtreſſes with the ſaid caſkets, iewels, monie, goods and chattels, or part thereof, to the intent to ſteale the ſame, and defraud their ſaid maiſters or miſtreſſes thereof, and ſometime being with their ſaid maiſters and miſtreſſes haue conuerted the ſaid iewels, monie, and other chattels, or part thereof to their owne vſe, which miſbehauior ſo doone, was doubtfull in the common law whether it were felonie or not. And by reaſon thereof the foreſaid ſeruants haue béene in great boldneſſe to commit ſuch or like offenſes. Be it therefore enacted, ordeined & eſtabliſhed by the king our ſouereigne lord, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all and ſingular ſuch ſeruants to whom anie ſuch caſkets, iewels, monie, goods or chattels by his or their ſaid maiſters or miſtreſſes, ſhall from henſeforth ſo be deliuered to kéepe, that if anie ſuch ſeruant or ſeruants, withdraw him or them from their ſaid maiſters or miſtreſſes, and go awaie with the ſaid caſkets, iewels, monie, goods or chattels, or anie part thereof to the intent to ſteale the ſame, and defraud his or their ſaid maiſters or miſtreſſes thereof, contrarie to the truſt and confidence to him or them put by his or their ſaid maiſters and miſtreſſes, or elſe being in the ſeruice of his ſaid maiſter or miſtreſſe, without aſſent or commandement of his maiſter or miſtreſſe, he imbezell the ſame caſkets, iewels, monie, goods or chattels, or anie part thereof, or otherwiſe conuert the ſame to his owne vſe, with like purpoſe to ſteale it, that if the ſaid caſkets, iewels, monie, goods or chattels, that anie ſuch ſeruant ſhall ſo go awaie with, or which he ſhall imbezell with purpoſe to ſteale it, as is aforeſaid, be of the value of fortie ſhillings or aboue; that then the ſame falſe, fraudulent and vntrue act and demeanor from henſeforth ſhall be déemed and adiudged felonie: and he or they ſo offending to be puniſhed as other felons be puniſhed for felonies committed by the courſe of the common law.

Goods worth 40 ſhillings Felonie

Prouided alwaies that this act or anie thing therein conteined ſhall not in anie wiſe extend or be preiudiciall to anie apprentiſe or apprentiſes, nor anie perſon within the age of eightéene yéeres, going awaie with his or their maiſters goods or iewels, or otherwiſe conuerting the ſame to his or their owne vſes, during the time of their apprentiſhip, or being within the ſame age of eightéene yéeres, but that euerie apprentiſe or apprentiſes ſuch perſon or perſons being within the ſaid age dooing or offending contrarie to this preſent act, ſhall be and ſtand in like caſe as they and euerie of them were before the making of this act: the ſame act to continue and indure vnto the next parlement.

Apprentiſes Age

An act againſt killing of calues.

Chap.8.

FOraſmuch as of old time great multitude of cattell was yéerelie increaſed by weaning, bringing vp, and rearing of calues throughout this realme, whereby the number of oxen, kine and ſteres were in ſuch abundance and plentie, that beefe & all other vittell was then good cheape, and ſold to the kings ſubiects at reaſonable penie worths and priſes, vntill now of late yéeres paſſed, that the bréeders of ſuch calues of their couetous minds haue vſed to ſell their calues yoong ſucking to butchers, weining, rearing, and bringing vp few or none, whereby the increaſe of old cattell, and alſo the increaſe that ſhould or might haue come or growne of the ſame is maruellouſlie miniſhed and decreaſed in ſuch wiſe, that great dearth of cattell and other vittell hath and doth dailie ſpring, grow, continue and ariſe throughout this realme, not onelie to the great inhanſing of the priſes of beefs and all maner vittell, but alſo to the great miniſhing and impairing of good hoſpitalitie, and extreme vndooing of the kings poore and néedie ſubiects within the ſame, which inconuenience and great ſcarſitie is like to inſue & increaſe more and more, if ſpéedie remedie be not prouided in that behalfe.

Be it therefore ordeined and enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that no maner of perſon or perſons being butchers or other, inhabiting within this realme, Wales, or the marches of the ſame, ſhall from the firſt daie of Ianuarie next comming during thrée whole yéeres then next following, kill or cauſe to be killed anie maner yoong ſucking calfe or calues to be ſold or put to ſale to anie perſon or perſons, whole or by retaile, which calfe or calues ſo héereafter to be killed, ſhall happen to fall or to be calued betwéene the ſaid firſt daie of Ianuarie and the firſt daie of Maie, in anie of the ſaid thrée whole yéeres, vpon paine of ſix ſhillings and eight penſe for euerie calfe fallen or calued betwéene the ſaid daies, and killed and put to ſale contrarie to this act to be paid and forfeited by euerie ſuch butcher or butchers,which ſhall kill or cauſe to be killed or put to ſale anie ſuch calfe or calues, ſo falling & to be calued betwéene the ſaid firſt daie of Ianuarie & the ſaid firſt daie of Maie during the ſaid thrée yéeres. The one halfe of euerie ſuch forfeiture to be to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king, and the other halfe to the partie that will ſue for the ſame by bill, action of debt, or information in anie of the kings courts, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine nor protection ſhall be allowed.

L. marcher

Prouided alwaies that euerie lord marcher haue the forfeits, profits,and aduantages onlie of euerie ſuch offendor and offendors, againſt the purueieng of this act within their ſeigniories,liberties and franchiſes roiall.

An act limiting the priſe of hats and caps brought from beyond the ſea.

Chap. 9.

The king our ſouereigne lord by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined,eſtabliſhed, & enacted, for the commonwealth of the ſubiects of this his relme, that no maner perſon or perſons whatſoeuer he or they be, from the feaſt of the Purification of our ladie next comming doo ſell or cauſe to be ſold within this realme to anie perſon or perſons, anie woollen hats or bonets, or woollen hat or cap, made or to be made in anie place or places out of this realme of England,in any of the parties of beyond the ſea,ouer or aboue the priſes vnder written,that is to ſaie, no ſuch cap or bonet to be ſold aboue the ſumme of two ſhillings ſterling,and no ſuch hat to be ſold aboue the ſum of ten penſe, and no ſuch ſingle crowned cap nor ſingle night cap to be ſold aboue the ſum of ſix penſe,vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch bonet, cap or hat, at anie time after the ſaid feaſt to be ſold ouer the priſe aboueſaid,contrarie to the tenor of this act,fortie ſhillings ſterling,all which forfeiture ſhall extend onelie to the loſſe of the ſeller or ſellers thereof, and to none other, the one halfe thereof to be leuied and recouered to the vſe of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to the partie that will ſue for the ſame in anie of our ſouereigne lord the kings courts by action of debt,bill,information or otherwiſe,in which action or ſute no protection,wager of law,nor eſſoine ſhall be allowed or admitted.

Priſes of hats & caps

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid,that euerie perſon or perſons, buieng or wearing anie ſuch bonet, cap or hat,made out of this realme, maie lawfullie at all times héereafter vſe,weare and deteine anie ſuch bonet,cap or hat,caps or hats,without ſeizure of the ſame,or anie danger, loſſe or other forfeiture or penaltie, to be had or ſuffered for the ſame. Anie matter, clauſe, or other thing conteined or expreſſed in this preſent act or acts heeretofore made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act againſt carrieng out of braſſe,lattin,and copper.

Chap. 10.

Foraſmuch as there is no mine of mettall of copper, within this realme of England found nor had, where ſufficient copper maie be gathered for the vſe of the king our ſouereigne lord,and for the people of this realme,and alſo foraſmuch as diuerſe mines of copper in the parties of beyond the ſea,be now latelie miniſhed and decaied,by reaſon whereof the priſe of copper is greatlie riſen aſwell in the parties of beyond the ſea as in this realme, of the which copper diuerſe mettals mixed be made, aſwell lattin of the which the founders make diuerſe veſſels, inſtruments and other neceſſarie things, as alſo pan mettall, braſſe mettall, gun mettall,and bell mettall, made and wrought by diuerſe artificers within this relme,which be now alſo at a great priſe, and alſo where diuerſe within this realme of late haue carried and conueied, and dailie vſe to carrie and conueie into the parties of beyond the ſea, much lattin, braſſe, and ſuch mettall,mixed aſwell in old pan mettall,and broken veſſels,and inſtruments,as in mettall ſhroffe and other things,not onelie to the great hurt of our ſouereigne lord the king,in lacking mettall to make and furniſh his ordinance, but alſo to the great hurt and decaie of all ſuch artificers which vſe to worke anie ſuch mettall, and to the hurt of the kings léege people, notwithſtanding that a redreſſe was communed by the king our ſouereigne lord, and the lords of his honorable counſell in Eaſter terme laſt paſt,ſithens which time much of the ſaid mettall hath béene conueied.

Forfeit.

¶ Be it therfore enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement,that no perſon or perſons, from henſeforth doo conueie or carrie anie ſuch mettall, whether it be cleane or mixed,to anie port, hauen place,or créeke,of this his realme,in anie ſhip,veſſell, or bote,to be carried or conueied into anie part beyond the ſea vpon paine of forfeiture of all the ſaid mettall,in whoſe hands ſoeuer they be found, or the value of the ſame, the one moitie of the ſaid forfeiture to be to our ſouereigne lord the king, and the other moitie to the vſe of him that ſhall take or find the ſame forfeiture. This act to continue vnto the next parlement.

An act for reſtitution of goods felonionſlie ſtollen.

Chap. 11.

Be it enacted by this preſent parlement, that if anie felon or felons héereafter doo rob or take awaie anie monie,goods or chattels, from anie of the kings ſubiects from their perſon or otherwiſe within this realme: and thereof the ſaid felon or felons be indicted, and after arreigned of the ſame felonie, & found giltie thereof, or otherwiſe attainted by reaſon of euidence giuen by the partie ſo robbed,or owner of the ſaid monie,goods or chattels,or by anie other by their procurement,that then the partie ſo robbed or owner ſhall be reſtored to his ſaid monie,goods & chattels,and that aſwell the iuſtices of gaole deliuerie,as other iuſtices,afore whom anie ſuch felon or felons ſhall be found giltie, or otherwiſe attainted by reaſon of euidence giuen by the partie ſo robbed,or owner,or by anie other by their procurement,haue power by this preſent act to award from time to time writs of reſtitution for the ſaid monie, goods & chattels, in like maner as though anie ſuch felon or felons were attainted at the ſute of the partie in appeale.

An act for true making of cables,halſers and ropes.

Chap.12.

MOſt humblie beſéeching your highneſſe the bailifs, burgeſſes, and other the inhabitants of your towne and borough of Burport within your countie of Dorſet,that where they out of time, that no mans mind is to the contrarie, haue vſed and exerciſed to make within the ſame, the moſt part of all the great cables, halſers, ropes, and all other tackling aſwell for your roiall ſhips and nauie as for the moſt part of all other ſhips within this realme, by reaſon whereof your ſaid towne was right well mainteined and inhabited, and your highneſſe, and your ſubiects right well ſerued, vntill now of late manie diuerſe & euill diſpoſed perſons intending the deſtruction of your ſaid towne for their priuat lucre and aduantage haue withdrawne themſelfe into the countrie in diuerſe places there taking farmes,and vſing huſbandrie out of the ſaid towne,and alſo dailie reſort to your ſaid towne, to buie and prouide hempe, and thereof make cables, ropes, halſers, traces, halters, and other tackle, which cables, ropes, halſers, traces, and other tackle béene by the ſaid perſons ſleightlie and deceiuablie made, by reaſon whereof not onelie the buiers of the ſame béene continuallie therby deceiued, but alſo the priſes of the ſaid cables,halſers,traces, halters,and other tackle thereby greatlie inhanſed,and your ſaid towne or borough by meane therof is like vtterlie to be decaied,ruined and deſolated,if ſpéedie remedie be not by your highneſſe in that caſe prouided.

Burport Hempe

Be it therefore enacted by your highneſſe, by the lords ſpirituall and temporall and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that no maner perſon or perſons dwelling or inhabiting within the diſtance of fiue miles from the ſaid towne or borough of Burport ſhall from henſeforth ſell or cauſe to be ſold out of the market, holden and to be holden within the ſame towne or borough of Burport to anie perſon or perſons,anie hempe,which ſhall happen to grow within the ſaid fiue miles in diſtance from the ſaid towne or borough, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaid hempe ſo ſold or to be ſold in anie place or places within the diſtance of the ſaid fiue miles out of the ſaid towne, borough or market,contrarie to the forme and effect of this eſtatute.

¶ And further be it enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that no perſon nor perſons, other than ſuch as ſhall dwell and be inhabitants within the ſaid towne, ſhall make after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, out of the ſaid towne, anie cables,halſers,ropes,traces, halters,or anie other tackle made of hempe in anie other place or places within the ſaid diſtance of fiue miles from the ſaid towne, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaid cables,halſers,ropes,traces,halters,& other tackle made and to be made contrarie to the forme and effect of this eſtatute, the one halfe of euerie ſuch forfeitures,aſwell for the hempe ſo ſold or to be ſold out of the ſaid towne,borough and market,contrarie to the forme aforeſaid,as alſo the ſaid cables,halſers. ropes,traces,halters, and other tackle made out of the ſaid towne contrarie to this eſtatute , to be to the vſe of our ſoureigne lord the king, and the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill, or information, wherein neither wager of law,eſſoine,nor protection ſhall be allowed.

Stone weight

¶ Prouided alwaies,that twentie pounds weight ſhall be accounted to the ſtone.

¶ Prouided alſo, that euerie perſon dwelling within the ſaid diſtance, maie make cables,halſers, ropes, traces, halters, and other tackle for their owne vſe and occupations, but in no wiſe against this act : this act to indure vnto the next parlement.

An act againſt pluralities of benefices,for taking of farmes by ſpirituall men,and for reſidents.

Chap.13.

FOr the more quiet and vertuous increaſe and maintenance of diuine ſeruice,the preaching and teaching the word of God, which godlie and good example giuing the better diſcharge of curats,the maintenance of hoſpitalitie,the reléefe of poore people, the increaſe of deuotion, and good opinion of the laie fée towards the ſpirituall perſons : be it enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoueréigne lord,with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,and by authoritie of the ſame,that no ſpirituall perſon, ſecular or regular,of what degrée ſoeuer he or they be, ſhall from henſeforth take to farme to himſelfe or to anie perſon or perſons to his vſe of the leaſe or grant of the king our ſouereigne lord, nor of anie other perſon or perſons,by letters patents,indentures,writings, by word or otherwiſe by anie maner of meanes, anie manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments for terme of life, for terme of yéeres, or at will, vpon paine to forfeit ten pounds for euerie moneth that he or anie other to his vſe,ſhall occupie anie ſuch farme by reaſon of anie ſuch leaſe or grant héereafter to be made. The one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the king our ſouereigne lord,and the other halfe thereof to euerie ſuch perſon as will ſue for the ſame, by originall writ, bill or plaint of debt,or by anie information in anie of the kings courts : in which action and ſute no wager of law ſhall be admitted for the defendant,nor anie eſſoine,or protection allowed.

Leaſes Farms

¶ And Rents.

¶ And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie ſuch ſpirituall perſon or perſons, which now haue or occupie in farme by themſelfe, or by anie other to their vſe, anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of the leaſe or grant of the king our ſouereigne lord, or anie other perſon or perſons for terme of life, or for yeeres, or at will by anie writing or otherwiſe, or that now haue anie annuall rents, or other annuall aduantage or profit by occaſion or colour of anie ſuch leaſe or farme, ſhall cléerelie bargaine, ſell, giue or grant awaie on this ſide the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming to anie ſuch laie perſon or perſons as they will at their owne nominations and appointment, all ſuch leaſe, terme, intereſt, and profit as any ſuch ſpirituall perſon or anie other to his vſe now hath or haue, in, or by reaſon of anie ſuch farme: ſo that in no wiſe anie ſuch ſpirituall perſon or perſons at anie time after the ſame feaſt, by themſelfe or anie other to their vſe by any maner of meanes, fraud or male engine, ſhall haue, vſe or occupie in farme anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of the demiſe, leaſe, or grant of anie perſon or perſons héeretofore made, or heereafter to be made to themſelfe or to anie other to their vſes: nor from the ſaid feaſt ſhall take anie annuall rent or other annuall aduantage or profit by occaſion or colour of anie ſuch leaſe or farme, by anie maner of meanes vpon paine to forfeit for euerie moneth ſo occupieng anie ſuch farme, at anie time after the ſaid feaſt contrarie to this preſent act, ten pounds, and vpon paine to forfeit ten times as much as anie ſuch ſpirituall perſon, or anie to his vſe, ſhall take in anie annuall rent, aduantage or profit, by occaſion or colour of anie ſuch leaſe, at any time after the ſaid feaſt: the one halfe of which forfeitures to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame by originall writ, bill or plaint of debt, or by information in anie of the kings courts, in which action and ſute no wager of law ſhall be admitted for the defendant, nor anie eſſoine or protection allowed.

¶ And be it alſo enacted that all ſuch leaſes made or héereafter to be made, vnto anie ſuch ſpirituall perſon or perſons, or to anie other to their vſe for terme of life, terme of yéeres, or at will of anie manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, whereof they or anie of them ſhall take anie profit, or medling by themſelfe, or by anie of their vſe after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell, by colour of anie ſuch leaſe or grant, and none by them bargained, granted and ſold awaie before the ſaid feaſt as is before limited, ſhall from thenſefoorth be vtterlie void and of none effect, aſwell againſt the leaſor or leaſors, grantor or grantors, their heires & aſſignes, and againſt euerie of them, as againſt the leaſée or leaſées, and their executors and aſſignes, and euerie of them.

Temporalties.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that this preſent act ſhall not extend to anie ſpirituall perſon or perſons, in and for taking to farme anie temporalties during the time of vacations of anie archbiſhopriks, biſhopriks, abbeies, priories, or other collegiall, cathedrall or conuentuall churches, nor to anie ſpirituall perſon or perſons that ſhall tend or make any trauerſe vpon any offices or office concerning his or their fréehold.

Buie to ſell.

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no ſpirituall perſon or perſons ſecular or regular, of what eſtate or degrée ſoeuer they be, ſhall from henſefoorth by himſelfe, nor by anie other for him, nor to his vſe, bargaine, and buie to ſell againe for anie lucre, gaine, or profit, in anie markets, faires, or other places, anie maner of chattels, corne, lead, tin, hides, lether, tallow, fiſh, wooll, wood, or anie maner of vittell, or merchandize, what kind ſoeuer they be of, vpon paine to forfeit treble the value of euerie thing by them, or by anie to their vſe bargained and bought to ſell againe contrarie to this preſent act. And that euerie ſuch bargaine and contract héereafter to be made by them, or by anie to their vſe contrarie to this act, ſhall be vtterlie void and of none effect. And the one halfe of euerie ſuch forfeiture to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame by originall writ of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in anie of the kings courts: in which action or ſute no wager of law for the defendant ſhalbe admitted, nor any eſſoine, nor protection allowed.

Horſſes.

Cattell.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that if anie ſuch ſpirituall perſon or perſons, ſhall happen héerafter without fraud or couine to buie anie horſſes, mares, or mules to the onlie intent to occupie for himſelfe or his ſeruants, to ride to and fro, vpon his neceſſarie buſineſſe, or anie other chattels or goods to the onelie intent and purpoſe at the buieng thereof to be imploied and put in and about his neceſſarie apparell of his owne houſe, or of his perſon, and ſeruants, or in, for and about the onelie occupieng, manuring or tillage of his owne glebe or demeane lands annexed to his church, or for the neceſſarie expenſes of his owne houſhold keeping. And after the buieng of anie ſuch horſſes, chattels or goods, or exerciſe of them or anie of them, happeneth to miſlike anie of them that they ſhould not be good, profitable nor conuenient for anie of the purpoſes aboueſaid, for the which they were bought: that then euerie ſuch ſpirituall perſon or perſons maie lawfullie bargaine and put awaie ſuch things ſo by him bought, without fraud or couine for anie of the purpoſes aboueſaid, at his pleaſure and aduantage: this act or anie thing therein conteined notwithſtanding.

Abbots, &c.

Hoſpitalitie

¶ Prouided alwaies, that all abbats, priors, abbeſſes, prioreſſes, prouoſts, preſidents, maiſters of colleges and hoſpitals, and all other ſpirituall gouernors and gouerneſſes of anie ſpirituall monaſteries or houſes of religion by what name or names ſoeuer they be called, hauing manors, lands and tenements, hereditaments and other yéerelie profits in the right of their monaſteries or houſes of the yéerelie value of eight hundred marks or vnder, and not aboue, maie vſe & occupie as much & as manie of their demeane lands, fée farmes, and farmes to their moſt aduantage, commoditie and profit, to and for the onelie maintenance of their houſholds and hoſpitalities in as ample and as large maner as they or anie of them or their predeceſſors, or the predeceſſors of anie of them, at anie time by the ſpace of one hundred yeeres laſt paſt, before the making of this act haue done, vſed and occupied, anie thing in this preſent act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶ Prouided alſo, that euerie other ſpirituall perſon and perſons, not hauing ſufficient glebe or demaine lands in their owne hands, in the right of their churches, monaſteries, and houſes for paſturage of cattels, or for increaſe of cornes, to and for the onelie expenſes of their houſholds, or for their cariages and iournies, maie take in farme other lands and buie & ſell corne and cattell for the onelie manurance, tillage, and paſturage of ſuch farmes, ſo that the increaſe thereof be allwaies imploied, and put to, and for the onelie expenſes in their houſholds and hoſpitalities, and not in anie wiſe to buie and ſell againe, for anie other commoditie, lucre or aduantage, anie corne or cattell, renewing, comming, or growing in and vpon anie ſuch farme or otherwiſe but onelie the remaine and ouerplus about their expenſes of their houſholds, if anie ſuch ſhall happen to the breed and increaſes thereof, without fraud or couin: anie thing in this preſent act to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding.

¶ And be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons hauing one benefice with cure of ſoule, being of the yeerelie value of eight pounds or aboue, accept and take anie other with cure of ſoule, and be inſtituted and inducted in poſſeſſion of the ſame, that then and immediatlie after ſuch poſſeſſion had thereof, the firſt benefice ſhall be adiudged in the law to be void. And that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie patron hauing the aduouſon thereof to preſent an other, and the preſentor to haue the benefit of the ſame in ſuch like maner and forme, as though the incumbent had died or reſigned, anie licence, vnion, or diſpenſation to the contrarie hereof obteined notwithſtanding.

Benefice of eight pouds

And that euerie ſuch licence, vnion or diſpenſation had, or heereafter to be obteined contrarie to this preſent act, of what name or names, qualitie or qualities ſoeuer they be, ſhall be vtterlie void and of none effect. And if anie perſon or perſons at anie time after the firſt daie of Aprill in the yeere of our Lord God, 1530, contrarie to this preſent act, procure and obteine at the court of Rome or els where anie licence or licences, vnion, tolleration or diſpenſation, to receiue and take any more benefices with cure than is aboue limited, or els at anie time after the ſaid daie put in execution any ſuch licence, tolleration, or diſpenſation before that obteined contrarie to this act, that then euerie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo after the ſaid date ſuing for himſelfe, or receiuing and taking ſuch benefice by force of ſuch licence or licences, vnion, tolleration or diſpenſation, that is to ſaie, the ſame perſon or perſons onelie and none other, ſhall for euerie ſuch default incur the danger, paine and penaltie of twentie pounds ſterling. And alſo looſe the whole profits of euerie ſuch benefice or benefices as he receiueth or taketh by force of anie ſuch licence or licences, vnion, tolleration or diſpenſation. The one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the king our ſoucreigne lord, and the other halfe thereof to him that will ſue for the ſame by originall writ, bill, plaint of debt, or information in anie of the kings courts, in which action and ſute no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection for the defendant ſhall be admitted or allowed.

Licences

¶ Prouided alwaies that this act concerning the not keeping of mo benefices with cure of ſoule than one, extend ne be preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons, which at anie time before the ſaid firſt daie of Aprill in the yeere of our Lord God 1530, ſhall be reallie intituled or poſſeſſed of anie ſuch benefices with cure of ſoule, as concerning or touching anie of the ſame benefices, whereof they ſhall then be alreadie reallie intituled or poſſeſſed, before the ſaid daie to or vnder the number of foure and not aboue, and if anie ſuch ſpirituall perſon or perſons ſo being intituled or poſſeſſed of mo benefices with cure of ſoule than foure, doo not by the ſaid firſt daie of Aprill cleerelie and without yeerely penſion reſigne or otherwiſe giue vp all and euerie ſuch benefices and benefice, as he ſhall be ſo intituled and poſſeſſed of aboue the ſaid number, that then it ſhall be lawfull for euerie patron hauing the aduouſon of anie ſuch benefice ouer the number aforeſaid, to preſent an other, and the preſentor to haue the benefit of the ſame in like maner and forme, as though it had beene void by death or reſignation of the incumbent anie licence, vnion, or other diſpenſation to the contrarie hereof obteined notwithſtanding. And this clauſe of preſentation to be taken and vnderſtanden and of ſuch benefices with cure of ſoule, as were giuen to anie ſuch ſpirituall perſon after the ſaid number of foure benefices with cure furniſhed and fulfilled.

Foure benefices.

¶ Prouided alſo that all ſpirituall men now being or which heereafter ſhall be of the kings counſell, maie purchaſe licence or diſpenſation, and take, receiue and keepe three parſonages or benefices with cure of ſoule, and that all other being the kings chaplens, and not ſworne of his counſell, the chaplens of the queene, prince or princeſſe, or of anie the kings children, brethren, ſiſters, vncles or ants, maie ſemblablie purchaſe licence or diſpenſation, and receiue and keepe two parſonages or benefices with cure of ſoule. And likewiſe that euerie archbiſhop and duke maie haue ſix chaplens, whereof euerie one ſhall and maie purchaſe licence, or diſpenſation, and take, receiue and keepe two parſonages or benefices with cure of ſoule, and that euerie marques and earle maie haue fiue chaplens, whereof euerie one maie purchaſe licence or diſpenſation, and take, receiue and keepe two parſonages or benefices with cure of ſoule. And that euerie viſcount and other biſhop maie haue foure chaplens whereof euerie one may purchaſe licence, and receiue, haue and keepe two parſonages or benefices with cure of ſoule as is aforeſaid. And that the chancellor of England for the time being, & euerie baron and knight of the garter maie haue three chaplens whereof euerie one ſhall now purchaſe licence or diſpenſation and receiue, haue, and keepe two benefices with cure of ſoule. And that euerie duches, marques, counteſſe & baroneſſe, being widowes, maie haue two chaplens whereof euerie one of them maie purchaſe licence or diſpenſation to receiue, haue, and keepe two benefices with cure of ſoule, and that the treaſuror and controllor of the kings houſe, the kings ſecretarie, and deane of his chapell, the kings amner, and the maiſter of the rols, maie haue euerie of them two chaplens, & the cheefe iuſtices of the kings bench one chaplen. And the warden of the fiue ports for the time being one chaplen, whereof euerie one maie purchaſe licence and receiue, haue, and keepe two parſonages or benefices with cure of ſoule. And that the brethren and ſonnes of all temporall lords which are borne in wedlocke, maie euerie of them purchaſe licence or diſpenſation, and receiue, haue, and keepe as manie parſonages or benefices with cure, as the chaplens of a duke or an archbiſhop. And likewiſe the brethren and ſons borne in wedlocke of euerie knight, maie euerie of them purchaſe licence or diſpenſation, and receiue, take, and keepe two parſonages or benefices with cure of ſoule.

Letters teſtimoniall.

¶ Prouided alwaies that the ſaid chaplens ſo purchaſing, taking, receiuing, and keeping, benefices with cure of ſoule, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be bound to haue and exhibit where need ſhall be, letters vnder the ſigne and ſeale of the king, or other their lord and maiſter teſtifieng whoſe chaplens they be, and els not to inioy anie ſuch pluralitie of benefices by ſuch chaplen. Anie thing in this act notwithſtanding.

Doctors Bachelers

¶ Be it alſo prouided, that all doctors and bachelers of diuinitie, doctors of law, and bachelers of law canon, and euerie of them which ſhall be admitted to anie of the ſaid degrees, by anie of the vniuerſities of this realme, and not by grace onelie, maie purchaſe licence, and take, haue & keepe two parſonages or benefices with cure of ſoule, ſo that alwaies the ſaid libertie by anie of the prouiſions beforeſaid, giuen to anie of the ſaid counſellers, chaplens, and other perſons before ſpecified, to purchaſe licence or diſpenſation, and take, receiue and keepe mo benefices than one after the maner and forme aforeſaid, be taken and vnderſtanden to extend in number to no mo benefices with cure of ſoule than is aboue limited, accounting in the ſame and as parcell thereof ſuch benefices with cure of ſoule, as anie of the ſaid perſons ſhall haue in reall title, or in their poſſeſſion at the ſaid firſt daie of Aprill, in the yeere of our Lord God 1530.

Archbiſh.

¶ Prouided alſo that euerie archbiſhop becauſe he muſt occupie eight chaplens at conſecrations of biſhops. And euerie biſhop becauſe he muſt occupie ſix chaplens, at giuing of orders and conſecrations of churches, maie euerie of them haue two chaplens ouer and aboue the number aboue limited vnto them, whereof euerie one maie purchaſe licence or diſpenſation, and take, receiue, and keepe as manie parſonages & benefices with cure of ſoule, as is before aſſigned of ſuch chaplens.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons to whom anie number of chaplens or anie chaplen by anie of the prouiſions aforeſaid is limited ſhall in anie wiſe by colour of anie of the ſame prouiſions, aduance anie ſpirituall perſon or perſons, aboue the number to them appointed, to receiue or keepe anie mo benefices with cure of ſoule than is aboue limited by this act, anie thing ſpecified in the ſaid prouiſions notwithſtanding: and if they doo then euerie ſuch ſpirituall perſon and perſons, ſo aduanced aboue the ſaid number to incur the paine & penaltie conteined in this act.

Be it alſo furthermore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that as well euerie ſpirituall perſon now being promoted to anie archdeconrie, deanrie, or dignitie, to anie monaſterie or cathedrall church, or other church conuentuall or collegiat, or being beneficed with anie parſonage or vicarage, as all and euerie ſpirituall perſon and perſons, which heereafter ſhall be promoted to anie of the ſaid dignities or benefices with anie parſonage or vicarage from the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, ſhall be perſonallie reſident and abiding in, at and vpon his ſaid dignitie, prebend or benefice, or at one of them at the leaſt. And in caſe anie ſuch ſpirituall perſon at anie time after the ſaid feaſt, keepe not reſidence at one of his ſaid dignities, prebend, or benefices, as is aforeſaid, but abſent himſelfe wilfullie by the ſpace of one moneth togither, or by the ſpace of two moneths, to be accounted at ſeuerall times in anie one yeere, and make his reſidence and abiding in anie other places, by ſuch time that then he ſhall forfeit for euerie ſuch default ten pounds ſterling. The one halfe therof to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe of the ſame to the partie that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts, by originall writ of debt, bill, plaint, or information. In which action and ſute the defendant ſhall not wage his law, nor haue anie eſſoine or protection allowed.

Licences Nonreſidence

And if anie perſon or perſons procure or obteine at the court of Rome, or els where anie maner of licence or diſpenſation, to be non reſident at their ſaid dignities, prebend, or benefices contrarie to this act, that then euerie ſuch perſon or perſons putting in execution anie ſuch diſpenſation, or licence for himſelfe, from the ſaid firſt daie of Aprill, in the yeere of our Lord God 1530, ſhall run and incur the penaltie, damage and paine of twentie pounds ſterling, for euerie time ſo dooing to be forfeited and recouered as is aboueſaid, and ſuch licence or diſpenſation ſo procured, or to be put in execution, to be void and of none effect.

Pilgrimage

¶ Prouided alwaies that this act of non reſidence ſhall not in anie wiſe extend ne be preiudiciall to anie ſuch ſpirituall perſon as ſhall chance to be in the kings ſeruice beyond the ſea, nor to anie perſon or perſons going to anie pilgrimage or holie place beyond the ſea, during the time that they ſhall ſo be in the kings ſeruice or in their pilgrimages going and returning home, nor to anie

anie ſcholer or ſcholers being conuerſant and abiding for ſtudie, without fraud or couin at anie vniuerſitie within this realme or without, nor to anie of the chaplens of the kings or quéenes, dailie or quarterlie attending, and abiding in the kings or quéenes moſt honorable houſholds. Nor to anie of the chaplens of the prince or princeſſe or anie of the kings or quéenes children, brethren or ſiſters attending dailie in their honorable houſholds during ſo long as they ſhall attend in anie of their ſaid houſholds. Nor to anie chaplen of anie archbiſhop or biſhop, or of anie ſpirituall or temporall lords of the parlement, dailie attending, abiding, and remaining, in anie of their honorable houſholds. Nor to anie chaplen of anie duches, marques, counteſſe, viſcounteſſe, or baronneſſe, attending dailie and abiding, in anie their honorable houſholds. Nor to anie chaplen of the lord chancellor or treaſuror of England, the kings chamberlen or ſteward of his houſhold for the time being, the treaſuror and controller of the kings moſt honorable houſhold for the time being, attending dailie in anie their honorable houſholds. Nor to anie chaplen of anie of the knights of the honorable order of the garter, or of the chéefe iuſtice of the kings bench, warden of the ports, or alſo of the maiſter of the rols. Nor to anie chaplen of the kings ſecretarie and deane of the chapell, or amner for the time being, dailie attending and dwelling in anie their houſholds, during the time that anie ſuch chaplen or chaplens ſhall abide and dwell, without fraud or couin, in anie of the ſaid honorable houſholds. Nor to the maiſter of the rols, or deane of the arches. Nor to anie chancellor or commiſſarie of anie archbiſhop or biſhop. Nor to as manie of the twelue maiſters of the chancerie, and twelue aduocats of the arches, as be or héereafter ſhall be ſpirituall men during ſo long time as they ſhall occupie their ſaid roomes and offices. Nor to anie ſuch ſpirituall perſons, as ſhall happen by iniunction of the lord chancellor, or the kings counſell to be bound to anie dailie appéerance and attendance, to anſwer to the law, during the time of ſuch iniunction.

¶ Prouided alſo that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie ſpirituall perſon or perſons, being chaplens to the king our ſoueraigne lord, to whom it ſhall pleaſe his highnes to giue anie benefices or promotions ſpirituall, to what number ſo euer it be, to accept and take the ſame without incurring the danger, penaltie, and forfeiture in this eſtatute compriſed. And that alſo it ſhall be lawfull to the kings highnes to giue licence to euerie of his owne chaplens for non reſidence vpon their benefices: anie thing in this preſent act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Salaris

Rent Farme

¶ And be it furthermore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no ſpirituall perſon, ſecular or regular, beneficed with cure as is afore rehearſed, from the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming by authoritie of anie maner licence, diſpenſation, or otherwiſe ſhall take anie particular ſtipend or ſalarie to ſing for anie ſoule, nor haue or occupie by himſelfe or by anie other to his vſe anie parſonage, or vicarage in farme of the leaſe or grant of anie perſon or perſons, nor take anie profit or rent out of anie ſuch farme, vpon paine to forfeit fortie ſhillings for euerie ſuch wéeke that he or any to his vſe, ſhall occupie or haue any ſtipend or farme contrarie to this preſent act, and vpon paine to looſe ten times the value of ſuch profit or rent, as he ſhall take out of anie ſuch farme after the ſaid feaſt. The one halfe of which forfeitures to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other moitie to him that will ſue for the ſame by originall writ, bill, plaint of debt, or by information in anie of the kings courts, in which ſute and action no wager of law ſhall be admitted for the defendant, nor anie eſſoine or protection allowed.

Benefice

¶ Prouided alwaie that no deanerie, archdeaconrie, chancellorſhip, treaſurorſhip, chanterſhip, or prebend, in anie cathedrall or collegiall church, nor parſonage that hath a vicar indued, nor anie benefice perpetuallie appropriat, be taken or comprehended vnder the name of benefice, hauing cure of ſoule in anie article afore ſpecified.

Tanhouſes

Bruehouſe

¶ Prouided alſo and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no ſpirituall perſon or perſons regular or ſecular, of what eſtate, degrée, or condition ſoeuer he, or they be, from the firſt daie of Aprill next comming, haue, vſe, or kéepe by him or themſelfe, or by anie perſon or perſons to his or their vſe or commoditie anie maner of tanhouſe or tanhouſes, to be vſed or occupied to his or their owne vſe, commoditie or behoofe, nor from the ſaid firſt date of Aprill next comming, ſhall haue, vſe, or kéepe anie maner of bruehouſe or bruehouſes to anie other vſe, intent, or behoofe, than onelie to be ſpent and occupied in his or their owne houſes, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie moneth ſo vſing and occupieng anie of the ſaid myſteries, or occupations ten pounds. The one moitie thereof to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other moitie to him that will ſue for the ſame by originall writ, bill, plaint of debt, or information in anie of the kings courts, in which action and ſute, no wager of law ſhall be admitted for the defendant, ne anie eſſoine or protection allowed.

¶ Prouided alwaies that euerie duches, marques, counteſſe, baroneſſe, widowes, which haue taken or that héereafter ſhall take anie husbands, vnder the degrée of a baron, maie take ſuch number of the chaplens as is aboue limited to them being widowes: and that euerie ſuch chaplen maie purchaſe licence to haue and take ſuch number of benefices with cure of ſoule, and haue like libertie of non reſidence in maner and forme as they might haue doone if their ſaid ladies and miſtreſſes had kept themſelfe widowes: anie thing in this preſent act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that euerie ſpirituall perſon or perſons, hauing lands, tenements, or other poſſeſſions in the right of their houſes aboue the yéerelie value of eight hundred marks, maie kéepe and reteine in their occupation and manurance, as much as their ſaid lands, & tenements, and other poſſeſſions, as ſhall be neceſſarie and ſufficient for paſturage of their cattels, and for tillage of corne to be imploied and ſpent for the onelie maintenance, ſuſtentation, and keeping of his or their houſholds and hoſpitalities, without fraud or couin: anie thing in this preſent act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Leaſes of houſes.

Prouided alwaie that it maie be lawfull to euerie ſpirituall perſon & perſons to take in farme anie meſes, manſions, or dwelling houſes, hauing but onelie orchards or gardens in anie citie, borough, and towne for their owne habitation or dwelling: anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding. So that no perſon ſpirituall other than be aboue prouided for, for their non reſidence haue anie libertie of non reſidence by colour of this prouiſo.

An act concerning linnen cloth, called dowlas and lokerams.

Chap.14.

IN moſt humble wiſe ſheweth vnto the kings highneſſe, and to the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, the linnen drapers inhabitants within the citie of London, vſing to ſell linnen cloth, called dowlas and lokeram of the commodities brought and made in Britaine, in the parties beyond the ſea, that where by all the time, whereof mind of man is not to the contrarie, in the time of the kings moſt noble progenitors, all ſuch merchants as well Engliſh as ſtrangers as at anie time brought or conueied the ſaid dowlas and lokeram into this realme of England, brought and conueied the ſame in peeces, or halfe péeces, euerie whole peece of dowlas conteining in length fiueſcore elles of aſſiſe, accounting to euerie ell one inch of aſſiſe, and in breadth one yard of aſſiſe, and euerie halfe peece fiftie elles in length, and one yard in breadth of like aſſiſe. And all the whole peece and halfe péece of one goodneſſe in making, and as well euerie péece of lokeram to be of like length as the whole péece of dowlas, and euerie halfe péece of lokeram to be of length, as the halfe peece of dowlas, and euerie ſuch whole peece and halfe péece, to be in breadth a whole yard, lacking a naile of the yard, and euerie peece and halfe péece to be in like goodneſſe by all the length of the ſame peece, which when it was ſo vſed, was to the great profit of all the kings ſubiects.

And now of late within the ſpace of twentie or thirtie yéeres paſſed, diuers perſons for their owne ſingular lucres, haue brought all the ſaid dowlas, and lokeram in halfe peeces, which halfe peece lacketh in euerie ſuch one halfe péece of the due length foure or fiue elles, and ſome more and ſome leſſe, beſide the breadth of aſſiſe, and accuſtomed to the great and extreme hurt of the kings poore ſubiects, occupiers, buiers, and ſellers of the ſame. It maie therefore pleaſe your highnes with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, to enact and eſtabliſh, that no perſon or perſons, Engliſh nor ſtranger, denizen nor alien, from or after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell next comming, ſhall bring or conueie, or cauſe to be brought or conueied, by anie maner of meanes into this realme of England, anie of the ſaid linnen cloth, called dowlas or lokerams ſo to be brought or conueied into this realme not conteining the full lengths, breadths, goodneſſe, and aſſiſes, as is aforeſaid, and as heretofore in old times haue béene accuſtomed and vſed, vnder paine of forfeiture of the ſame dowlas and lokeram, ſo to be brought or conueied into this realme, not conteining the full length, breadth, goodnes and aſſiſe, or the value thereof, the one halfe to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other halfe of the ſaid forfeiture to him or them that ſhall take or ſeize the ſame, or ſue for the ſame by action, or information, bill or otherwiſe. In which actions, ſutes, or information, no wager of law or eſſoine ſhall be admitted.

Content.

An act that all termers maie inioy their leaſes againſt recoueries had by fained titles, and falſifie the ſame recoueries.

Chap.15.

WHere afore this time diuers perſons haue made leaſes of their manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, ſometime by their indentures, and ſometime without writings to other perſons for terme of yéeres, taking of them great fines for the incoms of the ſame leaſes, & after the ſame leaſors, their heires or aſſignes, haue cauſed and ſuffered recoueries to be had againſt them in the court of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and in other lords courts vpon feined and vntrue titles by craft and couin to put the ſaid termers from their ſaid termes. And after ſuch recoueries had the ſame recouerers by reaſon of ſuch recoueries and iudgements haue entered into the ſame manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, ſo to farme letten, and thereof haue expulſed the ſaid farmars, contrarie to their ſaid leaſes, couenants, and agréements. And becauſe it was doubted to ſome perſons whether the ſaid termers might falſifie ſuch recoueries or not.

¶ Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all ſuch termers ſhall and maie falſifie for his terme onelie, ſuch recoueries as well héeretofore had, as héereafter to be had, in ſuch wiſe and forme as a tenant of a fréehold, ſhall and maie doo by the courſe of the common law, where ſuch tenant of fréehold was neither priuie nor partie to the ſame recouerie. And that the ſame termers, their executors and aſſignes, notwithſtanding ſuch recoueries ſo had, ſhall reteine, hold, and inioy their ſaid termes according to their ſaid leaſes againſt all ſuch recoueries their heires and aſſignes after ſuch recouerie ſo had, ſhall haue like remedie againſt the ſaid termers their executors and aſſignes, by auowrie or action of debt for the rents, and ſeruices, reſerued vpon the ſame leaſes being due after the ſame recoueries, and alſo take actions againſt them for waſt doone after the ſame recoueries ſo had in like maner and forme as the ſaid leaſors ſhould or might haue had, if the ſame recoueries had neuer be had. And alſo be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no maner of ſtatute of the ſtaple, ſtatute merchant nor execution by Elegit, be heereafter auoided or in anie wiſe made fruſtrat, by means of anie ſuch feined recouerie, but that all perſons hauing anie lands, tenements or other hereditaments in execution, or being intituled to haue execution of anie manors, lands or tenements by anie ſuch meanes, ſhall haue by force of this eſtatute like remedie to auoid & falſifie the ſame recoueries, as before is ordeined and prouided for the leaſe for terme of yeeres.

An act concerning artificers ſtrangers.

Chap.16.

PRaien the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that where in the fifteenth daie of Februarie in the twentith yeere of the reigne of our moſt gratious ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, by our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king his moſt honorable counſell in his ſtar chamber at Weſtminſter, for the commonwealth of his naturall ſubiects borne within this his realme, by great & deliberat aduiſe, it was deemed, adiudged, and decreed, that no ſtranger artificer, borne out of our ſaid ſouereigne lord his obeiſance, inhabiting within anie citie, borough, or anie other place within this his realme of England, from henſeforth ſhould keepe in his or their houſe or houſes, anie maner ſtrangers ſeruants, borne out of his obeiſance, but onelie two ſeruants ſtrangers and no more at one time. And alſo all and ſingular ſtrangers, that then were, or after the making of the ſaid decree ſhould be made denizens, that at the time or after the making thereof, would inhabit within the citie of London, ſuburbs, or within two miles compaſſe of the ſame, & keepe or would keepe houſes or occupie their craft, ſhould be contributories to & with our ſaid ſouereigne lord his ſubiects artificers within the citie of London, paieng, bearing, and ſuſteining ſuch charges, as heereafter ſhall be expreſſed, that is to ſaie, that all other ſtrangers artificers, denizens or no denizens, of euerie handicraft or myſterie inhabiting as well within the citie of London, as in anie other citie, towne, borough, or village within this his realme, ſhould paie, beare, and ſuſteine all ſuch and like charges, as our ſaid ſouereigne lord his ſubiects of like craft and myſterie doo alwaies vſe to paie.

¶ And if anie of them refuſed or denied the ſame or anie part thereof, then he or they ſo denieng or refuſing ſo to doo ſhould not anie longer occupie any handicraft, vpon the paines, damages, and perils ſpecified as well in the acts or ſtatutes made in the foureteenth and fifteenth yeeres of the reigne of our now ſouereigne lord, as in one eſtatute made in the firſt yeere of the reigne of king Richard the third. And that the ſame ſtrangers, denizens or no denizens houſholders, which would remaine and abide with in our ſaid ſouereigne lord his realme, ſhould vpon lawfull warning to them giuen, by the maiſter and wardens of diuerſe and ſundrie myſteries, mentioned and ſpecified in the ſaid decree within the ſaid cities and towns preſent themſelues in the common hall, or meeting place of the ſaid crafts, and there to receiue and take their oth, and be ſworne vpon the holie Euangeliſt before the maiſter and wardens of their ſaid craft, to be faithfull and true to the king our ſouereigne lord, and his heires, kings of England, and to be obedient to him and them and his and their lawes.

Alſo that no ſtranger artificers or handicrafts man borne out of our ſaid ſouereigne lord his obeiſance not being denizen, which was not a houſholder, the fifteenth daie of Februarie aboueſaid, ſhould not ſet vp ne keepe anie houſe, ſhop, ſhops, or chamber wherein they ſhould exerciſe or occupie anie handicraft or myſterie within this our ſaid ſouereigne lord his realme, vpon paine to incur and run into ſuch penalties as be conteined in the ſtatutes before this time made and enacted as is aforeſaid. And that none of the ſtrangers artificers or handicrafts men borne out of our ſouereigne lord his obeiſance as well denizens as no denizens, ſhould aſſemble in anie companie, felowſhip, congregation or conuenticle, but onelie in the common hall of their crafts with our ſaid ſouereigne lord his ſubiects which be of the companies of their ſaid craft or crafts, at ſuch time as they ſhould be commanded, and warned by the ſaid maiſter and wardens of their ſaid craft or crafts, and at none other place and time or in anie other maner vpon the paine afore expreſſed, as by the ſaid decree ſhewed and exemplified, and herevnto annexed, vnder our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king his great ſeale more plainelie and at large it maie and dooth appeere. That for the commonwealth aboueſaid, it maie be enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid order and decree, had, giuen, and made, by our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king his moſt honorable counſell, and all and euerie thing therein conteined, ſpecified, and declared, be holden and obſerued firme and ſtable, and dulie to be put in execution in euerie point and article, in maner and forme as is aboue rehearſed, according to the purport, effect, and true meaning of the ſame.

Be it furthermore enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that the act made in the parlement begun at London the fifteenth daie of Aprill, in the foureteenth yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king that now is, and from London adiourned to Weſtminſter the laſt daie of Iulie, in the fifteenth yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, concerning ſtrangers artificers, for taking of apprentiſes, iournimen, and couenant ſeruants, & euerie article and prouiſions

Continuance teined in the ſame act, ſhall be from henſeforth put in due execution, according to the true intent, meaning, and purport of the ſame, as well within the citie of London as in all other cities, boroughs, and townes corporat within this realme, and the ſame to indure perpetuallie, anie thing conteined in the ſaid act or decrée to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Uniuerſities. Iournimẽ Apprentiſe ¶ Prouided alwaies, that no artificer, alien or ſtranger, borne out of the kings obeiſance, being a houſholder or inhabiting within anie of the vniuerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, or within the ſanctuarie of ſaint Martin le grand within the citie of London, ſhall from henſeforth haue or reteine in their ſeruice, iournimen or apprentiſes, being aliens, or ſtrangers borne, aboue the number of ten perſons at one time, vpon paine of the penaltie conteined in the ſaid act, made in the ſaid fourtéenth and fiftéenth yéere of our ſoueraigne lord: the prouiſion conteined or ſpecified in the ſame act notwithſtanding.

The decree made, in the ſtar chamber for artificers ſtrangers by the kings moſt honorable counſell the twentith daie of Februarie, in the twentith yeere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight.

Inſpeximus etiam quoddam decretum per nos & concilium noſtrum apud Weſtmonaſt. in camera ſtellata redditum & in filaciis eiuſdem cancellari. noſtræ ſimiliter reſiden. in hæc verba.

WHere of late our true and faithfull ſubiects, artificers and handicrafts men borne vnder our obeiſance, inhabiting within our citie of London and the ſuburbs of the ſame, exhibited vnto vs a lamentable bill of complaint, conteining that notwithſtanding manie good and neceſſarie ſtatutes and acts of parlement haue béene edified, ordeined and made, & eſpeciall one in the firſt yéere of king Richard the third. And the other being made in the yéere of the reigne of our deereſt father of noble memorie Henrie the ſeuenth, late king of this our realme, and in the fourtéenth and fiftéenth yéere of our reigne, concerning the ſtrangers artificers, and handicrafts men, borne out of our obeiſance, vſing and exerciſing handicrafts within this our realme of England, as well for the reſtreining of the exceſſiue number, and vnreaſonable behauior of the ſame ſtrangers artificers borne out of our obeiſance, which by continuall reſort and repaire into this our ſaid realme dailie increaſed to the great detriment of our owne naturall ſubiects, artificers of the ſame handicrafts and myſteries, and of other ſundrie inconueniences, by occaſion that diuerſe of the ſaid ſubiects for lacke of occupation, fall into idlenes: as alſo for the reformation of ſundrie deceipts and falſhods practiſed by the ſaid ſtrangers artificers in their ſaid handicrafts, to the great damage and loſſe of vs and of all our ſaid naturall ſubiects. The ſaid ſtrangers artificers, nothing pondring or dreading the ſaid ſtatutes, ne the penalties in the ſame conteined and expreſſed, ceaſe not contemptuouſlie, as well to abuſe the ſaid ſtatutes as moſt part intirelie to infring and breake the ſame. And to accumulate from time to time more offenſes and enormities, as well againſt our prerogatiue, as to the detriment of the commonwealth of this our realme and our louing ſubiects of the ſame, for when anie ſearch ſhall be made in euerie handicraft within anie citie, towne, or borough corporat, within our ſaid realme by our ſubiects, the ſaid wardens and others ordeined by the ſaid laſt act of handicrafts men, within anie citie, towne, or borough corporat, and one houſeholder ſtranger borne out of our obeiſance inhabiting within our ſaid citie, towne, or borough corporat, vſing anie handicraft be he denizen or not denizen, the ſaid ſtranger being a houſholder as before is ſaid, being lawfullie warned and required thereunto, according to the ſaid act, either will refuſe to doo his dutie therein, or elſe he will giue ſecret warning thereof to his brethren of the ſaid crafts, whereby they haue not onelie conueied and hid all their vnlawfull, vntrue, ſubtill, and deceiptfull wares, which they vntrulie, ſubtillie, vnſubſtantiallie, and deceiptfullie haue made, and dailie make and vtter to our ſubiects, at exceſſiue and vnreaſonable priſes to the great detriment and damages of our ſaid ſubiects, but alſo their ſeruants, and prentiſes, they haue hid from the knowledge of the ſaid wardens when anie ſuch ſearch hath happened to be made and to defraud the ſame good and honorable ſtatute and act. So that thereof no lawfull puniſhment could, can, might, or maie inſue according to the tenor, purport and effect of the ſaid ſtatute, but they contemne, diſpiſe, and ſet at naught the ſame, whereby and by the other vnlawfull meanes aforeſaid, and others, as ſubtillie ſending and conueieng ouer the ſea bacon, chéeſe, poudered béefs, muttons, and other commodities within this our realme, not onlie within and out of the ſaid cities, townes, and boroughs corporat, but alſo within and out of other places throughout our realme, by them the ſaid ſtrangers practiſed and executed, whereby they dailie increaſe in great riches, and in great multitude in numbers of ſtrangers handicrafts men borne out of our obeiſance. And whan they haue gathered much riches and monie, they againſt our lawes conueie the ſame monie ouer the ſea. And then they alſo go ouer the ſea into their countries: and there purchaſe them lands and tenements with part thereof, and with the reſidue of the ſame they liue thereby. And ſometime thereof they conuert part thereof to the vſe of our enimies in thoſe parties. And ſo as well our poore ſubiects cordwainers, and all our ſubiects handicrafts men borne within our obeiſance by the meanes aforeſaid, be ſore impoueriſhed, miniſhed, and almoſt vtterlie decaied and deſtroied, and manie of them for lacke of occupation in the ſaid handicrafts, be conſtreined to liue in idleneſſe, by occaſion whereof, they doo continuallie fall to theft, murder, and other great offenſes, & conſequentlie, in great numbers be put to death by our lawes as we be informed. And alſo the great ſcarcitie of graine and vittell at this preſent time throughout this our realme, to be the more inforced and cauſed by reaſon of the great multitude and continuall recourſe of the ſaid ſtrangers handicrafts men, which conſume a great portion of corne, and vittell, growen and bred within this our realme: the premiſſes conſidered, to the intent to be thereof more perfectlie and trulie inſtructed, for the charitable zeale that we haue to the commonweale of our realme, and our ſaid ſubiects of the ſame, and for the quietneſſe of the ſaid ſtrangers, we haue aſſigned and giuen in commandement to our lords and others of our counſell indifferentlie to examine the premiſſes, and as well to heare the ſaid complaints, as the ſaid defendants, and their allegiances and ſaiengs of, in, and to the premiſſes, and to euerie part thereof, and the ſame by them heard, examined, and by good deliberat aduiſe vnderſtanden, to ordeine, adiudge and decrée the ſame, after their wiſdomes and learning, wherevpon as well the ſaid bill of complaint, the anſwer of the ſaid defendants therevnto made, the replication of the ſaid complainants to the ſaid anſwere alſo made, and all other allegiances and ſaiengs of both the ſaid parties, by mature and deliberat aduiſe by our ſaid counſell ripelie examined, heard, and vnderſtand.

¶ It is ordeined, adiudged and decréed, the twentith daie of Februarie in this preſent terme of ſaint Hillarie, in the twentith yéere of our reigne in our ſtarre chamber by the moſt reuerend father in God, Thomas lord cardinall legat De latere of the apoſtolike ſée, archbiſhop of Yorke, primat, and chancellor of England, and by our nobles and others of our ſaid counſell, and by the mutuall aſſents of the complainants and defendants then there being in maner and forme following: that is to ſaie, that according to the act of parlement made the ſaid fourtéenth and fiftéenth yéere of our reigne, that no ſtranger artificer borne out of our obeiſance, inhabiting within anie citie, towne, or borough, or anie other place within this our realme of England, from thenſeforth ſhall kéepe in his or their houſe or houſes, anie maner of ſeruants ſtrangers borne out of our obeiſance, but onlie two ſtrangers ſeruants, and no more at one time. And that as manie of the ſtrangers artificers, now inhabiting within anie citie, towne, or borough corporat, or in anie other place within our ſaid realme that will be apprentiſes or ſeruants, to, or with anie of our ſubiects artificers borne within our obeiſance, exerciſing new or old ſtuffe, inhabiting within our ſaid realme, ſhall be ſuffered ſo to abide and dwell with them, without interruption, as long as they will ſo continue and abide with them and can agrée togither.

¶ And furthermore it is decréed, that it ſhall be lawfull to all and euerie of the ſaid ſtrangers artificers now being houſholders within our ſaid realme, to take as manie of our ſubiects borne within our obeiſance, to be their ſeruants and apprentiſes in the craft that they doo exerciſe, as they can lawfullie get. And that all the ſtrangers artificers, now being houſholders within our ſaid citie of London, ſuburbs, pariſhes, or compaſſe thereof expreſſed in the ſaid ſtatutes, or within two miles compaſſe of the ſaid pariſhes. And alſo all and ſingular ſtrangers that now be or héereafter ſhall be made denizens, that doo or heereafter will inhabit within our ſaid citie of London, ſuburbs, or pariſhes aforeſaid, or within two miles compaſſe of the ſame, and kéepe houſes, and occupie their craft ſhall be contributorie to and with our ſubiects artificers within our citie of London, paieng, bearing, and ſuſteining ſuch charges as héereafter ſhall be expreſſed. That is to ſaie, aſwell euerie of the ſaid ſtrangers, being of the craft & myſterie of cordwainers, houſholders, as denizens that now be or heereafter ſhall be made denizens, & ſhall inhabit within our ſaid citie, ſuburbs, pariſhes, or two miles compaſſe of the ſame ſhall quarterlie paie to the ſaid maiſter, wardens & commonaltie of the ſaid craft of cordwainers within our ſaid citie of London for the time being ſix penſe. And euerie ſeruant ſtranger of the ſaid occupation of the ſaid cordwainers within the ſaid citie, ſuburbs, and precinct, nor being denizen, ſhall quarterlie paie to the ſaid maiſter wardens and commonaltie thrée penſe. And that all other ſtrangers artificers, and denizens, of euerie handicraft and myſterie, inhabiting as well within our ſaid citie of London, as in anie other citie or towne within this our realme, ſhall paie, beare and ſuſteine, all ſuch and like charges as our ſubiects of like craft and myſterie borne out of our obeiſance, inhabiting within the citie, borough or towne of their habitation at this time, doo beare and ſuſteine. And alſo all ſtrangers artificers and denizens exerciſing the craft and myſterie of cordwainers, dwelling out of our citie of London in anie other citie or towne within this realme, ſhall paie, beare, and ſuſteine, ſcot, taxes, tallages, ſubſidies, preſts, and all other reaſonable exactions from time to time, according as the ſaid maiſters, wardens and companies, of the ſaid crafts for the time being ſhall be bounden to paie, beare, and ſuſteine, when anie ſubſidie, tax, tallage, or preſt or other reaſonable charges, ſhall be by the maior and aldermen of our ſaid citie of London: and the maiors and aldermen of our ſaid other citie and townes, or by the common counſell of the ſaid citie, cities and townes, of and for anie charges of paiments of monie to be paid by the companies of the ſaid crafts, citizens of anie citie for anie paiment to be made vnto the kings highneſſe, or his heires or elſe to be paid for anie cauſe concerning the commonwealth of anie our ſaid cities or townes or commonwealth of the ſaid artificers, the ſaid ſtranger ſhall paie all the ſame, that they ſhall be aſſeſſed or taxed to paie, as contributories with the ſaid companies being our ſubiects, as our ſaid ſubiects ſhall be aſſeſſed, & taxed to paie. And if anie of them denie or refuſe the ſame or anie part thereof, then he or they denieng and refuſing ſo to doo, ſhall not onlie looſe the benefit of this decrée, but alſo ſhall not anie longer occupie anie handicraft vpon the paines, dangers and perils ſpecified in the aboue remembred acts and ſtatutes.

¶ And that as well all & euerie of the ſaid houſholders ſtrangers aforeſaid, as all other ſtrangers artificers, made or to be made denizens, that ſhall be houſholders, and inhabit, and occupie anie craft within our ſaid citie, ſuburbs, or two miles compaſſe of the ſame, as long as they ſhall remaine and abide within the ſaid citie, ſuburbs, and two miles compaſſe of the ſame, being reaſonablie required and warned by the wardens and other perſon gouernors in anie citie, towne or borough corporate of their ſaid crafts within anie of our ſaid cities or townes corporat, or by anie of them for the time being, or by their lawfull deputies or deputie, ſhall go with the ſaid wardens or other gouernors there as no wardens be, to make ſearch according to the aboue remembred acts of parlement made in the fourtéenth and fiftéenth yéere of our reigne, which if they refuſe to doo, and that prooued before the chancellor of England, or before the maior of London, and in other cities before the chéefe perſons of the ſaid cities or townes, for the time being: That then the ſame houſholders, or houſholder ſo offending, denieng, or refuſing the ſame, ſhall no longer the ſame his occupation, exerciſe or vſe within this our realme, vpon paine, perill and danger expreſſed in the afore remembred acts and ſtatutes. And that the ſame ſtrangers artificers, denizens or not denizens houſholders, which will remaine and abide within our ſaid realme, ſhall vpon lawfull notice giuen by the maiſter or wardens of their craft, or one of them perſonallie preſent themſelues in the common hall or meeting place of their ſaid crafts within our ſaid cities, and townes there as they be inhabiting, and then and there euerie of them to receiue and take their othes, and be ſworne vpon the holie Euangeliſt before the ſaid maiſter and wardens of their ſaid craft and myſterie within our ſaid cities and townes corporat, to be faithfull and true to vs and to our heires kings of England, and to be obedient to vs & them, and to our and their lawes, & to all acts, ordinances, and decrées, made and confirmed by vs and our counſell or by our counſell, and dulie and trulie at all times when they ſhall be appointed by the wardens of their felowſhip, craft, or myſterie, for the time being, or their deputies, to make ſearch with them according to the purport, tenor or effect of an eſtatute and act of parlement made in the fouretéenth and fiftéenth yéere of our reigne, and haue warning and monition thereof by the wardens or anie of them, or anie other their ſufficient deputie or deputies in that behalfe to them made and giuen, and that they ſhall be readie to go with the ſaid wardens to make the ſame ſearch, and that they ſhall not giue notice to anie ſtranger of the ſaid ſearch, vntill they with the ſaid wardens come togither to make the ſaid ſearch, and that they ſhall well, indifferentlie, and trulie behaue them in the ſame, ſetting all affection, fauor, malice, and dread of anie creature, and all fraud and deceipt apart, ſo helpe them God and all ſaints, and by the holie Euangeliſt, and their oth ſo receiued, in forme aforeſaid, the ſaid ſtrangers ſhall paie for their admiſſion, according as our ſaid ſubiects haue alwaie vſed to paie.

¶ It is alſo further decréed that no ſtranger artificer or handicrafts man borne out of our obeiſance, not being denizen, which at the daie of the making of this decrée is not a houſholder within this our realme, or keepeth anie ſhop or ſhops within the ſaid citie, and ſuburbs, or anie other citie, towne or borough within this our realme, ſhall from that daie forward ſet vp, or keepe anie houſe, ſhop or chamber within our citie of London, ſuburbs or pariſhes before rehearſed, or within anie other citie, towne, borough, or village within this our realme, wherein he ſhall exerciſe and practiſe anie handicraft or myſterie, vpon paine to incur and run in ſuch penalties as be conteined in the ſtatutes before this time made and enacted. And that none of the ſaid ſtrangers, artificers, or handicrafts men, borne out of our obeiſance, as well denizens as other ſhall aſſemble in anie companie, fellowſhip, congregation, or conuenticle, but in the common hall of their crafts with our ſubiects, which be of the companie of their ſaid craft or crafts, at ſuch time as they ſhall be commanded and warned by the maiſter and wardens of the ſaid craft or crafts, and at no other place or time, and in anie other maner vpon paine afore expreſſed.

¶ Prouided alwaie, that this decrée and euerie part thereof, concerning the craft and myſterie of cordewainers, ſhall extend as well to them that worke old ſtuffe, as new within our citie of London, the ſuburbs of the ſame, or in anie other citie, towne, borough or village, within this our realme of England.

¶ Prouided alſo that notwithſtanding anie words compriſed in this decrée, the ſtrangers artificers, denizens or not denizens, inhabiting in the vniuerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, and within the ſanctuarie of S. Martines le grand, within the citie of London, ſhall inioy all the benefits and aduantages reſerued vnto them by reaſon of anie prouiſion made by act of parlement expreſſed in the ſtatute made in the fouretéenth and fiftéenth yeere of our reigne, ſo that the ſaid ſtrangers denizens or not denizens inhabiting within the ſaid ſanctuarie of S. Martins le grand, be confirmable to ſuch direction and order as ſhall be taken by the reuerend father in God, Cuthbert biſhop of London, ſir Richard Brooke knight chéefe baron of the exchequer, John More knight one of the iuſtices of our bench, ſir John Dancie and ſir John Allen knights, to whom we haue of late directed our letters patents, and by the ſame giuen them power and authoritie, and commanding them and euerie of them, to cauſe the houſe of euerie ſtranger and denizen artificer, inhabiting and dwelling within the ſaid ſanctuarie, to be ſearched and viewed how manie ſeruants he or they kéepe borne out of our obeiſance, and they being all viewed and ſéene, then to appoint to euerie of the ſaid ſtrangers houſholders inhabiting within the ſaid ſanctuarie by them in forme aforeſaid, ſo tried to be within the bonds and limits of the ſaid ſanctuarie, ſuch number of ſeruants ſtrangers borne out of your obeiſance, as they by their diſcretions ſhall thinke conuenient and ſufficient, and not to be at anie detriment vnto our ſubiects inhabitants within our ſaid citie.

¶ Alſo commanding in our name all and euerie the ſaid ſtrangers denizens houſholders, that they from henſefoorth doo not kéepe within their houſes, or in any other houſe, ſhop or chamber within our ſaid citie of London or the ſuburbs of the ſame, anie mo ſeruants being borne out of our obeiſance, then ſhall be to them at that time to them appointed, as they will auoid the danger and penaltie of our lawes, and what they haue doone in the premiſſes, that they doo certifie to vs and our counſell in our ſtar chamber at Weſtminſter, on the fiftéenth daie of Eaſter next comming. In witneſſe whereof, we will as well the ſaid decrée as all other the premiſſes ſhall be exemplified vnder our ſeale.

An act for the adnulling of the letters patents made to the citie of Yorke, concerning ſhipping of wools.

Chap.17.

WHere as the king our ſouereigne lord vpon feigned ſuggeſtions ſurmiſed to his highneſſe to haue béene for the aduancement of his ancient citie of Yorke, by his letters patents granted vnto the maior and citizens of the ſame citie of Yorke, to ſhip, conueie, tranſport, and carrie vnto the port of Hull, in the countie of Yorke, wools and fels, of the growing of diuerſe places in the ſaid countie expreſſed. As in the ſaid letters patents may appeare, the tenor whereof héereafter inſueth. ¶ Henrie the eight by the grace of God king of England, France and Ireland, defendor of the faith, and of the church of England, and alſo of Ireland, in earth ſupreame head, to all and euerie our iuſtices, maiors, ſhiriffs, bailifs, cuſtomers, controulers, conſtables, and all other our lieges and ſubiects, as well within the liberties as without, gréeting. Know you that we of our ſpeciall grace, méere motion, and liberalitie, hauing a tender zeale and loue to the increaſe, aduancement, and amendment of our ancient citie of Yorke, haue giuen, and granted, and by theſe preſents giue and grant, for vs, and our heires, as much as in vs is, vnto our louing and humble ſubiects, the maior and citizens of the ſaid citie, and to euerie of them, and to their heires and ſucceſſors, and to the heires and ſucceſſors of euerie of them, as long as they inhabit and dwell within our ſaid citie, and be frée of the ſame, frée libertie and licence from henſefoorth from time to time, to ſhip, conueie, tranſport, and carrie vnto our port of Hull, in our countie of Yorke, and from thenſe to all forren countries and regions, at their pleaſure, by themſelues, their apprentiſes, iourniemen and factors, to their owne vſe onelie, all ſuch wools and fels, which anie of the ſaid citizens inhabited in our ſaid citie, and being frée thereof by their feators and policies, or merchandize, or otherwiſe, maie lawfullie atteine and come by, of the ſaid bréed, falling, growing, and increaſing, within the limits and places of Houdenſhire, Marchland, the honor of Pounfret, latelie the forreſt of Knareſburgh, Richmondſhire, Cleſeland, the forreſt of Gautres, Blakemore, and Yorkeſwold, or in anie of them in our ſaid countie of Yorke, without anie danger, paine, trouble, or damage of anie of the ſaid citizens, their heires, or ſucceſſors, or loſſe, ſeizure, or forfeiture of anie of the ſaid wools or fels, or anie of them, or anie paine, puniſhment, or penaltie, for them or anie of them, to be had, doone, or attempted, for or by vs, or our heires, or by anie of our miniſters or ſubiects in our name, or to our vſe, or to the vſe of our heires, by vertue of anie act, vſe, ordinance, or eſtatute héeretofore made againſt anie of the ſaid citizens, their heires or ſucceſſors, and without anie toll, charge, or impoſition, to be had, perceiued, and taken, to our vſe, or to the vſe of our heires, of anie of the ſaid citizens, for the ſaid wools and fels, or anie of them, other than ſuch like cuſtome and ſubſidie, as the inhabitants of our towne of Newcaſtell, for wools and fels by them ſhipped and tranſported to forren countries, vſe commonlie to paie, anie act or ordinance héeretofore made or to be made to the contrarie notwithſtanding, which cuſtome and ſubſidie ſhall be contented to our vſe from time to time by our ſaid citizens, to our cuſtomer of the ſaid port of Hull, for the time being. And moreouer, we of our eſpeciall grace, by theſe preſents, grant vnto the ſaid maior and citizens, that theſe our preſent letters of licence, ſhall be to the ſaid maior and citizens, and to euerie of them, to their heires and ſucceſſors, and to the heires and ſucceſſors of euerie of them at all times héereafter good and auaileable for euer, againſt vs and our heires, in and for the premiſſes, and for euerie of them, according to the tenor thereof, in euerie behalfe, without anie reſtraint, repeale, diminution, or reuocation, héereafter to be had or made thereof, or of anie part of the ſame, albeit there be no expreſſe mention of the verie value and certeintie of the premiſſes in theſe our letters ſpecified, any act or ordinance héeretofore made or to be made to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And the ſaid maior and citizens, ſhall haue theſe our preſent letters of licence vnder our great ſeale, without anie fine or fee to our vſe in our hamper thereof to be paied, and without anie further warrant to be obteined of vs, to be directed to anie of our miniſters and officers in that behalfe. In witneſſe whereof we haue cauſed theſe our letters patents to be ſealed with our great ſeale, at Hampton court, the xxij. daie of Auguſt, the fiftéenth yéere of our reigne. Sithen the which letters patents, the ſaid citie is thereby nothing helped ne increaſed, according to the ſaid ſurmiſe, nor the commonaltie thereof in any thing thereby increaſed or aduanſed, but ſuch profit as did grow by reaſon of the ſaid letters patents, came to the hands of thrée or foure perſons there onelie, contrarie to the intent and meaning of our ſaid ſouereigne lord: by reaſon whereof our ſaid ſouereigne lord hath ſuſteined, & dailie doth ſuſteine great loſſes in his cuſtoms of wools and fels: and the clothiers there lacke the wools, wherewith they vſed to make cloth within the ſaid countie, which in length ſhould not onelie grow to the hurt of all the kings poore ſubiects, that be occupied with making of cloth in thoſe parts, but alſo to the kings diſinheritance and miniſhing of his ſaid cuſtoms if it were continued. In conſideration whereof, be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by the aſſent and authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid letters patents and euerie thing therein conteined, be from henſeforth adnulled, repelled, and void, and of none effect. And that the ſaid maior and citizens, nor their heires nor ſucceſſors will not haue ne take from henſeforth anie aduantage, profit, or commoditie, by reaſon of the ſame letters patents, or of anie licence and grant or anie other thing therein conteined in anie wiſe.

Woolfels Hull.

¶ Prouided alwaie, and be it enacted, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no citizens or inhabitants within the ſaid citie, which before the firſt daie of this preſent parlement, haue ſhipped, conueied, or carried, anie wools or fels into the ſaid port of Hull, by vertue and authoritie of the kings ſaid letters patents, be charged ne chargeable vnto the kings highneſſe, for or with more paiment, charge, or impoſition, for the ſaid wools or fels, or anie of them, other than with ſuch like cuſtome and ſubſidie, as the inhabitants of the towne of Newcaſtell, for wools and fels by them ſhipped and tranſported, vſen commonlie to paie according as is afore rehearſed, in the letters patents, and no further, ne otherwiſe, anie information, or other charge or matter, had, made, or héereafter to be made or had, in the kings excheker, or otherwiſe, for the ſame to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act concerning Newcaſtell vpon Tine, and the port and hauen therevnto belonging.

Humblie ſhewen to your highneſſe, your true and faithfull ſubiects, the maior, burgeſſes, and commonaltie of your towne of Newcaſtell vpon Tine, that where your grace and your moſt noble progenitors kings of England, time out of mind, haue béene ſeized of the ſaid towne, and of the ports and hauen of the riuer of Tine therevnto belonging, and of all ground with water couered within the ſaid riuer of Tine, from one place in the mouth of the ſaid riuer called the Sparhauke, to one other place in the ſame riuer called Hedwinſtremes in their demeane, as of fée in right of their crowne of England, and as parcell of the ſame. And during all the ſaid time, all maner of perſon or perſons, aſwell frée men as ſtrangers and denizens, applieng or comming in the ſaid port, hauen, and riuer, from anie parties of beyond the ſea, or of this realme of England, with ſhips or other veſſels, charged, or loden, with anie maner of wares or merchandizes, or ſhipping, charging, or loding anie ſhips or veſſels, with anie kind of merchandizes to be conueied out of this ſaid port and hauen, to anie parts of this relme of England, or elſewhere out of this ſaid realme, haue alwaies during all the ſaid time, vſed to charge and diſcharge, lode and vnlode, their ſaid goods, wares, and merchandizes, at the ſaid towne of Newcaſtell, and no where elſe, within the ſaid port and hauen, and there haue alwaies paid to your ſaid highneſſe, and your ſaid moſt noble progenitors, all cuſtoms, ſubſidies, tols, and other things due for the ſame, amounting yéerelie to the ſumme of fiue hundred pounds and aboue, whereof your ſaid progenitors, your highneſſe, and your aſſignes, haue béene hitherto dulie and trulie anſwered and paid, as in your excheker more ample and at large doth appeare. The which your towne of Newcaſtell is, aſwell in time of wars, as of peace, the chéefe keie, reléefe, and defenſe of all the parties of this realme therevnto adioining. And by reaſon of the ſaid liberties and franchiſes, your ſaid towne hath béene to this time well repleniſhed and mainteined: In ſo much as the inhabitants of your ſaid towne, of late daies haue béene able to ſerue your highneſſe in your wars, with foure hundred marriners or mo, apt and able perſons for that purpoſe, till now of late, that diuerſe great perſonages, as well ſpirituall as temporall, hauing lands adioining to the ſaid port and riuer, betwéene the ſaid towne of Newcaſtell, and the ſea, apt and eaſie for charging and diſcharging of ſhips and merchandizes, haue charged and diſcharged, loden and vnloded, diuerſe ſhips and merchandizes within the ſaid port and hauen, at the ſaid places, not paieng thereof anie cuſtoms or duties to your highneſſe, by meane whereof your ſaid towne is likelie to come to vtter decaie and ruine; and the inhabitants of the ſame, to refuſe and relinquiſh the ſaid towne, and to repaire and reſort to the ſaid places, to the great diſheriſon of your highneſſe, and miniſhment of your cuſtoms, ſubſidies, and duties, and profits cuſtomablie paid at your towne and port aforeſaid. And alſo where diuerſe weres and fiſhgates of late time haue beene made, rered, fixed, and ſet, in the ſaid port and riuer of Tine, betweene your ſaid towne and the high ſea, by diuerſe perſons hauing great lands and tenements adioining to the ſaid riuer, moſt ſpeciallie within the biſhoprike of Durham, where your gracious writs dooth not run, and where your commiſſions out of your court of chancerie, or other your courts, doo not take anie effect: by meane whereof, great ſand beds and grauell heapes be growne and caſt vp in the ſaid riuer and port, ſo that within few yeeres to come, no ſhip of good burden or weight ſhall be able to come or reſort to your ſaid towne, to the ineſtimable hurt of the countries therevnto adioining, and to the great damage of this your realme, ſpeciallie to all perſons needing ſea coles, which be onelie conueied from the ſaid port of Newcaſtell, and in no where elſe had or to be ſhipped within this your realme.

In conſideration whereof, it may pleaſe your highneſſe, of your moſt aboundant grace, with the aſſent of your lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, to enact, ordeine, and eſtabliſh, that from henſeforth any merchant or merchants, or anie other perſon or perſons, ſhall not ſhip, lode, or vnlode, charge, or diſcharge, anie maner of goods, wares, or merchandizes, to be ſold heere, within this your realme or elſewhere, in, to or from anie ſhip or ſhips, or other veſſels, in or at anie place or places within the ſaid port, riuer, and hauen, betweene the ſaid place called the Sparhawke, and the ſaid place called Hedwinſtreams, but onelie at the ſaid towne of Newcaſtell, and no where elſe, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch goods, wares, and merchandizes to the king our ſaid ſouereigne lord, and to his heires kings of England, and that it ſhall be lawfull vnto the maior, burgeſſes, and commonaltie of the ſaid towne of Newcaſtell, and their ſucceſſors, and all other the kings officers there for the time being, for to take and ſeize all that ſaid ſuch forfeit goods, wares, and merchandizes, to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king, and of his heires, and the value thereof to be anſwered in his exchecker.

Sparhawk. Hedwinſtreame. Forfeit.

¶ Be it alſo enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie owner, farmar, and occupier of the ſaid weres, gores, and engins, and euerie of the ſame, doo abate, put downe, and put awaie the ſame weres, gores, and engins, on this ſide the feaſt of Eaſter next comming. And that no maner perſon or perſons, from henſeforth, araiſe, leuie, or make, anie maner were, gore, or engin, in the ſaid hauen, betweene the ſaid places, called Sparhawks and Hedwinſtreams, vpon paine of 100. li. of lawfull Engliſh monie, for euerie time they doo the contrarie, whereof the one halfe ſhall be to our ſouereigne lord the king, & the other halfe to him or them that will ſue therof, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in any the kings courts, wherin the partie defendant ſhall not wage his law nor in ẏ action any eſſoine, licence, ne protection be allowed.

Weres.

¶ And further, it ſhall be lawfull at all times, after the feaſt of Whitſontide next comming, to the maior, burgeſſes, and commonaltie of the ſaid towne of Newcaſtell, and their ſucceſſors, to abate, plucke downe, and take awaie, all and euerie of the ſaid weres, gores, and engins, that ſhall be then found ſtanding in anie place within the ſaid port and hauen, betweene the ſaid places of Sparhawke, and Hedwinſtreams, and that heereafter ſhall be newlie made, leuied, and arrered, anie where within the ſame, without trouble, let, or vexation of any maner of perſon or perſons, by ſute in the law or otherwiſe.

Prouided alwaie that this act be not preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie perſon or perſons, being the kings ſubiects, for buieng, ſhipping, loding, or vnloding, of anie ſalt or fiſh, within the ſaid riuer and port, or to anie of them, or to anie other perſon or perſons repairing to the ſaid port with ſhips and merchandizes for ſelling or buieng of anie wares or merchandizes, needfull for the vittelling and amending of their ſaid ſhips, at the time of their there being within the ſaid port: this act or anie thing compriſed in the ſame notwithſtanding.

An act concerning auowries.

Chap 19.

WHere as well the noble men of this realme, as diuerſe other perſons, by fines, recoueries, grants, and ſecret feoffements and leaſes, made by their tenants, to perſons vnknowne, of the lands and tenements, holden of them, haue beene put from the knowledge of their tenants, vpon whome they ſhould by order of the law, make their auowries for their rents, cuſtoms, and ſeruices, to their great loſſes and hinderances.

¶ Be it therefore enacted, eſtabliſhed, and ordeined, by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that whereſoeuer anie maner lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, be holden by anie maner perſon or perſons, by rents, cuſtoms, or ſeruices, that if the lord of whome anie ſuch manor, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, be ſo holden, diſtreine vpon the ſame manors, lands, or tenements, for anie ſuch rents, cuſtoms, or ſeruices, and repleuine thereof be ſued, that the lord of whome the ſame lands, tenements, or hereditaments be ſo holden, maie auow, or his bailif or ſeruant make cogniſance or iuſtifie for taking of the ſaid diſtreſſes, vpon the ſame lands, tenements, or hereditaments, ſo holden, as in lands or tenements within his fee, ſeignorie, alledging in the ſaid auowrie, cogniſance, and iuſtification, the ſame manors, lands, and tenements, to be holden of him, without naming of anie perſon certeine, to be tenant of the ſame, and without making any auowrie,iuſtification or cogniſance,vpon any perſon certeine. And likewiſe the lord bailie or ſeruant,to make auowrie,iuſtification,or cogniſance,in like maner and forme vpon euerie writ ſued of ſecond deliuerance.

And alſo be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie,that euerie auowancie,and euerie other perſon and perſons,that make any ſuch auowrie,iuſtification,or cogniſance,as bailif,or ſeruant to any perſon or perſons in anie replegiarie,or ſecond deliuerance,for rents,cuſtoms,ſeruices,or for damage faiſant,or other rent or rents,vpon anie diſtreſſe taken in any lands or tenements,if the ſame auowrie,cogniſance,or iuſtification be found for them or the plaintifs in the ſame be nonſuit or otherwiſe barred,that then they ſhall recouer their damages and coſts againſt the ſaid plaintifs,as the ſame plaintifs ſhould haue done or had, if they had recouered in the replegiarie,or ſecond deliuerance, found againſt the ſaid defendants.

And be it alſo ordeined, that the ſaid plaintifs and defendants,in the ſaid writs of replegiarie, or writs of ſecond deliuerance,and in euerie of them,ſhall haue like plees and like aid and praiers in all ſuch auowries,cogniſances,and iuſtifications,plees of diſclaime onlie except, as they might haue had before the making of this act, and as though the ſaid auowrie, cogniſance, or iuſtification,had beene made after the due order of the common law.

And it is further enacted by the ſaid authoritie,that all ſuch perſons,as by the order of the common law may lawfullie ioine to the plaintifs or defendants in the ſaid writs of replegiarie or ſecond deliuerance,as well without proceſſe,as by proceſſe,ſhall from henſeforth ioine vnto the ſaid plaintifs or defendants,as well without proceſſe as by proceſſe, and to haue like plees and like aduantages in all things,declaime onelie except, as they might haue done by the order of the common law,before the making of this act.

An act that the preſident of the kings counſell, ſhall be aſſociat with the chancellor and treaſuror of England,and the keeper of the kings priuie ſeale.

Chap. 20.

WHere at a parlement holden at Weſtminſter,in the third yeere of the reigne of our late moſt dread ſoueraigne lord Henrie the ſeuenth,for as much as by the vnlawfull maintenances,giuing of liueries,ſignes,tokens,and retaindors,by indentures,promiſes,othes, writings,or otherwiſe imbraceries,of his ſubiects,vntrue demeaning of ſhirifs, in making of panels,and other vntrue returnes,by taking of monie by iuries,and great riots,and vnlawfull aſſemblies,the policie and good rule of this relme was almoſt ſubdued. And for the puniſhment of theſe inconueniences,by the occaſion of the premiſſes,nothing or little might be found by inquirie,whereby the lawes of the land in execution might take little effect, which was to the increaſe of murders,robberies,periuries,and vnſuerties of all men liuing,and loſſes of their lands and goods,to the great diſpleaſure of almightie God. For reformation of which premiſſes, it was ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of the ſaid parlement,amongſt other things, that the chancellor and treaſuror of England,for the time being,and the keeper of the kings priuie ſeale, or two of them,calling to them a biſhop and a temporall lord of the kings moſt honorable counſell, and the two cheefe iuſtices of the kings bench,& the common place for the time being,or other two iuſtices in their abſence, vpon bill or information put to the ſaid chancellor for the king, or anie other againſt anie perſon, for anie miſbehauing afore rehearſed, ſhould haue authoritie to call before them by writ or by priuie ſeale, the ſaid miſdoers.And they,and other by their diſcretion,by whome the truth might be knowne to examine.And ſuch as they ſhould find defectiue,to puniſh them after their demerits, after the forme & effect of ſtatutes thereof made, in like maner and forme as they ſhould and ought to be puniſhed,if they were thereof conuict after the due order of the law, as by the ſame ſtatute among other things now plainelie doth appeare. Neuertheleſſe,in the ſame good and profitable eſtatute,the preſident of the kings moſt honorable counſell for the time being,attending vpon his moſt noble and roiall perſon,is omitted and not named in the ſaid former ſtatutes, made in the third yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the ſeuenth,to be one of the ſaid perſons that ſhould haue authoritie to call before them ſuch miſdoers, ſo offending the kings lawes in anie of the premiſſes as is before rehearſed.

¶ Be it therefore now by the authoritie of this preſent parlement ordeined and enacted, that from henſeforth the chancellor,treaſuror of England, and the preſident of the kings moſt honorable counſell, attending vpon his moſt honorable perſon, for the time being, and keeper of the kings priuie ſeale or two of them, calling vnto them one biſhop, and one temporall lord of the kings moſt honorable counſell, and the two cheefe iuſtices of the kings bench, and the common place for the time being, or other two of the kings iuſtices in their abſence, vpon anie bill or information heereafter to be put to the chancellor of England, treaſuror, preſident of the kings ſaid moſt honorable counſell, or keeper of the kings priuie ſeale for the time being, for anie miſbehauing before rehearſed,from henſeforth haue full power and authoritie, to call before them, by writ or priuie ſeale,ſuch miſdoers,and them,and other, by their diſcretion, by whome the truth maie be knowne,to examine.And ſuch as they ſhall find defectiue, to puniſh them after their demerits,after the forme and effect of the ſaid former eſtatute, and of all other ſtatutes thereof tofore made, and not repelled and expired in like maner and forme as they ſhould and ought to be puniſhed, if they were thereof conuicted,after due order of the kings lawes.

And alſo be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the preſident of the kings ſaid moſt honorable counſell, for the time being, if he be then preſent, maie be at all times héereafter aſſociat with the chancellor, treaſuror of England, and kéeper of the kings priuie ſeale for the time being, as well at the naming of ſhirifs, and ſetting of priſes of wines, as at all other acts limited and appointed by anie ſtatute to be doone by the ſaid chancellor and treaſuror, or kéeper of the kings priuie ſeale for the time being. Anie act, ſtatute, or vſe héeretofore made or vſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for Yarmouth concerning making of worſteds.

WHere at a parlement holden at London, the fiftéenth daie of Aprill, in the fourtéenth yéere of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, and from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter, the laſt daie of Julie, in the fiftéenth yéere of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, and there ended. It was ordeined, enacted, and eſtabliſhed, that the craftſmen called worſted weauers, inhabited in the towne of great Yarmouth, ſhould haue power and authoritie by that act, from thenſe forward to elect and choſe yéerlie for euer on the mondaie next after the feaſt of Pentecoſt, one honeſt man of the myſterie and occupation of worſted weauers, being an houſholder within the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, and hauing of his proper goods and chattels, to the value of ten pounds at the leaſt, or lands or tenements to his owne vſe of eſtate of fréehold at the leaſt, to the cléere yéerelie value of xx. s. to be warden of the ſame craft and myſterie of worſted weauers, for the next yéere inſuing, which man ſo elected and choſen, ſhould perſonallie appeare before the maior of the citie of Norwich for the time being, the mondaie next after the feaſt of Corpus Chriſti, then next inſuing, then and there to be ſworne and charged by like oth, concerning the true and ſubſtantiall making of worſteds, ſaies, and ſtamins, within the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, as the foure wardens of the ſaid citie of Norwich, by vertue of an act of parlement made in the ſeauenth yéere of king Edward the fourth, were charged and ſworne for the ſame citie of Norwich. And if the ſaid maior happened to be abſent, the ſaid mondaie next after Corpus Chriſti, or elſe then refuſed to receiue or take the ſaid oth, then the ſaid warden ſo elect, within foure daies next after the ſame mondaie, ſhould come before the bailifs of the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth for the time being, or before one of them, the other being abſent, and then and there, receiue a corporall oth for the true exerciſing of the ſame office of wardenſhip, after the tenor of the oth accuſtomablie vſed to be giuen to the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie of Norwich. And then the ſaid warden of the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, for the time being, ſo elect and ſworne, might ordeine and appoint a ſeale with this letter Y to be grauen in the ſame ſeale, and might haue full power and authoritie, to view, ſearch, ſeize, and ſeale in leade with the ſame ſeale, ſo to be appointed and ingrauen and none other, all worſteds, ſaies, and ſtamins, within the ſaid towne of Yarmouth, and ſuburbs of the ſame, made or to be made, and not elſewhere, in as large and ample maner, as the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie of Norwich, and the wardens of the countie of Norfolke, or anie of them, had within the ſaid citie or countie, or in anie wiſe maie doo in that behalfe, by vertue of the afore remembred act, made in the ſaid ſeuenth yéere of king Edward the fourth, anie thing in the ſame conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶ And that no perſon, inhabited within the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, or ſuburbs thereof, ſhould weaue anie worſteds, ſaies, or ſtamins, within the ſame towne, except he be an Engliſhman borne, and had béene apprentiſe to the ſaid occupation, and without he weaued there ſuch proper marks as ſhould be limited and appointed by the ſaid warden of the ſaid towne for the time being, elect and ſworne as is aforeſaid, vpon paine of forfeiture thereof to the king our ſoueraigne lord. And that euerie warden of the ſaid towne, ſhould limit diſtinct and ſeuerall marks, to euerie of the ſaid worſted weauers of the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, and the ſame marks by the ſaid warden to be regiſtred in a booke. And alſo it was further enacted, that if, and whenſoeuer the towne of Lin ſhould be inhabited with ten ſundrie houſholders, or more number of houſholders, exerciſing and vſing the ſaid craft or myſterie of worſted weauers, then and from thenſeforth, that is to ſaie, as long as the ſame towne of Lin ſhould be inhabited with the number of ten ſuch houſholders at the leaſt, it ſhould be lawfull to the ſame inhabitants of the ſaid towne of Lin, yéerelie in the mondaie next after the feaſt of Pentecoſt, to elect and chooſe of themſelfe one warden of the ſaid craft and myſterie of worſted weauers, to be of the value in lands and goods, as is aforeſaid, of the warden of Yarmouth, which warden ſo elect, ſhould yéerelie be ſworne and charged at the ſaid citie of Norwich, in like maner, and at like daie as is before limited to the wardens of Yarmouth: or in default of the ſaid maior of Norwich, then the ſaid warden ſo to be elect for the ſaid towne of Lin, to take a corporall oth before the maior of the ſaid towne of Lin, within ſuch time, and after ſuch forme, as is before limited vnto the ſaid warden of Yarmouth.

¶ And that the ſaid warden of the ſaid towne of Lin for the time being, ſo elect and ſworne by himſelfe, might ordeine and appoint a ſeale, with this letter L to be grauen in the ſame ſeale, and might haue full power and authoritie, to view, ſearch, ſeize, and ſeale in lead, with the ſame ſeale ſo to be grauen, and with none other, all worſteds, ſaies, and ſtamins, within the ſaid towne of Lin, and ſuburbs of the ſame, made or to be made, and not elſewhere, in as large and ample maner, as the ſaid warden of the ſaid citie of Norwich, and warden of the ſaid countie of Norfolke, or anie of them, had within the ſaid citie or countie, or otherwiſe might doo, by authoritie or vertue of the aforeſaid act made in the ſaid ſeuenth yéere of king Edward the fourth. Any thing conteined in the ſame act to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And that no perſon inhabited within the ſaid towne of Lin, or the ſuburbs thereof, ſhould make anie worſteds, ſaies, or ſtamins within the ſame towne except he were Engliſh borne, and had béene apprentiſe to the ſame occupation, and without he weaued therein ſuch proper marke, as ſhould be limited and appointed by the ſaid warden of the ſame towne of Lin for the time being, vpon paine of forfeiture thereof to the king our ſoueraigne lord. ¶ And that euerie gardian of the ſaid towne ſhould limit, diſtinct and ſeuerall marks to euerie of the ſaid worſted weauers of the ſame towne, and the ſame marks by the ſaid warden to be regiſtred in a bóke.

And it was further enacted, that from the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell then next following, vnto ſuch time as the ſaid towne of Lin ſhould be inhabited with the ſaid number of ten houſholders of the ſaid craft of worſted weauers, and alwaies after when that number of ten houſholders ſhould happen to faile and not be inhabited in the ſaid towne of Lin, the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie of Norwich, and their ſucceſſors, would procure and cauſe one of themſelues, or one of the wardens of the ſaid craft of the ſaid countie of Norfolke, perſonallie to come and be euerie eight and twentith day, from and after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, in, and to the ſaid towne of Lin, or within ſix daies next after euerie ſuch eight and twentith daie, and there to continue and abide by ſo long time as he might ſearch and ſeale all ſuch worſteds, ſaies, and ſtamins, made in the ſame towne of Lin, as then ſhould be brought to him to be ſealed, within the ſpace of one whole daie. And the ſame inhabitants of worſted weauers of the ſame towne of Lin being, ſhould content and paie the ſaid warden of Norwich or Norfolke, which ſhould ſo come to Lin, in the ſaid eight and twentith daie, or within the ſix daies next after the ſaid eight and twentith daie, for his coſts and expenſes for euerie time that he ſhould ſo come to Lin, betwéene the feaſts of S. Michaell the archangell, and the Annunciation of our ladie S. Marie, thrée ſhillings. And for euerie time that he ſhould ſo come to the ſaid towne of Lin, betwéene the feaſt of the Annunciation of our ladie, and the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, two ſhillings. And if the ſaid inhabitants of worſted weauers of the ſaid towne of Lin, did not content and paie the ſaid warden comming to Lin, in forme aforeſaid, for his ſaid coſts and charges, the ſaid thrée ſhillings or two ſhillings, as is aboue limited, then the ſame inhabitants ſhould forfeit and paie to the ſaid warden, or to his executors, for euerie ſuch default of paiment, fortie ſhillings. And if none of the ſaid wardens of Norwich and Norfolke, come to the ſaid towne of Lin, for the cauſe aforeſaid, in maner & forme aboue remembred, that the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie of Norwich, ſhould forfeit and paie to the ſaid inhabitants of Lin, of the ſaid myſterie of worſted weauers, for euerie ſuch default fortie ſhillings, for recompenſe of which penaltie and forfeitures, the ſaid wardens of Norwich or Norfolke, being thereunto intituled by that act by his proper name, with this addition, that is to ſaie, Vnius gardianorum, or Nuper vnius gardianorum artis ſiue myſteriæ textorum panni lanei vocat. worſted, in ciuitate Norwici vel comitat. Norf. as the truth requireth, ſhould and might haue action of debt, by writ, bill, or plaint, in anie competent or lawfull court of this realme, againſt the inhabitants of Lin of the ſaid myſterie for the time being, by their ſundrie proper names. And the ſaid inhabitants, by their ſaid names, with this addition, Textorum panni lanei vocat. worſtedes inhabitantes ville de Linne, ſhould and might haue like actions of debt againſt the ſaid wardens of Norwich by the name of Gardiani artis ſiue myſteriæ textorum pannorum laneorum vocat. worſtedes infra ciuitatem Norwici, vel com. Norf. to be vſed to góod congruities of Latin, and forme of the lawes of this realme. In which actions, or anie of them, none eſſoine, protection, or wager of law ſhould be ſuffered or allowed. And that the particular bodies or góods of anie of the ſaid wardens or inhabitants, being condemned in anie of the ſaid actions, ſhould and might be put in execution after ſuch maner and forme as is vſed in action of debt by courſe of the common law of this realme. And moreouer it was enacted, that all clothes of worſteds, ſaies and ſtamins, made within anie of the ſaid townes of Lin and great Yarmouth, or ſuburbs of the ſame, or anie of them, and marked with ſuch marks as ſhould be limited to the makers by the ſaid wardens of the ſaid towne, in maner and forme as is aboueſaid. And viewed and ſealed by anie of the wardens of the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth, in forme remembred, by force and vertue of the ſaid act, might be lawfullie put to ſale, by the owners & makers of the ſame, without anie other marking or ſealing vpon the ſame clothes, or vpon anie of them to be had or made, of or vpon anie of the ſaid clothes, for lacke of any other ſeales or marks: any thing conteined in the ſaid ſeuenth yéere of king Edward the 4. to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And ouer this it was enacted, that euerie craftſman of the ſaid myſterie & occupation of worſted making, dwelling within any the ſaid towns of Lin & Yarmouth and ſuburbs of the ſame, at their owne frée wils & liberties, from thenſeforth for euer might haue and take apprentiſe or apprentiſes being male, of the age of eightéene yéeres and vpward, and being the kings naturall ſubiects, for terme of ſeuen yéeres, and not vnder, ſo that none of them excéed the number of two at once, to learne, vſe, and exerciſe, the ſaid craft within either of the ſaid two townes of Lin and great Yarmouth, and ſuburbs of the ſame. Albeit the father of the ſaid apprentiſe or apprentiſes, might not expend in lands and tenements to the yéerelie value of twentie ſhillings, anie act or ordinance to the contrarie made or to be made notwithſtanding.

¶ Prouided alwaie, that the ſame act, nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhould not in any wiſe be hurtfull or preiudiciall to the maior of Norwich, or to his ſucceſſor, or to the wardens of the ſaid citie or countie,or to their ſucceſſors,in anie point,article,power, or authoritie, other than for weauing,ſearching,and ſealing of the worſteds,ſaies,and ſtamins, made or to be made onelie within the ſaid towne of Lin and Yarmouth,or ſuburbs of the ſame,or to anie of them. And for limiting of marks to the markers of worſteds,ſaies,and ſtamins,onelie inhabited in either the ſaid towns or ſuburbs thereof,and taking of apprentiſes,in forme aboue remembred: but that the ſaid maior of the ſaid citie of Norwich,and wardens of the ſame citie and countie,and euerie of them, might haue and vſe all other points,articles,powers,and authorities,conteined and ſpecified in the aboue remembred act,made in the ſaid ſeuenth yeere of king Edward the fourth, as well for the ſearch, ſealing,correction,and reformation of the ſaid wardens,dulie to be elect by vertue of the ſame act, and euerie of them,according & after ſuch forme as they might doo or vſe, anie of the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie or countie,by force of the ſaid act,made in the ſaid ſeauenth yeere of king Edward the fourth,as all and euerie other inquiries,corrections, ſearchings, ſealings, and reformations to be had,for true making of worſteds,ſaies,and ſtamins,in and vpon anie perſon or perſons,as well within the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth,as without,without trouble,let, or vexation of anie of the inhabitants of the ſaid townes,in as large and ample wiſe as they might haue doone before the making of the ſaid act,anie thing conteined in the ſame act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And alſo it was further prouided and enacted,that the ſaid craftſmen of worſted weauers, inhabited,or after that to be inhabited,within either of the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth,or ſuburbs of the ſame,and the merchants or anie other perſon or perſons, which ſhould happen to buie of the ſame craftſmen,or anie of them,or of anie other perſon, anie of the ſaid clothes of worſteds, ſaies,ſtamins,made or to be made within either of the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth,and ſealed by the ſaid wardens of the ſame townes,to be elect and ſworne as is aforeſaid.

And anie of them ſhould not ſheere,die,or put in colour, or calender anie worſteds, ſtamins,or ſaies,made,or after that to be made,within either of the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth,or ſuburbs of the ſame,in anie other place or places,but onelie within the ſaid citie of Norwich, or ſuburbs of the ſame,vpon paine of forfeiture of euerie peece of worſted, ſaies,or ſtamins, to be made within anie of the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth,or ſuburbs of the ſame,or the value thereof, ſhorne,died,coloured, or calendred,by anie of the ſaid craftſmen, buiers, or merchants, in anie other place or places than in the ſaid citie of Norwich,or ſuburbs of the ſame,the one halfe thereof to be to the king our ſouereigne,and the other halfe to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhould ſeize the ſame, ſo that the ſaid worſteds,brought to the ſaid citie of Norwich, to be ſhorne, died, coloured, and calendred, without couin or craft of anie of the ſaid inhabitants and merchants, might be ſhorne, died,coloured, and calendred,at and by as conuenient priſe or priſes, and in as readie wiſe as the ſaid inhabitants of either of the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth, and merchants, buiers of the ſaid worſteds,or other of the ſaid citie and countie had in times paſt, or after that ſhould haue,and alſo that the ſame inhabitants and merchants,and euerie of them,ſo bringing the ſaid worſteds to the ſame citie to be ſhorne,died,coloured, and calendred, were reaſonablie and lawfullie intreated, according to the ſaid act, made in the ſaid ſeauenth yeere of king Edward the fourth, and the ordinances made and affirmed,or heereafter to be made and affirmed,for the ſaid myſterie,without let or diſturbance,contrarie to the ſame act or ordinances in that behalfe.

¶And it was further enacted,that no perſon or perſons at anie time after that ſhould conuey or tranſport into anie of the parts of beyond the ſea, anie maner of clothes of worſteds before the ſame clothes were ſhorne,died,coloured and calendred,vpon paine of forfeiture of the value thereof,the one halfe to the king our ſoureigne lord,and the other halfe therof to the partie that will ſue therefore by action or plaint of debt in anie of the kings courts: in which action or ſute no protection or eſſoine ſhould be allowed,nor the offendor admitted to wage his law,as by the ſaid act thereof made more plainlie appeereth: which act was made to indure to the next parlement, whereby it is now expired.

¶In conſideration whereof,and foraſmuch as the ſame act is a good and neceſſarie act,for their true making of worſteds ſaies and ſtamins, and verie commodious and profitable for the increaſe of the ſaid townes of Yarmouth and Lin. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſoureigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,that the ſame act,and euerie article,ſentence and prouiſion therein conteined, from the firſt daie of this preſent parlement be and ſtand in full ſtrength,vertue and effect, and to indure vnto the laſt end of the next parlement,anie thing in the ſame act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

The firſt chapter.

Where at a parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the fourth yeare of the reigne of the moſt victorious prince of famous memorie king Henrie the ſeauenth, moſt deare father vnto the kings highneſſe our ſoueraigne lord, for the increaſe and maintenance of draperie, and making of woollen clothes within this realme, it was eſtabliſhed and enacted, that no maner perſon by himſelfe, or by anie other, ſhould buie or bargaine, from the firſt daie of March, which was in the yeare of our Lord God, one thouſand, foure hundred, fourescore and nine, anie wools then vnſhorne, of the growing of Barkeſhire, Oxfordſhire, Gloceſterſhire, Herefordſhire, Shropſhire, Worſterſhire, Eſſex, Wilſhire, Summerſetſhire, Dorſetſhire, Hamſhire, Hartfordſhire, Cambridgeſhire, Norfolke, Suffolke, Kent, Surreie, or Suſſex, or anie of them, before the feaſt of the Aſſumption of our ladie then next inſuing, or buie or bargaine anie wools, or take promiſe of bargaine of anie wools, that ſhould grow in anie of the ſaid ſhires, in anie yeare or yeares to come, after the ſaid feaſt of the Aſſumption of our ladie, anie time before the ſaid feaſt of the Aſſumption of our ladie that ſhould be next after the ſhearing of the ſame wooll or wools, but onelie ſuch perſons as of the ſaid wools ſhould make or doo to be made, yarne or cloth within this realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of the double value of all the ſaid wools, bought or to be bargained or taken by promiſe of bargaine, contrarie to the ſaid ordinance. Nor that anie merchant ſtranger by himſelfe, or by anie other perſon in anie yeere then to come, ſhould buie anie wools before the feaſt of the Purification of our ladie next after the clipping or ſhearing of the ſame, vpon like paine of forfeiture: the one halfe of ſuch forfeiture to be to the kings vſe, and the other halfe to him that would ſue the partie that ſhould breake the ſaid ordinance. And that anie perſon that would ſue in that part, ſhould haue an action of debt of the ſaid forfeiture, and ſuch proceſſe in the ſame action ſhould be had, as is in action of debt at the common law, or after the cuſtome of the citie, borough, or towne, where it ſhould happen to be ſued, and that no eſſoine, ne protection ſhould be allowed for the defendant in that action, nor that the defendant therein ſhould be admitted to wage his law. And furthermore it was ordeined by the ſame act, that no maner perſon being ſworne to be a woolpacker, in anie wiſe after the ſaid firſt daie of March, ſhould buie or bargaine anie maner of wooll, for anie ſuch merchant ſtranger within this realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame wooll ſo bought, bargained, or gathered, to the vſe of anie ſuch merchant ſtranger, as by the ſame act is plainlie declared. The which good ſtatute and act was made onelie to indure for the terme of ten yeares then next inſuing, which terme is now long time paſt and expired. Sithen the expiration thereof, there haue béene and dailie be manie broggers, regrators, and gatherers of wools within the ſaid ſhires, as well to the vſe of ſtrangers, as the kings Engliſh ſubiects, which drape not the ſame wools within this realme, which broggers, and gatherers, preuent ſo the clothmakers in the prouiſion of the ſaid wools, and put yéerelie ſuch priſes to the ſame, that the clothmakers by whome anie of the kings ſubiects of this realme haue béene commonlie ſet a worke, cannot drape ne be able for lacke of wools at reaſonable priſes, to drape ſuch multitude of woollen clothes, as they haue béene accuſtomed in times paſt, by reaſon whereof manie of the kings ſubiects, which liued by draperie, for lacke of worke be brought to idleneſſe, and dailie incur and fall to robberies and other inconueniences. For reformation whereof, it maie pleaſe the kings highneſſe, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, to eſtabliſh and enact that the ſaid eſtatute made in the ſaid fourth yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king, be reuiued in euerie article thereof, and from the firſt daie of March next comming, to ſtand in as good ſtrength, qualitie, and effect in euerie article therein conteined, as it was in anie time within the ſaid ten yéeres expreſſed in the ſame eſtatute: and ſo to indure for the terme of ten yeares, from now next inſuing, and from the end of thoſe ten yéeres, vnto the end of the next parlement, to be holden after the ſame yéeres. And furthermore it is ordeined and enacted, by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no maner perſon in anie wiſe, after the firſt daie of March next comming, ſhall buie or bargaine anie maner of wooll, within this relme, for anie merchant ſtranger, nor take anie promiſe of bargaine or ſale of anie wooll for anie merchant ſtranger within this realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame wooll ſo bought, or whereof promiſe or bargaine of ſale ſhall be taken, or the value of the ſame wools This act to indure from the ſaid firſt daie of March next comming, vnto the end of ten yéeres next inſuing, and further as is aboue written.

Reuiued.

Merchant ſtranger.

Alſo it is ordeined and enacted, by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all worſted makers, makers of ſaies, ſtamins, hatters, and cappers of this realme, ſhall haue from henſeforth like libertie and time of buieng and prouiſion of wools for the onelie vſe and imploiments of making of worſteds, ſaies, ſtamins, hats and caps within this realme, as is ordeined by the ſaid act made in this preſent parlement, and by the ſaid act made in the ſaid fourth yéere of the reigne of king Henrie the ſeuenth for clothiers and makers of yarne. And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act and euerie article and thing therein conteined, ſhall take effect, and be put in execution, aſwell within the ſhires of Buckingham, Northhampton, Leiceſter, Huntington, Warwike, Lincolne, Darbie, Rutland, Nottingham, and Yorke, as in anie of the ſhires aboue rehearſed for prouiſion or buieng of anie wools of the grow of anie of the ſame ſhires of Buckingham, Northhampton, Leiceſter, Huntington, Warwike, Lincolne, Darbie, Rutland, Nottingham and Yorke, contrarie to anie article conteined in this preſent act, and that all bargaines, couenants, promiſes, contracts and prouiſions for wools héeretofore made, or at anie time héereafter before the firſt daie of March next comming to be made by anie perſon or perſons in anie of the ſhires aboue rehearſed for anie yéere or yéeres to come, ſhall be void and of none effect, except the buier, prouider, or ſuch perſons, to whom any ſuch former contract or promiſe is made, doo put the ſame wools by him receiued, by reaſon of any ſuch former contract, couenant or promiſe, into yarne or cloth within this realme.

An act concerning the triall of forren plees pleaded by felons.

Chap. 2.

WHere among other things it was conſidered by the whole court of parlement of our moſt excellent ſoueriegne lord the king, holden in the fourth yéere of his noble reigne, that murderers and felons, lawfullie arreigned of their deteſtable offenſes, bare them bold vpon imagining and pleading of fained and vntrue forren plées triable in forren counties, to the intent to be remoued from place to place by colourable & vntrue ſuggeſtions, and for to be vntrulie acquit by fauor, might or corruption, ſo that they liued in maner without feare or dread: for reformation whereof, and for the commonwealth of this realme, it was enacted by authoritie of the ſaid parlement, that if anie murderer or felon vpon his arreignement from thenſeforth did allege, that he had taken anie church or churchyard for murder or felonie, or other place priuileged for the ſame in a forren countie, and againſt his will was taken out thereof: that then the kings atturnie, or anie other perſon that would ſue or allege for the king, that the ſaid murderer or felon ſo arreigned, was taken at large in the ſame ſhire, where he is arreigned, that then the ſame allegeance and iſſue ſhould be tried by the inqueſt that ſhould trie the ſaid murder or felonie within the ſame ſhire, and before the ſame iuſtices where the ſaid murderer or felon is arreigned, as though the ſaid forren plée had not béene pleaded by the ſaid felon. And that if it were found by the ſame inqueſt, that the ſaid murderer or felon was taken within the ſame ſhire, as is aforeſaid, that then he to haue no aduantage or benefit of the matter alleged by him for taking out of the church or churchyard, or other place priuileged in anie ſuch forren ſhire, and that the ſaid act ſhould indure to the next parlement from thenſe inſuing, as by the ſame act made in the ſaid fourth yéere manifeſtlie appeareth. And foraſmuch as ſince the time of expiration of the ſaid act made in the ſaid fourth yéere manie abhominable murders, aſwell of préeſts as of other perſons, robberies of churches, & robberies of perſons in their houſes, aſwell by day as by night, and other moſt deteſtable murders and felonies haue béene committed and doone within this realme: and the more and more often becauſe that the ſaid ſtatute hath béene expired and ended from and ſince the beginning of the parlement of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, holden in the firt yéere of his moſt noble reigne: it is ordeined and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid act made in the ſaid fourth yéere, and euerie thing therein conteined, concerning the ſaid forren plées and replications therevnto to be made, and trials thereof ſhall now be reuiued, and ſhall ſtand in full force and effect, and ſhall continue and indure from henſeforth for euer, as if the ſame act had béene originallie made perpetuall and not determinable. An act concerning Plumſted marſhes.

Chap. 3.

WHereas the marſhes of Plumſted and Leſenes, with the outragiouſneſſe of the riuer of Thames, hath béene and yet be drowned by occaſion of the breaches in the marſh wals of Plumſted, Leſenes & Erith: and where the breach in Plumſted marſh aforeſaid hath béene & is made, for inning of which breach of Plumſted, and maintenance & defenſe of the marſh wals about the ſame breach, aſwell for making of a new croſſe wall to be made from the Thames vnto the vpland, for inning of the ſaid marſh of Plumſted, as alſo for the inning of certeine number of acres in the leuell & marſhes of Leſenes to be incloſed, inned and defended by the ſaid croſſe wall from the water of Thames, comming in at Erith breach, and drowning and ouerflowing the ſaid marſh and leuell, and for draning of the ſame, and for the maintenance of the old marſh wals by the Thames ſide from the ſaid new croſſe wall nigh vnto Woolwich, diuerſe & ſundrie ſeſſes, ſkots and taxes haue béene made, ſeſſed, ſcotted, ſet and taxed by vertue of commiſſion, and the daie of paiments thereof in the pariſh church of Plumſted, according as heeretofore for ſeſſes of Plumſted marſh hath béene accuſtomed, hath béene declared and proclamed, which ſeſſes, ſkots & taxes diuerſe poſſeſſioners, owners, landlords, tenants and profit takers of the ſaid lands within the ſaid marſhes and leuell at the daie mentioned and appointed by proclamation, haue not paid, nor yet doo paie contrarie to the lawes of Plumſted marſh héeretofore made, by which lawes for non paiment of ſuch ſeſſes, ſkots and taxes, they ought to paie them and their doubles. In default of which paiment the ſaid bailiffe of the ſaid marſh and leuell now being, and other by his aſſignement to their great hinderance haue béene conſtreined to paie diuerſe of the ſaid ſkots, ſeſſes, and taxes for the inning of the ſaid marſh, maintenance and defenſe of the ſame, or elſe the ſame marſhes and leuell had béene vtterlie loſt without remedie. For the recouerie of which ſeſſes, ſkots and taxes ſo by the bailiffe and his aſſignes paid, and of other ſkots and ſeſſes now due, by the occaſion of the ſaid outragious drowning of the ſaid marſhes, the ſaid bailiffe and his aſſignes haue no remedie or meane to leuie the ſame: ſo that for non paiment of the ſaid ſeſſes, ſkots and taxes, not onelie the ſaid worke is like to periſh, and not like to be finiſhed, vnleſſe ſpéedie remedie maie be had for the leuieng thereof: but alſo all ſuch ſummes of monie as before this time haue béene imploied for the inning, defenſe, and maintenance of the ſame, are like to be loſt, to the vtter deſtruction of the ſaid marſh and leuell, and to the extreme ruine and decaie of the countrie therevnto adioining, and to the great decaie of the riuer of Thames aforeſaid, and to the diſheriſon, aſwell of our ſouereigne lord the king, as of other owners, poſſeſſioners, and tenants, that haue, doo and will paie ſuch ſeſſes, ſkots and taxes, as before this time, or in time to come, hath or ſhall be ſeſſed, ſet and taxed for the ſame. In conſideration whereof be it enacted by our ſouereigne lord the king, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the bailiffe of the ſaid marſhes and leuell now being, or his aſſignes, ſhall and maie by force of this act, make proclamation on anie ſundaie héereafter inſuing in the pariſh church of Plumſted aforeſaid, as well of this act, as alſo that all ſuch ſeſſes, ſkots and taxes at the time of the ſaid proclamation made, being behind and vnpaid, ſhall be paid at a certeine place in the ſaid proclamation to be limited, within twentie daies next inſuing after the daie of the ſame proclamation. And he that ſo paieth, ſhall be diſcharged of anie doubles due héeretofore for non paiment of the ſame. And if the ſaid ſeſſes, ſkots and taxes be not paid by the end of the ſaid twentie daies after ſuch proclamation to the ſaid bailiffe, his executors or aſſignes, that then euerie perſon or perſons, which ought to paie the ſame ſeſſes, ſkots and taxes, ſhall forfeit the doubles of the ſame ſeſſes, ſkots and taxes; and that then if the ſaid ſeſſes, ſkots and taxes, and their doubles be not paid by the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell now next comming, vnto the ſaid bailiffe his executors or aſſignes: then it ſhall be lawfull to euerie owner, poſſeſſioner, landlord, tenant and profit taker of lands and tenements and other profits within the ſaid marſhes and leuell, or anie other perſon or perſons, which hath, doth and will paie to the ſaid bailiffe, his executors or aſſignes ſuch ſeſſes, ſkots and taxes or anie of them ſo due and vnpaid by anie other owner, poſſeſſioner, landlord, tenant, profit taker of lands and tenements within the ſame leuell, to enter into all the ſaid lands and tenements and other profits within the ſaid marſhes and leuell ſo ſeſſed, ſkotted and taxed, and the ſame from thenſeforth to haue, hold, perceiue and occupie to him or them, his or their heires, ſucceſſors or aſſignes for euer by vertue of this preſent act, without let or interruption of anie of the ſame owners, poſſeſſioners, landlords, tenants, takers of profits, termers or anie other perſon or perſons which haue or ſhall haue any eſtate, title, intereſt, vſe or terme in any of thoſe lands and tenements and other profits, ſo ſeſſed, ſkotted and taxed, by reaſon of anie intaile, gift, grant or other title whatſoeuer it be.

Commiſſion

Be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſame law ſhall be had & executed for anie ſkot, tax or ſeſſe héereafter to be had & made before the feaſt of the Natiuitie of S. John Baptiſt now next comming, by vertue of anie commiſſion within anie of the ſaid marſhes and leuell, anie act or vſe to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Since which time diuerſe wardens and fellowſhips haue made acts and ordinances, that euerie prentiſe ſhall paie at his firſt entrie in their common hall to the wardens of the ſame fellowſhip, ſome of them xl.s. ſome xxx.s. ſome xx.s. ſome xiij.s. iiij.d. ſome vj.s. viij.d. ſome iij.s. iiij.d. after their owne ſiniſter mind and pleaſure, contrarie to the meaning of the act aforeſaid, and to the great hurt of the kings true ſubiects putting their children to be prentiſe. It is therefore now ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that no maiſter wardens or fellowſhips of crafts, or maiſters, or anie of them, nor anie rulers of fraternities take from henſefoorth of anie prentiſe, or of anie other perſon or perſons for the entrie of anie prentiſe into their ſaid fellowſhip, aboue the ſum of ij.s.vj.d. nor for his entrie when his yeers & terme is expired and ended aboue iij.s. iiij.d. vpon paine of forfeiture of xl.li. for euerie time that they doo to the contrarie: the one halfe to the king our ſoueraigne lord, the other halfe to the partie that therefore ſhall ſue by action of debt, information, or otherwiſe: and that in the action aforeſaid, no protection or eſſoine ſhall be allowed.

An act concerning repairing and amending of bridges in high waies.

Chap.5.

BE it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the iuſtices of peace in euerie ſhire of this relme, franchiſe, citie or borough, or foure of them at the leaſt, wherof one to be of the Quorum, ſhall haue power and authoritie to inquire, heare and determine in the kings generall ſeſſions of peace, of all maner of annoiances of bridges broken in the high waies, to the damage of the kings liege people, and to make ſuch proceſſe and paines vpon euerie preſentment afore them for the reformation of the ſame againe, ſuch as ought to be charged for the making or amending of ſuch bridges, as the kings iuſtices of his bench vſe commonlie to doo, or as it ſhall ſéeme by their diſcretion to be neceſſarie & conuenient for the ſpéedie amendment of ſuch bridges. And where in manie parts of this realme it cannot be knowne & prooued what hundred, riding, wapentake, citie, borough, towne or pariſh, nor what perſon certeine, or bodie politike ought of right to make ſuch bridges decaied, by reaſon whereof ſuch decaied bridges for lacke of knowledge of ſuch as ought to make them, for the moſt part lieng long without any amendment, to the great annoiance of the kings ſubiects: for the remedie therof, be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that in euerie ſuch caſe the ſaid bridges, if they be without the citie or towne corporat, ſhall be made by the inhabitants of the ſhire or riding, within the which the ſaid bridge decaied ſhall happen to be: and if it be within anie citie or towne corporat, then by the inhabitants of euerie ſuch citie or towne corporat, wherein ſuch bridges ſhall happen to be: and if part of anie ſuch bridges ſo decaied happen to be in one ſhire, riding, citie or towne corporat, and the other part therof in an other ſhire, riding, citie or towne corporat, or if part be within the limits of anie citie or towne corporat & part without, or part within one riding and part within another: that then in euerie ſuch caſe the inhabitants of the ſhires, ridings, cities or townes corporat ſhall be charged and chargable to amend, make and repaire ſuch part and portion of ſuch bridges ſo decaied, as ſhall lie and be within the limits of the ſhire, riding, citie or towne corporat, wherein they be inhabited at the time of the ſame decaies.

And ſhall alſo haue power and authoritie to make two collectors of euerie hundred, for collection of all ſuch ſummes of monie, by them ſet and taxed, which collectors receiuing the one part of the ſaid roll indented vnder the ſeales of the ſaid iuſtices, ſhall haue power and authoritie to collect and receiue all the particular ſummes of monie therein conteined, and to diſtreine euerie ſuch inhabitant, as ſhall be taxed, and refuſe paiment thereof, in his lands, goods and chattels, and to ſell ſuch diſtreſſe, and of the ſale thereof, reteine and perceiue all the monie taxed, and the reſidue (if the diſtreſſe be better) to deliuer to the owner thereof. And where anie bridge or bridges lieng in one ſhire or riding, and ſuch perſons inhabitants, bodies politike, lands or tenements, which ought to be charged to the making and amending of ſuch bridges, lieng and abiding in another ſhire or riding, or where ſuch bridges beene within anie citie or towne corporat, and the perſons inhabitants, bodies politike, lands or tenements, that ought to make or repaire anie ſuch bridges, lieng and beene out of the ſaid cities and townes corporat: be it enacted that in euerie ſuch caſe, the iuſtices of peace of the ſhire, citie, or towne corporat, within the which ſuch decaied bridges or anie part thereof, ſhall happen to be, ſhall haue power to inquire, heare and determine all ſuch annoiances, being within the limits of their commiſſions or authorities.

And that all ſhirifs and bailifs of liberties and franchiſes, ſhall trulie ſerue and execute ſuch proceſſe, as ſhall come to their hands from the ſaid iuſtices of peace, afore whom anie preſentment ſhall be had for anie ſuch annoiance according to the tenor ⁊ effect of the ſaid proceſſe to them directed, without fauor, affection or corruption, vpon paine to make ſuch fine as ſhall be ſet vpon them or anie of them, by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the iuſtices of peace, or foure of them ſhall haue full power and authoritie to allow ſuch reaſonable coſts and charges to the ſaid ſurueiors and collectors, as by their diſcretion ſhall be thought conuenient.

Foraſmuch that albeit bridges decaied were amended and repaired, according to the tenor of this act, yet neuertheleſſe if ſpéedie remedie for the amendment of the waies next adioining to euerie of the ends of ſuch bridges ſhould not be had and made, the kings ſubiects ſhould take little or none auaile or commoditie in manie parts of this realme by the making of the bridges. In conſideration whereof, be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that ſuch part and portion of the high waies in euerie part of this realme, as well within franchiſe as without, as lie next adioining to anie ends of any bridges within this realme, diſtant from anie of the ſaid ends, by the ſpace of thrée hundred foot, be made, repaired, and amended, as often as need ſhall require. And that the iuſtices of the peace in euerie ſhire of this realme, franchiſe, citie, or borough, or foure of them at the leaſt, whereof one to of the Quorum, within the limits of their commiſſions and authoritie, ſhall haue power and authoritie to enquire, heare, and determine in the kings generall ſeſſions of peace, all maner of annoizanſes, of and in ſuch high waies, ſo being and lieng next adioining to anie ends of bridges within this realme, diſtant from anie of the ends of ſuch bridges thrée hundred foot, and to doo in euery thing and things concerning the making, repairing, and amending of ſuch high waies, and euery of them, in as large and ample maner, as they might and maie doo to and for the making, repairing and amending of bridges, by vertue and authoritie of this preſent act.

An act concerning tanners and butchers.

Chap.6.

For as much as in diuers and manie good towns and places within this realme, ſundrie perſons occupieng the crafts of butchers, haue now of late for their ſingular priuat lucre and aduantages, ſet vp tanning houſes, vſing in the ſame crafts of tanners, and not being expert in the ſaid craft, doo dailie make much falſe, vntrue, and deceiuable leather, ſelling the ſame to the great deceit of the kings poore ſubiects. And alſo by meane that they doo occupie as well the ſaid craft of tanners as of butchers, they doo manie times buie ſtollen oxen, kine, ſtéeres, calues, and ſhéepe, and the ſame doo kill, and ſell in their butchers ſhops, conueieng the hides, ſkins, and fels of ſuch ſtollen cattell vnto their tan houſes, cauſing the ſame to be tanned, and tranſported into tanned leather, by meane whereof, not onelie great number of honeſt perſons within this realme being robbed of ſuch oxen, kine, ſtéeres, calues, and ſhéepe ſo taken, can neuer come to the knowledge of the ſame, neither by ſkin, hide, horne, fell, or other marke, whereby diuers priuie felonies béene dailie in manie places of this realme, cloked, committed and doone, to the great hurt of the kings moſt louing ſubiects. And alſo by occaſion of the premiſſes, the true and ſubſtantiall occupation of tanning of leather, is like in bréefe time vtterlie to decaie throughout this realme, if ſpéedie remedie be not therein prouided.

Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that no perſon or perſons occupieng the craft or occupation of a butcher within this realme, ſhall at no time after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell next comming, by himſelfe nor by anie other to his vſe, kéepe anie tanhouſe, or occupie the craft of a tanner and butcher within anie place of this realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of ſix ſhillings eight penſe, for euerie daie that he or anie to his vſe, ſhall occupie anie tanhouſe or craft of a tanner, after the ſaid feaſt, contrarie to the forme and effect of this eſtatute, the one halfe of euerie ſuch forfeiture to be to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king, and the other halfe to the vſe of him that will ſue for the ſame, in anie of the kings courts, be it by writ, bill, plaint, or information, wherein the defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, nor anie protection or eſſoine ſhall be to him allowed.

An act concerning conueieng and carieng of horſſes and mares out of this realme.

Chap.7.

Where at a parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the eleuenth yeare of the reigne of the late famous prince of memorie, king Henrie the ſeuenth, it was authorized, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, by authoritie of the ſaid parlement, that from henſeforth no maner of perſon nor perſons, ſhould carie or conueie anie horſſe out of this land, without the kings ſpeciall licence, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, or anie mare aboue the value of ſix ſhillings eight penſe, without the kings ſpeciall licence, vpon the ſaid paine of forfeiture of the ſame mare, the owner thereof or his deputie receiuing for the ſame mare ſix ſhillings eight penſe at the time of the ſeizure vpon the ſaid forfeiture, or elſe it not to be forfeit. And at the time of ſeizure of the ſaid mare or mares, they ſhall be praiſed by the head officers of the towne where anie ſuch mare is taken, and there openlie to be ſold to the beſt priſe, and the halfe deale of the ouerpriſe of hir, being aboue vj.s.viij.d. to be to the king, and the other halfe to him that ſo ſeizeth, and the kings part thereof to be deliuered to the cuſtomer of the ſaid port. And whereas it was further prouided by the ſaid act, that it ſhould be lawfull to euerie perſon or perſons being denizen, from thenſeforth to carrie horſſes beyond the ſea, the kings licence in that behalfe not obteined, for their owne vſes, not intending at the time of the ſhipping of the ſame, nor then fullie purpoſed to ſell him, and that intent to be knowne by the oth of him that ſhould ſo ſhip the ſame horſſe taken before the cuſtomer or ſearcher of the ſame port, as by the ſaid act made in the ſaid xj. yere, amongſt other euidently appeareth, ſith the making of which act great numbers of horſſes and mares haue béene ſecretlie & otherwiſe conueied out of this realme, contrarie to the forme and effect of the ſaid ſtatute, whereby the horſſes of this realme apt and meet for the waie, and for other neceſſarie vſes, be at this time much déerer than like horſſes haue béene heretofore. And by reaſon of cariage of great multitude of the good mares of this realme into the parties of beyond the ſea, the good bréed of horſſes of this realme is greatlie decaied, which is another cauſe of dearth and ſcarſitie of the ſaid horſſes. And where alſo manie oxen, ſteres, kine, calues and ſhéepe béene dailie conueied and caried out of this realme into the parties beyond the ſea, which cauſeth great ſcarſitie of vittell, and maketh cattell & vittell to be ſold within this realme at much greater priſes, not onlie to the great hurt of the kings highneſſe in his prouiſions, but alſo to the great hurt and impoueriſhment of the kings ſubiects within this realme: wherefore it is ordeined and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no maner of perſon or perſons from henſeforth ſhall carrie or conueie anie horſſe, gelding, mare, or colt, out of this realme, or Wales, or marches of the ſame, into anie the parts of beyond the ſea, nor from henſeforth carrie or conueie anie oxen, ſtéeres, bullocks, calues, kine, or ſhéepe, out of this realme, or Wales, or the marches of the ſame, into anie of the ſaid parties beyond the ſea, without the kings ſpeciall licence vnder his great ſeale of England, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie poll ſo conueied contrarie to this act fortie ſhillings, nor that anie perſon or perſons ſhall from henſeforth bring anie ſuch horſſe geldings, mares, colts, oxen, ſtéeres, bullocks, calues, kine, or ſhéepe, to anie hauen, port, or créeke within this realme or Wales, or the marches thereof, to be caried ouer the ſea out of this realme without the kings ſaid ſpeciall licence, vpon paine of forfeiture of euerie ſuch horſſe, mare, oxen, and other cattels aforeſaid, ſo brought vnto anie ſuch hauen, port, or créeke to be conueied out of this realme into the parties of beyond the ſea, as is aforeſaid.

Intent
Oth

Prouided alwaies that it ſhall be lawfull to euery the kings ſubiects which for reaſonable cauſes ſhall intend to paſſe and repaſſe into and out of this realme into anie the parties of beyond the ſea, to haue, take and carrie with them out of this realme horſſes or geldings for their onelie occupation, commoditie and eaſe in ſuch their iournies, and not to the intent to ſell the ſame in anie the parties beyond the ſea: and that intent to be iudged by the oth of ſuch the ſaid ſubiects, that ſhall ſo doo ſhip ſuch horſſe or gelding, which oth ſhall be taken before the cuſtomers or anie their ſufficient deputies or ſearcher of the ſame port where it ſhall be ſhipped before the ſhipping thereof.

Calis
Cuſtomers Obligation
Certificat

Prouided alſo that this act nor anie thing therein conteined be in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to ſuch perſons as ſhall conueie oxen, ſhéepe, or other cattell to the ſaid towne of Calis and marches of the ſame, for the onelie vittelling of the ſaid towne and marches, ſo that alwaies euerie ſuch perſon or perſons be bound before the cuſtomers or their lawfull deputies of the port, hauen, or créeke, where ſuch cattell ſhall be ſhipped by obligation to the kings vſe, in as great ſumme as the value of the cattell ſo to be conueied ouer, ſhall amount vnto, according to the diſcretion of the ſame cuſtomer, that he ſhall not onelie conueie the ſaid cattell to the ſaid towne or marches, there to be ſold, or otherwiſe there to be diſtributed and ſpent for the vittelling onelie of the ſame, but alſo to bring or ſend to the ſaid cuſtomer a ſufficient certificat within foure months next after the date of the ſame obligation, the ſame certificat to be ſealed and ſubſcribed with the hands of two of the kings counſell of the ſaid towne or marches, and by the cuſtomer or his deputie of the ſaid towne, that the ſaid cattels haue béene truelie brought without fraud, and deliuered to ſome of the kings officers or ſubiects inhabited and abiding in the ſaid towne of Calis or marches, there to be ſpent for the onelie vittelling aforeſaid.

Proceſſe

And after that ſuch cuſtomer hath receiued ſuch certificat made, ſealed, and ſubſcribed in due forme (as is aforeſaid) he to cancell the ſame obligation, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſumme of the ſaid obligation, and after to bring or ſend the ſame obligation ſo cancelled, with the certificat thervnto annexed, or elſe for lacke of ſuch due certificat ſo to be made, the ſaid cuſtomer to bring or ſend the ſaid obligation vncancelled into the kings excheker at the time of making of his or their account, for the yeare next after the time limited in the ſaid obligation, there to remaine vntill true knowledge be had whether the ſaid cattell and euerie part thereof haue béene duelie brought without fraud to the ſaid towne or marches for vittelling of the ſame, as is aforſaid, ſo as for lacke of ſuch certificat not made according to the condition of the ſaid obligation, proceſſe maie be made in the ſaid excheker, for the recouerie of the penaltie in the ſaid obligation to the kings vſe, according to reaſon. And if anie cuſtomer, ſearcher, or controller of anie port, hauen, or créeke within this realme, ſuffer any ſuch cattels to be ſhipped in the ſame, before ſuch obligation had, as is aforeſaid, or if anie cuſtomer faile in bringing or ſending into the kings excheker at his or their account the ſaid obligation by him to be taken with the certificat, if anie be to him brought in forme as is aboueſaid, that then euerie ſuch cuſtomer, ſearcher, and controller, ſuffring anie ſuch cattell to bée conueied ouer the ſea contrarie to this act, ſhall loſe and forfeit like ſummes as the partie ſo ſhipping or conueieng the ſame cattell ſhall doo by vertue of this preſent act: and for default of certificat of anie ſuch obligation and certificat, according to the tenor and effect of this act, euerie ſuch cuſtomer ſhall loſe and forfeit ten pounds.

Forfeit

And be it further enacted, that it ſhall not be lawfull to anie perſon to carrie or conueie anie ſuch cattell brought out of this relme, to the ſaid towne of Calis, or marches out of the ſaid towne and marches of the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie poll ſo brought out of the ſaid towne and marches, fortie ſhillings. The one halfe of which forfeitures and penalties, except the ſummes of monie conteined in ſuch obligations, to bée to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other halfe to the partie that ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame by action, bill, plaint, or information in anie of the kings courts, wherein the defendant ſhall not wage his law, nor anie protection or eſſoine ſhall be allowed. And if anie plées be pleaded in anie ſuch action or ſute, not triable in the realme, nor within anie ſuch place, where the kings writ dooth run, then by authoritie of this act euerie ſuch plée, if anie iſſue be taken of the ſame, ſhall be tried by the verdict of xij. men, in the ſhire or place, where anie ſuch action or ſute ſhall be commenſed, anie thing to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding. Prouided that it maie be lawfull to the kings counſellers of the ſaid towne and marches of Calis, to conueie out of this realme to the ſame towne and marches, ſuch horſſes, geldings, and mares for their owne vſes, as they ſhall thinke expedient, not intending at the ſhipping of them to put them afterward to ſale, whereby they ſhould be conueied out of the kings ſaid towne and marches, and that intent to be iudged by the oth of them that ſhall ſhip ſuch horſſes, geldings, & mares, to be taken before the cuſtomer or ſearcher, or anie their deputies of the ſame port, hauen, or créeke, where they ſhall be ſhipped. And that other horſſemen of the ſaid towne & marches, that is to ſaie, men of arms, ſpeares on horſſebacke, archers on horſſebacke and ſcowters, maie carrie and conueie out of this realme ſuch horſſes and geldings, as anie of them comming into this realme, ſhall haue brought with them, or leauing ſuch horſſes or geldings as they ſhall bring into this relme, or comming hither within this realme, without anie horſſe or geldings, maie liberallie carrie & take with them to the ſaid towne of Calis and marches, other horſſes and geldings of the bréeding of this realme for their owne vſes, within and without the ſame towne and marches, this act or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

M. of the horſſe

Prouided alwaies, that this act nor anie thing therein mentioned, be in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to the maiſter of the kings horſſes, now and hereafter to be, for ſuch things and commodities as ſhall and doo concerne his office, anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

5. ports

Prouided alſo, that the warden of the fiue ports, now being or hereafter to be, maie yerelie at his pleaſure giue ſix gorſſes or geldings, and no more within one yeare, at one or diuers times, vpon like paine as is aforeſaid, to anie perſon or perſons, into the parties beyond the ſeas, being in amitie with the kings highneſſe or his ſucceſſors, this act or anie thing therein notwithſtanding. This act to continue vnto the laſt daie of the next parlement.

Mares

Prouided alwaie that it ſhall be lawfull to anie the kings ſubiects to carrie or ſend to anie parties of beyond the ſea, anie mares, whereof the priſe of anie one mare ſo to be caried, dooth not excéed ſix ſhillings eight penſe, in like maner as they might doo before the making of this act, anie thing in this act to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding.

An act concerning denizens to paie ſtrangers cuſtoms, tols, and other duties.

Chap. 8.

PRaien the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that where in a parlement holden at Weſtminſter the ſeuenth daie of Nouember, in the firſt yeare of the reigne of our late ſouereigne lord of famous memorie king Henrie the ſeuenth, whoſe ſoule God pardon, it was ordeined, eſtabliſhed, & enacted by authoritie of the ſaid parlement, that euery perſon, made, or after the making of the ſaid act to be made denizen, ſhould paie of his merchandizes like cuſtome and ſubſidie as he ought or ſhould paie afore that he were made denizen, any letters patents or other ordinances by parlement, or otherwiſe, to the contrarie notwithſtanding, which eſtatute and ordinance was onlie made for cuſtome & ſubſidie to be paid to the ſaid late king, & to our now ſouereigne lord. Sithens which time, diuers grants haue béene made to diuers, as well merchant ſtrangers, as other aliens borne out of this realme, to be denizens, whereby they haue and inioie ſuch fréedoms and liberties, as dooth denizens borne within this realme, being our ſaid ſouereigne lord the kings naturall borne ſubiects, whereof there is no ſmall number, and euerie daie increaſe more and more, by the which the ſaid aliens to their lucre and auaile, béene increaſed to great and notable ſubſtance and riches, and the naturall ſubiects of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, and his realme greatlie impoueriſhed: and after they be inriched, for the moſt part, conueie themſelues with their ſaid goods to their owne countrie, wherein they be naturallie borne, to the great detriment of the common weale of this realme of England and ſubiects of the ſame. It maie therefore pleaſe your highneſſe of your moſt good and louing diſpoſition, that ye beare and ow to the common wealth of this your realme, by the aduiſe of your lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, to ordeine, enact, and eſtabliſh, that euerie perſon or perſons, whatſoeuer they be, borne out of this relme of England, or out of the kings obeiſance, made, or hereafter to be made denizen, doo paie to your grace and your heirs, and to all and euerie other perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degrée, or condition he or they be, and to all and ſingular officers and miniſters of cities, boroughs, and towns within this realme of England, and to euerie of them, all ſuch ſubſidies, cuſtoms, tols, duties and other ſummes of monie for their wares, merchandizes and other whatſoeuer goods by whatſoeuer name or names the ſaid ſubſidies, cuſtoms, tols, duties, and other ſummes of monie or anie of them be named or called, as they ſhould or ought to haue paid before they were denizens, anie grant or grants to them made, or hereafter to be made, or anie act or acts, eſtatute, or ordinance to the contrarie made or had notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaie that all and ſingular officers and miniſters of euery citie, borough, or towne wherein anie ſuch cuſtome, tols, dueties, or ſummes of monie ſhall be demanded, as is aboueſaid, on this ſide the feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming, ſhall ſet vp, or cauſe to be ſet vp in open place and places of euerie ſuch citie, borough, or towne, a table or tables, by which the certeintie and verie

Stilliard

Prouided alwaie, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, ne anie other act or acts, made or to be made in this preſent parlement, concerning the premiſſes, be not in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull vnto the merchants of the houſe of Almaine, nor to anie of them, hauing the houſe within the citie of London, commonlie called Guild hall, Theutonicorum, otherwiſe called the merchants of Stilyard in London, nor to their goods or merchandizes, by whatſoeuer name or names they or anie of them be called, but that they and euerie of them ſhall haue and inioie all ſuch liberties, franchiſes, cuſtoms, and priuileges as they had the firſt daie of this preſent parlement, anie thing or things ſpecified in this act, or in anie other act or acts made or to be made in this preſent parlement notwithſtanding.

Scauage

Prouided alwaie that the tables ſet vp in the citie of London, touching ſcauage within the ſame, ſhall firſt be viewed, examined and approoued by the chancellor and treaſuror of England, the preſident of the kings counſell, the lord priuie ſeale, the lord ſteward of the kings moſt honourable houſhold, and the two cheefe iuſtices of the kings bench and common place for the time being, or by foure of them at the leaſt, and by them ſubſcribed.

An act againſt poiſoning.

Chap. 9.

The kings roiall maieſtie calling to his moſt bleſſed remembrance, that the making of good and wholeſome lawes, and due execution of the ſame againſt the offendors thereof, is the onelie cauſe that good obedience and order hath beene preſerued in this realme, and his highneſſe hauing moſt tender zeale to the ſame, among other things conſidering that mans life aboue all things is cheefelie to be fauoured, and voluntarie murders moſt highlie to be deteſted and abhorred, and ſpeciallie of all kind of murders, poiſoning, which in this realme hitherto, our Lord be thanked, hath béene moſt rare and ſeldome committed or practized, and now in the time of this preſent parlement, that is to ſaie, in the xviii. daie of Februarie in the xxii. yeare of his moſt victorious reigne, one Richard Rooſe, late of Rocheſter in the coontie of Kent cooke, otherwiſe called Richard cooke, of his moſt wicked and damnable diſpoſition, did caſt a certeine venim or poiſon into a veſſell repleniſhed with yeſt or barme, ſtanding in the kitchin of the reuerend father in God, Iohn biſhop of Rocheſter, at his place in Lambeth marſh: with which yeſt or barme, and other things conuenient pottage or grewell was forthwith made for his family there being, whereby not onelie the number of ſeuenteene perſons of his ſaid familie, which did eat of that pottage were mortallie infected and poiſoned, and one of them that is to ſaie, Benet Curwen gentleman thereof is deceaſed, but alſo certeine poore people which reſorted to the ſaid biſhops place, and were there charitablie fed with the remaine of the ſaid pottage and other vittels, were in likewiſe infected, and one poore woman of them, that is to ſaie Alice Tripit widow, is alſo thereof now deceaſed. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, of his bleſſed diſpoſition inwardlie abhorring all ſuch abhominable offenſes, becauſe that in maner no perſon can liue in ſuretie out of danger of death by that meane, if practiſe thereof ſhould not be eſchewed, hath ordeined and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid poiſoning be adiudged and deemed high treaſon. And that the ſaid Richard Rooſe for the ſaid murther and poiſoning of the ſaid two perſons, as is aforeſaid, by authoritie of this preſent parlement ſhall ſtand and be attainted of high treaſon. And becauſe that deteſtable offenſe now newlie practiſed and committed, requireth condigne puniſhment for the ſame, it is ordeined and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid Richard Rooſe ſhall be therefore boiled to death, without hauing anie aduantage of his clergie, and that from henſeforth euerie wilfull murtherer of anie perſon or perſons, by anie whatſoeuer perſon or perſons hereafter to be committed and doone, by meane or waie of poiſoning, ſhall be reputed, deemed and iudged in the law to bee high treaſon. And that all and euerie perſon or perſons which hereafter ſhall be lawfullie indicted or appealed, and attainted or condemned by order of the law of ſuch treaſon for anie maner poiſoning of anie perſon, ſhall not be admitted to the benefit of his or their clergie, but ſhall be immediatlie after ſuch attainder or condemnation, committed to execution of death by boiling for the ſame. And that the iuſtices of peace in euerie ſhire, citie, or towne corporat within this realme, where iuſtices of peace béene, ſhall haue full power & authoritie in their ſeſſions to inquire from time to time, as well of ſuch traitors, murderers, and murders, as of the counterfeiting of coine of anie outward realme, ſuffred to run & go within this realme by the kings aſſent, & to make proceſſe thervpon by Capias onlie. And that the iuſtices of aſſiſe in euerie ſhires of England, ſhall haue full power & authoritie to heare & determine in their ſeſſions, as well ſuch treaſons committed & doone by waie of poiſoning, as the counterfeiting of anie ſuch coine ſuffred to run within this realme, by the kings aſſent, as is aforeſaid.

And furthermore it is enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all lands and tenements and other hereditaments of anie perſon and perſons, which hereafter ſhall be condemned or attainted of anie treaſon for poiſoning, as is aforſaid, ſhall eſcheat remaine & be to the lords of the fées, as by the lawes of this relme, lands, tenements of felons or murderers attainted, haue heretofore eſcheted, this preſent act of treaſon or anie thing therein conteined notwithſtanding.

An act concerning outlandiſh people calling themſelues Ægyptians.

Chap.10.

FOraſmuch as before this time diuers and manie outlandiſh people calling themſelues Egyptians, vſing no craft nor feat of merchandize, haue commen into this realme, and gone from ſhire to ſhire, and place to place in great companie, and vſed great ſubtill and craftie means to deceiue the people, bearing them in hand that they by palmeſtrie could tell mens and womens fortunes, and ſo manie times by craft and ſubtiltie haue deceiued the people of their monie, and alſo hath committed manie and hainous felonies and robberies, to the great hurt and deceit of the people that they haue commen among.

¶ Be it therefore by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, that from henſeforth no ſuch perſon be ſuffred to come within this the kings realme, and if they doo, then they and euerie of them ſo dooing, ſhall forfeit to the king our ſoueraigne lord all their goods and chattels, and then to be commanded to auoid the realme within fiftéene daies next after the commandement, vpon paine of impriſonment. And it ſhall be lawfull to euerie ſhiriffe, iuſtice of peace, and eſchetor, to ſeize to the vſe of our ſoueraigne lord, his heirs and ſucceſſors, all ſuch goods as they or anie of them ſhall haue, and thereof to make account to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord in his exchequer. And if it ſhall happen anie ſuch ſtranger hereafter to commit within this realme anie murder, robberie, or anie other felonie, and thereof be indicted and arreigned, and to plead not guiltie or anie other plée triable by the countrie, that then the inqueſt that ſhall paſſe betwéene the king and anie ſuch partie, ſhall be altogither of Engliſhmen, albeit that the partie ſo indicted praie Medietatem linguæ, according to the ſtatute of Anno 8. Henrici 6. or of anie other ſtatute thereof made.

Prouided alwaie that the Egyptians now being in this relme, haue monition to depart within ſixtéene daies after proclamation of this eſtatute among them ſhall be made, vpon paine of impriſonment and forfeiture of their goods and chattels. And if they then ſo depart, that then they ſhall not forfeit their goods nor anie part thereof, this preſent eſtatute notwithſtanding.

Proclama.

¶ Prouided alwaie, that euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, which can proue by two credible perſons before the ſame partie that ſeizeth ſuch monie, goods or chattels of the ſame Egyptians, that anie part of the ſame goods, monie or chattels, were craftilie or feloniouſlie taken or ſtollen from him, ſhall be incontinent reſtored vnto the ſame goods, monie or chattels, whereof he maketh ſuch proofe before the ſame partie, that ſo ſeizeth the ſame monie, goods or chattels, vpon paine to forfeit to the ſame partie that maketh ſuch proofe, the double value of the ſame by action of debt, bill, or otherwiſe in anie of the kings courts to be ſued: vpon which action and ſute he ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, nor anie protection or eſſoine to be allowed, anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies and be it further enacted, that if anie iuſtice of peace, ſhiriffe or eſcheator, which by authoritie of this act haue power to take or ſeize anie goods or chattels of any Egyptians, at anie time héereafter doo ſeize or take the goods or chattels of anie ſuch Egyptians, that then euerie ſuch iuſtice, ſhiriffe or eſcheator dooing the ſame, ſhall haue, kéepe, and reteine to his owne vſe, the moitie of all ſuch goods ſo by him ſeized, and of the other moitie ſo by him taken or ſeized ſhall make anſwer and account to the king in his exchequer, according to the tenor of this preſent act: anie thing in the ſame act conteined to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding. And that vpon anie account héereafter to be made for the ſaid other moitie of the ſame goods, the accountant ſhall paie no maner of fées or other charges for his account or diſcharge to be had in the kings exchequer, nor elſe where.

An act concerning Powdike in Marſhland.

WHeretofore this time diuerſe euill diſpoſed perſons of their peruerſed and euill diſpoſition malicioüſlie at diuerſe & ſundrie times, haue cut, caſt downe, and broken vp diuerſe parts of the dike called the New powdike in Marſhland, in the countie of Norfolke. And the broken dike otherwiſe called Oldféeld dike by Marſhland in the iſle of Elie, in the countie of Cambridge: by reaſon whereof as well by the great abundance of ſalt water, as alſo by the courſe of the freſh water, entring and comming into and by the ſaid parts of the ſaid ditches ſo broken and caſt downe, the ground and paſtures within the countrie of Marſhland in the counties aforeſaid, hath béene diuerſe and manie times drowned and ſurrounded with the waters aforeſaid, ſo that no profit thereof might be taken by the owners and occupiers of the ſaid ground and paſtures within Marſhland aforeſaid. For drowning whereof the ſaid owners and occupiers of the ſaid ground, and the inhabitants within the ſaid Marſhland and the leuell of the ſame, at manie and ſundrie times haue béene not onelie put to importunat charges and expenſes, to their extreame damages and coſts, but alſo to their great vndooing, haue loſt much of their cattell and beaſts then being and paſturing vpon and within Marſhland aforeſaid, to their great damage and loſſe, and to the great decaie of the commonweale of the countries adioining to the ſame. And alſo by reaſon of the ſame waters much people haue béene drowned in their beds within their houſes, and haue loſt the moſt part of their goods being within the ſame.

For the reformation wherof, be it ordeined, enacted, and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoureigne lord, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that euerie ſuch peruerſe and malicious cutting down and breaking vp of anie part or parties of the ſaid dikes, or of anie other banke, being parcell of the rind and vttermoſt part of the ſaid countrie of Marſhland aforeſaid, made for the defenſe and ſaluation of the ſame countrie of Marſhland, at euerie time and times from henſefoorth by anie perſon or perſons committed and doone, otherwiſe than in working vpon the ſaid banks or dikes, for the repairing, fortifieng, and mending of the ſame, be taken, reputed, and adiudged felonie. And that the offendors and dooers of the ſame and euerie of them, be adiudged and reputed felons. And that the iuſtices of the peace of the ſaid counties of Norfolke and Cambridge, within the ſaid iſle, at euerie of their ſeſſions, within the ſame iſle and counties to be kept, by the authoritie aforeſaid, haue full power to cauſe inquirie to be made of euerie ſuch offenſe, ſo at anie time in forme aforeſaid, hereafter to be committed and doone, and to award like proceſſe againſt euerie of the ſaid offendors, with like iudgement and execution of the ſame (if they or anie of them be thereof found guiltie by verdict or otherwiſe) as the ſaid iuſtice hath vſed and accuſtomed to doo vpon other felonies being felonie at the common law.

Where in all places throughout this realme of England, vagabonds and beggers, haue of long time increaſed and dailie doo increaſe in great and exceſſiue numbers by the occaſion of idleneſſe, mother and roote of all vices, whereby hath inſurged and ſprung, and dailie inſurgeth and ſpringeth continuall thefts, murthers, and other ſundrie heinous offenſes and great enormities, to the high diſpleaſure of God, the inquietation and damage of the kings people, and to the maruellous diſturbance of the common weale of this realme. And where as manie and ſundrie good lawes, ſtreict ſtatutes and ordinances haue béene before this time deuiſed and made, as well by the king our ſoueraigne lord, as alſo by diuers his moſt noble progenitors kings of England, for the moſt neceſſarie and due reformation of the premiſſes: yet that notwithſtanding the ſaid numbers of vagabonds and beggers be not ſéene in anie partie to be miniſhed, but rather dailie augmented and increaſed in great routs and companies, as euidentlie and manifeſtlie it dooth and maie appéere. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſoureigne lord, and by the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the iuſtices of the peace of all and ſingular the ſhires of England within the limits of their commiſſions, and all other iuſtices of peace, maiors, ſhiriffes, bailiffes and other officers of all and euerie citie, borough, riding or franchiſe within the realme of England, within the limits of their authoritie, ſhall from time to time as often as need ſhall require by their diſcretions, diuide themſelues within the ſaid ſhires, cities, boroughs, ridings or franchiſes, wherof they be iuſtices of peace, maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs, or officers, and ſo being diuided, ſhall make diligent ſearch and inquirie of all aged, poore and impotent perſons, which liue, or of neceſſitie be compelled to liue by almes of the charitie of the people, that be or ſhall be héereafter abiding within euerie hundred, rape, wapentake, citie, borough, pariſh, libertie or franchiſe within the limits of their diuiſion, and after and vpon ſuch ſearch made, the ſaid iuſtices of peace, maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs, and other officers, that is to ſaie, euerie of them within the limits of their authorities, wherevnto they be diuided, ſhall haue power & authoritie by their diſcretions to inable to beg within ſuch hundred, rape, wapentake, citie, towne, pariſh, or other limits as they ſhall appoint, ſuch of the ſaid impotent perſons, which they ſhall find and thinke moſt conuenient within the limits of their diuiſion, to liue of the charitie and almes of the people, and to giue in commandement to euerie ſuch aged & impotent begger (by them inabled) that none of them ſhall beg without the limits to them ſo appointed, and ſhall alſo regiſter and write the names of euerie ſuch impotent begger by them appointed, in a bill or roll indented, the one part thereof to remaine with themſelfe, and the other part by them to be certified before the iuſtices of peace at the next ſeſſions after ſuch ſearch had, to be holden within the ſaid ſhires, cities, towns, or franchiſes, there to remaine vnder the kéeping of Cuſtos rotulorum. And that the ſaid iuſtices of peace, maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs, and other officers, that is to ſaie, as they be diuided, ſhall haue power and authoritie to make ſuch and ſo manie ſeales to be ingraued with the names of the hundreds, rapes, wapentakes, cities, boroughs, towns or places, within the which they ſhall appoint & limit euerie ſuch impotent perſon to beg, and commit the ſaid ſeals to the cuſtodie of ſuch of them, or to the cuſtodie of ſuch other, as they ſhall thinke conuenient, and ſhall make and deliuer to euerie ſuch impotent perſon by them inabled to beg, a letter conteining the name of ſuch impotent perſon, and witneſſing that he is authorized to beg, and the limits within which he is appointed to beg. The ſame letter to be ſealed with ſuch of the ſaid ſeales as ſhalbe ingraued with the names of the limit, wherein ſuch impotent perſon ſhall be appointed to beg in, and to be ſubſcribed with the name of one of the ſaid iuſtices or officers aboue ſaid. And if anie ſuch impotent perſon ſo authorized to beg doo beg in anie other place than within ſuch limits that be ſhalbe aſſigned vnto, that then the iuſtices of peace, maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs, conſtables, ſtables, and all other the kings officers and miniſters, ſhall by their diſcretions puniſh all ſuch perſons by impriſonment in the ſtocks by the ſpace of two daies and two nights, giuing them but onelie bread and water, and after that cauſe euery ſuch impotent perſon to be ſworne to returne againe, without delaie, to the hundred, rape, wapentake, citie, borough, towne, pariſh, or franchiſe, where they be authorized to beg in.

Impriſon

And it is enacted that no ſuch impotent perſon, as is aboueſaid, after the feaſt of the natiuitie of ſaint John Baptiſt next comming, ſhall beg within anie part of this realme, except he be authorized by writing vnder ſeale, as is aboueſaid. And if anie ſuch impotent perſon after the ſaid feaſt of ſaint John, be vagrant and go a begging, hauing no ſuch letter vnder ſeale, as is aboue ſpecified, that then the conſtables and all other inhabitants, within ſuch towne or pariſh, where ſuch perſon ſhall beg, ſhall cauſe euerie ſuch begger to be taken and brought to the next iuſtice of peace, or high conſtable of the hundred, and therevpon the ſaid iuſtice of peace or high conſtable ſhall command the ſaid conſtables and other inhabitants of the towne or pariſh, which ſhall bring before him anie ſuch begger, that they ſhall ſtrip him naked from the middle vpward, and cauſe him to be whipped within the towne where he was taken, or within ſome other towne where the ſame iuſtice or high conſtable ſhall appoint, if it ſhall ſeeme to the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtice of peace or high conſtable, that it be conuenient ſo to puniſh ſuch begger to him brought, & if not, then to command ſuch begger to be ſet in the ſtocks in the ſame towne or pariſh, where he was taken, by the ſpace of three daies and three nights, there to haue onlie bread and water, and therevpon the ſaid iuſtice or high conſtable, afore whom ſuch begger ſhall be brought, ſhall limit to him a place to beg in, and giue to him a letter vnder ſeale in forme aboue remembred, and ſweare him to depart and repaire thither immediatlie after his puniſhment to him executed.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, being whole and mightie in bodie, and able to labor, at anie time after the ſaid feaſt of S. John be taken in begging in anie part of this realme: or if anie man or woman being whole and mightie in bodie, and able to labor, hauing no land, maiſter, nor vſing anie lawfull merchandize, craft or myſterie, whereby he might get his liuing, after the ſame feaſt be vagarant, and can giue no reckoning how he doth lawfullie get his liuing, that then it ſhall be lawfull to the conſtables, and all other the kings officers, miniſters, and ſubiects of euerie towne, pariſh, and hamlet, to arreſt the ſaid vagabonds and idle perſons, and them bring to anie of the iuſtices of peace of the ſame ſhire or libertie, or elſe to the high conſtable of the hundred, rape or wapentake within which ſuch perſons ſhall be taken. And if he be taken within anie citie, or towne corporat, then to be brought before the maior, ſhirifs or bailifs of euerie ſuch towne corporat. And that euerie ſuch iuſtice of peace, high conſtable, maiors, ſhirifs, and bailifs, by their diſcretions, ſhall cauſe euerie ſuch idle perſon ſo to him brought to be had to the next market towne, or other place, where the ſaid iuſtices of peace, high conſtable, maiors, bailifs and other officers, ſhall thinke moſt conuenient by his or their diſcretions, and there to be tied to the end of a cart naked, and be beaten with whips throughout the ſame market towne or other place till his bodie be bloudie by reaſon of ſuch whipping. And after ſuch puniſhment and whipping had, the perſon ſo puniſhed by the diſcretion of the iuſtice of peace, high conſtable, maior, ſhirifs, bailifs, and other officers, afore whom ſuch perſon ſhall be brought, ſhall be inioined vpon his oth, to returne forthwith without delaie in the next and ſtraight waie to the place where he was borne, or where he laſt dwelled before the ſame puniſhment by the ſpace of three yeeres, and there to put himſelfe to labor like as a true man ought to doo. And after that doone, euerie ſuch perſon ſo puniſhed and ordered ſhall haue a letter ſealed with the ſeale of the hundred, rape, wapentake, citie, borough, towne, libertie or franchiſe, wherein he ſhall be puniſhed, witneſſing that he hath beene puniſhed according to this eſtatute, and conteining the daie and place of his puniſhment, and the place wherevnto he is limited to go, and by what time he is limited to come thither, within which time he maie lawfullie beg by the waie, ſhewing the ſame letter, and otherwiſe not. And if he doo not accompliſh the order to him appointed by the ſaid letter, then to be eftſoons taken and whipped, and ſo as often as anie default ſhall be found in him contrarie to the order of this eſtatute, in euerie place to be taken and whipped, till he be repaired where he was borne, or where he laſt dwelled by the ſpace of three yeeres, and there put his bodie to labor for his liuing, or otherwiſe trulie get his liuing without begging as long as he is able ſo to doo. And if the perſon ſo whipped be an idle perſon and no common begger, then after ſuch whipping he ſhall be kept in the ſtocks till he hath found ſuretie to go to ſeruice, or elſe to labor after the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtice of peace, maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs, high conſtables, or other ſuch officers, afore whome anie ſuch idle perſon being no common begger, ſhall be brought, if by the diſcretion of the ſame iuſtice of peace, maior, ſhiriffe, bailif, high conſtable or other ſuch head officer, it be ſo thought conuenient, and that the partie ſo puniſhed be able to find ſuretie, or elſe to be ordered and ſworne to repaire to the place where he was borne, or where he laſt dwelled by the ſpace of three yeers, and to haue like letter and ſuch further puniſhment, if he eftſoons offend this eſtatute, as is aboue appointed to and for the common, ſtrong, and able beggers and ſo from time to time to be ordered and puniſhed till he put his bodie to labor, or otherwiſe get his liuing trulie according to the law. And that the iuſtices of the peace of euerie ſhire riding, citie, towne and libertie, ſhall haue power and authoritie within the limits of their commiſſions, to inquire of all maiors, bailifs, conſtables and other officers and perſons that ſhall be negligent in executing of this act.

And alſo it is ordeined and enacted, that euerie letter to be made by the authoritie of this act, whereby anie impotent begger ſhall be authorized and aſſigned to beg, ſhall be made in this forme inſuing.

Licence to beg

Kanc. ſſ. ¶Memorandum that A. B. of Dale, for reaſonable conſiderations is licenced to beg within the hundred of P.K. and L. in the ſaid countie. Giuen vnder the ſeale of that limit, Tali die de anno.

And that euerie ſuch letter that ſhall be made and deliuered to ſuch begger or vagabond, after he hath beene whipped by authoritie of this act, ſhall be made in this wiſe following.

Kent. ſſ. ¶ I. S. whipped for a vagrant ſtrong begger at Dale in the ſaid countie according to the law, the 22 daie of Iulie, in the 23 yeere of king Henrie the eight, was aſſigned to paſſe forthwith and directlie from thenſe to Sale in the countie of Midd. where he ſaith he was borne, or where he laſt dwelled by the terme of three yeeres, and he is limited to be there within 14 daies next inſuing at his perill, or within ſuch number of daies as to him ſhall be limited by the diſcretion of the maker of the ſaid letter. In witneſſe whereof the ſeale of the limit of the ſaid place of his puniſhment heerevnto is ſet.

Forme

And it is enacted that euerie ſuch letter ſhall be made at the equall coſts of ſuch the ſaid iuſtices, maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs or other officers, within whoſe iuriſdiction, powers and authorities the ſaid begger or vagabond ſhall be whipped or limited to beg in, by authoritie of this act. And euerie ſuch letter ſhall be ſubſcribed with the hand of one of the ſaid iuſtices, maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs, or other officers in this forme following.

Coſts

Per me A.B. vnum iuſticiariorum pacis, or maiorem ciuitatis, or balliuum villæ, or conſtabularium talis hundredi, or elſe in like forme in Engliſh.

And it is further enacted, that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons as haue the cuſtodie of anie gaoles within anie ſhire, citie, borough or towne corporat, on this ſide the feaſt of ſaint Iohn the Baptiſt, ſhall doo make a ſeale ingraued with the name of the caſtell, priſon or gaole which he keepeth.

Gaolers Seale.

And in caſe anie perſon or perſons, that at anie time after the ſaid feaſt of S. Iohn, ſhall be deliuered out of anie gaole or priſon for ſuſpicious of felonie by proclamation, or acquit of anie felonie, and hath no freends to paie his fees, nor was borne within the hundred or place where he ſhall happen to be ſo deliuered, nor can get him no maiſter there to abide and worke with, ſhall haue libertie to beg for his fees by the licence of his keeper, by the ſpace of ſix weeks next after ſuch deliuerance, and after that to be compelled to go to the hundred where he was borne or laſt dwelled, by the ſpace of three yeeres, within ſuch time as ſhall be limited by one of the iuſtices of peace, maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs or anie officers where ſuch deliuerance ſhall be had.

Beg for fees

And it is enacted, that euerie ſuch perſon ſo deliuered, ſhall haue a letter made to him by the clerke of the peace of the ſhire, within the which he was deliuered, if he be deliuered in the ſhire, and if he be deliuered in anie citie, borough or towne corporat, then he to haue a letter of the common clerke of euerie ſuch citie, borough or towne, where he is deliuered, euerie ſuch letter witneſſing the daie of his deliuerance, and the place where he was deliuered, and afore whome, and the time appointed to him to beg for his fees, and the place to the which he ſhall be aſſigned to repaire vnto, in caſe he can get no maiſter to fall to worke where he was deliuered. And to euerie ſuch letter the ſaid gaoler or keeper of priſon, out of the which ſuch perſon ſhall be deliuered, ſhall put the ſeale limited to be made as is aforeſaid for the ſaid priſon. And that euerie ſuch letter ſhall be made in this wiſe folowing.

B. and his fellowes at Sale, the daie and yeere aforeſaid, and is allowed to beg for his fees by the ſpace of ſix weekes. And in caſe he can get him no maiſter to worke within the ſaid terme, then he is aſſigned to paſſe directlie to D. in the countie of Kent where he ſaith he was borne or laſt dwelled by the ſpace of three yeeres. And he is allowed 14 daies next after the ſaid ſix weeks for his paſſage thither, or ſuch number of daies as to him ſhall be limited by the diſcretion of the maker of the ſaid letter. In witneſſe whereof the ſeale of the priſon from the which he was deliuered, thereunto is ſet. And in ſuch ſhires where there is no gaole, the ſhiriffe therof for the time being, ſhall cauſe a ſeale to be ingraued with the name of the ſhire, and ſhall order and vſe the ſame ſeale, to, and for ſuch perſons deliuered as is aforeſaid, after like maner and forme as the gaoler or keeper of the gaole is limited and appointed to doo by this act.

And it is alſo enacted, that euerie clerke of the peace of the ſhire, within the which ſuch perſon ſhall be deliuered, and euerie common clerke of euerie citie, borough or towne corporat, within the which anie ſuch perſon ſhall be deliuered, ſhall make for euerie ſuch perſon as ſhall be ſo deliuered, where they be ſuch officers, the ſaid letter in forme abouesaid, without anie fee taking for the ſame, and ſhall deliuer euerie ſuch letter to the gaoler or keeper of the priſon, from the which ſuch perſon ſhall be deliuered. And if there be no gaole there, then to the ſhiriffe of the ſhire where ſuch deliuerance ſhall be had, within one daie next after the end of the ſeſſions where anie ſuch deliuerance is had, vpon paine to loſe and forfeit for default of euerie letter twelue penſe to the king our ſouereigne lord. And that the gaoler or keeper of the priſon from the which the ſaid perſon ſhall be ſo deliuered, and in caſe there be no gaole, then the ſhiriffe of the ſhire where anie ſuch deliuerance ſhall be had, ſhall not ſuffer anie ſuch perſon to go abrode to beg for his fees, nor depart out of priſon, except it be to ſeruice or labor, vnleſſe the ſame gaoler or ſhiriffe firſt deliuer to the ſaid perſon the ſaid letter, conteining his name ſealed with the ſeale of the priſon, from the which he ſhall be deliuered, or els with the ſeale ingraued with the name of the ſhire, if there be no priſon, vpon paine for euerie default to loſe twelue penſe to our ſaid ſouereigne lord.

Forfeit

And it is enacted that if anie perſon or perſons ſo being deliuered out of priſon, at anie time after the ſaid feaſt doo beg, not hauing the ſaid letter ſealed in forme abouesaid, or beg contrarie to the tenor of the ſame letter, that then he ſhall be taken, ordered and whipped in euerie behalfe, like as is aboue appointed for ſtrong beggers. And that to be doone and executed by ſuch as be aboue limited to doo the ſame vpon ſtrong beggers, and in ſuch wiſe and vpon ſuch paine as is afore limited for execution of the puniſhment of ſtrong beggers.

An act concerning that no perſon or perſons ſtrangers, being a common baker, brewer, ſurgion or ſcriuener, ſhall be expounded handie crafts men.

Chap.13.

Where diuers eſtatutes penall heretofore haue beene made againſt ſtrangers artificers, for exerciſing of handie crafts within this realme, and for keeping of houſes, apprentiſes and ſeruants ſtrangers, as by the ſaid ſeuerall ſtatutes more plainlie is rehearſed. Sithens the making whereof, beere brewers and bakers which beene common vittellers, and alſo ſurgions and ſcriueners being ſtrangers, inhabited and dwelling within this relme, haue beene put to trouble and great vexation by occaſion of informations brought againſt them vpon the ſaid eſtatutes, ſuppoſing that ſtrangers vſing baking, brewing, ſurgerie or writing, ſhould be handie craftſmen, vpon the which information great doubts and ambiguities haue riſen, whether ſtrangers vſing any of the ſaid myſteries or ſciences, ſhould be vnderſtand ſuch handie craftſmen as were intended by anie the ſaid eſtatutes. For plaine declaration whereof, it is enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that no perſon or perſons ſtrangers, being a common baker, brewer, ſurgion or ſcriuener, ſhall be interpreted or expounded handie craftſmen, in, for, or by reaſon of vſing anie of the ſaid myſteries or ſciences of baking, brewing, ſurgerie or writing. And that all informations, ſutes, actions and proceſſe had taken or héereafter to be taken vpon anie of the ſaid eſtatutes againſt anie ſuch ſtranger or ſtrangers, being bakers, brewers, ſurgions or ſcriueners, ſhall be by authoritie of this preſent act void and of none effect.

An act concerning how perſons committing petie treaſon, murder or felonie, ſhall abiure.

Chap. 14.

THe king our ſoueraigne lord conſidering that manie of his ſubiects héeretofore for their offenſes & merits haue bin put to execution of death by the lawes of this realme, and manie other committing like offenſes for tuition of their liues, haue fled and reſorted to churches and other halowed places within this realme, and there being haue abiured the realme before the kings coroners of the ſame: diuers of which men (ſo abiuring) haue bin knowen to be verie expert mariners, and manie other haue béene ſéene to be verie able and apt men for the wars and defenſe of this realme, ſo that by the one meane & the other, the ſtrength and power of this relme is greatlie miniſhed. And diuers of the ſaid perſons, which héertofore haue abiured this realme, being by reaſon of their abiurations in outward realmes and countries, haue not onelie procured manie men of the ſame to the exerciſe and practiſe of archerie, and haue inſtructed them in the feat & knowledge therof, to the great increaſe and fortifications of the ſame outward realmes & countries, but alſo the ſame abiured perſons haue diſcloſed their knowledges of the commodities & ſecrets of this realme, to no little damage and preiudice of the ſame. The kings highneſſe therefore dailie ſtudieng and deuiſing to prouide for the ſafegard of this his realme and of his ſubiects, albeit they be tranſgreſſors of his lawes, ſo that the incommodities inſuing vpon ſuch abiurations to be preſerued to the beſt effect as far as ſhall pleaſe God to giue them grace, hath ordeined and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie perſon héerafter flée or reſort to anie pariſh church, cemitorie, or other like halowed place for tuition of his life, by occaſion of anie murder, robberie or other felonie by the ſame perſon committed, and thervpon confeſſe anie murder, felonie or other offenſe before the coroner, wherefore the ſame perſon by the lawes of this realme héertofore vſed, ſhould abiure and paſſe out the ſame. The ſame perſon thervpon ſhall abiure from all his libertie of this realme, and from his liberall & frée habitations, reſorts and paſſages to and fro the vniuerſall places of this realme, which apperteine to the libertie of the kings ſubiects vndefamed, & ſhall forthwith be directed by the coroner, taking and recording ſuch abiuration to anie one ſanctuarie being within this realme, which the ſame perſon will elect and chooſe, there to remaine as a ſanctuarie perſon abiured, during his naturall life, and to be ſworne afore the coroner vpon his abiuration ſo to doo, & to be burned in the hand according to the ſtatute in that caſe prouided. And euerie perſon ſo abiured ſhalbe directed and conueied to the ſame ſanctuarie by him choſen by the conſtables and other officers, and in euerie behalfe ordered after like maner & forme as he ſhould haue bin in caſe he ſhould haue abiured this realme for any murder or felonie after the lawes of the land. And if after ſuch abiuration anie perſon ſo abiured come out of the ſame ſanctuarie, to the which he was aſſigned & be taken without the ſame ſanctuarie not hauing the kings ſpeciall pardon or licence ſo to doo, then euerie ſuch perſon abiured, & after abiuration taken without ſanctuarie whereunto he was aſſigned, ſhall ſuffer ſuch like paine of death, and after like maner be ordered, as he ſhould haue doone and bin, in caſe he had abiured this relme for murder or felonie, and after ſuch abiuration had returned againe into this realme contrarie to the lawes of this land.

And furthermore it is enacted, that if anie ſuch ſanctuarie perſon ſo abiured, or anie other perſon or perſons which now be, or is, or héerafter ſhall happen to be in anie ſanctuarie of this realme, for dooing anie petie treaſon, murder or felonie, or for being acceſſarie to anie ſuch offenſes, or if anie perſon or perſons, which at anie time héereafter ſhall take anie ſanctuarie of this realme, for dooing anie petie treaſon, murder or felonie, or for being acceſſarie to anie ſuch offenſes, or vpon abiuration, & ſo being in ſanctuarie for or vpon anie ſuch cauſe, matter or offenſe, afterward commit or doo anie petie treaſon, murder or felonie within the ſame ſanctuarie, or be acceſſarie to anie ſuch offenſes, or go out of the ſame ſanctuarie & commit anie petie treaſon, murder or felonie, or be acceſſarie to any ſuch offenſes, & after come againe to the ſame ſanctuarie, or take any other ſanctuarie for the ſame, euerie ſuch perſon and perſons being indicted for any of the ſaid cauſes or offenſes, ſhall looſe the priuilege of the ſame ſanctuarie by him taken, and of euerie other ſanctuarie within this relme for any ſuch cauſe of petie treaſon, murder, felonie, or abiuration, & for any acceſſarie to anie ſuch offenſes. And that it ſhalbe lawfull to all & ſingular iuſtices of peace, and the high ſhirife of the countie or other place where the ſanctuarie is, and to all and ſingular maiors, ſhirifs, and bailifs of cities and townes corporat, where ſuch ſanctuarie is, and to euerie of them, and to the ſeruants, miniſters and officers, or anie or euerie of the ſame iuſtices of peace, ſhirifs, maiors and bailifs in their preſence to take out of the ſame ſanctuarie or ſanctuaries, all and euerie ſuch

Execution

ſuch ſanctuarie perſon or perſons ſo offending as is aforeſaid,and being indicted of the ſame,and to commit or put him or them into the kings gaole within the ſhire or libertie where anie ſuch indictment is found againſt anie ſuch perſon, ſafelie to be kept till they ſhall be of the ſame petie treaſon,murder or felonie,or of the acceſſarie to anie ſuch offenſes, whereof they ſhall happen to be indicted,conuicted,attainted or diſcharged by the law. And if anie perſon or perſons which ſhall be indicted of anie petie treaſon,murder or felonie,or of anie acceſſarie to anie ſuch offenſe,happen heerafter to be taken out of anie ſanctuarie for the ſame by authoritie of this eſtatute, and vpon his or their arreignment plead ſanctuarie,according to the order of the law, then it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that as well the kings atturnie as euerie other perſon for the king ſhalbe admitted to obiect & alleage,that the perſon ſo arraigned afore the dooing of the offenſe or offenſes,whereof he then is arraigned,did take priuilege of ſanctuarie in the ſame ſanctuarie,wherof he allegeth him to be taken out,or in anie other place priuileged within this realme vpon anie abiuration, or for anie other petie treaſon,murder or felonie,than whereof he is arreigned, and that he there had and inioied priuilege of ſanctuarie for the ſame, and that he ſo hauing once priuilege of ſanctuarie in the ſame,did commit the offenſe of petie treaſon,murder or felonie, whereof he then is arreigned, or that he went out of the ſaid ſanctuarie and committed the ſame offenſe, whereof he is indicted and arreigned,and praie that ſuch perſon ſo arreigned, maie be excluded of reſtitution to the ſanctuarie by him demanded. And in caſe the ſaid plee and obiection ſo alleaged be denied by the perſon ſo arreigned,then it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be forthwith tried afore the ſame iuſtices where ſuch perſon is ſo arreigned,and by the ſame iurors of the ſame countie that ſhall trie the petie treaſon,murder or felonie whereof he is arreigned, without further delaie, in whatſoeuer countie or counties,place or places of this realme,the ſame other taking of ſanctuarie ſhall be alleaged or obiected to be doone or had. And if the plée ſo obiected againſt the ſaid perſon arreigned,be tried againſt him by verdict of twelue men,or by his owne confeſſion, and alſo it be found by verdict of twelue men,or by his owne confeſſion, according to the order of the law, that he is giltie of the petie treaſon, murder or felonie,or of anie acceſſarie to anie ſuch offenſe whereof he is ſo arreigned,that then like iudgement & execution ſhall be giuen and doone vpon euerie ſuch perſon as though he had béene no ſanctuarie perſon, nor had claimed or required the priuilege of the ſame. And if anie ſuch perſon be lawfullie acquited of the petie treaſon,murder or felonie whereof he ſhall be ſo indicted and arreigned, then he ſhall be reſtored to the ſame ſanctuarie, out of the which he was taken,there to haue the priuilege of the ſame in like maner as he had before.

Prouided alwaie that if anie perſon being or abiding in anie ſanctuarie as a ſanctuarie perſon, heereafter ſhall happen to be indicted for anie maner of felonie ſuppoſed to be committed by him or hir going out of the ſame or anie other ſanctuarie, and committing the ſame felonie whileſt that he or ſhe ſo was a ſanctuarie perſon,he or ſhe being indicted of anie ſuch felonie ſuppoſed to be doone without the ſanctuarie,ſhall not be taken out of the ſanctuarie wherein the ſame perſon ſhall then be reſident,before that he or ſhe be examined therof by two of the kings moſt honorable counſell,or by foure iuſtices of peace of the ſhire where the ſanctuarie is wherein the perſon ſo indicted is reſident. And if the ſame perſon ſo indicted within foure daies after the firſt examination, doo make ſuch proofe as the ſaid examiners by their diſcretions ſhall thinke ſufficient,that the ſame perſon was in the ſanctuarie at the time of the ſaid felonie committed, then he or ſhe making ſuch proofe, ſhall be ſuffred to remaine and be in the ſame ſanctuarie without anie extraction from the ſame,the ſaid indictment, or anie thing in this act aboue written notwithſtanding.

Pardon

Forren plees

Challenge

Prouided alſo, that if anie perſon which was at anie time a ſanctuarie perſon for anie petie treaſon,murder or felonie,obteine and haue the kings pardon,and thereby or otherwiſe be at large and out of ſanctuarie diſcharged or purged of that offenſe or cauſe wherfore the ſame perſon tooke ſanctuarie,& afterward doo commit other petie treaſon,felonie or manſlaughter by chancemedlie, & not murder of malice prepenſed,and thervpon againe take ſanctuarie for anie ſuch petie treaſon, felonie or manſlaughter by chancemedlie, the ſame perſon ſhall haue & inioie the priuilege of ſanctuarie, for that his or hir other offenſe of petie treaſon, felonie or manſlaughter by chancemedlie, as the ſame perſon might haue had before the making of this act,any thing in the ſame act conteined notwithſtanding. And ouer this for more ſpéedie trials of murders & felonies,be it enacted by authoritie aforſaid,that all maner of forren plées triable by the countrie heerafter to be pleaded by anie perſon or perſons arreigned vpon anie indictment for anie petie treaſon, murder or felonie, ſhalbe forthwith tried before the ſame iuſtices afore whom ſuch perſons ſhalbe arreigned, & by the ſame iurors of the ſame countie that ſhall trie the petie treaſon, murder or felonie wherof he ſhall ſo be arreigned,without any further reſpit or delaie,in whatſoeuer countie or counties,place or places of this realme,the matter of the ſame plées be ſuppoſed or alleged. And that no perſon arreigned for anie petie treaſon,murder or felonie,be from henſeforth admitted to any peremptorie challenge aboue the number of twentie,this act to indure to the end of the next parlement.

Prouided alwaies that no perſon or perſons be héerafter excluded, or in anie wiſe hurted, to haue and inioie anie priuilege of ſanctuarie for anie offenſe or offenſes, being of anie higher nature in the law,than the offenſes and cauſes ſpecified in this act be,but that euerie perſon and perſons for ſuch offenſes of higher nature maie haue and inioy priuilege of ſanctuarie, in as frée and liberall maner,and after ſuch forme, as they might haue doone by the lawes and cuſtomes of the relme afore the making of this act,anie thing in this act to the contrarie héerof notwithſtanding.

An act concerning the kings generall pardon for his ſpirituall ſubiects.

Chap.15.

The king our ſoueraigne lord calling to his bleſſed and moſt gracious remembrance, that his good and louing ſubiects, the moſt reuerend father in God the archbiſhop of Canturburie, and other biſhops, ſuffragans, prelats, and other ſpirituall perſons of the prouince of the archbiſhoprike of Canturburie of this his realme of England, and the miniſters vnder written, which haue exerciſed, practiſed, or executed in ſpirituall courts and other ſpirituall iuriſdictions within the ſaid prouince, haue fallen and incurred into diuers dangers of his lawes by things doone, perpetrated and committed, contrarie to the order of his lawes, and ſpeciallie contrarie to the forme of the ſtatutes of prouiſors, prouiſions, and premunire, and his highneſſe hauing alwaie tender eie with mercie, pitie and compaſſion toward his ſaid ſpirituall ſubiects, minding of his high goodneſſe and great benignitie ſo alwaies to impart the ſame vnto them, as iuſtice being dailie adminiſtred, all rigor be excluded, and the great and beneuolent minds of his ſaid ſubiects largelie and manie times approoued toward his highneſſe, and ſpeciallie in their conuocation and ſynod now preſentlie being in the chapter houſe of the monaſterie of Weſtminſter, by correſpondence of gratitude to them to be requited, of his meere motion, benignitie and liberalitie by authoritie of this his parlement, hath giuen and granted his liberall and frée pardon to his ſaid good and louing ſpirituall ſubiects, and the ſaid miniſters and to euerie of them to be had, taken and inioied, to, and by them and euerie of them by vertue of this preſent act in maner and forme inſuing, that is to wit: The kings highneſſe of his ſaid benignitie and high liberalitie, in conſideration that the ſaid archbiſhop, biſhops, and clergie of the ſaid prouince of Canturburie in their ſaid conuocation, now being, haue giuen and granted to him a ſubſidie of one hundreth thouſand pounds of lawfull monie currant in this realme, to be leuied and collected by the ſaid clergie at their proper coſts and charges, and to be paied in certeine forme ſpecified in their ſaid grant thereof, is fullie and reſolutelie contented and pleaſed, that it be ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by authoritie of this his ſaid parlement, that the moſt reuerend father in God William archbiſhop of Canturburie, metropolitan and primat of all England, and all other biſhops and ſuffragans, prelats, abbats, priors and their conuents, and euerie perſon of the ſame conuents and conuents corporat, and euerie perſon of the ſame conuents corporat, abbeſſes, prioreſſes, and religious nuns, and all other religious and ſpirituall perſons, deanes and chapters, and other dignities of cathedrall and collegiall churches, prebendaries, canons, and petie canons, vicars, and clerks of the ſame, and euerie perſon of the ſame, all archdeacons, maiſters, prouoſts, preſidents, wardens of colleges, and of collegiat churches, maiſters and wardens of hoſpitals, all fellows, brethren, ſcholers, préeſts and ſpirituall conducts, and euerie of the ſame, and all vicars generall of dioceſſe, chancellors, commiſſaries, officials and deanes rurals, and all miniſters héereafter generallie rehearſed of anie ſpirituall court or courts within the ſaid prouince of Canturburie, that is to ſaie, all iudges, aduocats, regiſters, and ſcribes, proctors conſtituted to iudgements, and apparators, and all other which within the ſaid prouince of the archbiſhoprike of Canturburie, at anie time héeretofore haue adminiſtred, exerciſed, practiſed or executed in anie iuriſdictions within the ſaid prouince, as officers and miniſters of the ſaid courts, or haue béene miniſters or executors to the exerciſe or adminiſtration of the ſame and all and ſingular politike bodies ſpirituall, in anie maner wiſe corporated, and all parſons, vicars, curats, chantrie préeſts, ſtipendaries and all and euerie perſon and perſons ſpirituall of the clergie of the ſaid prouince of Canturburie in this preſent act of pardon héereafter not excepted, or to the contrarie not prouided for, by whatſoeuer name or ſurname, name of dignitie, preheminence or office, they or anie of them be or is named or called the ſucceſſors, heires, executors and adminiſtrators of them, and of euerie of them, ſhall be by authoritie of this preſent pardon, acquited, pardoned releaſed and diſcharged againſt his highneſſe, his heires, ſucceſſors and executors, and euerie of them of all and all maner offenſes, contempts and treſpaſſes committed or doone againſt all and ſingular ſtatute and ſtatutes of prouiſors, prouiſions, and premunire, and euerie of them, and of all forfeitures and titles that maie grow to the kings highneſſe by reaſon of anie of the ſame ſtatutes, and of all and ſingular treſpaſſes, wrongs, deceits, miſdemeanors, forfeitures, penalties and profits, ſums of monie, paines of death, paines corporall and pecuniar, as generallie of all other things, cauſes, quarels, ſutes, iudgements and exactions in this preſent act héereafter not excepted nor forpriſed, which maie be or can be by his highneſſe in anie wiſe or by anie means pardoned before and to the tenth daie of the moneth of March, in the two and twentith yéere of his moſt noble reigne, to euerie of his ſaid louing ſubiects, that is to ſaie, to the ſaid archbiſhop and other the ſaid biſhops, ſuffragans, prelats, abbats, priors and conuents, and euerie perſon of the ſame conuents, and conuents corporat, & euerie perſon of the ſame conuents corporat, abbeſſes, prioreſſes, nuns and ſpirituall perſons in dignitie, and all other religious and ſpirituall perſons, deanes, chapters, prebendaries, canons, petie canons, vicars, chorals, and clerks, archdeacons, maiſters, prouoſts, preſidents, wardens, fellowes, brethren, ſcholers, préeſts and ſpirituall conducts, chancellors, vicars, generall of dioceſſes, commiſſaries, officials, deanes, rurals, all iudges, aduocats, regiſters and ſcribes, proctors and apparators, which haue adminiſtred, practiſed or executed anie iuriſdiction in anie ſpirituall court within the ſaid prouince, and to the ſaid politike bodies, ſpirituall perſons, vicars, curats, chantrie préeſts, ſtipendaries, and to all and euerie perſon and perſons ſpirituall of the clergie of the ſaid prouince, and to all and euerie other perſon or perſons before named.

Alſo the kings highneſſe is contented, that it be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that this ſaid frée pardon ſhall be as good and effectuall in the law to euerie of his ſaid ſpirituall ſubiects of the ſaid prouince, and to euerie of them, and to the ſaid miniſters and euerie of them, and to all and euerie of the ſaid bodies corporat and other perſons before named, and to euerie of them by theſe generall words before rehearſed, in all things which be not héereafter in this preſent act excepted, as the ſaid pardon ſhould haue béene if all offenſes, contempts, and forfeitures, cauſes, matters, ſutes, quarels, iudgements, executions, penalties, and all other things not héereafter excepted had béene particularlie, ſingularlie and plainlie pardoned, named, rehearſed and ſpecified by proper or expreſſe words and names in their kinds, natures & qualities, in words and termes thereunto requiſit in the ſaid pardon. And that his ſaid ſubiects héereafter not excepted, nor anie of them, their ſaid miniſters, ſucceſſors, heires, executors nor adminiſtrators of anie of them, nor anie of them, nor anie of the ſaid bodies corporat, be nor ſhall be ſued, vexed nor inquieted in their bodies, goods, lands nor chattels, for anie maner matter, cauſe, contempt, miſdemeanor, forfeiture, treſpaſſe, offenſe, or anie other thing ſuffered, doone or committed before the ſaid tenth daie of March againſt the kings highneſſe, his crowne, prerogatiue, lawes, ſtatutes or dignitie, but onelie for ſuch cauſes, matters and offenſes, as be ſpeciallie and plainlie rehearſed in the exceptions, forepriſes, and prouiſions in this preſent pardon héereafter mentioned, and for none other, anie ſtatute or ſtatutes, lawes, cuſtoms, vſe or preſident héeretofore made or vſed to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Alſo the kings highneſſe of his bounteous liberalitie, by authoritie of this preſent parlement granteth and freelie giueth vnto his ſaid ſpirituall ſubiects, and their ſaid miniſters, that is to ſaie, the ſaid archbiſhop and all other the ſaid biſhops, ſuffragans, prelats, abbats, priors, conuents, abbeſſes, prioreſſes, nuns and ſpirituall perſons in dignitie, and all other religious and ſpirituall perſons, deanes, chapters, prebendaries, canons, petie canons, vicars, chorals and clerks, archdeacons, maiſters, prouoſts, preſidents, wardens, fellowes, brethren, ſcholers, préeſts, ſpirituall conducts, chancellors, vicars, generall of dioceſſe, commiſſaries, officials, deanes, rurals, iudges, aduocats, regiſters, ſcribes, proctors, and apparators, bodies corporat, and politike bodies, ſpirituall perſons, vicars, curats, chantrie préeſts, ſtipendaries, and to all other perſons, ſpirituall men and women of the clergie or ſpiritualtie of the ſaid prouince, and to euerie of them, all ſuch goods, chattels, fines, iſſues, profits, amerciaments, forfeitures and ſummes of monie by anie of them forfeited, which to his highneſſe doo or ſhould belong or apperteine by reaſon of anie offenſe, contempt, miſdemeanor, treſpaſſe, matter, cauſe or quarell, ſuffered, doone or committed by them or anie of them before the ſaid tenth daie of March, which be not héereafter ſpeciallie and plainlie forepriſed and excepted in this preſent act of pardon. And that all and euerie of the ſaid ſpirituall ſubiects, and their ſaid miniſters, and all and euerie of the ſaid bodies corporat, and other perſons before named, maie by himſelfe, or his or their atturnie or atturnies, according to the lawes of this realme, plead and miniſter this preſent act and frée pardon for his or their diſcharge, of, and for euerie thing that is thereby pardoned, without anie fée or other thing therefore in anie wiſe paieng to anie perſon or perſons, for pleading, writing, or entrie of iudgement, or for anie other cauſe concerning the ſame, but onelie twelue penſe to the clerke that ſhall enter the plée, matter or iudgement for his or their diſcharge in that behalfe, anie ſtatute or vſe to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And furthermore the kings highneſſe is contented that it be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that his ſaid frée pardon in all maner courts of his lawes and elſewhere, ſhall be reputed, déemed, iudged, allowed, and taken as well in the words and clauſes of the exceptions and forpriſes ſpecified in this preſent pardon and act, as in all and ſingular the other clauſes, words and ſentences mentioned and rehearſed in the ſaid frée pardon, moſt beneficiallie and auailablie to all and ſingular his ſaid ſubiects, and to euerie of the ſaid bodies corporat, and politike bodies ſpirituall, and to euerie perſon ſpirituall of the ſaid clergie and ſpiritualtie, and to their ſaid miniſters and officers, and to all other perſons aforenamed, and to euerie of them, and to the ſucceſſors, heires, executors, and adminiſtrators of euerie of them, and moſt ſtronglie in bar and diſcharge againſt his highneſſe, his heires, ſucceſſors and executors in euerie thing, without obſtacle, chalenge, or other delaie whatſoeuer it be, to be made, pleaded, obiected or alleaged by the king our ſoueraigne lord, his heirs, ſucceſſors or executors, or by his or anie of their generall atturnie or atturnies, or by anie other perſon or perſons for his highneſſe, or anie of his heirs, ſucceſſors or executors.

And furthermore it is enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, & by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if any officer or clerke of any of his high courts commonlie called ẏ kings bench, chancerie and common place, or of his excheker, or anie other officer or clerke of any other of his courts within this relme after the feaſt of Eaſter comming, make out or write out anie maner of writs or other proceſſe, or anie extracts or other precepts, wherby anie perſon or perſons of his ſaid ſubiects, or any of ẏ ſaid bodies corporat, or politike bodies ſpirituall, or anie of them, ſhalbe in any wiſe arreſted, attached, diſtreined, ſummoned or otherwiſe vexed, troubled or gréeued in his or their bodies, lands, tenements, goods or chattels, or in any of them, for or bicauſe of anie maner of thing acquited, pardoned, releaſed or diſcharged by this preſent act of frée pardon, he ſo offending and thereof lawfullie condemned,ſhall yéeld and paie for recompenſe thereof to the partie ſo gréeued or offended, treble damages, accounted as parcell of thoſe damages or coſts of the ſute. And neuertheleſſe all and ſingular ſuch writs, proceſſe, extracts and precepts after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter to be made,for,or vpon anie maner thing,acquited, pardoned,releaſed or diſcharged by this preſent act of frée pardon,ſhall be vtterlie void and of none effect.

Excepted alwaies and forepriſed out of this pardon all maner high treaſons, all prepenſed and voluntarie murders,all robberies of churches,and robberies doone vpon or to mens perſons, all other felonies and robberies by the common law, or felonious taking of monie, goods & chattels aboue the value of 20 s. all felonies,burnings of houſes,all carnall rauiſhments of women, all razing of records,all outlawries of high treaſons,and all maner of felonies,other than felonies to the ſaid value of 20 s. or vnder the ſumme.

And that all other outlawries had, promulged vpon or againſt anie of the kings ſaid ſubiects for anie cauſe not being treaſon,murder or felonie aboue the ſaid ſum of 20 s. to be pardoned by the generall words of this pardon aforeſaid, ſo alwaie that the ſame ſaid ſubiects & euerie of them ſo being outlawed,ſtand to right to anſwer or ſatiſfie the partie at whoſe ſute he is ſo outlawed according to the lawes of this realme.

Alſo excepted and forepriſed out of this pardon,all titles and actions of Quare impedit, and titles of preſentations,donations and collations to benefices,and other promotions ſpirituall,which the king our ſouereigne lord hath or is intituled to haue other than be growen, ſhould or might grow vnto our ſaid ſouereigne lord by force or meane of anie ſtatute or ſtatutes of prouiſors, prouiſions or premunire.

And alſo excepted and forepriſed out of this pardon all rauiſhments of the kings wards, all waſts of the kings woods in his forreſts,parks and chaſes,all concealments of cuſtoms and ſubſidies,all riots,routs and vnlawfull aſſemblies committed and doone aboue the number of twentie perſons.

And alſo except all maner of alienations and gifts into mortmaine,and all alienations,gifts, aſſignments,wils and limitations of vſes of anie manors,lands,tenements,rents,annuities and other hereditaments to the vſe of anie maner mortmaine, and all intruſions ,had, made or doone, in,or into anie manors,lands,tenements or other hereditaments ſithens the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God, in the 22 yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, and alſo all offenſes committed and doone by digging downe or caſting downe of anie croſſe or croſſes, which ſtood or were ſet in any common or high way or waies, and all and ſingular debts other than debts growen vpon recognizances being alreadie forfeited for ſuretie of the peace, or for apparance at anie date or place.

And excepted and forepriſed out of this pardon all accounts,and all actions,ſutes and impetitions for the ſame account,and arrerages of accounts, and for the ſaid debts or anie of them héereby excepted and forepriſed, all homages and reléefs, all wilfull eſcapes as well of conuicts as of other perſons, debts which were due to the moſt noble king of famous memorie king Henrie the ſeuenth, or to anie perſon or perſons to his vſe, by anie condemnation, recognizance, obligation or otherwiſe, all and ſingular thoſe forfeitures due to our ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, by anie penall ſtatute or ſtatutes which be conuerted into the nature of debt by iudgement or by agréement of the offendors before the ſaid tenth daie of March, and all forfeitures and other penalties and profits growen or due by reaſon of anie offenſe or act committed or doone contrarie to any ſtatute or ſtatutes,or contrarie to the common law,whereof anie ſeizure is made,or any information giuen in the kings exchecker, or anie ſute commenſed before the ſaid tenth daie of March, or whereof the kings highneſſe by his bill ſigned, or otherwiſe hath made anie gift or aſſignement to anie of his ſeruants, other than ſuch actions, ſutes, forfeitures, penalties and profits growen or due, or which might grow or be due to the kings highneſſe by reaſon of anie offenſe,contempt, or act committed or doone contrarie to the ſaid ſtatute of prouiſors, prouiſions and premunire or anie of them.

And alſo excepted all iſſues,forfeited fines and amerciaments afferred,taxed,ſet,extreated or iudged ſeuerallie or particularlie extending aboue the ſum of ſix pounds.And that all and ſingular other fines,as well fines Pro licentia concordandi, as other, and all other iſſues & amerciaments as well reall as other,which ſeuerallie or particularlie extend not aboue the ſaid ſum of ſix pounds, whether they be totted or not totted,taken to the charge of the ſhirife,or not taken to his charge, extreated or not extreated, whether they be turned into debt or not debt , and not being leuied nor receiued by anie ſhirife or ſhirifs,bailifs,miniſters or other officers,ſhall be fullie,cléerelie & plainlie pardoned and diſcharged to euerie of the kings ſubiects before reherſed,againſt the king our ſouereigne lord his heires and ſucceſſors for euer.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that incaſe it be obiected to anie ſhirife or ſhirifs,or other accountants in the kings court of his exchecker, or in anie other his courts, that anie ſhirife or ſhirifs, or other officers accountants hath or haue receiued or taken anie ſuch fines, iſſues or amerciaments before pardoned, releaſed or acquited, then euerie ſuch ſhirife and ſhirifs and other accountants ſhall be diſcharged,releaſed, pardoned and acquited thereof by his or their oth without anie further triall in that behalfe.

Prouided alwaie that this act of frée pardon, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend or be beneficiall or auaileable in anie thing to the reuerend father in God, John archbiſhop of Deuelin now being in the kings land and dominion of Ireland, nor ſhall in any wiſe extend to pardon, diſcharge, releaſe or acquit the biſhop of Hereford, nor ſhall extend or be beneficiall to Peter Ligham clerke, John Baker clerke, Adam Trauers clerke, Robert Cliffe clerke, Rowland Philips and Thomas Pels clerks.

Prouided alſo, that this act of pardon ſhall not extend or be preiudiciall to the king our ſoueraigne lord, his heirs or ſucceſſors, in anie thing concerning or touching his right and title of diſſolution of the college being in the vniuerſitie of Oxford, commonlie called the Cardinals college, which was latelie founden by the late reuerend father in God Thomas late cardinall, and archbiſhop of Yorke, nor concerning the kings right and title to the ſute of the ſame college, nor ſhall extend or be in anie wiſe beneficiall or auailable to the deane and canons of the ſame college, or anie of them in anie thing concerning the kings rights and titles in all manors, lordſhips, lands and tenements, aduowſons, churches, parſonages and other hereditaments of the ſaid college or anie of them.

Prouided alſo, that allowance ſhall be had of the clergie of the ſaid prouince of Canturburie out of the ſaid ſumme of one hundred thouſand pounds of all and ſingular ſuch ſummes of monie as ſhall be reaſonablie taxed and aſſeſſed to be paied by the perſons afore named, being fullie excepted and foreprized out and from the benefit of this frée pardon, that is to ſaie, the ſaid archbiſhop of Deuelin, and the ſaid biſhop of Hereford, and the ſaid Peter Ligham, John Baker, Adam Trauers, Robert Cliffe, Rowland Philips, and Thomas Pels, becauſe that they and euerie of them ſhall not be contributors nor charged to the paiment of the ſaid ſumme of one hundred thouſand pounds.

Prouided alſo that this act of frée pardon ſhall not extend nor be in anie wiſe beneficiall to anie clerke or other perſon of the ſaid clergie or ſpiritualtie, being the ſaid tenth daie of March in the cuſtodie of the ſaid archbiſhop, or of anie other ordinarie of the ſaid prouince, as a perſon atteinted or conuicted by the lawes of this realme, of anie murder, felonie or other crime or offenſe, for, or concerning deliuerance out of the ſaid conuict priſon, till that he ſhall haue made his purgation according to the lawes or cuſtoms vſed in that behalfe, or that he be thereof diſcharged by the kings pardon or other lawfull meane.

Prouided alwaies that this act ſhall not extend nor in anie wiſe be beneficiall or auailable to anie ſpirituall perſon, ſpirituall bodie corporated or politike, or other ſpirituall perſon, hauing anie dignitie, benefice, promotion or other ſpirituall liuelode within the prouince of Yorke, other than to euerie of them, which by his or their particular obligation to be made in due and perfect forme of the law, according to the effect of a note or minute vnder written, doo bind him or themſelfe before the laſt daie of Maie next comming, in certeine reaſonable ſumme of monie, not excéeding the ſumme of two yéeres value of his or their dignities, benefices, promotions or other ſpirituall liuelode, being or lieng within the ſaid prouince of Yorke, to ſir Brian Tuke knight, treaſuror of the kings moſt honorable chamber, Chriſtopher Hales the kings generall atturnie, and Baldwin Mallet the kings ſollicitor, or to the ouer liuers or ouerliuer of them, or to anie other like treaſuror, atturnie, or ſolicitor for the time being, or to anie two of them, to be paied to the kings vſe vpon certeine condicions ſpecified in the ſaid note or minute, the which note or minute héereafter inſueth.

¶ The condition of this obligation is ſuch, that where the moſt reuerend father in God William archbiſhop of Canturburie, metropolitane and primat of all England, and other prelats, and the clergie of the prouince of Canturburie in their ſynodall conuocation begun in the cathedrall church of S. Paule of London, in the fift daie of Nouember, in the yéere of our Lord God 1529, and latelie for certeine vrgent cauſes proroged vnto the chapter houſe ſet within the monaſterie of ſaint Peter of Weſtminſter, haue granted to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, a ſubſidie of one hundred thouſand pounds of currant monie within this realme, to be leuied and collected of the goods and poſſeſſions eccleſiaſticall of the ſame prouince, and to be paied to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord in fiue yéeres from and after the feaſt of the Annunciation of our ladie ſaint Marie laſt paſt in certeine forme ſpecified in the grant of the ſame ſubſidie. If the before bounden John A. his executors or aſſigns doo paie or cauſe to be paied to the collector or collectors of ſuch ſubſidie, as héereafter ſhall be granted to the kings highneſſe by the biſhops and other prelats and the clergie of the prouince of Yorke in the ſynodall conuocation of the ſame biſhops, prelats and clergie to be holden or kept in the ſame prouince, as much and as manie of all and ſingular thoſe ſummes of monie,which ſhall be aſſeſſed, taxed and ſet for and vpon the ſaid John A. for and vpon thoſe ſpirituall dignities,benefices,liuelihood, and other ſpirituall poſſeſſions & promotions, which the ſame John A.now hath in the ſame prouince of Yorke, as by the ſame John A. or his executors ſhall be due to be paid according to the forme and effect of the ſame grant heerafter to be made.And in caſe that no ſuch ſubſidie ſhall be granted to the king our ſouereigne lord, by the ſaid biſhops, prelats and clergie of the ſaid prouince of Yorke, before the feaſt of S.Michaell the archangell next comming,or that a ſubſidie ſhall be granted to the king by the ſame biſhops, prelats and clergie before the ſame feaſt, which ſubſidie ſhall not extend or amount to ſuch like rate and portion for the prouince of Yorke, in compariſon of the ſaid ſum of one hundred thouſand pounds currant monie of England now granted to the kings highneſſe by the ſaid clergie of the ſaid prouince of Canturburie,as the ſubſidie laſt granted to his highneſſe by the prelats and clergie of the prouince of Yorke in their conuocation begun the two and twentith daie of March, the yeere of our Lord 1522, and afterward proroged to Weſtminſter,was in compariſon to the rate & portion of the ſubſidie granted to his highneſſe by the prelats and clergie of the prouince of Canturburie in their conuocation begun at Paules church in London the fift daie of Nouember,the yeere of our Lord 1529.then if the ſaid John A.or his executors doo paie or cauſe to be paid to the treaſuror of the kings chamber for the time being,for all his ſaid ſpirituall dignities, benefices, liuelihood, and other ſpirituall poſſeſſions and promotions being or lieng in the ſaid prouince of Yorke, ſuch or like ſums of monie after the rates of the yeerelie values of the ſame his ſpirituall dignities, benefices, liuelihood, poſſeſſions and promotions,as the ſame John A. or anie other ſpirituall perſon or ſpirituall bodie corporated or politike,ſhall paie for and in contribution to the paiment of the ſaid ſubſidie of one hundred thouſand pounds granted by the ſaid clergie of the ſaid prouince of Canturburie for other ſpirituall dignities,benefices,liuelihood,poſſeſſions and promotions,being of like yerelie values, and being or lieng within the ſame prouince of Canturburie,and in the ſame feaſts within the ſaid fiue yeres to be paied,in which the ſaid ſubſidie of one hundred thouſand pounds is granted to be paied: then this preſent obligation ſhall be void and of none effect,or els it ſhall ſtand in full ſtrength and vertue.

An act concerning the kings generall pardon for his temporall ſubiects.

Chap.16.

THe king our ſouereigne lord,hauing alwaie moſt tender zeale,fauor and affection vnto his moſt louing temporall and laie ſubiects of this his realme of England and of Wales,Calis,and marches of the ſame,and inwardly remembring the manifold great offenſes,tranſgreſſions and contempts perpetrated,committed and doone by diuers and manie of the ſaid temporall and laie ſubiects againſt his highneſſe,his crowne regall, and iuriſdiction roiall, contrarie to the ſtatutes of prouiſions, prouiſors and premunire: by reaſon whereof they ſo offending, haue incurred into the dangers and penalties of the ſame ſtatutes, in ſuch wiſe, that if his highneſſe would attempt or purſue thoſe his ſaid temporall and laie ſubiects by the proceſſe and courſe of his lawes,they ſhould thereby not onelie forfeit and loſe their lands, tenements, goods, and chattels, but alſo they ſhould be out of his gratious protection: his roiall maieſtie mooued with moſt tender pitie,loue,and compaſſion,and not minding to vſe and extend all and ſingular his penall laws vpon his ſubiects, but as conſideration ſhall mooue his grace, ſo in part or in whole to remit and mitigate the rigor of the ſame: of his meere motion and of his benignitie,ſpeciall grace, pitie, and liberalitie,hath giuen and granted,and by authoritie of this preſent parlement giueth and granteth to all and ſingular his temporall and laie ſubiects, and temporall bodies, politike and corporated, and to euerie of them his moſt gratious,generall,and free pardon, of and for all and all maner offenſes,tranſgreſſions,and contempts, committed, perpetrated, or doone againſt the ſaid ſtatutes of prouiſors,prouiſions,and premunire,or anie of them,before the thirtith day of March,in the two and twentith yere of his moſt noble reigne,and all forfeitures,penalties,iudgements,executions, and pains for the ſaid offenſes,tranſgreſſions, and contempts.and euerie of them.

And furthermore be it enacted by authoritie of this parlement,that all and ſingular proceſſes, ſutes,proſecutions,and impetitions in anie wiſe hereafter to be awarded or made againſt anie of his ſaid temporall ſubiects, or againſt anie of the ſaid temporall bodies politike and corporated for or vpon anie of the ſaid offenſes,tranſgreſſions,or contempts committed or doone before the ſaid thirtith daie of March, ſhall be vtterlie void and of none effect.

An act that no perſon committing petie treaſon, murder, or felonie, ſhall be admitted to his clergie, vnder ſubdeacon.

The firſt chapter.

WHere at a parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the third yeare of king Edward the firſt, the ſame king moued the prelats of the relme, and them inioined vpon their faith that they owed to him, that in no wiſe they ſhould deliuer thoſe clerks, which were indicted for felonie, without due purgation, ſo that the ſaid king ſhould haue no néed to put other remedie in that behalfe. And that notwithſtanding after that monition diuers and manie clerks conuict were accuſtomablie deliuered and ſuffered to make their purgations, to the great courage of euill dœrs, by occaſion whereof afterward at another parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the fourth yere of K. Henrie the fourth, vpon the complaint of the commons, the ſame K. Henrie the fourth, then aduertiſed the prelats of the realme of the premiſſes, intending then to haue prouided remedie by authoritie of the ſaid parlement, as apperteined to his prerogatiue roiall, for the conſeruation of the peace of the crowne. At which time the archbiſhop of Canturburie, for himſelfe and all other biſhops of his prouince, then openlie promiſed to the ſame king Henrie the fourth, that if anie perſon from thenſeforth were conuict of anie treaſon, which touched not the king nor his roiall maieſtie, and ſuch as were notoriouſly knowne and reputed for théeues, and for ſuch cauſe deliuered to anie ordinarie as a clerke conuict, that the ordinarie to whome ſuch perſon or perſons were deliuered, ſhould ſafelie kéepe them after the effect of a conſtitution prouinciall to be made by the ſaid archbiſhop and biſhops, after the effect of the letters of Simon, then afore that time archbiſhop of Canturburie, bearing date the twelfe kalends of March, the yeare of our Lord God one thouſand thrée hundred and fiftie, and that no ſuch traitor nor felon ſhould make his purgation againſt the ſaid conſtitution, which conſtitution the ſaid archbiſhop then promiſed to deliuer to the ſame king before his next parlement, to the intent that if it ſhould ſéeme to the ſame king, that the ſame conſtitution were not ſufficient remedie for the premiſſes, that then the ſaid king might prouide ſuch remedie as ſhould apperteine in that behalfe. Sithens which time, the ſame conſtitution was neuer notified ne ſhewed by the prelats of this relme, but continuallie ſithens that time manifeſt théeues and murderers indicted and found guiltie of their miſdéeds by gœd and ſubſtantiall inqueſts, vpon plaine and probable euidence before the kings iuſtices, and afterwards by the vſages of the common lawes of the land deliuered to the ordinaries as clerks conuict; be ſpéedilie and haſtilie deliuered and ſet at large by the miniſters of the ſaid ordinaries for corruption and lucre, or elſe becauſe the ordinaries in claiming ſuch offendors by the liberties of the church, will in no wiſe take the charges in ſafe kéeping of them, but little regarding the triall and conuiction of the ſaid offendors, by the due and plaine courſe of the common lawes of the land, dœ ſuffer them to make their purgations by ſuch as nothing know of their miſdéeds, and by ſuch fraud adnull and make void all the gœd and probable triall that is vſed againſt ſuch offendors by the kings lawes, to the great ſlander of ſuch as purſue ſuch miſdœrs, and to the pernicious example, increaſe, and courage of ſuch offendors, if the kings highneſſe by his authoritie roiall, put not ſpéedie remedie in the premiſſes as apperteineth.

Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that no perſon nor perſons, which hereafter ſhall happen to be found guiltie after the lawes of this land, for anie maner of petie treaſon, or for anie wilfull murder of malice prepenſed, or for robbing anie churches, chapels, or other holie places, or for robbing of anie perſon or perſons in their dwelling houſes or dwelling place, the owner or dweller of the ſame houſe, his wife, his children or ſeruants, then being within, and put in feare and dread by the ſame, or for robbing of anie perſon or perſons, in or neere about the high waies, or for wilfull burning of anie dwelling houſes or barns, wherein anie graine of corns ſhall happen to be, nor anie perſon or perſons being found guiltie of anie abetment, procurement, helping, mainteining, or counſelling of or to anie ſuch petie treaſons, murders or felonies, ſhall from henſeforth be admitted to the benefit of his or their clergie, but vtterlie to be excluded thereof and ſuffer death in ſuch maner and forme as they ſhould haue dœne for any the cauſes and offenſes aboueſaid, if they were no clerks, ſuch as be within holie orders, that is to ſaie of the orders of ſubdeacon or aboue, all onelie except.

And after ſuch taxation to name and appoint ſuch number of collectors for the leuieng thereof, as ſhall ſéeme beſt by their diſcretions. And that the ſaid collectors and euerie of them ſhall haue power and authoritie to diſtreine euerie ſuch perſon as ſhall be ſet or taxed by the ſaid iuſtices of peace as is aforeſaid, in their lands or goods, as well within liberties as without, and to ſell the diſtreſſes by them taken by the appraiſement of foure honeſt perſons for the paiment of the ſaid ſummes to be taxed, if the perſon or perſons taxed refuſe to paie the ſame within ten daies next after ſuch diſtreſſe taken, taking vpon euerie ſuch ſale but onelie the monie taxed, with reaſonable coſts for taking of the diſtreſſe: and the ouerplus of ſuch ſales to be deliuered to the owner of the ſaid diſtreſſe. And that alſo the ſaid iuſtices of peace in euerie of the ſaid ſhires, or the moſt part of them within the limits of their commiſſion, ſhall haue power and authoritie to name and appoint two honeſt perſons inhabited in the ſame ſhire, wherein they be iuſtices, which two perſons ſhall ſuruey, ſée, and prouide, that the ſaid gaoles ſhall be ſurelie and ſubſtantiallie made and finiſhed, to whoſe hands the ſaid collectors ſhall paie and deliuer the monie by them collected of the kings ſubiects by the appointment and aſſignment of the ſaid iuſtices of peace, or ſix of them at the leaſt. And that as well euerie of the ſaid collectors as euerie of the ſaid two perſons to be named, their heirs, executors and adminiſtrators ſhall declare a true and iuſt account to the ſaid iuſtices of peace in euerie of the ſaid ſhires, or to ſix of them at the leaſt, from time to time when they ſhall be required.

And in caſe anie of them refuſe to make account, or refuſe to paie and imploie ſuch ſummes of monie as ſhall come to their hands, in ſuch wiſe as ſhall be limited and appointed by the ſaid iuſtices of peace, or ſix of them as is aforeſaid, that then the ſame iuſtices of peace, or ſix of them in euerie ſhire, where ſuch gaols ſhall be new made, ſhall haue full power and authoritie, if the ſaid offendors be preſent, to commit them to ward, and if they be abſent to make attachments vnder their ſeales by their diſcretions againſt euerie ſuch collector and perſon, to whoſe hands anie of the ſaid ſummes of monie taxed ſhall happen to come, their heirs, executors, and adminiſtrators, and euerie of them, into euerie ſhire and part of this realme, as well within libertie as without, to be returnable afore the ſaid iuſtices of peace, at ſuch daie and place as by them ſhall be appointed, and to be directed to the ſhiriffe or ſhiriffs of the ſhire, wherein the partie or parties, againſt whome ſuch attachment ſhall be directed, ſhall be reſident and abiding, if it be within the bailiwike of the ſhiriffe, and if it be without, then to be directed to the bailiffe of the libertie, wherein ſuch partie ſhall abide. And that euerie ſhiriffe and bailiffe of libertie, to whoſe hands ſuch attachments ſhall come, without fauour or corruption ſhall attach the ſaid offendors, and perſonallie bring them before the ſaid iuſtices, according to the tenor of the attachment to them directed, or elſe declare by his returne of the ſaid attachment, ſome reaſonable cauſe whie he cannot ſo doo, vpon paine for euerie default by them or anie of them committed contrarie to this act, to looſe & forfeit fiue pounds to the king our ſoueraigne lord: and vpon the appearance of euerie ſuch perſon ſo attached, the ſaid iuſtices or ſix of them, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to commit them to priſon, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe, till they haue truelie accounted and paid all ſuch ſummes of monie as came to their hands by the aſſignment of the ſaid iuſtices by authoritie of this act. And in caſe there happen to remaine anie ouerplus of monie after the gaoles fullie and wholie finiſhed, then it is ordered, that the ſame ouerplus ſhall be imploied and beſtowed in alms to the priſoners to be committed to the ſaid gaole by the diſcretions of the ſaid iuſtices of peace, or the more part of them, as long as it will laſt.

Provided alwaie, that this act extend not to charge anie perſons inhabiting within anie cities, towns, or boroughs corporat, which haue common gaols for felons taken in the ſame, and haue iuſtices of peace for deliuerance of ſuch felons, for anie taxes or lots to the making of the ſaid common gaols of anie the ſhires aboue named, but that euerie ſuch inhabitant in anie ſuch citie, towne or borough corporat, ſhall be vtterlie diſcharged thereof.

Commiſſiōs

And be it further enacted that ſeuerall commiſſions vnder the kings great ſeale, with this preſent act thereto affiled, ſhall be directed to the iuſtices of peace of the ſhires afore named, authorizing them to accompliſh and execute this preſent act, according to the tenor thereof in euerie behalfe, and that the ſaid iuſtices of peace in euerie of the ſhires afore named haue power and authoritie to limit to euery of the ſaid collectors, and perſons by them to be named, that ſhall take pains for leuieng of the monie taxed, or for the ſuruieng of the making of the ſaid gaols, ſuch reaſonable ſummes for their pains and labours for the collection of the ſaid monie, and ſuruieng the making of the ſaid gaols.

Felons

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all murderers and felons ſhall be impriſoned in the ſaid common gaols, and not elſe where. And that the ſhiriffe ſhall haue the keeping and charge of the ſame new gaols, and that euerie ſhiriffe be allowed vpon his account in the excheker for all & euerie ſuch ſums of monie as he ſhall hereafter happen to expend in & about the neceſſarie reparations or amendments of the ſaid gaols, after they be once made from time to time as often as need ſhall require, & that the barons of the kings excheker haue power to allow euery ſhiriffe in euery ſuch caſe by their diſcretions without any bill or warrant to be ſued from the kings highneſſe in that behalfe. Prouided alwaies that this act be not in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons hauing anie common gaols, by inheritance for terme of life, or for yeares, but that they ſhall haue and inioie their ſaid gaols, and the profits, fées, and commodities of the ſame, as they had or might lawfullie haue had before the making of this act, and as if this act had neuer béene had ne made. Be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that like prouiſion in euerie behalfe be had for a new gaole to be made within the countie of Darbie in like forme as is prouided for other ſhires aforeſaid.

An act concerning periurie and puniſhment of vntrue verdicts.

Chap.3.

The king our ſouereigne lord of his moſt godlie and gratious diſpoſition calling to his remembrance how that periury in this land is in manifold cauſes by vnreaſonable means deteſtablie vſed to the diſheritance and great damage of manie and great number of his ſubiects, well diſpoſed, and to the moſt high diſpleaſure of almightie God, the good ſtatutes againſt all officers hauing returne of writs, and their deputies making panels partiallie for rewards to them giuen, againſt vnlawfull mainteiners, imbraſors, and iurors, and againſt iurors vntrulie giuing their verdict notwithſtanding.

For reformation whereof, and for as much as the late noble king Henrie the ſeuenth, prouided remedie for the ſame by a ſtatute made in the eleuenth yeare of his reigne, which ſtatute is now expired. Be it therefore now enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that vpon euerie vntrue verdict hereafter giuen betwixt partie and partie, in anie ſute, plaint, or demand, before anie iuſtices or iudges of record, where the thing in demand and verdict therevpon giuen, extendeth to the value of fortie pounds, and concerneth not the ieopardie of mans life, the partie gréeued by the ſame verdict, ſhall haue a writ of attaint againſt euerie perſon heereafter ſo giuing an vntrue verdict and euerie of them, and againſt the partie which ſhall haue iudgement vpon the ſame verdict. And that in the ſame attaint there ſhall be awarded againſt the petie iurie, the partie and the grand iurie, ſummons, reſummons, and diſtreſſe infinit, which grand iurie ſhall be of like number, as the grand iurie is now in attaint, and euerie of them that ſhall paſſe in the ſame, ſhall haue lands and tenements to the value of twentie marks by the yéere of freehold out of the ancient demeane.

And be it alſo enacted, that euerie artificer of the craft or myſterie of coopers, that will exerciſe or practiſe to make anie of the ſaid veſſels for beere or ale to be put to ſale, ſhall make the ſame veſſels and euerie of them of good and ſeaſonable wood, & put his proper marke vpon euerie of them.

Contents of veſſels

And that euerie barrell for beere ſhall conteine xxxvj. gallons, euerie kilderkin for beere xviij. gallons, and euerie ferkin for beere nine gallons of the kings ſtandard gallon. And that euery barrell for ale ſhall conteine xxxij. gallons, euerie kilderkin for ale xvj. gallons, and euerie ferkin for ale viij. gallons of the kings ſtandard gallon, ſo that they ſhall be of good and iuſt meaſure, or elſe aboue, and not vnder. And that no cooper ſhall make anie other veſſell for beere or ale to be ſold within this realme of anie greater or leſſer number of gallons than is aboueſaid, vnleſſe he ſhall cauſe to be marked vpon euerie ſuch veſſell that he ſhall ſo make, of greater or leſſer number of gallons, the true and certeine number of as manie gallons as euerie ſuch other veſſell ſhall conteine, to the intent that euerie perſon maie know the content thereof.

Priſes of veſſels

And that no ſuch artificer of coopers ſhall inhanſe the priſes of anie ſuch barrels, kilderkins, ferkins, or other veſſels in the ſale of them to anie ale brewer or beere brewer, or other perſon, but keepe the rates of ſuch priſes as hereafter inſueth, and not aboue, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie barrell, kilderkin and ferkin, defectiue or inhanſed in priſe in anie point contrarie to this act iij. s. foure penſe, that is to ſaie, for euerie beere barrell ix.d. for euerie beere kilderkin v.d. and for euerie beere ferkin iij.d. and the ale barrell xvj.d. and the ale kilderkin ix.d. and the ale ferkin v.d.

Brewers.

And be it further enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that no beere brewer or ale brewer at any time after the feaſt of Lammas now next comming, ſhall put their beere or ale to ſale to anie perſon or perſons to be ſpent and occupied within this realme in anie other barrels, kilderkins, ferkins, or other veſſels of wood, other than ſhall be made or marked by an artificer of coopers aboueſaid, whereof euerie barrell for beere ſhall conteine and hold xxxvj. gallons, euerie halfe barrell or kilderkin xviij. gallons, and euerie firkin ix. gallons. And euerie barrell for ale ſhall conteine xxxij. gallons, euerie kilderkin xvj. gallons, and euerie firkin viij. gallons of full and iuſt meaſure or aboue, and not vnder that meaſure. And that euerie beere brewer and ale brewer ſhall not take ouer and aboue for euerie ſuch barrell, kilderkin, or firkin of ale and beere, but after ſuch priſes and rates as ſhall be thought conuenient and ſufficient by the diſcretion of the iuſtices of peace within euerie ſhire where ſuch beere brewer and ale brewer ſhall dwell, without anie citie, borough, or towne corporat, where no head officers as maiors, bailifs, ſhirifs and other head officers haue none authoritie nor rule, and in euerie citie, borough & towne where there be maiors, bailifs, ſhirifs or other head officers, the ſame rates and priſes to be named and ſeſſed by them and euerie of them by their diſcretions: And that the ſaid ale brewers or beere brewers at anie time heereafter, ſhall not ſell their beere nor ale at anie higher rates or priſes then ſhall be to them aſſigned after the forme aboue reherſed, vpon paine to loose and forfeit for euerie barrell ſo put to ſale contrarie to this eſtatute vj.s for euerie halfe barrell or kilderkin iij s. iiij d. and for euerie firkin ij.s. and for euerie veſſell conteining greater number of gallons x s. and for euerie other veſſell conteining leſſer number of gallons xij d. And that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie ale brewer to bring, carrie and cauſe to be brought and carried their ale to the houſholds of our ſouereigne lord the king, the queene, the princes, and to euerie archbiſhops, biſhops, dukes, marqueſſes, erles, barons, or other honorable mens houſes in tuns, buts, pipes, hogſheds, or other veſſels of greater or larger quantitie than is expreſſed in this preſent act, as before time hath beene vſed in that behalfe. And alſo it ſhall be lawfull to the ſaid alebrewers to bring, carrie or cauſe to be brought, conueied or carried their ale to euerie mans houſe in barrels, kilderkins and firkins, bearing and holding their true contents according to the purport and effect of this preſent act, any thing conteined in the ſame act to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding.

A generall act concerning commiſſions of ſewers to be directed in all parts within this realme.

Chap. 5.

OUr ſouereigne lord the king, like a vertuous and moſt gracious prince, nothing earthlie ſo highlie waieng as the aduancing of the common profit, wealth and commoditie of this his realme, conſidering the dailie great damages and loſſes which haue hapned in manie and diuers parts of this his ſaid realme, as well by the reaſon of the outragious flowing ſurges and courſe of the ſea, in and vpon marſh grounds and other low places heretofore through politike wiſdome won and made profitable for the great commonwealth of this realme, as alſo by occaſion of land waters and other outragious ſprings in, and vpon medowes, paſtures and other low grounds adioining to riuers, fluds, and other water courſes. And ouer that, by and through mils, mildams, weres, fiſhgarths, kedels, gores, gotes, fludgates, locks, and other impediments, in, and vpon the ſame riuers and other water courſes, to be ineſtimable damages of the commonwealth of this realme, which dailie is likelie more and more to increaſe, vnleſſe ſpeedie redreſſe and remedie be in this behalfe ſhortlie prouided; wherein albeit that diuerſe and manie prouiſions haue beene before this time made and ordeined, yet none of them are ſufficient remedie for reformation of the premiſſes, hath therefore by deliberat aduiſe and aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and alſo his louing commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that commiſſions of ſewers, and other the premiſſes ſhall be directed in all parties within this realme from time to time, where and when need ſhall require according to the maner, forme, tenor & effect heereafter inſuing, to ſuch ſubſtantiall and indifferent perſons as ſhall be named by the lord chancellor & lord treaſuror of England, and the two cheefe iuſtices for the time being, or by three of them, whereof the lord chancellor to be one.

The commiſſion.

Henrie the eight, &c. Know ye that foraſmuch as the wals, ditches, banks, gutters, ſewers, gotes, calcies, bridges, ſtreames, and other defenſes by the coſtes of the ſea, and marſh ground being and lieng within the limits of A, B and C in the countie or counties of or in the borders or confines of the ſame, by rage of the ſea, flowing and reflowing, and by meane of the trenches of freſh waters deſcending and hauing courſe by diuerſe waies to the ſea, be ſo dirupt, lacerat and broken, and alſo the common paſſages of ſhips, balengers and botes in the riuers, ſtreames, and other flouds within the limits of A, B or C, in the countie or counties of or in the borders or confines of the ſame by meane of ſetting vp, erecting and making of ſtreames, mils, bridges, ponds, fiſhgarths, mildams, locks, hebbing weres, hecks and floudgates, or other like lets or impediments, or annoiances, be letted or interrupted, ſo that great and ineſtimable damage for default of repairation of the ſaid wals, ditches, banks, fenſes, ſewers, gotes, gutters, calſeis, bridges and ſtreames. And alſo by meane of ſetting vp, erecting, making and inlarging of the ſaid fiſhgarths, mildams, locks, hebbing weres, hecks, floudgates and other like annoiances in times paſt, hath hapned, and yet is to be feared, that far greater hurt, loſſe and damage is like to inſue, vnleſſe that ſpeedie remedie be prouided in that behalfe.

We therefore for that by reaſon of our dignitie and prerogatiue roiall we be bound to prouide for the ſafetie and preſeruation of our realme of England, willing that ſpeedie remedie be had in the premiſſes, haue aſſigned you and ſix of you, of the which we will that A, B, and C ſhall be three to be our iuſtices to ſurueie the ſaid wals, ſtreames, ditches, banks, gutters, ſewers, gotes, calcies, bridges, trenches, mils, mildams, floudgates, ponds, locks, hebbing weres and other impediments, lets and annoiances aforeſaid, and the ſame cauſe to be made, corrected, repaired, amended, put downe or reformed, as caſe ſhall require after your wiſdoms and diſcretions, and therein as well ordeine and doo after the forme, tenor and effect of all and ſingular the eſtatutes and ordinances made before the firſt daie of March, in the three and twentith yeere of our reigne, touching the premiſſes, or anie of them, as alſo to inquire by the othes of the honeſt and lawfull men of the ſaid ſhire or ſhires, place or places, where ſuch defaults or annoiances be, as well within the liberties as without (by whom the truth maie the rather be knowne) through whoſe default the ſaid hurts and damages haue happened, and who hath or holdeth anie lands or tenements, or common of paſture, or profit of fiſhing, or hath or maie haue anie hurt, loſſe or diſaduantage, by anie maner of meanes in the ſaid places, as well neere the ſaid dangers, lets and impediments, as inhabiting or dwelling there abouts by the ſaid wals, ditches, banks, gutters, gotes, ſewers, trenches and other the ſaid impediments and annoiances. And all thoſe perſons, and euerie of them to tax, aſſeſſe, charge, diſtreine and puniſh, as well within the metes, limits and bounds of old time accuſtomed or otherwiſe, as elſe where within our realme of England, after the quantitie of their lands, tenements and rents, by the number of acres and pearches, after the rate of euerie perſons portion, tenor or profit, or after the quantitie of their common of paſture, or profit of fiſhing, or other commodities, there by ſuch waies and meanes, and in ſuch maner and forme, as to you or ſix of you, whereof the ſaid A, B, and C to be three, ſhall ſeeme moſt conuenient to be ordeined and doone for redreſſe and reformation to be had in the premiſſes: and alſo to reforme, repaire and amend the ſaid wals, ditches, banks, gutters, ſewers, gotes, calcies, bridges, ſtreames, and other the premiſſes, in all places needfull: and the ſame as often, and where need ſhall be to make new, and to clenſe and purge the trenches, ſewers and ditches in all places neceſſarie. And further, to reforme, amend, proſtrat and ouerthrow all ſuch mils, ſtreames, ponds, locks, fiſhgarths, hebbing weres, and other impediments and annoiances aforeſaid, as ſhall be found by inquiſition, or by your ſurueieng and diſcretions to be exceſſiue or hurtfull. And alſo to depute and aſſigne diligent, faithfull and true keepers, bailifs, ſurueiors, collectors, expenditors, and other miniſters and officers, for the ſafetie, conſeruation, repairation, reformation, and making of the premiſſes, and euerie of them, and to heare the account of the collectors and other miniſters, of and for the receipt and laieng out of the monie that ſhall be leuied and paid, in and about the making, repairing, reforming and amending of the ſaid wals, ditches, banks, gutters, gotes, ſewers, calcies, bridges, ſtreames, trenches, mils, ponds, locks, fiſhgarths, floudgates, and other impediments and annoiances aforeſaid. And to diſtreine for the arrerages of euerie ſuch collection, tax or aſſeſſe, as often as ſhall be expedient, or otherwiſe to puniſh the debtors and deteiners of the ſame, by fines, amerciaments, paines, or other like meanes after your good diſcretions. And alſo to arreſt and take as manie carts, horſſes, oxen, beaſts, and other inſtruments neceſſarie, and as manie workemen and laborers, as for the ſaid works and repairation ſhall ſuffice, paieng for the ſame competent wages, ſalarie and ſtipend in that behalfe: and alſo take ſuch and as manie trées, woods, vnderwoods and timber, and other neceſſaries, as for the ſame works and repairations ſhall be ſufficient at a reaſonable priſe by you or ſix of you, of the which we will that A, B & C ſhall be thrée to be aſſeſſed or limited as well within the limits and bounds aforeſaid, as in anie other place within the ſaid countie or counties néere vnto the ſaid places: and to make and ordeine ſtatutes, ordinances and prouiſions from time to time, as the caſe ſhall require, for the ſauegard, conſeruation, redreſſe, correction and reformation of the premiſſes, and of euerie of them, and the parties lieng to the ſame neceſſarie & behouefull after the lawes and cuſtoms of Romneie marſh, in the countie of Kent, or otherwiſe, by anie waies or meanes after your owne wiſdoms and diſcretions. And to heare and determine all and ſingular the premiſſes, aſwell at our ſute, as at the ſute of anie other whatſoeuer, complaining before you or ſix of you, whereof A, B, & C ſhalbe thrée, after the lawes and cuſtoms aforeſaid, or otherwiſe by anie other waies and means after your diſcretions. And alſo to make and direct all writs, precepts, warrants, or other commandements by vertue of theſe preſents, to all ſhirifs, bailifs, and all other miniſters, officers, and other perſons, as well within liberties as without, before you or ſix of you, whereof the ſaid A, B and C to be thrée, at certeine daies, termes, and places to be prefixed, to be returned and receiued. And further to continue the proceſſe of the ſame, and finallie to doo all and euerie thing and things, as ſhall be requiſit for the due execution of the premiſſes, by all waies and meanes after your diſcretions. And therefore we command you that at certeine daies & places, when and where you or ſix of you, wherof the ſaid A, B & C to be thrée, ſhall thinke expedient, ye doo ſurueie the ſaid wals, fenſes, ditches, banks, gutters, gotes, ſewers, calcies, ponds, bridges, riuers, ſtreames, water courſes, mils, locks, trenches, fiſhgarths, floudgates and other the lets, impediments, and annoiances aforeſaid, and accompliſh, fulfill, heare and determine all and ſingular the premiſſes in due forme, and to the effect aforeſaid, after your good diſcretions: and all ſuch as ye ſhall find negligent, gaineſaieng, or rebelling in the ſaid works, repairations or reformation of the premiſſes, or negligent in the due execution of this our commiſſion, that ye doo compell them by diſtreſſe, fines and amerciaments, or by other puniſhments, waies or meanes, which to you or ſix of you, whereof the ſaid A, B and C ſhall be thrée, ſhall ſéeme moſt expedient for the ſpéedie remedie, redreſſe and reformation of the premiſſes, and due execution of the ſame. And all ſuch things as by you ſhall be made and ordeined in this behalfe, as well within liberties as without, that ye doo cauſe the ſame firmelie to be obſerued, dooing therein as to our iuſtices apperteineth, after the lawes and ſtatutes of this our realme, and according to your wiſdoms and diſcretions. Saued alwaies to vs ſuch fines & amerciaments as to vs thereof ſhall belong. And we alſo command our ſhiriffe or ſhirifs of our ſaid countie or counties of   that they ſhall cauſe to come before you or ſix of you, of the which A, B and C ſhall be thrée, at ſuch daies and places as ye ſhall appoint to them ſuch and as manie honeſt men of his or their bailiwike, as well within the liberties as without, by whom the truth maie beſt be knowne, to inquire of the premiſſes. Commanding alſo all other miniſters and officers, aſwell within libertie as without, that they and euerie of them ſhall be attendant to you in and about the due execution of this our commiſſion. In witneſſe whereof we haue cauſed theſe our letters patents to be made. Witneſſe our ſelfe at Weſtminſter the   daie of   in the   yeere of our reigne.

And it is alſo enacted, that euerie ſuch perſon as ſhall be named commiſſioner in the ſaid commiſſion, after he hath knowledge thereof, ſhall effectuallie put his diligence and attendance in and about the execution of the ſaid commiſſion. And before he ſhall take vpon him the execution of the ſaid commiſſion, he ſhall take a corporall oth before the lord chancellor, or before ſuch to whom the ſaid lord chancellor ſhall direct the kings writ of Dedimus poteſtatem, to take the ſame, or before the iuſtices of the peace in the quarter ſeſſions holden in the ſhire where ſuch commiſſion ſhalbe directed: the tenor of which oth héereafter inſueth.

¶Ye ſhall ſweare that you to your cunning, wit and power ſhall trulie and indifferentlie execute the authoritie to you giuen by this commiſſion of ſewers, without any fauor, affection, corruption, dread or malice to be borne to anie maner of perſon or perſons: and as the caſe ſhall require, ye ſhall conſent and indeuor your ſelfe for your part to the beſt of your knowledge & power to the making of ſuch wholſome, iuſt, equall and indifferent lawes and ordinances, as ſhall be made & deuiſed by the moſt diſcréet and indifferent number of your fellowes being in commiſſion with you for the due redreſſe, reformation, and amendment of all & euerie ſuch things, as are conteined and ſpecified in the ſaid commiſſion: and the ſame lawes and ordinances to your cunning, wit & power cauſe to be put in due execution, without fauor, méed, dread, malice or affection, as God you helpe and all ſaints.

And it is alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie eſtatute, act and ordinance héertofore made concerning the premiſſes, or any of them, aſwell in the time of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, as in the time of anie of his progenitors kings of this realme of England, not being contrarie to this preſent act, nor héeretofore repelled, from henſeforth ſhall ſtand and be good and effectuall for euer, and to be put in due execution according to the true meaning and purports of the ſame.

Continua.

And ouer that be it enacted, that the commiſſioners héereafter to be named in anie of the ſaid commiſſions according to the purport and effect of the ſame commiſſions, haue full power and authoritie to make, conſtitute and ordeine lawes, ordinances and decrées, and further to doo all and euerie thing mentioned in the ſaid commiſſion, according to the purport, effect, words and true meaning of the ſame: and the ſame lawes and ordinances ſo made, to reforme, repell and amend, and make new from time to time, as the caſes neceſſarie ſhall require in that behalfe.

Prouided alwaies, and it is enacted, that if anie perſon or perſons being aſſeſſed or taxed to anie lot or charge, for anie lands, tenements or hereditaments, within the limits of anie commiſſion héereafter to be directed, doo not paie the ſaid lot and charge according to the ordinance & aſſignement of the commiſſioners, hauing power of the execution of the ſaid commiſſion: by reaſon thereof it ſhall happen the ſaid commiſſioners hauing power of execution of ſuch commiſſion, for lacke of paiment of ſuch lot and charge to decrée and ordeine the ſame lands, tenements and hereditaments from the owner or owners thereof, and their heires, and the heires of euerie of them, to anie perſon or perſons for terme of yéeres, terme of life, in fée ſimple or in taile for paiment of the ſame lot and charge, that then euerie ſuch decrée & ordinance ſo by them made, ingroſſed in parchment, and certified vnder their ſeales into the kings court of chancerie, with the kings roiall aſſent had to the ſame, ſhall bind all and euerie perſon and perſons, that at the making of the ſame decrée had anie intereſt in ſuch lands, tenements or hereditaments in vſe, poſſeſſion, reuerſion or remainder, their heires & feoffées, and euerie of them, and not to be in anie wiſe reformed, vnleſſe it be by authoritie of parlement after to be ſummoned and holden within this realme.

Decree

And alſo it is prouided by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſame lawes, ordinances and decrées to be made and ordeined by the ſaid commiſſioners or ſix of them by authoritie of the ſaid commiſſion ſhall bind aſwell the lands, tenements and hereditaments of the king our ſoueraigne lord, as all and euerie perſon and perſons and their heires for ſuch their intereſt as they ſhall fortune to haue, or maie haue in anie lands, tenements or hereditaments, or other caſuall profit, aduantage or commoditie whatſoeuer they be, wherevnto the ſaid lawes, ordinances and decrées ſhall in anie wiſe extend, according to the true purport, meaning and intent of the ſame lawes.

And it is furthermore by the authoritie aforeſaid eſtabliſhed and enacted, that if anie maner of perſon or perſons of what eſtate or degrée ſoeuer he or they be of, that from henſefoorth doth take vpon him or them to ſit by vertue of any of the ſaid commiſſions, not being before ſworne in forme as is aforeſaid, and according to the tenor of the oth afore ſpecified. Or if anie perſon ſo named and ſworne doo ſit, as is aforeſaid, not hauing lands and tenements, or other hereditaments in fée ſimple, fée taile or for terme of life, to the cléere yéerelie value of fortie marks aboue all charges to his owne vſe, except he be reſiant and frée of anie citie, borough or towne corporat, and haue mouable ſubſtance of the cléere value of one hundred pounds, or elſe be learned in the lawes of this realme in and concerning the ſame, that is to ſaie, admitted in one of the foure principall ins of court for an vtter barreſter, ſhall forfeit fortie pounds for euerie time that he ſhall attempt ſo to doo; the one halfe thereof to be to our ſoueraigne lord the king, & the other halfe thereof to the vſe of him or them that will ſue therefore, by action of debt, bill, plaint or information in anie of the kings courts: in which action or ſute no wager of law ſhall be admitted, nor anie eſſoine or protection ſhalbe allowed. And if anie action of treſpaſſe or other ſute ſhall happen to be attempted againſt anie perſon or perſons for taking of anie diſtreſſe, or anie other act dooing by authoritie of the commiſſion, or by authoritie of any lawes or ordinances made by vertue of the ſaid commiſſion, the defendant or defendants in anie ſuch action ſhall & maie make auowrie, cognizance or iuſtification for the taking of the ſame diſtreſſe or other act dooing touching the premiſſes or anie of them, alleging in ſuch aduowrie, cognizance or iuſtification, that the ſaid diſtreſſe, treſpaſſe or other act, whereof the plaintiffe complaineth, was doone by authoritie of the commiſſion of ſewers for lot or tax aſſeſſed by the ſaid commiſſion, or for ſuch other act or cauſe, as the ſaid defendant did by authoritie of the ſame commiſſion and according to the tenor, purport and effect of this preſent act made the xxiij. yeare of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, without anie expreſſing or rehearſall of anie other matter or circumſtance conteined in this preſent act, or anie commiſſion, lawes, eſtatutes, or ordinances therevpon to be made, wherevpon the plaintife ſhall be admitted to replie, that the defendant did take the ſaid diſtreſſe or doo anie other act or treſpaſſe ſuppoſed in his declaration of his owne wrong, without anie ſuch cauſe alleaged by the ſaid defendant, wherevpon the iſſue in euerie ſuch action ſhall be ioined to be tried by verdict of twelue men, and not otherwiſe, as is accuſtomed in other perſonall actions. And vpon the triall of that iſſue the whole matter to be giuen on both parties in euidence according to the verie truth of the ſame. And after ſuch iſſue tried for the defendant or nonſute of the plaintife after appéerance, the ſame defendant to recouer treble damages by reaſon of his wrongfull vexation in that behalfe, with his coſts alſo in that part ſuſteined, and that to be aſſeſſed by the ſame iurie or writ to inquire of damages, as the cauſe ſhall require.

And it is alſo enacted, that euerie of the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall haue and perceiue foure ſhillings for euerie daie that they ſhall take paines in the execution of this commiſſion of ſewers, and one clerke by them to be aſſigned two ſhillings for euerie daie, of the rates, taxes, lots and waines that ſhall be aſſeſſed or loſt by authoritie of the ſaid commiſſion, and to be leuied and paied by their diſcretions. And that the ſaid commiſſioners, or ſix of them ſhall haue power and authoritie to limit & aſſigne of the ſame rates, taxes, lots and waines by their diſcretions ſuch reaſonable ſums of monie to the ſaid clerke for writing of books and proceſſe concerning the premiſſes, and the collectors, expeditors, and ſuch other as ſhall take paines in due execution of the ſaid commiſſion, as by the diſcretions of the ſaid commiſſioners, or ſix of them ſhall be thought reaſonable.

Lancaſter

Provided alwaies, that whenſoever, and as often as ſuch commiſſion, as is afore limited, ſhall be made and directed to any perſon or perſons for the reformation and amendment, of or in any of the premiſſes ſpecified in the ſaid commiſſion, within the fees, libertie, or poſſeſſion of the duchie of Lancaſter, that then ſuch commiſſioners as ſhall execute any ſuch commiſſion ſhalbe alwaies named and appointed by the diſcretion of the lord chancellor and lord treaſuror of England, and the ſaid two cheefe iuſtices of either bench, and the chancellor of the ſaid duchie for the time being, or three of them, whereof the ſaid lord chancellor and the chancellor of the duchie to be two. And that in everie ſuch caſe two commiſſions ſhall be awarded, and according to the tenor of the commiſſion above expreſſed, one thereof under the great ſeale of England, and the other under the ſeale of the ſame duchie, as before time hath beene accuſtomed, anie thing afore rehearſed in this preſent act to the contrarie heereof notwithſtanding.

Charge of the commiſ.

And it is further enacted, that the ſaid commiſſions from time to time, as the caſe ſhall require ſhall be had and obteined without anie monie or other charge to be paid for the ſeales or writing of the ſame, unleſſe it be to the king ij.s.vj.d. for the ſeals of everie commiſſion, as hath beene accuſtomed, and for the writing and inrolling of anie one commiſſion v.s. and not above.

Superſed.

And it is further enacted, that everie commiſſion to be made by authoritie of this act, ſhall indure and continue for terme of three yeeres next after the teſte of the commiſſion. Neverthelesse after anie commiſſion made and delivered out of the kings court of chancerie, the kings highneſſe ſhall alwaies at his pleaſure, by his writ of Superſedias, out of his ſaid court of chancerie, at anie time diſcharge aſwell everie ſuch commiſſion as everie commiſſioner that ſhalbe made or named by authoritie of this act.

After which diſcharge the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall have no power nor authoritie to proceed in the execution of their commiſſion, nor in anie thing by authoritie of this act.

Provided alwaies, that ſuch lawes, acts, decrees and ordinances as ſhall happen to be made by the ſaid commiſſioners according to the tenor of their commiſſion, or by authoritie of this act, ſhall ſtand good and effectuall, and be put in due execution ſo long time as their commiſſion indureth, and no longer: except the ſaid lawes and ordinances be made and ingroſſed in parchment, and certified under the ſeales of the ſaid commiſſioners into the kings court of chancerie, & then the kings roiall aſſent be had to the ſame: anie thing conteined in this preſent act to the contrarie heereof notwithſtanding.

Wales
Cheſter

Provided alſo, that whenſoever, and as often as ſuch commiſſion, as is afore limited, ſhall be made and directed to anie perſon or perſons for the reformation and amendment of or in anie of the premiſſes ſpecified in the ſaid commiſſion, within the fees, liberties and poſſeſſions of the principalitie of Wales, the countie palantine of Cheſter, or within the fees, liberties and poſſeſſions of anie other place, where there is libertie and iuriſdiction of countie palantine, that in everie ſuch caſe two commiſſions ſhall be awarded, and made according to the tenor of the commiſſion above expreſſed, one thereof under the great ſeale of England, & the other under the uſuall ſeale of the countie palantine, in maner & forme, as is above provided for the duchie of Lancaſter, anie thing afore rehearſed in this preſent act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Roiall aſſet

And it is provided and alſo enacted, that the roiall aſſent limited to be had unto the lawes & ordinances to be made by the ſaid commiſſioners, as is aboveſaid, ſhalbe certified into the ſaid court of chancerie under the kings privie ſeale: and that there ſhall not any ſum of monie be paid for the ſame privie ſeale, but for the writing of the ſame certificat under the ſaid privie ſeale ſhalbe paid to the writer thereof ij.s. and not above, nor no other, nor greater ſum for anie thing touching or concerning the ſame certificat under the ſame privie ſeale.

Provided alwaies, that the chancellors, and ſuch other as ſhall have the cuſtodie of the ſeales of the ſaid principalitie of Wales, or the countie palantine of Cheſter, or within the fees, liberties and poſſeſſions of anie other place, where there is libertie and iuriſdiction of countie palantine, upon reaſonable requeſt, & upon the ſight of the commiſſion under the kings great ſeale of his chancerie, ſhall without delaie make out another commiſſion under the ſeale of the ſaid countie palantine according to the tenor of the kings commiſſion to them ſhewed under his great ſeale. And to thoſe commiſſioners as ſhall be named by the lord chancellor, lord treaſuror, and the two cheefe iuſtices, or by three of them, wherof the lord chancellor to be one, except it be within the fees and liberties of the duchie of Lancaſter, within which fees and liberties the commiſſioners ſhall be named, and commiſſions made, as is afore ordeined by this act: anie thing conteined in the ſaid act, or in anie proviſo thereunto added and annexed to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. This act to indure for twentie yeeres.

An act concerning before whom recognizances of debts ſhall be made, and the forme of the obligation.

Chap.6.

Inaſmuch as the maiors of the ſtaple in diverſe places of this realme, where anie ſtaple is kept in the preſence of the conſtables of the ſame ſtaple, before this time have and might lawfullie take recognizance or knowledge for debts, onelie concerning and touching the merchandize of the ſame ſtaple, betwixt merchant and merchant of the ſame ſtaple, according to diverſe lawdable eſtatutes and proviſions before this time had, ordeined and made. Which maiors and conſtables manie and ſundrie times ſince the making of the ſame eſtatute haue taken diuerſe recogniſances and knowledges of diuerſe of the kings ſubiects for debts, ſurmiſing the ſame knowledge or recogniſance to be made for ſuretie of paiment of ſummes of monie, for ſuch wares as were or béene bought in the ſame ſtaple: where of truth the ſame recogniſance did not in anie wiſe touch or concerne the merchandize of the ſame, ne alſo the parties, that is to ſaie, the cogniſor ne the cogniſée, that did knowledge and take the ſame recogniſances, were merchants of the ſame ſtaple: which recogniſances and knowledges taken in forme aforeſaid, are not onelie cleere contrarie to the true meaning and intent of the ſame former eſtatutes, but alſo thereby diuerſe great and ſundrie inconueniences, damages, and deceipts do dailie riſe, and grow to diuerſe of the ſubiects of our ſoueraigne lord the king, by reaſon of the miſuſing of the ſame. And for as much as the kings highneſſe of his moſt high wiſdome perceiueth the miſuſing and execution of the ſame, to be contrarie to the forme of the ſaid former eſtatutes: therefore his pleaſure is, that ſome true, lawfull, and reaſonable bond for ſuretie of paiment of the ſaid debts of his ſubiects ſhall be made and deuiſed by true and iuſt means, which in it ſelfe maie and ſhall purport, right and equitie, and alſo conſonant to reaſon.

In conſideration whereof, by the aſſent of the kings highnes, his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and his commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, it is enacted, ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that from the firſt daie of Aprill next comming, the cheefe iuſtice of the kings bench, and the cheefe iuſtice of the common place, which now be, or at anie time héereafter ſhall be, and euerie of them by himſelfe, and in their abſence out of the terme, the maior of the ſtaple at Weſtminſter, and the recorder of the citie of London for the time being iointlie togithers, by his or their diſcretion ſhall haue power and authoritie to take recogniſances or knowledges of euerie of the kings ſubiects for the paiment of debts, according to ſuch forme as héereafter inſueth.

The recogniſance

And that euerie obligation that ſhall be made, as is aforeſaid, and knowledged before anie of the ſaid cheefe iuſtices, or the ſaid maior and recorder according to this act, ſhall be ſealed with the ſeale of the partie or parties, that ſhall recogniſe or knowledge the ſame, and alſo with ſuch ſeale as the kings highnes ſhall ordeine and appoint for the ſame, and with the ſeale of one ſuch of the ſaid iuſtices, or with the ſeales of the ſaid maior and recorder, and with his or their name or names ſubſcribed, that ſo ſhall take the ſame recogniſance or knowledge. And that euerie of the ſaid two iuſtices, and the ſaid maior and recorder, ſhall haue the cuſtodie of one ſuch ſeale by the kings highnes to be appointed, with one like print, ſcripture and faſhion, which ſhall ſeuerallie remaine with them to the intent aboue rehearſed.

Seales

And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that ſuch an honeſt and diſcret perſon, as ſhall be aſſigned by the kings highnes, or the ſufficient deputie or deputies of the ſame perſon ſo to be aſſigned, ſhall make & write all ſuch obligations, as ſhall be knowledged & recogniſed by authoritie of this act, and ſhall cauſe the ſame obligations recogniſed & knowledged in forme as is abouesaid, to be inrolled in two ſeuerall rols indented, whereof one ſhall remaine with ſuch of the ſaid iuſtices, or with the ſaid maior and recorder, that ſo ſhall take the ſame recogniſance in forme aforeſaid, & the other roll with the writer thereof, appointed for the ſame. And that the ſaid perſon by the kings highnes to be appointed for making, writing, & inrolling ſuch obligations, or his ſufficient deputie or deputies, ſhall be dwelling or abiding in the ſaid citie of London, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie time, that he and his deputie ſhall be abſent by the ſpace of two daies, ten pounds.

Clerke of recogniſ.

And further it is enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid perſon ſo to be aſſigned by the kings highnes, to write, make & inroll ſuch obligations or his ſufficient deputie or deputies, at the requeſt of the creditors, their executors or adminiſtrators, ſhall certifie ſuch obligations as ſhall be taken and recogniſed by authoritie of this act, into the kings court of chancerie vnder the ſeale of the ſaid perſon, ſo to be appointed for writing, making, & inrolling ſuch obligations. And that euerie perſon and perſons, to whom anie ſuch obligation ſhall be made, knowledged & inrolled (as is aforeſaid) their executors and adminiſtrators, and the executors & adminiſtrators of euerie of them for default of paiment of the debts conteined in ſuch obligations, ſhall haue in euerie point, degrée & condition againſt the ſaid recogniſor and recogniſors, & euerie of them, their heires, executors and adminiſtrators, and the heires, executors and adminiſtrators of euerie of them, like proces, execution, commoditie and aduantage in euerie behalfe, as hath béene vſed and accuſtomed before this time to be had, done or made, of, and vpon anie obligation of the ſtatute of the ſtaple, & vnder ſuch maner and forme as is for the ſame ſtatute of the ſtaple prouided, paieng for ſuch proces and execution to be had, ſuch like fées as is accuſtomed for proces & execution to be had vpon obligations of the ſame ſtatute of the ſtaple and not aboue. And that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons that ſhall be bounden or otherwiſe gréeued by vertue of anie obligation, to be made by authoritie of this act, ſhall haue their like remedie by Audita querela, and all other remedies in the law, that they might haue had, in caſe they had béene bounden by obligation of the ſtatute of the ſtaple. And that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons that ſhall haue proces for execution to be had by reaſon of anie ſuch obligation, to be made and knowledged according to this act, ſhall paie to the kings highnes, his heirs or ſucceſſors at the time of inſealing of the proces for execution to be had, one halfepenie for euerie pound that ſhall be conteined in the obligation, whereof execution ſhall be required and not aboue. And that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons that ſhall happen to haue anie execution of anie lands, tenements or hereditaments, by reaſon of anie ſuch obligations to be made and knowledged (as is aboueſaid) their executors, adminiſtrators or aſſignes, and the executors, adminiſtrators and aſſignes of euerie of them, if they or anie of them béene put out or diſeized, ſhall haue like remedie in euerie point and condition, as perſons hauing execution in & vpon anie ſtatute of the ſtaple, after the execution to them had, maie or might haue by vertue of the ſaid writing obligatorie of the ſtatute of the ſtaple and execution of the ſame. And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie of the ſaid iuſtices, and the ſaid maior and recorder, before whom anie ſuch obligations ſhalbe recognized, ſhall take for euerie knowledge of euerie one ſuch recognizance thrée ſhillings foure penſe, and not aboue, and the clerke that ſhall write, make, and inroll the ſame obligations thrée ſhillings foure penſe, and for the certificat of euerie one ſuch obligation twentie penſe. And if anie of the ſaid iuſtices, maior, recorder, or clerke, take of anie of the kings ſubiects aboue the ſum or ſums to them limited by this eſtatute, that then the ſaid iuſtices, maior, recorder, or clerke, that ſo ſhall take contrarie to the forme aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for euerie time ſo offending fortie pounds.

And further it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that from the ſaid firſt daie of Aprill, no maior or conſtable of the ſtaple, for the paiment of anie ſum or ſums of monie, take anie knowledge or recognizance of the ſaid ſtatute of the ſtaple, of anie of the kings ſubiects, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie time ſo offending fortie pounds. The one moitie of all and ſingular the ſaid penalties to be to the kings highnes, & the other moitie to the partie that will ſue for the ſame. For the recouerie whereof the partie that will purſue ſhall haue his remedie by information of debt, bill, or plaint in anie of the kings courts: in which no eſſoine protection nor wager of law ſhalbe admitted.

Prouided alwaie, that this act nor anie thing therein conteined, be in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie maior and conſtables of the ſtaple, for anie bond or writing of the ſtatute of the ſtaple to be taken, or receiued betwéene merchants being frée of the ſame ſtaple, for merchandize of the ſame ſtaple betwéene them lawfullie bought and ſold.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all recognizances before this time taken before the maior and conſtables of anie of the ſaid ſtaples, whereof the ſummes now be not paid or otherwiſe contented, lawfullie auoided or diſcharged by the law, ſhall be as good and effectuall as though they had béene verilie made for merchandize of the ſame ſtaple, and betwéene merchant and merchant of the ſame ſtaple, and as they ſhould haue béene, if this act had neuer béene had ne made.

An act that the ſtatutes made for the maintenance of the nauie of this realme ſhall ſtand in full ſtrength, and how Gaſcoine and French wines ſhall be brought in, and the ſame and other wines ſold.

Chap.7.

VHere for the maintenance and good continuance of the nauie of this realme of England it was ordeined and enacted by a ſtatute made in the fift yéere of the reigne of the right noble king Richard the ſecond, that none of the kings liege people ſhould ſhip merchandize in anie other ſhip than in an Engliſh ſhip, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaid merchandize ſo ſhipped. And after that by an other ſtatute made in the ſixt yéere of the ſaid noble king, it was enacted, that for default of Engliſh ſhips, euerie man might ſhip their merchandize in ſtrangers ſhips. And after that at a parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the fourth yéere of the late noble king of famous memorie king Henrie the ſeuenth, it was ordeined & enacted, that no perſon ſhould carie or bring anie wines of Gaſcoine or Guion, or Tholouſe woad into England, Wales, Ireland, Calis, or the marches thereof, or Barwike, but all onlie in ſhips of England, Wales, Ireland, Calis, or the marches thereof, or Barwike: and that the maiſter & marriners of the ſame ſhips for the moſt part of them ſhould be of the ſame countries, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaid wine & woad, as by the ſaid good eſtatutes more at large is expreſſed. And notwithſtanding the ſaid good eſtatutes, yet neuertheleſſe the nauie of this realme, and the multitude of the ſhips of the ſame, which tofore this time hath béene not onelie a great defenſe and ſuretie to this realme of England in time of war, but alſo a high commoditie to all the ſubiects of the ſame, for tranſporting and conueiance of merchandizes in & from this realme, is now maruellouſlie decaied and impaired: and by occaſion thereof a great multitude of the kings liege people, which were maiſters and mariners of ſhips, and by the exerciſe thereof, they, their wiues and children had their liuing, be now miniſhed and impoueriſhed in ſuch wiſe, that within few yéeres there ſhall be few Engliſhmen that ſhall be expert in the ſeas, to the great perill of this realme, and decaie of the people of the ſame, if remedie be not prouided in this behalfe. In conſideration whereof the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, of his moſt excellent goodneſſe, hauing tender reſpect to the reformation of the premiſſes, is contented and pleaſed, that it be enacted by his highneſſe, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid eſtatutes and euerie thing in them conteined, ſhall ſtand in their full ſtrength, force and effect, ſo that from henſefoorth no perſon ſhall attempt to doo contrarie to the tenors of anie of the ſaid eſtatutes, vpon the paines conteined in the ſame.

And it is further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no maner of perſon or perſons ſhall diſcharge and laie on land out of anie ſhip or ſhips, or other veſſell or veſſels, anie wines of Gaſcoine or Guion, or anie maner of French wines, at anie hauen port, creeke, or other place within this realme of England, Ireland, Wales or the marches of the ſame, at anie time heereafter betweene the feaſts of S. Michaell the archangell, and the Purification of our ladie, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaid wines ſo brought in, and diſcharged and laid on land at anie time heereafter, betweene the ſaid feaſts contrarie to this act. The one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other halfe thereof to ſuch of the kings ſubiects as ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame, by action, detinue or debt, after the rate of the value thereof by originall writ, bill, plaint, or information in anie of the kings courts. In which actions and ſutes the defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, nor anie protection or eſſoine ſhall be allowed.

Priſes of ſweet wines.

And it is further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon after the feaſt of the Purification of our ladie, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God 1532, ſhall ſell by retaile anie of the ſaid wines, aboue eight penſe the gallon, that is to ſaie, a penie a pint, two penſe the quart, foure penſe the pottell, & eight penſe the gallon, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie pint to be ſold aboue the ſaid priſe foure penſe, and for euerie quart ſold aboue the ſaid priſe, eight penſe, and for euerie pottell ſo ſold aboue the ſaid priſe twelue penſe, and for euerie gallon ſo ſold aboue the ſaid priſe afore limited two ſhillings. And that no malmeſſes, romineis, ſackes, nor other ſweet wines, after the ſaid feaſt ſhall be retailed aboue twelue penſe the gallon, ſix penſe the pottell, three penſe the quart, and three halfe penſe the pint, vpon paine to loſe and forfeit three ſhillings foure penſe for euerie gallon, twentie penſe for euerie pottell, twelue penſe for euerie quart, and ſix penſe for euerie pint that ſhall be ſold contrarie to this act.

Proclamation

Prouided alwaie that the lord chancellor, lord treaſuror, lord preſident of the kings moſt honorable counſell, lord priuie ſeale, and the two cheefe iuſtices of either bench, or fiue, foure, or three of them, ſhall haue power and authoritie by their diſcretions to ſet the priſes of all kind of wines, that is to ſay, of the priſes of the but, tun, pipe, hogſhead, poncheon, terce, barrell, or rundlet, when it ſhall be ſold in groſſe, ſo that they or three of them cauſe the priſes by them ſet to be written, and open proclamation thereof to be made in the kings court of chancerie openlie in the terme time, or els in the citie, borough or towne, where anie ſuch wines ſhall be ſold in groſſe, anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding.

Forfeit

And it is further enacted, that if anie perſon or perſons, after ſuch priſes be ſet, and put in writing by the ſaid lord chancellor, lord treaſuror, lord preſident of the kings moſt honorable counſell, lord priuie ſeale, and the two cheefe iuſtices, or by fiue, foure, or three of them, and proclamation thereof had, as is aforeſaid, doo ſell anie wines in groſſe by anie fraud or couin, contrarie to the ſaid priſes ſo ſet and proclamed, that then euerie offendor in that behalfe ſhall loſe and forfeit for euerie veſſell by them ſold in groſſe contrarie to the ſaid priſes fortie ſhillings. The one halfe of all which forfeitures to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other halfe thereof, if it be within anie citie, borough or towne corporat, to be to the maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs, or other head rulers of ſuch cities, boroughs or townes corporat: and if it be without citie, borough or towne corporat, then to be to ſuch of the kings ſubiects as will ſue for the ſame. And that euerie ſuch forfeiture ſhall be recouered by originall writ of debt, bill, plaint or information, in which ſute no wager of law ſhall be admitted, nor anie protection or eſſoine allowed.

Iuſtices of peace. Head officers

Impriſonment

And it is alſo enacted, that the iuſtices of peace in euerie ſhire of this preſent realme, and all maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs, and other head officers in cities, boroughs and townes corporat, that is to ſaie, euerie of them within the limits of their commiſſions and authorities, as well within franchiſes as without, ſhall haue power and authoritie to examine, heare, inquire, and determine the defaults of ſuch as ſhall attempt to ſell anie wines in groſſe, or by retaile contrarie to this act, and to puniſh the offendors by impriſonment, or otherwiſe by their diſcretions.

Prouided alwaie that if it fortune anie ſhip or ſhips, veſſell or veſſels, laden with the ſaid wines of Gaſcoigne or Guion or French wines, at anie time heereafter to come to anie port, creeke, or hauen within this realme of England, Ireland, Wales or the marches of the ſame, betweene the ſaid feaſts of S. Michaell the archangell, & the Purification of our ladie, & then the veſſels conteining the ſaid wines, or the ſhip or other veſſell or veſſels bearing the ſame, happen to fall in leke, that then it ſhall be lawfull to the owner or bringers thereof, at all times betweene the ſaid feaſts, to diſcharge the ſaid wines out of anie ſuch ſhip, veſſell or veſſels for the ſauing of them. So that the ſaid owner or owners of the ſaid wines, ſo diſcharging the ſame, make no ſale or other vtterance of them, at anie time betweene the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell, and the ſaid feaſt of the Purification of our ladie, anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding.

Contents of veſſels

And where as in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the firſt yeere of the reigne of king Richard the third, among other things it was eſtabliſhed, ordeined and enacted, that euerie tun of wine ſhould conteine two hundred nine and fiftie gallons, euerie but of malmeſie ſhould conteine an hundred and ſix and twentie gallons, euerie pipe an hundred and ſix and twentie gallons, euerie tertian or poncheon fourescore & foure gallons, euerie hogſhead, threeſcore and three gallons, euerie tierce xlij.gallons; & euerie barrell xxxj.gallons & halfe, & euerie rondlet, xviij.gallons & halfe. And that no veſſell ſhould be put to ſale till it were gaged, vpon paine of forfeiture, as by the ſame eſtatute it doth appeere more at large. Neuertheles great deceipt is dailie vſed in ſelling of wines and oils in caſks and veſſels not bearing the contents aboue limited, to the great loſſe of the kings poore ſubiects. For remedie whereof be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid eſtatute made in the firſt yeere of king Richard the third, and all other eſtatutes heeretofore made for true gaging and meaſuring of wines, oiles, honie, or anie other licours, which eſtatutes before this time be not repelled nor expired, ſhall ſtand in their ſtrength and vertue and be put in due execution according to their tenors and effects in euerie behalfe.

Gageor

And ouer that be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that euerie gager within this realme, ſhall trulie and effectuallie within the limits of his office, gage all the ſaid tuns, buts, pipes, terces, poncheons, tercians, barrels, hogſheads and rundlets, and ſhall plainelie and trulie marke vpon the head of euerie ſuch veſſell the content of the ſame, vpon paine to forfeit to the partie, to whoſe vſe the wine, oile, or other thing therein being, ſhall be ſold, foure times the value of that, that the veſſell ſo marked ſhall lacke of his lawfull content aboue written. The ſame forfeiture to be recouered, ouer and beſides the coſts of the ſute by the kings originall writ, or by bill, in anie of the kings courts of his common lawes, or in anie competent court hauing iuriſdiction in the place, where that offenſe ſhall be committed, by action or bill of debt, in which action or ſute none eſſoine, protection, nor wager of law ſhall be accepted, admitted, or allowed to the defendant or defendants. And that euerie merchant or other perſon ſelling the ſaid wine, oile, or other thing conteined in the ſaid veſſell marked, ſhall allow of the priſe therof to the buier of the ſame for euerie quantitie of wine, oile or other thing conteined in the ſaid marked veſſels, the full value of the lacke thereof, being by reaſon of default of full gage of the veſſell, marked, or of default of filling the ſame veſſell, or by reaſon of default of anie of them after the rate of the whole priſe of the wine, oile, or other thing ſo being ſold by that veſſell marked. And that vpon paine of forfeiture to the ſame buier the double value of the ſame veſſell and wine, oile, or other thing therein being ſold, the ſame forfeiture to be recouered togither with the coſts of the ſute in maner and forme as the forfeiture laſt before written, is limited to be recouered. This act to continue vnto the laſt date of the next parlement.

An act concerning the amending and maintenance of the hauens and ports of Plimmouth, Dartmouth, Teingmouth, Falmouth and Foweie, in the counties of Deuonſhire and Cornewall.

Chap.8.

PIteouſlie ſheweth and complaineth vnto the king our ſoueraigne lord, and to the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, the inhabitants of the townes and ports of Plimmouth, Dartmouth and Teingmouth, in the countie of Deuonſhire, Falmouth and Foweie in the countie of Cornewall, that where the ſaid ports haue béene in times paſt, the principall and moſt commodious hauens and ports within this realme, for the rode, ſuertie, & preſeruation of ſhips reſorting from all places of the world, as well in perill of ſtormes as otherwiſe. For where before this time all maner of ſhips being vnder the portage of eight hundred tuns, reſorting vnto anie of the ſaid ports or hauens, might at the low water eaſilie enter into the ſame, and there lie in ſuretie what wind or tempeſt ſo euer did blow. By reaſon whereof not onelie a great multitude of ſhips, as well of this realme, as of other regions and countries before this time haue béene preſerued and ſaued, but alſo in time of war the ſaid hauens and ports, haue béene the greateſt fortification and defenſe of that part of this realme, and the ſpeciall preſeruation of the great part of the nauie of the ſame: which ſaid ports and hauens béene at this preſent time in maner vtterlie decaied and deſtroied, by meane of certeine tin works, called ſtreme works, vſed by certeine perſons within the ſaid counties, which perſons more regarding their owne priuat lucre, than the commonwealth and ſuretie of this realme, haue by working of the ſaid ſtreame works, digging, ſearching and waſhing of the ſame néere vnto the freſh riuers, waters, and low places, diſcending and comming out of the land, towards and into the ſaid ports and hauens to the ſea, conueied by the force of the ſaid freſh riuers, a maruelous great quantitie of ſand, grauell, ſtone, robbell, earth, ſlime, and filth in the ſaid ports and hauens, and haue ſo filled and choked the ſame, that where before this time a ſhip of the portage of eight hundred, as is aforeſaid, might haue eaſilie entred at a low water into the ſame, now a ſhip of a hundred can ſcantlie enter at the halfe floud, to the decaie and vtter deſtruction of the ſaid hauens and ports, and alſo to the ruine and vtter vndoing of all the good townes within the ſaid counties of Deuonſhire and Cornewall, if remedie be not in that caſe ſpéedilie prouided. For reformation whereof be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that no perſon or perſons héereafter ſhall labor or worke, or cauſe to be labored or wrought in anie maner of tin works, called ſtreame works, within the ſaid counties of Deuonſhire or Cornewall, nigh to anie of the ſaid freſh waters, riuers or low places, diſcending or hauing courſe vnto the ſaid hauens or ports, or anie of them, nor ſhall labor, dig, or waſh anie tin, in anie of the ſaid tin works, called ſtreame works, vnleſſe the ſaid digger, owner, or waſher, ſhall make or cauſe to be made, ſufficient hatches and ties in the end of their buddels and cords, and therein therein put and laie or cauſe to be put & laid, all the ſand, ſtones, grauell, and robbell digged about the inſearching, finding, and waſhing of the ſaid tin, there to be wholie & ſurelie kept, by the ſaid hatches and ties out and from the ſaid freſh riuers or water courſes, or anie of them, ſo that the ſaid ſand, ſtones, grauell, and robbell, ne anie part thereof be for lacke of ſuch hatches or ties, conueied into the ſaid ports and hauens or anie of them, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie time, that anie owner or tinner ſhall dig or waſh, or cauſe to be digged or waſhed anie tin contrarie to the forme aforeſaid, ten pounds. The one halfe thereof to be to the vſe of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other halfe thereof to be to anie of the inhabitants of the ſaid ports, townes or hauens that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts, by originall writ, bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe, wherein the defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, ne anie protection or eſſoine ſhall be allowable.

Forfeit

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons ſhall happen to be ſued, accuſed, indicted, impriſoned, amerced, condemned or otherwiſe vexed or troubled in his perſon, lands, tinworks, goods or chattels, by anie of the miniſters or officers of anie the kings courts of ſtannerie, or by anie other perſon or perſons, for purſuing or attempting anie ſute or action according to this eſtatute, againſt ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall offend contrarie to the forme aforeſaid, that then all ſuch ſutes, accuſements, indictments, impriſonments, actions, condemnations, fines, amerciaments, and euerie other act or acts to be doone in anie of the ſaid courts of ſtannerie, or els where, by anie perſon or perſons, againſt anie perſon or perſons for ſuing or attempting anie ſutes or actions by vertue of this eſtatute, ſhall be vtterlie void and of none effect in the law. And that the parties ſued, indicted, accuſed, impriſoned, or otherwiſe greeued or moleſted, for purſuing againſt anie perſon or perſons offending in this eſtatute, ſhall haue his action and remedie grounded vpon this ſtatute by originall writ, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe in anie of the kings courts, againſt ſuch as ſhall procure or attempt to vex, trouble, or otherwiſe moleſt anie ſuch perſon or perſons, for ſuing or purſuing for the forfeitures aforeſaid: and ſhall recouer treble damages in that behalfe. And the partie defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, ne anie protection eſſoine nor priuilege ſhall be to him allowable. And if it ſhall happen anie perſon or perſons for purſuing anie ſute or action vpon this eſtatute, or by occaſion of the ſame héereafter to be impriſoned by anie maner perſon or perſons, being officers or miniſters of the ſtannerie, their deputies or ſubſtitutes, that then euerie of the iuſtices of peace within anie of of the counties aforeſaid, wherein the ſaid priſoner ſhall happen to be committed to priſon vpon credible information, thereof taking ſuretie by his diſcretion for apparance of ſuch priſoner at the next generall ſeſſions of peace, ſhall haue power and authoritie as well to direct his warrant to the gaoler or kéeper of the priſon, as to anie other perſon or perſons, whom the ſaid priſoner ſhall be committed vnto, commanding him or them vpon paine of forfeiture of fortie pounds, to deliuer and put at large the ſaid priſoner or priſoners: which if he refuſe ſo to doo, then euerie ſuch offendor ſhall looſe and forfeit the ſaid fortie pounds, the one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the vſe of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other halfe to him that is gréeued by reaſon of ſuch impriſonment, to be recouered in maner and forme aforeſaid: and the defendant in anie action or ſute for the ſame ſhall not wage his law, ne haue anie eſſoine or protection allowed. And if it ſhall appéere vpon the apparance of ſuch priſoner at the quarter ſeſſions by examination of the iuſtices of peace there being, that he was impriſoned contrarie to the forme of this eſtatute, that then he ſhall be forthwith diſmiſſed and thereby diſcharged. And if he were lawfullie impriſoned, for anie other iuſt cauſe, then to be remanded to priſon by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices.

Damages

Prouided alwaie that this act or anie thing therein conteined be not in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie of the officers of the ſtannerie, ne to anie of their lawfull liberties, priuileges, vſages, lawes, or cuſtomes, ſauing onelie in the caſes and prouiſions conteined and limited within this preſent act, which ſhall alwaie be put in execution according to the tenor of this act, anie vſage, cuſtome, priuilege, ordinance or libertie to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Officers

And it is enacted, that this act ſhall begin to take effect from the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell next comming, and not before.

An act that no perſon ſhall be cited out of the dioces, where he or ſhe dwelleth, except in certeine caſes.

Chap.9.

WHere great number of the kings ſubiects, as well men, wiues, ſeruants, as other the kings ſubiects dwelling in diuerſe dioceſſes of this realme of England and of Wales, héeretofore haue béene at manie times called by citations, and other proceſſes compulſaries to appéere in the arches audience, and other high courts of the archbiſhops of this realme, far from & out of the dioceſſe, where ſuch men, wiues, ſeruants, and other the kings ſubiects béene inhabitant and dwelling, and manie times to anſwer to ſurmiſed and fained cauſes and ſutes of defamation, withholding of tithes and ſuch other like cauſes and matters, which haue béene ſued more for malice and for vexation, than for anie iuſt cauſe of ſute. And where certificat hath béene made by the ſumnor, apparator, or anie ſuch light literat perſon that the partie againſt whom anie ſuch citation hath béene awarded, hath béene cited or ſummoned, and therevpon the ſame partie ſo certified to be cited or ſummoned, hath not appéered according to the certificat, the ſame partie therefore hath béene excommunicated, or at the leaſt ſuſpended from all diuine ſeruice: and therevpon before that he, or ſhe could be abſolued, hath béene compelled not onlie to paie the fées of the court, wherevnto he or ſhe was ſo called by citation or other proceſſe, amounting to the ſum of ij.s. or xx.d. at the leaſt: but alſo to paie to the ſumnor, apparator or other light literat perſon, by whom he or ſhe was ſo certified to be ſo ſummoned, for euerie mile being diſtant from the place where he or ſhe then dwelled vnto the ſame court, wherevnto he or ſhe was ſo cited or ſummoned to appéere, two penſe, to the great occaſion of impoueriſhment of the kings ſubiects, and to the great occaſion of miſbehauior and miſliuing of wiues, women and ſeruants, and to the great impairement and diminution of their good names and honeſties. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that no maner perſon ſhalbe from henſeforth cited or ſummoned, or otherwiſe called to appéere by himſelfe or hirſelfe, or by anie procurator before anie ordinarie, archdeacon, commiſſarie, officiall, or anie other iudge ſpirituall out of the dioceſſe or peculiar iuriſdiction, where the perſon, which ſhall be cited ſummoned or otherwiſe (as is abouesaid) called, ſhall be inhabiting and dwelling at the time of awarding or going forth of the ſame citation or ſummons: except that it ſhall be, for, in, or vpon anie of the caſes or cauſes héereafter written: that is to ſaie, for anie ſpirituall offenſe or cauſe committed or doone, or omitted, forſlowed or neglected to be doone contrarie to right or dutie by the biſhop, archdeacon, commiſſarie, officiall, or other perſon hauing ſpirituall iuriſdiction, or being a ſpirituall iudge, or by anie other perſon or perſons within the dioceſſe or other iuriſdiction, wherevnto he or ſhe ſhall be cited, or otherwiſe lawfullie called to appéere and anſwer. And except alſo it ſhall be by or vpon matter or cauſe of appeale, or for other lawfull cauſe, wherein anie partie ſhall find himſelfe or hirſelfe gréeued or wronged by the ordinarie, iudge, or iudges of the dioces or iuriſdiction, or by anie of his ſubſtitutes, officers or miniſters, after the matter or cauſe there firſt commenſed and begun, to be ſhewed vnto the archbiſhop or biſhop, or anie other hauing peculiar iuriſdiction, within whoſe prouince the dioces or place peculiar is: or in caſe that the biſhop or other immediat iudge or ordinarie dare not, nor will not conuent the partie to be ſued before him: or in caſe that the biſhop of the dioces, or the iudge of the place, within whoſe iuriſdiction or before whom the ſute by this act ſhould be commenſed and proſecuted be partie directlie or indirectlie to the matter or cauſe of the ſame ſute: or in caſe that anie biſhop, or anie inferior iudge, hauing vnder him iuriſdiction in his owne right and title, or by commiſſion make requeſt or inſtance to the archbiſhop, biſhop or other ſuperior, ordinarie or iudge, to take, treat, examine, or determine the matter before him or his ſubſtitute, and that to be doone in caſes onelie where the law ciuill or canon doth affirme, execution of ſuch requeſt or inſtance of iuriſdiction to be lawfull or tollerable, vpon paine of forfeiture to euerie perſon by anie ordinarie, commiſſarie, officiall, or ſubſtitute by vertue of his office, or at the ſute to anie perſon to be cited or otherwiſe ſummoned or called contrarie to this act, of double damages and coſts for the vexation in that behalfe ſuſteined, to be recouered againſt anie ſuch ordinarie, commiſſarie, archdeacon, officiall, or other iudge, as ſhall award or make proceſſe, or otherwiſe attempt or procure to doo anie thing contrarie to this act, by action of debt, or action vpon the caſe, according to the courſe of the common law of this realme in anie of the kings high courts, or in anie other competent temporall court of record, by originall writ of debt, bill or plaint. In which action no protection other than ſuch as ſhall be made vnder the kings great ſeale, and ſigned with his ſigne manuell, ſhall be allowed, neither anie wager of law nor eſſoine ſhall be admitted. And vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie perſon ſo ſummoned, cited, or otherwiſe called (as is abouesaid) to anſwer before anie ſpirituall iudge out of the dioces or other iuriſdiction where the ſaid perſon ſo dwelleth, or is reſident or abiding ten pounds ſterling. The one halfe thereof to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to anie perſon that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings ſaid courts, or in anie other the ſaid temporall courts, by writ, information, bill, or plaint. In which action no protection ſhall be allowed, nor wager of law, nor eſſoine ſhall be admitted.

Uoid

Pꝛouided alwaie that it ſhalbe lawfull to euerie perſon being ſeized of anie manoꝛs, lands, tenements oꝛ hereditaments to his owne pꝛoper vſe, oꝛ hauing feoffées, recoueries, oꝛ cogniſées to his vſe, to make, oꝛdeine, oꝛ deuiſe, oꝛ cauſe to be made, oꝛdeined oꝛ deuiſed anie of the vſes, intents oꝛ purpoſes aboue ſpecified, in ſuch maner as they might haue doone afoꝛe the making of this act, and as if this act had neuer béene had ne made: ſo that no ſuch vſes, intents oꝛ purpoſes, to be made, oꝛdeined, oꝛ deuiſed, after the ſaid firſt daie of March, be not in anie wiſe made, oꝛdeined, deuiſed oꝛ appointed to indure, continue, oꝛ abide by anie craft, colour, termes, ſentences, clauſes, woꝛds, oꝛ other meanes, aboue the terme of twentie yéeres, next after the firſt making and beginning of anie ſuch vſes, intents, oꝛ purpoſes.

20 yéeres

And it is further enacted, that if anie perſon oꝛ perſons in defraud of this eſtatute, bind oꝛ oꝛdeine anie their heires oꝛ ſucceſſoꝛs, oꝛ anie other perſon oꝛ perſons, that they ſhall ſuffer ſuch vſes, intents oꝛ purpoſes, to indure and continue contrarie to this act, vpon paines oꝛ penalties of loſſes of anie other lands, tenements oꝛ hereditaments, oꝛ of anie other thing oꝛ things, oꝛ doo attempt oꝛ deuiſe by anie colour, craft oꝛ meanes, anie thing oꝛ things, to make anie ſuch vſes, intents oꝛ purpoſes to be declared, contrarie to the true meaning of this act, to continue oꝛ abide foꝛ anie longer time oꝛ ſeaſon than is aboue limited foꝛ the ſame: that then euerie ſuch paine, penaltie, craft, colour, and euerie other thing and things, of what kind, nature, oꝛ qualitie ſoeuer it be, that ſhall be ſo made, oꝛdeined, oꝛ deuiſed in defraud of this act, ſhall be vtterlie void in the law to all intents. And that this eſtatute ſhall be alwaies interpꝛeted and expounded, as beneficiallie as maie be to the deſtruction and vtter auoiding of ſuch vſes, intents and purpoſes therein aboue remembꝛed, and of all other like vſes and intents otherwiſe than alonelie after ſuch maner as is afoꝛe by this pꝛeſent act pꝛouided.

Pꝛouided alwaie that in ſuch cities and townes coꝛpoꝛat, whereby their ancient cuſtoms they haue good and lawfull authoꝛities to deuiſe into moꝛtmaine, the lands, tenements and hereditaments, within the ſame cities oꝛ townes coꝛpoꝛat, that this act ſhall not be in any wiſe pꝛeiudiciall oꝛ hurtfull to any ſuch cuſtome.

Cities

Moꝛtmaine

Pꝛouided alwaie that this act ne any thing therein conteined ſhall extend oꝛ be in anie wiſe pꝛeiudiciall to hinder oꝛ impaire anie ſuch oꝛdinances, deuiſes oꝛ declarations of vſes, as ſhall heereafter be made and declared in wꝛiting by the executoꝛs of the teſtaments and laſt wils of Robert Jannis and John Terrie, late aldermen of the citie of Noꝛwich, now deceaſed, oꝛ by the executoꝛs oꝛ ſuruiuoꝛ of the executoꝛs of either of them, of anie lands, tenements oꝛ hereditaments, not amounting in the whole aboue the cléere yéerelie value of foꝛtie pounds, to be imploied and conuerted to and foꝛ the diſcharge of tols and cuſtomes within the ſaid citie, and at the gates of the ſame, foꝛ the diſcharge of pooꝛe people within the ſame citie of taxes and tallages heereafter to be aſſeſſed and leuied, and foꝛ the clenſing of the ſtreats of the ſame citie, oꝛ foꝛ anie of the ſaid good purpoſes, accoꝛding to the true intents ⁊ meanings of the ſaid laſt wils ⁊ teſtaments, and of either of them: ſo that the ſame ordinances, deuiſes and declarations be had, made, and certified in writing into the kings court of chancerie within two yeeres next inſuing the feaſt of Eaſter next comming.

An act concerning breaking of priſon by clerkes conuict.

Chap.11.

Where diuers perſons being conuict of murther or felonie, hauing the priuilege of their clergie, and deliuered to the ordinaries, afterwards wilfullie breake the priſons of the ordinaries and eſcape their waies, dooing and committing great, horrible, and deteſtable offenſes, & as hitherto for ſuch wilfull breaking of priſons of ordinaries by clerks conuict, hath not bin prouided anie great penaltie, whereby they ſhould ſtand in dread of doing of the ſame. Be it therfore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie clerke conuict being in priſon of anie ordinarie, wilfullie breake the ſaid priſon, and eſcape his waie out of the ſame, that then euerie ſuch breaking of priſon and eſcape ſhall be from henſefoorth deemed & adiudged felonie, and the offendor therein ſhall haue and ſuffer ſuch paine of death and penaltie, and loſſe of his lands and goods, as for other felonies is accuſtomed by the lawes of this realme, and ſhall not in anie wiſe be admitted to haue the priuilege or benefit of his clergie, nor inioy anie ſanctuarie for the ſame.

Felonie

Prouided alwaie that if anie ſuch offendor be within holie orders, that is to ſaie, of the orders of ſubdeacon, deacon, or preeſthood, that then after he is conuict of the premiſſes he ſhall be deliuered of the ordinarie, there to remaine without anie purgation.

Diſgrade

And it is enacted, that it ſhall be at the libertie of the ordinarie to diſgrade anie ſuch offendor after he is found guiltie and deliuered to him, as a clerke conuict, and ſend him before the king in his bench with letters witneſſing the ſaid diſgrading, and therevpon the iuſtices of the kings bench hauing the record of his conuiction, ſhall haue power & authoritie to giue iudgement againſt euerie ſuch offendor being conuict and diſgraded, that ſhall ſuffer death, like as they might doo in caſe the ſame offendor had beene a laie man, and arreigned and found guiltie afore them of the ſaid offenſe, the deliuering of ſuch offendor afore to the ordinarie notwithſtanding.

An act for taking exactions vpon the paths of Seuerne.

Chap.12.

Where the kings ſubiects paſſing vpon the riuer and water of Seuerne, haue vſed time out of mind to haue and vſe a certeine path of a foot and a halfe broad on euery ſide of the riuer, for drawing vp by lines or ropes, their troughs, barges, botes and other veſſels, paſſing or repaſſing on the ſaid riuer of Seuerne, with wine or anie other merchandize, without anie impoſition, tax or toll to be demanded of them, that ſo ſhould carie wine in anie of the ſaid veſſels, for the ſaid paſſing and drawing in the ſaid paths accuſtomed, till now of late certeine couetous perſons haue perturbed and interrupted manie of the kings ſubiects, haling and drawing vp their veſſels in the ſaid paths, taking of them fines and draughts, and bottels of wine, and yet dailie doo vſe to the diſturbance and loſſe of manie of the kings ſubiects.

Toll

Forfeit

Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that no perſon or perſons interrupt by anie obſtacle, let or otherwiſe anie perſon or perſons paſſing or repaſſing on and vpon euerie of the ſaid paths accuſtomed, nor alſo aſke, take or demand anie toll called a draught, or bottell of wine, or anie other tax or impoſition of anie of the kings ſubiects there going in the ſaid paths accuſtomed, vpon euerie ſide of the riuer of Seuerne, there haling or drawing their botes, troughs, or veſſels, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie time that he or they ſhall interrupt anie of the kings ſubiects, or aſke or take anie ſuch impoſition, by what name ſo euer it be called fortie ſhillings. The one halfe thereof to be to the king our ſouereigne lord: and the other halfe to the partie greeued, that will ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe, in the which ſute no eſſoine, wager of law nor protection ſhall be allowed.

An act that men in cities, boroughs and townes, which be cleerelie worth fortie pounds in goods, ſhall paſſe in triall of murthers.

Chap.13.

For as much as triall in murders and felonies in cities, boroughs, and townes corporat within this realme, hauing authoritie to proceed in the deliuerance of ſuch offendors, beene oftentimes deferred and delaied by reaſon of challenge of ſuch offendors for lacke of ſufficiencie of freehold, to the great hinderance of iuſtice. It maie therefore be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that euerie perſon and perſons being the kings naturall ſubiect borne, which either by the name of a citizen, or of a freeman, or anie other name dooth inioy, and vſe the liberties and priuileges of anie citie, borough, or towne corporat, where he dwelleth and maketh his abode, being worth in mooueable goods and ſubſtance to the cleere value of fortie pounds, be from henſefoorth admitted in triall of murders and felonies in euerie ſeſſions and gaoles of deliuerie, to be keept and holden, in, and for the libertie of ſuch cities, boroughs, or townes corporat: albeit they haue no freehold, anie act, ſtatute, vſe, cuſtome or ordinance, to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding.

Knight Eſquier

Prouided alwaie, that this act doo not extend in anie maner of wiſe to anie knight or eſquire dwelling,abiding,or reſorting,in or to anie ſuch citie or borough corporat, anie thing in the ſame act mentioned or declared to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding.

Proceſſe of outlawrie to lie in actions of anno 5. Richard the ſecond in couenant and annuitie.

Chap. 14.

Forasmuch as there is great delaies in actions of treſpaſſe, brought vpon the ſtatute of king Richard the ſecond, made in the fift yéere of his reigne, againſt them that make entrées into anie lands or tenements, where their entrie is not giuen by the law: and alſo in actions of annuitie, and actions of couenant, bicauſe there lieth no proceſſe of outlawrie in ſuch nature of actions. For reformation wherof, it may pleaſe the kings highneſſe, by the aduiſe of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, to ordeine and enact, that like proceſſe be had héereafter in euerie action from henſeforth to be brought vpon the ſaid eſtatute of Anno quinto, as is in a common action of treſpaſſe at the common law, and that alſo like proceſſe be had in euerie writ of annuitie and couenant héereafter to be ſued, as in an action of debt.

Execution

Be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon or perſons at anie time after the feaſt of the Purification of our ladie, in the thrée and twentith yéere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, commenſe or ſue in anie court of record, or elſewhere in anie other court, anie action, bill, or plaint of treſpaſſe vpon the ſtatute of king Richard the ſecond, in the fift yéere of his reigne, for entrées into lands and tenements, where none entrée is giuen by the law, or anie action, bill, or plaint of debt, or couenant, vpon anie eſpecialtie, made to the plaintife or plaintifs, or vpon anie contract, ſuppoſed to be made betwéene the plaintife or plaintifs, and anie perſon or perſons, or anie action, bill, or plaint of detinue, of anie goods or chattels, whereof the plaintife or plaintifs ſhall ſuppoſe, that the propertie belongeth to them or to anie of them, or anie action, bill, or plaint of account, in the which the plaintife or plaintifs ſuppoſe the defendant or defendants to be their bailif or bailifs, receiuor or receiuors, of their manor, méeſe, monie or goods, to yéeld account, or anie action, bill or plaint vpon the caſe, or vpon anie ſtatute for anie offenſe or wrong perſonall, immediatlie ſuppoſed to be doone to the plaintife or plaintifs, and the plaintife or plaintifs in anie ſuch kind of action, bill, or plaint, after appearance of the defendant or defendants, be nonſuted, or that anie verdict happen to paſſe by lawfull triall againſt the plaintife or plaintifs, in anie ſuch action, bill, or plaint: that then the defendant or defendants in euerie ſuch action, bill, or plaint, ſhall haue iudgement to recouer his coſts againſt euerie ſuch plaintife or plaintifs. And that to be aſſeſſed and taxed by the diſcretion of the iudge or iudges of the court, where anie ſuch action, bill, or plaint, ſhall be commenſed, ſued, or taken. And alſo that euerie defendant in ſuch action, bill, or plaint, ſhall haue ſuch proceſſe, and execution for the recouerie and hauing of his coſts againſt the plaintife or plaintifs, as the ſame plaintife or plaintifs ſhould or might haue had againſt the defendant or defendants, in caſe that iudgement had béene giuen for the part of the ſaid plaintife or plaintifs, in anie ſuch action, bill, or plaint.

Poore.

Prouided alwaie, that all and euerie ſuch poore perſon or perſons, being plaintife or plaintifs, in anie of the ſaid actions or plaints, which at the commenſement of their ſutes or actions, be admitted by diſcretion of the iudge or iudges, where ſuch ſutes or actions ſhall be purſued or taken, to haue their proceſſe and counſell of charitie without anie monie or fée paieng for the ſame, ſhall not be compelled to paie anie coſts by vertue and force of this eſtatute, but ſhall ſuffer other puniſhment, as by the diſcretion of the iuſtices or iudge, afore whom ſuch ſutes ſhall depend, ſhall be thought reaſonable, anie thing afore rehearſed to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding.

An act that no Engliſhman ſhall ſell, exchange, or deliuer to be conueied into Scotland, anie horſſe, gelding, or mare, without the kings licence.

Chap.16.

Where before this time, diuerſe of the kings ſubiects, and namelie of the North parts of this realme, as well in time of peace as of war, haue ſold and deliuered out of this realme into Scotland, manie and diuerſe great multitude of horſſes, geldings, and mares, which hath béene thought not onelie great occaſion, ſtrength, and boldneſſe to the Scotiſhmen, hauing in poſſeſſion the ſame horſſes, geldings, and mares, in the time of war to inuade this realme, to the great detriment and hinderance of the kings poore ſubiects of this his realme, but alſo a great inféebling of the kings ſaid ſubiects, in the defenſe of the ſame.

Be it therefore enacted, by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie perſon or perſons, after the feaſt of ſaint George the martyr next comming, ſell, exchange or deliuer, within their realme of Scotland, or in anie place or ground, called the batable ground betwéene England and Scotland, to the vſe of anie Scotiſhman, anie horſſe, gelding, or mare, without licence obteined of the kings highneſſe by his letters patents, vnder his great ſeale ſo to doo, or ſell, exchange, or deliuer to anie Scotiſhman within this realme of England, Wales, the towne of Barwike, or marches of the ſame, or in anie of the ſaid batable ground, to the intent to be conueied into Scotland, anie horſſe, gelding, or mare, without ſpeciall licence obteined of the kings highneſſe, by his letters patents, vnder his great ſeale ſo to doo: that then the ſame ſale, exchange, or deliuerie of ſuch horſſe, Felonie. gelding, or mare, contrarie to this preſent act, ſhall be adiudged and deemed by the law, felonie, aſwell in the ſeller, exchanger, or deliuerer, as alſo in him or them to whom the ſame ſale, exchange, or deliuerie ſhall be made. And that it ſhall be lawfull, as well to the warden and wardens of the eaſt, weſt, and middle marches for the time being, in their warden courts, as alſo to the kings iuſtices of his peace, in their quarter ſeſſions in euerie ſhire of this realme, to inquire, heare, and determine, all and euerie ſuch felonies, after like maner as is vſed in other felonies, at the common law, whether the ſame ſales, exchanges, or deliueries be made, had, or doone, by anie perſon or perſons, contrarie to this act in the realme of Scotland, or in anie part of the ſaid batable grounds, or within the realme of England, Wales, Barwike, or marches of the ſame. And that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon and perſons, being the kings ſubiects, and inhabiting in the foreſaid marches, for againſt Scotland, to arreſt anie Scotiſhman, leading or conueieng anie ſuch horſſe, gelding, or mare, out of this realme into the ſaid realme of Scotland: and that the moitie or one halfe of the priſe of the ſaid horſſe, gelding, or mare, ſhall be to the vſe of the ſeizor and arreſtor of the ſame, after due triall of the ſame made. And the other moitie to the kings highneſſe.

An act concerning the true winding of wools.

Chap.17. Be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, with the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that from henſefoorth, no maner perſon nor perſons, doo wind or cauſe to be woond, anie fleece of wooll, being not ſufficientlie riuered or waſhed, ne wind or cauſe to be woond within anie fleece, claie, lead, ſtones, ſand, tailes, deceiptfull locks, cot, calles, combre, lambs wooll, or anie other thing, whereby the fleece maie be the more weightie, to the deceipt and loſſe of the buier, vpon paine the ſeller of anie ſuch deceiptfull wools, to forfeit for euerie ſuch fleece ſix penſe, the one moitie to the king, the other to the finder and prouer of the ſame deceipt, by action of debt, by originall writ, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe, in anie of the kings courts, in which action, no wager of law, eſſoine, ne protection, ſhall be allowed for the defendant.

Prouided alwaie, that this act concerning riuering and waſhing of anie wooll, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to anie ſhire or ſhires, the inhabitants whereof hath not cuſtomablie vſed before this time, to riuer or waſh their ſheepe afore they be ſhorne, nor ſhall in anie wiſe be hurtfull or preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons, that hath vſed cuſtomablie to ſell their wools by tale or number of the fleece or fleeces, and not by weight, anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding. This act to indure to the next parlement.

An act concerning pulling downe and auoiding of fiſhgarths, piles, ſtakes, heckes, and other engins ſet in the riuer and water of Ouſe and Humber.

Chap. 18 The maior, ſhirifs, and commonaltie of the citie of Yorke, and other the kings true ſubiects, inhabiting and dwelling nigh vnto the riuer of Ouſe, and the water of Humber, and all other occupiers of the ſame riuer and water, lamentablie complaining, ſhewen vnto our ſouereigne lord the king, the lords ſpirituall and temporall and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that where the ſaid citie being one of the moſt ancient cities of this realme, hath beene much releeued, mainteined, and ſupported by the ſaid riuer of Ouſe and water of Humber, which be the common and direct paſſage and waie from Hull vnto Yorke aforeſaid, by reaſon that manie ſhips, keiles, cogs and botes and other veſſels haue heretofore had their franke paſſages without let, impediment, or interruption, in and vpon the ſaid riuer and water of Ouſe and Humber, from diuerſe parts of this realme vnto the ſaid citie, whereby the ſaid citie hath hitherto moſt cheefelie beene aduanced: and now of late certeine perſons, ſtudieng onelie for their owne priuat lucre, not regarding the common weale, but dailie imagining the vtter deſtruction, ruine, and decaie of the ſaid citie, and the countries adioining vpon the ſaid riuer of Ouſe and water of Humber, and occupiers thereof, hath, and dailie doo keepe, preſerue, and mainteine, certeine engins for taking of fiſh in the ſaid riuer and water of Ouſe and Humber, commonlie called fiſhgarths, and ſet in the ſaid riuer and water in ſuch places of the ſame, where ſhips ſhould haue their liberall and direct paſſage in the middeſt of the ſtreame of the ſaid riuer of Ouſe, and water of Humber, ſtakes, piles, and other things, in and vpon the common paſſage for ſhips, keiles, cogs, botes, and other veſſels, at diuerſe and manie places in the ſaid riuer of Ouſe and water of Humber: by reaſon whereof, not onelie the ſaid ſhips, keiles, cogs, botes, and other veſſels, are dailie in ieoperdie, and men, children, goods, and merchandizes in the ſame, of late haue beene, and dailie be like more to increaſe, to be drowned, ſlaine, and deſtroied, but alſo brood and frie of fiſh in the ſaid riuer and water of Ouſe and Humber, be commonlie thereby deſtroied and putrified, to the vtter impoueriſhment and deſtruction of the ſaid citie, vnleſſe ſpeedie remedie be in this behalfe ſhortlie prouided. Wherefore it maie pleaſe our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent L. chancel. parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the lord chancellor of England, for the time being, by the kings commiſſion vnder his great ſeale, afore the firſt daie of Maie now next con-comming, ſhall by his diſcretion, appoint eight ſad and diſcreet perſons, whereof foure of them to be of the citizens of the ſaid citie of Yorke, and burgeſſes of the ſaid towne of Hull, and the other foure to be two of them iuſtices of the peace of the weſt riding of the countie of Yorke, and the other two iuſtices of peace of the eaſt riding of the ſame countie, that the eight, ſeauen, ſix, fiue, or foure of them, whereof two of them to be of the ſaid citizens and burgeſſes of the ſaid citie & towne and other two to be, one of them iuſtice of the peace of the weſt riding, and the other of the eaſt riding of the ſaid countie, on this ſide the firſt daie of Iune, now next inſuing, ſhall haue power and authoritie to ſurueie and ſee the ſame fiſhgarths, weres, piles, ſtakes, and other engins, ſet and made in the ſaid riuer and water of Duſe and Humber: which ſaid perſons ſo aſſigned, ſhall haue power and authoritie, by vertue of this act, to appoint and aſſigne by their diſcretions, the owners of the ſaid fiſhgarths, ſtakes, piles, and other engins, to auoid and pull vp, or cauſe to be auoided and pulled vp within fortie daies after ſuch ſurueiance made, and admonition giuen to the ſaid owners, euen ſuch, and as much of the ſaid fiſhgarths, piles, ſtakes, hecks, and other engins, which then by their diſcretions ſhall be thought expedient, meet, and conuenient to be auoided and pulled vp, that the ſaid ſhips, keiles, cogs, botes, and other veſſels, paſſing and repaſſing on the ſaid riuer and water of Duſe and Humber, to or from the ſaid citie of Yorke and towne of Hull, maie haue direct, liberall, and franke paſſage, in, through, or vpon the ſaid riuer of Duſe and water of Humber, without anie perturbance, impediment, let, or danger, by reaſon of anie of the ſaid fiſhgarths, piles, ſtakes, or other engins, then left erected, and ſtanding in the ſaid riuer and water of Duſe and Humber, and that the ſaid owners on euerie ſide of the ſaid fiſhgarths, and other engins next to the middle of the ſaid water ſtreame, and paſſage of the ſaid veſſels, there to ſet, or cauſe to be ſet, within the ſaid fortie daies before limited, two piles, of the length of one yard ouer and aboue the high water marke, at the full ſea of the ſaid riuer and water of the ſpring tide, there to be and remaine, and to be kept and repaired by the ſaid owners, when need ſhall require the ſame for euer, that ſuch perſons as ſhall paſſe and repaſſe with ſhips, keiles, cogs, and other veſſels, in the ſame waters, maie haue perfect knowledge and ſight of the direct waie and paſſage in the ſaid waters, through the ſaid fiſhgarths and engins for the ſaid ſhips, keiles, botes, and other veſſels.

L. chancel.

And be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that the lord chancellor of England for the time being, at all times after the ſaid firſt ſurueiance, vpon requeſt to him to be made by the maior and commonaltie of the ſaid citie and towne, or by anie other citizen and burgeſſe of the ſaid citie and towne, for the time being, or other perſon by them vnder the common ſeales of the ſaid citie and towne authorized, ſhall haue power and authoritie by his diſcretion, to make & direct like commiſſions vnto eight ſad & diſcreet perſons, whereof foure of them to be the citizens and inhabitants of the ſaid citie and towne, and the other foure to be iuſtices of the peace, the one of the weſt riding, and the other of the eaſt riding of the countie of Yorke, not of fee nor reteined with the ſaid citie nor towne, that the viij. vij. vj. v. or iiij. of them, whereof two of them ſhall be of the ſaid citie and towne the other two iuſtices of peace, the one of the eaſt riding, and the other of the riding of the ſaid countie, by vertue of the ſaid commiſſion, ſhall and maie the ſaid owners aſſigne and appoint, to pull vp and redreſſe, or cauſe to be pulled vp and redreſſed, within thirtie daies after admonition giuen to the ſaid owners, by the ſaid commiſſioners, or by ſuch of them taking the charge of the execution of the ſaid commiſſion, ſuch and as much of the ſaid fiſhgarths, and other impediments to be made in the ſaid waters, to the let, diſturbance, damage, or ieoperdie of anie ſhips, keiles, botes, or anie other veſſels, paſſing or repaſſing, to or from the ſaid citie of Yorke, to the ſaid towne of Hull, as by them ſhall be thought meet and conuenient.

Commiſſi.

Nets.

And further be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that no maner of perſon or perſons, within the ſaid riuer and water of Duſe and Humber, ſhall ſet fiſhgarths, or anie other engins to take fiſh withall, within the waters aforeſaid, but onelie with ſuch nets and other engins, as ſhall be of aſſiſe and meaſure, according to the ſtandard, and ancient & laudable cuſtoms vſed in the ſaid riuer and water of Duſe and Humber, and alſo to vſe the fiſhing within the ſaid waters, all ſuch times as within the ſame hath of old time beene accuſtomed, and at none other time.

Forfeit.

And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie of the ſaid owners and occupiers of ſuch fiſhgarths, for euerie moneth offending contrarie to this act, ſhall forfeit 40 pounds. And euerie other perſon in fiſhing contrarie to this act, offending, ſhall forfeit ten pounds, the one halfe of which penaltie and penalties, to be to our ſouereigne lord the king, and the other halfe to the maior and commonaltie of the ſaid citie of Yorke, and their ſucceſſors, and the ſame to be recouered againſt euerie perſon and perſons ſo offending, as well by bill, information, or otherwiſe at the kings ſute, as by originall writ of debt at the ſute of the ſaid maior and commonaltie, and their ſucceſſors, in which action, the partie defendant ſhall not wage his law, nor haue anie protection or eſſoine allowed.

An act concerning the kings gratious and free pardon, for his ſpirituall ſubiects within the prouince of Yorke.

Chap. 19.

THe king our ſouereigne lord, calling to his bleſſed and moſt gratious remembrance, that his good and louing ſubiects, the moſt reuerend father in God, Edward archbiſhop of Yorke, and other biſhops, ſuffragans, prelats, and other ſpirituall perſons of the prouince of the archbiſhopꝛike of Yoꝛke, of this realme of England,and the miniſters vnder wꝛitten,which haue exerciſed,pꝛactiſed,oꝛ executed, in ſpirituall courts, and other ſpirituall iuriſdictions, within the ſaid pꝛouince,haue fallen and incurred into diuerſe dangers of his lawes,by things doone, perpetrated and committed,contrarie to the oꝛder of his lawes,and ſpeciallie contrarie to the foꝛme of the ſtatutes of pꝛouiſoꝛs,pꝛouiſions,and pꝛemunire.

And his highneſſe,hauing alwaies tender eie with mercie,pitie,and compaſſion, towards his ſaid ſpirituall ſubiects,minding of his high goodneſſe and great benignitie, ſo alwaies to impart the ſame vnto them,as iuſtice being dailie adminiſtred,all rigoꝛ be excluded, and the great beneuolent minds of his ſaid ſubiects, largelie and manie times appꝛoued towards his highneſſe, and ſpeciallie at their conuocation and ſynod,holden in the chapter houſe of the metropolitane church of Yoꝛke by coꝛreſpondence of gratitude to them to be requited,of his mére motion, benignitie, and liberalitie, by authoꝛitie of this his pꝛeſent parlement, hath giuen and granted his liberall and frée pardon to his ſaid good and louing ſpirituall ſubiects, and the ſaid miniſters, and to euerie of them,to be had,taken,and inioied,to and by them,and euerie of them, by vertue of this pꝛeſent act,in maner and foꝛme inſuing.That is wit. The kings highneſſe of his ſaid benignitie and high liberalitie,in conſideration that the ſaid archbiſhop, biſhops, and cleargie of the ſaid pꝛouince of Yoꝛke,in their ſaid conuocation,haue giuen and granted to him a ſubſidie of eightéene thouſand, eight hundꝛed,foꝛtie pounds,and ten penſe, of lawfull monie currant in this realme to be leuied and collected by the ſaid cleargie,at their pꝛoper coſts and charges,and to be paid in certeine foꝛme ſpecified in their ſaid grant thereof,is fullie and reſolutelie contented and pleaſed, that it be oꝛdeined,eſtabliſhed,and enacted,by authoꝛitie of this ſaid parlement, that the moſt reuerend father in God,Edward archbiſhop of Yoꝛke,metropolitane and pꝛimat of England, and all other biſhops and ſuffragans, pꝛelats, abbats, pꝛioꝛs, and other conuents, and euerie perſon of the ſame conuents coꝛpoꝛat, abbeſſes, pꝛioꝛeſſes, and religious nuns, and all other religious and ſpirituall perſons,deans and chapters, and other dignities of cathedꝛall and collegiat churches, pꝛebendaries, canons,and petie canons, vicars,and clerks of the ſame, and euerie perſon of the ſame, all archdeacons,maiſters,pꝛouoſts,pꝛeſidents,wardens of colleges, and of collegiat churches, maiſters, and wardens of hoſpitals,all fellows,bꝛethꝛen,ſcholers,pꝛéeſts,and ſpirituall conducts,and euerie of the ſame,and all vicars generall of dioceſſes,chancelloꝛs, commiſſaries, officials, and deanes, rurals,and all miniſters héereafter generallie rehearſed of anie ſpirituall court oꝛ courts within the ſaid pꝛouince of Yoꝛke : that is to ſaie,all iudges,aduocats, regiſters and ſcribes,pꝛoctoꝛs conſtituted to iudgements, and apparatoꝛs,and all other, which within the ſaid pꝛouince of the archbiſhopꝛike of Yoꝛke,at anie time héeretofoꝛe haue adminiſtred,exerciſed, pꝛactiſed, oꝛ executed in anie iuriſdictions within the ſaid pꝛouince,as officers and miniſters of the ſaid courts,oꝛ haue béene miniſters oꝛ executoꝛs to the exerciſe oꝛ adminiſtration of the ſame. And all and ſingular politike bodies ſpirituall,in any maner of wiſe coꝛpoꝛated,and all parſons,vicars,curats,chantrie pꝛéeſts, ſtipendaries,and all and euerie perſon and perſons ſpirituall,of the clergie of the ſaid pꝛouince of Yoꝛke,in this pꝛeſent act of pardon, héereafter not excepted, oꝛ to the contrarie not pꝛouided foꝛ, by whatſoeuer name oꝛ ſurname,name of dignitie,pꝛeheminence oꝛ office,they oꝛ anie of them be oꝛ is named oꝛ called,the ſucceſſoꝛs, heires,executoꝛs, and adminiſtratoꝛs of them and euerie of them,ſhall be by authoꝛitie of this pꝛeſent pardon, acquited, pardoned, releaſed, and diſcharged, againſt his highneſſe,his heires,ſucceſſoꝛs,and executoꝛs,and euerie of them,of all and all maner offenſes,contempts,and treſpaſſes,committed oꝛ doone againſt all and ſingular ſtatute & ſtatutes of pꝛouiſoꝛs,pꝛouiſions,and pꝛemunire,and euerie of them, and of all foꝛfeitures and titles that maie grow to the kings highneſſe,by reaſon of anie of the ſame ſtatutes. And of all and ſingular treſpaſſes,wꝛongs,deceipts,miſdemeanoꝛs,foꝛfeitures,penalties,& pꝛofits,ſums of monie,paines of death,paines coꝛpoꝛall & pecuniar,as generallie of all other things,cauſes,quarels,ſutes,iudgements and executions,in this pꝛeſent act héereafter not excepted noꝛ foꝛepꝛiſed, which maie be, oꝛ can be by his highneſſe in anie wiſe,oꝛ by anie meanes pardoned, befoꝛe and to the tenth daie of the moneth of March,in the xxij. yéere of his moſt noble reigne, to euerie of his ſaid louing ſubiects : that is to ſaie,to the ſaid archbiſhop and other the ſaid biſhops, ſuffragans, pꝛelats, abbats, pꝛioꝛs,and conuents,and euerie perſon of the ſame conuents, and conuents coꝛpoꝛat, and euerie perſon of the ſame conuents coꝛpoꝛat,abbeſſes.pꝛioꝛeſſes,nuns,& ſpirituall perſons in dignitie,and all other religious and ſpirituall perſons,deans,chapters,pꝛeſidents, pꝛebendaries, canons, petie canons,vicars,choꝛals and clerks,archdeacons,maiſters,pꝛouoſts,pꝛeſidents, wardens,felowes, bꝛethꝛen,ſcholers,pꝛéeſts,and ſpirituall conducts,chancelloꝛs,vicars,generall of dioceſſes,commiſſaries,officials,deanes,rurals,and all iudges, aduocates, regiſters and ſcribes,pꝛoctoꝛs & apparatoꝛs,which haue adminiſtred,pꝛactiſed,oꝛ executed,anie iuriſdiction, in anie ſpirituall court within the ſaid pꝛouince,and to the ſaid politike bodies,ſpirituall perſons,vicars.curats, chantrie pꝛéeſts, ſtipendaries,and to all and euerie other perſon and perſons ſpirituall,of the clergie of the ſaid pꝛouince,and to all and euerie other perſon and perſons befoꝛe named.

Alſo the kings highneſſe is contented, that it be enacted by authoꝛitie of this pꝛeſent parlement.that the ſaid frée pardon ſhall be as good and effectuall in the law to euerie of the ſaid ſpirituall ſubiects of the ſaid pꝛouince, and to euerie of them, and to the ſaid miniſters and euerie of them,and to all and euerie of the ſaid bodies coꝛpoꝛat,and other perſons befoꝛe named, and to euerie of them,by the generall woꝛds befoꝛe rehearſed in all things,which be not héereafter in this pꝛeſent ſent act excepted, as the ſaid pardon ſhould haue béene, if all offenſes, contempts, & forfeitures, cauſes, matters, ſutes, quarrels, iudgements, executions, penalties, and all other things not héereafter excepted, had béene particularlie, ſingularlie, and plainlie pardoned, named, rehearſed, and ſpecified, by proper or expreſſe words and names, in their kinds, natures, and qualities, in words and termes therevnto requiſit in the ſaid pardon. And that his ſaid ſubiects héereafter not excepted, nor anie of them, their ſaid miniſters, ſucceſſors, heires, executors, nor adminiſtrators, of anie of them, nor anie of them, nor anie of the ſaid bodies corporat, be nor ſhall be ſued, vexed, nor inquieted in their bodies, goods, lands, or chattels, for anie maner of matter, cauſe, contempt, miſdemeanor, forfeiture, treſpaſſe, offenſe, or anie other thing, ſuffered, done or committed, before the ſaid tenth day of March, againſt the kings highneſſe, his crowne, prerogatiue, lawes, ſtatutes, or dignitie, but onlie for ſuch cauſes, matters, and offenſes, as be ſpeciallie and plainlie rehearſed, in the exceptions, forepriſes, and prouiſions, in this preſent pardon héereafter mentioned, and for none other, anie ſtatute or ſtatutes, lawes, cuſtoms, vſe, or preſident, héeretofore made or vſed to the contrarie, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Alſo the kings highneſſe of his bountious liberalitie by authoritie of this preſent parlement, granteth and fréelie giueth vnto his ſaid ſpirituall ſubiects, and their ſaid miniſters, that is to ſaie, to the ſaid archbiſhop, and all other the ſaid biſhops, ſuffragans, prelats, abbats, priors, conuents, abbeſſes, prioreſſes, nuns, and ſpirituall perſons in dignitie, and all other religions and ſpirituall perſons, deans, chapters, prebendaries, canons, pettie canons, vicars, chorals, & clerks, archdecons, maiſters, prouoſts, preſidents, wardens, fellows, brethren, ſchollers, preſts ſpirituall conducts, chancellors, vicars, generall of dioceſſes, commiſſaries, officials, deans, rurals, iudges, aduocats, regiſters, ſcribes, proctors, and apparators, bodies corporat, and politike bodies ſpirituall, parſons, vicars, curats, chantrie prieſts, ſtipendaries, and to all other perſons ſpirituall men and women of the clergie or ſpiritualtie of the ſaid prouince, and to euerie of them, all ſuch goods, chattels, fines, iſſues, profits, amerciaments, forfeitures, and ſums of monie, by anie of them forfeited, which to his highneſſe, doo or ſhould belong or apperteine, by reaſon of anie offenſe, contempt, miſdemeanor, treſpaſſe, matter, cauſe, or quarrell, ſuffered, done, or committed, by them or anie of them, before the ſaid tenth daie of March, which be not héereafter ſpeciallie and plainlie forepriſed and excepted in this preſent act of pardon. And that all and euerie of the ſaid ſpirituall ſubiects, and their ſaid miniſters, and all & euerie of the ſaid bodies corporat, & other perſons before named, may by himſelfe, or his or their atturnie or atturnies, according to the lawes of this relme, plead and miniſter this preſent act and frée pardon, for his or their diſcharge of and for euerie thing that is thereby pardoned, without anie fée or other thing therefore in any wiſe paieng to anie perſon or perſons, for pleading, writing, or entrée of iudgement, or for anie other cauſe concerning the ſame, but onelie twelue penſe to the clerke that ſhall enter the plée, matter, or iudgement, for his or their diſcharge in that behalfe, anie ſtatute or vſe to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And furthermore, the kings highneſſe is contented that it be enacted, by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that his ſaid frée pardon in all maner courts of his lawes and elſewhere, ſhall be reputed, déemed, iudged, allowed and taken, as well in the words and clauſes of the exceptions and forepriſes ſpecified in this preſent pardon and act, as in all and ſingular the other clauſes, words, and ſentences, mentioned and rehearſed in the ſaid frée pardon, moſt beneficiallie and auaileablie to all and ſingular his ſaid ſubiects, and to euerie of the ſaid bodies corporat, and politike bodies ſpirituall, and to euerie perſon ſpirituall of the ſaid clergie and ſpiritualtie, and to their ſaid miniſters and officers, and to all other perſons aforenamed, and to euerie of them, and to the ſucceſſors, heires, executors and adminiſtrators of euerie of them, and moſt ſtronglie in bar and diſcharge againſt his highneſſe, his heires, ſucceſſors, & executors, in euerie thing, without obſtacle, challenge, or other delaie, whatſoeuer it be, to be made, pleaded, obiected, or alleged, by the king our ſoueraigne lord, his heires, ſucceſſors, or executors, or by his or anie of their generall atturnie or atturnies, or by anie other perſon or perſons, for his highneſſe or anie of his heires, ſucceſſors, or executors.

And furthermore it is enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if any officer or clerke of any of his high courts, commonlie called the kings bench, chancerie, and common place, or of his excheker, or anie other officer or clerke, of anie other of his courts within his realme, after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, make out, or write out, anie maner of writs, or other proceſſe, or anie extracts or other precepts, whereby anie perſon or perſons of his ſaid ſubiects, or anie of the ſaid bodies corporat, or politike bodies ſpirituall, or anie of them, ſhall be in anie wiſe arreſted, attached, diſtreined, ſummoned, or otherwiſe vexed, troubled or gréeued, in his or their bodies, lands, tenements, goods, or chattels, or in anie of them, for or bicauſe of anie maner of thing, acquited, pardoned, releaſed, or diſcharged, by this preſent act of frée pardon, he ſo offending, and thereof lawfullie condemned, ſhall yéeld & paie for recompenſe thereof to the partie ſo gréeued or offended, treble damages, accounted as parcell of thoſe damages, all coſts of the ſute. And neuertheleſſe, all & ſingular ſuch writs, proceſſe, extracts, & precepts, after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next comming, to be made for or vpon anie maner thing, acquited, pardoned, releaſed and diſcharged, by this preſent act of frée pardon, ſhall be vtterlie void and of none effect.

Excepted alwaies and forepriſed out of this pardon, all maner of high treaſons, all pretenſed and voluntarie murders, all robberies of churches, and robberies done vpon or to mens perſons, all other felonies and robberies by the common law, of felonious taking of monie, goods, & chattels aboue the value of xx.s. all felonious burning of houſes,all carnall rauiſhments of women, all raſing of records,all outlawries of high treaſons,and of all maner of felonies, other than felonies to the ſaid value of xx.s. or vnder that ſum. And that all other outlawries had or promulgate vpon or againſt anie of the kings ſaid ſubiects, for anie cauſe not being treaſon, murther, or felonie,aboue the ſaid ſum of xx. s. to be pardoned by the generall words of this pardon aforeſaid. So alwaies that the ſame ſaid ſubiects,and euerie of them,ſo being outlawed,ſtand to right to anſwer or ſatiſfie the partie,at whoſe ſute he is outlawed,according to the lawes of this realme.

Alſo excepted and forepriſed out of this pardon, all titles and actions of Quare impedit, and titles of preſentations, donations, and collations, to benefices and other promotions ſpirituall, which the king our ſoueraigne lord hath, or is intituled to haue, other than be growne, ſhould, or might grow vnto our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, by force or meane of anie ſtatute or ſtatutes, or prouiſors,prouiſions,or premunire.

And alſo excepted and forepriſed out of this pardon, all rauiſhments of the kings wards, all waſts of the kings woods,in his forreſts,parks,and chaſes, all concealments of cuſtoms and ſubſidies,all riots,routs,& vnlawfull aſſemblies,committed & done aboue the number of xx.perſons.

And alſo excepted all maner of alienations and gifts into mortmain,& all alienations, gifts, aſſignements,wils,& limitations of vſes of anie manors,lands,tenements, rents, annuities,and other hereditaments,to the vſe of anie maner mortmain,and all intruſions,had,made,or done,in or into anie manors,lands,tenements,or other hereditaments,ſithens the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God,in the xxii.yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord. And alſo all offenſes committed and done by digging downe or caſting downe of anie croſſe or croſſes, which ſtood,or were ſet in any common or high waie or waies.And all & ſingular debts,other than debts growne vpon recogniſances,being alredie forfeited for ſuertie of the peace,or for apparance at anie day or place.

And excepted and forepriſed out of this pardon,all accounts,and all actions,ſutes, and impoſitions for the ſame accounts, and arrerages of accounts,and for the ſaid debts or anie of them herby excepted and forepriſed, all homages and releefs, all wilfull eſcapes, as well of conuicts as of other perſons,debts which were due to the moſt noble king of famous memorie king Henrie the ſeauenth,or to anie perſon or perſons to his vſe,by anie condemnation, recognizance, obligation, or otherwiſe,all and ſingular thoſe forfeitures due to our ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, by anie penall ſtatute or ſtatutes,which be conuerted into the nature of debt, by iudgement, or by agréement of the offendors, before the ſaid tenth daie of March: and all forfeitures and other penalties and profits, growne or due, by reaſon of anie offenſe or act, committed or done contrarie to anie ſtatute or ſtatutes,or contrarie to the common law,whereof any ſeizor is made,or anie information giuen into the kings excheker, or anie ſute commenſed before the ſaid tenth daie of March,or whereof the kings highneſſe by his bill aſſigned, or otherwiſe hath made anie gift or other aſſignement to anie of his ſeruants,other than ſuch actions,ſutes, forfeitures, penalties, and profits, growne or due, which might grow or be due to the kings highneſſe, by reaſon of anie offenſe,contempt,or act,committed or done contrarie to the ſaid ſtatute of prouiſors prouiſions,and premunire,or anie of them.

And alſo excepted all iſſues,forfeited fines and amerciaments, affeered, taxed,ſet, extreted or iudged,ſeuerallie or particularlie, extending aboue the ſum of ſix pounds. And that all and ſingular other fines,as well fines Pro licentia concordandi, as other, and all other iſſues and amerciaments,aſwell reall as other,forfeited before the ſaid tenth daie of March, which ſeuerallie or particularlie extend not aboue the ſaid ſum of ſix pounds,whether they be totted or not totted, taken to the charge of the ſhiriffe,or not taken to his charge,extreated or not extreated,whether they be turned into debt or not debt,& not being leuied nor receiued by anie ſhirif or ſhirifs,bailifs,miniſters or other officers,ſhall be fullie,cléerelie,& plainlie pardoned and diſcharged to euerie of the kings ſubiects before rehearſed,againſt the king our ſoueraigne lord,his heires and ſucceſſors for euer.

And it is further enacted, by authoritie aforeſaid, that in caſe it be obiected to anie ſhiriffe or ſhirifs,or other accountants in the kings court of his excheker,or in anie other his courts, that anie ſhiriffe or ſhirifs,or other officers accountants,hath or haue, receiued, or taken, anie ſuch fines, iſſues,or amerciaments before pardoned, releaſed, or acquited: that then euerie ſuch ſhiriffe and ſhirifs,and other accountants,ſhall be diſcharged, releaſed, pardoned and acquited thereof, by his or their oth,without anie further triall in that behalfe.

Prouided alwaie, that this act of frée pardon ſhall not extend or be in anie wiſe beneficiall to anie clerke or other perſon of the ſaid clergie or ſpiritualtie, being the ſaid tenth daie of March in the cuſtodie of the ſaid archbiſhop, or for anie other ordinarie of the ſaid prouince, as a perſon attainted or conuicted by the lawes of this realme,of anie murder, felonie,or other crime or offenſe, for or concerning deliuerance out of the conuict perſon, till that he ſhall haue made his purgation according to the lawes or cuſtoms vſed in that behalfe,or that he be therof diſcharged by the kings pardon,or other lawfull meane.

Prouided alſo,that this act of pardon,ſhall not extend nor be preiudiciall to the king our ſoueraigne lord,his heires or ſucceſſors,in anie thing concerning or touching his right and title of diſſolution of the college, being in the vniuerſitie of Oxenford, commonlie called the Cardinals college,which was latelie founded by the late reuerend father in God, Thomas late cardinall and archbiſhop of Yorke,nor concerning the kings right & title to the ſute of the ſame college. Nor ſhall extend, or be in anie wiſe beneficiall or auaileable to the deane and canons of the ſame college, or anie of them, in anie thing concerning the kings rights and titles, in all manors, lordſhips, lands, and tenements, aduouſons, churches, parſonages, and other hereditaments of the ſaid college, or anie of them.

Anno viceſimo quarto Henrici octaui, by prorogation at Weſtminſter the fourth daie of Februarie, and continued till the ſeuenth daie of Aprill following.

An act concerning true tanning and currieng of lether.

The firſt chapter.

FOraſmuch as great multitude of hides and tanned lether is vntrulie, inſufficientlie, and deceiuablie tanned, curried, and wrought within this realme, and much more exceeding in the priſes than haue beene at anie time heeretofore, by reaſon whereof the kings poore ſubiects be greatlie hindred and decaied, and few of them can go or ride drie, either in ſhooes or boots, nor haue anie good or ſtrong horſſe harneſſe of lether, ne anie induring ſaddles, males, or budgets, ne anie other things made of tanned lether, to their great damage, loſſe, and hinderance. And notwithſtanding, diuerſe good ſtatutes haue beene made for the true currieng and tanning of lether, and ſearch of the ſame: yet neuertheleſſe the tanners dailie ſell their lether in their owne dwelling houſes, or in their ſecret places and houſes out of the common faires or markets: by reaſon whereof the ſame lether is vnſearched, and for the moſt part wrought in the neceſſaries among the kings poore ſubiects, to their great damage. For reformation whereof be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all and ſingular eſtatutes heeretofore made concerning the tanners and curriers, and cordwainers, and euerie of them, their myſteries and occupations, and the myſteries and occupations of euerie of them, ſtanding in force and not repelled nor expired, ſhall be and ſtand in their full ſtrength, force, and effect, according to the tenors and purports of the ſame.

Continuation.

And to the intent that due and plaine ſearch maie be had of tanned lether before it be put to ſale, be it enacted, that no perſon or perſons from the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God 1533, ſhall put anie tanned lether to ſale, within the citie of London, nor within three miles compaſſe of the ſame, vnleſſe it be brought into open market at Leaden hall in London, or elſe in anie the faires holden within the ſaid citie, or elſewhere without the ſaid citie, within the ſaid three miles compaſſe: and there be ſearched and marked by ſuch that haue the ſearch thereof, as hath beene accuſtomed, vpon paine to forfeit the value of euerie hide or parcell of lether, tanned and ſold after the ſaid feaſt, contrarie to this act. Nor that anie perſon or perſons, vpon like paine put anie tanned lether to ſale, out of the ſaid market of Leaden hall, and out of the faires kept within the ſaid citie, and three miles compaſſe thereof, in anie other place or places of this realme, but onelie in open faires or markets, holden and kept within anie part of this realme: the one halfe of ſuch forfeiture, if it be within the citie of London, or within three miles compaſſe thereof, to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other halfe thereof to the wardens of the fellowſhip of the cordwainers within the ſame citie, or to the wardens of the felowſhip of the ſadlers, girdlers, curriers, or anie other of the kings ſubiects in the ſaid citie, that is to ſaie, to ſuch of the ſaid wardens or kings ſubiects, that ſhall firſt ſue for the ſame, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in anie of the kings courts, in which ſute, no eſſoine, protection, ne wager of law ſhall be admitted.

Forfeit.

And if the ſaid forfeiture happen to be out of the ſaid citie, and out of the ſaid three miles compaſſe, then the one moitie of ſuch penaltie to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other moitie thereof to the maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs, of cities, boroughs, and townes corporat, and lords of leets, within whoſe iuriſdiction or authoritie anie ſuch forfeiture ſhall happen to be recouered by like action and ſute, and after like maner as is aboueſaid: and for lacke of ſo doing, that then it ſhall be lawfull for anie of the kings ſubiects, to haue power and authoritie in the ſuing therefore. And where it is commonlie vſed, that a print, ſeale, or marke, ſhould be ſet and put by the ſearchers of tanned lether, or by ſuch as take vpon them the ſearch or ſealing of the ſame, vpon euerie hide well and ſufficientlie tanned, before the ſealing thereof, to the intent that the goodneſſe thereof, by the ſame ſhould be knowne to the buiers thereof.

Which marke or print, for corruption and lucre, is commonlie ſet and put by ſuch as take vpon them the ſearch and ſealing, as well vpon lether inſufficientlie tanned, as vpon lether well tanned, to the great deceipt of the buiers thereof: be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, taking vpon him or them, the ſearch making, or ſealing of anie ſuch tanned lether,which do put or ſet any marke or ſeale,or print vpon any hide or peece of lether,not being well and ſufficientlie tanned,ſhall loſe and forfeit iij.s. iiij d.for euerie hide or péece of lether,that he or they ſhall ſo marke,ſeale,or put anie print vnto, not being ſufficientlie tanned: the one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other moitie thereof to ſuch as will ſue for the ſame,by originall writ of debt,bill,plaint,or information. In which action or ſute,no wager of law,eſſoine,or protection ſhall be allowed or admitted.

Forfeit.

And albeit it is ordeined and enacted,by the ſtatute made in the third yéere of our ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight,that the wardens and fellowſhip of the craft of curriers,within the ſaid citie of London,and their ſucceſſors, or their ſufficient deputie or deputies, ſhould haue the ſearch of tanned lether,within the ſaid citie and the ſuburbs of the ſame,and in other places next adioining,expreſſed in the ſaid act,as by the ſame act more at large is declared : yet neuertheles in other cities,boroughs,towns corporat,markets,& faires,there be no ſearchers appointed,by reaſon thereof,no perſon will put anie diligence to the ſame,vnles ſome authoritie may be giuen in ÿ behalfe.

Continuation.

It is therefore enacted,by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſame act made in the ſaid third yéere of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord,concerning ſearch of tanned lether within the ſaid citie of London,and other places expreſſed in the ſame act,ſhall ſtill ſtand and abide in full ſtrength and vertue,with all and ſingular the prouiſions thereunto annexed.

And ouer that be it enacted,that all maiors,ſhirifs,bailifs,and other chéefe gouernors of other cities,boroughs,and townes corporat,and lords of faires and markets within their liberties,franchiſes,iuriſdiction and authorities,and euerie of them, ſhall from henſefoorth haue power and authoritie,to name & appoint two ſuch of the craft of cordwainers or curriers, or one of the one craft and another of the other craft, as they ſhall thinke moſt conuenient and expert in the ſaid occupations,to view and ſearch all tanned lether brought to be ſold to anie markets or faires, kept within anie liberties,franchiſes,iuriſdictions,or authorities, and to make ſearch thereof trulie and dulie,without fauour,affection,or corruption. And where as none of the ſaid two crafts be inhabited, that then it ſhalbe lawfull to the lords,maiors,or other officers, as is aforeſaid,to elect and appoint ſuch other of the kings ſubiects, as be moſt expert in knowledge of tanned lether: and ſuch as they ſhall find ſufficient,to put a marke or a point thereunto.

And that no perſon or perſons,ſhall put tanned lether to ſale,in anie faire or market, before it be viewed,ſearched,and marked,vpon paine to loſe and forfeit for euerie hide of tanned lether, put to ſale contrarie to this act,twentie penſe.

And it is alſo enacted,that aſwell the moitie of the ſaid forfeiture, as the moitie of all forfeitures and penalties,made or limited by anie other ſtatute or ſtatutes héeretofore made,for or concerning tanned lether,ſhall be to the king our ſoueraigne lord,and the other moitie thereof to be to the maiors,ſhirifs,bailifs, or other chéefe gouernors of ſuch cities, boroughs, or townes corporat, and to the lords of the faires or markets,or anie other the kings ſubiects,within whoſe iuriſdictions ſuch cauſe of forfeiture or penaltie ſhall be found,that is to ſaie,to ſuch of them as ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame,if they take their ſute for ſuch forfeiture within ſix moneths next after ſuch forfeiture ſhall happen : and if they do not, then to be to ſuch of the kings ſubiects, that will ſue for the ſame. And euerie ſuch perſon and perſons,as ſhall be intituled to haue ſuch forfeiture, ſhall haue an action of debt for the ſame, ſo that they commenſe and take their ſute or action within halfe a yeare next after the ſaid ſix moneths,by writ,bill,plaint,or information,in which action or ſute,no wager of law,eſſoine,protection,or priuilege ſhall be allowed.

Curriers.

And albeit that lether be well and ſufficientlie tanned,yet neuertheleſſe the curriers, for their owne ſingular lucre and aduantage,ſo corrupt the ſaid lether, with water and other ſubtill waies and means,that it is verie vnprofitable for the exerciſe of the kings ſubiects : it is therefore enacted,that euerie currier,ſhall well and ſufficientlie currie and blacke the ſaid lether tanned,as well the lether of others to him brought to be curried as his owne lether,exerciſing in his ſaid myſterie of currieng tallow and ſuch other things, as to and for the true and iuſt currieng of lether apperteineth,without fraud or deceit, and not craftilie to burne ne ſparche the ſaid lether, ne vſe inſufficient ſtuffe of tallow or oile, vpon paine to loſe and forfeit for euerie hide or péece of lether, that anie currier ſhall craftilie,deceitfullie,or inſufficientlie currie,contrarie to this act, thrée ſhillings foure penſe. The one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other halfe to ſuch as ſhall find the default.And ſuch as ſhall be intituled to the ſaid forfeiture, ſhall haue an action of debt for the ſame by writ, bill, plaint, or information in anie of the kings courts: in which action or ſute, none eſſoine, protection, priuilege, nor wager of law ſhall be allowed or admitted.

Iuſtices of peace.

And be it enacted,that the iuſtices of the peace in euerie ſhire, citie and towne corporat, within the limits of their commiſſions and authorities, ſhall haue power & authoritie,to inquire, heare and determine euerie offenſe héereafter to be done or committed,contrarie to this act, as well by information as by preſentment afore them, and to make ſuch proceſſe vpon euerie preſentment, as they commonlie do vpon indictments of treſpaſſe.

Serchers.

And to the intent that the ſaid ſearchers ſhall giue their attendance and diligence in true execution of this act.Be it therefore enacted by authoritie aforeſaid,that the ſaid ſearcher or ſearchers, from time to time,ſhall & maie take for euerie ten péeces of tanned lether,ſo by him or them, ſearched,viewed,and marked,as is aforeſaid,for his or their paine taken therein,one penie & no more:
